And is the present policy of the United States towards Italy not characteristic in this respect in connection with the approaching elections of April 18. What measures are being undertaken by the Government of the U. S. A. only to achieve to maximum extent the desired by them results in these elections! There are promises and threats, whip and cake. It is secret to no one, indeed, that the United States are employing in the case of Italy the policy of rude pressure and blackmail.

Who commands at its discretion the present Government in Greece? Who exercises complete control over domestic and foreign policy of that Government, which as is known, has not had its own policy since long ago. It is known all over the world that this is being done by the ruling circles of the United States, guided by their selfish military, strategic and commercial interests.

Every parrot in the United States can tell you about it.

Isn't it an absurdity in the light of all these facts to assert as if the changes in the Government of Czechoslovakia were the result of interference on the part of the Soviet Union.

The shouts about this alleged interference grow more intensive when the United States and their junior partner—Great Britain—use or are going to use the crudest and barest methods of interference in the internal affairs of other countries up to the open intervention which is being carried out, for instance, in Greece, before the eyes of the whole world.

Charges "Stop Thief" Method

They try to cover up their own expansion with the wail about the Soviet interference in the internal affairs of other countries. This is an old and well-known method, "Stop thief."

They are in need of fishing out old rubbish taken from the Goebbels' kitchen of propaganda, who, as is known, had always tried to intimidate everybody, including the German people, by the Soviet Union, by communism.

They see red painted specters even in their dreams. Not in a dream, in reality they regard as a Communist every honest person uttering even a single word about the necessity of improving relations, for example, between the United States and the Soviet Union. They send to jails the people demanding the improvement of relations with the Soviet Union and unmasking the plans of warmongers.

[Anglo-American] policy, lately carried out under the label of the so-called Marshall Plan, is the policy of expansion. It is based on the tendency to subjugate the economy and policy of other European countries to the economic needs and policy of the United States and partly of Great Britain. I am saying partly because it is not yet known what Great Britain, being drawn into the orbit of American policy, would look like after some period of time. It is quite possible that the British Lion will soon miss its tail, maybe its legs, and maybe even its head.

It is well known, that the revival of the industrial power of Western Germany, i.e., the increase of the war potential of Germany, is an organic and component part of this Anglo-American policy. This is certainly being done not in the interest of the German people, and, moreover, not in the interests of other European peoples, who suffered from the Hitlerite aggression. This is being accomplished in the interests of American imperialism, which imagined itself to be a suzerain in respect to European countries.

It is well known to every one that in those questions which should be considered by the organization, and particularly by the Security Council, the United States has ignored this organization. It ignored the UNO while deciding the question of rendering the so-called aid to Greece and Turkey—the aid for which the Greek people pay with its blood, because under the pretext of aid the United States has organized intervention in Greece, converting her into its military-strategic base.

War equipment and military missions of the United States are being sent to Turkey too. This country, like Greece, more and more falls under the American control.

The stand of the United States on the Czechoslovakian question can be appraised correctly only if we consider it in connection with the USA policy on a series of other questions, particularly, if we compare it with the USA policy on the question of the so-called "veto," with the American undertaking on the creation of the Interim Committee and with their proposals creating various illegal and utterly unjustified U. N. commissions on investigation, etc.

All this represents separate segments of the whole coolly calculated plan, which cannot but undermine the United Nations organization, discredit this organization and, first of all, the Security Council, which has to bear primary responsibility for maintenance of international peace.

Mr. Austin

Today the distinguished representative of the Soviet Union interprets the conduct of the United States as crude interference in the internal affairs of other countries and other states; as blackmail and bribery; even charges of incitement to treason against Czechoslovakia by the United States.

If we, the United States, are willing to recognize a semblance of truth in these charges, I affirm that it could not convince the unfortunate and unhappy people of Czechoslovakia that the charges against the rulers of the Soviet Union are spurious. The poor people of Czechoslovakia were not redeemed from bondage by being told that other peoples have suffered from indirect aggression.

However, such fantastic stories about the United States have been told throughout my attendance upon the General Assemblies and Security Council meetings of the United Nations. And it has always been obvious to all the world why such statements were made and that they are propaganda of the arbitrary rulers of the Russian people. They have not changed any since the first time they were uttered. They are just the same as ever and they are unworthy of a detailed answer.

The main point that interests us as a responsible body of this great international institution is to apply the test to such conduct that it deserves and ask the question: Wherein do you find any answer whatever to the charges that are revealed here, that the Soviet Union has reduced the good people of Czechoslovakia to slavery; that their great system of democracy has been turned topsy-turvy; and that their economic structure has been so disrupted already that freedom of acquiring and holding property is now destroyed?

Some Comparisons Offered

Probably the representative of the Ukraine has not been in so favorable a position as the doormen and the cowboys of the United States of America. I am certain that the distinguished representative of Russia does not have the opportunity that the very well-informed taxi driver in the city of Washington or in the city of New York has to have knowledge about the external affairs of the United States.

But his comment, which was intended to be witty, operates as a great compliment to the democratic system of the United States, in which taxi drivers and doormen and cowboys can know and have something to say about the external affairs of their beloved country.

Now, there is one witness—that is, he might be a witness—of the actual facts in Czechoslovakia. He represents the present rulers of the inhabitants of Czechoslovakia and I don't see him sitting here at this horseshoe.

I assume the Czechoslovakian representative will say that we are dealing with a domestic matter, but how does he explain the coincidence of the arrival in Prague of Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Zorin immediately preceding the crisis? Members of the Council will realize that it was not in character for a Deputy Foreign Minister of the Soviet Union to travel to other countries on business such as distribution of wheat. On the contrary, it is customary for representatives of satellite states to be summoned peremptorily to Moscow. Also, members of the Council will recall a similar arrival of another Deputy Foreign Minister of the Soviet Union, Mr. Vishinsky, in Bucharest at the time developments occurred in Rumania, not at all unlike those which we are now discussing in Czechoslovakia.

The [Zorin] visit is in sharp contrast to the procedure at the time the Czechoslovakian Government was forced to reverse itself in the matter of participating in the European Recovery Program conference in Paris. This talk about the desire for economic independence does not fit the facts as the Security Council knows them. At that time the Prime Minister and Foreign Minister of Czechoslovakia were summoned to Moscow.

In the light of that occurrence and the humiliating reversal of position which the Czechoslovakian Goverment was forced to announce, can the Czechoslovakian representative assert that his country has been free from external pressure? Can he assert, as the representative of the Soviet Union asserted today, that their failure to cooperate in the European Recovery Plan was of their own volition, when the great democratic government that preceded these rulers chose to enter into the arrangement with the other representative countries and then were forced to reverse their course?

Also we have heard the statement that the Czechoslovakian Government has been forced to relinquish all control over the uranium mines in Czechoslovakia, and we have heard the statement that no Czech is allowed to have anything to do with the operation of these mines. If this is true, the Council is entitled to hear the Czechoslovakian representative attempt to reconcile this situation with the position that there has been no foreign pressure on Czechoslovakia.

Wants Questions Answered

We would be glad to have information concerning the charges which have been made before us. Do the inhabitants of Czechoslovakia welcome the domination of Russian-trained officials? Is every influential citizen of Czechoslovakia regarded as a traitor or as "a person who betrayed his country," solely because he deviates from the ideas of the present officials ruling the inhabitants?

It is charged that President Benes has been prevented from speaking to the people of Czechoslovakia and that three separate speeches prepared by him were censored by the present rulers of the people. It would be useful to know whether this statement is accurate and if so the reasons for the decision of the Government to refuse the President facilities for making these speeches publicly. If these allegations are not true, it would be helpful if some explanation could be given to the Security Council as to why the President has not made a statement to his people at this time of crisis.

Czechoslovakia was a nation which understood democracy, and a country in which democratic principles and procedures prevailed. If, as the Czechoslovakian representative has asserted to the press, the recent developments were spontaneous internal developments, how can he reconcile that assertion with actions which were taken by the Communist minority, such as breaking up meetings of other established parties, the arrest of opposition political leaders, the expulsion from universities of well known professors, the imposition of a complete censorship of the press and radio of the country?

Why have editors of leading Czechoslovakian papers disappeared; why have leaders in all walks of Czechoslovakian life fled; why have a number of Czechoslovakian diplomatic representatives abroad resigned; why did the Foreign Minister of Czechoslovakia commit suicide; and, I repeat, why has the President of Czechoslovakia remained silent?

Too much happened which is not in character with the Czechoslovakian people and Czechoslovakian tradition. Too much has happened which bears a striking similarity to what happened in other countries for the Security Council to be satisfied with perfunctory or categorical denials or with further red herrings. The Council deserves and should receive from the Chechoslovakian representative the fullest explanation with respect to the points which I have raised. We should also hear what the representative of the Soviet Union has to say as to these points.

The Security Council should realize that grave charges have been made, charges to which it cannot close its eyes. The Security Council should, therefore, consider these charges in all of their aspects. All sides of the case should be heard.

No member should draw conclusions prematurely or lightly. Certainly my Government does not intend to do so. The Council should realize, furthermore, that if these charges should be established they would constitute a case of indirect aggression. The United Nations would then be called upon to develop effective collective measures designed for the preservation of the territorial integrity and political independence of states, however small.

Whether the charges are traversed or admitted, my Government's position is to support continued consideration by the Security Council aimed at saving other peoples from indirect aggression.

Loan Pact On Financing U. N. Building Signed

New York, March 23 (AP)—Representatives of the United States and the United Nations signed today an agreement calling for a $65,000,000 loan to finance construction of United Nations headquarters here.

The loan agreement now must be approved by the United States Senate and House of Representatives before the money will be turned over to the United Nations and construction of headquarters on New York's East Side can begin.

The interest-free loan must be repaid fully by 1982. The first payment of $1,000,000 would be in 1952. Installments would increase to a maximum of $2,500,000 by 1960 and then taper off.

Jewish Groups Plan Partition Campaign

New York, March 23 (AP)—Mobilization of Jewish groups throughout the country to fight against abandonment of the Palestine-partition policy was planned yesterday by the American Zionist Emergency Council.

The council said April 8 has been selected as a day of mobilization and prayer in protest of the United States decision to drop partition.

Donovan Cautions Italian Workers

New York, March 23 (AP)—William J. Donovan told Italians by shortwave radio yesterday that if a Communist dictatorship were established there millions of Italian workers would be deported to Russia for forced labor.

Many Italian industrial plants would be dismantled and shipped to Russia, said Donovan, wartime major general and head of the United States Office of Strategic Forces.

Donovan, whose remarks were translated into Italian, spoke over the facilities of WRUL, a station of the World Wide Broadcasting Foundation. Several messages from Italy reported he was heard there distinctly.

Letters To Italy Increase

The talk came at a time when the State Department announced that its "Voice of America" transmissions to Italy would be increased in view of the elections April 18, in which the Communists are making a bid for control.

Indication that more Italian-Americans are writing to relatives and friends in Italy urging them to vote anti-Communist was reported yesterday.

Airmail to that country dispatched from here has more than doubled in the past few days, and postal officials said they believe the load is composed largely of expressions of anti-Communist views.

New York Postmaster Albert Goldman said the daily volume is as high as 114,000 pieces. Most airmail for Italy leaves New York.

Mother On Way To Join Son Dies As Ship Arrives

New York, March 23 (AP)—Death stepped in today to kill the joy of reunion between a 68-year-old Kassel (Germany) woman and her ex-GI son.

Mrs. Maria Dente collapsed at a porthole of the Marine Jumper while looking at New York's skyline.

A few minutes later the ship's surgeon said she was dead. The cause was a heart condition probably aggravated by "undue excitement," he said.

When Mrs. Dente died only minutes separated the ship from the pier, where her son, Walter, and his wife, of Franklin Square, were waiting. Dente said he had been trying for three years to get his widowed mother to come to the United States, but that she had declined until "suddenly last July she changed her mind."

Ship's officers said the vessel was three days behind its schedule because of extremely rough weather. Aboard were 600 passengers.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24-(AP)-DESPITE SOME SCATTERED OPPOSITION, THE HOUSE OF COMMONS EARLY TODAY PASSED THE PALESTINE BILL EMBODYING BRITAIN'S DECISION TO GET OUT OF THE WAR-INFLAMED HOLY LAND.

THE WEARY MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT VOTED SHORTLY AFTER 3 A.M. IN THE PRECEDING DEBATE FOREIGN MINISTER ERNEST BEVIN AND COLONIAL SECRETARY ARTHUR CREECH-JONES JOINED IN STRESSING BRITAIN'S DETERMINATION TO DROP ITS MANDATE MAY 15. THEY SAID THIS DETERMINATION WAS UNDIMINISHED BY THE UNITED STATES' WITHDRAWAL OF ITS SUPPORT FOR PARTITION.

"THE QUICKER WE GET OUT THE BETTER," BEVIN SAID.

SPEARHEADING THE LAST DITCH STRUGGLE AGAINST THE BILL, LABORITE MICHAEL FOOT TOLD THE HOUSE "WE ARE PASSING A BILL WHICH IS IRRELEVANT AND WHICH IS NOT GOING TO LAST FOR TWO MONTHS."

LABORITE V.N. WARBEY SAID THE HOUSE WAS BURYING 20 YEARS OF LABOR PARTY PLEDGES TO JEWS "AND SOME PART OF THE HONOR OF THIS COUNTRY."

WARBEY ALSO WARNED "ALONG WITH THE OTHER GREAT POWERS, IF WE ARE NOT VERY CAREFUL, WE SHALL BE BURYING THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE BILL NOW GOES TO THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

LONDON, MARCH 23-(AP)-THE FOREIGN OFFICE REPORTED TODAY THE BRITISH CABINET HAS CONFIRMED A DECISION TO SURRENDER THE PALESTINE MANDATE ON MAY 15 AND TO WITHDRAW ALL BRITISH TROOPS BY AUG.1.

HE SAID IT HAD NOT CONSIDERED IN DETAIL THE SUGGESTION BY WARREN AUSTIN, U.S. DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, THAT A TEMPORARY TRUSTEESHIP BE CREATED TO REPLACE THE PLAN TO SPLIT THE HOLY LAND INTO JEWISH AND ARAB COUNTRIES.

HE SAID THE CABINET WANTED MORE DETAILS BEFORE COMMITTING ITSELF ONE WAY OR THE OTHER.

IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION, THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE DENIAL DOES NOT RULE OUT THE POSSIBILITY BEVIN WILL CHANGE HIS PLANS LATER AND DECIDE UPON WASHINGTON CONSULTATIONS.

HE ADDED THAT THE BRITISH MINISTRY COULD NOT "PRESUME" TO SPEAK ABOUT BIDAULT'S PLANS BUT THAT HE KNEW OF NO INTENTION ON THE PART OF THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER TO GO TO THE UNITED STATES. more

FRENCH DIPLOMATIC QUARTERS SAID THE THREE MINISTERS WILL STUDY POSSIBLE U.S. MILITARY GUARANTEES TO THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION CREATED LAST WEEK BY GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

THESE QUARTERS SAID THEY ALSO WILL EXAMINE HOW THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY ORGANIZATION BEING CREATED HERE CAN BEST COOPERATE WITH THE AMERICAN MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATION. THE PLAN IS BASED ON A FIRST-YEAR U.S. GRANT OF $5,300,000,000 (B).

THE MARSHALL PLAN IS EXPECTED BY EUROPEANS TO BECOME LAW BY MID-APRIL. AN AMERICAN ADMINISTRATOR WILL BE APPOINTED. THE 16 MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS AND WESTERN GERMANY WILL HAVE ADOPTED THEIR PERMANENT ORGANIZATION BY THAT TIME. THE REMAINING ISSUE WILL BE HOW TO FIT THEM TOGETHER.

THE MINISTERS ALSO ARE EXPECTED TO DISCUSS HOW THE THREE WESTERN POWERS CAN BRING ABOUT THE RETURN OF TRIESTE TO ITALY, FRENCH INFORMANTS SAID.

SOME SOURCES SAID MARSHALL WANTS THE MINISTERS TO DELAY THEIR MEETING UNTIL AFTER THE ITALIAN ELECTIONS APRIL 18, REGARDED BY ALL SIDES AS A CRUCIAL TEST BETWEEN WESTERN DEMOCRACY AND COMMUNISM. SHOULD ITALY GO COMMUNIST, THE 16-NATION RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAM AND THE FIVE-NATION WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION COULD BE UPSET.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID BIDAULT ALSO HAD CONFIRMED "IN THE MOST ABSOLUTE MANNER THAT SHE WISHES TO GIVE TO ITALY THE ADMINISTRATION OF ERITREA SOMALILAND AND LIBYA," THREE FORMER ITALIAN COLONIES IN NORTH AFRICA.

FRANCE PREVIOUSLY HAD INDICATED WILLINGNESS TO LET ITALIAN ADMINISTRATION RETURN TO THE NORTH AFRICAN COLONIES. RUSSIA RECENTLY STATED A LIMILAR WILLINGNESS, AND THE UNITED STATES IS BELIEVED HERE TO BE READY TO GO ALONG. BRITAIN, HOWEVER, HAS SHOWN NO READINESS TO GO BACK ON A WAR-TIME PROMISE TO THE SENUSSI TRIBES OF CIRENAICA, THE EASTERN PART OF LIBYA, THAT THEY NEVER WOULD BE UNDER ITALIAN RULE AGAIN.

ONE ORATOR TOLD HIS GROUP, "IT IS TIME WE COME TO OUR SENSES. IT IS TIME WE GIVE AMERICA A HAND."

THE ORATORS STOPPED FROM TIME TO TIME TO HEAR THE LATEST NEWS FROM BLARING LOUSPEAKERS.

THE GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT ITALY WOULD NOT BARTER GORIZIA WAS REPEATED OVER THE LOUDSPEAKERS AND LOUDLY CHEERED.

THE RADIO AND LOUDSPEAKERS WERE THE ONLY WAY ITALIANS HAD OF GETTING NEWS. FOR THE SECOND DAY THEY WERE WITHOUT NEWSPAPERS AS THE RESULT OF A COMMUNIST-DIRECTED TYPOGRAPHERS STRIKE.

(IN BELGRADE TONIGHT, A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID THAT THE YUGOSLAV PROPOSAL HAD BEEN MISUNDERSTOOD. HE SAID THAT FOREIGN MINISTER STANOJE SIMIC HAD SAID YESTERDAY THAT YUGOSLAVIA WAS WILLING TO DISCUSS TRIESTE WITH ITALY "IN THE SAME SPIRIT" AS IN PREVIOUS TALKS WHICH HAD MENTIONED THE TRADE. HE ADDED THAT "THE SAME SPIRIT" DID NOT MEAN TO IMPLY NECESSARILY THE SAME TERMS.

(THE FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID THAT YUGOSLAVIA HAS NO SPECIFIC PROPOSAL IN MIND AT THE MOMENT.)

"IF THE CHURCH HAS GIVEN SUCH PRECISE DIRECTIVES AND HAS THREATENED SUCH SEVERE PENALTIES X X X, IT MEANS THAT IT HAS TO DO WITH A VERY GRAVE DANGER FOR RELIGION," THE LETTER SAID. COMMUNISM, HE CONCLUDED, IS "A RUTHLESS ENEMY OF RELIGION," AND THEREFORE THE CHURCH CONDEMNS IT.

COPENHAGEN, MARCH 23-(AP)-DENMARK HAS CANCELLED EASTER LEAVES FOR PART OF ITS MILITARY, IN THE WAKE OF WIDESPREAD THEFTS OF ARMS FROM HOME GUARD DEPOTS.

DEFENSE MINISTER RASMUS HANSEN SAID THE CANCELLATIONS APPLIED TO PART OF THE COUNTRY'S YOUNG MILITARY OFFICERS AND NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS. HE SAID ENLISTED MEN WOULD BE GIVEN THEIR USUAL FURLOUGHS.

ONE SOURCE SAID THE ORDER APPLIED TO ALL CADETS AND NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS.

ANOTHER SOURCE SAID THE LEAVES WERE SUSPENDED BEDAUSE OF "THE INTERNAL POLITICAL SITUATION."

GUARDS HAVE BEEN DOUBLED AT ALL MILITARY AND NAVAL ESTABLISHMENTS SINCE LAST SATURDAY.

DANISH POLICE HAVE REPORTED THEFTS OF WEAPONS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY. LAST NIGHT THEY SAID SEVEN SUBMACHINEGUNS, FIVE RIFLES AND SOME AMMUNITION WERE STOLEN FROM A DEPOT IN BROERUP, JUTLAND.

"THE PROSECUTION IS NOT SO MUCH CONCERNED WITH PROVING THE PERSONAL GUILT OF THESE DEFENDANTS AS WITH ATTACKING A SYSTEM. THIS ATTACK IS AIMED AT THE ENTIRE GERMAN INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM. IT IS CARRIED OUT WITH A DEFINITELY ANTI-CAPITALISTIC TENDENCY."

THE CHARGES AGAINST THE KRUPPS, SCHILF SAID, "BEAR A PAINFUL RESEMBLANCE TO OTHER CHARGES MADE BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS IN SEPTEMBER, 1947, BY RUSSIA'S MR.VISHINSKY. VISHINSKY DID NOT ASSAIL THE GERMAN CONCERNS OF FLICK, I.G.FARBEN OR KRUPP, BUT THE AMERICAN CAPITALISTIC MONOPOLISTIC COMBINES."

SECOND LEAD GERMAN
BY WES GALLAGHER

BERLIN, MARCH 23-(AP)-THE THREE WESTERN POWERS ANNOUNCED TONIGHT A COUNTER-.BOYCOTT OF SUB-COMMITTEE MEETINGS IN THE FOUR-POWER GOVERNMENT OF GERMANY TO MEET RUSSIAN MOVES IN THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL.

THE UNITED STATES INITIATED THE ACTION. THE BRITISH IMMEDIATELY TOOK THE SAME POSITION, AND A FRENCH SPOKESMAN SAID THE FRENCH HAD DECIDED TO JOIN.

THE RUSSIANS CALLED ON FOUR-POWER SUBCOMMITTEES ON TAXATION, CURRENCY REFORM AND CURRENCY PRINTING LATE TODAY TO MEET LATER THIS WEEK, THUS ENDING, TEMPORARILY AT LEAST, THEIR TWO-DAY BOYCOTT OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL GOVERNMENT.

TWO HOURS LATER, GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY, THE U.S. MILITARY GOVERNOR, NOTIFIED THE SOVIET UNION THE AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVES WOULD NOT ATTEND ANY SUBCOMMITTEE MEETING UNTIL THE RUSSIANS SET A DATE FOR ANOTHER MEETING OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL ITSELF.

THE AMERICAN ACTION IS EXPECTED TO FORCE A SHOWDOWN ON WHETHER RUSSIA INTENDS TO CONTINUE IN THE FOUR-POWER GOVERNMENT. WHILE OFFICIAL WORD WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE, THE BRITISH AND FRENCH WERE EXPECTED TO ASSOCIATE THEMSELVES WITH THE AMERICAN POSITION.

"WE ARE TIRED OF BEING PUSHED AROUND," A RANKING U.S. OFFICIAL SAID. "THE SOVIETS THINK THEY CAN CANCEL MEETINGS ON SUBJECTS THEY DO NOT WANT TO DISCUSS AND CALL MEETINGS ON SUBJECTS THEY WANT TO DISCUSS."

THIS OFFICIAL SAID THE U.S. WAS TAKING ITS ACTION TO FIND OUT WHETHER THE RUSSIANS INTEND TO CONTINUE FOUR POWER NEGOTIATIONS, OR WHETHER THE SOVIETS ARE CALLING JUST SPECIFIC MEETINGS OF CERTAIN COMMITTEES TO SUIT THEIR OWN ENDS OR PROPAGANDA MEANS.

AMERICANS SAID THAT RUSSIAN MARSHAL VASSILY SOKOLOVSKY, IN ABRUPTLY ADJOURNING MEETINGS OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL LAST FRIDAY WITHOUT SETTING A NEW DATE, HAD DISRUPTED THE FOUR-POWER MACHINERY FOR GOVERNMENT.

SOKOLOVSKY IS CHAIRMAN THIS MONTH. HE IS SUPPOSED TO SET THE DATE OF THE NEXT MEETING IN CONSULTATION WITH THE U.S., BRITAIN AND FRANCE BEFORE ANY ADJOURNMENT. SOKOLOVSKY ON FRIDAY SIMPLY STAMPED FROM THE ROOM WITH THE ENTIRE RUSSIAN DELEGATION, LEAVING THE WESTERN REPRESENTATIVES SITTING AT THE TABLE.

"WE ARE GOING TO STAY AWAY FROM ANY COMMITTEE MEETINGS UNTIL THE RUSSIANS SET A DATE FOR A NEW MEETING OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL AND CLARIFY THEIR POSITION," AN AMERICAN OFFICIAL SAID.

THE RUSSIANS, AS MARCH CHAIRMEN, CANCELLED SEVEN SCHEDULED MEETINGS EARLIER IN THE DAY.

THEY CANCELLED NINE SUCH MEETINGS YESTERDAY. SATURDAY THEY ANGRILY WALKED OUT OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL ITSELF. THE THREE WESTERN POWERS SAT TIGHT, APPARENTLY WAITING TO SEE IF THE RUSSIAN ACTIONS MEAN A TOTAL AND FINAL BREAK IN THE FOUR-POWER ADMINISTRATION.

ONE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED NEWSPAPER, THE BERLINER ZEITUNG, INDICATED THAT GERMAN COMMUNISTS HOPE SOON TO REPLACE THE CONTROL COUNCIL WITH THEIR OWN ORGANIZATIONS--A GERMAN PEOPLE'S CONGRESS AND A PEOPLE'S COUNCIL.

ANTI-COMMUNIST PARTIES HAVE DENOUNCED THESE AGENCIES AS FRAUDS AND U.S. AND BRITISH OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES HAVE BANNED THEM ON THE SAME GROUNDS.

OTHER PAPERS IN BERLIN HEADLINED YESTERDAY'S STATEMENT BY GEN. LUCIUS D.CLAY, THE U.S. MILITARY GOVERNOR, THAT THE AMERICANS INTEND TO STAY IN BERLIN DESPITE ANY PRESSURE TO GET THE WESTERN ALLIES OUT OF THE CITY, WHICH IS IN THE HEART OF THE RUSSIAN ZONE.

HE SAID THERE WOULD BE NO WAR IN THE NEAR FUTURE.
FOR THE FIRST TIME IN RECENT CRITICAL WEEKS, DURING PRELIMINARY DISCUSSIONS ON THE PROPOSED RUSSIAN-FINNISH FRIENDSHIP PACT, PAASIKIVI GRANTED AN INTERVIEW TO FOUR AMERICAN REPORTERS YESTERDAY.
THE "OLD MAN IN THE PALACE" -- A TERM FINNS USE AFFECTIONATELY -- TALKED WITH OPTIMISM ABOUT THE FUTURE. HE SAID HE THOUGHT THERE MIGHT BE A LONG PERIOD OF COLD WAR, "BUT PEOPLES ARE NOT SO LIKELY TO BE INDUCED TO BEGIN A NEW WAR."
HE SEEMED RELAXED, NOW THAT WEEKS OF CONFERENCES WITH HIS AIDES OVER THE RUSSIAN PROPOSAL HAVE ENDED, AND THE FINNISH DELEGATION IS IN MOSCOW. THE GROUP GOT THERE YESTERDAY, HEADED BY FOREIGN MINISTER C.J.A. ENCKELL.
OF THE JULY ELECTIONS, HE HAD THIS TO SAY:
"WE WILL HAVE ELECTIONS IN THE LEGAL FASHION AND THERE WILL BE NO QUESTION OF POSTPONING THEM. WE ARE LIVING IN A COUNTRY UNDER LEGAL ORDER AND ACCORDING TO OUR CONSTITUTION. THE ELECTIONS WILL BE TOTALLY FREE AND THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE WILL BE THE DECIDING FACTOR."
OF RUMORS ABOUT WAR, HE COMMENTED:
"PERHAPS I AM A LITTLE NAIVE, BUT I DO NOT THINK THERE WILL BE ANY WAR IN THE NEAR FUTURE. SUCH WARS CANNOT BE STARTED FOUR OR FIVE YEARS AFTER THIS LAST GREAT WAR. COLD WAR, PERHAPS, WILL LAST. BUT PEOPLES ARE NOT SO LIKELY TO BE INDUCED TO BEGIN A NEW WAR."
HE SAID HE THOUGHT THE UNITED NATIONS HAD HAD A "BAD BEGINNING," BUT EXPRESSED HOPE IT WOULD HAVE SOME EFFECT FOR PEACE IN THE NEAR FUTURE. HE SAID HE THOUGHT MANKIND MIGHT SOON ENTER AN EPOCH OF PEACE.

HE EXPRESSED ANXIETY ABOUT THE PALESTINE PROBLEM, AND DECLINED TO DISCUSS FINNISH POLITICS IN ANY DETAIL, OR THE CURRENT NEGOTIATIONS IN MOSCOW. MAR 1948
FINLAND'S ECONOMIC FUTURE IN WORLD TRADE IS, HE SAYS, GOOD. HE EXPECTS NO DROP-OFF IN WESTERN TRADE.
"OUR EXPORTS (WOOD PRODUCTS, PAPER AND PULP) ARE SUCH THAT THE WORLD NEEDS THEM AND THERE IS NO LACK OF DEMAND FOR THEM," HE SAID.

HIS FAITH IN HIS COUNTRY HAS BEEN STEADFAST SINCE THE DAYS WHEN HE HELPED BUILD THE HARDY LITTLE REPUBLIC AFTER THE FIRST WORLD WAR.
TODAY HE IS THE DOMINATING FACTOR IN FINNISH POLITICS, ALTHOUGH HE BEGAN AS A RADICAL, SHIFTING THROUGH THE YEARS UNTIL HE AT ONE TIME LED THE CONSERVATIVES. NOW HE IS REGARDED AS BEING ABOVE PARTY POLITICS.
THE FINNS THINK THEIR BULKY, CROP-HAIRED PRESIDENT CAN FACE UP

TO THE RUSSIANS. AND THEY ARE CERTAIN HE WILL KEEP THE FINNISH END OF THE TREATY NEGOTIATIONS FIRMLY IN HIS CONTROL. THEY KNOW PAASIKIVI COMMANDS THE RESPECT OF THE RUSSIANS. HE IS ALSO HELPED IN DEALING WITH THEM BECAUSE HE SPEAKS THEIR LANGUAGE.

PAASIKIVI HAS A TEMPER WHICH FLARES UP SUDDENLY, BUT IT IS LEAVENED BY A SENSE OF HUMOR.

WHEN ONE OF THE FINNISH MEMBERS OF THE TREATY DELEGATION BALKED AT GOING TO MOSCOW, PAASIKIVI TOLD HIM:

"I'M NOT ASKING YOU WHETHER YOU WANT TO GO. YOU MUST GO. THIS IS FORCED LABOR."

AT HIS FIRST MEETING WITH THE FINNISH DELEGATION, HE ROARED WITH LAUGHTER WHEN A MEMBER SAID:

"WHY DO THE RUSSIANS WANT A MILITARY ALLIANCE WITH FINLAND? WE HAVE NOTHING BUT BAD LUCK. WE ALWAYS HAVE FOUGHT ON THE LOSING SIDE."

PAASIKIVI IS THE SON OF A TRADESMAN. HE WAS BORN IN TAMPERE, FINLAND'S THIRD CITY. THEY SAY HE SHOWED SO MANY TALENTS AS A YOUNG MAN THAT HE DIDN'T KNOW WHAT CAREER TO FOLLOW. FINALLY HE CHOSE LAW.

THE MAJOR SHARE OF HIS PUBLIC CAREER HAS BEEN AS HEAD OF FINLAND'S NATIONAL BANK, AND AS A MEMBER OF VARIOUS FINNISH ECONOMIC AND TREATY COMMISSIONS. HE WAS FINLAND'S FIRST PRIME MINISTER IN 1918, AFTER PLAYING A ROLE IN HER DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE FROM RUSSIA IN 1917.

HE WAS ACTIVE IN PUBLIC LIFE THROUGH THE YEARS AND IN MARCH 1946, WAS UNANIMOUSLY SELECTED BY PARLIAMENT TO SUCCEED BARON MANNERHEIM.

ATHENS, MARCH 23-(AP)-GREEKS TROOPS HAVE SCORED A MAJOR VICTORY OVER GUERRILLA FORCES AROUND MOUNT OLYMPUS AND MOUNT PIERRIA IN THE PAST MONTH, WAR MINISTER GEORGE STRATOS SAID LAST NIGHT.

IN ANNOUNCING THE VICTORY, HE DECLARED THAT "CHARGES MADE BY BAD FRIENDS OF GREECE THAT THE ARMY IS NOT FIGHTING ARE FLATLY REFUTED." HE DID NOT IDENTIFY THE "BAD FRIENDS."

SPEAKING OF THE NEW SUCCESSES AND OF EARLIER GOVERNMENT VICTORIES AT KONITSA, STRATOS SAID:

"THESE FACTS PROVE THE ACCUSATIONS A CALUMNY. THIS AND KONITSA SHOW THE FIGHTING ABILITY OF THE GREEK ARMY."

IN ITS SECOND INTERIM REPORT 10 DAYS AGO THE AMERICAN AID MISSION TO GREECE SAID FAILURE OF THE GREEK ARMY TO TAKE THE OFFENSIVE HAD INCREASED THE STRENGTH OF THE REBELS.

THE MOSCOW RADIO LAST NIGHT QUOTED THE COMMUNIST "FREE GREECE" RADIO CHARGE THAT AMERICAN OFFICERS WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE USE OF POISON GAS AGAINST GUERRILLAS. THE BROADCAST SAID POISON GAS WAS USED IN THE KASTORIA AREA OF MACEDONIA MARCH 15).

STRATOS SAID THAT IN THE MONTH-LONG FIGHTING IN THE REGION OF THE TWO MOUNTAINS 1,000 GUERRILLAS HAD BEEN KILLED. HE SAID ARMY CASUALTIES WERE 166, AND THAT LARGE STORES OF GUERRILLA SUPPLIES HAD BEEN SEIZED.

IN ATHENS, NINE MEMBERS OF A GUERRILLA UNIT WHICH HAS BEEN OPERATING IN THE ATTICA AREA WERE EXECUTED.

DWIGHT P.GRISWOLD, CHIEF OF THE U.S. AID MISSION, WAS ASKED IN A NEWS CONFERENCE ABOUT RECENT EXECUTIONS, IN VIEW OF CRITICISM IN THE FOREIGN PRESS THAT MANY SUCH EXECUTIONS WERE LONG DELAYED.

GRISWOLD SAID MOST OF THOSE EXECUTED RECENTLY WERE GUILTY OF MURDERS COMMITTED IN THE REVOLUTIONARY PERIOD OF LATE 1944 AND EARLY 1945, WHEN BANDS ROAMED THE CAPITAL'S STREETS, KILLING WANTONLY. SOME HAVE HAD AS MANY AS FOUR TRIALS, HE SAID. HE SAID IT WOULD NOT BE CORRECT TO CALL THESE DEFENDANTS POLITICAL PRISONERS, ADDING THAT THEIR CRIMES WERE NOT POLITICAL MURDERS.

"AS FAR AS I CAN LEARN," GRISWOLD SAID, "THERE IS NO CRITICISM OF THE GREEK JUDICIAL SYSTEM AND JUDGES. THEY APPEAR TO HAVE GREAT PRESTIGE AND ARE CONSIDERED HONORABLE MEN. X X X

"PERHAPS SOME WERE EXECUTED UNJUSTLY, BUT I'VE NOT BEEN ABLE TO FIND ANYONE TO SAY THE ACCUSED DID NOT KILL."

(540) NIGHT LEAD GERMAN
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON,MARCH 23-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOSSED OVERBOARD TODAY
ADMINISTRATION PLANS FOR A CIVILIAN GOVERNOR OVER THE AMERICAN OCCU-PATION ZONE IN GERMANY. THE WHITE HOUSE ANNOUNCED THAT GENERAL LU-CIUS D.CLAY WOULD REMAIN AS MILITARY GOVERNOR.
THIS REVERSAL OF POLICY EVIDENTLY WAS DECIDED UPON BY THE PRESIDENT AND HIS DIPLOMATIC AND MILITARY ADVISERS AS ONE MORE STEP IN HIS
"STOP COMMUNISM" EFFORT.
GERMANY IS A KEY POSITION IN THE CONFLICT BETWEEN EAST AND WEST
AND ANY CHANGE OF ADMINISTRATION THERE IN THE NEAR FUTURE, SOME OFFI-CIALS SAID, MIGHT HAVE HAD THE EFFECT OF WEAKENING THE AMERICAN POSI-TION IN EUROPE DUE TO THE UNCERTAINTY AND CONFUSION WHICH COULD RESULT FROM A SHAKE-UP AT THE TOP.
GENERAL CLAY HAD INDICATED SEVERAL MONTHS AGO HIS DESIRE TO RESIGN
THIS YEAR AS AMERICAN GOVERNOR IN GERMANY BUT AS RESULT OF TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENT THERE WAS SPECULATION THAT HE WOULD STAY ON INDEFINITELY.
THE ARMY DEPARTMENT SAID HE HAS NEVER FILED ANY FORMAL REQUEST FOR RETIREMENT.
THE WHITE HOUSE ANNOUNCEMENT CAME SUDDENLY AND WITHOUT FOREWARNING.
IN THIS RESPECT IT WAS COMPARABLE TO LAST FRIDAY'S AMERICAN MOVE IN THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TO HAVE THE PLAN FOR PARTITION OF PALESTINE SUSPENDED AND ALSO TO THE ANNOUNCEMENT ON SATURDAY OF THE WESTERN POWER PROPOSAL TO RESTORE TRIESTE TO ITALY.
THE WHITE HOUSE GAVE NEWSMEN A BRIEF STATEMENT RECALLING THAT ON JANUARY 27 THE ARMY ANNOUNCED THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT WOULD TAKE OV-ER RESPONSIBILITY FOR GOVERNING THE GERMAN OCCUPATION ZONE ON JULY 1.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT THEN DECLARED:
"FOLLOWING A REVIEW OF THE PRESENT SITUATION, IT HAS BEEN DECIDED THAT IT WOULD BE INADVISABLE TO MAKE ANY CHANGES IN OUR PRESENT AD-MINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS FOR GERMANY. THIS DECISION WILL NOT HAVE ANY ADVERSE EFFECT ON PROGRESS TOWARD DEVELOPING GERMAN RESPONSIBIL-ITY FOR SELF-GOVERNMENT AND ADMINISTRATIVE INITIATIVE.
"GENERAL CLAY REMAINS AS MILITARY GOVERNOR AND AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE UNITED STATES FORCES IN EUROPE."
THE WHITE HOUSE DID NOT DETAIL WHAT WAS MEANT BY "A REVIEW OF THE PRESENT SITUATION." BUT SEVERAL FACTORS BEARING UPON THE AMERICAN POLICIES TOWARD GERMANY APPEARED CLEAR.
ONE OF THESE IS THE SITUATION IN BERLIN AS THE RESULT OF THE SOVIET WITHDRAWAL ON SATURDAY FROM THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL. THIS HAS THROWN INTO A STATE OF UNCERTAINTY THE FUTURE OF FOUR-POWER GOVERNING MACHINERY IN THE DEFEATED ENEMY COUNTRY.

ANOTHER FACTOR IS THAT AS TENSIONS MOUNT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS MILITARY FACTORS HAVE BECOME UPPERMOST IN ALMOST ALL AMERICAN POLICY DECISIONS. THE UNITED STATES HAS A FORCE OF ABOUT 100,000 TROOPS IN GERMANY, ITS LARGEST CONTINGENT IN THE EUROPEAN AREA.
THE HANDLING OF THAT FORCE MAY BE SOMEWHAT SIMPLIFIED BY CONTINUING GENERAL CLAY AS BOTH THE MILITARY GOVERNOR AND THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF AMERICAN FORCES IN EUROPE.
STILL A THIRD FACTOR CONCERNS AMERICAN LONG-RANGE POLICY TOWARD GERMANY. MILITARY GOVERNMENT WAS ORIGINALLY DESIGNED TO LAST ONLY FOR THAT PART OF THE POSTWAR PERIOD DURING WHICH EUROPE AND GERMANY

WERE IN A STATE OF UPHEAVAL. THE PLAN HAS BEEN ALL ALONG FOR A CIVILIAN GOVERNOR TO RUN THE GERMAN OCCUPATION OVER THE LONG PERIOD OF YEARS WHICH OFFICIALS HERE ANTICIPATED WOULD BE NECESSARY.

NOW, HOWEVER, CONDITIONS IN EUROPE ARE MORE UNSETTLED THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THE WAR ENDED AND PRESUMABLY THE PRESIDENT AND HIS ADVISERS FELT THAT IT WOULD NOT BE DESIRABLE TO SHIFT RESPONSIBILITY FOR GERMAN CONTROLS TO A CIVILIAN ADMINISTRATOR.

(500) FOREIGN ROUNDUP

BY ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON,MARCH 23-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES POSTED NEW "COMMUNISM KEEP OUT" SIGNS TODAY IN WESTERN GERMANY, IN TURKEY AND IN GREECE.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED THAT A MILITARY MAN, LT.GEN.LUCIUS D. CLAY, WOULD STAY IN COMMAND OF OUR GERMAN OCCUPATION ZONE INDEFINITELY. A PLAN TO LET THE STATE DEPARTMENT TAKE OVER NEXT JULY 1 WENT OUT THE WINDOW.

THE WHITE HOUSE SAID THIS WAS DECIDED AFTER "A REVIEW OF THE PRESENT SITUATION." SOME OFFICIALS SAID THIS COUNTRY WAS ACTING TO PREVENT ANY WEAKENING OF ITS POSITION IS SO VITAL AN OUTPOST OF WESTERN EUROPE.

THEN THE SENATE APPROVED, WITHOUT EVEN THE FORMALITY OF A RECORD VOTE, A $275,000,000 (M) PROGRAM FOR TWO OTHER COUNTRIES ON THE EAST-WEST BOUNDARY--GREECE AND TURKEY. THE PURPOSE: TO PRO PROVIDE THOSE COUNTRIES WITH ARMS, EQUIPMENT AND U.S. MILITARY ADVICE.

THE HOUSE STARTED DEBATE ON ITS $6,205,000,000 (B) BILL COVERING GREEK-TURKISH AID AND MILITARY, ALONG WITH ECONOMIC, AID TO CHINA. BUT THE BIG ITEM IN THE BILL WAS "ERP" --THE $5,300,000,000 (B) EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

A BACKER AND A FOE OF THE OMNIBUS BILL CALLED IT A "WAR MEASURE". CHAIRMAN EATON (R-NJ) OF THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, OPENING THE DEBATE, SAID THE ISSUE WAS FREEDOM VS. SLAVERY.

MR.TRUMAN CONFERRED FOR MORE THAN AN HOUR WITH THE NATION'S HIGHEST DEFENSE CHIEFS. HIS PRESS SECRETARY, CHARLES G.ROSS, SAID THEY TALKED ABOUT "BUDGET PROBLEMS IN CONNECTION WITH THE ARMED SERVICES--NOTHING MORE."

THE DEFENSE BUDGET LAID BEFORE CONGRESS LAST JANUARY WAS $11,000,000,000 (B). IS AN INCREASE BEING CONSIDERED? NEITHER ROSS NOR ANY OF THE OTHERS WOULD SAY.

BUT SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) SAID THE PRESIDENT PROBABLY WOULD ASK TWO OR THREE BILLION DOLLARS MORE FOR MILITARY PREPAREDNESS.

A59WX

MR.TRUMAN'S CALL FOR A TEMPORARY DRAFT AND FOR UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING RAN INTO OPPOSITION FROM THE NATIONAL GRANGE, THE NATIONAL FARMERS UNION AND THE AMERICAN FARM BUREAU FEDERATION, AMONG OTHERS.

SPOKESMEN TOLD THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE THEY WERE AGAINST BOTH--UNLESS WE ARE FACING A WAR CRISIS. IF WE ARE, SAID SOME OF THE FARM REPRESENTATIVES, THEN LET'S MOBILIZE INDUSTRY AS WELL AS MANPOWER.

BUT THE DRAFT AND UMT WON FAVORABLE TESTIMONY FROM THE U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND FROM JOSEPH C.GREW, FORMER AMBASSADOR TO JAPAN.

THERE WAS TALK OF AN EARLY BIG THREE MEETING, WITH BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER ERNEST BEVIN AND FRANCE'S GEORGES BIDAULT COMING HERE TO COMPARE NOTES WITH SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL--PRESUMABLY ON THE QUESTION OF WESTERN UNITY AGAINST COMMUNISM.

A PARIS ANNOUNCEMENT INDICATED IT WAS ALL SET. THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID NO--BUT LEFT THE DOOR OPEN. IT SAID IT HOPED ALL THREE GOVERNMENTS WOULD "ESTABLISH THE CLOSEST CONSULTATIONS." AND IT ADDED:

"WHETHER THIS CONSULTATION WILL TAKE THE FORM OF A MEETING BETWEEN THE THREE SECRETARIES OR THROUGH SOME OTHER METHOD CANNOT BE DETERMINED AT THE MOMENT."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT ALSO MADE PUBLIC THE TEXT OF LAST SATURDAY'S NOTE PROPOSING THAT TRIESTE BE TURNED BACK TO ITALY.

THIS NOTE ACCUSED YUGOSLAVIA OF SETTING UP, IN ITS OCCUPATION ZONE OF THE FREE TERRITORY, A "TOTALITARIAN SYSTEM" IN WHICH "THE MOST FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS HAVE BEEN DENIED."

AND THE U.S. AGREED TO PUT TRIESTE UNDER UNITED NATIONS SUPERVISION IN THE FIRST PLACE, THE NOTE SAID, ONLY WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THAT THERE WOULD BE NO SUCH GOINGS-ON.

WITH THE NOTE, THE STATE DEPARTMENT RELEASED ITALIAN AMBASSADOR ALBERTO TARCHIANI'S REPLY. HE SAID ITALY RECEIVED THE PROPOSAL WITH "VERY KEEN AND LEGITIMATE SATISFACTION."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 23-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL GRAVELY TOLD CONGRESS AGAIN TODAY THAT WORLD CONDITIONS HAVE BECOME WORSE IN RECENT WEEKS.

HIS REMINDER CAME AS THE HOUSE AND SENATE DEBATED FOREIGN AID MEASURES AIMED AT STEMMING COMMUNISM. MARSHALL MADE THE STATEMENT IN PLEADING WITH A SENATE APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE NOT TO CUT FUNDS FOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

AS THE HOUSE DEBATED A $6,205,000,000 (B) LUMP-SUM MEASURE TO HELP NATIONS ABROAD, REP.COX (D-GA) TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN EVEN HAS UNDERSTATED THE WORLD SITUATION.

COX SAID THE SADDEST THING ABOUT THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM "IS THAT IT DOES NOT MAKE FULL DISCLOSURE OF THE THREAT TO THE FREEDOM OF THE WORLD WHICH IS NOW MOVING UPON US." HE ADDED:

"WHETHER A CONFLICT COMES, WHETHER WE WILL HAVE A SHOOTING WAR ALL DEPENDS ON WHAT RUSSIA DOES. IN THIS MEASURE WE ARE SAYING TO RUSSIA AND THE REST OF THE WORLD: YOUR MARCH, YOUR AGGRESSION AGAINST FREEDOM, NOW ENDS."

REP.MARCANTONIO (AL-NY) TOOK A DIFFERENT VIEW OF THE MEASURE WHICH WOULD BOLSTER WESTERN EUROPE, GREECE, TURKEY AND CHINA AGAINST COMMUNISM. MARCANTONIO SAID:

"THIS IS A WAR MEASURE, SOLD TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE UNDER THE GUISE OF STOPPING THE FLOOD OF COMMUNISM. WE TAKE OUR STEP TOWARD WAR, NOT IN DEFENSE OF THE NATION, BUT IN DEFENSE OF WALL STREET CAPITALISM."

REP.HOWARD SMITH (D-VA) TOLD THE HOUSE HE HOPES THAT MARCANTONIO SOMETIME "MAY SPEAK AS WELL FOR THE AMERICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT AND THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AS HE SPEAKS FOR COMMUNISM ON THIS FLOOR." MARCANTONIO SAT SILENT.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 23-(AP)-THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT DISCLOSED TONIGHT ACTION TO HELP THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT RUN DOWN ANY ILLEGAL EXPORT PERMITS.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT BY ASSISTANT SECRETARY DAVID K.E.BRUCE COINCIDED WITH THE OPENING OF A SIMILAR INQUIRY BY A SENATE COMMITTEE.

SAYING THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT KNEW THERE HAS BEEN SOME TRAFFIC IN ILLEGAL EXPORT LICENSES, BRUCE ADDED THAT HE ATTACHED IMPORTANCE TO STATEMENTS BY WASHINGTON POLICE THAT MANY LICENSES WERE NOT PERFORATED BY OFFICIAL MACHINES.

"WE ARE PROCEEDING IMMEDIATELY TO FOLLOW THROUGH WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE TO DETERMINE WHERE THE PERFORATING MACHINE USED TO VALIDATE THESE LICENSES WAS OBTAINED," BRUCE SAID.

HIS STATEMENT ADDED THAT THE DEPARTMENT ALSO IS MAKING ITS FACILITIES FOR THE INVESTIGATION AVAILABLE TO THE SENATE SMALL BUSINESS COMMITTEE.

"UNTIL RECENTLY," HE SAID, "THE APPROPRIATIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT WERE INSUFFICIENT TO EMPLOY A LARGE ENOUGH STAFF TO ENFORCE EFFECTIVELY THE STRINGENT REGULATIONS AGAINST SUCH (ILLEGAL) TRAFFIC.

"IN THE LAST FEW WEEKS THE OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE HAS ENLARGED ITS ENFORCEMENT STAFF IN AN EFFORT TO BRING OFFENDERS TO JUSTICE AND PROTECT THE EXPORTERS WHO ABIDE BY THE RULES."

DWORSHAK VOTED AGAINST THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN, APPROVED BY THE SENATE MARCH 6. HE ALSO OPPOSED RATIFICATION OF THE ITALIAN TREATY AND HE SAID TONIGHT:

"THE ITALIAN PEOPLE, UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF PREMIER DE GASPERI, FACE MANY DIFFICULTIES, MOST OF WHICH ARISE FROM THE INDEFENSIBLE ITALIAN PEACE TREATY THAT WAS RATIFIED BY THE UNITED STATES SENATE LAST YEAR.

"UNDER THE TERMS OF THE TREATY, OUR AMERICAN TROOPS WERE WITHDRAWN FROM ITALY, HER FRONTIERS WERE DEMILITARIZED, HER ARMED FORCES WERE RESTRICTED AND HER NAVY WAS DESTROYED. IN FACT, THE ITALIAN PEOPLE WERE ISOLATED FROM WESTERN EUROPE AND THE COMMUNIST LEADERS WERE ENCOURAGED TO ACCELERATE THEIR ACTIVITIES IN THE ADJOINING COMMUNIST COUNTRIES."

HE ADDED THIS EVIDENCE INDICATES THAT "NO EFFORT IS BEING MADE TO DEMONSTRATE TO THE GERMAN PEOPLE THE PRACTICAL WORKINGS OF POLITICAL OR ECONOMIC FREEDOM."

LEAD DAY UNITED NATIONS

BY MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 23-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES DECLARED LATE TODAY THAT RUSSIA'S CHARGES OF AMERICAN "BLACKMAIL" AGAINST EUROPEAN COUNTRIES ARE UNWORTHY OF ANSWER.

CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE WARREN R.AUSTIN DESCRIBED RUSSIA'S CHARGES AS "FANTASTIC" AND SAID THEY WERE "PROPAGANDA OF THE ARBITRARY RULERS OF THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE."

AUSTIN ADDRESSED THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL IMMEDIATELY AFTER RUSSIA'S ANDREI A.GROMYKO HAD DELIVERED A SLASHING ATTACK ON THE WESTERN POWERS.

MAR 1948

A19UN

GROMYKO SAID THE U.S. WAS USING "BLACKMAIL" TO INFLUENCE THE GOVERNMENTS OF ITALY AND OTHER COUNTRIES.

AUSTIN SAID CHARGES OF THE "MOST SERIOUS NATURE" HAD BEEN MADE AGAINST RUSSIA IN CONNECTION WITH THE RECENT CZECHOSLOVAK COMMUNIST COUP, BUT SO FAR NO ANSWER HAD BEEN MADE TO ANY OF THESE CHARGES.

HE CHARGED THE RUSSIANS WITH TRYING TO "DRAW A RED HERRING" INTO THE CZECHOSLOVAK DEBATE.

AUSTIN ASKED GROMYKO WHY DEPUTY SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER VALERIAN ZORIN ARRIVED IN PRAGUE JUST BEFORE THE FEB. 22 COMMUNIST GRAB.

"THE SECURITY COUNCIL," AUSTIN DECLARED, "IS FULLY JUSTIFIED IN INQUIRING INTO WHAT MR.ZORIN WAS DOING IN PRAGUE."

HE SAID IF ZORIN HELD DISCUSSIONS WITH COMMUNIST PREMIER KLEMENT GOTTWALD AND OTHER COMMUNIST LEADERS, THE COUNCIL SHOULD KNOW IT.

AUSTIN THEN SAID HE WANTED THE PRESENT PRAGUE GOVERNMENT TO EXPLAIN THE "SUDDEN CHANGE" FROM A DEMOCRACY TO THE POLICY OF "A POLICE STATE."

"DO THE INJABITANTS OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA WELCOME THE DOMINATION OF RUSSIAN-TRAINED OFFICIALS?" HE ASKED.

HE REFERRED TO REPORTS THAT PRESIDENT BENES HAD CANCELLED THREE SPEECHES BECAUSE THE COMMUNISTS WOULD NOT LET HIM DELIVER THEM.

"WHY IS IT THE PRESIDENTHAS NOT NT MADE A STATEMENT TO HIS PEOPLE IN TIME OF CRISIS?" AUSTIN WENT ON. "WHY HAVE EDITORS DISAPPEARED? WHY DID THE FOREIGN MINISTER OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA COMMIT SUICIDE? WHY HAS THE PRESIDENT OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA REMAINED SILENT?"

AUSTIN CONTINUED:

"TOO MUCH HAS HAPPENED WHICH IS NOT IN CHARACTER WITH THE CZECHOSLOVAK PEOPLE. TOO MUCH WAS HAPPENED TO BE ANSWERED BY PERFUNCTORY REPLIES, OR BY FURTHER RED HERRINGS."

HE DEMANDED DIRECT REPLIES FROM GROMYKO.

THE U.S.POSITION, AUSTIN DECLARED, IS "TO SUPPORT CONTINUED CHVESVBONTION AIMED AT SAVING PEOPLE FROM INDIRECT AGGRESSION."

MAR 1948

"WHY IS IT THE PRESIDENT HAS NOT MADE A STATEMENT TO HIS PEOPLE IN TIME OF CRISIS?" AUSTIN WENT ON. "WHY HAVE EDITORS DISAPPEARED? WHY DID THE FOREIGN MINISTER OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA COMMIT SUICIDE? WHY HAS THE PRESIDENT OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA REMAINED SILENT?"

AUSTIN CONTINUED:

"TOO MUCH HAS HAPPENED WHICH IS NOT IN CHARACTER WITH THE CZECHOSLOVAK PEOPLE. TOO MUCH HAS HAPPENED TO BE ANSWERED BY PERFUNCTORY REPLIES, OR BY FURTHER RED HERRINGS."

HE DEMANDED DIRECT REPLIES FROM GROMYKO.

THE U.S.POSITION, AUSTIN DECLARED, IS "TO SUPPORT CONTINUED INVESTIGATION AIMED AT SAVING PEOPLE FROM INDIRECT AGGRESSION."

GROMYKO EMPHATICALLY DENIED THAT RUSSIA HAD ENGINEERED THE RECENT COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA. HE ASSERTED THAT IT WAS THE WESTERN POWERS--AND NOT RUSSIA--WHICH HAD TRIED TO INTERFERE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF OTHER COUNTRIES.

A3UN

HE SAID THE REASON THE WESTERN POWERS WERE MAKING "SUCH A HOWL" OVER THE DEVELOPMENTS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA WAS THAT THEIR OWN ATTEMPTS TO CONTROL THE PRAGUE GOVERNMENT HAD BEEN FRUSTRATED.

TURNING TO ITALY, GROMYKO SAID:

"IT IS A SECRET TO NO ONE THAT THE UNITED STATES ARE EMPLOYING IN THE CASE OF ITALY THE POLICY OF RUDE PRESSURE AND BLACKMAIL."

EARLIER FRENCH DELEGATE ALEXANDRE PARODI HAD EXPRESSED THE BELIEF PRESIDENT BENES OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA IS A PRISONER OF THE COMMUNISTS.

GROMYKO ASSERTED THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD EMBARKED ON A POLICY OF EXPANSION, WHICH WAS CLEARLY SHOWN BY INTERFERENCE IN ITALY, FRANCE AND GREECE.

"THEY TRY TO COVER UP THEIR OWN EXPANSION WITH THE WAIL ABOUT THE SOVIET INTERFERENCE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF OTHER COUNTRIES," HE SAID. "THIS IS AN OLD AND WELL-KNOWN METHOD--'STOP THIEF.'

"IT IS TIME NOW TO DENOUNCE THIS METHOD AND TO UNMASK THOSE WHO REALLY PRACTICE EXPANSION, WHO TRAMPLE ELEMENTARY RIGHTS OF SMALL AND WEAK NATIONS AND PEOPLES, WHO APPLY ALL KINDS OF LEVERS OF ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL PRESSURE UPON OTHER COUNTRIES XXX TO ESTABLISH A SYSTEM OF MILITARY AND STRATEGIC BASES SCATTERED THROUGHOUT THE WORLD WITH THE VERY SAME AIM OF EFFECTING EXPANSION ON THE ACCOUNT OF OTHER NATIONS AND PEOPLES."

GROMYKO SAID, "THERE IS NOTHING MORE ABSURD" THAN CHILE'S CHARGE THAT RUSSIA INTERFERED IN THE AFFAIRS OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA. HE REPEATED EARLIER CHARGES THAT CHILE WAS MERELY A "PUPPET" ACTING IN THE INTERST OF "FINANCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL KINGS FROM WALL STREET."

HE SAID "NO SELF-RESPECTING STATE COULD UNDERTAKE SUCH A DIRTY AND DISHONEST ACTION" AS CHILE TOOK IN INITIATING THE DEBATE ON CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

GROMYKO SAID THE "CAMPAIGN OF SLANDER" KINDLED BY THE WESTERN POWERS AGAINST RUSSIA REMINDED HIM OF "OLD RUBBISH TAKEN FROM THE GOEBBELS' KITCHEN OF PROPAGANDA.

"THEY SEE RED PAINTED SPECTRES EVEN IN THEIR DREAMS," HE SAID. "THEY SEND TO JAILS THE PEOPLE DEMANDING THE IMPROVEMENT OF RELATIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION AND UNMASKING THE PLANS OF WARMONGERS.

"THEY ARE READY TO PLACE SIGNS ON EVERY STREET CROSSING IN BIG CITIES WARNING AGAINST THE DEMANDS FOR IMPROVING RELATIONS WITH THE U.S.S.R."

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 23-(AP)-FRENCH DELEGATE ALEXANDRE PARODI EXPRESSED BELIEF TODAY PRESIDENT EDUARD BENES OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA IS A PRISONER OF THE COMMUNISTS.

PARODI SPOKE BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL AS THE BIG POWER BATTLE OVER THE CZECHOSLOVAK COMMUNIST GRAB WAS BEING RESUMED.

PARODI AVOIDED ANY DIRECT ACCUSATION THAT RUSSIA ENGINEERED THE FEB. 22 COUP, BUT HE DECLARED THE COMMUNISTS COULD NOT HAVE SUCCEEDED WITHOUT THE CLOSE PROXIMITY TO RUSSIA. HE ALSO SAID NO ONE COULD BELIEVE THAT RUSSIA HAD NO ADVANCE KNOWLEDGE OF THE COMMUNIST PLANS.

THE FRENCH DELEGATE ASSERTED FOREIGN MINISTER JAN MASARYK DIED BECAUSE HE COULD NOT CONSENT TO "THE ENSLAVEMENT OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA." HE SAID IT ALSO WAS CLEAR THAT BENES HAD NOT CONSENTED TO THE NEW REGIME.

"THE VOICE OF BENES HAS NOT BEEN HEARD SINCE FEB.22," HE SAID.

Western Powers Expected To Hold Firm In Berlin

GALLAGHER

Berlin, March 24 (AP)—If the Russians are trying to force the United States, Britain and France to get out of Berlin, they have a scrap on their hands.

The Western power commanders say they are staying right here. More than that, they have put the squeeze on the Russians to find out exactly what the Soviet boycott of four-power German governing machinery does mean.

Germans here interpreted yesterday's White House announcement that the United States Army would continue indefinitely its occupation of the American zone as full backing for Gen. Lucius D. Clay's determination to keep American forces in Berlin, which is in the heart of the Russian zone.

Little They Can Do

Short of war, then, there appears little the Russians can do to throw the Western powers out of Berlin, despite the tirades in the Communist-controlled press.

One German, commenting on yesterday's White House announcement, said:

"This will show our Russian friends that America means business."

The Russians partially ended their boycott of four-power administrative machinery yesterday by calling meetings of four agencies later in the week. They canceled sixteen such meetings Monday and Tuesday.

Clay said the Americans would not attend the subcommittee meetings until a date is set for another meeting of the Four-Power Control Council. The British and French commanders backed Clay.

"We are tired of being pushed around," one American official said.

The stakes and prestige involved in Berlin are so great none of the Western Big Three can afford to abandon them.

They have given their word, publicly and privately, to the Germans and to the world that they will stay in Berlin, come what may.

In Berlin each of the Big Three have thousands of their nationals.

The spectacle of these thousands moving out of Berlin with their belongings because of Soviet pressure would shake Western prestige from one end of Europe to the other.

It would make it virtually impossible for the Big Three to find sound German support in Western Germany. Germans would see in the abandoning of Berlin the first move to leave all of Germany to Russia. They would act accordingly.

Irritating Island

There is no doubt that the Soviet Union finds Allied presence in Berlin an irritating island in the Red sea of Communist tranquillity stretching from Finland to Albania.

The only election they have lost (and it stayed lost) behind Europe's "iron curtain," they lost in Berlin.

This October, elections come up again. Soviet-controlled German papers have warned that "results will be different this time."

Last week Left and Right wing political parties held an anti-Communist rally within 50 yards of the Soviet sector of the city. Speaker after speaker denounced police-controlled eastern Germany.

Western Powers Accused

Soviet Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky has repeatedly blamed the West for "partitioning" Germany by setting up British-American bizonal government. This move has violated Big-Four agreements and made four-power government useless, Sokolovsky argues.

The western position is simple. First, they say four-power government cannot be wiped out by a demand from one power. Second, they say the occupation of Berlin by Britain, the United States, France and the Soviet Union was ordained by agreements fixing all the occupation zones of Germany.

These agreements were signed in London in 1944.

Clay Shifts Reich-Control Emphasis Back To Army

KASISCHKE

Berlin, March 24 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay shifted the emphasis of American control in Germany back to the military today.

Clay, who received orders from Washington last night that he is to stay on indefinitely as United States Military Governor and commander in chief in Germany, announced there would be a slowing up in the process of transferring military government personnel to civilian status.

This new development occurred in the midst of a stalemate on the status of the four-power governing machinery for Germany. The Western Allies have put it squarely up to the Russians to take the initiative for getting the stalled government wheels rolling again.

Walked Out Of Council

The Russians started the fuss by walking out of a Control Council meeting Saturday. Monday and Tuesday they boycotted other agencies of the four-power government. Late yesterday they called for meetings of some other agencies and the Western powers used the boycott as a boomerang, refusing to attend the meetings until the Russians call another session of the Control Council.

"It's up to Russians now," said Clay. "I think it's a desirable thing for all of us to find out just where we stand in this situation."

The Russian-controlled press here has been harping on the theme that the Control Council authority has been destroyed. Clay shrugged that off with a remark that if the Control Council is dead, so are its subcommittes.

German Position

Germans, particularly Socialists and other anti-Communists, were vastly encouraged by the stiffened Western attitude. The Communist papers have been publishing broad hints that reprisals would be taken against certain Germans after the Western allies withdraw from Berlin.

The Germans also welcomed the news that Clay is to stay on as occupation chief and that the Army would stay in control. Previous plans had called for the State Department to take over with a civilian regime. Germans interpret the new policy to mean the United States intends to stand fast against Communist expansion in Germany.

Clay, who will be 51 next month, repeatedly said he intended to leave Germany this summer and retire from the Army. Today, however, he said:

"As a soldier, in view of these orders, I consider my services are needed."

Russian-licensed Berlin newspapers broke out unanimously today with a flood of reports about violations of the Soviet zone's frontier with the British and American zones.

"Dangerous agents" are sneaking across the border with double-bottomed suitcases and forbidden arms, smugglers are bringing in anti-Soviet leaflets and armed bandits are roving the borderland, preying on the Russian zone, the newspapers said.

The Soviet-sponsored press has also been insisting recently that conditions are so good in the Soviet zone that Germans are fleeing there from the West.

United States military government officials say that between 12,000 and 13,000 Germans cross into the American zone monthly from the Soviet zone.

U.S. REICH ACTS PUZZLE RUSSIA

Press Ignores Order To Clay And 3-Power Boycott

HEINZERLING

Berlin, March 24 (AP)—The Russians appeared somewhat confused today by the latest American moves in Germany.

The Russian-licensed press made no mention of the sudden orders from Washington to Gen. Lucius D. Clay to postpone indefinitely the transfer of his powers to the State Department.

The Communist newspapers likewise ignored the American-British-French action in boycotting four-power meetings of Allied Control Council subcommittees until Marshal Vassily Sokolovsky calls a new council meeting.

Apparently the Russians were awaiting instructions from Moscow before making any move.

Deputy Commandants Meet

Four-power rule of the city of Berlin continued with a meeting of the four deputy commandants. One Allied official said it was the most peaceful meeting in months.

Soviet confusion was not confined alone to relations with the Western Allies. Reliable reports indicated the Russians have not yet decided what to do in the Soviet zone to meet steps being taken in western Germany.

The British-licensed Telegraf reported that the economic commission set up in the Soviet zone is still without any power to function. The commission was created with much fanfare after reorganization of the expanded economic council for the British-American zones several weeks ago.

Some Refuse To Yield Jobs

The Telegraf said German leaders of the economic commission were received coolly at Soviet military headquarters.

Members of the commission have assumed some jobs from the old central economic administration for the Soviet zone, but without any authority to give orders or dispose of money, it was reported. Some members of the old administration have refused to yield their jobs.

But the Communist propaganda campaign moved on without a hitch. All Communist-controlled newspapers reported that the borders of the Soviet zone were repeatedly violated by bandits, spies and hungry persons from the American and British zones.

Critical Situation

Neues Deutschland, official paper of the Socialist Unity party, said the stream of hungry Germans into the Soviet zone was so great a critical food situation threatened. It was intimated that 214,000 persons had fled to the Soviet zone in the last three months.

Western Allied officials scoffed at these reports. American Military Government authorities said between 12,000 and 13,000 Germans cross into the American zone each month from the Soviet zone.

General Clay spent the day working out plans for carrying out his new orders. A slowing up of the transfer of army officers to civilian status will be the first result.

German Interpretation

Germans interpreted the announcement that the United States Army would continue indefinitely its charge of the occupation of the American zone as full support for Clay's determination to keep American forces in Berlin.

Despite the propaganda in the Communist press, there appeared little the Russians could do to throw the Western powers out of Berlin short of actual war.

The three Western powers have given assurances to the Germans that they will stay in Berlin, and their prestige would suffer a hard blow among all Germans if they left.

The anti-Communist campaign carried on by the press and radio in Berlin has irritated the Russians, and many Americans believe the Soviet would like to try to force the Western Allies out of the city.

The Communists lost out in the last Berlin elections. Berliners will vote again in October, and Soviet-controlled German papers have said, "The results will be different this time."

Communist Gains In Italy Seen

ALEX SINGLETON

London, March 24 (AP)—British Government experts on Mediterranean affairs predicted today that the Communist-led Popular Front will collect between 38 and 43 per cent of the vote in the Italian election April 18.

This estimate has been passed on to the British Cabinet along with the opinion that the election results will leave the front "Italy's most powerful single political group."

British foreign policy makers anticipate this would bring a strong Communist demand for important places in the Government, and they confess privately that they see no formula for warding off such challenge.

Five Factors Credited

Even so the situation has brightened from the Western powers' point of view. A month ago the experts were ready to concede the extreme Left almost an even chance of getting a majority of the votes.

The improved situation, in their view, is due to at least five factors:

1. The United States warning that a Communist Italy would get no Marshall-plan aid.

2. The Western powers' proposal to return Trieste Free State to Italy.

3. Growing western European co-operation as demontsated by the Paris Marshall-plan conference and the signing of the new five-power economic - military alliance at Brussels.

4. Growing Italian hope that Italy may be included in the Western bloc.

5. The fear that Italy will lose any chance of getting back her African colonies under a Communist regime.

Bevin Disclaimer

Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary, disclaimed any intention today of intending to sway the elections by the British-American-French proposal on Trieste.

"I do not accuse the Soviet Government, in spite of the four-power commission, of an election maneuver in handing back the colonies to Italy, and I do not think alternatively I should be accused of it," he said.

His remarks were prompted by a query in the House of Commons on whether it would not have been better for the Western powers to wait until after the Italian elections "to avoid inflaming an already difficult international situation."

Russia recently advocated Italian retention of her colonies under a trusteeship. A four-power commission has not yet completed its survey of sentiment in the colonies. Britain has taken the position that the work of this commission should not be prejudged.

deputy, during a meeting of deputies of the four-power foreign ministers working on the Austrian peace settlement. Official observers said that it won "qualified approval" from Britain and France.

They reported, however, that N. P. Koktimov, the Soviet deputy, refused to agree on the ground that Austria's ability to pay is not "the main criterion" in the dispute.

Austrian Minister Leaves

That argument centers around how much Russia should get in return for surrendering her claim against former German property in Austria.

The Austrian Foreign Minister, Karl Gruber, left by air for Vienna today. He has been sitting in on the deputies' discussions but has not been allowed an active voice in them.

Gruber Disappointed

Gruber said his country will carry on its free democratic system.

He told newsmen he was disappointed but not downhearted at the lack of progress by the Big Four deputy foreign ministers on a peace treaty for Austria.

"We are as far from an Austrian agreement now as we were in the beginning," he said.

Bevin Says Trieste Not Linked To Vote

London, March 24 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin told the House of Commons today the proposal to hand Trieste back to Italy had nothing to do with the April 18 Italian elections.

"I do not accuse the Soviet Government, in spite of the Four-Power Commission, of an election maneuver" in proposing to hand back colonies to Italy Bevin said in reply to a question. "And I do not think, alternatively, I should be accused of it."

Bevin Is Quizzed

Laborite Ronald Chamberlain had asked whether it would not have been better to put the proposal through the United Nations Security Council, "even though an election is coming on in Italy."

Laborite Tom Driberg wanted to know why, if the elections were not involved, it would not have been better for the Western Powers to wait until after April 18 to "avoid inflaming an already difficult international situation."

"That question," Bevin said, "might be addressed to Moscow."

BEVIN DOUBTS REDS

London, March 24 (A. P.).—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin indicated today that he doubts whether the Russians have done a thorough job of destroying the war potential in their zone of Germany.

Major Tufton Beamish, a Conservative, asked Bevin in the House of Commons for his latest information on the subject, particularly about the Peenemunde area where the Germans carried on rocket research during the war. This exchange followed.

Bevin: "I have not sufficient information to make a reliable estimate of the progress made."

Beamish: "Can you say whether the information you have causes you any disquiet?"

Bevin: "I could not get up with my hand on my heart and say that I am perfectly satisfied."

Gen. Ho Talks With Bevin

LONDON, March 24 (AP)—Gen. Ho Ying-ching, a member of the United Nations Military Staff Committee, had a long talk today with Foreign Secretary Bevin. The Foreign Office did not disclose the subject matter.

BRITONS PROPOSE BIG 3 CONFERENCE

LONDON, March 24—(AP) Sixteen Laborite members of Parliament called tonight for a meeting soon of President Truman and Prime Ministers Stalin and Attlee.

They submitted a resolution to that effect to the House of Commons in view of "the rapidly deteriorating political situation in Europe."

The Laborites said they welcomed a recent statement by Prime Minister Jan Christiaan Smuts of South Africa that a new effort should be made to reach an understanding with the Soviet Union.

They suggested that Smuts, Earl Mountbatten, Governor General of India, and other British empire statesmen be invited to the proposed talks.

The signers of the resolution are all "backbenchers," or non-members of the labor government, and include moderate leftists.

Britain To Buy Less From Dollar Countries

London, March 24 (AP)—Britain will save roughly $5,000,000 of her scarce dollars by using less food from dollar-countries for her armed forces overseas.

Announcing this economy to the House of Commons today, Defense Minister A. V. Alexander said the forces' daily 3,400 calory ration would be kept up by more food purchases from "soft currency" countries.

The switch, he said, was in line with similar action taken by the Government recently for civilian rations in Britain. Gradual cuts are being made in food bought from dollar-countries for domestic use.

All British Army, Navy and air stations abroad will be affected by the change, except in Palestine, Alexander said. There, "in view of the exceptional conditions," the present rations will be maintained.

London, March 24 (A. P.).—Despite some scattered opposition, the House of Commons early today passed the Palestine bill embodying Britain's decision to get out of the Holy Land. The weary members voted shortly after 3 A. M.

Idea On Trieste Misconstrued, Slav Asserts

Rome, March 24 (AP)—Yugoslavia backed out today from an offer to trade Trieste for the Italian city of Gorizia.

The Yugoslav Foreign Ministry voiced regret over the "apparent assumption abroad" that Yugoslavia would insist on obtaining Gorizia in exchange for Trieste.

At the same time, a Ministry spokesman hinted that Yugoslavia might consider some other swap for the great Adriatic port now in free territory partially occupied by Yugoslavia.

An Italian spokesman said yesterday that Italy would reject any Yugoslav renewal of her offer to barter her claims to Trieste for Gorizia. Yugoslavia first suggested the swap in November 1946.

No Terms Proposed

The Yugoslav spokesman said last night that Foreign Minister Stanoje Simic did not intend to advance any specific proposal when he said Monday that Yugoslavia is ready to seek a compromise on Trieste through mutual efforts.

The spokesman said the fact that Simic mentioned the talks of 1946 was misunderstood.

The spokesman contended that Simic "said 'in the spirit' of those talks but did not mean to imply the terms necessarily would be the same, or that Yugoslavia has any specific proposal in mind at present."

In Milan, police used tear gas last night as Communists and pro-Government sympathizers clashed for the third straight day.

U.S. Stand On Colonies

Roars of "Viva la Guerra (war)" were reported from one mass demonstration in the Piazza Piemonte.

A number of persons were hurt, most of them slightly.

It was reliably reported in Rome that the United States is "favorably disposed" toward accepting the return to Italy of her pre-Fascist colonies in Africa. An official announcement may be expected shortly, it was added. ADD

PRINTERS' STRIKE CONTINUES IN ITALY

MAR. 1948

ROME, March 24—(AP) Italians went without their daily newspapers again today as the strike by typographers and printers continued.

The Communist-directed union to which the workers belong said the strike was for higher pay.

The walkout occurred at Sunday midnight—32 hours after the United States, Britain and France announced they favored return of Trieste to Italy.

The action on Trieste was one of the biggest news stories for Italy since the war, but most Italians could not follow the day-by-day developments.

Likewise Italians could not read reports of speeches and editorials concerning the April 18 elections. The strike shut down 150 newspapers—all but a few in the nation.

Government circles called the strike political. They said the leftists were worried over the possible effect on the national election of the Trieste proposal and other developments.

Since printers in the shops assigned to print the election ballots also are on strike, it has been charged the Communists are trying to obstruct the election.

Even news of negotiations to settle the strike failed to reach the public. Attendance at political rallies has fallen off sharply because people are unable to learn when and where they will be held.

The U. S. State Department beamed the first of its "Voice of America" daily broadcasts to Italy today. Not one of dozens of Italians asked even knew the broadcasts had begun. ADD

Italy Pushes Hunt For Hidden Arms

Rome, March 24 (AP)—Italian soldiers, carabinieri and police are combing Italy for hidden arms in an effort to forestall bloodshed at the April 18 elections.

Police announcement of the February haul included 2,116 guns of all kinds, 5,158 artillery shells and 207 land mines, roughtly ten times the January harvest. The hunt has been under way several months.

Rare is the day that Rome newspapers fail to publish long lists of firearms, ammunition and explosives which search parties have found.

A few days ago police found two German machine guns and ammunition in an Etruscan tomb dating back to the Seventh Century B.C.

Scores Facing Trial

The Government makes no secret of its concern about possible disorder during and after the elections.

People have been warned repeatedly that possession of arms and ammunition was a "serious offense against the state's authorities." Many have surrendered them voluntarily. But others, "just to keep on the safe side," have kept them.

In southern Italy, scores face trial for "abusive detention of arms."

An Interior Ministry spokesman said recently that "most of the arms were found in possession of Leftist elements, especially former Partisans. . . .

All Are Ready For Use

"One relevant fact is that all arms seized—with very few exceptions—are in perfect state, oiled and greased, ready to be used at the first opportunity," the official said.

A full army division could have been equipped with the armament seized last year. Hauls included 89 cannons and mortars, 797 machine guns and Bren guns, with 406 spare barrels; 5,412 rifles and carbines and 2,494 revolvers.

Police also confiscated 6,391 mortar bombs, 17,929 artillery shells, 1,415,004 cartridges, 941 long tons of explosives, 1,285 road mines, 1,950,800 meters (more than 1,000 miles) of fuse and 15,015 hand grenades.

Seizures this year are running even higher as the pre-election search is intensified.

U. S. AID PUBLICIZED IN FRENCH MUSEUM

ROUEN, France, March 24—(AP) A museum of American aid has opened in this industrial port city, which is operating almost entirely on help from the United States.

The museum, part of the French publicity required by the interim aid agreement, is in a small wing of the City hall. It displays samples of various American goods received under the program ending March 31.

Included in the display are cans of powdered milk, jars of wheat, flour and corn meal, bolts of cloth and a number of other items.

U. S. Ambassador Jefferson Caffery and French Ministers toured the city yesterday. The ambassador also has scheduled visits to Epinal, Strasbourg and Dunkerque to publicize the aid program.

All Danes Exhorted To Watch for Coup

Government Asks Them to Report on Subversion

COPENHAGEN, March 24 (AP).—Minister of Justice Busch Jensen asked all Danes tonight to watch for subversive actions.

The minister spoke by radio. He asked for vigilance against "everything that might indicate actions aimed against the security of the state of the Danish people, whether it be on land, in the air or at sea."

"I ask you to report it immediately to the nearest police authority or military unit, no matter if it is day or night," he said.

Mr. Jensen said the Danish coast guard had been increased, but "even this cannot give us 100 per cent security."

There was no official explanation for the unexpected appeal. Some sources indicated it stemmed from investigations made after unverified rumors that arms and ammunition were being landed in Denmark by night.

itary government. It was small compared to about 50,000 who participated in a pro-Italian parade and celebration Sunday night.

The communist rally protested that the military government had not included communist representatives in a civilian advisory group.

UAIS (Union of Italo-Slovene Anti-Fascists), the mainspring of the communist front, refused the original military government months ago. Recently, however, it has been protesting against its exclusion.

Trieste, March 24 (A. P.).—Additional British troops were moved up to the Yugoslav-Allied boundary in the Free Territory of Trieste today as a precautionary measure, Major-Gen. Terence S. Airey announced tonight. Airey is Chief Civil Affairs Officer of the Anglo-American zone.

There were unconfirmed reports here that "something may happen" today or tomorrow. The civil police were alerted throughout the day against possible Communist demonstrations in the wake of the western powers' proposal that Trieste be given back to Italy.

British troops could be seen moving closer to the frontier digging in and establishing positions for roadblocks with machine-guns.

2. The right of news personnel to have the widest possible access to sources of information, to travel unhampered in pursuit of news, and to transmit copy without unreasonable or discriminatory limitations, should be guaranteed by action on the national and international plane.

3. The full exercise of these rights requires the recognition of the rights of others and the protection by law of the freedoms, general welfare and security of all.

4. Nations should support measures which help make a diversity of news accounts available to the people in order to prevent abuses of freedom of information.

7. Enforcement of obligations of the press, except those of a recognized legal nature, is best effected by the people who can judge and penalize the performance of the press provided that news and opinion reach them through a diversity of sources.

To Combat False News

Benton said in a statement that in the opinion of the United States the best way of combating false or distorted news was the "availability of a multiplicity of unfettered sources of news and information to the various peoples of the world."

"Provided they have access to sufficient information from diverse sources, the people of a democracy are competent to distinguish true from false and wise from stupid and . . . form their own opinions," he added.

Secondary means of combating false news, he said, was encouragement of professional bodies with codes of ethics, training, exchanges of journalists, "the right of official denial or rectification" and the establishment of permanent United Nations machinery to "investigate obstacles to the free flow of information and report on persistent dissemination of false or intentionally distorted reports."

Huxley View Different

Earlier, Prof. Julian Huxley, director general of the United Nations Economic, Scientific and Cultural Organization, had taken a slightly different view, declaring freedom of information "does not consist simply in opening of access to more and more masses of information of any and every kind."

The Soviet delegate, A. E. Bogomolov, lost a fight to have dropped from the agenda consideration of a charter on rights and obligations of information media, creation of permanent machinery to promote freedom of information, and problems of governmental and intergovernmental information services.

U.S. To Pay For Work Of Italian Prisoners

Rome, Thursday, March 25 (AP)—The United States will pay Italy $4,500,000 for work done by Italian prisoners of war in the United States during the war.

An announcement said United States Ambassador James Dunn would present a check for that amount to Foreign Minister Sforza in a ceremony attended by Italian war veterans representatives. The date of the ceremony has not been fixed.

French Scoff At Story Of U.S. Airbases

Paris, March 24 (AP)—The semi-official French News Agency called simply absurd today a Russian-circulated report that the United States has been granted new military and air bases in French territory.

Moscow radio broadcast a Tass report saying that a secret treaty had been signed on the bases and giving the Americans greater facilities at established French domestic and overseas bases.

Tass quoted Svobodne Slovo, a Socialist newspaper in Prague.

Ladislav Technik, editor in chief of Svobodne Slovo, which means Free Word, said in Prague that he wrote the article and added:

"I received my information from a source I am now unable to divulge. I have no other information at this time."

Amsterdam, the Netherlands, March 24 (AP)—A few hundred Communist workers went on strike here today to protest efforts of the anti-Communist parties, including the Socialists, to oust Communists from the municipal administration. Public services functioned normally.

Dutch Plan Guard Of Volunteer Veterans

The Hague, March 24 (AP)—The Dutch Army shortly will be reinforced by volunteers to assist in maintaining peace and order in cases of emergency, it was announced today.

They will be picked from loyal Netherlanders under 55 years of age who have had more than six months' military training. They will be organized in a national reserve and a reserve frontier guard.

Alliance Approved By Belgian Senate

Brussels, March 24 (A. P.).—The Belgian Senate today approved by a 138—15 vote the 50-year alliance with Great Britain, France, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Only the Communists dissented. The accord is expected to receive a large majority in the Chamber of Deputies after the Easter recess.

BRITISH SOLDIERS MOVE UP CLOSER TO YUGOSLAV LINE

O'QUINN

TRIESTE, March 24—(AP) British soldiers moved up closer to the Yugoslav border line in Trieste territory tonight and dug machinegun positions for road blocks.

Maj. Gen. Terence S. Airey, British chief civil affairs officer, said more British soldiers were being advanced to the frontier as a precaution.

Barely 2,000 persons tonight attended a communist political rally, the first since the United States, France and Britain announced on Saturday they were proposing that all Trieste free state territory be returned to Italian sovereignty.

The meeting was orderly and had been authorized by the Allied Mil-

United States List Of 7 Basic Points In Free Information

MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

Geneva, Switzerland, March 24 (AP)—The United States called on the nations of the world today to adopt seven basic principles of freedom of information.

William Benton, head of the United States delegation to the United Nations conference on freedom of information, offered the seven-point program as "the touchstone of all the freedoms to which the United Nations is dedicated, without which world peace cannot well be preserved."

Benton, former Assistant Secretary of State, is expected to deliver the general declaration of United States policy tomorrow.

Clay Voids 13 Verdicts In Malmedy War Trial

FRANKFURT, March 24 (AP).—General Lucius D. Clay has disapproved verdicts in the cases of thirteen of the seventy-three Germans convicted in the Malmedy war-crimes trial, the United States Army announced today. Four of the thirteen had been sentenced to death at their trial in 1946 at Dachau. General Clay, commander of the American occupation zone, upheld the sentencing of the other sixty defendants, including twelve who were sentenced to death.

The defendants were tried on charges of killing unarmed prisoners of war and Belgian civilians in the Battle of the Bulge and elsewhere in December, 1944, and January, 1945.

A spokesman said that the general apparently found lack of sufficient evidence in the thirteen cases and that these men probably would go free.

Want to Quit Germany for U. S.

FRANKFURT, March 23 (AP).—Trans-Atlantic air companies today reported an increase in the number of American dependents seeking transportation home from Germany. Company officials said the increase "appears to be due to better weather." They said the dependents gave no indication they had war jitters.

U. S. Troops Raid Camps

Four Truckloads of Contraband Seized Near Frankfurt

FRANKFURT, March 24 (AP).—American troops raided today a Jewish displaced persons camp at nearby Zeilsheim where large-scale black marketing had been reported. German homes also were searched.

The provost marshal said the 1,400 raiders seized four truckloads of contraband. The merchandise included cigarettes and other army sales store merchandise, pencillin, leather, about $2,500 in forbidden United States currency and a few weapons. Some of the new military scrip issued only two days ago to check black marketing was seized.

Several suspects were arrested. Officials said there was no resistance.

Czechs Flee To U.S. Zone

Frankfurt, Germany, March 24 (AP) — American officials estimated today that about 1,500 Czechs have fled into the United States zone of Germany since the Communist coup in Prague a month ago.

Most of them are housed in refugee camps in Bavaria, eating German rations.

A spokesman for the Bavarian State Secretary for Refugees was quoted erroneously by the Associated Press last night as estimating the number of Czech refugees at 8,000. He actually said 800, but an extra cipher was inadvertently added in transmission.

Ex-Czech Official Faces Spy Trial

Prague, March 24 (AP)—Czechoslovakia's Communist Government will try former Deputy Premier Jan Ursiny on charges of aiding spies for Western nations, the Interior Ministry announced today.

Ursiny, a Slovak Democrat, will be the first of several former high office holders to face hearings, the announcement said. The trial will take place before the newly reorganized Supreme Court of Slovakia at Bratislava.

The Interior Ministry charged that Ursiny had used his office in the pre-Communist government to aid a ring of agents operating in lands as distant as Argentina and Sweden.

Aide Also Faces Trial

It said some state secrets from Ursiny's office reached Dr. Ferdinand Durcansky, former Minister of the Slovak state, now under sentence of death after a trial in absentia in Slovakia. Durcansky now is in Argentina.

Otto Obuch, Ursiny's secretary, will be tried with him.

The Interior Ministry also said investigation of an espionage plot in January at the city of Most has involved a number of new suspects. Capt. Josef Kraka, of the Czechoslovak Army staff, already has been sentenced to sixteen years imprisonment, and Lieut. Ivan Popvic to four months by a military court.

A Ministry spokesman said the Most incident was uncovered before the Government crisis which led to the Communist seizure of power. The foreign interests alleged to have been involved were identified only as "Western powers."

Another Envoy Quits

[In Paris the Czech Ambassador to France, Jindrick Nosek, announced he had resigned as a protest of recent events in his country.]

The Food Ministry announced that the bread ration will be increased from ten to slightly more than twelve pounds a month. Wheat shipments from Russia are continuing to arrive, it was stated.

Last night a Communist member of Parliament asserted President Eduard Benes had promised he never will fight Communist policy in Czechoslovakia.

The deputy, B. Stiner, told a group of Czech war veterans that Benes made his statement to Communist Premier Klement Gottwald at the President's country home. He did not say when the statement was made.

Benes Is Quoted

Stiner quoted Benes as follows: "I do not intend to leave the Republic. I never intend to take part in anti-Communist policy. I never will come into contact with those who are enemies of Czechoslovakia."

[The resigned Czechoslovak Ambassador to the United States, Jura J. Slavik, said last week he believed President Benes is a prisoner of the Communists.]

No Soviet Propaganda On War, Bulgars Told

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 24 (AP)—Premier Georgi Dimitrov said today that despite war alarms in the United States "there is no war propaganda in the Soviet Union."

Dimitrov spoke to the largest mass meeting in Sofia's history following his return from Moscow where a Russian-Bulgarian friendship and mutual-aid treaty was signed last week.

"Through this treaty," he said, "our people become not only friends, but also true and devoted allies of the Soviet Union."

He said the United States was buzzing with alarms and rumors of a new war and added:

"In Moscow and the Soviet Union, there reigns complete confidence in the forces of the Soviet people, who are devoting themselves entirely to peaceful work."

U. S. Food Arrives in Poland

WARSAW, Poland, March 24 (AP)—The steamer Mormacpenn arrived at the Baltic port of Gdynia yesterday, carrying 14,000 cartons of food collected in the United States for distribution in Poland. The food, collected by the Abraham Lincoln Friendship Train, will be distributed to Poland's needy through Lutheran World Relief.

Forced to Eat Mules, Grass, Captured Greek Guerrilla Says

MAR 1948

LARISA, Greece, March 24—(AP) A starving guerrilla captured on Mount Olympus said today he and his fellow fighters were forced to eat pack mules and grass during the recent battle on the mountain's slopes.

Ragged and frost bitten, nearly 100 communist-led guerrillas were herded into a detention camp here as the Greek government army claimed one of its most decisive victories of the civil war.

But as the month-long Olympus-Pieria extermination drive neared a successful end for government forces, fresh guerrilla outbreaks were reported in the rugged mountains to the north.

The army air force was alerted tonight for a possible guerrilla invasion or even air attacks to coincide with tomorrow's celebration of Greece's independence day.

Greek and American military sources discounted rumors in Larisa of a possible air attack. However, new anti-aircraft guns installed in the last few days around Greece's most important air base here were visible evidence of official concern.

Stories of the lasts days of the fighting in the Mount Olympus-Pieria region, 33 miles north of Larisa, were told by the captured guerrillas brought here. The Greek general staff announced in Athens that more than 550 guerrillas were killed and more than 500 surrendered or were captured there between Feb. 21 and March 22.

Col. James F. Britingham of Baltimore, Md., chief of American military observers in the Second Greek Army corps, praised the improved Greek Tactics and said the victory "should boost the morale of the entire Greek army."

Rocket attacks from Greek air force spitfires ruined guerrila morale, the captives told reporters.

George Tsintselis, 20, who said he had been forced to accompany the guerrillas for 53 days following a raid on his pindus mountain village, told of men and women in his band killing mules when they ran out of food. Later, he said, they ate grass for 12 days.

Like Tsintselis, all the captured guerrillas told questioners they were forcibly recruited. They simply shrugged when asked why they had joined the forces of guerrilla leader Markos Vafiades.

Praise From Van Fleet

ATHENS, March 24 (AP)—Maj. Gen. James A. Van Fleet praised the Greek Army today for its victory over the Communist-led guerrillas in the battles of Mount Olympus and Mount Pierria.

General Van Fleet, American commander of the military mission in Greece, said that the Greek Army, with air support, had killed or captured 1,155 guerrillas, with about half the losses inflicted in the past week. The original strength of the guerrillas was around 2,000.

"It is a splendid victory, and I have nothing but the highest praise for the Greek Army for achieving this glorious success," he said.

A Salonika newspaper reported that the remainder of the guerrillas mutinied and killed their leaders and signaled to Greek Army units they wished to surrender. There was no official confirmation.

Press dispatches from Larissa said that the Greek Air Force had killed forty-three guerrillas and forced the surrender of 120 others, including thirty-seven women, from a column of guerrillas moving south from Mount Pierria, about fifty miles southwest of Salonika.

PEKKALA IN MOSCOW

Moscow, March 24 (A. P.).—The Finnish Premier Mauno Pekkala arrived in Moscow today to take personal charge of the Finnish side of talks on a proposed treaty with the U. S. S. R. He was accompanied by his personal physician. The six other members of his delegation arrived on Monday.

Pekkala was greeted by the Soviet Foreign Minister, V. M. Molotov, and various members of the Diplomatic Corps, but the British and American embassies were not represented. Pekkala read a brief prepared statement in Russian for the Soviet news reels and radio. This said that he was glad to be in Moscow now, "when we must conduct conversations on such an important subject as a treaty of friendship, cooperation and mutual help."

FINN PREMIER, MOLOTOV MEET

Delayed Negotiations On Pact Started In Moscow

MAR 1948

Moscow, March 24 (AP)—Finnish Prime Minister Mauno Pekkala met briefly with Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Foreign Minister, tonight to start off delayed negotiations for a mutual aid treaty between their countries.

Pekkala, who has been ill, arrived today accompanied by his physician. At 8 o'clock tonight he sat down with Molotov for a 15-minute talk. The actual working conferences on the treaty will begin tomorrow.

Although the six-man delegation headed by Carl Enckell, Finnish Foreign Minister, has been here since Monday, it has had no meetings with Soviet Foreign Ministry officials. With Pekkala's arrival, however, Moscow observers believed the negotiations would proceed quickly.

Greeted By Molotov

It was recalled here that when Romania, Hungary and Bulgaria negotiated similar treaties they sent their Prime Ministers to lead their delegations.

Looking tired from his recent illness, Pekkala arrived at the central airport late this afternoon and was greeted by Molotov and other high Soviet officials. The British and American embassies were not represented.

Enckell stepped forward and buttoned Pekkala's coat collar in a solicitous gesture.

Review Honor Guard

Pekkala shook hands with Molotov affably and together they reviewed an honor guard after a Soviet army band had played the Finnish and Soviet natioanal anthems.

In a brief prepared statement, Pekkala said he regretted he could not come with the rest of the delegation, but he was glad to be in Moscow "when we must conduct negotiations on such an important subject as a treaty of friendship, co-operation and mutual help between our two countries."

Helsinki Speculation

Helsinki, Finland, March 24 (AP)—Prime Minister Mauno Pekkala's surprising departure for Moscow today caused considerable speculation in political circles.

The Premier, who was in the hospital with a serious ear infection when the other delegates left for Moscow by train Saturday, made the trip to the Soviet capital despite the advice of his doctor. He went on a special plane which the Russians sent for him.

The negotiations are understood to have been bound by strict instructions from President Juho Paasikivi to enter into no defense pact with the Soviet Union which would bind Finland to send troops abroad or admit Soviet troops to Finland without an invitation.

Soviet Weekly Charges U. S. Italy Interference

Moscow, March 24 (AP)—The Soviet weekly New Times said today the "immeasurable interference of American ruling circles in the pre-election campaign in Italy was a result of their fear of a victory for the democratic camp."

[The Soviet press customarily calls the Communist parties and Communist - dominated popular fronts democratic.]

New Times severely criticized the United States State Department "threat" to end American economic help to Italy in event of a Popular Front victory and styled it an "attempt to dictate to the Italian people."

Such a victory, New Times said, would upset plans to transform Italy into a "colony of the United States and a base for American imperialistic gambles."

International Referendum

The magazine commented that American newspapers were treating the Italian election "as if it were not an expression of the will of a sovereign people alone, but some sort of international referendum on the question of war or peace."

Pravda and Izvestia published for the first time today the British-American-French proposal of last Saturday that Trieste be returned to Italy. They also printed the Yugoslav protest on the proposal, but made no comment of their own.

All Soviet newspapers featured a large number of attacks on President Truman for his address to the joint session of Congress a week ago today. The papers said an "extraordinary growth in war expenditures in the United States" had followed the address calling for conscription and universal military training. The Literary Gazette said, "Truman and company exposed themselves as aggressors by their yelps of hysteria" and "simultaneously they exposed their fear, terror and weakness."

Soviet Press Attacks Truman Address To Congress

Moscow, March 24 (AP)—The Soviet press today carried attacks on President Truman's address to the joint session of Congress.

All newspapers carried a Tass dispatch from Washington which reported "an extraordinary growth of war expenditures in the United States following Truman's message."

The Government newspaper Izvestia attributed to Secretary of State Marshall a statement that "the question of an American foreign legion of Japanese and Germans is being studied."

Charges Violation

The three-column article went on to say that this was a violation of the Potsdam agreement and other international obligations of the United States.

The Literary Gazette, which frequently has attacked American leaders, asserted that "Truman and company exposed themselves as aggressors by their yelps of hysteria." The article, by N. Tikhonov, added:

"Simultaneously, they exposed their fear, terror and weakness."

Another article along similar lines in the Literary Gazette was labeled "Hysteria As a Business." Still another attacked the Truman Administration in general.

Reaction Of Tass

Tass, the official news agency, said the President's speech to Congress led to a rise in the activities of industries associated with munitions manufacture. It said the President possibly made the speech to enliven the American economy in an election year.

Tass quoted the United States press as saying that prospects for armaments orders might "overcome recent tendencies to overproduction and price drops."

The Russian Viewpoint

Vets Forego Vacations

Moscow, March 24 (AP)—Red Star, the army newspaper, said today that a majority of demobilized Soviet service men are foregoing their paid vacations to go into factories.

Soviet soldiers are guaranteed a month's vacation when demobilized.

Red Star said the service men are anxious to make use of their army experience in Soviet industry.

A Truman Cartoon

Trieste Proposal Printed

Moscow, March 24 (AP)—Pravda and Izvestia published today the Western power proposal that Trieste be returned to Italy. They also printed the full text of Yugoslavia's reaction to the proposal. There was, however, no editorial comment.

It was the first publication in the Russian press of the Trieste suggestion, although the radio commented on it to some extent earlier in the week. The proposal was made Saturday.

Military Chemist Honored

Moscow, March 24 (AP)—Russia has awarded the title of "Master of Science" to the chemist of her Military Academy of Chemical Defense.

Trud, the trade-union newspaper, said today the presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the Russian Soviet Federal Socialist Republic gave the award to Prof. Yakov M. Katushev "for conspicuous achievements in chemical research."

The exact nature of Professor Katushev's achievements was not stated.

CHINESE REDS SEIZE 2 CITIES

Government Troops Reeling Under Blows At 3 Points

Nanking, March 24 (AP)—Government troops reeled today under Chinese Communist blows at three points on the erupting North China front after yielding two coal centers to the Red attackers.

The three points, Fusin, Tzuchuan and Tatung, form a huge triangle. The sides are 450 miles long and the base 370 miles wide.

At the tip, up near the Manchurian border, the coal city of Fusin was captured by Communist troops. (The Communist radio earlier this week said this city, 100 miles west of Mukden, had been taken.)

Tzuchuan Captured

Some 450 miles southwest of Fusin, the great coal center of Tzuchuan in Shantung province, fell to the Communists after several days of bloody fighting.

A Government military spokesman conceded the loss of both cities.

The third fixed point of the imaginary triangle, Tatung, is 370 miles northwest of Tzuchuan. Pro-Government dispatches said this fortified city was under heavy Communist attack. Rail lines over which help must come were severed.

The triangle is completed by drawing an imaginary line 450 miles northeastward from Tatung to Fusin. It is along this line that the Communists are battling to drive out the Government troops and link their North China holdings with those in Manchuria.

Yuhsien Fall Admitted

[Government headquarters in Peiping announced Yuhsien, about 80 miles east of Tatung, was captured by the Communists early today. Yuhsien was a Government stronghold.]

The Government position seemed to be deteriorating rapidly in Shantung province.

The military spokesman said the Communist capture of Tzuchuan cost the Communists 10,000 casualties. (The Communist radio asserted the Government lost twice that many men.)

Nanking Admits Losing Fuhsin, Tzuchuan to Reds

NANKING, March 24 (AP).—Communist capture of two cities in widely separated sectors of China's civil-war front was acknowledged today by a government military spokesman.

Lieutenant General Teng Wen-yi said the coal and railroad center of Fuhsin, 100 miles west of Mukden, was given up last week without a fight. Fuhsin is smaller than the similarly named Manchurian coal center of Fushun, east of Mukden, which remains in government hands.

Also surrendered to the Reds was Tzuchuan, which dominates a broad plateau on the Shantung Peninsula in North China. The city commands the approach to the rich Poshan coal mines. General Teng said it had been garrisoned by one government division.

Dispatches to Peiping reported six Communist divisions were attacking the suburbs of Tatung, key defense point in northern Shansi Province. The Communists had cut the Peiping-Suiyuan rail line, preventing arrival of government reinforcements.

'Must Have' Assistance Of U.S., Cheng Declares

Nanking, March 24 (AP)—A former chief of staff of China's armies said today Chinese Communists are fighting with new weapons supplied by Russia "and for that reason we must have and welcome American assistance."

He did not elaborate on the new weapons. (Government officials frequently have accused Russia of turning over captured Japanese weapons to the Communists.)

The former chief of staff is Gen. Cheng Chien, who now is a candidate for the Vice Presidency of China.

Cheng told a news conference China "has no need to fear Soviet Russia" because it would take the U.S.S.R. fifteen years to prepare for a major conflict.

Ho Protests China Listing With 50 Richest Persons

NANKING, March 24 (AP).—China's former Chief of Staff appealed today to his onetime comrades-in-arms to clear him of criticism that he is one of the nation's fifty richest persons.

General Ho Ying-Chin, now in London wrote to the official "Central Daily News" declaring himself "financially clean," and asked government military leaders to help him prove it.

The national special relief levy committee recently criticized the large holdings of some Chinese—including those of Ho—and proposed heavy taxes against them.

Nanking observers considered the publication of Ho's letter a preliminary move to make him acceptable as a successor to Chief of Staff Chen Cheng, who is going to the United States for medical treatment.

MATA HARI OF ASIA EXECUTED BY ALLIES

PEIPING, (Thursday,) March 25, (AP)—Yoshiko Kawashima, a Manchu princess convicted of spying for Japan, was executed this morning.

The so-called Mata Hari of Asia got her last wish. The execution took place in the compound of her prison, not in the pubic ceremony she had dreaded.

A single shot in the back of her head sufficed.

Left half done was the autobiography she had started.

40 SEIZED AS CHINESE FOIL COMMUNIST PLOT

SHANGHAI, (Thursday), March 25—(AP) Mayor K. C. Wu said today an ambitious Chinese Communist plot to stir up trouble here has been foiled by 40 arrests.

Sabotage of all kinds was plotted, to occur during the National Assembly meeting March 29 and through April and May, he told newsmen. One Communist surrendered and informed police, the mayor explained. He said most of the Reds involved were factory workers.

The mayor said evidence seized in a Communist hideout included plans for wrecking utility buildings and creating general unrest, as well as reports on past strikes.

COAL OUTPUT SHOWS IMPROVEMENT IN JAPAN

TOKYO, (Friday), March 26—(AP) Coal production, fundamental to Japan's economic recovery, showed marked improvement in February, General MacArthur reported today.

Despite better coal output, Japanese heavy industry remained plagued by a shortage of electric power, the supreme commander noted in his monthly summary of occupation activities.

Japan's factories in January increased their output of automobiles, electrical equipment, cameras and leather goods but "in other categories the trend was downward." Rayon yarn output was low.

MacArthur said the import-export program still operates at a deficit. Imports, mostly from the United States, amounted to $525,956,000 in 1947 while exports were only $173,568,000.

Life In Japan

Escape By Ricksha

Tokyo, March 24 (AP)—Modern getaway methods are viewed with lofty disdain by the four-man gang which looted the home of a Tokyo carpenter. The robbers raced out of the house, leaped into a ricksha and were trundled slowly away.

Water Rationing's End

Tokyo, March 24 (AP)—Rationing of water—in effect here since March 3—will be suspended Saturday. Reservoirs have filled from almost continuous rains.

Hoarded-Goods Probe

Tokyo, March 24 (AP)—Japanese sources today reported investigation of hoarded goods at Yokohama and Kobe involving material worth more than a billion yen ($20,000,000). All were reported illegally procured or illegally held.

The newspaper Asahi said the Kobe office of Mitsubishi (one of Japan's top family-monopoly firms) was under investigation for illegally buying huge quantities of navy materials after Japan surrendered.

Japanese Government officials have estimated that 100 billion yen worth of such hoarded materials are cached in this country. An equal amount was recovered by the Allies and turned over to the Japanese Government for distribution.

Federal-Strike Threat

Tokyo, March 24 (AP)—A special meeting of the Japanese Cabinet was called for tonight to consider wage demands of 1,350,000 Government workers threatening to strike tomorrow.

Employés of the Commerce Ministry, tax collectors and some other workers walked out today for 24-hour "vacations."

Theft Of Tax Money

Hiroshima, March 24 (AP)—Kyodo news agency reported today five bandits robbed the Hiroshima post office of 4,000,000 yen ($80,000) in the most daring holdup in this atom-bombed city's history. The money was tax collections.

60,000-Word Plea For Itagaki Begun

Tokyo, March 24 (AP)—The lengthiest argument thus far in behalf of an individual defendant in Japan's war-guilt trial was begun today—a 60,000-word appeal in behalf of Gen. Sheishiro Itagaki, former War Minister.

Attorney Floyd J. Mattice, of Indianapolis, argued that Itagaki was a section chief in the Kwantung Army and hence could not be held responsible for decisions by the Japanese general army staff.

Itagaki is charged with being the brains of the "young officers' clique" of the Kwantung Army which seized Manchuria from China in the early 1930's. Itagaki became War Minister in 1938.

Arguments in the trial of Hideki Tojo and 24 other war leaders are expected to be completed by the second week in April. The international tribunal may reach a verdict during the first half of June.

O'Neal to Report to Truman.

Manila, March 24 (A. P.).—Ambassador Emmet O'Neal said today that he plans to return to the United States next month to report to President Truman on Philippine affairs. He will take his family.

2 Radioactive Ships Sunk Off Kwajalein

Pearl Harbor, March 24 (AP)—Two more target ships of the Bikini atomic bomb tests, the destroyers Mugford and Rhind, were scuttled off Kwajalein Monday, the Navy reported today.

The Mugford was a veteran of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. It was credited with shooting down three Japanese planes that day.

Nine Bikini target vessels now have been scuttled because of radioactivity and deterioration.

Jerusalem Area 'Fort' Attacked By 700 Arabs

Jerusalem, March 24 (AP)—Arab irregulars attacked a fortress-like Jewish stronghold 6 miles north of Jerusalem today, and eleven Jews were known to have been slain.

British troops moved out of barracks here toward the Jewish settlement of Neve Yacoov, where army sources said about 700 Arabs were attacking. British artillery units were alerted for duty.

Two armored cars en route to relieve Neve Yacoov have been immobilized by Arab fire, Palestine police reported.

Neve Yacoov is the only Jewish settlement between Jerusalem and Ramallah, headquarters of Abdul Kader Husseini's Arab Irregulars. It is completely occupied by Haganah, the Jewish militia. Women and children were removed weeks ago.

Fort Commands Highway

The settlement is surrounded by barbed wire and commanded by a two-story concrete pillbox fortress. It has been the scene of a number of skirmishes between Haganah defenders and Arab raiders. The settlement, situated on a high hill, commands the main highway from Jerusalem to the Arab strongholds of Ramallah, Nablus and Jenin.

British security forces, thinned by gradual withdrawal of troops, appear to be losing their fight to prevent chaos in Palestine. Many observers said the situation had deteriorated even in the last 24 hours. Three principal cities—Jerusalem, Haifa and Tel Aviv—are virtually battlegrounds.

Sheik Hassan Bey Salameh, the man assigned by the Arabs to conquer all-Jewish Tel Aviv, has declared that he is ready to do it as soon as the British leave. He has headquarters in all-Arab Jaffa, near Tel Aviv.

Britons Block Street

The Jews rely largely on Haganah, a 25,000-man army.

Traffic policemen and an Immigration Department employé in Jerusalem were injured by gunfire during an Arab-Jewish duel. An armored car and two British constables on a foot patrol exchanged fire with Arabs.

A platoon of British troops moved into the commercial center of the city and blocked a street to the Montefiore Jewish quarter, where an Arab truck bomb damaged some 40 homes last night.

Montefiore, Mejor Haim and the Katomon sections were under mortar and automatic weapon fire early today. An Arab was reported wounded in Katomon.

Arab Bands Appear

On the hills surrounding the city, concentrations of Arab bands appeared.

Haifa went through another night of terror.

A British armored car blasted Jewish and Arab posts in the Tel Aviv-Jaffa borderland, in an effort to break up mortar and machine-gun duels there.

Mortar shells ripped into the wall around Jaffa's Hassan Bey Mosque.

ARABS KILL 37 JEWS IN PALESTINE

26 Victims Of Ambushes Of Convoys; 11 Slain In Hilltop Fort

Jerusalem, March 24 (AP)—Arab attacks on convoys and a Jewish hilltop fortress north of Jerusalem killed 37 Jews today.

Fourteen Jews were killed and ten wounded when Arabs ambushed a two-car armored convoy of Haganah fighters speeding to the relief of beleaguered Neve Yaacov, 6 miles north of Jerusalem.

11 Killed In First Attack

The settlement was reported under attack by 700 Arabs, and eleven Jews were slain in the initial attack.

Twelve Jews were killed and 30 wounded in an attack upon a twelve-bus convoy at Bab el Wad, a town on the main highway from Jerusalem to Tel Aviv.

Bab el Wad is in the Judean hills west of Jerusalem where more than 100 persons were reported killed in heavy fighting during the past few days.

Arab Snipers Shelled

British troops moved into the area with three-pound mortars. Two 25-pound guns of the Royal Artillery blasted away at Arab snipers from a hill position 5 miles west of Jerusalem.

Three trucks in the twelve-car convoy were destroyed by mines and three others disabled. The remaining six sought refuge in a filling station and were reported attacked by 200 Arab riflemen.

Many vehicles were held up on the vital highway by the wrecked trucks. A British army observation plane circled overhead.

New Violence In Jerusalem

The unofficial death toll in Palestine since the United Nations decision on partition mounted to 2,080.

New violence flared tonight in the embattled Montefiore district in Jerusalem. This Jewish area has been under attack by Arabs nightly since Sunday.

Haganah, the Jewish Army, sent an armored car and bus to relieve the stronghold of Neve Yaacov, 6 miles north of Jerusalm, but Arabs ambushed the Jewish fighters.

An official statement said that casualties were prevented from mounting higher through the intervention of Lieut. Gen. G. H. A. MacMillan, commander in chief of British forces in Palestine, and Brigadier Glubb Pasha, British commander of the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion.

Allow Wounded To Be Moved

They interceded with the Arabs so the wounded Jews could be taken to Hadassah Hospital in Jerusalem, the statement said. Both commanders were traveling on the main highway north from Jerusalem which goes through Neve Yaacov and leads to Ramallah, an Arab military headquarters, and other Arab strong points.

Neve Yaacov is on a high hill. It is surrounded by barbed wire and commanded by a two-story concrete pillbox fortress. Women and children have been moved out and only Haganah fighters remain.

The Arab attackers were irregulars under the command of Abdul Kader Husseini. British military sources said about 700 of his men were deployed around the settlement, long a thorn in the side of the Arab forces.

Three Major Battle Areas

Three major battle areas were developing in Palestine and British security forces, weakened by the gradual transfer of troops out of the Holy Land, appeared to be losing out in attempts to prevent spreading chaos.

Jerusalem, Haifa and Tel Aviv were the principal battlefields. Arab bands concentrated on the hills around Jerusalem and jittery citizens went to work this morning with bullets whining overhead. Guns and bombs sounded all last night.

Three Arabs, including a woman, were killed and three Arab women injured when Jews fired on a private car near Mishmar Hasharon on the Haifa-Tel Aviv road. Two Arabs were killed on the same road in an ambush. One Jew was shot dead near Tel Aviv.

Jews Attack Village

Six Arabs were killed and three Arabs wounded when Jews attacked Quann, a village in northern Palestine, police said. Eight houses were demolished. One Arab was killed on the Haifa-Jaffa road and another on the Jaffa-Gaza highway.

Nine Arabs held up a British military vehicle north of the Sea of Galilee and took a quantity of arms and ammunition.

In Jaffa, Sheik Hassan Bey Salameh, commander of an Arab force known as "Mediterranean Irregulars," said in an interview that his troops were prepared to carry out their assignment to conquer the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv as soon as the British leave. He said the attack will be a combined infantry and artillery operation.

Wanted As Nazi Agent

The British plan to yield their mandate on May 15 and get the last of their troops out by August 1.

The 37-year-old Hassan Bey has been wanted by the British on charges of being a Nazi agent. In 1941 he fled to Iraq with the Mufti of Jerusalem, Haj Amin el Husseini. He rebelled against the British with the famed Rashid Ali al Gailani in Baghdad and was sent back to Palestine to organize an underground anti-British force. This was halted by the British-Iraq agreement and he finally went to Germany during the war.

Hassan Bey won the rank of major in the Nazi army and parachuted into the Holy Land to organize the Arabs against the Allies. He was the only one of the parachute party of five to survive and the British put a price on his head. The price still stands.

Arab Reveals Plan To Take Tel Aviv

Jaffa, Palestine, March 24 (AP)—Sheik Hassan Bey Salameh, the man the Arabs have assigned to conquer the Jewish city of Tel Aviv, says he is ready to do it as soon as the British leave.

"When the British evacuate, it will be a matter of war and not revolution," Hassan Bey said. "Until now we could not carry out our plans because of the presence of the British Army. When they leave, with God's help, we will take and occupy Tel Aviv." DAVIDSON

Hassan Bey, 37 and portly, has been sought by the British for eight years as a Nazi agent.

'Chuted Into Holy Land

A veteran of the German Army, he flew from Berlin for a jump into Palestine to organize Arabs in 1944. He now commands all Arab fighters from Herzliya to Magdala and in the inland foothills of the Judean mountains.

Hassan Bey says infantry and artillery will be used against Tel Aviv.

"We have enough to break down the Zionists and overcome them," he said. He complained that the British have interferred with his plans.

"They won't even let us starve out Tel Aviv," he said.

"I have hated the British ever since the day when I was a little boy and stood in my village of Kula, south of Ramle, and saw the British slaughter my countrymen. That was in the revolt of 1921."

Indonesian Extremist Plot Nipped, Dutch Say

Batavia, Java, March 24 (AP)—A Netherlands East Indies Army communiqué said today a conspiracy of Indonesian extremists was discovered on the island of Biak ten days ago and that 40 persons have been arrested.

Biak is a small island north of New Guinea.

The communiqué said further arrests are expected, although the situation is quiet now. Some leaders were among those arrested, the communiqué said.

Aneta, the Dutch news agency, said a state of emergency was proclaimed on Biak the night of March 14, and that women and children in isolated spots were taken to protective camps. Aneta said it had learned a civil servant had been arrested.

The purpose of the reported conspiracy was not stated here.

Airliner In Successful Belly Landing At Accra

Accra, Gold Coast, March 24 (AP). A Pan American World Airways plane made a successful belly landing with 30 passengers aboard at Accra Airport today after the landing gear failed.

The pilot of the Constellation, Capt. A. L. McCulloch, of Garden City, N.Y., circled the field for 3½ hours in an unsuccessful attempt to drop the landing gear before he made the landing. None of the passengers or crew was injured. They included residents of the United States, Great Britain and Portugal.

McCulloch refused to accept credit for the successful emergency landing, saying the passengers and his crew had saved the plane. He said that while he was circling the field, they remained calm and moved all baggage to the tail of the plane to facilitate the landing.

Egypt Approves Raise In World Fund Share

Cairo, March 24 (AP)—The Egyptian Chamber of Deputies approved a bill authorizing the Government to raise Egypt's Shore in the World Monetary Fund from $45,000,000 to $60,000,000 and her share in the international bank from $40,000,000 to $53,300,000.

The chamber's financial committee suggested that the monetary fund and the international bank choose Egypt as the deposit place for Egypt's gold and the gold of the mid-East countries and for dollars shares in both organizations.

EASTER IN JERUSALEM

Jerusalem, March 24 (A. P.).—A Government spokesman said today that arrangements are being made to ensure the holding of religious services within the strife-torn Old City of Jerusalem during the approaching holy days—the Christian Easter, the Jewish Passover and the Moslem Neba Musa. The Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the Wailing Wall and the Mosques of Omar and Al Aqsa are among the shrines within the old city.

The spokesman said that the negotiators hope to make possible at least a temporary truce, but that for security reasons the number able to attend may be limited in some cases.

MAR 1948

Trade Charter

BEN F. MEYER

Havana, Cuba, March 24 (AP)—The United Nations Trade Conference offered to the world today a charter aimed at helping the promotion of commerce between all the nations of the world.

A final act certifying the accuracy of the charter was signed by 53 nations. That step ended a conference which began here November 21.

The charter will go to the home governments of the 53 nations for approval or rejection. All nations may apply for admission.

The signing carried no obligation, but two nations—Argentina and Poland—refused to put their signatures upon the charter. A third, Turkey, did not sign because of a communications problem. H. Kunter, the delegate from that country, said cable tolls to Ankara prevented transmission of the lengthy charter, but that he hoped arrangements would be worked out for approving a quick signature by Turkey.

Argentina Refuses To Sign

Argentina refused to sign and attacked the charter as a project of a super state. The Communist press here saw Argentina's action as a blow to the United States.

Poland said its government had no time to study the charter. The Polish delegate said this did not mean Poland would not sign the document in the future.

Czechoslovakia, another Communist-led nation, was among the signers. Russia and Spain were not represented at the conference. Russia refused to participate and Spain was not invited.

Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, sent a special message to the conference saying the delegates were still faced with the task of positive action to stimulate and expand the flow of goods between nations.

"It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of this great task, one which will certainly call for great imagination and constructive statesmanship on the part of your future director-general and your executive board," Lie said.

Would Create Trade Group

The charter, upon approval by a majority of the nations signing the act, would create an international trade organization with headquarters in Geneva.

The charter is a book in itself. It sets forth the idea of eliminating the various rules, restrictions, and other barriers nations have established which limit foreign trade.

Because the charter emerged at a time when the world is having economic troubles, many exceptions or escape clauses were written in for temporary use. Many delegates expressed doubt about these escape provisions, saying if abused they would destroy the whole idea of the charter.

The British insisted upon such temporary privileges and said frankly they would have to keep on using them for awhile.

Summary of the International Trade Organization Charter Signed in Havana

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, March 24—Following is a summary, prepared by the United Nations Department of Public Information, of the charter for an International Trade Organization, consisting of nine chapters and 106 articles, adopted here today by the United Nations Conference on Trade and Employment:

CHAPTER 1
Purpose and Objectives

The first Chapter (Article 1) states in broad terms the purpose and objectives of the Charter and of the ITO. The purpose is defined by reference to Article 55 of the Charter of the United Nations. The objectives are listed as:

(a) To assure a large and steadily growing volume of real income and effective demand, to increase the production, consumption and exchange of goods, and so to contribute to a balanced and expanding world economy.

(b) To promote industrial and general economic development, particularly of those countries which are still in the early stages of industrial development, and to encourage the international flow of capital for productive investment.

(c) To further the enjoyment by all countries, on equal terms, of access to the markets, products and productive facilities which are needed for their economic prosperity and development.

(d) To promote on a reciprocal and mutually advantageous basis the reduction of tariffs and other barriers to trade and the elimination of discriminatory treatment in international commerce.

(e) To enable countries, by increasing the opportunities for their trade and economic development, to abstain from measures which would disrupt world commerce, reduce productive employment or retard economic progress.

(f) To facilitate the solution of problems relating to international trade in the fields of employment, economic development, commercial policy, business practices and commodity policy.

CHAPTER 2
Employment and Economic Activity
(Articles Two to Seven)

Chapter 2 declares that the avoidance of unemployment and underemployment is not of domestic concern alone but is also a necessary condition for the realization of the general objectives of the Charter, including the expansion of international trade, and for the well-being of all other countries.

Under Article 3 (Maintenance of Domestic Employment) each member will take action to achieve and maintain full and productive employment and a large and steadily growing demand within its own territory through measures appropriate to its political, economic and social institutions. Members will seek to avoid measures creating balance-of-payments difficulties for other countries. Where persistent maladjustment in a member's balance of payments leads to balance-of-payments difficulties for other members, which would handicap them in maintaining full employment without resort to trade restrictions, the member is to make its full contribution and appropriate action is to be taken by the other members concerned to correct the situation. Such action should expand rather than contract international trade.

Article 6 (Safeguards for Members Subject to External Inflationary or Deflationary Pressure) recognizes that members may need to take action to safeguard their economies against inflationary or deflationary pressure from abroad. In the case of deflationary pressure special consideration is to be given to the effect on any member of a serious or abrupt decline in the effective demand of the other countries. Article 7 (Fair Labor Standards) calls on members to do whatever is appropriate and feasible to eliminate substandard conditions of labor, and refers in this connection to cooperation with the International Labor Organization.

CHAPTER 3
Economic Development and Reconstruction
(Articles Eight to Fifteen)

Chapter 3 (Economic Development and Reconstruction) recognizes that all countries have a common interest in the productive use of the world's human and material resources. Under Article 9, members are obligated progressively to develop and to reconstruct industrial and other economic resources and to raise standards of productivity. There must be cooperation between members and with the Economic and Social Council and with the ITO to promote economic development as well as reconstruction of war-devastated countries. Members undertake, under Article 11, not to impose unreasonable impediments in the way of obtaining facilities for development or reconstruction, nor to take action injuring the enterprise, skills, capital, arts or technology supplied by other members.

Article 12 deals with international investment for economic development and reconstruction. It recognizes that public and private international investment can be of great value in promoting development and reconstruction. But members have the right, without prejudice to existing international agreements, to insure that foreign investment is not used as a basis for interference in their internal affairs or national policies, and to determine to what extent and upon what terms they will allow future foreign investment. Members also have the right to state, in just terms, requirements as to the ownership of existing and future investments. Subject to these rights, members undertake to provide reasonable opportunities for investments acceptable to them and adequate security for existing and future investments. They also agree that it is desirable to avoid discrimination between foreign investments.

Limits on Restrictions Set

The need for governmental assistance to economic development and reconstruction of particular industries or branches of agriculture in the form of protective measures, such as quantitative import restrictions, is recognized in Article 13. But unwise use of such measures would put a burden on the economies of the members using them and unwarranted restrictions on international trade. A distinction is made between measures conflicting with negotiated obligations (i.e., obligations assumed through negotiations with other members but not conflicting with the commercial policy obligations under the Charter) and measures that do conflict with Charter obligations.

Protective measures of the former type are to be settled mainly by direct negotiations between the members concerned. Measures of the latter type must be referred to the ITO for approval. Automatic ITO approval will be granted if certain stated criteria are fulfilled. These criteria relate to certain types of industries and their date of establishment. The Article also deals with damage to trade resulting from protective measures, emergency action to offset excessive imports and the need for secrecy in administering the provisions.

Special circumstances may justify preferential agreements for economic development and reconstruction (Article 15). The ITO must be informed of any proposed new preferential arrangement and may authorize it by a two-thirds majority. ITO approval will, however, be given automatically if the new preferential arrangement fulfills stated conditions or criteria. Among these are (a) contiguous territories among the parties to the arrangement, or belonging to the same economic region, and (b) the preferential rates involved must insure a sound market for the branch of industry or agriculture to be protected. If the new arrangement is found to be likely to injure the trade of members outside the arrangement, procedures are laid down for negotiating satisfactory compensation.

CHAPTER 4
Commercial Policy
(Articles 16 to 45)

Section A. Tariffs, Preferences, and Internal Taxation and Regulation

Under Article 16, members agree to give most-favored-nation treatment to other members in all matters respecting customs duties, charges on imports and exports or on transfer of payments for imports and exports, and importing and exporting rules and formalities. Existing preferential systems are allowed to remain, subject to the commitment, under Article 17, which obliges members to undertake negotiations directed to a substantial reduction of tariffs and to the elimination of preferences on a reciprocal and mutually advantageous basis. Existing preference margins are not to be increased. Rules are laid down for conducting such negotiations.

If a member is found to have failed to negotiate in good faith, the ITO may authorize the withholding of benefits under the most-favored nation clause. Successful conclusion of negotiations will have the effect of bringing members into the group of contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Article 18 provides that internal taxes and trade regulations are in general not to be more severe upon products imported from other members than upon domestic products. One of the exceptions (Article 19) permits, subject to certain conditions, the use of screen quotas to protect national film industries.

Section B. Quantitative Restrictions and Related Exchange Matters.

Quantitative restrictions on imports and exports are in general prohibited (Article 20). But a number of temporary and permanent exceptions, other than those on balance-of-payments grounds, are permitted. Among the temporary exceptions is the preventing or relieving of a critical shortage of food. Restrictions covering agricultural or fisheries products needed for the enforcement of internal government control schemes are also excepted.

Balance-of-Payments Situation

Article 21 deals with restrictions to safeguard the balance of payments. It is recognized that while it is primarily the responsibility of each member to maintain a stable balance-of-payments situation, an unstable situation may harm the position of other members and may affect international trade. A member may, to safeguard its external financial position, restrict the quantity or value of its imports, subject to the rules and within the criteria laid down in this Article.

Article 22 sets out the way in which quantitative restrictions to safeguard balance of payments should be administered without discriminating between exporting countries.

Article 23, in view of the problems of post-war adjustments, authorizes members, with suitable safeguards, to deviate from the principle of non-discrimination during a transitional period. Until March 1, 1952, ITO approval is not required. But members who discriminate in their import restrictions must promote the maximum development of multilateral trade during the transitional period. Alternative procedures, known as the "Havana option" and the Geneva "option," are available for members requiring to operate under this Article.

Article 23 also permits a member applying quantitative restrictions for balance-of-payments purposes to direct its exports in such a way as to increase its earnings of hard currencies, provided it does not deviate from the non-discrimination principle laid down in Article 21.

Working arrangements between the ITO and the International Monetary Fund are defined in Article 24. The ITO is obligated to accept all statistical and other facts presented by the fund. This includes matters concerning monetary reserves, balance of payments and foreign exchange. The ITO may require non-fund members to enter into a special exchange agreement with the ITO. Such agreements would place on such members obligations similar to those under the fund.

Section C—Subsidies

Articles 25 to 28 deal with subsidies, including any form of income or price support, that operate to maintain or increase exports or to reduce (or prevent an increase in) imports. Members are obliged to give full details of the subsidies they are using and to discuss limitation of subsidies with members whose trade is affected.

The abandoning of export subsidies as a general policy is to take place as soon as possible, and in any event not later than two years after the Charter enters into force, although the ITO has powers to grant extensions.

However, as regards primary commodities, special provision is made for the use of export subsidies in certain defined circumstances. Members may not use subsidies on primary products to gain more than a fair share of world trade in the products concerned.

Section D—State Trading

Articles 29 to 32 lay down the principle that state-trading enterprises must be guided by commercial principles in buying and selling and must avoid discrimination. Marketing organizations are included. An exception is allowed for imports of products for governmental use. State trading is also brought within the Charter obligations for reduction of preferences.

Section E—General Commercial Provisions

The general purpose of the so-called technical articles, Articles 33 to 39 is to provide standard rules for the administration of freedom of transit, valuation for customs, import and export formalities, marks of origin, trade regulations and trade terminology. This section also provides rules covering anti-dumping and countervailing duties.

Section F—Special Provisions

Article 40 deals with emergency action allowed in the event of concessions under this Chapter resulting in a sudden flood of imports that threaten serious injury to domestic producers.

Articles 42, 43 and 44 deal with the territorial application of this Chapter. They allow for measures otherwise inconsistent with the Charter for a group of countries to take steps toward forming a customs union. The formation of free-trade areas, involving the elimination of tariffs and other commercial restrictions between a group of countries is also provided for.

Article 45 deals with general exceptions to Chapter 4. In addition to the standard exceptions to commercial treaties, there are a number of temporary exceptions connected with emergency conditions, such as post-war shortages.

CHAPTER 5
Restrictive Business Practices
(Articles 46 to 54)

Members are obligated to take action against restrictive business practices in international trade wherever they are contrary to the principles of the Charter. A procedure is laid down for the ITO to investigate complaints concerning the effects of such practices as price-fixing, territorial exclusion, discrimination, production quotas, technological restrictions, misuse of patents, trade-marks and copyrights. The powers of the ITO will be limited mainly to instructing the offending member to correct the abuse and to publication of the facts.

As regards services such as transportation, insurance and the commercial services of banks, the ITO will have only restricted authority for dealing with complaints of harmful practices. If direct negotiations between members is unsuccesaful, the ITO will refer such complaints to the appropriate international agency, where one exists. In other cases, the ITO may be asked to make recommendations.

CHAPTER 6
Intergovernmental Commodity Agreements
(Articles 55 to 70)

Recognizing the special difficulties affecting primary commodities, Chapter 6 lays down the objectives of intergovernmental commodity agreements, the procedures for conducting study groups and for holding commodity conferences, the general principles which are to govern commodity agreements and the types of agreements which may be concluded. The ITO is to be concerned with all types of agreements, including "expansionist" agreements intended to enlarge world production and consumption of a commodity. But the ITO is specially concerned in laying down rules to cover "control" types of agreements, which may have harmful restrictive effects on trade.

Members are obligated to enter into new control type agreements only through Charter procedures. If, however, there is unreasonable delay, interested countries may proceed by direct negotiation.

Commodity-control agreements are to be entered into only when there is a burdensome surplus or widespread unemployment, which could not be corrected by normal market forces alone. These agreements are to insure the availability of supplies adequate at all times to meet world demand at reasonable prices. Guiding principles for administering control agreements are laid down, but particular methods to be used for dealing with specific commodities are not given, this being left to be worked out by the countries especially interested, through defined procedures.

Disputes arising out of control agreements will normally be settled in the appropriate commodity council. If this fails, they will be referred to the ITO.

The main exceptions to the Charter directives relate to commodities dealt with under state-trading arrangements, to agreements between one exporting and one importing country, to agreements dealing only with fair distribution of scarce commodities, and to agreements concerned with conservation of exhaustible resources or of fisheries, migratory birds and wild animals.

CHAPTER 7
The International Trade Organization
(Articles 71 to 91)

Chapter 7 sets out the structure and functions of the ITO (except for settlement of differences).

Section A—(Articles 71 to 73) lays down the conditions of membership and provides for the admission of separate customs territories and United Nations Trust Territories under certain conditions. Article 69 lists the main functions of the ITO, in addition to those functions specified in other Chapters. The structure of the ITO is to comprise a Conference, an Executive Board and such Commissions as the ITO may establish. There is to be a Director General and staff.

Section B—(Articles 74 to 77) details the composition, sessions, procedure, officers, powers and duties of the Conference. Each member will have one vote in the Conference.

Section C—(Articles 78 to 81) details the composition and powers of the Executive Board. The board will consist of eighteen members, to be selected partly as representing members and customs unions of chief economic importance, and partly by a two-thirds majority vote. Each member of the board will have one vote.

Section D—(Articles 82 and 83) gives the Conference powers to set up Commissions.

Section E—(Articles 84 and 85) lays down regulations covering the Director General and the staff.

Section F—(Articles 86 to 91) deals with other organizational provisions. Under Article 86 (Relations with the United Nations) members recognize that the ITO should not attempt to take action that would involve passing judgment on essentially political matters. Any measure taken by a member directly in connection with a political matter brought before the United Nations in accordance with the provisions of the United Nations Charter will fall within the scope of the United Nations and will not be subject to ITO Charter provisions.

Other articles in Section F deal with relations with other organizations, the international responsibilities of the Director General and his staff, the legal status of the ITO, and contributions.

CHAPTER 8

Settlement of Differences

(Articles 92 to 97)

Chapter 8 provides procedures for dealing with complaints by members.

If any member considers that any benefit accruing to it directly or indirectly, implicitly or explicitly, under any of the provisions of the Charter is being nullified or impaired, the member concerned may first resort to consultation or arbitration, keeping the ITO informed. Failing settlement, the dispute may be referred to the Executive Board (Article 94), with provision for appeal to the Conference (Article 95). The ITO may, under Article 96, request from the International Court of Justice advisory opinions on legal questions arising within the scope of ITO activities.

In dealing with complaints and settlement of differences, members undertake not to have recourse to any procedures other than those envisaged in the Charter. Members also undertake, without prejudice to any other international agreement, not to resort to unilateral economic measures of any kind contrary to the Charter provisions.

The rules of procedure for settlement of differences will be established by the ITO.

CHAPTER 9

General Provisions

Nothing in the Charter will preclude any member from maintaining economic relations with non-members (Article 98), but members recognize that arrangements with non-members to obtain preferential trade treatment or to conduct trade with non-members in a way that would injure trade with members should be avoided. The problems arising out of relations with non-members will be studied further by the ITO.

Article 99 lists the general exceptions to the Charter. No member will be required to give information that it considers contrary to its essential security interests. No member will be prevented from taking whatever action it considers necessary in relation to fissionable materials, traffic in arms or in time of war or other emergency in international relations, or in carrying out agreements made by or for a military establishment for the purpose of meeting essential requirements of national security. Nothing in the Charter will override the World War II peace settlements.

Articles 100 to 102 deal with amendments, review of the Charter, withdrawal and termination.

The Charter will enter into force (Article 103) sixty days after ratification by a majority of governments signing the Final Act. If by April, 1949, the Charter is not in force, the ratification of only twenty governments will be needed. If the Charter is not in force by October, 1949, the governments that have ratified it will discuss on what terms they desire to bring the Charter into force.

Articles 104, 105 and 106 deal with territorial application, the annexes and authenticity of texts.

Experts Define Terms on Trade Used in Charter Signed at Havana

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, March 24—Following is an explanation, prepared by the United Nations Department of Public Information, of the most important technical terms in the new world trade charter:

"Most-Favored-Nation Treatment" means that whatever benefit a country extends to trade with any other country with regard to tariff rates, customs treatment and related matters must immediately be extended to its trade with all other countries entitled to receive such treatment. In the case of the Charter, this means all members of the ITO.

"National Treatment" means that the products of any country imported into another country will not be subject to higher taxes or any other type of less favorable treatment than domestic products of the same sort.

"Multilateral Trade" means trade flowing freely among more than two countries, as opposed to "bilateral trade," which relates to the flow of goods between two countries. ITO members agree under the Charter to eliminate, by stages, preferential arrangements and the discriminatory use of quotas, for instance, thereby diminishing bilateral trading and promoting multilateral trading.

"Preferential Arrangements" refers to the arrangements made by some countries to allow imports from certain other countries or areas to enter at rates of duty that are lower than their general or most-favored-nation rates. The difference between the lower, or preferential rate, and the most-favored-nation rate is called the "margin of preference."

"Quantitative Restriction" is a restriction on the quantity of a particular product that a country allows to be imported. A tariff, however high, is not an absolute barrier to the movement of goods, since an exporting country can, for instance, reduce its production costs, obtain the entry of its products over the tariff wall. But a quantitative restriction, such as an import quota, sets an absolute limit on the amount of a particular product that may be imported. In the long run quantitative restrictions tend to become discriminatory in effect and to freeze opportunities for exporting countries.

"Balance-of-Payments-Difficulties" means that a country cannot earn enough current foreign exchange to pay for all its imports. A country in this position must either draw on its capital reserves or borrow. In this situation the country is said to have a disequilibrium in its balance of payments; that is, in the account of its transactions with the rest of the world. Faced with these circumstances, countries may find it necessary to reduce the size of their bill for foreign products so as to cut down the drain on their resources. The simplest way to reduce imports of foreign goods is to use a quota that sets an absolute maximum to imports.

"A Customs Union" means the combining of two or more customs territories into a single customs territory, so that tariffs and other restrictive commercial regulations are eliminated between the members of the union. At the same time members of the customs union apply substantially similar tariffs and other regulations to the trade of countries outside the union. The rates of duty applied will not be higher than the average among the territories concerned applied before the establishment of the customs union.

"A Free Trade Area" is a new term. It applies to a group of two or more customs territories among which tariffs and other restrictive commercial regulations are eliminated on substantially all trade in products that originate in the countries belonging to the free-trade area. Tariff rates with the outside world would not be affected.

Canada Seeking Army Recruits

Ottawa, March 24 (AP)—Brooke Claxton, Defense Minister, called in Parliament today for recruits for the Canadian active and reserve military services.

He said recruits are needed "so that we can be ready to meet any emergency and maintain the existence of our country and the freedom of our people."

In a restatement of the current and authorized strength of the armed forces, he said that at the end of February the strength was 34,276, 80 per cent of the authorized strength of 42,145.

ROBINSON TO FACE CANADIAN INQUIRY

TORONTO, March 24—(AP) Reid Robinson, eastern vice-president of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (CIO) will face a three-man board of inquiry here tomorrow to determine whether he may legally remain in Canada.

The hearing was adjourned today at Robinson's request after a half-hour session and he was released until 9:30 a.m. tomorrow on $500 bail.

Robinson was brought from Timmins, Ont., yesterday by Royal Canadian mounted police who arrested him on the direction of Ottawa immigration department officials. Police said he was held in line with the government policy which bars entry of alien communists into Canada.

The closed hearing will investigate Robinson's activities in northern mining camps.

Since his arrival in Canada from the United States last October, Robinson has worked as a union organizer in northern Ontario and Quebec mining areas. Four other organizers who accompanied Robinson to Canada and who are continuing union work in the mining areas are said to be under surveillance by immigration officials and the length of their stay in the dominion may depend on the outcome of Robinson's hearing.

UNION LEADER HELD

Toronto, March 24 (A. P.).—Reid Robinson, eastern vice-president of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (C. I. O.), was brought here today by immigration authorities. The officials said that he will be questioned concerning alleged Communist activities in northern Ontario.

Robinson was arrested yesterday at Timmins, Ont., under the new Canadian policy directing immigration officials to exclude Communist labor leaders. Robinson came to Ontario last October from the United States.

Air Force to Expand, Seeks 25,000 More Men In Surprise Campaign

MAR 1948

BAN IS REMOVED ON MARRIED MEN TO ATTAIN GOAL

Drive Launched as Senate Group Hears Testimony on Draft, UMT.

ARGUMENTS CONFLICT

Mrs. FDR Changes Stand, Goes on Record as Favoring Military Training.

WASHINGTON, March 24—(AP) The air force unexpectedly announced a drive for 25,000 more men today as a Senate committee heard clashing testimony on the need for universal military training and a draft bill.

Last week the air force said it had 312,000 men and would accept no more enlistments. But today it boosted its goal to 337,000 and to gain it, lifted the ban on recruiting married men.

The Senate Armed Services committee studying President Truman's plea for a draft and UMT as a means of discouraging communist expansion received these contradictory arguments:

Mrs. FDR Backs UMT

1. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt in a letter to Chairman Gurney (R-SD) gave her support to Universal military training as "a gesture which would be understood" by Russia.

2. Albert Einstein in a letter to Gurney said he was convinced that there was "no forseeable x x threat of hostile invasion x x of the United States" and consequently he opposed UMT.

3. Dr. Isaiah Bowman, president of Johns Hopkins university, favored UMT, saying 'it is no good for a town without a fire department to send in a mail order for a fire engine when it hears that a house is burning."

4. Arthur H. Compton, who helped plan use of atomic bombs in the last war, favored both draft and UMT. He said the atomic bomb would offer little defense in present world conditions.

Wallace Backer Hits Plan

5. Seymour Linfield, New York, a Henry Wallace supporter, bitterly opposed armed preparedness, and refused to tell senators whether he is or ever was a member of the Young Communist league.

6. The Rev. A. Powell Davies of Washington, strongly favored preparedness—even if it means war—and said it would strengthen our prestige with nations abroad who fear our foreign policy is not dependable.

7. Don S. Willner, Harvard senior, opposed UMT but took no stand on the draft.

8. Gerhart Seger, former member of the German Reichstag but now a naturalized citizen, favored a draft but opposed UMT because he said it had ruined Germany.

Mrs. Roosevelt, wife of the late president, wrote that she formerly opposed UMT but today she had changed her mind.

"I would hope that when the United Nations force came into being and was trained and ready for use," she said, "we would change our universal military training to universal training for citizenship."

Einstein Fears Arms Race

Einstein, now at Princeton, N.J, wrote that he feared compulsory military training would merely speed the armaments race, undermine the democratic spirit of America, and "inevitably generate that militaristic spirit in the population which has been fatal to so many nations in the past."

Compton, president of Washington university, St. Louis, and a brother of Dr. Karl Compton, head of the President's commission that planned UMT, strongly favored preparedness. He said it was a mistake to believe that the next war will be fought largely with long-range weapons, and that few men will be needed in our armed forces.

Bowman of Johns Hopkins said "whatever is distant seems unreal, especially if it is military danger."

But he said the danger is growing real, and America must arm.

He said peace treaties are signed by Moscow "only to lull the fears of the other signers. The terms are broken before the ink is dry."

Linfield testified as "veterans director of the national Wallace-for-President committee representing the Progressive Citizens of America."

For more than half an hour he avoided a direct yes or no answer to the question about the communist organization.

But he was emphatic in his opposition to both universal military training and a temporary draft, both urged by President Truman as a means of discouraging communist expansion.

Highlight of Session

Linfield's testimony highlighted the day's session.

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) and Senators Baldwin (R-Conn), Saltonstall (R-Mass) and Byrd (D-Va) all questioned him about his connections, if any, with the communist movement.

Linfield said he would "not state anything about my faith or religious views."

UMT supporters, he declared at one point, are trying to "cover those who opose UMT and the Truman doctrine with the label of communism."

Gurney finally told him the record would show that he refused to answer the question.

Linfield said no nation, including Soviet Russia, threatens America. He said the Truman doctrine will send vast numbers of American troops to Italy, Greece, the Near East, Manchuria, Korea and Western Europe.

Zone Stand Held Fresh Notice To Russia

MAR 1948

Washington, March 24 (AP)—The decision to keep the American zone of Germany under army control indefinitely put Russia on fresh notice today that the United States means business in its stop-communism drive.

The move was generally regarded here as a step to strengthen one of the most important sections of the line this country wants to hold against Soviet expansion in Europe.

The White House announced late yesterday that plans to place a civilian governor over the American zone of Germany on July 1 had been abandoned.

"Following a review of the present situation," the announcement said, "it has been decided that it would be inadvisable to make any changes in our present administrative arrangements for Germany."

Clay Retained As Governor

The statement declared that Gen. Lucius D. Clay "remains as military governor and as commander in chief of the United States forces in Europe."

Those forces presently occupy the American zone in Germany, the American zone in Austria, and share with the British the occupation of Trieste.

They are relatively a small group—100,000 all told. But their psychological value as a symbol to non-Communist nations of the presence of American military power on the continent has always been rated high by Secretary of State Marshall and his advisers.

The Allied positions form a stiff if thin line which the Russians would have to penetrate before they could launch any drive to the west.

Better Guarantee Than Treaty

Diplomatic officials privately contend that the presence of these forces in many ways is a better guarantee to western Europe of American military support than a formal treaty would be.

Militarily, the weakest sections of the line confronting Russian Europe are its northern and southern ends—the Scandinavian countries and Italy. Hence, much of present American foreign policy is designed to strengthen those two sections by political means.

The White House announcement on Germany was obviously part of the same fundamental American policy which last Saturday led this Government to join with Britain and France in proposing the return of Trieste to Italy.

to the end of 1947.

2. Since V-J day, the War Assets administration has sold 21,278 combat-type planes for scrap, at scrap prices, "some of which were obviously new."

Truman May Ban Exports

3. President Truman is expected to issue a proclamation "within a few days" banning the export of all airplane engines and other supplies used "predominantly for military purposes."

4. The State department has "not yet worked out its policy on the distinction between shipment of American goods to friendly and unfriendly countries."

High officials of the War Assets administration and the State department testified on all these points except the reported shipment of airplane engines to Russia.

Clarence Carruthers, president of the Wall Street Aeronautical Supplies Firm of Carruthers, Inc., told the committee:

"Everybody in New York knows there are boxes and cases marked for Russia lying all over the New York waterfront. They are being loaded every day. They're being loaded this afternoon, for that matter, and they've been loaded for the last three days I know of.

"I've seen diamond (oil-drilling) tools for Russia and other materials ear-marked for Praha (Prague), Czechoslovakia," he went on.

Asked by Rep. Rizley (R.-Okla.), sub-committee chairman, to name some of the alleged shippers, Carruthers ticked off a list which included Pratt and Whitney, (the witness did not say whether he meant the firm that makes machine tools or the one that builds plane engines), General Electric and Western Electric.

Boxes Marked for Soviet Lying 'All Over N.Y. Waterfront,' Witness Says.

WASHINGTON, March 24—(AP) Testimony that American warplane engines have been shipped to Russia within the last six months and that shipping boxes marked for Russia are lying "al over the New York water-front" was presented to Congress today.

In rapid-fire order, witnesses made these salient points before a House sub-committee:

Sold Engines For B-24's To Russ: Texas

Washington, March 24 (AP) — A congressional witness testified today that he bought 46 war-type airplane engines from the War Assets Administration last year and sold them for export to Russia and Poland.

The witness, Leroy H. Lucky, of Dallas, Texas, said the engines were suitable for bombers or troop-carrying planes.

Testifying under oath, Lucky told a House subcommittee that the engines were shipped to Russia by the Moore-McCormack Steamship Lines.

He said they were new engines built for B-24s. And he said he sold them to Richard F. Finckie, president of the Alpine Corporation, Washington.

Mundt announced that he will offer an amendment to the bill to provide a blanket ban on exports of strategic supplies to Russia and her satellites. He said this is necessary to cancel a "self-contradictory policy" under which the United States now is trying to help nations fend off Communism while allowing exports to Russia of supplies and equipment which the Soviets can use for war purposes.

Under this policy, he said, American business firms — he named some — are "trying to profiteer from another war."

He listed items like cranes, electric motors, ball bearings and pointee of Henry A. Wallace while the latter was Secretary of Commerce. He said he is in the Commerce Department's Office of International Trade.

Mundt said that Robert B. Gaston, an investigator for the Un-American Activities Committee, obtained information on the goods going aboard the Chukotka.

So far as possible, he said, he wanted to name the American companies selling the goods.

"There's no law against selling war potentials to a potential enemy," Mundt said, "but the public should know who is trading arms to Russia for profits."

Lists Various Concerns.

He listed:

Specially designed milling machinery and spare parts, valued at $36,958, from the Ingersoll Milling Machine Company, Rockford, Ill.

A continuous tube brazing furnace with spare parts, valued at $32,850, from Lindberg Engineering Company, Galewood, Ill.

Sraight bevel roughers with standard electric equipment and spare parts, value $55,075, in two shipments from the Gleason Works, Rochester, N. Y.

Link Export Official to Reds

Congressmen Say Department of Commerce Worker Vends Communist Front Paper.

Washington, March 24 (A. P.).—A charge was made in the House today that a Department of Commerce official who authorizes exports to Russia sells subscriptions on the side for a Communist front publication.

Representative Mundt (R.-S. D.) identified the official as Herbert W. Parisius, a former Lutheran minister at Rice Lake, Wis.

Representative O'Konski (R.-Wis.) said Parisius was "kicked out" of the church and sells subscriptions to the Southern Patriot, published by the Southern Conference for Human Welfare.

O'Konski said the conference is a "Communist front." It has been so labeled by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Mundt and O'Konski spoke up as the House went into a second day of debate on the $6,205,000,000 foreign aid program to combat Communism in parts of Europe and China.

drills which he said were being loaded yesterday on the Russian freighter Chukotka at Jersey City. He said the ship is supposed to sail for Russia on Saturday and that the Department of Commerce grants export licenses for the materials.

Appointee of Wallace.

O'Konski jumped up to inquire who is in charge of export licenses.

Mundt named Parisius.

Later he told reporters that a subordinate and two others under Parisius rejected a license for bricks for a steel furnace for Finland and Parisius overrode them. He said Parisius was an ap-

Senate Unit Receives Opinions Of Mrs. R., Einstein And Dr. Bowman

MAR 1948

Washington, March 24 (AP)—The Senate Armed Services Committee studying President Truman's plea for a draft and Universal Military Training as a means of discouraging Communist expansion received today these contradictory arguments:

1. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, in a letter to Chairman Gurney (R., S.D.), gave her support to U.M.T. as "a gesture which would be understood" by Russia.

Opposed By Einstein

2. Albert Einstein in a letter to Gurney said he was convinced there was "no foreseeable . . . threat of hostile invasion . . . of the United States," and consequently he opposed U.M.T.

4. Arthur H. Compton, who helped plan use of atomic bombs in the last war, favored both draft and U.M.T. He said the atomic bomb would offer little defense in present world conditions.

Refuses To Answer

5. Seymour Linfield, New York, a Henry A. Wallace supporter, bitterly opposed armed preparedness, and refused to tell senators whether he is or ever was a member of the Young Communist League.

6. The Rev. A. Powell Davies, of Washington, strongly favored preparedness—even if it means war—and said it would strengthen our prestige with nations abroad who fear our foreign policy is not dependable.

8. Gerhart Seger, former member of the German Reichstag, but now a naturalized citizen, favored a draft, but opposed U.M.T. because, he said, it had ruined Germany.

Mrs. Roosevelt Changes Her Mind

Mrs. Roosevelt wrote that she formerly opposed U.M.T., but today she had changed her mind.

"I would hope that when the United Nations force came into being and was trained and ready for use," she said, "we would change our universal military training to universal training for citizenship."

Einstein, now at Princeton, N.J., wrote that he feared compulsory military training would merely speed the armaments race, undermine the democratic spirit of America, and "inevitably generate that militaristic spirit in the population which has been fatal to so many nations in the past."

Compton, president of Washington University, St. Louis, and a brother of Dr. Karl Compton, head of the President's commission that planned U.M.T., strongly favored preparedness. He said it was a mistake to believe that the next war would be fought largely with long-range weapons, and that few men would be needed in our armed forces.

Dr. Bowman Sees Danger

Dr. Bowman said, "Whatever is distant seems unreal, especially if it is military danger."

But, he said, the danger is growing real, and America must arm.

He said peace treaties were signed by Moscow "only to lull the fears of the other signers. The terms are broken before the ink is dry."

Linfield testified as "veterans' director of the National Wallace-for-President Committee representing the Progressive Citizens of America."

For more than a half hour he avoided a direct yes or no answer to the question about the Communist organization.

Emphatic In His Opposition

But he was emphatic in his opposition to both Universal Military Training and a temporary draft, both urged by President Truman as a means of discouraging Communist expansion.

Linfield's testimony highlighted the day's session.

Chairman Gurney (R., S.D.) and Senators Baldwin (R., Conn.), Saltonstall (R., Mass.) and Byrd (D., Va.) all questioned him about his connections, if any, with the Communist movement.

Linfield said he would "not state anything about my faith or religious views."

U.M.T. supporters, he declared at one point, are trying to "cover those who oppose U.M.T. and the Truman doctrine with the label of communism."

Gurney finally told him the record would show that he refused to answer the question.

Domination Of Colleges

Linfield said no nation, including Soviet Russia, threatens America. He said the Truman doctrine will send vast numbers of American troops to Italy, Greece, the Near East, Manchuria, Korea and western Europe.

He charged the U.M.T. would cause Army domination of colleges.

The Rev. Mr. Davies, pastor of the All Souls Unitarian Church, also brought Wallace into his testimony. He said Wallace had written a "very adroit" form letter "apparently to all clergy," quoting the Bible and opposing U.M.T. and the draft.

However, both measures were indorsed by the Rev. Mr. Davies, who said he was a guest of Jan Masaryk the day Communists seized Czechoslovakia. The Czech Foreign Minister died March 11 in a fall from his apartment. The Rev. Mr. Davies said most Europeans fear the United States foreign policy is short-term and not dependable.

He said Masaryk told him:

"The United States gets you out on a limb and leaves you there."

He said most churches and churchmen are "terribly mistaken" in opposing U.M.T. and the draft.

Wallace Backer Won't Answer Red Tie Query

MAR 1948

Washington, March 24 (AP) — A supporter of Henry A. Wallace for president today refused direct answers to senators' questions as to whether he is a present or former member of the Young Communist League.

The witness, Seymour Linfield, of New York city, later was allowed to read his prepared statement opposing both a draft and universal military training.

He appeared before the Senate Armed Services Committee as "veterans director of the National Wallace-for-President Committee representing the Progressive Citizens of America."

Can't Get Answer

Chairman Gurney (R., S.D.) and Senators Baldwin (R., Conn.) and Satlonstall (R., Mass.) tried for more than a half hour to obtain a "Yes" or "No" answer from Linfield to this question:

"Were you or are you a member of the Young Communists League?"

Instead of answering directly, Linfield quoted what he said was a pledged by Wallace, third-party candidate for President.

This statement said Wallace would not accept support of any group seeking to restrict civil liberties.

Cites Court Ruling

Linfield, a black-haired and scowling, identified himself as a World War II veteran with 3½ years service as a paratrooper. He said he is associate general counsel of the CIO-United Electrical Workers.

He referred to a Supreme Court decision which he said gives individuals the right to protection on their religous and poltcal vews.

"That's far afield from my question,' Gurney told him after Linfield gave lengthy but indirect replies.

Re-Reads Pledge

Gurney asked again if Linfield has even been or now is a member of the Communist group.

Linfield reread part of Wallace's pledge and added:

"I've never supported such groups. I never will."

As the hearings continued, Congress members waited for military chieftains to give them an outline of what the nation needs for its defense machinery.

But two lawmakers came out for keeping manpower demands within narrow limits. These plans, which gained fresh backing in Congress, would exempt husbands, veterans and men over 27 from any peacetime draft.

Named In Column

Gurney touched off the questions asked of Linfield by reading part of a newspaper column. It referred to Linfield as "one of the most active members of the Young Communist League."

Linfield insisted he has publicly made known his political views many times. He said his views are a matter of record for his friends and associates.

Senator Baldwin assured Linfield the committee was not trying to "influence your political or religious views."

But Baldwin said any legislative committee is entitled to knowledge of the background of a witness.

"Were you or were you not a member of the Young Communist League?" Baldwin asked.

Voice Rises

Linfield replied he would "not state anything as to my faith or religious views."

His voice rising, Linfield said U.M.T. supporters are trying to "cover those who oppose U.M.T. and the Truman doctrine with the lable of communism."

Kamp Guilty Of Contempt

Washington, March 24 (AP)—Joseph P. Kamp, vice chairman of the Constitutional Educational League, Inc., was sentenced today in District Court to four months in jail for contempt of Congress.

Judge Ben Moore rejected a defense request for probation, but he suspended a $100 fine. Kamp was released in $500 bail pending appeal.

Kamp was convicted for failing to produce records of the league before the House Committee on Campaign Expenditures. The committee had sought a list of persons who had contributed $100 or more.

PUBLIC HEARINGS CALLED IN DR. CONDON PROBE

WASHINGTON, March 24—(AP) Public hearings in the case of Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the Federal Bureau of Standards, were ordered tonight by the House Un-American Activities committee for April 21.

Robert E. Stripling, chief investigator for the committee, announced that Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R.-N. J.) has issued subpoenas for Condon and 22 other witnesses.

An Un-American Activities subcommittee has accused Condon of knowingly or unknowingly associating with suspected Soviet spies and of being one of the "weakest links" in atomic security. Condon has scoffed at the charges and said the country has nothing to worry about. He has asked for hearings.

The Bureau of Standards tests some of the nation's top secret scientific developments.

Pickets Protest Palestine Switch

Washington, March 24 (AP)—Hundreds of Brooklynites picketed the White House today protesting reversal of the United States stand on Palestine partition.

The pickets, some 500, were part of a delegation estimated by its leaders at 650. They were led by a woman carrying an American flag and a man carrying the Zionist flag.

Others carried signs reading "Forrestal Must Go," "Halt Arms Shipments to Arabs," "Diplomatic Recognition of the Jewish States Now" and "We Accuse Warren Austin, Republican, Wall Street's Hatchet Man."

The delegation was led by New York State Senator Kenneth Sherbell, of the American Labor party. He said it represented more than 300 labor, political, civic and fraternal organizations from Brooklyn.

Sherbell said in a statement that the United States "must not be allowed to renege on its own proposal in the United Nations to set up an independent Jewish state in Palestine."

In the picket line was Jack Kranis, president of the National Meat Industry Council and an alternate delegate to the Democratic National Convention. The pickets paraded without disorder for about half an hour.

EISLER DRAWS 1-3 YEARS FOR REFUSING DATA

Sentenced For Concealing Communist Link In Seeking Passport

Washington, March 24 (AP)—Gerhard Eisler, alleged "No. 1 Communist" in the United States, was sentenced today to serve one to three years in prison for concealing his Communist links when he applied for a permit to leave this country in 1945.

He was released on $20,000 bond pending appeal.

Sentence was imposed by Justice James W. Morris in United States District Court here where Eisler was convicted last August.

Under Sentence For Contempt

Sentencing had been delayed while the court considered an application for a new trial and the Government made moves toward Eisler's deportation to Germany.

Eisler also is under sentence of a year in jail plus a $1,000 fine for contempt of Congress, in connection with his refusal to answer questions before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Last month Eisler won freedom on bond from Ellis Island, N.Y., where he was held under a deportation warrant.

Miss Ruth Fischer, Eisler's sister whose original name was Elfreda Eisler, testified under oath in February, 1947, that her brother has been a representative of the Communist Internationale since 1928, and that he has been one of the major Soviet agents in America.

His Sister's Testimony

She said at that tme:

"I consider Eisler the perfect terrorist type, most dangerous for the people of both America and Germany. The fact that this man is my brother has only given me a deeper insight into the technique of Stalin's NKVD and the terror system it imposes on the peoples of Europe.

"Since I learned that Eisler was in this country I have been exposing him. He has used the sympathy of the American people for the suffering and tortured victims of nazism to mask his dirty work."

U. S. DENIES PACT ON FRENCH BASES

Washington, March 24 (A. P.).—The State Department flatly denied today a Moscow radio report that the United States and France have signed a secret treaty providing for American rights in French military air base.

In response to inquiries, a State Department official told a reporter: "There's nothing to it—not a thing."

The Moscow broadcast, recorded in London, reported such a treaty was signed in February. It quoted the Prague (Czechoslovakia), Socialist Newspaper Svobodne Slovo, as saying:

The United States got new bases or could use French bases in France, along the North African coast, and in some French possessions in Asia; and that America retained military and naval bases in Algiers and on Martinique, Guadeloupe and several other islands.

HOOVER ENDORSES EUROPEAN AID BILL

Terms Recovery Program 'Major Dam Against Russian Aggression.'

WASHINGTON, March 24—(AP) Herbert Hoover endorsed the $5,300,000,000 European recovery program today as "a major dam against Russian aggression."

The former President said the program "should produce economic, political and self-defense unity in western Europe."

'Worth the Chance,' He Says

"I believe it is worth taking the chance," Hoover said in his first public statement since President Truman's stop-communism speech last week. Mr. Truman called for quick adoption of the program as one of the most urgently needed parts of his new policy.

Hoover's statement was read to the House, which was debating the European recovery program for the second day as part of its $6,205,000,0000 foreign aid bill.

The House heard Rep. Mundt (R-SD) accuse the Truman administration of "pansy-like" treatment of the Russians on the diplomatic front.

Mundt, a Foreign Affairs committee member, strongly urged adoption of the bill. But he declared:

"I can't understand why President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall come to Congress and talk tough about economic relations with Russia, and continue a pansy-like attitude from the standpoint of diplomatic relations."

Senators Hear Marshall

Secretary of State Marshall discussed the world situation behind closed doors today with the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

There was no official report of what he said. He reportedly outlined his reasons for abandoning partition of Palestine and touched also on the policy, announced yesterday, of leaving the U. S. occupation zone of Germany under military control.

Hoover, in a letter to House Speaker Martin (R-Mass), suggested that all foreign aid be handled by one administrator—that is, the European recovery program, Greek-Turkish military aid, help for China and relief funds for Trieste, Germany, Japan and Korea.

He also repeated a suggestion that he made to the Senate Foreign Relations committee early this year. This was that western hemisphere countries extend credits to European nations and that the U. S. guarantee those credits up to 70 per cent.

In the earlier statement to the Senate group Hoover opposed any "moral commitment" of U. S. aid beyond one year. He said today, however, that the ERP bill finally adopted by the senate meets most of his objections. The senate bill is similar in most respects to the ERP section of the House bill.

U. S. Will Admit Brides and Grooms

Washington, March 24 (A. P.).—Prospective husbands and wives for members of the American Armed Forces can enter this country on temporary permits until June 30.

President Truman signed legislation today to make this possible. The bill was sponsored by Representative Forand (D.-R. I.).

Alien men and women thus coming into the United States must marry members of the Armed Forces within ninety days after arrival, or return to their native country.

The law permitting such entries expired last December 31. The new act goes back to cover entry applications made since that date.

Britain Said to Borrow 60 Million in World Fund

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, March 24—Great Britain has borrowed another large sum, believed to be about $60,000,000, from the International Monetary Fund, according to informed sources here today. The fund would neither confirm nor deny that the loan had been made.

Entitled to draw a total of $325,000,000 by the middle of next September, Great Britain previously borrowed $240,000,000 in three installments, beginning last September. If granted, the loan would enable Great Britain to stretch her dwindling supplies of gold and dollar reserves.

TAX CUT MEASURE GOES TO TRUMAN

House Approves Bill by Vote of 289 to 67; Veto Expected

MAR 1948

WASHINGTON, March 24—(AP) The House sent President Truman a $4,800,000,000 tax reduction bill today, pounding home its approval by a 289 to 67 roll call vote.

The margin was 51 votes greater than the two-thirds majority which would be required to override a veto, provided there is no change of sentiment.

Veto Is Expected

And President Truman is expected to veto the tax cut promptly. His supporters take the stand that instead of reducing taxes, Congress should maintain the current high flow of revenue to rebuild the nation's military strength in the global drive to stop communism.

But the House vote, coupled with the top heavy 78 to 11 approval given by the Senate Monday, was viewed by Democrats as well as Republicans as assuring that the tax cut will become law.

"There is not a chance in the world that Congress will support a presidential veto," one highly placed Democratic lawmaker said.

Provisions of Bill

The bill would:

1. Grant relief to all the 52,000,000 taxpayers, ranging from 100 per cent in the lowest income bracket to five per cent in the higher brackets. It removes 7,400,000 low-income persons from the tax rolls completely.

2. Effective May 1, reduce all tax withholdings from pay envelopes and salary checks. The tax reduction is retroactive to Jan. 1 So next year the taxpayers would get refunds on overpayments from Jan. 1 to May 1.

House action came in the face of an impassioned statement by Democratic Leader Rayburn, of Texas, that "danger lurks in this world." He asked: "In this hour of disorder, had we not better be in a position to bring about those instruments of war that may be needed to defend our shores?"

84 Democrats Back Bill

Rep. Gore (D-Tenn.), said the tax cut threatens to put the treasury in red ink again and injure the financial integrity of the government.

But in the voting 84 Democrats deserted the administration to join 205 Republicans in support of the measure. Opposing were 64 Democrats, one Republican (Norton of Kentucky) and the two American-Labor party members from New York.

Rep. Doughton (D-N.C.), who managed tax legislation when Democrats controlled Congress, voiced the hope in debate that, if a veto comes, Congress will override the President.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass.), after the vote was announced, told reporters:

"I hope the President will sign this bill. But if he doesn't, Congress—in accordance to the desires of the American people—will see to it that they get this tax relief. A veto will be overridden. This tax cut is certain."

Maryland To Receive Relic From London

Annapolis, March 24 (AP)—A chip of stone from the British Parliament House will be presented to the State of Maryland tomorrow afternoon by the American and British Commonwealth Association.

The relic from the Bomb-shattered structure symbolizes the parliamentary institutions shared by the two nations. It will be on display in Annapolis.

George L. Radcliffe, former United States Senator, will accept the encased fragment on behalf of the State. Radcliffe is president of the Maryland Historical Society.

SPECIAL MAIL FLIGHTS TO ROME ANNOUNCED

BOSTON, March 24—(AP) Special flights from Boston to Rome for the delivery of mail from New Englanders of Italian extraction urging repudiation of communism were announced today by postal officials.

Postmaster Patrick J. Connolly of Boston has informed postmasters throughout the six-state area that a special "freedom flights" will leave Boston every Friday until the April 18 elections with mail for the Italians.

The flights were planned by the New England Marshall Plan committee with the Trans-world airline.

Connolly said priority will be given all air mail for Italy between now and the elections when Italians will decide whether the country is to be dominated by the communists.

Italian-Americans have been asked by several organizations to write their relatives and friends in Italy asking them to repudiate communism at the polls or suffer the loss of American aid for recovery.

Cloud That Kills on Contact Reportedly Developed by U. S.

NEW YORK, March 24 — (AP) The United States has developed a radio active cloud that "kills any one who comes in contact with it," Glenn L. Martin, airplane manufacturer, said today.

"It is effective over a much larger area than is the atom bomb," he said, "and might make the area it touches radioactive for an indefinite time."

Martin said the cloud is spread by wind and its use requires sure knowledge of weather conditions or it might backfire on its users.

The head of the plane manufacturing company that bears his name said that the United States had a new A-bomb much more effective than ones dropped on Japan, which are now obsolete.

Both the cloud and the bomb use the same material, he said, but the former is a vapor, formed either by itself or by sprinkling existing clouds with the material, while the latter is a detonation instrument.

Martin told reporters the Navy also has perfected guided missiles with homing devices that can search out a ship at sea and destroy it.

"We can sink the ship even if it is half way across the ocean," he said. "All we have to do is to get our own ships out of the way."

The guided missiles can also be used to hit iron foundries and "it will be possible to eliminate a nation's steel industry in time."

Martin also mentioned new bacteria weapons, some of them capable of lying dormant for a time and then "making the victim ill with an illness from which he does not recover."

He said that these latest weapons made it likely that if another war comes the ultimate course of it would be determined within 60 days. "After that it would be a matter of policy as to how long it was allowed to drag on before the final mopping up."

Martin ad[illegible] est weapons are [illegible] months away."

"It will take two years before we could produce sufficient aircraft of the new type now being developed. Missiles would be ready much more quickly," he said.

The methods by which the radio active clouds are being made and tested are top military secrets, Martin said.

"I can mention them because they were discussed recently in a scientific magazine article," he said.

Martin first mentioned the atomic cloud research last May 17 when testifying before a Senate commerce subcommittee.

Scientists later explained that the new atoms that form in such gas clouds would be mainly those radiating the same kind of rays as radium—gamma rays which penetrate like x-rays.

At Washington the Atomic Energy commission had "no comment."

Palestine Plan Stalled When U.S. Fails To Act

Lake Success, N.Y., March 24 (AP)—Unexpected and unexplained United States silence stalled Security Council action today on the urgent Palestine issue. It was put over until next Tuesday.

The Council had expected to take up a United States resolution calling for a special assembly of the 57 United Nations to reconsider the Palestine partition question. The United States now proposes United Nations trusteeship for the Holy Land.

But no resolution appeared. Warren R. Austin, chief United States delegate, sat silent through the entire two-hour Security Council meeting. Carpenter

Speculate On Switch In Plan

Austin later told newsmen there is no great significance to the lack of a United States resolution.

Informed sources speculated, however, on two possible reasons for the switch in plans:

1. The United States delegate may be waiting until after Mr. Truman's news conference in Washington tomorrow. It was said the President might then explain the United States decision of last Friday to ask for the special session and for trusteeship for Palestine.

2. The new switch came the day after Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, told the House of Commons that Britain cannot change her policy in Palestine because some other country makes the latest of a number of propositions. On Friday when Austin disclosed the new American position a high British official in London had said Britain now might stay longer in Palestine.

Legal Doubts Raised

Austin contends there are legal doubts as to whether Britain can surrender the mandate.

Austin last Friday said the United States would present a formal resolution for the Security Council to call for a special Assembly on Palestine. A United States spokesman said last night this resolution was ready to be tossed in today.

But an hour before the Security Council met the United States delegation announced the resolution would not be presented.

After the meeting, Austin said to newsmen: "You've got to catch your rabbit first." He added that he had no resolution in his pocket.

Palestine Protest Read

Unusual silence fell when Dr. T. F. Tsiang, of China, the Security Council president for this month, called for speakers.

Finally, Faris el Khoury, of Syria, read a statement from what he called the Christian Union of Palestine expressing indignation at the partition plan.

Tsiang called again for speakers. No one answered and Tsiang said he would adjourn the meeting.

At this, Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, of Canada, signaled for the floor.

McNaughton and Alexandre Parodi, of France, joined in making it clear their countries would not pledge themselves to vote for the special session until they know more about United States intentions.

Secret Meeting Suggested

Parodi suggested the Security Council meet secretly to hear Austin explain United States plans in details. The Council then adjourned the Palestine discussion until Tuesday afternoon without taking him up.

Parodi warned the delegates that time is short. The British plan to terminate their mandate in Palestine May 15. The Jewish Agency for Palestine told the Security Council today the Jews plan to set up their Government on May 16. Egypt's delegate answered briefly that such a step would not contribute to order in Palestine.

If the Council agrees next Tuesday to call a special assembly the Assembly could not convene before mid-April. APD

Palestine Action In U.N. Is Stalled

MAR 1948 Harrelson

Lake Success, March 24 (AP)—United Nations action on Palestine was stalled today by a last-minute decision of the United States to withhold its proposal for a special United Nations Assembly.

The United Nations Security Council had been called with expectations of acting on a United States resolution which had been promised by Chief American Delegate Warren R. Austin last Friday.

Without explanation, however, Austin dropped his plans to submit a proposal today. The Council found itself with no specific resolution to debate.

Dr. T. F. Tsiang, of China, Council President for this month, appealed several times for speakers, but found the delegates reluctant to take the floor. Austin did not offer to speak.

Canadian Position

The Canadian Delegate, Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, finally read a brief statement saying Canada was not prepared to declare itself on the American plan for a Palestine trusteeship until there was some evidence of agreement among the parties concerned—Arabs and Jews.

McNaughton did not commit himself on the proposed special session of the Geneарl Assembly. ADD 1

U.N. May Probe Czech Coup

HAUCK

Lake Success, March 24 (AP)—United States demands for fullest inquiry into the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia today opened the possibility of an on-the-spot investigation by the United Nations.

American Delegate Warren R. Austin said the Security Council could not close its eyes to the grave charges that Russia engineered last month's grab of power in Prague. He added that the new Czechoslovak Government and the Soviet Union must lay their cards on the table.

Prague Not In Case AP

Austin did not go beyond this point yesterday in a speech to the Council which an aide said was of a preliminary nature. It was quickly noted, however, that past Council policy has been to dispatch commissions to the scene of controversy before taking final action.

So far, Prague has refused to enter the case on the grounds that the governmental switch was an internal affair. Russia has skirted the accusations and countercharged that the United States and Britain are following a policy of expansion.

LONDON, MARCH 24-(AP)-A GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID TODAY THE BRITISH CABINET DOUBTS TEMPORARY TRUSTEESHIP OVER PALESTINE WOULD ENSURE PEACE.

THE SOURCE SAID THE GOVERNMENT WOULD PROBABLY GIVE ADVICE ON THE AMERICAN TRUSTEESHIP PROPOSAL, IF ASKED FOR IT.

"BUT WE DON'T THINK IT WOULD WORK," THE INFORMANT ADDED.

EARLIER THIS WEEK THE CABINET ENDORSED A DECISION TO RELINQUISH THE BRITISH PALESTINE MANDATE MAY 15 AND PULL OUT BRITISH TROOPS BY AUG.1.

THE ACTION CAME AFTER THE U.S. WITHDREW SUPPORT FOR THE UNITED NATIONS PLAN TO PARTITION THE HOLY LAND IN JEWISH AND ARAB STATES.

BY JOSEPH C.GOODWIN

JERUSALEM, MARCH 24-(AP)-ARABS KILLED 26 JEWS AND INJURED 40 IN ATTACKS ON VEHICLES NORTH AND WEST OF JERUSALEM TODAY.

A JEWISH ARMORED BUS WAS AMBUSHED NORTH OF JERUSALEM NEAR NEVE YACOOV. OFFICIAL SOURCES SAID 14 JEWS WERE SLAIN AND TEN INJURED.

A 12-BUS CONVOY WAS ATTACKED AT BAB EL WAD, ON THE MAIN HIGHWAY BETWEEN JERUSALEM AND TEL AVIV. TWELVE JEWS WERE KNOWN DEAD AND 30 WOUNDED.

MINES DESTROYED THREE VEHICLES AND DISABLED THREE OTHERS IN THE BAB EL WAD ATTACK. THE OTHER SIX SOUGHT REFUGE IN A GASOLINE STATION, WHERE THEY WERE UNDER FIRE FROM SOME 200 ARABS. BRITISH INFANTRY MOVED INTO THE RAVINE WITH THREE-POUND MORTARS.

THE CASUALTIES RAISED TO 2,069 THE NUMBER OF VIOLENT DEATHS IN PALESTINE SINCE THE UNITED NATIONS VOTED PARTITION LATE LAST NOVEMBER.

TWO ARABS WERE WOUNDED IN A JEWISH ATTACK ON AN ARAB BUS IN HAIFA.

SOME 700 ARAB IRREGULARS WERE REPORTED ATTACKING NEVE YACOOV, A FORTRESS-LIKE JEWISH STRONGHOLD ONLY SIX MILES NORTH OF JERUSALEM. BRITISH TROOPS WERE ORDERED FROM THEIR BARRACKS TO HALT THE FIGHTING.

AN OFFICIAL SOURCE SAID THAT GEN.G.H.A.MACMILLAN, COMMANDER OF BRITISH FORCES IN PALESTINE, AND BRIG.GLUBB PASHA, BRITISH COMMANDER OF TRANS-JORDAN'S ARAB LEGION, HAD BEEN "ABLE TO PREVENT CASUALTIES (IN THE AMBUSH) BEING STILL HIGHER BY INTERCEDING WITH ARABS SO THAT THE INJURED COULD BE TAKEN TO HADASSAH HOSPITAL IN JERUSALEM."

SIX ARABS WERE KILLED, THREE WOUNDED, AND EIGHT HOUSES WERE DEMOLISHED WHEN JEWS ATTACKED QUAAN, A VILLAGE OF NORTHERN PALESTINE, POLICE REPORTED. ONE BRITISH OFFICER WAS INJURED WHEN THE MILITARY, TRYING TO REACH THE SCENE, ENCOUNTERED ROAD MINES.

A LOUD EXPLOSION WAS HEARD TONIGHT IN THE JEWISH MONTEFIORE QUARTER OF JERUSALEM, SCENE OF LAST NIGHT'S ATTACK BY ARABS USING DYNAMITE. MORTAR SHELLS ALSO WERE BEING FIRED TOWARD MONTEFIORE FROM THE ARAB-OCCUPIED ABU TOR QUARTER SOUTH OF JERUSALEM. NO CASUALTIES WERE REPORTED.

THREE ARABS, INCLUDING ONE WOMAN, WERE KILLED AND THREE WOUNDED WHEN A PRIVATE CAR WAS FIRED ON BY JEWS NEAR MISHMAR HASHARON ON THE HAIFA-TEL AVIV ROAD, POLICE REPORTED.

TWO ARABS WERE KILLED AND TWO WOUNDED BY AMBUSHING JEWS ALONG THE SAME ROAD NEAR QALQILYE. ONE JEW WAS SHOT DEAD AND ANOTHER WOUNDED BY ARABS NEAR TEL AVIV.

PALESTINE (550)
BY JAMES M.LONG

JERUSALEM, MARCH 24-(AP)-A PROVISIONAL JEWISH GOVERNMENT WILL BE SET UP IN THE HOLY LAND MAY 16, REPRESENTATIVES OF PALESTINE'S 600,000 JEWS ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT.

THE BRITISH WILL GIVE UP THEIR MANDATE IN THE HOLY LAND MAY 15.

MEMBERS OF THE JEWISH AGENCY AND THE JEWISH NATIONAL COUNCIL (VAAD LEUMI) MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT AFTER A JOINT CONFERENCE IN THE ALL-JEWISH CITY OF TEL AVIV.

THEY REJECTED ANY PLAN TO ESTABLISH A PALESTINE TRUSTEESHIP, AS SUGGESTED BY THE UNITED STATES, EVEN FOR A BRIEF PERIOD.

MAR 1948

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE PLAN TO FORM A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT WAS MORE MODERATE THAN SOME HAD EXPECTED, FOR THERE HAD BEEN INDICATIONS A FLAT PROCLAMATION OF A JEWISH STATE WOULD BE MADE.

THIS WAS THE JOINT AGENCY-COUNCIL ANNOUNCEMENT:

"THE JEWISH AGENCY AND VAAD LEUMI HAVE LEARNED WITH REGRET AND ASTONISHMENT OF THE ATTITUDE ADOPTED BY THE UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVES ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL CONCERNING THE UNITED NATIONS' DECISIONS ON PALESTINE. THE JEWISH AGENCY AND VAAD LEUMI DECLARE THAT:

"1. THE JEWISH PEOPLE AND YISHUV (JEWISH PEOPLE OF PALESTINE HOMELAND) WILL OPPOSE ANY PROPOSAL DESIGNED TO PREVENT OR POSTPONE ESTABLISHMENT OF A JEWISH STATE.

"2. WE CATEGORICALLY REJECT ANY PLAN TO SET UP A TRUSTEESHIP REGIME FOR PALESTINE, EVEN FOR A SHORT PERIOD OF TIME. A TRUSTEESHIP WOULD NECESSARILY ENTAIL DENIAL OF THE JEWISH RIGHT TO NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE. IT WOULD LEAVE PALESTINE UNDER A FOREIGN MILITARY REGIME.

"3. THE FAILURE AND DISINTEGRATION OF THE MANDATORY ADMINISTRATION, CONTINUATION OF WHICH WAS UNANIMOUSLY REJECTED BX THE UNITED NATIONS, NECESSITATES EARLY ARRIVAL IN PALESTINE OF THE U.N. COMMISSION (ON PARTITION). THE JEWISH PROVISIONAL COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED WITHOUT DELAY BY THE U.N. COMMISSION SO THAT AUTHORITY MAY BE TRANSFERRED TO IT AS ENVISAGED IN U.N. DECISIONS.

"4. UPON TERMINATION OF THE MANDATORY ADMINISTRATION -- AND NOT LATER THAN MAY 16 -- A PROVISIONAL JEWISH GOVERNMENT WILL COMMENCE TO FUNCTION IN COOPERATION WITH THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE U.N. THEN IN PALESTINE. IN THE MEANTIME WE SHALL DO OUR UTMOST TO MINIMIZE THE CHAOS CREATED BY THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT AND WE SHALL MAINTAIN SO FAR AS LIES IN OUR POWER THE PUBLIC SERVICES NEGLECTED BY IT.

"5. THE JEWISH PEOPLE EXTEND THE HAND OF PEACE TO THE ARAB PEOPLE. THE JEWISH STATE WILL BE GLAD TO COOPERATE WITH NEIGHBORING ARAB STATES AND TO ENTER INTO PERMANENT TREATY RELATIONS WITH THEM, TO STRENGTHEN WORLD PEACE AND ADVANCE THE DEVELOPMENT OF ALL COUNTRIES OF THE NEAR EAST."

THE JEWISH AGENCY IS THE ADMINISTRATIVE GROUP ELECTED BY THE WORLD JEWISH CONGRESS, AND THE NATIONAL COUNCIL IS THE ADMINISTRATIVE BODY OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY. THE ASSEMBLY IS ELECTED BY PALESTINE JEWS.

THE JEWS ALREADY HAVE THE NUCLEUS OF A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT, AND IN THEIR HAGANAH (JEWISH MILITIA) THEY HAVE A 25,000-MAN ARMY WHICH COULD ENFORCE ITS DECISIONS.

A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT PROBABLY WOULD BE IN THE HANDS OF A PROVISIONAL COMMITTEE OF 32 MEMBERS, ALREADY APPOINTED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE JEWISH AGENCY BY THE JEWISH NATIONAL COUNCIL.

INFORMED SOURCES HAVE PREDICTED SUCH A GOVERNMENT PROBABLY WOULD BE A CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRACY, CREATED THROUGH A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY AND BASED ON A UNICAMERAL LEGISLATURE. IT WOULD HAVE A PRIME MINISTER AND A PRESIDENT.

(IN LONDON, THE HOUSE OF COMMONS PASSED A BILL WHICH CALLS FOR BRITAIN TO DROP ITS HOLY LAND MANDATE MAY 15. THE BILL NOW GOES TO THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

(IN PARIS, THE UNITED ZIONISTS-REVISIONISTS WORLD HEADQUARTERS CALLED FOR IMMEDIATE PROCLAMATION OF A JEWISH STATE, AND FOR THE RESIGNATIONS OF PRESENT JEWISH AGENCY LEADERSHIP.)

WARFARE BETWEEN JEWS AND ARABS CONTINUED.

SO FAR, 2,020 HAVE BEEN KILLED IN COMMUNAL WARFARE SINCE NOV. 29, WHEN PARTITION WAS VOTED.

TEL AVIV, PALESTINE, MARCH 24-(AP)-IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI, THE JEWISH UNDERGROUND ORGANIZATION, BROADCAST A STATEMENT TODAY THAT IT WOULD RESIST WITH FORCE ANY AMERICAN ATTEMPT TO INTERFERE WITH JEWISH STATEHOOD.

THE STATEMENT, CARRIED BY THE ORGANIZATION'S SECRET RADIO, SAID:

"IF AN AMERICAN GOVERNOR OR AMERICAN SOLDIERS TRY TO ENFORCE THEIR WILL OVER PALESTINE JEWRY, THE HOLY LAND WILL BECOME A BLEEDING WOUND FOR THE UNITED STATES. WE WILL REGARD AMERICAN OFFICIALS AND SOLDIERS AS ENEMIES AND OCCUPIERS."

THE STATEMENT APPARENTLY REFERRED TO THE U.S. PROPOSAL FOR A UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP IN PALESTINE TO REPLACE THE PARTITION PLAN.

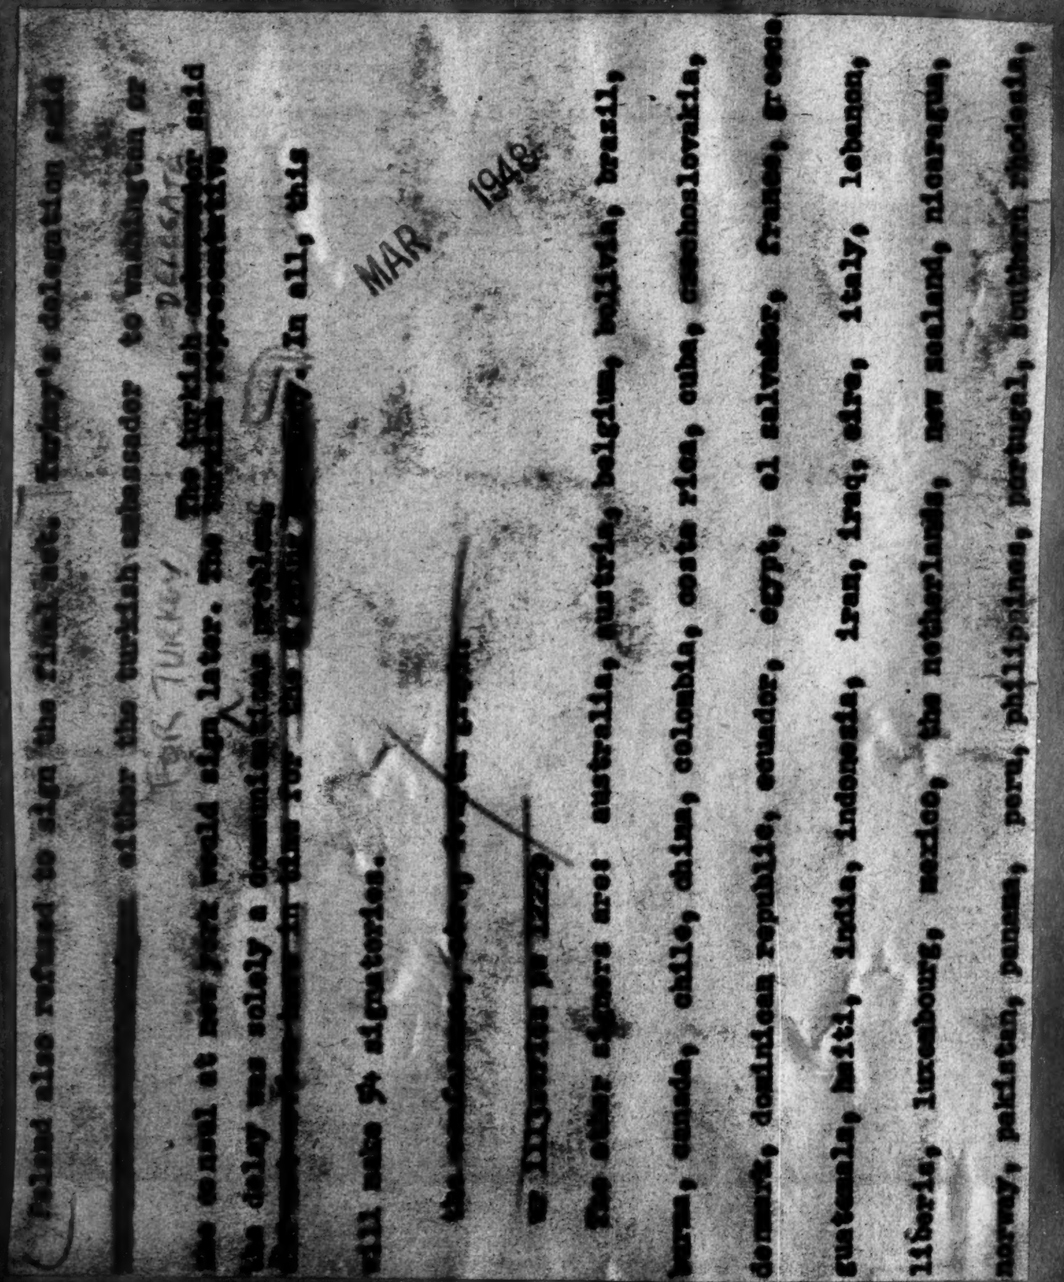
Havana, March 24-(AP)-Most nations outside the Russian sphere signed ~~[illegible] today~~ the international trade charter. It is designed to break down all kinds of barriers and to free the interchange of goods.

Afghanistan signed first.

Argentina's chair was vacant. The Argentine delegation said Monday it would not sign because a long list of Argentine exceptions had not been placed in the document.

MAR 1948



30.24- 16505

sweden, switzerland, syria, trans-jordan, union of south africa, united kingdom, united states, uruguay, venezuela.

The conference adjourned after the signing. Delegates of 56 nations, including a majority of the members of the United Nations, opened the conference here last nov. 22. Every important trading nation in the world except soviet russia and spain had a hand in framing the charter.

The charter must be approve/by from 20 to 57 parliaments and congresses before it becomes operative. MAR 1948

The document is a set of rules designed chiefly to discourage nations from discriminating against each other either in imports or exports and from making two-way trade agreements which might damage the interests of world economy. MAR 1948

Even the United Kingdom, which joined the United States in sponsoring the charter, conceded it might find itself unable to recommend the charter to parliament if conditions are adverse.

the most ardent advocates of the charter concede it is going into operation at one of the worst periods of economic disturbance in world history. The aim it can be made to work and thereby help all nations produce goods and markets for a better standard of living.

Everyone admits that the numerous exceptions to the long range ideals in the charter greatly weaken the document and that only good faith and mutual help can the charter be made to work. Divergent interests of the nations caused the numerous escape clauses and exceptions.

Its sponsors are proud that the document represents the first time in history that leading nations of the world were able to agree on any set of general rules. MAR 1948

The charter is a complex document with many legalistic phrases. It deals with such things as tariffs, restrictions and monetary problems. It has 106 articles, which with interpretative notes and resolutions, cover 71 printed pages.

The main purposes of the charter are to promote world trade, improve standards of living and keep men employed.

The code specifies good and bad trade practices. The nations adopting the charter pledge themselves to help establish good practices and discontinue bad ones as soon as possible.

The charter functions ~~xx~~ under the United Nations. It creates the international ~~xxxxxxx~~ trade organization known as the ITO.

A place was left for Russia on the executive board of the ITO. ~~xxxx~~ Membership was left open to all nations, although Spain's future with respect to the ITO is uncertain.

BY BRUCE BIOSSAT
AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE
WASHINGTON,MARCH 24-(AP)-REP.MUNDT (R-SD) SAID TODAY HE FAVORS REVISION OF THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER AS THE BEST WAY TO DEVELOP THE INTERNATIONAL TEAMWORK NEEDED TO COMBAT COMMUNISM.
MUNDT IS ONE OF 16 HOUSE MEMBERS--EIGHT DEMOCRATS AND EIGHT REPUBLICANS--WHO RECENTLY INTRODUCED A RESOLUTION CALLING FOR MAJOR OVERHAULING OF THE CHARTER. A GROUP OF 16 SENATORS, ALSO EVENLY DIVIDED AS TO PARTY, MAY SPONSOR THE SAME PROPOSAL.
THE RESOLUTION PROPOSES REVISION TO ELIMINATE THE USE OF THE VETO BY A MEMBER OF THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL ON ISSUES OF AGGRESSION, ARMAMENT FOR AGGRESSION AND ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS.
IT ALSO WOULD ALTER THE LINEUP OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND LAY DOWN PRINCIPLES FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF A WORLD POLICE FORCE.
"REVISION OF THE CHARTER WOULD OFFSET THE ONE GREAT DEFICIENCY THAT THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM FAILS TO CORRECT," MUNDT TOLD A REPORTER.
"THUS STRENGTHENED, THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD PROVIDE THE TEAMWORK NEEDED TO COUNTERACT THE HIGHLY ORGANIZED ACTIVITIES OF COMMUNIST RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES."

MUNDT EMPHASIZED HIS BELIEF THAT THE MOVE WOULD BE AN EFFECTIVE PEACE MEASURE NO MATTER HOW THE RUSSIANS REACTED.
"RUSSIA WOULD OF COURSE BE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE REVISED UNITED NATIONS," HE SAID. "IF SHE SIGNED THE MODIFIED CHARTER, SHE WOULD BE COMPELLED TO GIVE UP THE BLOCKING TACTICS SHE HAS LONG PURSUED THROUGH USE OF THE VETO.
"IF SHE DID NOT SIGN, THEN THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER COUNTRIES OF SIMILAR VIEW WOULD HAVE IN THE OPEN A GENUINELY COHESIVE ORGANIZATION TO OPPOSE RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES.
"IT IS THAT WELL-KNIT ORGANIZATION WHICH WE LACK TODAY IN COMBATTING THE TIGHTLY DISCIPLINED COMMUNIST NATIONS."

(ADVANCE) NEW YORK, MARCH 24-(AP)-FORMER PRESIDENT HERBERT HOOVER SAID TODAY HE BELIEVED MARSHALL PLAN AID "IS WORTH TAKING THE CHANCE."

HOOVER, WHO IN JANUARY OPPOSED ANY "MORAL COMMITMENT" BEYOND THE FIRST PERIOD (YEAR) OF THE PROPOSED FOUR YEAR PROGRAM, NOTED HOWEVER THAT MOST OF HIS OBJECTIONS TO THE SENATE THEN HAD SINCE BEEN OVERCOME.

HE SAID HE DID NOT RECOMMEND A DECREASE "IN THE AUTHORIZED TRIAL IN THE HOUSE BILL FOR THE FIRST YEAR."

HOOVER STATED HIS CURRENT POSITION IN A LETTER TO HOUSE SPEAKER JOSEPH W.MARTIN.

HE SAID IF THE MARSHALL PLAN "SHOULD PRODUCE ECONOMIC, POLITICAL AND SELF-DEFENSE UNITY IN WESTERN EUROPE, AND THUS A MAJOR DAM AGAINST RUSSIAN AGGRESSION, IT WOULD STEM THE TIDE NOW RUNNING SO STRONGLY AGAINST CIVILIZATION AND PEACE." HE ADDED:

"THE PLAN, IF WELL DEVISED AND UNDER A CAPABLE ADMINISTRATOR, STANDS A GOOD CHANCE OF SUCCESS. I BELIEVE IT IS WORTH TAKING THE CHANCE."

HOOVER SAID HE REALIZED "THAT MANY APPROACH THIS GIGANTIC EXPERIMENT WITH GREAT APPREHENSION AND A REALIZATION OF THE SACRIFICES IT WILL MEAN TO OUR PEOPLE." BUT, HE SAID, "ALL LEGISLATION MUST BE THE RESULT OF COMPROMISE."

"THE PLAN," HE SAID, "STILL STANDS AS A FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM, BUT THE STANDARDS OF PROGRESS AND OF PERFORMANCE TO BE MADE BY THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES HAVE BEEN EMPHASIZED MORE STRONGLY, AND THESE, NO DOUBT, WILL BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT BY THE CONGRESS IN DETERMINING THE VOLUME AND KIND OF AID BEYOND THE FIRST YEAR.

"THE HOUSE COMMITTEE HAS STRENGTHENED THE CONGRESSIONAL CONTROL OF SUCH EXTENSIONS BY AN EXPRESS STATEMENT THAT NO IMPLIED COMMITMENT HAS BEEN MADE TO ANY COUNTRY AND A REQUIREMENT THAT FURTHER ASSISTANCE SHALL BE AUTHORIZED AS WELL AS SIMPLY APPROPRIATED AS IN THE SENATE BILL."

AID TO TRIESTE, AS WELL AS TO GERMANY, KOREA, JAPAN, CHINA, GREECE AND TURKEY, WAS URGED BY HOOVER IN PRESENTING HIS VIEWS AT MARTIN'S REQUEST.

BUT, SAID HOOVER, "IF THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES ARE TO BECOME INDEPENDENT OF RELIEF, THEY MUST TRADE WITH THE SATELLITE COUNTRIES. A PROVISION AGAINST MUNITION SHIPMENT WOULD APPEAR TO BE SUFFICIENT."

HOOVER SAID HE REGRETTED THAT THE HOUSE BILL OMITTED A PROVISION SUGGESTED BY HIM TO THE SENATE THAT QESTERN HEMISPHERE COUNTRIES EXTEND CREDITS AND THAT THE U.S.GUARANTEE SUCH CREDITS UP TO 7 PER CENT.

NEW YORK, MARCH 24-(AP)-ALEXANDER S.PANYUSHKIN, SOVIET AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES, SAID LAST NIGHT THAT THE RECENT COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA WAS AN "INTERNAL AFFAIR" MADE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE CONSTITUTION OF THE CZECH REPUBLIC.

"IT WAS IN THESE CHANGES THAT THE WILL OF THE CZECHOSLOVAK PEOPLE FOR FREEDOM, INDEPENDENCE AND DEMOCRACY FOUND ITS REFLECTION," THE YOUTHFUL ENVOY SAID.

PANYUSHKIN, MAKING HIS FIRST MAJOR SPEECH IN THIS COUNTRY, SPOKE AT A DINNER GIVEN BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF AMERICAN-SOVIET FRIENDSHIP.

ANOTHER SPEAKER, U.S. SENATOR GLEN H.TAYLOR OF IDAHO, TOLD THE RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR THAT A "SMALL CLIQUE IN OUR COUNTRY" IS SPEARHEADING A STRUGGLE AGAINST NEEDED ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL CHANGES.

TAYLOR, VICE-PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE ON HENRY A.WALLACE'S THIRD PARTY TICKET, DECLARED THAT THE "FORCES OF REACTION" APPEAR WILLING TO TURN OVER TO RUSSIA THE FIGHT FOR THE COMMON MAN, ADDING:

"WE MAY NOT BE ALTOGETHER PLEASED WITH THE ATTITUDE YOUR GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN AT TIMES, MR.AMBASSADOR, BUT NEITHER ARE WE WILLING TO ACCEPT THE PREMISE OF OUR MONEY CHANGERS AND MILITARISTS THAT YOU ARE IRREVOCABLY COMMITTED TO A COURSE OF WRECKING THE PEACE."

PANYUSHKIN EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT CAPITALISM AND SOCIALISM CAN EXIST SIDE BY SIDE IN PEACE. HE CHARGED THAT A "MONSTROUS" SLANDER CAMPAIGN IS BEING PRESSED AGAINST RUSSIA WHICH HE SAID "HAS ALWAYS STOOD AND STANDS NOW FOR PEACE AND INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION."

PANYUSHKIN CONTENDED THAT WINSTON CHURCHILL AND AMERICAN FORCES OF "INTERNATIONAL REACTION" ARE TRYING TO STIR UP ENMITY AGAINST THE SOVIET.

"THE SOVIET PEOPLE, WHO HAVE COME TO KNOW THE JOY OF PEACEFUL LABOR AFTER THE HARD WAR YEARS WANT PEACE IN ORDER TO WORK PEACEFULLY WT THEIR FACTORIES, IN THE FIELDS, AT THEIR INSTITUTES AND LABORATORIES," HE SAID.

SENATOR TAYLOR SAID THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE NOT HAPPY WBOUT THE "SMALL CLIQUE IN OUR OWN COUNTRY REPRESENTING SPECIAL PRIVILEGE WHICH SEEMS DETERMINED TO LEAD IN THIS STRUGGLE AGAINST THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL CHANGES SO LONG OVERDUE IN SO MANY PARTS OF THE WORLD."

THE THIRD-PARTY RUNNING MATE OF PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE HENRY A. WALLACE ADDRESSED A MEETING OF THE SPANISH REFUGEE APPEAL OF THE JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE.

HE SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS "PLAYING THE SAME ROLE AS (THE LATE PAUL VON) HINDENBURG."

MAR 1948

HINDENBURG WAS PRESIDENT OF GERMANY IN THE EARLY DAYS OF HITLER'S RISE TO POWER.

"THERE ARE PEOPLE IN AMERICA," HE SAID, "JUST LIKE HITLER HAD OVER THERE. IF THEY GET US INTO WAR THERE WILL BE CONCENTRATION CAMPS IN AMERICA JUST LIKE HITLER HAD OVER THERE."

"I FEEL OUR COUNTRY IS HEADED RIGHT DOWN THE SAME ROAD THE GERMAN PEOPLE TOOK," HE SAID. "TRUMAN IS PLAYING THE SAME ROLE AS HINDENBURG, AND ANYONE COULD BE ADOLPH HITLR. THE MOST LIKELY CANDIDATE I SEE NOW IS (DEFENSE SECRETARY) FORRESTAL."

TAYLOR SAID ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK HAS ENGAGED IN "A FUNDAMENTAL ATTACK ON CIVIL RIGHTS IN CLEAR VIOLATION OF SUPREME COURT DECISIONS" IN PUBLISHING "PROSCRIBED LISTS OF ORGANIZATIONS."

"IF WE DO NOT STAND UP AND SPEAK NOW ON BEHALF OF THE RIGHT OF OTHERS TO SPEAK AND ASSEMBLE PEACEABLY," HE SAID, "IN A SHORT TIME NO ONE WILL BE ABLE TO STAND UP AND CHALLENGE THE RULING OLIGARCHY OF MILITARISTS AND MONOPOLISTS WHOM A MISCHANCE OF FATE HAS PLACED IN SUCH DOMINANT CONTROL OVER OUR FOREIGN POLICIES."

(ADVANCE) NEW YORK, MARCH 25-(AP)-BOTH THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA HAVE ENOUGH "RADIOACTIVE MATERIALS ABOVEGROUND" TO DESTROY ALL HUMAN LIFE IF IT COULD BE APPLIED EFFICIENTLY, SEN. BRIEN MCMAHON (D-CONN) SAID TODAY.

BOTH "HAVE ON ORDER" THE MEANS FOR APPLYING IT, HE WRITES IN THE CURRENT ISSUE OF COLLIER'S. HIS ARTICLE URGES A HUGE U.S. PUBLICITY PROGRAM TO BATTLE WHAT HE TERMS RUSSIA'S 30-YEAR WAR OF "LIES" AGAINST DEMOCRACY.

MCMAHON, FORMER CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON ATOMIC ENERGY, DID NOT AMPLIFY THE STATEMENT ON THE "ABOVEGROUND" MATERIAL, NOR EXPLAIN WHETHER HE MEANT THAT ENOUGH URANIUM OR OTHER MATERIALS HAD ALREADY BEEN MINED. BUT HE MADE CLEAR THE SPREAD BETWEEN MATERIALS ON HAND AND ABILITY TO APPLY THEM.

THE UNITED STATES, HE SAID, ALREADY HAS BOTH THE MATERIALS AND MEANS TO KILL NEARLY EVERY LIVING THING IN AN AREA AS BIG AS NEW ENGLAND.

"WE HAVE ON HAND NOW MATERIAL MEANS WHICH, IF USED IN CERTAIN FASHIONS, WOULD DESTROY THE REPRODUCTIVE FACILITIES OF OUR WHOLE NATION, LEAVING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE STERILE AND BARREN, OR CAPABLE OF BIRTHING ONLY MONSTERS AND SONS AND DAUGHTERS WITH BROKEN GENES, SO THAT OUR LINE WOULD PERISH," HE SAID, ADDING:

"BEYOND ALL REASONABLE DOUBT, RUSSIA ALSO HAS ABOVEGROUND AND ON HAND TODAY RADIOACTIVE MATERIALS ENOUGH TO EXTINGUISH ALL HUMAN LIFE. BEYOND ANY DOUBT RUSSIA HAS ON ORDER THE MEANS FOR APPLYING SUCH MATERIALS. BEYOND DOUBT RUSSIA HAS ABOVEGROUND THE MATERIALS WHICH CAN BRING ABOUT THE GENETIC DEATH OF A NATION; AND THE MEANS (CAPS) FOR THAT ARE ON ORDER IN RUSSIA--BEYOND DOUBT."

MAMAHON DECLARES THE EDUCATIONAL OR PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN IS NEEDED TONUNDO "THE DAMAGE PERPETRATED ON THE DEMOCRATIC WAY OF LIFE BY COMMUNISM'S 30-YEAR WAR OF CALUMNY."

MAR 1948

A138

HE SAID THE COMMUNISTS HAVE DELIBERATELY PICTURED AMERICANS AS WARMONGERS AND MONEY-GRABBERS, AND THE UNITED STATES AS A COUNTRY PLAGUED BY DEPRESSIONS, STRIKES, AND STARVATION, AND EXPLOITED BY A SMALL GROUP OF CAPITALISTS.

AN IMMEDIATE AIM OF THE PUBLICITY, HE SAID, WOULD BE "TO SAVE THE SOUL" OF EUROPE WHILE EUROPE WAS BEING HELPED BACK TO PHYSICAL HEALTH BY THE MARSHALL PLAN.

OPERATION FREEDOM, AS HE TERMS THE NEW PLAN, ALSO WOULD EMPHASIZE THE NEED FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AND CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY. IT WOULD STRESS THE U.S. OFFERS FOR SUCH CONTROL, WHICH HAVE BEEN REJECTED BY RUSSIA, AND THE PERILS OF ATOMIC RIVALRY.

IT ALSO COULD HELP EUROPEANS UNDERSTAND THE ADVANTAGES OF A FREE AND UNITED EUROPE, THE SENATOR SAID.

HE ESTIMATES THE COST AT $200,000,000 (M) TO $300,000,000 A YEAR. IT WOULD ENLIST EXPERTS IN ALL FIELDS OF COMMUNICATIONS, EDUCATORS, PSYCHOLOGISTS, SOCIOLOGISTS, PUBLIC RELATIONS AND ADVERTISING SPECIALISTS, WRITERS, ACTORS, AND ARTISTS.

IT MEANS, MCMAHON SAID, ESTABLISHMENT IN MANY LANDS OF RADIO STATIONS CARRYING ROUND-THE-CLOCK BROADCASTS, WIDESPREAD DISTRIBUTION OF RADIO RECEIVERS, OPENING OF INFORMATION CENTERS, AID TO SCHOOLS AND LIBRARIES ABROAD, EXCHANGE OF MORE STUDENTS, PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION OF MOTION PICTURES, AND WORLD-WIDE DISTRIBUTION OF AMERICAN BOOKS, MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS TRANSLATED FOR FOREIGN CONSUMPTION.

"NOTHING COULD BRING A CLEARER PICTURE OF THE MEANING OF AMERI AN FREEDOM TO THE AVERAGE EUROPEAN THAN THE DISTRIBUTION OF THOUSANDS OF REGULAR ISSUES OF AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES," HE SAID. "ANYTHING LESS THAN THIS AND WE LOSE TO THE COMMUNISTS AND IDEOLOGICAL STRUGGLE FOR THE POSSESSION OF MEN'S MINDS."

MCMAHON SAID "WE MUST ACCEPT WORLD RESPONSIBILITY BECAUSE, AS INDIVIDUALS IN A WORLD OF ATOMIC WARFARE, WE COULD NOT SURVIVE AT ALL."

SHORTLY BEFORE THE COUNCIL MET, HOWEVER, THE AMERICAN DELEGATION ANNOUNCED NO RESOLUTION WOULD BE INTRODUCED TODAY. THERE WAS NO EXPLANATION FOR THE SHIFT IN PLANS.

TODAY'S COUNCIL MEETING WAS CALLED PRIMARILY TO RECEIVE AND CONSIDER THE EXPECTED U.S. PROPOSALS, WHICH AUSTIN ANNOUNCED FRIDAY WOULD BE READY BY THIS MORNING.

AT THAT TIME AUSTIN DISCLOSED THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD REVERSED ITSELF ON THE ASSEMBLY'S 1947 PLAN TO PARTITION THE HOLY LAND. HE SUGGESTED THAT A SPECIAL ASSEMBLY RECONSIDER THIS DECISION AND SET UP, INSTEAD, A U.N. TRUSTEESHIP OVER PALESTINE.

INFORMED QUARTERS SAID LAST NIGHT THAT THE U.S. DELEGATION ALREADY HAD DECIDED TO CONFINE ITS INITIAL PROPOSAL TO A SIMPLE REQUEST FOR A SPECIAL SESSION. THIS INDICATED THAT THE U.S. HAD DROPPED THE IDEA OF ASKING THE SECURITY COUNCIL--AT THIS STAGE, AT LEAST--TO COMMIT ITSELF ON THE TRUSTEESHIP PROPOSAL.

LAST NIGHT'S PLANS, ACCORDING TO AMERICAN DELEGATION SOURCES, WERE TO PRESS FOR A DECISION SOME TIME TODAY ON THE SPECIAL ASSEMBLY.

IN THE ABSENCE OF ANY FORMAL PROPOSAL FROM THE UNITED STATES, THE COUNCIL FOUND ITSELF WITH NOTHING TO DO.

AT THE OPENING OF THE MEETING, DR.T.F.TSIANG, OF CHINA, COUNCIL PRESIDENT FOR THIS MONTH, CALLED FOR SPEAKERS, BUT NO ONE ASKED FOR THE FLOOR.

FINALLY, FARIS EL KHOURY, OF SYRIA, SAID HE WOULD USE THE OCCASION TO READ A LETTER HE HAD RECEIVED FROM PALESTINE. THE LETTER STATED THAT PALESTINE CHRISTIANS HAD DENOUNCED THE PARTITION PLAN AND URGED THAT IT BE ABANDONED. HE DID NOT IDENTIFY THE AUTHOR OF THE LETTER.

THE COUNCIL CHAMBER WAS PACKED AS THE SESSION BEGAN. THE CROWD OBVIOUSLY HAD COME EXPECTING A DRAMATIC FIGHT ON THE U.S. PROPOSALS WHICH FAILED TO MATERIALIZE.

WHEN EL KHOURY FINISHED, TSIANG AGAIN CALLED FOR SPEAKERS. NO ONE VOLUNTEERED. TSIANG THEN SAID HE WOULD ADJOURN THE MEETING IF THERE WERE NO SPEAKERS.

AUSTIN WAS THE CENTER OF ATTENTION, BUT HE MADE NO MOVE.

AFTER A SILENCE AT THE TABLE, G.A.G.L.MCNAUGHTON, OF CANADA, ASKED FOR THE FLOOR AND BEGAN READING A PREPARED STATEMENT REVIEWING AND ANALYZING THE PALESTINE SITUATION.

"TOO MUCH HAS HAPPENED WHICH BEARS A STRIKING SIMILIARITY TO WHAT HAPPENS IN OTHER COUNTRIES FOR THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO BE SATISFIED WITH PERFUNCTORY OR CATEGORICAL DENIALS OR WITH FURTHER RED HERRINGS," AUSTIN SAID.

"THE COUNCIL SHOULD REALIZE THAT IF THESE CHARGES SHOULD BE ESTABLISHED THEY WOULD CONSTITUTE A CASE OF INDIRECT AGGRESSION. THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD THEN BE CALLED UPON TO DEVELOP EFFECTIVE COLLECTIVE MEASURES DESIGNED FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THE TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY AND POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE OF STATES, HOWEVER SMALL."

IT WAS THE FIRST U. S. STATEMENT ON THE QUESTION SINCE THE CASE WAS FILED LAST WEEK BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE. THE SOUTH AMERICAN REPUBLIC ACTED AFTER DR. JAN PAPANEK, NON-COMMUNIST CZECHOSLOVAK DELEGATE OUSTED BY THE NEW PRAGUE REGIME, FAILED TO GET THE CASE ACCEPTED FOR HEARING.

AFTER LISTENING TO RUSSIA'S ANDREI A. GROMYKO ASSAIL AMERICAN POLICY IN ITALY AND ELSEWHERE, AND ATTACK WALL STREET FOR ONE HOUR, AUSTIN TORE UP MOST OF HIS PREPARED SPEECH AND ADDRESSED HIMSELF DIRECTLY TO GROMYKO'S ARGUMENTS.

AUSTIN CALLED THE ACCUSATIONS FANTASTIC AND SAID THEY WERE OBVIOUSLY

"THE PROPAGANDA OF THE ARBITRARY RULERS OF THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE."
GROMYKO HAD SKIMMED OVER THE COMPLAINT AGAINST RUSSIA AND TURNED TO A SERIES OF BLASTS AT THE U. S. AND BRITAIN. HE SAID WASHINGTON WAS RESORTING TO BLACKMAIL TO INFLUENCE THE ITALIAN ELECTION AND HAD "CEASED TO RECKON" WITH THE UNITED NATIONS.

A26
EARLIER, FRENCH DELEGATE ALEXANDRE PARODI EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT PRESIDENT EDUARD BENES OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA WAS A PRISONER OF THE COMMUNISTS.
AT THE END OF THREE HOURS OF BITTER DEBATE, THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED DISCUSSIONS UNTIL NEXT WEDNESDAY. PALESTINE WAS ON THE COUNCIL CALENDAR TODAY. KASHMIR TOMORROW AND GOOD FRIDAY IS A HOLIDAY.

MEANWHILE, NO FINAL DECISION HAD BEEN REACHED BY THE U.S. ON A PLAN TO DEMAND IMMEDIATE SECURITY COUNCIL RECONSIDERATION OF ITALY'S APPLICATION FOR U.N. MEMBERSHIP. VETOED LAST YEAR BY RUSSIA, ITALY'S BID NORMALLY WOULD COME UP AGAIN THIS SUMMER.
THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE WERE ATTEMPTING TO GET TOGETHER ON AN APPEAL TO THE COUNCIL. IT WOULD BE ALONG THE LINES OF THE JOINT DECLARATION ON GIVING TRIESTE BACK TO ITALY.
IT WAS REPORTED BRITAIN WAS HOLDING UP THE APPEAL DUE TO PRESSURE FROM SOME QUARTERS TO DEMAND RECONSIDERATION NOW FOR IRELAND, ANOTHER NATION VETOED IN 1946 BY GROMYKO.
THE MEMBERSHIP MOVE WOULD PUT RUSSIA ON A SPOT, WITH THE ITALIAN ELECTIONS COMING UP. ANOTHER VETO COULD BE EXPECTED TO HURT THE COMMUNIST CHANCES.

U.N. PALESTINE
LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 24-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES IS EXPECTED TO URGE TODAY AN IMMEDIATE SPECIAL SESSION OF THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY ON PALESTINE. A RUSSIAN VETO IS POSSIBLE.
THE SECURITY COUNCIL TAKES UP PALESTINE TODAY (10:30 A.M. EST) FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE LAST FRIDAY'S DRAMATIC SHIFT IN AMERICAN POLICY.
THE UNITED STATES NOW WANTS THE U.N. TO ABANDON THE PLAN TO PARTITION THE HOLY LAND INTO JEWISH AND ARAB STATES AND SUBSTITUTE AN INTERIM U.N. TRUSTEESHIP.
AMERICAN SOURCES EXPRESSED HOPE THE 57-NATION ASSEMBLY COULD BE CONVENED BY THE FIRST WEEK IN APRIL.
THE REPORTED AMERICAN DECISION TO ASK NOW ONLY FOR A SPECIAL SESSION WAS VIEWED IN SOME QUARTERS AS MEANING THAT WASHINGTON HAD CHANGED TACTICS. LAST WEEK DELEGATE WARREN R.AUSTIN SAID HE WOULD HAVE A TRIPLE PLAN COVERING THE SPECIAL SESSION, INTERIM TRUSTEESHIP, AND CEASE-WORK ORDERS TO THE U.N. PALESTINE PARTITION COMMISSION READY FOR THE NEXT COUNCIL SESSION.
THE PALESTINE COMMISSION MET YESTERDAY AND SCHEDULED ANOTHER SESSION TODAY. A U.N. PRESS OFFICER SAID THE COMMISSION TOOK THE VIEW THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY CREATED IT AND ONLY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY COULD INSTRUCT IT TO STOP WORK.
THE FIVE-NATION COMMISSION WAS AUTHORIZED LAST NOV. 29 WHEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA, IN A RARE INSTANCE OF AGREEMENT, JOINED TO PUSH THROUGH THE PARTITION PLAN. THEY NOW ARE DIVIDED AGAIN, WITH RUSSIA INSISTING THAT THE SPLITUP SCHEME BE CARRIED OUT.

War Possibility Justifies Purge of Reds, Attlee Says

ROBT WEIL

LONDON, March 25—(AP) Prime Minister Attlee said today the need to preserve defense secrets justified his government's purge of communists from security posts.

He told the House of Commons:

"There must be secrets of government, particularly in relation to defense, and there are other secrets as well: and as long as we are in a world where there is a possibility of war we must have defense and its secrets must be preserved."

Backs Security Order

The security order, announced last week, also applies to fascists. All sides of the House of Commons except one irate member, communist Willie Gallacher, united in support of Attlee's program. But the chamber was equally united in demanding that the order should not ride roughshod over Britain's traditional freedom of opinion for civil servants.

"I agree there should be no general purge—no general witch hunt," the prime minister said. As a further safeguard he announced creation of a three-man advisory board before which a person to be removed may state his case.

Attlee predicted that relatively few civil servants will lose their jobs under the order. He explained: "There will be some dismissals of perfectly honest people, but people who are absolutely fanatical in their belief in communism."

He said that "communists do not accept the obligations of loyalty and or ordinary moral dealings which enable us to deal with one another in our daily business."

"Communism follows a pattern blame others for what they are doing themselves," the prime minister continued.

Can't Trust Communists

'We are living in very serious times. I deplore these subversive movements. If they creep into the civil service they are enemies of the government service. I might be accused of many things, but I cannot be accused of ever trusting the Communist Party."

Gallacher said the security order was instigated by American multimillionaires and added:

"The United States wants Britain to be a forward base for an attack by American monopoly capitalists on Europe and Russia.

"If war comes the royal family will go to Ottawa (Canadian capital) and the people left to perish, and by the time it is finished this Britain will be a mass of radioactive mud."

Rejects Russian Protest

Britain today rejected Russia's protest against the recent United States-British-French conference in London and Germany.

In a note to the Soviet Government, Britain blamed Russia for the breakdown of four-power cooperation for restoring Germany's economic unity. The note said Britain wished "entirely to repudiate" Russian accusations that the negotiations by the three Western powers violated the Potsdam agreement. The note said in part:

"The refusal of the Soviet Government to allow those conditions to exist in Germany which are essential for the well-being of Europe has been amply demonstrated by their actions in the Control Council and the Council of Foreign Ministers and in all aspects of the political and economic discrimination in the Soviet-occupied zone."

Czech Attache Barred

The United States, Britain and France agreed at the conference to place the industrial Ruhr Valley under international control.

C. P. Mayhew, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, announced in the House of Commons that the Government has refused permission for Mrs. Majda Rynerova, cultural attaché of the Czechoslovak Embassy, to re-enter Britain. He declined to discuss the reasons.

Attlee Distrusts Communists, He Insists

London, March 25 (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee said today a possibility of war justified Britain's purge of Communists from security posts in the Government.

"I might be accused of many things, but I cannot be accused of ever trusting the Communist party," Attlee told the House of Commons. He spoke in reply to a speech by Communist Member Willie Gallacher.

"There are secrets of defense," the Prime Minister said. "As long as there is a possibility of war, we must have defenses and those secrets must be preserved."

Applies To Fascists, Too

The security order, announced last week, also applies to Fascists. "It is limited to excluding from secret work those who cannot be trusted—there will be no general purge; no general witch hunt," Attlee said.

"Communists do not accept the obligations of loyalty and of ordinary moral dealings which enable us to deal with one another in our daily business," he added.

Gallacher said the security order was "instigated by American multimillionaires."

"A Base For Attack"

"The United States wants Britain to be a forward base for an attack by American monopoly capitalists on Europe and Russia," he continued.

"If war comes, the royal family will go to Ottawa (Canadian capital) and the people left to perish, and by the time it is finished this Britain will be a mass of radioactive mud."

London Pessimistic

LONDON, March 25 (AP).—The British Foreign Office wished the United States luck today with its proposal for a Jewish-Arab truce in Palestine—but without much optimism. "That's the policy we have been advocating for a long time without success," a spokesman said.

Russian Protest On Big 3 Reich Plan Rejected

London, March 25 (AP)—Britain rejected today Russia's protest against the United States-British-French negotiations for rebuilding Western Germany's economy.

A firm note to the Soviet Government said Great Britain wished "entirely to repudiate the accusations" made by Russia that the negotiations violated the Potsdam Agreement.

The note blamed Russia for the breakdown of four-power co-operation for restoring Germany's economic unity.

Cites Consistent Attempts

"In the opinion of His Majesty's Government," it said, "responsibility for the frustration of their consistent attempts to promote to the greatest possible extent practical co-operation in Germany, directed to the economic recovery and unity of that country rests clearly upon the Soviet Government.

"The refusal of the Soviet Government to allow those conditions to exist in Germany which are essential for the well-being of Europe has been amply demonstrated by their actions in the Control Council and the Council of Foreign Ministers and in all aspects of the political and economic discrimination in the Soviet-occupied zone."

The note was sent in reply to one directed by Russia to the three big Western powers while their representatives were conferring in London.

Ruhr Development Set

Out of that conference came an agreement to place the industrial Ruhr Valley under international control, give Western Germany a federalized form of government and assign the area a role in the European economic recovery program.

The Soviet protest said that the conference "violated the Potsdam agreement and the agreement on control machinery in Germany despite the best endeavors of the Soviet Government to promote the successful working of the agreements."

It cited "numerous instances" purporting to demonstrate the Western Powers' responsibility to live up to those agreements.

Britain said it saw no reason to comment in detail on the allegations.

Press Cool To TUC 'Pay Freeze' Backing

London, March 25 (AP)—London's newspapers were cool today to Britain's Trade Union Congress decision to support the Government fight against inflation. The program calls for freezing wages and profits.

The Trade Union Congress voted, 2 to 1, yesterday to throw its 7,500,000-man membership behind the Government's two-front struggle against a spiraling economy.

MAR 1948

Many papers had as many reservations in welcoming the TUC decision as they claimed unionists had in backing the proposed wage-freezing policy.

The Financial Times viewed the TUC announcement as a vote of confidence in the Government, but noted that the dissenting minority was substantial.

The Liberal News-Chronicle said union leaders appear firm that nothing effective will be done about wages until profits are tied down.

The Communist Daily Worker commented on the size of the minority vote and said the decision did not bind individual unions now asking wage boosts.

Italian Newspaper Strike Ends

FRANK J BRUTTO

Rome, March 25 (AP)—Italy's nation-wide Communist-directed typographers' strike ended today.

Italians, avid for news after the four-day blackout in the midst of the biggest story for the country since the end of the war—the proposed Trieste settlement—quickly bought up the first editions of their newspapers.

The printers promptly went back to work after a settlement negotiated by Randolfo Pacciardi, Vice Premier, and within two and a half hours newspapers appeared on the streets. They prominently displayed pictures of Italian celebrations over the announcement last Saturday that Britain, the United States and France had proposed the return of all Trieste Free State territory to Italy.

New List Of Demands

The strike was called last Sunday midnight, about 32 hours after the Trieste announcement. Government circles said it was motivated by Communist concern over the effect of the Trieste news on the electorate, which goes to the polls April 18.

The Communist-directed union denied this, and said it was striking for higher wages. After the negotiation of one wage settlement on Monday, the union presented a new list of demands and the strike went on.

Pacciardi said the settlement today included advances on pay increases eventually to be granted.

The walkout was one of the tightest of the scores of sporadic and quickly ended printers' strikes called in Italy in the past several months.

London Papers Flown In

During the four days Italians relied on the radio and loudspeakers for most of their news. The Vatican City L'Osservatore Romano and the English-language Rome Daily American, which made its own settlement with the typographers, were the only papers printed here. French newspapers found a ready sale. London newspapers were flown in and Italians borrowed English dictionaries to read them. Trieste newspapers, unaffected by the strike, were bought up readily though they were two days old.

The Italian radio network made extra newscasts and Italians carried portable radios to listen.

U.S. 'Voice' Broadcast'

During the strike the attendance at political rallies fell off because no one knew when they were being held. The United States beamed the first of its daily "Voice of America" broadcasts to Italy yesterday but few persons knew about it.

In the news columns appearing today was the announcement of the Foreign Ministry spokesman that Italy is willing to negotiate directly with Yugoslavia on the question of Trieste.

The spokesman said the negotiations would have to be in the spirit of the British-American-French note to Russia and Yugoslavia proposing return of the territory of Italy.

He said that only by eliminating the "discord revealed in the question of the Trieste free territory can constructive peace be reached with our neighbors."

Rome Approves Italy-Slav Talks On Trieste

Rome, March 25 (AP)—Striking printers went back to work today and set the news that Italy is willing to negotiate with Yugoslavia over Trieste.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said negotiations could be considered only in the spirit of the American, British and French note proposing return of the 400-square-mile Free Territory to Italy.

The Government and the Communist-controlled Italian Confederation of Labor, which was accused of calling the press strike for political reasons, announced the end of the walkout.

Campaign Cramped

The strike had deprived Italians of newspapers since Sunday. Thus it had cramped the political campaign, in which Communists are striving for power in the April 18 elections. Radios and public loud speakers had been about the only means of distributing news in Italy since the Western powers announced they favored the return of Trieste to Italy.

Premier Alcide de Gasperi's office said the settlement provided for renewal of the national printers' contract, effective April 1, with advances on pay increases eventually to be granted. The printers resumed work immediately.

The printers' strike was one of the tightest and most complete of the hundred called in Italy during the past several months. Most of the others were sporadic and of short life. Only l'Osservatore Romano, of Vatican City, and the Rome Daily American, an English-language newspaper, were published during the four days.

The spokesman emphasized his Government's belief that only by eliminating the "discord revealed in the question of the Trieste Free Territory can constructive peace be reached with our neighbors."

To Exchange Prisoners

Shortly afterward, it was announced that Italy has agreed with Yugoslavia to exchange Slavs serving sentences in Italian jails for Italians doing time in Yugoslav prisons.

The spokesman gave the impression that the Italian Government wanted to get the news out now, while the biggest Italian-Slav issue —Trieste—is being discussed.

The Ministry's spokesman said Italy and Yugoslavia have been discussing for some time the problem of deportees from Venezia Giulia, taken from Italy by the peace treaty and split between Yugoslavia and the Free Territory.

He was unable to estimate the number of persons affected by the agreement on prisoners. He did say the accord does not concern political refugees.

Trieste Shipyard Strike

Meanwhile, in Trieste, a Communist-led strike started today in the San Marco shipyard.

Between 800 and 1,000 members of the "Labor Union United Syndicate" quit to protest fining of one member. The worker had been fined a day's pay for allowing an unauthorized person into the shipyard to speak to the workers.

The rest of the international port city is quiet, though tense.

Students, Workmen Involved

In Bologna, a Communist stronghold, a student demonstration for Trieste today ran into opposition from workmen. The Italian news agency Ansa reported the resultant scuffle was broken up by police without causing serious injuries.

The Trieste announcement came less than a month before a crucial Italian parliamentary election, scheduled for April 18.

[Mediterranean experts in the British Government forecast in London yesterday the Popular Front would get 38 to 43 per cent of the vote. They said they did not see how the Communists could be kept out of the Government.]

The Government announced over the Rome radio measures to get roving Italians home to vote. Citizens abroad needing steamship accommodations will be given free passage within a specified time limit. Those who must travel by rail will be granted 70 per cent reductions in fares.

Payment For Prisoners

An announcement said the United States will pay $4,500,000 to Italy for work Italian war prisoners did during the war in America.

In Trieste Free Territory, the British-American Military Government of the northern zone moved more British armed police up last night to guard the border with the Yugoslav-occupied southern zone. The police dug in and mounted automatic weapons.

DANES PUT ON GUARD

Copenhagen, March 25 (A. P.).—Minister of Justice Niels Busch-Jensen, asked all Danes last night to watch for subversive actions.

Speaking by radio, he called for vigilance against "everything that might indicate actions aimed against the security of the state or the Danish people, whether it be on land, in the air or at sea."

There was no official explanation for the unexpected appeal.

Belgian Prince Plans April Visit To U.S.

Brussels, March 25 (AP)—Prince Charles, regent of Belgium, will leave Brussels by plane April 3 for a visit to the United States, a palace communiqué announced today.

He is scheduled to arrive in Washington the following day and will call on President Truman on April 6. He expects to go to Knoxville, Tenn., April 9 to inspect the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The Prince Regent will be accompanied by Premier Paul-Henri Spaak; Paul de Groote, Minister of Economic Co-ordination; Col. Jean van Nerom, head of the Prince's military services; Robert de Staercke, his secretary, and Robert Ockrent, the Prime Minister's chief of Cabinet.

Reactionary Press Fans War Hysteria, Pole Aide Charges

Geneva, Switzerland, March 25 (AP)—Wiktor Grosz, Polish Minister of Information, charged today that the "reactionary world press" was stirring up a "hysterical war climate." MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

In the first statement of policy by a Soviet-bloc country at the United Nations conference on freedom of information, Grosz singled out the United States press particularly in his charges of warmongering. He attacked United States Representative Thomas S. Gordon (D., Ill.) for having achieved a "world's record in lying" and said the United States "Voice of America" broadcasts to Poland drew on "slanderous" information from Gordon's articles.

In Poland 48 Hours

Grosz said Gordon spent 48 hours in Poland "of which he spent sixteen hours sleeping, another ten hours eating, five hours visiting the ruins of Warsaw and another five hours paying official visits."

In the remaining twelve hours, Grosz said, Gordon gathered the information on which he based a series of articles describing the whole Polish state machinery.

The speaker said the Polish press was "not free to warmongers."

William Benton, former Assistant Secretary of State, outlined the basic American concept of freedom of the press, and struck back sharply at Russian proposals to "combat the diffusion of false and distorted reports likely to injure friendly relations between states."

Press Spreads Alarm

Benton said, "if a state is engaged in expansionist acts that cause other states to fear their own security, then freedom of information and international understanding are instruments through which the news and the alarm is spread. The result may be indignation in other countries, preparations for defense, protests, and even talk about the probability of war.

"But it is surely fantastic perversion of the truth to call such reaction, or the news reports that create them, slander or warmongering."

A monopoly of information, he said, was "the most vicious accomplice of warmongering" and "if we are to have lasting peace in the world, freedom of information must be sought in all countries."

ARMY TRAINING DUE, CLAY SAYS

Is Not 'Expecting Any Conflagration' Soon

DONALD DOANE

Frankfurt, Germany, March 25 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military commander, said today United States occupation troops soon will begin intensive spring training in Germany.

But he said it probably will be no more intensive than usual and "I am not the least bit nervous or expecting any conflagration to break out tomorrow or the next day by any means."

"The Army is like a fire department. It must be kept ready to put out fires," he commented at a news conference.

The General described the present deadlock between Russia and the Western Allies in Berlin over four-power rule of Germany as "a political situation and not a military one."

Clarification Expected

He predicted the situation resulting from Russia's walkout Saturday from the Allied Control Council would be clarified soon. He said he had no fears that the Russians would close the borders of their Eastern zone, shutting the supply highway from the Western zones to Berlin.

The Soviet-sponsored press in Berlin yesterday prominently displayed reports that the border was being violated increasingly by spies, bandits and hungry persons from the Western zones. The Russian-licensed Berliner Zeitung predicted today that American, British and French occupation troops would be leaving Berlin in the not distant future.

Certain Moral Values

General Clay has declared the Americans intend to stay in Berlin. Told the Germans were afraid they would be overrun by Russian troops, Clay said "people everywhere are afraid of war. Nobody as an individual wants war. Let us hope from that fact alone there will be no war.

"On the other hand we must face the fact there are certain moral values that those of us who believe in them must maintain regardless of the cost."

Clay said there are no plans to evacuate American wives and children from Germany, and that he did not know whether reports were true that the Russians were sending their families home.

Declines Speculation

The American commander declined to speculate on the possibility that the dispute in Berlin might bring an end to four-power rule of Germany. Asked what he would do if the Russians made it difficult to maintain Western forces in Berlin, he said he would cross that bridge when he came to it.

He smiled at the Russian reports that Germans are fleeing to their zone and said "we are perfectly willing to let them go if they think it is better over there."

MAR 1948

General Clay Doubts War In Reich Is Near

Frankfurt, March 25 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay said today that he is "not the least bit nervous" about the military situation in Germany.

"I am not expecting any conflagration to break out tomorrow or the next day by any means," the United States military governor told a news conference."

Clay said he has no fear that the Russians will close the borders of Eastern Germany or the supply highway from the British and American zones to Berlin.

A German newsman said the German people are afraid they will be overrun by Russian troops. Clay replied:

"People everywhere are afraid of war. Nobody as an individual wants war. Let us hope from that fact alone there will be no war.'

Denies Wives To Leave

"On the other hand, we must face the fact that there are certain moral values that those of us who believe in them must maintain, regardless of the cost."

Clay was asked if the Russians ever expressed a threat to use troops or a fear that troops would be used.

"Never," Clay replied. "Not to me in any of my official or social relations."

MAR 1948

The military governor denied reports that the United States Army planned to evacuate wives and children of American personnel because of the troubled international situation. He said he had heard the report that Russian families were being sent home from Germany, but that he did not know whether the report was correct.

Deadlock Is Political

The present deadlock in Germany over four-power rule is a political rather than a military situation, Clay said. He predicted that it will be clarified soon.

Britain, France and the United States will not back down in their refusal to answer Russian questions about the London three-power talks on Germany, he said. The Russians walked out of the Allied Control Council Saturday when the Western powers declined to discuss the talks.

"As we told the Soviets Saturday," Clay said, "there have been no intentions of discussing its recommendations until our governments have acted upon them."

Clay declined to discuss the possibility of a western German state.

"I do not want to be put in the position at the present time of casting a threat that a western German government is in the making," he said.

West Seen Leaving Berlin

Meanwhile, the Russian-licensed newspaper Berliner Zeitung insisted in Berlin today that the day is not far distant when American, English and French occupation troops will have to leave the capital.

All three commanders in chief of the Western Allies, in the last several days, have announced that their forces will stay in Berlin so long as there is an Allied occupation of Germany.

The paper said these statements "are proof that the position of the Western powers in Berlin has become legally and actually untenable."

The Russians have been boycotting some four-power control organs since Saturday, when they walked out of a meeting of the Allied Control Council in the midst of a policy dispute.

Plundering Charged

They charged the Western Allies today with plundering Berlin of valuable manufacturing equipment and other goods. All Soviet-licensed papers carried this statement by Maj. Gen. P. Kvaschnin, chief Soviet transport officer:

"The loadings out of Berlin to western Germany by the British, American and French military governments are carried out at night in complete secrecy so that it has been very difficult to examine what really is happening."

General Kwashnin added that equipment also had been shipped to western Germany from the Soviet sector of Berlin. He hinted that the Russians intend to strengthen their railway controls.

Combine To Disband Under Occupation Rule

Berlin, March 25, (AP)—United States and British authorities took the first step today toward breaking up the Bosch Electrical Combine in western Germany as an excessive concentration of economic power.

Under military government laws any industry employing more than 10,000 persons is subject to action. At the end of 1947 the Robert Bosch Company had sixteen plants in United States and British occupied territory, employing 15,322 persons. It may retain four of the plants, including the two largest at Stuttgart. The others will be put up for sale.

Russ Oppose Lifting Of Censorship Rule

Vienna, March 25 (AP)—Russia rejected today a United States proposal to end censorship in Austria.

British and French members of the Allied Control Council supported the American proposal.

The Austrian Government is forced to employ about 3,000 persons for censorship under an early Control Council ruling.

Vote Charge In Romania

LEONARD KIRSCHEN

Bucharest, Romania, March 25 (AP)—Telhari Georgescu, Interior Minister, said today that "agents in the service of foreign imperialism" are trying to interfere in Romania's national elections.

The election of members of a new Grand National Assembly will be held next Sunday. The voters also will ballot on a new national constitution.

In a statement read at a news conference, Georgescu did not specify what foreign nations he meant.

Diversionary Acts

He said, however, that "certain elements" in Romania and the agents were interfering in the elections by attempting "to commit diversionary acts" and trying "to attack democratic party headquarters and individuals."

"These elements are torn from the midst of the popular masses and are utilizing criminal methods," he added.

Georgescu said the presence of former King Mihai in the United States "will have no effect on the elections."

Forced To Quit Throne

Replying to a question posed by a Communist newspaper here, Georgescu said Mihai's American visit would have no influence "on the civic maturity of the popular masses" in Romania.

Mihai abdicated the throne late last year and has been in the United States since March 10. Following his abdication, Romania became a republic with a Communist-dominated Government headed by Premier Petru Groza.

Later, Mihai said he did not consider his abdication binding because he had been forced to leave the throne.

Nationalization Voted By Hungarian Cabinet

Budapest, Hungary, March 25 (AP)—The Hungarian Cabinet voted today for nationalization of all businesses employing more than 100 persons.

The proposal will be presented to Parliament soon.

The Social Democratic party, meanwhile, is continuing its purge of persons charged with having "obstructed the unification of the working class." Party headquarters listed the names of fifteen former high party officials who were expelled last night.

Among those expelled is Sandor Milok, veteran Socialist and member of Parliament, who was imprisoned by the Nazis in Mauthausen concentration camp during the war. Milok resigned recently as president of the Budapest Tramways Company.

Czech Vote Set May 23

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 25 (AP)—The official Government news agency announced tonight that a parliamentary election will be held in Czechoslovakia May 23.

The Cabinet unanimously approved the date. There were indications that all parties recognized by the Communist Government will have their own candidates. Advocates of a single slate of candidates, made up of Communists and persons conforming to the Communist program, were said to be losing ground.

Communist Premier Klement Gottwald said the elections will be held in the manner specified by law, which provides for a contest among parties.

Escape From Country

Charges of participating in a conspiracy against the state were raised by the public prosecutor today against Adolf Prochazka, former Health Minister, and his wife, Helena Kozelhova, a prominent publicist.

Prochazka, his wife and a daughter have escaped from the country. They eluded security police while skiing near the border. Authorities said they were accompanied by a large group of students among whom Prochazka has a large following. Another daughter was caught at the frontier while trying to leave by a different route.

Prochazka was a member of the People's (Catholic) party. There were indications he and his wife might be tried in absentia.

Slovak Flees To Austria

Earlier the newspaper Prace said Dr. Josef Lettrich, former head of the Slovak Democratic party, had escaped into the United States zone of Austria.

Until the Communists took control of Czechoslovakia a month ago Lettrich was chairman of the Slovak National Council. In that capacity he was the counterpart for semi-autonomous Slovakia of President Eduard Benes.

The newspaper said Lettrich disguised himself as a chauffeur and fled from a suburb of Bratislava, Slovak capital, to Vienna in a truck operated by a Dutch firm.

Both Lettrich and the general secretary of his party, Dr. Fedor Hodza, have been singled out for coming trials on treason charges. The Communists claim the two men had dealings with unnamed foreign powers. The whereabouts of Hodza, son of a prewar Czechoslovak Premier, have not been reported recently.

prepared will give state publishing organizations exclusive right to publish books on their own initiative.

Zdenek Fierlinger, head of the Social Democratic party and Minister of Industry, told a meeting at Reichenberg, Bohemia, that his party will have an independent ticket in the elections, which he said will be held in May.

Hold Balance Of Power

The Communists received 38 per cent and the Social Democrats fourteen per cent in the 1946 elections and together held the balance of power.

[In Paris, Dr. Metod Svozil, the consul in the Czech Embassy, resigned today. He said recent events at Prague were the reason. Ambassador Jindrich Nosek announced his resignation yesterday.]

Lettrich, Ex-Slovak Leader, Escapes To Austria Dressed As Chauffeur

GOLDBERG

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 25 (AP)—Dr. Joseph Lettrich, erstwhile chairman of the Slovakian National Council, has escaped into the United States zone of Austria, the newspaper Prace said today.

Lettrich also is former head of Slovak Democratic party. He was council chairman until the Communists took control in Czechoslovakia a month ago. In that capacity, he was the counterpart for semi-antonomius Slovakia of President Eduard Benes.

He disguised himself as a chauffeur and fled from a suburb of Bratislava to Vienna in a big truck operated by a Dutch firm, the paper said. Bratislava is the capital of Slovakia.

Faced Treason Trial

Both Lettrich and Dr. Fedor Hodza, general secretary of his party and son of a former Czechoslovak Premier, have been singled out for coming trials on treason charges. Hodza's whereabouts have not been reported lately. Both long have been under attack from Communists, who say they have had dealings with unnamed foreign powers.

Lettrich's parliamentary immunity had been threatened but never lifted. Prace indicated he got out of the country more than a week ago.

Lettrich helped start the Slovak uprising against the Germans at Banska Bystrica in 1944.

Publishing Monopoly Set

Meanwhile, Frantisek Krajcir, Minister of Internal Trade, said at Koniggratz, Bohemia, last night that book publishing will become a virtual Government monopoly in Czechoslovakia.

Democracy Is Still Alive In Greece, Griswold Says

Athens, March 25 (AP)—Dwight P. Griswold, chief of the American Mission of Aid to Greece, told Greeks today democracy is not an impregnable fortress unless it is defended.

Griswold addressed the Greek nation on the one hundred and twenty-seventh anniversary of its independence from Turkey. His address was broadcast.

He referred to President James Monroe's offer of aid to Greece in the 1821 revolt and said the friendship between the United States and Greece which began then is being affirmed now "in this hour of Greece's need."

"But even as other nations would block up the well springs of liberty, democratic nations must guard them more zealously than ever before," he said.

"Despite contentions of Communist propaganda, the venom of which has perverted even the ethics of free journalism, there is still liberty and democracy in Greece. Here, for all the world to see, are majority rule, parliamentary procedure, freedom of speech, press and assembly, and a respect for the decency of man and dignity of his faith," he concluded.

Greeks Seek Middle East Unity

ATHENS, March 25 (AP).—A Greek Foreign Office spokesman said today that Greece, Turkey and the Middle East Arab nations are holding preliminary talks aiming at close co-operation. He said the talks have not yet reached the negotiation stage.

Finns Are Urged To Follow Czechs

Helsinki, Finland, March 25 (AP). Mrs. Hertta Kussinin, Communist leader, said last night Finnish workers should follow the example of Czechoslovakia.

Communist-lead unions played a major part in effecting the Red coup in Czechoslovakia. A Finnish delegation now is negotiating in Moscow on a treaty of friendship and mutual assistance asked by Prime Minister Stalin.

Mrs. Kussinin told a meeting of Communists and Socialists that a common front of those parties in Czechoslovakia "broke the reaction there" and "that is also our way." The meeting was called to establish a common Socialist-Communist front "for peace, country and bread."

RUSSIANS, FINNS BEGIN PRELIMINARY PARLEYS

MOSCOW, March 25 (AP)— A Finnish delegation was believed to have met today with Russian negotiators concerning the proposed Soviet-Finnish friendship and mutual aid pact.

There was no official information, however, as to what work the the Finnish group did today.

Finnish Premier Mauno Pekkala arrived in Moscow yesterday and the rest of his delegation two days earlier. During that period, the Finns spent their time resting and participating in social functions.

It was obvious today, however, that the Finns were hard at work. Members of the mission were concontinually leaving and returning to their headquarters at the official Soviet guest house.

Cay Sundstrom, Finnish minister to Moscow, apparently was taking an active part in the negotiations.

PRINCESS DIES AS A JAP SPY

Unclaimed Body Lies Outside Prison After Execution

Peiping, March 25 (AP)—Yoshiko Kawashima, Manchu Princess who used sex and brains as a spy for Japan, was executed at 6.30 A.M. today by a single rifle shot in the back of the head.

Eight hours later her unclaimed body still lay outside the back gate of the Hopei model prison, the center of a curious throng of coolies and children.

Beside it was a plain wooden coffin in which she will be buried if no relative or friend comes forward.

Long since bereft of the beauty which had won her the Chinese name Pih Wei, "Radiant Jade," the body of the 33-year-old Princess was clad in coarse gray padded jacket and trousers and was covered with a bit of dirty matting.

No Public Execution

Her one last request was granted. Instead of the planned public execution at the plaza called the "Bridge of Heaven," the princess was shot in the prison courtyard before only a handful of witnesses.

Prison officials said she died bravely and quietly. At dawn two warders led her from the cell she shared with a woman convicted of smoking opium. No religious representatives were present, and she asked for none, though she had read Buddhist scriptures during her imprisonment.

Standing in the compound, she quickly brushed in Japanese a farewell letter to her 83-year-old Japanese foster father, Naniwa Kawashima, of Tokyo.

Other Prisoners Wail

She declined the cup of wine customarily given a condemned person.

When the unidentified Chinese executioner fired, a wail arose from other women prisoners, with whom she had been popular. This ended a fantastic life whose details may never be known accurately.

Born in Tokyo, Yoshiko was adopted by Kawashima at the age of 3 upon the death of her father, Prince Su.

The prosecution charged that she began her anti-Chinese espionage in 1933, when she worked as a Shanghai dance-hall girl to gain information from her patrons.

Princess Dies As Jap Spy

Peiping, March 25 (AP)—A rifle shot ended today the fabulous life of Manchu Princess Yoshiko Kawashima, convicted as a spy for Japan.

She died without a whimper, prison officials said—and in comparative privacy, as she had wished.

Asked if she had any last wish, she said she would like to write a letter. She wrote standing, in Japanese. It was to her Japanese foster father, Ninawa Kawshima.

Last Appeal Fails

Then the prosecutor announced that her last appeal had been rejected and she would be executed. The order to kneel followed.

Then the executioner fired a single shot into the back of her head.

In the cell she had shared with a Chinese woman opium smoker she left her unfinished autobiography.

Asked Private Execution

Born in Tokyo to Manchu Prince Su and a Mongolian princess, she was adopted by Kawashima when she was 3. She had never married. "Men only make trouble for women," she said a few days ago.

She was only 33, but few traces of beauty remained.

She was convicted by a Chinese court last October of wartime espionage.

No Aftereffects Found In Study Of Hiroshima

Tokyo, March 25 (AP)—The top scientist studying Hiroshima said today the atomic bomb has not damaged that Japanese city since the split second in which it burst.

Dr. Philip S. Owen said the long study by the Atomic Bomb Casualty Survey Commission "disclosed no residual radioactivity." He termed false speculation that the area would be deadly for possibly 80 years.

Dr. Owen, of Washington, D.C., is executive director of the commission. The scientists are studying residents of Hiroshima and those of near-by Kure for comparison.

Not Enough Time Yet

It "is eight years too soon" to say whether the bomb caused hereditary changes, he delared, but he emphasized that, if there are any they would result from the split second of the blast—not from subsequent atomic action.

He shrugged away previously published reports of luxuriant plant growth, curiously twisted vegetables and twin onions.

"We haven't found any such startling results," he commented.

"They could happen anywhere, but in Hiroshima people seize on radioactivity as an explanation. It's probably just potash in the soil—ashes of burned buildings and human bones."

Official casualty figures in the bombing, August 6, 1945, are 78,150 killed. Radiation killed 21.2 per cent; the others died from concussion, injuries, infections or perished in burning buildings. Another 19,699 were injured seriously and 44,979 slightly.

Study In Two Parts

Dr. Owen stressed that the casualties resulted from the blast—none from anything that developed later.

The commission has divided its study into two parts: examination of injury cases to determine latent effects on the blood, and registration of pregnant women to determine what, if anything, is the effect on children.

The scientist said there is little similarity between the long-range studies at Hiroshima and the Bikini Atoll project. He described the latter as "an experiment in the acute effects of radiation."

DAY IS CALM IN JERUSALEM

Holy Thursday Quiet Broken By Firing In Evening

Jerusalem, March 25 (AP)—Jerusalem passed Holy Thursday in almost complete calm today before fighting erupted in three sections of the city.

Arabs and Jews began shooting an hour before last sunset. The clashes continued for two hours. Mortars barked about the Mount of Olives. Shells whined over the spot where the Last Supper was believed to have been held.

On the same site this morning Archbishop Arthur Hughes, Internuncio of the Catholic Church of Cairo, celebrated a pontifical high mass. A dozen Europeans and 100 Christian Arabs attended.

Arabs Guard Route

Along a route guarded by armed Arabs a little group of clerics moved to the Garden of Gethsemane for a holy hour at the place where Christ was betrayed for 30 pieces of silver. Jewish and Arab gunposts in the area remained silent. Birds sang in blossoming fruit trees.

Traditional night services in Gethsemane were canceled. It is dangerous to be abroad in Jerusalem after dark.

Protestants prayed in Jerusalem's churches. Jews made cookies for the Purim, or Feast of Esther.

To Mark Deliverance

If there is a lull in the fighting, Jews will go to synagogues tomorrow to hear readings from the Book of Esther, commemorating their deliverance from the ancient Persians.

Christians will go to the Holy Sepulcher for Good Friday. There they will worship in observance of the day when Christ was crucified.

The heaviest firing this evening occurred between the bomb-blackened Montefiore section and the old city walls.

Penetrate Jewish Lines

In the eastern part of the city Arabs penetrated Jewish lines and were believed to have occupied a building formerly housing a Swedish school.

Arab and Jewish Bren gun crews exchanged fire across the Mamillah Cemetery near the United States consulate.

Elsewhere in Palestine a Jew was killed and a Jewish vehicle was damaged by mines on the Jaffa-Gaza road. Nine Arabs were wounded by snipers' bullets in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv borderland area. A mortar shell wounded a Jewish constable in Tel Aviv. A Jewish worker was killed in an orange grove near Lydda.

Stand On Original Demands

Palestine Arabs and Jews were little impressed tonight by President Truman's call for a truce in the Holy Land.

Both sides generally like the idea but neither appears willing to give in on its original demands. In the words of a man in the street, "all this talk in America does not seem to be getting us anywhere."

Since most Jewish leaders at present are in the United States or at Tel Aviv and Arab leaders are in Beirut, Lebanon, official sources in Jerusalem discussed the subject with caution.

However, an Arab attorney associated with the higher executive said:

"Our demands are simple. We want a democratic Arab government with all Palestinians—that includes Jews—given an equal right to vote. We cannot accept enslavement by a foreign minority. We must fight until partition and Zionism are dead."

Jewish agency officials said they were anxious for peace but considered as still valid the United Nations partition decision of November 29. They said they were unwilling to give up their claim for a Jewish state.

Jerusalem Firing Begins As Holy Day Nears End

Jerusalem, March 25 (AP)—The Holy City passed Maundy Thursday with almost complete calm today, but gunfire started up an hour before sunset.

Mortars were fired around the Mount of Olives and shells whined over the spot where the Last Supper was believed held. Before the communal strife between Jews and Arabs was renewed, Archbishop Arthur Hughes, internuncio of the Catholic Church of Cairo, celebrated at the site a pontifical high mass. About 100 Christian Arabs and dozens of Europeans attended.

A little group of clerics moved on to the Garden of Gethsemane for a holy hour at the place where Christ was betrayed for 30 pieces of silver. Armed Arabs guarded their path. Jewish and Arab gunposts along the way remained silent.

Purim Cookies Made

Protestants prayed in the city's churches. Jews made cookies for the Purim, or Feast of Esther, tomorrow. If the guns permit, the Jews will go to their synagogues tomorrow to hear readings from the Book of Esther, commemorating their deliverance from the Persians.

Christians will go to the Holy Sepulcher for Good Friday observance of the day more than 1,900 years ago when Christ was crucified.

Arabs and Jews dueled with guns for two hours tonight in three sections of Jerusalem, The heaviest fire was between the bomb-blackened Montefiore section and the Old City walls. Bren guns exchanged fire across Mamillah Cemetery, fronting the United States Consulate. Other fighting was in the mixed Musvava quarters in East Jerusalem.

Night Services Canceled

Traditional night services in Gethsemane have been canceled. After dark in Jerusalem has become a dangerous time to roam abroad.

The Jews have curtailed their Purim observance, too. Fireworks displays, long customary, were canceled. There are too many other fireworks.

Girls Shorn After Dates

Jerusalem, March 25 (AP)—Jewish girls in Palestine are finding it dangerous these days to have American or British boy friends.

Jewish extremists are pouncing on such girls and shaving their heads.

18 Japs Convicted Of Atrocity Slayings

Guam, March 25 (AP)—Eighteen Japanese soldiers were convicted by a war-crime commission today of the atrocity slaying of ten civilians on Babelthuap Island in the Palau group during the war.

Two others were acquitted.

A trial commission, headed by Rear Admiral Arthur G. Robinson, found that Lieut. Kazuharu Yamamoto and seventeen subordinates shot the civilians without provocation. The victims included five Catholic priests.

The priests were Spanish. The other victims were a lay brother and a family of Filipinos, including two children.

The trial began February 16.

BULLETIN.

Washington, March 25 (A. P.).—A high Navy official said today foreign submarines had been reported three times recently in the Pacific, once within 200 miles of San Francisco.

MAR 1948

Washington, March 25 (A. P.).—Secretary of the Navy Sullivan told Senators today that "recently submarines not belonging to any nation west of the 'Iron Curtain' have been sighted off our shores."

Although Sullivan named no names, Russia is the only nation behind the Iron Curtain known to have any submarine fleet.

Testifying before the Senate Armed Services Committee, Sullivan said:

"I am not prepared to evaluate the significance of these sightings. However, we all recall that an early step of the Germans in 1917 and 1941 was to deploy submarines off our coasts."

Sullivan was before the committee to ask for a stronger Navy as part of the administration's "Stop Communism" drive. He was preceded by Secretary of Defense Forrestal, who asked Congress for immediate extension of the armed forces, the drafting of men between 19 and 25 years of age inclusive, $3,000,000,000 more and a permanent U. M. T.

Sullivan said Russia had obtained ten new German submarines, four of them of the latest wartime design.

Won't Tell Where Subs Were Sighted.

Later a reporter asked Sullivan where the subs had been sighted.

"I know everybody would like to know that," Sullivan replied. "But we are not going to say. It would be very important for the 'other fellow' to know which of his subs have been sighted and which have not been."

"This type embodies both the schnorkel and high submerged speed," he explained. "This speed, combined with its deep submergence characteristics, makes it extremely effective in submarine warfare and most difficult to detect and counter-attack."

The schnorkel is a German-developed device. It is a sort of snout which can be sent to the surface and permits the submarine's Diesel engines to operate while the sub lies submerged. Prior to its development, a submarine had to surface to recharge batteries by use of Diesel power.

Sullivan told the committee that the Russians now control four large German shipbuilding yards which mass-produced submarines during world war II.

He added that these yards have on hand "all the blueprints and prefabricated parts" for many more subs of the latest German design.

"The Soviets," Sullivan said, 'are using expert German submarine designers, engineers and technicians."

Sullivan said that at the beginning of world war II the Germans had less than fifty operating submarines "and yet they very nearly won the battle of the Atlantic."

"The Russians," he added, "now have more than 250 operating submarines and undoubtedly are capable of producing on short notice a large number of the latest design, vastly superior to any operated by the German Navy during world war II."

Sullivan told the committee that the United States has "not entirely perfected countermeasures against the latest type submarines."

He said these "remain a serious threat to our relatively slow-moving, but vital dry cargo ships and tankers."

Sullivan added that "exhaustive research indicates the complete solution will be most difficult."

In calling for the draft, Forrestal told the committee that expansion of American military might is necessary to match that of Communist Russia.

Expanding on Forrestal's call for man power, the committee's chairman, Senator Gurney (R.-S. D.), told a reporter:

"Actual veterans of the last war, married men and men with dependents would be exempted from the 19-to-25-year, inclusive, age group covered by the proposed draft."

He said, however, that these veterans probably would be subject to the draft: (1) Those veterans with less than one year of service, none of which was spent overseas; and (2) those veterans with less than ninety days' service, including time overseas.

Gurney added that the committee itself will consider possible deferments for such groups as ministerial students, conscientious objectors, and science students.

Forrestal Sketches Grim Turn.

Forrestal was surrounded by the nation's top military leaders as he outlined the grim turn of world events making the request for expansion necessary.

Forrestal outlined the recent turn of world events in urging steps to make United States military might match that of Communist Russia.

As Forrestal spoke before the Senate Armed Services Committee, President Truman announced that he is preparing to give the Congress a revised defense program. He told his news conference he could not estimate yet how many additional billions of dollars the program would cost. Estimates from the Defense Department have not yet reached him, he said.

Forrestal said the odds still favored peace and the free nations of the world, but he asked Congress to approve the following immediately:

1. An increase in the present authorized strength of Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force man power by 349,500 officers and men.

2. Another $3,000,000,000 in cash and contract authority for the armed services to cover this expansion. This presumably would be in addition to $11,000,000,000 already in the budget.

Some Details Held Top Secret.

3. Drafting by selective service of men from 19 to 25 years inclusive. He said this would provide 1,355,000 men, but added that only about 220,000 probably would be taken. He estimated 500,000 probably would volunteer.

4. A permanent system of universal military training which would become fully effective within three years. Forrestal said this would provide some 850,000 men each year with basic training.

Forrestal said some of the details of the expanded armed service program must be presented later behind closed doors.

"Because of the world situation as it exists today, there is certain detailed information which we cannot safely disclose in open session," he said.

The current strength of the armed services is 1,392,000.

Vets May be Exempted.

Forrestal indicated in his testimony that war veterans will not be included in the draft plans when he said the 19-25-year age group includes a "total of 3,600,000 male non-veterans."

Exemptions and deferments would reduce that number to 1,355,000 the Secretary said. He did not immediately explain the basis for exemptions and deferments, but Senators have said they would exclude married men.

Forrestal said that the 349,500 increase in the regular armed forces would be divided this way:

"The Army, by 240,000, from 542,000 to 782,000;

"The Navy, by 63,000, from 397,000 to 460,000;

"The Marine Corps, by 11,000, from 81,000 to 92,000;

"The Air Force, by 35,500, from 364,500 to 400,000."

This would require an additional $3,000,000,000 outlay, he said, which soon will be asked of Congress. The biggest items in this were listed as: $775,000,000 for aircraft procurement, research and development for the Air Forces and naval aviation, and about $760,000,000 for military personnel costs.

He said the costs of U. M. T. already are covered in the budget and include an appropriation of $500,000,000.

Employs Blunt Words.

President Truman asked Congress on March 17 in a special message to revive the temporary wartime draft and set up a permanent universal military training program.

Laying down a Stop-Russia edict, the President said reinforcements were necessary to strengthen the United States in its role of protector of free nations against Communism.

Forrestal used blunt words to make clear that he was asking for men and money to combat the spread of Russian influence. Comparing the Soviet with the governments of Kaiser Wilhelm, of Hitler and Mussolini, he told the committee:

"Today, another Power, wearing the false mask of freedom for the people, seeks to spin its web over all Western Europe.

"It must be made clear and manifest to the world that any nation which tries to copy the pattern of action which through Hitler brought so much disaster on mankind must, like Hitler and Germany, face the determination and will of the United States that it shall not happen again."

The Defense Secretary likened the early aggressions of Hitler to the toppling of the governments of Poland, Romania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia.

Refers to Italian Elections.

Forrestal said the Italians in elections on April 18 will be put under pressure to "accept a system for which they have no stomach."

He said the democracies offered no firm resistance to aggressions which took place before world war II. He added:

"Today another great and despotic Power threatens to extinguish freedom in Europe.

"But despite this, the odds are not yet on Russia or war. The odds are still on the United States and peace. And if the United States acts at once and with firm and resolute purpose, the odds will continue to rest on the United States and peace through the years ahead."

One factor placing odds on the side of this country is the atomic bomb, Forrestal said.

"The United States possesses the knowledge and the capacity to make the atom bomb and as yet the Soviets do not," he testified.

Secretary of the Army Royall told the committee: "I would not—and do not suggest that war is imminent."

But, Royall added, "We cannot risk the entire safety of our country, either on the assumption that war will not come at all, or that it will be deferred for any particular number of years."

Truman Moves To Halt Strife In Palestine

Washington, March 25 (AP)—President Truman proposed today that the United Nations call Arab and Jewish leaders into a truce parley to halt bloodshed in Palestine.

He said Warren Austin, American delegate to the United Nations, would put the proposal before the United Nations Security Council.

Mr. Truman also said he still favors partition of Palestine into Jewish and Arab states ultimately, but peace must first be assured.

The President told a news conference that the United States reversed its original stand for partition of Palestine because partition could not be enforced without American troops.

Austin announced the reversal last Friday. He proposed a temporary United Nations trusteeship over Palestine.

Object Of Proposal

Mr. Truman said the United States proposed the trusteeship to provide a government "to keep the peace."

He read to reporters a prepared statement saying a truce must be reached between the Arabs and the Jews "if we are to avert tragedy in Palestine."

Therefore, he said, he has instructed Austin to call responsible representatives of the Arabs and Jews to a United Nations council table to seek such a truce.

Fears "Open Warfare"

Unless something is done, he declared, "open warfare is just over the horizon."

He said that the United States would be prepared to back a United Nations trusteeship, but when asked if that meant troops would be needed, he replied, not necessarily.

He said he did not believe force would be required to enforce trusteeship.

"Unfortunately it has become clear that the partition plan cannot be carried out at this time by peaceful means," he asserted.

Cites National Policy

"We could not undertake to impose this solution on the people of Palestine by the use of American troops, both on (United Nations) Charter grounds and as a matter of national policy."

The President, under questioning, said the British were supposed to stay in Palestine until August 15, but suddenly decided to pull out on May 15.

Asked about that British decision, he commented that he did not run the British Government.

Authority Would Be Lacking

Mr. Truman went on to say that unless emergency action is taken, there will be no public authority in Palestine after May 15 which can preserve order.

"Violence and bloodshed will descend upon the Holy Land," he said. "Large-scale fighting among the people of that country will be the inevitable result. Such fighting would infect the entire Middle East and could lead to consequences of the greatest sort involving the peace of this nation and of the world."

He said that a United Nations trusteeship was proposed, not as a substitute for partition of Palestine into Jewish and Arab states, but to "fill the vacuum" created by termination of the British mandate.

"U.S. Will Share Responsibility"

The United States, he said, will take its share "of the necessary responsibility" for enforcing a temporary trusteeship. He said it is vital that the American people have a clear understanding of this position.

In reply to a question, Mr. Truman said he thinks the truce plan is practical or he would not have advanced it.

The only alternative, he added, is the slaughter of a lot of people.

Mr. Truman was asked what would happen if the truce proposal should collapse.

He replied that the United States would have to try to get the truce before it does anything else.

A reporter asked why the United States supported partition originally.

Mr. Truman said any school boy's hindsight is better than any President's foresight.

A reporter then said suppose the United Nations adopts the trusteeship plan and troops become necessary; would the United States help furnish them?

Mr. Truman said that that bridge would have to be crossed when we got to it.

ARAB LEAGUE HITS TRUMAN PLEA FOR PALESTINE TRUCE

President Says He Still Favors Partition Plan—at Some Future Date.

WARNS OF PEACE PERIL

Holds Open Possibility of Sending U. S. Troops to Holy Land.

WASHINGTON, March 25—(AP) President Truman called urgently today for a truce in Arab-Jew warfare in Palestine and for a United Nations trusteeship there. The Arab office here termed his proposal "fantastic."

Mr. Truman warned that "violence and bloodshed" threaten the Holy Land and endanger even world peace.

The President spoke out at a news conference. Under questioning by reporters he held open the possibility that American troops, backing the United Nations, might have to go to Palestine this spring.

To other questions, he said he still favors partition of Palestine between Arab and Jew—at some future date.

Arabs in Protest

The Arab office snapped up the latter point. Speaking for the Arab League, it said in a statement:

"No, Mr. President, without complete renunciation of partition, the Arabs will have no cooling off period. Your appeal only strengthens their determination to settle the Palestine problem in their own way."

The statement saw Mr. Truman's proposal as a scheme to get the Arabs to accept a U.N. trusteeship until it becomes more convenient to force partition. It called this "fantastic."

President, expressing appreciation for assurance that the Chief Executive favors ultimate partition. He added, however, that it would be as difficult to enforce a trusteeship as a partition.

Myers urged that efforts to create a UN police force be redoubled, "despite the Soviet delay and recalcitrance."

Along with his truce call, the President did three otheir things concerning Palestine:

1. He criticized the British government for deciding to end its rule over Palestine on May 15 rather than August 15. They were supposed to stay until Aug. 15, he said, and he didn't know why they were giving up their mandate earlier. He added acidly that he didn't run the British government.

2. He also sought to explain why the United States had suddenly shifted last week from support of partitioning Palestine between Jews and Arabs to a proposal that the United Nations set up a trusteeship over the Holy Land.

3. He said that the United States still favors partition at a future date, but declared that peace must be assured first.

Marshall Rebukes Reporter

At the State department, Secretary Marshall cut short a reporter who, in asking a question, said that the United States had made a decision to "abandon partition." Marshall sharply told the reporter (Martin Agronsky of ABC) that unless the question was reworded he would not reply. Agronsky then dropped the phrase "abandon partition" and Marshall's news conference proceeded.

Actually Marshall added nothing, however, to Mr. Truman's discussion of the situation. The President announced at the very outset of his meeting with reporters that he had a statement to read on Palestine.

Th United States, he said, had "vigorously supported the plan for partition with economic union" which the UN general assembly adopted last November. Now however "it has become clear that the partition plan cannot be carried out at this time by peaceful means." The President explained that United States could not send American troops to split the Holy Land either under the United Nations charter, or as a matter of national policy.

30.24- 16519

"It is ridiculous," it continued, "to expect that the Arabs would accept a trusteeship intended only to enable the Zionists to flood Palestine with terrorists and arms."

The initial Zionist reaction also was unfavorable to Mr. Truman's proposal. A Jewish spokesman in New York said that "partition is the irreducible minimum" which his people demand.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said that if actual war comes to Palestine it will be because the administration failed "to back up a just and practical solution of the problem."

Taft, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, added:

"The President says that if his new trusteeship plan is adopted, we must take 'our share of the necessary responsibility,' which must mean American troops as part of a United Nations force.

"Why isn't a United Nations force to support partition as practical as a United Nations force to prevent partition? I hope the President's appeal to the Arabs and Jews to arrange a truce will be followed by both."

Ferguson In Warning

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) commented in the Senate that "it would take more troops to impose a trusteeship opposed by both sides than to impose a partition opposed by only one side."

Senator Myers (D-Pa) wrote the of national policy.

The United Kingdom has announced its firm intention to abandon its mandate in Palestine on May 15. Unless emergency action is taken, there will be no public authority in Palestine on that date capable of preserving law and order. Violence and bloodshed will descend upon the Holy Land. Large-scale fighting among the people of that country will be the inevitable result. Such fighting would infect the entire Middle East and could lead to consequences of the gravest sort involving the peace of this nation and of the world.

These dangers are imminent. Responsible Governments in the United Nations cannot face this prospect without acting promptly to prevent it. The United States has proposed to the Security Council a temporary United Nations trusteeship for Palestine to provide a government to keep the peace. Such trusteeship was proposed only after we had exhausted every effort to find a way to carry out partition by peaceful means.

Trusteeship is not proposed as a substitute for the partition plan but as an effort to fill the vacuum soon to be created by the termination of the mandate on May 15. The trusteeship does not prejudice the character of the final political settlement. It would establish the conditions of order which are essential to a peaceful solution.

Truman's Palestine Views

WASHINGTON, March 25 (AP) —The text of President Truman's statement on Palestine today follows:

It is vital that the American people have a clear understanding of the position of the United States in the United Nations regarding Palestine.

This country vigorously supported the plan for partition with economic union recommended by the United Nations Special Committee on Palestine and by the General Assembly.

We have explored every possibility consistent with the basic principles of the Charter for giving effect to that solution. Unfortunately, it has become clear that the partition plan cannot be carried out at this time by peaceful means. We could not undertake to impose this solution on the people of Palestine by the use of American troops, both on Charter grounds and as a matter

If we are to avert tragedy in Palestine, an immediate truce must be reached between the Arabs and Jews of that country. I am instructing Ambassador Austin to urge upon the Security Council in the strongest terms that representatives of the Arabs and Jews be called at once to the council table to arrange such a truce.

The United States is prepared to lend every appropriate assistance to the United Nations in preventing bloodshed and in reaching a peaceful settlement. If the United Nations agrees to a temporary trusteeship, we must take our share of the necessary responsibility. Our regard for the United Nations, for the peace of the world and for our own self-interest does not permit us to do less.

With such a truce and such a trusteeship, a peaceful settlement it yet possible; without them, open warfare is just over the horizon. American policy in this emergency period is based squarely upon the recognition of this inescapable fact.

TRUMAN TO ASK 4 BILLIONS FOR PREPAREDNESS

Special Budget Message Expected To Reach Capitol Next Week

Washington, March 25 (AP)—President Truman will send to Congress a special budget message asking about $4,000,000,000 as a "Bedrock" total of new preparedness spending, high Government officials reported tonight.

That sum, a boil-down of defense proposals from the Army, Navy, Air Force and several other agencies, would be added to the $39,700,000,000 budget asked in January for the year starting July 1.

The revised request probably will go to Capitol Hill next week.

Separate From Tax Message

It will be separate from—and probably will follow—Mr. Truman's message carrying an expected veto of the $4,800,000,000 tax reduction bill, which reached his desk today.

Sending the tax message first has been urged on the President for two reasons, official sources said privately. They are:

1. The overwhelming vote for tax cutting indicates Congress members want to act on taxes promptly.

2. Mr. Truman can avoid the accusation of pushing forward the arms program as an excuse for not signing the tax bill.

A tax veto was taken as a foregone conclusion, based on the President's past statements. He declined, when asked today, to say what he will do.

Defense Spending Proposals

A flood of defense-spending proposals reached the White House from a dozen agencies immediately after Mr. Truman's stop-communism message last week, Government informants said.

Mr. Truman and his staff have been squeezing them down to what they feel is an amount which can be borne without harnessing the nation in a full array of war-style price, ration, priority and manpower controls.

The $4,000,000,000 figure—perhaps more, perhaps a little less—is their tentative finding, one authoritative source reported, "unless daily developments alter the situation."

Marshall Warns Russians

MAR 1948

Says Soviet Boycott of Allied Council Will Be Viewed as Seeking Split of Germany.

Washington, March 25 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Marshall served notice today that the United States will look on further Russian refusal to co-operate in the Allied Control Council for Germany as "aimed against the unification of Germany."

He did this with a news conference statement which also:

Threw the full weight of American prestige behind Gen. Lucius D. Clay's fight to keep Allied machinery in Germany running and behind Clay's determination to remain in Berlin.

Indorsed completely Clay's "stop Russia" political policy which denies the Russian-sponsored German Peoples Congress the right to operate in the American area of Germany.

Assails Peoples Congress.

Marshall said that the Communist-backed Peoples Congress "has no legitimate claim to represent the people as a whole and it is practicing a cruel deception on the German people in seeking to impose itself as a substitute for genuine unity."

Marshall is leaving for the Inter-American meeting at Bogota, Colombia, this week end. He made it clear that he will hold himself in readiness to fly back to Washington if the world situation makes it necessary.

The Secretary also disclosed officially that the whole question of American support for a western European union—already started by Britain, France and the Low Countries—is now under study.

Declines to Comment.

He declined to comment on whether France had been or would be brought into British-American military staff talks. He also refused to discuss the possibility of reinforcing American troops in the American zone of Germany.

On another aspect of the stop Russia program, Marshall said that reports from Finland "continue to confirm the desire of a majority of Finns to restrict the scope" of their proposed treaty with Russia.

Discussing Germany, Marshall said:

"Any further attempt to disrupt the funtioning of the Allied Control Authority as initially suggested by the conduct of the Soviet representatives on March 22 could only be construed as reflecting an intention which the United States does not share to renounce efforts to obtain four-Power agreement on policies for Germany, and would be regarded as unilateral action aimed against the unification of Germany.

Questioned About Berlin.

"In accordance with the international agreement binding all four control Powers, the United States intends to continue to fulfill its responsibilities as a member of the Control Council and as a joint occupant of the city of Berlin."

A reporter asked how much the presence of Americans in Berlin "depends on the sufferance of the Russians."

Marshall said the United States in fact holds in Berlin an island in the midst of Soviet occupation territory. He said there are very few American troops on hand. He did not answer the question

MARSHALL URGES RUSSIANS NOT TO BLOCK REICH UNITY

WASHINGTON, March 25—(AP) Secretary of State Marshall made plain today that the United States intends to stay in Berlin, despite a Soviet-led clamor for the western allies to get out.

Marshall also served notice that if Russia goes on refusing to cooperate in the four-power council set up to control Germany, the United States will interpret this as a stand against unification of Germany.

Denounces "People's Congress"

Russia's walkout from the control council on Saturday prompted Marshall's statement, which he read at a news conference. He reinforced it with another denouncing the Soviet-backed new "German People's Congress" as a cruel deception on the German people."

Gen. Lucius B. Clay has barred the German people's congress from the American zone which he administers as military governor.

Marshall said that American representatives after nearly three years are still trying to make the allied control council in Berlin an effective agency to run Germany as an economic and political unit.

"Their efforts have to a large extent been fustrated by the tactics of the Soviet representatives on the council," he said, adding:

"Any further attempt to disrupt the functioning of the allied control authority as initially suggested by the conduct of the Soviet representative on March 20 could only be construed as reflecting an intention, which the United States does not share, to renounce efforts to obtain four power agreement on policies for Germany, and would be regarded as unilateral action aimed against the unification of Germany.

"In accordance with the international agreement binding on all four control power the United States intends to continue to fulfill its responsibilities as a member of the control council and as a joint occupant of the city of Berlin."

On other aspects of the world situation, which he was termed "very, very critical," Marshall said:

1. Most people in Finland hope to restrict the scope of the Soviet-Finnish defense treaty which Moscow has demanded, particularly on military matters.

2. Over a substantial period, the United States has been discussing with France proposals to supply the French with arms. None are being supplied at present, however.

3. Marshall intends to leave this week end for the Inter-American conference at Bogota, Colombia. But he will be ready to fly back to Washington on short notice if any critical situation arises.

4. General Douglas MacArthur has been directed to go head with restoring Japanese loot to the Pacific allies. The 11-nation Far Eastern Commission has been wrangling over terms for eighteen months, with Russia pressing for undisclosed changes.

HARRIMAN WILL IMPOSE CURBS ON RED EXPORTS

Decision Is Made Public by Head of House Service Group.

MAYBANK ASKS PROSECUTION

Wants Clark to Act Against All Involved in the Sale of Plane Engines.

Washington, March 25 (A. P.).—Representative Shafer (R.-Mich.) announced today that Secretary of Commerce Harriman had told his House Armed Services Sub-committee at a closed-door hearing that his department is clamping down strict controls on the export of potential war materials to Russia.

Shafer said his committee is satisfied, but "our feeling is the controls should have been put to work earlier."

Harriman also reported that he feels all top Commerce Department employees who set export policies are "absolutely loyal," Shafer said.

Shafer added, that the Secretary said: "There are some employees down the line whose loyalty might be questioned, but the department knows who they are and is keeping a close eye on them."

Shafer said that the State Department feels it needs more statutory authority to control exports, and added:

"We are getting some strategic materials from Russia. All trade with Russia will not be suspended."

Maybank Calls on Clark.

Meanwhile Senator Maybank (D.-S. C.) called on Attorney-General Clark today to prosecute the persons who permitted shipment of airplane engines to Russia.

"To my utter amazement I have read of the shipments of aeroplane motors and other materials to Russia which may eventually be used against us," Maybank said in a letter to Clark. "I believe it is your duty as Attorney - General to start proceedings immediately against the firms mentioned and all responsible."

Maybank made the same assertion at a Senate Armed Services Committee hearing, as congressional indignation rose over shipping supplies to Russia and her satellite nations.

Still 'Friendly Nation.'

Other developments in the inquiry into such shipments included:

1. President Truman observed at a news conference that the U. S. S. R. at the present time is a friendly nation; that many of the shipments under fire were contracted for by the Soviets two years ago. He said the Department of Commerce was handling the situation and referred further questions to that department.

2. Senator Bridges (R.-N. H.) said that shipments of such goods to Russia at a time like this was "disgraceful and almost treasonable."

Reported Sale to FBI.

3. Richard F. Fincke, a former Government official, told a House sub-committee that the State Department "encouraged all relationships I had with Russia and with every other person behind the Iron Curtain." Fincke said that happened in May, 1947, after he had sold forty airplane engines to Russia some months earlier. He said he reported this to the FBI.

4. The United Aircraft Corporation denied that its Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Division is shipping airplane engines to the Soviet Union, or has shipped any engines or parts there since V-J Day. Testimony before a House Surplus Property Sub-committee had named Pratt & Whitney as an alleged shipper of such equipment to Russia. United Aircraft denied this in a letter to Chairman Rizley (R.-Okla.).

Inquiry Into Shipping Line.

5. The Department of Commerce reported that $421,000 worth of aircraft parts were shipped to Russia last year. Total United States exports to the Soviet in 1947 amounted to $149,504,000. This was a drop of $208,288,000 from the 1946 total of $357,792,000. UNNRA and lend-lease shipments made up 82 per cent of the 1946 total. The United States received $77,102,000 worth of goods from Russia in 1947.

6. Representative Rizley (R.-Okla.) called for an immediate check into reports that boxes and crates marked for shipment to Russia "are lying all over the New York water front."

7. Rizley also announced that a full-scale inquiry has been started into the operations of Moore-McCormack Lines of New York, described by a witness yesterday as the American firm handling all shipments for Amtorg, the official Russian purchasing agency in this country. Rizley said investigators are "already on the spot" to go over Moore-McCormack's records. He said they also will check reports that sixty Russian-flag ships have been loaded in New York harbor since January 1.

Engine-Exports Prosecution Requested

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Senator Maybank (D., S.C.) called on Attorney General Clark today to prosecute persons who permitted shipment of airplane engines to Russia.

"To my utter amazement, I have read of the shipments of airplane motors and other materials to Russia which may eventually be used against us," Maybank said in a letter to Clark. He added:

"I believe it is your duty as Attorney General to start proceedings immediately against the firms mentioned and all responsible."

Maybank made the same assertion at a Senate Armed Services Committee hearing as congressional indignation rose over shipping supplies to Russia and her satellite nations.

Status "Friendly," Truman Says

Other developments in the inquiry into such shipments included:

1. President Truman observed at a news conference that the U.S.S.R. at the present time is a friendly nation; that many of the shipments under fire were contracted for by the Soviets two years ago.

2. Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) said shipment of such goods to Russia at a time like this is "disgraceful and almost treasonable."

3. Representative Shafer (R., Mich.) said his House Armed Services subcommittee has been assured the Commerce Department is clamping down on exports of potential war materials to Russia. The State Department, he said, feels it needs more statutory authority to control imports. He said: "We are getting some strategic materials from Russia. All trade with Russia will not be suspended."

4. Richard F. Fincke, a former Government official, told a House subcommittee the State Department "encouraged all relationships I had with Russia and with every other person behind the iron curtain." Fincke said that happened in May, 1947, after he had sold 40 airplane engines to Russia some months earlier. He said he reported this to the FBI.

Testimony before a House Surplus Property subcommittee had named Pratt & Whitney as an alleged shipper of such equipment to Russia. United Aircraft denied this in a letter to Chairman Rizley (R., Okla.).

6. The Commerce Department reported $421,000 worth of aircraft parts were shipped to Russia last year. Total United States exports to the Soviet in 1947 amounted to $149,504,000. This was a drop of $208,288,000 from the 1946 total of $357,792,000. UNNRA and lend-lease shipments made up 82 per cent of the 1946 total. The United States received $77,102,000 worth of goods from Russia in 1947.

Up To Commerce Dept.

Mr. Truman told a news conference that the Commerce Department is handling Russian exports and referred further questions to that department.

After all, he said, Russia is at the present time a friendly nation.

He spoke after Congress had heard testimony yesterday American warplane engines and other supplies have been shipped to Russia at a time of critical world tension.

Bridges declared at the hearing that such shipment to Russia at a time like this are "disgraceful and almost treasonable."

Senator Russell (D., Ga.) asked what steps have been taken to halt disposal of surplus war materials.

Considered Flat Order

Forrestal said he had considered a flat order to halt all further sales, but decided against it because of the confusion it would create, he said.

Bridges then asked Forrestal whether he had been consulted about sale of war materials, surplus and others, to Russia and her satellites.

Forrestal said he had been consulted about the general policy, as well as the policy of stripping German industrial plants, which Bridges criticized.

Nonmilitary Considerations

"My own view was that the rate at which plants were stripped in Germany was economically unsound," Forrestal added. "But," he emphasized, "there were other considerations than the military ones."

Spurred by disclosures before his House investigating committee, Chairman Rizley (R., Okla.) said these moves are under way:

1. A demand on the Department of Commerce for a complete breakdown of all United States materials sent to Russia and her satellite nations.

2. An immediate check into reports that boxes and crates marked for shipment to Russia "are lying all over the New York water front."

3. A full-scale inquiry into the operations of Moore-McCormack Steamship Lines of New York, described by a witness yesterday as the American firm handling all shipments for Amtorg, the official Russian purchasing agency in this country.

Checking Shipline Records

Rizley said committee investigators are "already on the spot" to go over Moore-McCormack's records. He said they also will check reports that 60 Russian-flag ships have been loaded in New York harbor since January 1.

MOVE TO HALT EXPORTS ASKED

MAR 1948

Prosecution Of Those Dealing With Soviet Proposed

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Senator Maybank (D., S.C.) today proposed prosecution of United States firms and individuals involved in shipping war materiel to Russia.

President Truman commented meanwhile that Russia is a friendly country.

Mr. Truman told a news conference that most of the shipments now causing angry voices in Congress were ordered as far back as two years ago.

He added that the Commerce Department is working on the matter. Representative Shafer (R.,

MAR 1948 30.24- 16521

Mich.) said that W. Averell Harriman, Secretary of Commerce, assured a House armed forces subcommittee today that the department is clamping down on shipments.

Letter Sent To Clark

Maybank raised his cry for prosecution both in a letter to Attorney General Clark and before a Senate Armed Forces Committee. He wrote:

"To my utter amazement I have read of the shipments of aeroplane motors and other materials to Russia which may eventually be used against us.

"I believe it is your duty as Attorney General to start proceedings immediately against the firms mentioned and all responsible."

Maybank said later he wanted the Attorney General to decide exactly what law provided the best way to prosecute.

"If he does not have a law to act upon, then we'll pass one for him," he added.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) said shipment of goods to Russia that would be useful in war at a time like this is "disgraceful and almost treasonable."

Richard F. Fincke, a former Government official who sold warplane engines to Russia and Poland, told of his operations to a House surplus property subcommittee.

Relationships "Encouraged"

He said the State Department "encouraged all relationships I had with Russia and with every other person behind the iron curtain."

Fincke was chief of the market analysis section of the War Assets Administration until he resigned in October of 1946 to form the Alpine Corporation.

He testified he sold 40 transport plane engines to the Amtorg Corporation (an official Soviet agency) for about $6,000 each and a year's supply of spare parts for $90,000.

"I also sold engines and parts to Poland, Czechoslovakia, Spain, Britain, France and the Netherlands," he added.

Some months after the Russian deal, Fincke said, he reported it to State Department officials.

"They had no objection to the shipment of this type of equipment to anyone," he said. He added that he also reported it to the FBI at the same time.

Engine Shipments Denied

The United Aircraft Corporation meanwhile denied that its Pratt and Whitney Aircraft Division is shipping engines to Russia.

In a letter to Chairman Rizley (R., Okla.) of the Surplus Property subcommittee, the corporation said Pratt and Whitney "has not sold nor shipped any engine or engine spare parts to the Soviet Union since V-J Day." The subcommittee had heard Pratt and Whitney named as a shipper to Russia.

Western Electric Company similarly denied that crates of its products are among piles of United States materials lying "all over the New York waterfront" awaiting shipment to Russia.

In both instances, the denied testimony came from Clarence Carruthers, president of a Wall Street aeronautical supplies firm.

Members of Rizley's subcommittee were also startled by disclosure that the Air Force is leasing $233,000 transport planes to commercial airlines for $10 a day.

58 Planes Leased

Brig. Gen. Alfred A. Kessler, Jr., director of Air Force Headquarters Procurement Division, testified that 58 C-46 planes had been so leased.

Kessler said ten of the C-46's were leased to Slick Airways, Inc., a commercial air cargo firm, for $300 a month. He said they are insured for $20,000 in case of accident.

Representative Shafer, who reported on Secretary Harriman's assurances, said the subcommittee is satisfied that adequate export controls are now in effect. He added:

"Our feeling is that the controls should have been put to work earlier. After all, quite a bit of stuff has gone to Russia, even since Stalin announced that Russia is building up a military economy."

Only Parts Shipped

Commerce Department figures showed that $421,000 worth of aircraft parts were shipped to Russia last year, but no complete planes.

Total United States exports to Russia in 1947 were valued at $149,504,000; Russian exports to the United States at $77,102,000.

Shafer said: "We are getting some strategic materials from Russia and will continue to do so. All trade with Russia will not be suspended."

UMT NEED STRESSED

Forrestal Declares Flatly Reds Haven't the A-Bomb 'as Yet.'

WASHINGTON, March 25—(AP) President Truman will send to congress a special budget message asking about $4,000,000,000 as a "bedrock" total of new preparedness spending, high government officials reported tonight.

That sum, a boil-down of defense proposals from the army, navy, air forces and several other agencies, would be added to the $39,700,000,000 budget asked in January for the year starting July 1.

Military Heads Ask Draft Of 19 to 26-Year-Olds

WASHINGTON, March 25—(AP) The U. S. high command called today for a draft of 19 to 26-year-olds in a $3,448,000,000 expansion of our fighting forces so that they can hit hard if war comes.

They named Russia as a possible enemy. Secretary of Defense Forrestal said peace prospects are good. But "as a strictly military matter," he declared, We cannot permit the still-free nations of Europe to fall under Soviet domination.

Says Red Subs Sighted

Secretary of the Navy Sullivan said that "recently submarines not belonging to any nation west of the 'iron curtain' have been sighted off our shores."

Russia is the only such country with an ocean-going fleet.

A high-ranking navy official said later that there were three instances in which foreign submarines were reported cited and these were all in the Pacific.

One was seen at night by a merchant vessel within 200 miles of San Francisco, he said, adding that the identification of the object as a submarine was not positive.

Another was seen by an American plane off the Aleutians ten days ago, the navy man said, and the third by a merchant ship in the Johnston Palmyra group about 800 miles from Hawaii.

Other naval sources said there was no reason why submarines of a "friendly" power should not cruise the high seas so long as they did not come within the American three-mile limit.

Forrestal and Sullivan appeared with other military chiefs before the senate armed services committee.

Bread Registration Planned

Senator Gurney (R-SD), chairman of the committee, said proposed draft legislation called for eventual registration of men up to 45 although only younger men are being considered for actual draft calls.

He said there might be separate registrations of men 19 through 25, then men up to 31, next those up to 38, and finally men up to 45.

Forrestal and the other defense chiefs asked a 349,000 increase in our regular armed forces—plus another 181,000 to run a universal military training program if congress approves UMT.

Expanding the armed forces, they said, will cost $3,000,000,000 with an additional $448,000,000 for UMT.

Sullivan, in giving the submarine report, said the Russians have obtained 10 new German subs, four of them of the latest wartime design.

"I am not prepared to evaluate the significance of these sightings," the Navy Secretary said. "However, we all recall that an early step of the Germans in 1917 and 1941 was to deploy submarines off our coasts."

Tentative Draft Lineup

Sullivan appeared after Forrestal and Secretary of the Army Royall laid these specific recommendations before the Senators:

1—Selective Service making some 3,600,000 non-veterans subject to call. All but 1,355,000 in this 19-through 25 age group, however, would be deferred because of dependents or for other reasons. And only 220,000 might actually be drafted, if enlistments reach an expected 500,000.

2—Universal military training for about 850,000 youths 18 and 19 years old each year.

3—A 349,500 increase in the regular armed forces. The Army's strength would be boosted from 542,000 to 782,000, the Navy from 397,000 to 460,000, the Marines from 81,000 to 92,000 and the Air Force from 364,500 to 400,000.

This would raise our total number of men in uniform to 1,734,000. Russia's armed forces are estimated at 4,000,000 men.

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Senate committee said the proposed draft probably would not take men with wives or other dependents.

Veterans of the last war probably would be exempt, he said, with these exceptions: Men with less than one year's service, none of it spent overseas; and men with less than 90 days' service, even if part of it spent overseas.

Says Reds Haven't A-Bomb

Forrestal said flatly that the Russians do not "as yet" have the atom bomb.

And Air Secretary Symington said American flyers, with an improved version of the B-29 bomber, now could take off from Alaska, bomb any part of Russia and return to an American base.

Sullivan told the Senators he would inform them in private "when, where and by whom" the foreign submarines were sighted.

He said to a reporter later:

"I know everybody would like to know that but we are not going to say. It would be very important for the 'other fellow' to know which of his subs have been sighted and which have not been."

Reds Have 250 Subs

Sullivan testified that the Russians now have more than 250 operating submarines. In addition, he said, they control four large German shipbuilding yards which produced subs during the war, together with engineers, blueprints and parts for vastly improved German U-boats.

With less than 50 submarines, the secretary said, the German at the beginning of World War II "very nearly won the battle of the Atlantic."

The goals outlined today are immediate, bare minimum ones, the service chiefs said. They include $775,000,000 for building up the nation's air fleet. And indications were that more requests are coming—for overseas bases, for instance.

Royall put the present situation this way:

"We must have an army of such size that, if war should come, we can adequately defend our nation against a surprise attack and can take the first important initial steps in an offensive that would keep the battleground away from our shores."

To that end, the army secretary said, we need overseas bases—presumably in Europe—near enough to enemy targets to carry out a sustained bombing offensive and far enough from our shores to keep the conflict from our own backyard.

And we must also keep such sites out of potentially enemy hands, Royall declared.

Outside the hearing, Senator Wherry (R-Neb) introduced a bill which would turn control of atomic energy from a civilian commission back to the army, in view of the uneasy world situation.

Royall opposed this. He said the Atomic Energy Commission and the military "are working splendidly

The Text of Forrestal's Plea for the Draft and UMT as Vital Moves for Averting War

WASHINGTON, March 25 (AP)—Following is the text of the statement by Secretary of Defense Forrestal to the Senate Armed Services Committee today on universal military training and the draft:

I appear today before your committee, with the three secretaries and their chiefs of staff, to lay before you the program that the Administration believes is necessary at this time to assure the national security.

As Secretary of Defense, I shall first outline the over-all program, both in terms of manpower and of cost. I shall then ask that you permit, in the order named, the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Navy and the Secretary of the Air Force to explain the parts which their respective services play in this program. Each secretary will be directly followed by his chief of staff (General Bradley, Admiral Denfeld and General Spaatz), who will explain the figures for his service from charts and answer specific inquiries.

General Collins will present and explain charts illustrating the practical effect of the proposed program for universal military training on the reserves of the three services; and General Dahlquist will be present to answer questions relative to selective service.

I know that your committee desires the clearest and most intelligible presentation we can make. It will assist us to help the committee if, so far as possible, questions may be deferred until each Chief of Staff is explaining the detailed figures from the charts relative to his service. I feel sure that many questions will be resolved by the detailed expositions of General Bradley, Admiral Denfeld and General Spaatz.

I ask this indulgence because we wish to do the best job possible for your committee. We wish to give the fullest information in the frankest manner.

Some Secrecy Held Necessary

Because of the world situation as it exists today, there is certain detailed information which we cannot safely disclose in open session. Yet for intelligent action on our proposal you must have this information before you.

Therefore, I shall ask you to allow General Bradley later to give you, in executive session, specific data as to the strengths and deployments of the armed forces of other countries. The American people are entitled to know the facts; but neither they, nor you, would willingly assume the responsibility for any disclosure here which, however informative, might adversely affect the trend in Western Europe or prejudice the safety of our fighting men or the safety of those who procured the data for us.

I abhor war, as do all Americans. Because of that abhorrence, I propose today a specific program which is solely designed to achieve one great objective—to avert war, whether it be open or covert, in these times and in the times which lie ahead for us and the free peoples of the world.

Our nation is deeply committed to the cause of peace. It is equally commited to the cause of freedom. It has always used its influence to maintain peace, but it has also by its actions made it clear that it would not permit the destruction of freedom. Twice in one lifetime we have had to enter the field of battle to prevent a conqueror from realizing his ambition of total world power.

Despotic Power's Course Sketched

The situation in the world today finds deadly analogies in the past. At the root of each analogy lies despotic power, uncurbed by firm opposition until too late to prevent the tragedy of war.

In 1914, it was a despot's contempt for a "scrap of paper" and the German rush through Belgium that served as prelude to four years of war in Europe.

Twenty-five years later another tyrant was on the move. First, Hitler preyed upon the weak: the Austrian Anschluss in the winter of 1938; the rape of the Sudetenland in the following August; then the swallowing up of all of Czechoslovakia. Finding himself unchecked, except by the efforts of appeasement at Munich, Hitler grew convinced that the western democracies were without courage and without the will to remain free. On Aug. 22, 1939, he told his commanders in chief: "We have nothing to lose; we can only gain—our enemies have men who are below average—no personalities, no men of action—our enemies are little worms—I saw them in Munich." Nine days later the Nazis marched in open war against Poland.

There is a "deadly parallel" between those events and the successive toppling of national governments in Europe during the last three years—first Poland, then Rumania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia and now the démarche toward Finland. Within less than a month Italy will have to make its choice—a choice in which the people of that country, with whom so many of our own citizes have ties of blood, will be harassed and threatened, cajoled and coerced, in an attempt to make them accept a system for which they have no stomach.

This record shows that despotism, whatever its form, has a remorseless compulsion to aggression. The shape of such aggression and the causes which lead to it may vary. The Kaiser embarked on overt war because he was confident thereby to achieve victory. Mussolini first marched on Rome to "free" Italy in the role of a leader of the masses. Hitler entered the Sudetenland ostensibly to lift the yoke of oppression from "free Germans." Today, another power, wearing the false mask of freedom for the people, seeks to spin its web over all Western Europe.

U. S. Must Halt Aggression

The whole aim and effort of the United States is to attain the objective of peace, to prevent differences between nations developing into armed conflict until the United Nations has gained the maturity and both the moral and physical force with which to deal with any international act of aggression. In the meantime, it must be made clear and manifest to the world that any nation which tries to copy the pattern of action which, through Hitler, brought so much disaster on mankind, must, like Hitler and Germany, face the determination and will of the United States that it shall not happen again.

The program which we advance today is not in contradiction of the United Nations, of which we are a member. To the contrary, the strength which we advocate for the United States is a minimum necessity if we are to discharge our responsibility in the family of peoples who desire peace. We wish to make it inescapably clear that the will and determination of the United States are backed by alert and ready power.

Because of its traditions and the nature of its government, it is always difficult for a true democracy to make clear to a dictator that at some point in his aggression he must face the firm resistance of free nations. Four times the democratic nations waited too long to preserve the peace. Had the Kaiser known that Britain would take the invasion of Belgium as a cause of war between herself and Germany; had the arrogance of Mussolini in invading Ethiopia been met with other than ineffective sanctions; had the Japanese entry into Manchuria been countered in 1931 with strong determination by the United States and Great Britain; had Hitler's first tentative steps in the Saar and in the Ruhr been firmly opposed—can there be doubt of the effect upon the rising tempo of their boldness?

But in no case was the aggressor met with unequivocal, clear determination. The success of each aggressive step, uncurbed, encouraged the aggressor to wider and bolder methods until finally the unprepared democracies faced the overt onrush of tyrannical power at a time not of their choosing and most disadvantageous to them.

Europe's Freedom Seen Menaced

Today another great and despotic power threatens to extinguish freedom in Europe. You are only too well aware of its subtle agencies for political action in free countries, of its methods of subversion and infiltration (backed by armed strength in instant and obvious readiness) which subjugated Hungary and Czechoslovakia and which are now reaching long fingers into Finland and causing grave concern among the Scandinavian peoples.

But, despite this, the odds are not yet on Russia or war. The odds are still on the United States and peace. And if the United States acts at once and with firm and resolute purpose, the odds will continue to rest on the United States and peace through the years ahead.

On the one side of the ledger, you have the great land mass of the Soviet and her puppet states. The U.S.S.R. alone covers approximately one-sixth of the earth's land surface. Since 1939 the Soviets have acquired along their western border a solid belt of territory and satellite states, extending from Finland to the Black Sea and comprising approximately 500,000 square miles.

On the same side of the ledger is Russia's large population and her military forces under arms today—the largest numerically in the world. You will hear from General Bradley the detail of the military, air, and naval strength of the Soviets and her satellites.

But on the other side of the ledger are assets and potentialities, which if promptly developed into readiness, will turn the scale from a possibility of future war to a rational expectation of future peace. Let me speak of these assets in detail.

(1) The heart of Europe is not dying or dead. There are 250 million people in her free countries, and in those people persists a deep belief in free government and free institutions as a strong and vigorous spiritual force. today, these millions live under a gnawing fear. Our financial aid, however rapidly supplied through ERP, will not be enough alone to encourage them to work toward rehabilitation and resist subversion.

For an effective recovery of their independence, they need one thing more. They must have assurance of America's resolute will to utilize her enormous energy and resources, her incomparable skills, and her unconquerable manpower in order to preserve the peace.

The disease of despair is contagious, but there is a greater contagion in hope. There are millions of men in these countries—just as there are also in those countries now subjugated to Communism—who believe as we believe, feel as we feel, would align themselves with us in preference to another—provided that they were free to make a real choice. They look in our direction. They are potential allies, not by virtue of any pressure imposed upon them but by reason of identity of thought and spirit. As a strictly military matter, we cannot afford to sit by while these countries fall, one by one, into the Soviet orbit, until we are left virtually alone and isolated in a Communist world.

(2) Two wars have established beyond a doubt that, wholly apart from the capability in battle of our fighting men, the industrial and scientific accomplishment of the United States is preeminent.

At the peak year of wartime appropriations (1944), the gross national product of the United States exceeded 210 billion dollars; in the year 1949, it is anticipated to exceed 243 billion. Our resources, such as coal, steel, wheat, cotton, and so on; our ability to produce and fabricate in mass quantities, because of the capacity of our managements and the high skills of America's laboring men and women; the inventive genius of our scientists, strikingly shown in our developments in the fields of syntheses; our vast transportation system—all of these, taken together, make up a potential that overshadows the capacities of the Communist regime.

The Soviets suffered in World War II a terrible destruction of facilities of every kind. To supply these deficiencies, they have pillaged the industrial resources of the lands where their armies have penetrated; they have acquired the Skoda Works and the modern industrial ability of Czechoslovakia; they look to the industrial area of North Italy where elections will be held in April. But these prizes are not enough—beyond the horizon lies the coal of the Ruhr and the iron of Sweden.

(3) The United States possesses the knowledge and the capacity to make the atom bomb, and as yet the Soviets do not. The mere possession of this undoubted asset would not necessarily turn the scale of war, if war should come. But its possession has undoubted power to dissuade from aggression any nation that believes we have sufficient military strength to put that weapon to effective use.

I do not recite the comparison of these assets to lull America into confidence, but to wake America to the urgent necessity of realizing upon the potentialities which are hers before it may be too late to be effective. Our greatest danger today is that we shall dissipate our enormous potential through inaction and negligence. The shape of future war to come would be swift beyond all experience. In other wars, there was time to make ready. Today, the "make-ready" time exists only before the aggressor acts.

Therefore, now is the time to marshal our strength and our resources. Now is the time to let the world know that our fields will not lie fallow, but that we shall keep them planted for a quick harvest of strength and will, not next year or next month, after the rich prices of north Italy and the Ruhr and Sweden and France may have fallen into an aggressor's grasp, but now.

Consider what we shall put in jeopardy through a continuing failure to place ourselves in ready strength. We made a tremendous effort and great sacrifices to win the war in which the fighting stopped two and a half years ago. We must not run the risk of losing that great investment in liberty by failure to prepare now to resist another effort at universal conquest—because that is what the fall of freedom in Europe will mean.

It is my belief that if we make it plain and clear that the United States will not tolerate the destruction of the western civilization of Europe we shall have peace, not a peace, I believe, through long and exhausting war that will waste our manpower and our resources, but peace because, for once in world history, an aggressor will be forewarned of our determination backed up by our strength.

'No Counsel of Despair'

It is equally clear to me that if we do not so act, we shall risk a war under circumstances which may be disastrous for us and for our friends throughout the world.

But this is no counsel of despair. There are not circumstances here which call for fear or hysteria. There is no slightest intent to shake the mailed fist or militarize our people or provoke a conflict. I merely say to you gentlemen that if the United States is now as alert and astute and intelligent in action as she is well-intentioned, the odds for enduring peace will continue to rest with us.

An inducing cause of World War II was the misapprehension of Hitler as to the real intentions and the will to fight of the free, democratic nations. He was confident, from what he had been told, that the United States was weak and would remain weak. Despotic power feeds readily upon what it wishes to hear. Similarly, it seems clear that the Soviet Union today misapprehends what I believe to be the determination of the United States.

We wish today to make that determination clear. The government of a free people has the responsibility to make known its intentions. Tonight the people of America—in fact of the whole world—will know in full from their newspapers and radios the security measures which I am proposing to you. Their right to such knowledge is the bedrock of liberty.

But no one in this world, outside a small group in the Kremlin, can say what is the real intention of the Soviet rulers. We in America are sure only of the facts which cannot be overlooked; the threat of communism in Western Europe and the inherent capabilities of Communist force to increase that threat.

Program for National Safety

Therefore, as Secretary of Defense, I come before you today to propose a program better to assure the national safety and to encourage the free countries of the world to remain free.

When I was here before you last week, I spoke of all the factors of our comprehensive program of national security. These factors—in addition to the matters to which I will directly advert today—include a central intelligence agency; intensive research and development in scientific and technological weapons and procedures under the Research and Development Board, of which Dr. Vannevar Bush is chairman, and industrial mobilization under the Munitions Board, of which Mr. Thomas Hargrave is chairman.

The three last-mentioned elements are now established and functioning or beginning to function. Let me repeat that all of the factors are essential and none can succeed fully without the others.

Today I wish to speak primarily of a balanced strength in manpower—on the ground, on the sea, in the air—and how we believe that strength should be attained. This balanced strength is a resolution of the needs of the Air Force, the Army and the Navy.

We need a strong air force, capable of striking sustained blows far beyond the peripheral bases which we now hold; an air force capable of seeking out and destroying an enemy that might impose war. Such an air force requires more aircraft and more manpower than we have today in readiness to meet the lightning war of tomorrow.

All Around Air Strength Needed

We need a ground force to protect our air bases from hostile attack, which it takes much more than airplanes to resist. We need a ground force to seize and hold more distant bases—should the attack fall upon us—in order to take the war to the enemy and not suffer its ravages here in America.

Such bases, as well as our great cities here at home and our key production centers, require anti-aircraft protection, which is provided by the Army. And a strengthened Air Force will require enlargement of those army elements which service and support its operations.

We need a Navy capable of defending the necessary sea lanes of the world from submarine attack, of developing anti-submarine warfare, of insuring the sea transportation of our manpower and our logistical supplies and equipment to distant points, and of assisting both attack and defense through air-sea power and amphibious operations.

To meet these needs, we require more manpower than we have today. The comfortable assurance of a pushbutton war is an illusion. The enormous complication of the machinery of total warfare of today rests upon manpower—not in the mass, but diffused through thousands of specialties.

Our program for a balanced strength in manpower falls into two parts—

A. The short-term, which looks to the immediate strengthening of our regular forces.

B. The long-term, which looks to the provision of adequate reserves.

There is no inconsistency or overlapping between the two parts of the program. To the contrary, the two parts supplement each other to make an integrated whole.

The short-term program meets the immediate need of building up our regular forces to a somewhat increased strength, about one-sixth of what we had in service in World War II and several million less than the Communist powers now have under arms. When these immediate needs have been met, and the long-term program is adequately functioning, we should be able in a more peaceful world to curtail or eliminate the short-term program.

The long-term program is designed to provide adequate reserves which will have had a minimum of basic training. Reserve forces in readiness are a necessary component of our military strength. In this component (which includes the National Guard and the Reserve Corps) we are now seriously deficient. The reserve component in time of war will take its place alongside the regular forces in our defensive and offensive effort.

The short-term program can be accomplished only through a selective service law; the long-term program can be accomplished, without inordinate cost, only through universal military training.

For the short-term part of the program, we need at once to increase the present actual strength of the regular establishment by 349,500 officers and men, as follows—

a. The Army, by 240,000, from 542,000 to 782,000.

b. The Navy, by 63,000, from 397,000 to 460,000.

c. The Marine Corps, by 11,000, from 81,000 to 92,000.

d. The Air Force, by 35,500, from 364,500 to 400,000.

This part of the program involves a supplemental budget request of three billion dollars in cash and contract authorizations over and above the authorizations which have already been requested. The detail of this supplemental budget request will soon be submitted to Congress in the usual manner. The principal items of this supplemental budget request are: $775,000,000 for aircraft procurement, research and development for the Air Force and naval aviation; about $760,000,000 for military personnel costs; and the balance for other necessary items of procurement, support, maintenance and operations of the three services.

If the selective service were to be made applicable to the male age group from 19 to 25 years of age inclusive, I am advised that there would be in this group a total of 3,600,000 male non-veterans. After making allowance for those unfit for military service and for those entitled to exemption and deferment, there would remain about 1,355,000. From this age group will come the bulk of the estimated 500,000 voluntary enlistments during the fiscal year 1949, as well as all of the 220,000 men who it is estimated must be provided by selective service.

UMT Calls for 850,000 a Year

For the long-term part of the program we shall need the inauguration of universal military training, established under a civilian commission and subject to periodic review by the Congress. When universal military training is in full operation (about three years after its inception), it will provide annually for the civilian components of the regular forces some 850,000 men a year who will have had basic training.

The budget for the fiscal year 1949, already submitted to you, makes provision for an appropriation of $500,000,000, and an expenditure of $400,000,000, for the initial steps which universal military training will require.

It is America's desire to retain her free enterprise, her free economy, her high standard of living and her full employment. At the same time, it is her desire to live at peace in a world of free nations. The program which is here proposed can be accommodated, it is believed, within the present national income.

At the peak year of wartime appropriations, the money appropriated for military functions totalled $87,750,000,000, or 41.67 per cent of the estimated gross national product for that year.

The budget already submitted to the Congress for the next fiscal year for military functions comes to 4.08 per cent of the estimated gross national product for that year. The supplemental budget request for $3,000,000,000 to which I have referred will increase that percentage from 4.08 per cent to 5.32 per cent.

With your permission, I will now ask the Secretary of the Army to state the part of the Army in this over-all program, and he will be followed by General Bradley.

HOUSE DEBATE ON FOREIGN AID WAXES BITTER

Cox and Marcantonio Trade Verbal Blows in Sharp Exchange on Floor.

SCENE CALLED NAUSEATING

Georgian Assails Those Who Would Lower U. S. Flag for Hammer and Sickle.

Washington, March 25 (A. P.).—Representative Cox (D.-Ga.) spoke out in the House today against those he said would lower the American flag and "run up in its stead the flag of the hammer and sickle." He took the floor during debate on the $6,205,000,000 foreign aid bill shortly after Representative Marcantonio (A. L.-N. Y.) had made a blistering attack on the measure.

His face scarlet, Marcantonio leaped to his feet. He wanted Cox's words erased from the record.

Speaker Martin ruled that "in debate of this kind there must be some latitude," that nothing Cox said reflected on "any particular member."

Representative Cooley (D.-N. C.) followed up with this:

"This (foreign aid) bill has been called about everything Joe Stalin and Henry Wallace could think of. Oh, what nauseating scenes we tolerate here in this House!"

Marcantonio had blazed away at the bill on grounds that "we march with seven league boots toward war" to protect big business and big investors. "It's a program in defense of Wall Street," he said, ". . . and I say to you Wall Street is not America."

Cox got one minute to reply. In measured tones, he said:

"How long, I wonder, must members of this body sit here and hear assaulted from day to day, the Government we love, and by people who would rip from the wall that symbol of liberty that hangs above the Speaker's rostrum, and who would run down the flag of the stars and stripes that proudly floats above the Capitol and run up in its stead the flag of the hammer and sickle."

Supplies to Russia.

Before that outburst there had been complaints that it is "inconsistent and absurd" to permit shipment of strategic supplies to Russia."

Representatives Keefe (R.-Wis.)

and Hoffman (R.-Mich.) thundered in turn that it was utterly silly to spend American billions combating Communism while vital materials were allowed to flow to Russia.

The arguments pointed up signs of a scrap next week over putting into the foreign aid measure tight restrictions on shipments to the Soviet Union. The bill goes into the amendment stage on Monday.

Across the Capitol, the Senate Appropriations Committee approved in additional $55,000,000 emergency aid for France, Italy and Austria. The measure may be sent to the Senate for action later today.

The House has already approved the appropriation, which was urgently requested by the administration to keep supplies moving to Europe pending the setting up of the European recovery program.

Representative Twyman (R.-Ill.) told the House he had to stop at three filling stations yesterday to buy gas for his car. He wanted to know what was going to happen after the foreign aid program went through.

"How are the people going to like a return to rationing?" he asked. "What's going to happen?"

Hoffman told Twyman: "We're giving other countries democracy and we're getting regimentation and dictatorship."

When the time comes for amendments, some members want to lay down the law to Western Europe on which goods it must not ship to Russia.

REP. MARCANTONIO IS HOTLY REBUKED

WASHINGTON, March 25—(AP) House advocates of the $6,205,000,000 foreign aid proposal hotly rebuked Rep. Marcantonio (AL-NY) today when he criticized the legislation as "a program in defense of Wall Street."

Rep. Cox (D-Ga) was the first to gain the floor after Marcantonio's attack. In deliberate tones, the Georgian said:

"How long, I wonder, must members of this body sit here and hear assaulted from day to day, the government we love, and by people who would rip from the wall that symbol of liberty that hangs above the speaker's rostrum, and who would run down the flag of the Stars and Stripes that proudly floats above the capitol and run up in its stead the flag of the hammer and sickle."

Protest Overruled

Marcantonio, one of the two American Labor Party members in the House, jumped up, red-faced, and demanded that Cox's words be expunged from the record.

But Speaker Martin (R.-Mass.) ruled that Cox had said nothing reflecting on "any individual member," and observed that "in debate of this kind there must be some latitude."

Rep. Cooley (D.-N. C.) took up where Cox left off. He said that "Stalin's great voice has echoed here in this house" and added: "Oh, what nauseating scenes we tolerate."

Rep. Chelf (D.-Ky.) shouted:

"I think the gentleman from New York and his compatriots should be sent to Moscow—to see what is going on there."

And Rep. Monroney (D.-Okla.) remarked that Marcantonio's words "have a strange and familiar ring." The Oklahoman said that before the last war Marcantonio labelled as "agents of Wall Street" those who opposed Hitler and Mussolini.

The outburst was brought on by Marcantonio's assertion that "we march with seven-league boots toward war" in defense of Wall Street interests.

"And I say to you Wall Street is not America," he added.

While this sharp debate was proceeding in the house, the Senate Appropriations Committee was approving an additional $55,000,000 emergency aid for France, Italy and Austria, supplementing relief funds voted last winter.

The house already has approved the additional appropriation.

The house completed its three days of general debate on the foreign aid legislation at 5:45 p. m., today. It will begin voting on amendments on Monday.

Bill To Return Atomic Control To Army Offered By Wherry

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Senator Wherry (R., Neb.) introduced today a bill to return control of atomic energy to the Army. The bill would abolish the Civilian Atomic Energy Commission. The Secretary of the Army, instead, would hold overall authority to direct atomic energy matters.

The President would be directed to make the shift 30 days after passage of the legislation.

Royall Against Move

Wherry submitted the proposal about the same time Secretary of the Army Royall was telling the Senate Armed Services Committee he was not in favor of a change.

"I am averse to changing organizations that are working well," Royal said. "The Atomic Energy Commission and the representatives of the military are working splendidly together. . . . We need not suggest a change."

Secretary of Defense Forrestal, who appeared before the committee with Royall, said flatly that Russia does not yet know how to produce atomic bombs.

"Power To Dissuade"

He made the statement in listing America's assets. He said:

"The United States possesses the knowledge and the capacity to make the atom bomb, and as yet the Soviets do not.

"The mere possession of this undoubted asset would not necessarily turn the scale of war, if war should come. But its possession has undoubted power to dissuade from aggression any nation that believes we have sufficient military strength to put that weapon to effective use."

Then, departing from his prepared text, Forrestal said:

"It is a fact known to all that we have tried to propose an international agreement to deny ourselves the use of this weapon."

Lack Of Co-Operation Noted

He said these attempts have failed because Russia has refused to co-operate.

The two military chiefs went before the Senate group to urge immediate expansion of the armed forces. Royall gave his view on atomic control in reply to a question from Senator Bridges (R., N.H.).

Bridges wanted to know whether the control should be shifted back to the military and, if not, whether the military should be given a greater voice in the commission.

NEW B-29 CAN BOMB ANY AREA IN SOVIET

Washington, March 25 (A. P.).—The Air Force advised Congress today that its long-range heavy bombers can take off from Alaska, "bomb any part of Russia and return to American bases."

Secretary of Air Symington, testifying before the Senate Armed Services Committee, discussed long-range bombing power.

He spoke of Russia by way of example after saying that present air strength of fifty-five combat groups is in "fairly good shape but at peacetime strength, feeble in contrast to our world war II strength of 243 fully manned groups, but none the less a nucleus for an air force in being."

He said an improved version of the B-29 heavy bomber now has a "radius action of over 2,000 miles." He added that combining this plane with the "most modern development of refueling technic which we developed some years ago" would allow limited operations to bomb any part of Russia.

BILL EXTENDING RENT CURBS SENT TO WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, March 25—(AP) Congress passed today a compromise bill extending rent controls one year and giving a federal court final say on lifting the ceilings.

A voice vote in the senate sent the bill to the White House. Earlier in the day the house adopted, 220 to 85, the compromise measure which had been worked out by a committee of senators and house members.

The present rent control law expires a week from today. Its lapse would affect some 50,000,000 Americans who live in 13,000,000 dwelling places now under federal control.

Concessions Made

Both house and senate had to give and take in accepting the final version of the legislation.

The house wanted rent boards, appointed by state governors, to have complete authority to sanction rent increases or remove ceilings altogether.

The senate insisted that the housing expediter in Washington continue to exercise veto power over local boards' recommendations.

Under the compromise, an emergency federal court would make the final decision. But the court would be obligated to uphold a local board's recommendations if they were based on "adequate and substantial evidence."

The court would review all cases where the housing expediter and a local board disagreed.

Chief Features of Bill

Here are other principal features of the compromise bill:

Rent increases of up to 15 per cent would be sanctioned when a landlord and tenant could agree on a lease running through 1949. However, tenants who signed up last year for one such "voluntary" increase could not be charged another. Their present rent rates would be frozen through the life of the law—until March 31, 1949.

All hotel accommodations would be decontrolled. So would non-housekeeping rooms in private homes if there were no more than two paying guests in the house.

Controls would be lifted from housing accommodations covered by leases which were terminated between January 1, 1948 and the effective date of the new act.

Tenants could be evicted on 60-day notice in cases where the landlord wanted the quarters for the personal use of a member of his family, or planned substantial alterations or demolition of the accommodations, or decided to withdraw the quarters from the rental market.

Sixty-day eviction notices would be required except for non-payment of rent or where the tenant has become a nuisance. Local laws would govern eviction in such instances.

The bill would remove an existing requirement that special permits be obtained for the construction of amusement and recreational facilities, such as race tracks and night clubs.

Payments To Italy PW's To Exceed $10,000,000

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Government officials said today American payments to Italian prisoners of war for work in the United States will amount to more than $10,000,000.

These officials said a $4,500,000 outlay authorized in Rome yesterday by the American Embassy takes care of payments to Italian war prisoners who already have put in claims with the Italian Government.

More Italian war prisoners, holding certificates issued them by the United States, are expected to apply for payment in the next few months. The exact amount outstanding, they said, is not known.

U.S. Directs MacArthur To Restore Property

Washington, March 25 (AP)—The United States has directed Gen. Douglas MacArthur to go ahead with restoring Japanese - looted property to the wartime Allies without further delay.

The action was disclosed today by Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State. It was taken after the eleven-nation Far Eastern Commission failed in eighteen months of effort to agree on terms of restoring the loot.

It includes shipping and such diverse articles as fire engines taken by the Japanese invaders from Chinese cities.

Truman Congratulates King Paul Of Greece

Washington, March 25 (AP)—President Truman told King Paul, of Greece, today that "we shall not fail" in the struggle of democratic peoples against "totalitarian aggression."

The State Department made public a letter from Mr. Truman to the King on the Greek independence anniversary.

"We are learning once again that freedom and liberty can be preserved in the face of totalitarian aggression only when the democratic peoples show indomitable courage and determination in defending their independence," Mr. Truman said.

"The struggle is not yet won, but if those who love liberty work together, we shall not fail.

"The valor of Greece, even when faced by the spectacle of other nations succumbing to aggression, convinces me that the Greek people are equal to the task."

No Parcel Post to Palestine

Can't Handle It, Authorities in Holy Land Tell U. S.

WASHINTON, March 25 (AP).—The Post Office Department said tonight that parcel-post service to Palestine has been suspended. An official said Palestine authorities reported they were unable to handle it as present.

Parcel-post packages en route to Palestine will not be affected by the suspension, the official said. Money-order service to Palestine had been stopped previously.

Hanns Eisler And Wife Off For Vienna Today

New York, March 25 (AP)—Hanns Eisler, brother of Gerhart whom a congressional committee described as the No. 1 Communist in this country, will leave for Vienna tomorrow.

The German-born Hollywood composed will be accompanied by his wife, Louise, an immigration official announced today.

Eisler agreed to leave the United States voluntarily after the Government began deportation proceedings against him. He was not permitted to go to Mexico or Canada.

Gerhart Eisler was released on $20,000 bail yesterday in Washington pending an appeal from a sentence of one to three years for concealing his Communist links when he applied for a permit to leave this country in 1945. He was convicted last August.

whether the bomb's radioactivity would cause hereditary changes, but nothing startling has been seen yet.

The problems are illustrated by what the bombs did in Japan, at Bikini underwater, and in New Mexico. The circumstances were different each time.

The explosion of a bomb gives off two kinds of instantaneous radioactive rays that could harm living things. They may cause death to anyone as close as a mile or a little more. But they do not always cause death at these distances, and they did not cause a high percentage of the deaths in Japan.

The other risk from bombs and atomic energy is confined to atoms.

There are scores of different kinds of radioactive atoms created either by the explosion of a bomb or in atomic ovens.

If these atoms fall to earth anywhere, or are formed in the earth, they remain on the ground and get into plants and animals. They would be a hazard to human beings wherever the concentration was too high.

In Japan, no dangerous concentrations of this kind were found either at Hiroshima or Nagasaki. Both bombs were exploded fairly high above ground. The radioactive atoms floated rapidly upward in the huge bomb cloud.

Scientists who made measurements on the ground within 24 hours after the Japanese bombs found only slight amounts of these dangerous atoms. The amounts were so small as to be harmless to humans and plants.

The clouds that rose over Nagasaki and Bikini were very dangerous. But they were not dangerous to anyone outside the cloud. Furthermore, after travelling fairly short distances in the upper atmosphere, the dangerous atoms were scattered so widely that they were no longer a peril.

Hiroshima Survey Discounts Effectiveness of A-Bomb Rays

M.W. BLACKBURN

NEW YORK, March 25—(AP) A report from Tokyo today on effects of the atomic bomb at Hiroshima bears out atomic scientists' predictions that it will be hard to do much harm with radioactive rays from bombs or clouds.

The report, from the top scientist studying Hiroshima, was that the bomb had not damaged that city since the split second in which it burst.

The scientist, Dr. Philip S. Owen, executive director of the atomic bomb casualty survey commission, said a long study had shown "no residual radioactivity" at Hiroshima. It is too soon, he added, to say

Laski Rues Czech Coup; Will Lecture In U.S.

New York, March 25 (AP)—Harold J. Laski, former chairman of the British Labor party policy committee, said today he is "deeply grieved by the Russian treatment of Czechoslovakia."

He also said "it is most important that they have an honest election in Italy," next month.

Laski, who arrived today on the liner Queen Elizabeth, said he always had favored the plan to return Trieste to Italy.

"These fantastic quarrels over boundaries are unnecessary," he said.

Laski said he would visit friends in New York and Washington and go to Chicago for a series of lectures beginning April 8 at Roosevelt College.

Norse Leader Doubts Russia Perils Norway

New York, March 25 (AP)—Dr. Carl J. Hambro, Norway's delegate to the United Nations, says he does not believe there is any basis for reports that Russia plans aggressive action against his country.

The former president of the League of Nations sailed for home yesterday aboard the liner Stavangerfjord. Before embarking, he said:

"The conceptions people have here are vastly exaggerated. Norway never had even the slightest friction with Russia during all the years that they have been neighbors."

Asserting there was "no Slav population in the Scandinavian countries," Hambro added:

"We are an entirely different race. We never had anything to do with the Russians."

Claims U.S. Consent

New York, March 25 (AP)—An official of the Moore-McCormack Steamship Lines said today that the firm had "the consent of the United States Government" to serve as shipping agent for Russian freight vessels.

Commodore Robert C. Lee, executive vice president of the line, said congressional investigators seeking data about operations of the firm had only to examine public records.

"The only information the investigation can turn up," he said, "is already in the possession of the Customs Bureau, the Department of Commerce, the State Department and the Foreign Economic Administration."

A House committee probing shipments of war goods to the Soviet Union announced earlier it would inquire into Moore-McCormack's operations after a witness said the line handled all shipments for Amtorg, official Russian purchasing agency in this country.

Arabs And Jews Stand Ground Despite Plea

Hauck

Lake Success, March 25 (AP)—Arab and Jewish spokesmen stood their ground today in their first comments on President Truman's call for a truce.

Faris El Khoury, of Syria, chief Arab spokesman at the United Nations, said it was his opinion that the Arabs would be ready to avert any move to disturb the peace if the Jews will agree to abandon partition and find another solution of the Palestine problem.

A spokesman for Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, chairman of the American section of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, recalled that he had told the Security Council that the partition of Palestine is the "irreducible minimum" the Jews will accept.

Meeting Is Called

The agency called a meeting of its governing body in New York for late today to consider its formal answer. The Arabs also held up their official answer for further study.

Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary-general, had no comment on Mr. Truman's statement.

Earlier, Lie said the American proposal for a special session of the United Nations Assembly and for a trusteeship over Palestine had come to him as a surprise.

Lie was asked whether he had any reaction to Mr. Truman's suggestion that the United Nations call the Arabs and Jewish leaders into a truce parley to halt bloodshed.

No Plan Pending

He said he had no reaction.

He was asked to give his personal opinion on whether trusteeship for Palestine would require enforcement.

Lie replied that he had no personal opinion on that. He said the United Nations has no plan before it for trusteeship. He said that newsmen must listen to what the Arabs have to say on that point.

Camille Chamount, of Lebanon, who sits at the Security Council table as a representative of a country interested in the Palestine case, indorsed El Khoury's stand.

"If a resolution by the Security Council stopping any implementation of partition is adopted," he said, "I believe the Arab states will ask the Arabs of Palestine for a truce and help in maintaining security in all of Palestine.

Policy Is Unchanged

"The policy of the Arab states remains unchanged—that Palestine should be an independent state, undivided and democratic.

"We are ready to examine with good will any proposal by the United States for a temporary trusteeship provided this trusteeship does not prevent attainment of our objective—the independence of Palestine."

Dr. Chaim Weizmann said the recent American decision to abandon partition can only lead to increased bloodshed.

Appeasement Of Arabs

He said the new United States policy constitutes appeasement of Arab aggression and called on the Jewish people to stand firmly behind the United Nations partition plan.

Dr. Weizmann, mentioned frequently as the possible first president of the projected Jewish nation, issued his statement during a slowdown in United Nations Palestine deliberations occasioned by American silence on Washington's new plan for an interim United Nations trusteeship over the Holy Land.

"The gravity of the present moment compels me to break my silence on the issues involved in the Palestine problem in the light of the recent declaration of United States policy," he said.

Arabs And Jews Still Deadlocked

Lake Success, N.Y., March 25 (AP). Jewish and Arab leaders were cool tonight to President Truman's call for a truce in Palestine.

Both sides served notice their deadlock over partitioning the Holy Land into Jewish and Arabic countries remained unchanged. Then they put up conditions under which they would discuss a truce.

Arab spokesmen said the Jews must agree first, before such truce talks are started, to abandon partition. The Jews have refused to do this.

The executive of the American section of the Jewish Agency for Palestine held a hurried meeting.

Its spokesman afterwards pointed to an earlier agency statement saying Jews in the Holy Land would lay down arms the instant "Arab aggression" stopped.

He emphasized that the Jews assumed any truce arrangement would be carried out within the framework of the United Nations partition plan. The Arabs have repeatedly rejected partition in any form.

Predicts More Bloodshed

Dr. Chaim Weizmann, frequently mentioned as the first president of the proposed Jewish nation, declared before Mr. Truman made his statement that the recent American decision against partition now can only lead to increased bloodshed in Palestine.

In a statement Dr. Weizmann called on the Jewish people to stand firmly behind the United Nations partition plan. He is a former president of the Jewish Agency and of the World Zionist Organization.

The United States last Friday told the Security Council it would propose a special session of the United States Assembly to consider setting up a temporary United Nations trusteeship over Palestine. No formal proposal has yet been made.

Instructions Expected

A United States delegation spokesman said instructions were expected before the next Security Council meeting on Palestine, set for Tuesday. There are no meetings here over Easter week end.

Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, would not comment on Mr. Truman's statement.

This is the second anniversary of the first meeting of the Security Council in America and Lie marked it with an appeal to the five great powers for co-operation.

Lie said he acknowledged the United Nations has lost some prestige in these crucial days. He said, however, that what really is at stake is the prestige of the Big Five, France, China, Russia, Britain and the United States. He said it is up to them to find the answer to many questions now before the United Nations and its Security Council.

ROME, MARCH 25-(AP)-ITALY'S NATIONWIDE PRINTERS' STRIKE CRAMPED THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN TODAY, BUT PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI SAID THE APRIL 18 ELECTION WILL BE HELD ON SCHEDULE.

THE PEOPLE HAVE BEEN WITHOUT NEWSPAPER ANNOUNCEMENTS OF POLITICAL MEETINGS SINCE THE COMMUNIST-LED UNION OF TYPOGRAPHERS STRUCK FOR HIGHER PAY SUNDAY MIDNIGHT, CLOSING ABOUT 150 DAILIES. CROWDS AT THE MEETINGS HAVE DWINDLED.

DE GASPERI TOLD NEWSMEN, HOWEVER, "THE ELECTION HAS BEEN FIXED FOR APRIL 18 AND WILL NOT SUFFER ANY DELAY."

THE MAIN CONTEST WILL BE BETWEEN DE GASPERI'S CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND THE COMMUNIST-SOCIALIST POPULAR FRONT.

(MEDITERRANEAN EXPERTS IN THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT FORECAST IN LONDON YESTERDAY THE POPULAR FRONT WILL GET 38 TO 43 PER CENT OF THE VOTE. THEY SAID THEY DID NOT SEE HOW THE COMMUNISTS COULD BE KEPT OUT OF THE GOVERNMENT.)

SOME ITALIAN GOVERNMENT SOURCES TERMED THE WALKOUT POLITICAL. THEY SAID LEFTISTS WERE FEARFUL OF THE EFFECT ON PUBLIC OPINION OF LAST SATURDAY'S AMERICAN-BRITISH-FRENCH PROPOSAL TO GIVE TRIESTE BACK TO ITALY.

A GOVERNMENT LABOR SPOKESMAN ACCUSED THE COMMUNISTS OF CALLING THE STRIKE TO DELAY THE ELECTION.

AT ABOUT THE SAME TIME, HOWEVER, BALLOT PRINTERS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE REACHED A SPECIAL AGREEMENT WITH THE GOVERNMENT TO RESUME WORK.

THE BIG DOMESTIC NEWS AGENCY ANSA, WHICH HAD BEEN STRUCK, STARTED ITS TELETYPE MACHINES AGAINST LAST NIGHT.

A SOURCE CLOSE TO GOVERNMENT-UNION-MANAGEMENT NEGOTIATIONS SAID

...the facts, Art 25-(a)-Britain has asked the court to decide:
...corfu channel case.
...The British representative, ...
...Albanian ...ly, agreed to ask the court to decide:
1. whether Albania was responsible for damage to two British warships and the deaths of 44 British sailors in mine explosions in corfu channel oct. 22, 1946.
2. whether the British violated Albanian sovereignty by operating in those adriatic waters.
Britain has asked an apology and damages for the incident.

albania has denied responsibility.

The compromise was unexpected. Albania had protested that britain's application to the 16-judge united nations court was single-handed , without previous agreement with the albanian governman and thus went beyond the u.n. charter. The court overruled this protest today, 15 to 1, with czechoslovakia's judge, dr. igor daxner, dissenting.

MAR 1948

Because of the compromise, albania now will submit a formal application to the court to take jurisdiction in the case. This will be followed by the filing of a british rejoinder, and then a rejoinder by albania.

The case, first to come before the international court, is expected then to be put down for september of this year.

BY MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, MARCH 25-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES PROPOSED TODAY WORLD GUARANTEES OF FREE EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION SO THAT THE LIGHT OF PUBLICITY MAY KILL THE SEEDS OF HATE, FEAR AND WAR.

IN A SPEECH DELIVERED TO THE UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON FREEDOM OF INFORMATION, CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE WILLIAM BENTON REPLIED SHARPLY TO RUSSIAN ATTACKS ON THE AMERICAN PRESS.

BENTON, FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE, OPPOSED A RUSSIAN-SPONSORED PROPOSAL THAT THE CONFERENCE CONSIDER MEASURES TO "COMBAT THE DIFFUSION OF FALSE AND DISTORTED REPORTS LIKELY TO INJURE FRIENDLY RELATIONS BETWEEN STATES."

"THIS IS A GRAVE DANGER AREA FOR THIS CONFERENCE," BENTON SAID. "INSTEAD OF DISCUSSING MORE FREEDOM, WE MAY FIND OURSELVES DISCUSSING NEW RESTRICTIONS.

"IF A STATE IS ENGAGED IN EXPANSIONIST ACTS THAT CAUSE OTHER STATES TO FEAR THEIR OWN SECURITY, THEN FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND INTERNATIONAL UNDERSTANDING ARE INSTRUMENTS THROUGH WHICH THE NEWS AND THE ALARM IS SPREAD. THE RESULT MAY BE INDIGNATION IN OTHER COUNTRIES, PREPARATIONS FOR DEFENSE, PROTESTS AND EVEN TALK ABOUT THE PROBABILITY OF WAR.

"BUT IT IS SURELY A FANTASTIC PERVERSION OF THE TRUTH TO CALL SUCH REACTIONS, OR THE NEWS REPORTS THAT CREATE THEM, SLANDER OR WAR-MONGERING."

BENTON REFERRED TO WAR-MONGERING CHARGES MADE AGAINST THE U.S. PRESS IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST SEPTEMBER.

"THE FINGER SHOULD HAVE POINTED EAST TO THE OFFICIAL LIE, RATHER THAN WEST TO THE FREE PRESS," HE SAID.

HE ADDED THAT ANY EFFORT TO PROMOTE PEACE IN THE FIELD OF INFORMATION SHOULD HAVE BEEN DIRECTED AGAINST "INCITERS TO HATRED OF OTHER PEOPLES X X X AND AT GOVERNMENTS WHICH MAKE INCITEMENT TO HATRED A DELIBERATE MATTER OF POLICY."

BENTON PROPOSED THREE OBJECTIVES TO THE CONFERENCE:

1. "MUTUAL GUARANTEES BY STATES THAT THEIR CITIZENS WILL BE GIVEN ACCESS TO SUCH A VARIETY OF INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL SOURCES OF INFORMATION THAT THEY NEVER CAN BECOME NUMBED BY A MONOLITHIC PROPAGANDA OF HATE AND FEAR.

2. "MUTUAL GUARANTEES BY STATES THAT THEIR CITIZENS WILL BE ACCORDED SUCH FREEDOM OF INTERNAL EXPRESSION THAT THEY WILL BE ABLE TO EXPRESS THEIR VIEWS AND THROUGH THEM BRING PRESSURES UPON LEADERS ENGAGED IN ACTS THAT LEAD TO WAR.

3. "LIMITATIONS UPON THE POWER OF ANY STATE SO TO RESTRICT OR INTIMIDATE FOREIGN REPORTS OR SO TO CENSOR THEIR REPORTS THAT OTHER COUNTRIES CANNOT SEEK THE TRUTH ABOUT WHAT IS GOING ON IN THAT COUNTRY."

DURING THE PAST 30 YEARS, BENTON SAID, "THE GRIM THREE-STEP SEQUENCE OF DICTATORSHIP, CONTROL OF EXPRESSION AND AGGRESSIVE WAR, TIME AFTER TIME UNFOLDED BEFORE OUR EYES." IN COUNTRIES WHERE INDIVIDUALS HAVE THE RIGHT TO EXPRESS THEMSELVES AND BE INFORMED, "IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT, IF NOT IMPOSSIBLE, TO LEAD THE PEOPLE INTO AN AGGRESSIVE WAR," HE ADDED.

THE U.S. DELEGATE SAID FREEDOM OF INFORMATION, HOWEVER, DOES NOT CARRY WITH IT "THE MORAL RIGHT TO BE IRRESPONSIBLY IN ERROR," OR "THE RIGHT FOR ANY OWNER OR EDITOR TO USE THE LIE AS A DELIBERATE INSTRUMENT OF POLICY."

HE SAID THE UNITED STATES APPROVES CERTAIN LEGAL REMIEDIES AGAINST SUCH IRRESPONSIBILITY THROUGH LAWS OF LIBEL, OBSCENITY AND INCITEMENT TO RIOT. OTHERWISE, HE ADDED, "REDRESS FOR IRRESPONSIBILITY MUST COME THROUGH MORAL, SOCIAL AND COMPETITIVE PRESSURES WHICH GREW THROUGH THE EXERCISE OF FREEDOM."

"WE SHALL SUPPORT ALL RESOLUTIONS FOSTERING THE RIGHTS OF PEOPLE AND INFORMATION AGENCIES IN ALL STATES TO RECEIVE, PUBLISH, BROADCAST OR OTHERWISE TRANSMIT NEWS AND INFORMATION FROM ALL POSSIBLE SOURCES," BENTON SAID.

PEARL HARBOR, MARCH 25-(AP)-BIKINI'S NATIVES MADE IT A FEAST DAY WHEN THE NAVY CAME AND TOOK THEM AWAY FROM RONGERIK ATOLL. EVERYBODY FEASTED BUT ANDREW.

THE BIKINIANS, EXILES OF THE ATOMIC AGE, DIDN'T LIKE RONGERIK. IT WOULDN'T GROW ALL THE FOOD THEY NEEDED. AND IT WAS HAUNTED BESIDES.

SO, THE NAVY REPORTED TODAY, THERE WAS JOY AND THANKSGIVING IN THE COLONY OF 160 NATIVES WHEN THE LANDING SHIP PULLED UP TO RONGERIK MARCH 14. THAT IS, 159 BIKINIANS SANG AND DANCED INTO THE NIGHT. THE 160TH WAS ANDREW.

ANDREW HAD GOT INTO A ROW WITH HIS WIFE. HE WENT OFF SOMEWHERE AND SULKED.

WHEN THE NATIVES AND ALL THEIR POSSESSIONS WERE LOADED UP NEXT DAY SOMEBODY NOTICED ANDREW WASN'T ABOARD. THE NATIVE PASTOR WENT ASHORE. HE CAME BACK AND SAID ANDREW WAS GOING TO STAY, HAUNTS OR NO HAUNTS.

THE NAVY SAID O. K. IT HAD BROUGHT THE BIKINIANS HERE AFTER THEY HAD BEEN MOVED AWAY FROM BIKINI TO MAKE ROOM FOR THE ATOM BOMB TESTS. NOW IT WAS TAKING THE NATIVES TO A TEMPORARY HOME ON KWAJALEIN.

THE NAVY LET ANDREW STEW FOR THREE DAYS. THEN IT SENT A SEAPLANE BACK TO RONGERIK. ANDREW GOT ABOARD WITHOUT ARGUMENT. HE'D HAD ENOUGH OF HAUNTS.

NEW YORK, MARCH 25-(AP)-PLANE MAKER GLENN L. MARTIN SAYS THE NAVY HAS PERFECTED GUIDED MISSILES THAT CAN SEARCH OUT AN ENEMY SHIP AND DESTROY IT "EVEN IF IT IS HALFWAY ACROSS THE OCEAN."

THE UNITED STATES' PRESENT-DAY WARFARE DEVELOPMENTS, MARTIN SAYS, ALSO INCLUDE A RADIO-ACTIVE CLOUD THAT WILL KILL ANYTHING IT TOUCHES, NEW BACTERIA WEAPONS AND AN A-BOMB FAR MORE DEVASTATING THAN THOSE DROPPED ON JAPAN.

THE NAVY'S GUIDED MISSILE IS EQUIPPED WITH A HOMING DEVICE WHICH STEERS IT TO ITS TARGET, MARTIN, HEAD OF THE PLANE MANUFACTURING COMPANY THAT BEARS HIS NAME, SAID AT A PRESS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY.

"WE CAN SINK THE SHIP EVEN IF IT IS HALFWAY ACROSS THE OCEAN. ALL WE HAVE TO DO IS GET OUR OWN SHIPS OUT OF THE WAY."

THE MISSILES ALSO CAN BE USED AGAINST IRON FOUNDRIES, HE SAID, AND "IT WILL BE POSSIBLE TO ELIMINATE A NATION'S STEEL INDUSTRY IN TIME."

THE RADIO-ACTIVE, OR ATOMIC, CLOUD IS SPREAD BY WIND, HE DECLARED. THERE'S A DANGER OF IT BACKFIRING ON ITS USER IF TURNED LOOSE WHEN WEATHER CONDITIONS ARE NOT SUITABLE.

"IT IS EFFECTIVE OVER A MUCH LARGER AREA THAN IS THE ATOM BOMB," MARTIN SAID, "AND MIGHT MAKE THE AREA IT TOUCHES RADIOACTIVE FOR AN INDEFINITE TIME."

MARTIN ALSO MENTIONED NEW BACTERIA WEAPONS, SOME OF THEM CAPABLE OF LYING DORMANT FOR A TIME AND THEN "MAKING THE VICTIM ILL, WITH AN ILLNESS FROM WHICH HE DOES NOT RECOVER."

IF ANOTHER WAR COMES, THE NEW WEAPONS MAKE IT LIKELY THAT ITS ULTIMATE COURSE WOULD BE DETERMINED WITHIN 65 DAYS, HE SAID.

"OUR GREATEST WEAPONS ARE SOME MONTHS AWAY," MARTIN DECLARED. "IT WILL TAKE TWO YEARS BEFORE WE COULD PRODUCE SUFFICIENT AIRCRAFT OF THE NEW TYPE NOW BEING DEVELOPED. MISSILES WOULD BE READY MUCH MORE QUICKLY."

IN WASHINGTON, THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION HAD NO COMMENT ON MARTIN'S STATEMENTS.

THE METHODS BY WHICH THE RADIO-ACTIVE CLOUDS ARE BEING MADE AND TESTED ARE TOP SECRET, MARTIN DECLARED. THE AIRCRAFT COMPANY EXECUTIVE FIRST MENTIONED THE ATOMIC CLOUD RESEARCH LAST MAY WHEN TESTIFYING BEFORE A SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE.

FIRST LEAD UNITED NATIONS (300)
BY LARRY HAUCK

(ADVANCE) LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 25-(AP)-DR. CHAIM WEIZMANN SAID TODAY THE RECENT AMERICAN DECISION TO ABANDON PALESTINE PARTITION CAN ONLY LEAD TO INCREASED BLOODSHED.

HE SAID THE NEW UNITED STATES POLICY CONSTITUTES APPEASEMENT OF ARAB AGGRESSION AND CALLED ON THE JEWISH PEOPLE TO STAND FIRMLY BEHIND THE UNITED NATIONS PARTITION PLAN.

DR. WEIZMANN, MENTIONED FREQUENTLY AS THE POSSIBLE FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE PROJECTED JEWISH NATION, ISSUED HIS STATEMENT DURING A SLOW-DOWN IN U.N. PALESTINE DELIBERATIONS OCCASIONED BY AMERICAN SILENCE ON WASHINGTON'S NEW PLAN FOR AN INTERIM U.N. TRUSTEESHIP OVER THE HOLY LAND.

"THE GRAVITY OF THE PRESENT MOMENT COMPELS ME TO BREAK MY SILENCE ON THE ISSUES INVOLVED IN THE PALESTINE PROBLEM IN THE LIGHT OF THE RECENT DECLARATION OF UNITED STATES POLICY," HE SAID.

THE FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE WORLD ZIONIST ORGANIZATION SAID THE UNITED STATES, IN REVERSING STANDS, HAD FAILED TO CONSIDER THESE THREE BASIC FACTS:

TO DELAY A FINAL SETTLEMENT BASAD ON INDEPENDENCE WILL INCREASE CONFUSION AND BLOODSHED; TO MAKE ARAB CONSENT A CONDITION OF SETTLEMENT IS TO RULE OUT ALL CHANCE OF A SETTLEMENT; AND TO ABANDON A JUDGMENT (PARTITION) UNDER PRESSURE OF ARAB VIOLENCE IS TO GIVE AN INCENTIVE FOR FURTHER VIOLENCE.

DECLARING THAT CONCILIATION CANNOT BE A MASK FOR MERE APPEASEMENT, HE ADDED:

"ARAB GOVERNMENTS ARE NOW OPENLY SEEKING TO EXTORT BY WAR WHAT THEY FAILED TO ATTAIN BY ARGUMENT. TO PURSUE ARAB CONSENT BY FURTHER CONCESSIONS AT OUR EXPENSE AS A NECESSARY BASIS FOR A SETTLEMENT IS THUS PURE APPEASEMENT OF AGGRESSION--IT IS NOT CONCILIATION.

"INDEED THE WORST FEATURE OF ANY CHANGE IN POLICY NOW IS THE UNDENIABLE FACT THAT IR ARISES PURELY AS AN ACT OF SUBMISSION TO ARAB VIOLENCE."

DR. WEIZMANN SAID THE ENTRY OF FOREIGN ARAB FORCES INTO PALESTINE HAD INTENSIFIED THE FIGHTING. HE SAID HE COULD NOT UNDERSTAND HOW THE BRITISH COULD ALLOW THESE FORCES "TO CROSS FREELY BY BRIDGE AND ROAD INTO PALESTINE AND PREPARE IN LEISURE AND IMPUNITY TO MAKE WAR AGAINST THE JEWS."

UNCONFIRMED REPORTS AND RUMORS STILL WASHED THROUGH THE CORRIDORS HERE AS A RESULT OF U.S. DELEGATE WARREN R. AUSTIN'S SILENCE AT YESTERDAY'S SECURITY COUNCIL MEETING. THE SESSION HAD BEEN CALLED IN ANTICIPATION OF HEARING FROM HIM.

SOME SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN PLANNED A DRAMATIC ANNOUNCEMENT IN WASHINGTON TODAY. OTHERS SAID THE UNITED STATES WAS TAKEN ABACK BY BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN'S FLAT REFUSAL TO ACCEPT THE NEW AMERICAN PLAN OR KEEP CONTROL OF THE HOLY LAND BEYOND MAY 15. STILL OTHERS SPECULATED THAT THE UNITED STATES MIGHT DIG UP PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S OLD APPEAL FOR ADMISSION OF 100,000 JEWS TO PALESTINE AS A MOVE TO QUIET BITTER ZIONIST OPPOSITION TO THE AMERICAN PALESTINE POLICY.

AMERICAN DELEGATION PRESS OFFICERS REFUSED TO DENY OR CONFIRM ANYTHING.

WHEN AUSTIN MADE HIS SURPRISE SPEECH LAST FRIDAY URGING ABANDONMENT OF PARTITION AND SUBSTITUTION OF AN INTERIN U.N. TRUSTEESHIP IN PALESTINE, HE SAID HE WOULD HAVE A DETAILED PROPOSAL OR PROPOSALS FOR THE NEXT COUNCIL MEETING. AMERICAN PRESS OFFICERS ASSURED NEWSMEN UP TO SEVERAL HOURS BEFORE THE MEETING YESTERDAY THAT AUSTIN AT LEAST WOULD PRODUCE A RESOLUTION ASKING FOR A SPECIAL ASSEMBLY SESSION.

AUSTIN, HOWEVER, SAID NOTHING IN THE MEETING. OUTSIDE THE CHAMBER HE TOLD REPORTERS: "YOU'VE GOT TO CATCH YOUR RABBIT FIRST."

PERSONS CLOSE TO AUSTIN SAID HE COULD NOT SPEAK UP YESTERDAY BECAUSE HE HAD NO INSTRUCTIONS FROM WASHINGTON.

U.S. Halts All Shipments Of War Implement Goods To Russia and Satellites

MAR 1948

ARMY, NAVY GIVEN SAY ON WHAT IS SAFE TO EXPORT

Truman Clamps Curbs on Sale of Planes, Other Military Items.

FINN ORDER HELD UP

Deal for 46 Locomotives Delayed on Instructions of WAA Head.

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP) Aroused congress members demanding a halt in shipments of war goods to Russia were told today this had been done.

Secretary of Commerce Harriman said the United States has stopped all exports to Russia and her satellites except articles the army and navy say are all right to send.

Rep. Mundt (R-SD) said he is going ahead anyway with an amendment to the foreign aid bill to authorize the administrator of the program to ban shipments of strategic supplies to Russia.

He said his amendment will not be needed if the army-navy veto plan works, but if it fails, "we will still have provided for national security."

Curb on Plane Sales

President Truman earlier in the day clamped tight controls on sale of airplanes, airplane parts, radar, electronic devices, small arms and other military items to foreign nations by classing them as implements of war.

The War Assets Administration also stepped into the export picture. Finland's top bid of $1,666,900 for 46 unused steam locomotives was delayed for 30 days today in New York on orders of WAA National Administrator Jess Larson in Washington.

Whether this deal was being held up pending the outcome of Russia's bid for a military alliance with Finland was not stated.

Harriman said the army and navy have had a virtual veto power over the commerce department's issuance of export licenses since March 1.

But he said all trade with Russia will not be shut off. The government will "keep the door open," he said, for Russia to continue as a friendly nation.

He added, "we want to obtain certain products from Russia and eastern Europe."

He specified two items, chrome and manganese, vital materials for steel making. He said the United States gets 25 per cent of its manganese and 29 per cent of its chrome from Russia.

To Send Consumer Goods

Things we will send Russia include consumer goods such as clothing, cotton and tobacco, Harriman said. Still under study are what he termed "middle ground" articles like cars and trucks. And he indicated that railroad freight cars previously ordered will still be sent to avert hardships to American manufacturers.

Should Russia cut off manganese and chrome in retaliation, Harriman said congress may be asked for "important controls to force—that is, influence—foreign countries" to ship us what we need.

Such a law, he said, would allow the U. S. to stop foreign countries from shipping us less important goods, such as the furs Russia sends us, if they refused to ship the manganese and chrome.

Harriman said all export licenses are being screened thoroughly by a special advisory committee which includes representatives of the military forces, the Atomic Energy Commission the National Security Resources Board, and the departments of state, commerce, agriculture and interior.

President Truman's clamp-down today adds planes and parts to a previous list of items which may not be shipped abroad without special government licenses.

Indignation Stirs Probe

Congressional indignation over sales of warplane engines and other supplies to Russia at a time of world tension has resulted in a continuing investigation into exports.

The administration assured congress of a tighter screening of shipments "behind the iron curtain." Senator Maybank (D-SC) went a step further. He proposed prosecution of U. S. firms and individuals involved in such activities.

President Truman, who yesterday commented that Russia is a friendly country, acted today under a 1939 law giving him authority to list articles considered "arms, ammunitions and implements of war."

His proclamation, effective April 15, lists as subject to export control such items as small arms, machine guns, cannon, fire control equipment, rifles, ammunition, bombs, torpedoes and rockets, tanks and ordnance vehicles, poison gases and other war equipment.

However, all of these except airplanes and parts have been subject to state department control in the past.

Rep. Colmer (D-Miss) said today he was going to "keep punching" for his plan to stop all U. S. shipments to Russia. He proposed that congress write such a ban in the foreign aid bill now before the house. A vote is due Monday.

"We are following the same pattern we followed before the last war when we shipped scrap iron and oil to Japan," he said.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal told the senate armed services committee yesterday that he has ordered a foreign trade study and will have a policy statement soon.

TRUMAN PUTS CURB ON SALE OF PLANES

Classification as War Material Calls for Special Licenses After April 15—Action Follows Clamor in Congress.

DAY

Washington, March 26 (A. P.).—The United States has stopped all exports to Russia and her satellites except materials which the Army and Navy say it is all right to send.

Secretary of Commerce Harriman told a news conference today that this policy has been in effect since March 1. The purpose is to keep from the Soviets and their puppets all materials which might contribute to their war potential.

Earlier in the day President Truman clamped tight controls on all exports of airplanes and airplane parts. He did this by issuing a proclamation classing planes and plane parts as arms, ammunition and implements of war.

That put planes under controls which Congress ordered in 1939 over all exports of munitions. Planes had been exempt from them. These controls are separate from general export controls, exercised by the Department of Commerce.

Services Have Veto Power.

Harriman explained that the Army and Navy in effect have a veto power over the Commerce Department's issuance of licenses for exports to Russia, but he declared that trade with eastern Europe will continue as a way of "keeping the door open" for Russia to continue as a friendly nation.

Harriman said:

"As the President said (at a news conference yesterday), Russia is in the category of friendly nations, and we certainly hope that it will continue to be. As he said, we want to keep the door open—and trade is one way of keeping the door open."

In an accompanying statement Harriman said that all licenses to export goods "that would contribute directly to the war potential of the U. S. S. R. and its satellites" are reviewed by a special advisory committee.

The committee includes representatives of the military establishments, the Atomic Energy Commission, the National Security Resources Board and the Departments of State, Commerce, Agriculture and Interior.

"No shipments of materials that might contribute to the war potential of the U. S. S. R. and its satellites are licensed without prior consultation with the military agencies," the statement said.

The White House made public a presidential proclamation revising, effective April 15, the list of things which cannot be shipped from this country except under special license.

It designates as munitions such things as small arms and machine guns and fire-control equipment and range finders as well as aircraft.

Engines Sent To Russ

Congress members have been clamoring for tightened export controls since it was disclosed earlier this week that some airplane engines, sold by the Government as war surplus, were eventually sent to Russia by private buyers.

Act Under 1939 Law

Mr. Truman's action means no one can lawfully export airplanes or airplane parts without getting specific Government permission.

He acted under a 1939 law. This gives him authority to proclaim, on recommendation of the National Munitions Control Board, articles "which shall be considered arms, ammunition and implements of war."

Such articles come under export controls.

At the Capitol, an early House investigation was promised into the disappearance of United States war supplies "behind the Iron Curtain."

Sees Need Emphasized

Chairman Rizley (R., Okla.) of a House Expenditures subcommittee, said disclosures of recent shipment of United States warplane engines to Russia and Poland emphasize the need for checking on the fate of vastly greater United States surpluses abroad.

"If the traders over there are as ambitious as some of ours have been, there's no telling how much may have been sold to Russia and her satellites," he said.

Rizley's group expects a report on war surplus goods when the committee meets again early next week, or the week after.

Rizley said he has asked the Foreign Liquidation Commission for a full accounting of the distribution and present whereabouts of surplus United States war supplies which were sold to foreign countries.

"Some of those countries have since gone behind the Iron Curtain," he said. "Czechoslovakia is one of them. And the Czechs got a fabulous amount from us before the Russians moved in—something over a billion dollars, I believe."

Other Matters Checked

Rizley said committee investigators also are checking into:

1. The War Assets Administration's promise last November that some $20,000,000 worth of Lend-Lease material originally earmarked for Russia would not go to the Soviets.

2. Reports that "a new batch of United States airplanes and engines is being sold world wide."

3. Indications that "a tremendous amount of scrap may have fallen into the wrong hands."

4. Activities of the Moore-McCormack Steamship lines in shopping materials from this country to Russia.

Claims U.S. Gave Consent

In New York, Commodore Robert C. Lee, executve vice president of the shipping line, said the firm had "the consent of the United States Government to serve as shipping agent for Russian freight vessels.

Lee said last night that he negotiated Moore-McCormack's contract with the Russians in Moscow in 1930. He added that his line had to have United States approval because it is subsidized by the Government.

Lee said cargoes going to the Soviet Union are about the same type as have been shipped during the past twenty years.

"The type of material being shipped is no secret," he said. "The Russians don't prepare the documents. We do, as their only agents in this country."

Truman Arms Proclamation

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP).—Following is the complete text of President Truman's proclamation revising the official list of arms, ammunition and implements of war:

Whereas Section 12 (I) of the joint resolution of Congress approved Nov. 4, 1939, provides in part as follows (54 Stat. 11; 22 U. S. C. 542 (I)):

"The President is hereby authorized to proclaim upon recommendation of the (National Munitions Control) Board from time to time a list of articles which shall be considered arms, ammunition and implements of war for the purposes of this section" . . .

Now, therefore, I, Harry S. Truman, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by the said joint resolution of Congress, and pursuant to the recommendation of the National Munitions Control Board, and in the interest of the foreign-affairs functions of the United States, hereby declare and proclaim that the articles listed below shall, on and after April 15, 1948, be considered arms, ammunition and implements of war for the purposes of Section 12 of the said joint resolution of Congress:

Category 1.—Rifles, carbines, revolvers, pistols, machine pistols and machine guns (using ammunition of caliber .22 or over); barrels, mounts, breech mechanisms and stocks therefor.

Category 2 (artillery and projectors).—Guns, howitzers, cannon mortars, and rocket launchers, military flame throwers, military smoke, gas or pyrotechnic projectors, barrels, mounts and other components thereof.

Category 3 (ammunition).—Ammunition of caliber .22 or over for the arms enumerated under Categories 1 and 2; cartridge cases, powder bags, bullets, jackets, cores, shells (excluding shotgun); projectiles and other missiles; percussion caps, fuses, primers and other detonating devices for such ammunition.

Category 4 (bombs, torpedoes and rockets). — Bombs, torpedoes, grenades, rockets, mines, guided missiles, depth charges and components thereof; apparatus and devices for the handling, control, discharge, detonation or detection thereof.

Category 5 (fire-control equipment and range-finders).—Fire-control equipment, range, position and height finders, spotting instruments, aiming devices (gyroscopic optic, acoustic, atmospheric or flash) bomb sights, gun sights and periscopes for the arms, ammunitions and implements of war enumerated in this proclamation.

Category 6 (tanks and ordnance vehicles.—Tanks, armed or armored vehicles, armored trains, artillery and small-arms repair trucks, military half-tracks, tank-recovery vehicles, Tank destroyers, armor plate, turrets, tank engines, tank-tread shoes, tank bogie wheels and kidlers.

Category 7 (poison gases and toxicological agents).—All military toxicological and lethal agents and gases; military equipment for the dissemination and detection thereof and therefrom.

Category 8 (propellants and explosives).—Propellants for the articles enumerated in Categories 3, 4 and 7; military high explosives.

Category 9 (vessels of war).—Vessels of war of all kinds, including amphibious craft, landing craft, naval tenders, naval transports and naval patrol craft, armor plate and turrets therefor; submarine batteries and nets, and equipment for the laying of, detection and detonation of mines.

Category 10 (aircraft).—Aircraft; components, parts and accessories therefor.

Category 11 (miscellaneous equipment).—(A) Military radar equipment, including components thereof, radar countermeasures and radar jamming equipment; (B) military stereoscopic flooding and photo-interpretation equipment; (C) military photo theodolites, telemetering and Doeppler equipment; (D) military super-high ballistic cameras; (E) military radiosondes; (F) military interference-suppression equipment; (G) military electronic computing devices; (H) military miniature and sub-miniature vacuum tubes and photo-emissive tubes; (I) military armor plate; (J) military steel helmets; (K) military pyrotechnics; (L) synthetic training devices for military equipment; (M) military ultrasonic generators; (N) all other material used in warfare which is classified from the standpoint of military security.

Effective April 15, 1948, this proclamation shall supersede Proclamation 2717, dated Feb. 14, 1947.

Picketed Russ Ship Leaves Jersey Terminal

Jersey City, N.J. March 26 (AP)—The Russian freighter S.S. Chukokta, loaded with industrial equipment, sailed from the Claremont Terminal today, and another Soviet vessel came in to take its place.

The Chukokta was picketed Sunday and Monday by members of the Hudson County Chapter, Catholic War Veterans, protesting shipment of machinery to Russia.

Loading of the vessel was held up several hours when longshoremen refused to pass the picket line.

The Chukokta left the Lehigh Valley Railroad's Pier at 7 A.M. today, a railroad spokesman said. About an hour later, the Russian freighter Volga slipped into the terminal.

Ban On Machine-Tool Orders For Reds Urged

Cleveland, March 26 (AP)—The National Machine Tool Builders Association today urged the State Department not to approve orders for strategic equipment which "may be used to our national disadvantage."

Association President A. G. Bryant declared "to the best of our knowledge, American machine-tool builders are taking no new orders from Russia or the countries in the Russian orbit."

Bryant added: "It is possible that machine tools sold by the War Assets Administration may have been finding their way into the Russian orbit. The WAA has for years made efforts to sell surplus machines in foreign countries."

Old Orders Being Completed

Bryant presented what he termed "the facts with respect to American machine tools going to Russia and her satellites."

He said: "A number of machine-tool builders are now in the process of completing machines ordered by these countries anywhere from nine months to two years ago."

"A large share of these orders were for Czechoslovakia, which at that time was not in the Russian orbit. Still others were financed by a loan to Poland from the Export-Import Bank."

Machines For Czechs Ready

At Cincinnati, Richard E. Leblond, of the R. K. Leblond Company, said his company had received no orders from Russia for several years and no inquiries "for a long time."

He added the company had four machines ready for shipment to Poland and Czechoslovakia, "but we've been unable to get shipping permission."

A spokesman for the Cincinnati Milling Company said his concern had orders from Russia for five small machines.

"These orders have been on hand since January, 1946," he reported, "but somehow we've had trouble finishing them."

The Lodge & Shipley Company, also of Cincinnati, reported a few small orders on hand from Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Purchase Of 46 Locomotives Stayed By WAA Chief

Washington, March 26 (AP)—Jess Larson, War Assets Administrator, today blocked the $1,666,900 sale of 46 surplus Russian-type locomotives to Finland pending 30 days of "further study."

A WAA spokesman said Larson did not care to comment whether his action was prompted by this week's congressional criticism of surplus sales which might help build up the Soviet war potential.

Finland, now under pressure from Moscow to enter a defensive alliance, was high bidder in New York today for the steam locomotives. Larson has authority to stay or cancel any surplus sale, regardless of the price offered.

Bought 13 On March 6

The 46 locomotives, manufactured in 1945 by the American Locomotive Company for United States War Department use in Russia, are a wide-gauge type which cannot be operated in this country.

On March 6 Finland purchased thirteen similar locomotives from the WAA.

John R. Campbell, New York Regional WAA director, said the Finnish bids were: five at $41,600 each; sixteen at $34,600 each; one at $38,400; thirteen at $51,200 each, and eleven at $18,300 each. Second high bidder, at $4,820 each, was the Brooklyn Company, of San Francisco.

The WAA said the Government paid from $80,733.58 to $85,464.30 each for 35 of the locomotives equipped with tenders and $68,310.65 each for the eleven without tenders. The locomotives are in storage at Voorheesville, N.Y.

British Cheese Ration To Be Slashed April 4

London March 26 (AP)—The Ministry of Food announced tonight that the individual weekly cheese ration will be cut from 2 ounces to 1½ ounces, beginning April 4.

The reason for the cut, the ministry said, is that Britain, short of dollars, has bought no food from the United States since last August.

REDS IN 'FEELER' ON GERMAN ISSUE

BERLIN, March 26—(AP) The Soviet military administration announced today that it is ready to support four-power control machinery in Germany "if the other occupation powers do not turn it into a fiction."

Lt. Gen. G. S. Lukjantschenko, Soviet chief of staff, made the statement in an interview with the Soviet news agency. It was not as strong as the communist-inspired propaganda in Soviet Zone newspapers this week.

The papers have described the Allied Control Council, the highest governing agency in Germany, as dead. The Berliner Zeitung said yesterday American, British and French troops will have to leave Berlin in the near future.

Seen as Trial Balloon

American authorities regarded Lukjantschenko's statement as a trial balloon. They believed the Russians realized now that they had made a mistake when they walked out on last Saturday's meeting of the control council. This view was that the Russians were not ready for a final break with the west and were now trying to get off a spot.

American, British and French commanders have made it clear they do not intend to pull out of Berlin. They launched their own counter-boycott of allied control machinery when the Russians showed signs of relenting. The western powers said they would stay away from four-power subcommittees until Soviet authorities called a meeting of the council itself.

Meanwhile, an official estimate of German reaction as gained by an American Military Government poll, showed that less than 10 percent of Germans now think it possible for the four allies to work together in ruling Germany. Nearly half of the Germans believed it possible in 1946. The survey showed that at least 60 percent of the Germans interrogated believe now that the Americans should "reconstruct Germany as soon as possible in order to prevent her becoming a prey to communism." The survey showed that American prestige in Germany had declined steadily from 1946 until the late summer of 1947 when it began to shoot back up again because of confidence in the Marshall Plan.

Gen. Lukjantschenko gave no explanation of the walkout Saturday.

Lukjantschenko repeated the old Russian charges that the western powers are using the control council to screen the establishment of a separate western state in their zones of Germany. He said:

"If the division of Germany is a completed fact, it is clear to all this division was brought about by the United States, England and France.

"They are attempting to draw western Germany into an imperialistic western bloc, to use it as the tool of anti-democratic imperialistic policy in Europe. Such activities are a violation of all previously approved agreements on the German question."

Russ Now Back 4-Power Rule

Berlin, March 26 (AP)—The Soviet military administration announced today it is ready to support four-power control machinery in Germany in certain circumstances. It still declined, however, to call a new Council meeting which would get the wheels started again.

Lieut. Gen. G. S. Lukjantschenko, Soviet chief of staff, said the Russians are ready to support the Control Council "in so far as the Control Council through its activity is still able to contribute to the earlier accomplishment of the aims laid down in the Potsdam Agreement."

"But," he added, "the Soviet delegation is categorically opposed to the use of the Control Council as a comfortable cover for unilateral actions of occupation powers in the western zones of Germany."

Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, the Soviet commander, walked out of the last Control Council meeting Saturday after a tirade against the Western powers. Since then, all agencies of the Council, except the Kommandatur, which runs Berlin itself, have been stalled by a Russian boycott and a Western power counterboycott started when the Russians showed some signs of relenting.

The Western powers said they would continue their boycott until the Soviet authorities, in their capacity as four-power chairmen for the month of March, call a new meeting of the Council itself. The Council is the highest governing agency in Germany.

Lukjantschenko's exposition was largely a repetition of old Russian charges that the Western powers are using the Council to screen the establishment of a separate state in their zones of Germany.

London Parley Results

"If the division of Germany is a completed fact," he said, "it is clear to all this division was brought about by the United States, England and France."

German Communists say the pressure is on to force the Western powers out of Berlin. The Western commanders say they are staying right here.

General Lukjantschenko said the refusal of the Western commanders to inform the Control Council of directives received as a result of the recent London conference on Germany showed "that the Western occupation authorities are not willing to regard the Control Council as the organ of supreme authority in Germany."

All three Western commanders have stated that they received no directives as a result of the London meeting, since no final decisions were made there.

France to Regain Nazi Loot

HAMBURG, Germany, March 26 (AP).—Fifty paintings recovered from the loot of Joachim von Ribbentrop, Nazi Foreign Minister, will be returned to France next month. A British military officer said most of the works came from the Rothschild collection. They include paintings by Corot, Courbet and Monet.

U.S. CHARGES RUSS REVIVAL OF NAZI CAMPS

Political Foes Put In Concentration Centers, Washington Says

Washington, March 26 (AP)—The United States accused Russia tonight of restoring concentration camps to eastern Germany and filling them with opponents of its "new totalitarianism" there.

Further, the American Government charged in a note sent to the Soviet Embassy that Russia and its eastern European satellites—not the Western Powers—are responsible for dividing Germany and splitting the whole of Europe between East and West.

The American note, signed by Norman Armour, Assistant Secretary of State, and addressed to Alexander S. Panyushkin, Soviet Ambassador, was delivered to the embassy yesterday and released by the State Department tonight.

Reject Soviet Protest

It rejected outright a Russian protest of March 6 that the United States, Britain and France were breaking the Potsdam agreement by meeting in London a month ago to work out new steps for economic unity in western Germany.

The British Government rejected Russia's protest yesterday.

In today's note the Russians were sharply reminded that as long ago as September, 1946, they were formally offered by James F. Byrnes, then Secretary of State, the opportunity to join with the United States in economic merger of the occupation zones in Germany.

Armour wrote Panyushkin: "The responsibility for rejection of this offer and for failure to include its zone in this economic arrangement lies upon the Soviet Union itself."

Socialists Suppressed

The note said the Soviet had suppressed the Socialist party in eastern Germany by forcing it to merge with the Communist party into a "Socialist Unity party."

This new party, Armour said, "has become the new bulwark for a totalitarian regime in eastern Germany, while the other authorized political parties have been subjected to pressure, discrimination and intimidation and have not been enabled to function freely."

"Basic human rights are being denied the population," the American note continued, "while concentration camps are being used anew for individuals unwilling to accept this new totalitarianism.

East Cut Off

"It is the unilateral policy of the Soviet Union which has cut off eastern Germany from its natural intercourse, political and economic, with western Germany."

Armour said the Russians had complained also of the Western alliance which is being formed by Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg. His note said:

"It is not these steps which have led to the political cleavage of Europe, as claimed by the Soviet Government, but rather prior actions of the Soviet Government and a group of eastern European states under Soviet influence which have disrupted the normal framework of the European community and interfered with the progress of recovery from the effects of the war."

Text of U. S. Rejection of Protest by Moscow

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP)—The text of the United States note to the Soviet Union rejecting a Moscow protest that the United States, Britain and France had broken agreements for Four-Power control of Germany in their conference in London:

His Excellency Alexander S. Panyushkin, Ambassador of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note, No. 50, of March 6, 1948, concerning the discussions which the Governments of the United States, the United Kingdom and France held in London respecting Germany.

In its note of March 6, the Soviet Government reiterated the views expressed in the Soviet Embassy's communication of Feb. 13, 1948, to the effect that the London discussions were in contradiction to the Potsdam Agreement and to the agreement on control machinery for Germany.

In its memorandum of Feb. 21, 1948, the Department of State pointed out that these talks were arranged for a discussion of problems in Germany of mutual interest to the three governments, and that there is no provision in the Potsdam Agreement, or other agreements relating to Germany concluded by the four occupying powers, which prevents any of the powers from discussing between themselves questions of common concern.

The United States Government notes that the Soviet Government continues to fail to recognize that the three powers have been, obliged to consult among themselves at this time as a result of the unwillingness of the Soviet Government to implement the principles of economic unity as well as other principles of the Potsdam Agreement. The Soviet Government claims that the other occupying powers have undertaken a series of unilateral actions, contrary to the Four-Power agreement with respect to Germany.

Says Soviet Disregards Facts

The Soviet Government cites, as the first expression of such policy, the agreement between Great Britain and the United States with respect to the economic fusion of their respective zones of occupation in Germany. The note of the Soviet Government states: "It is well known that the question of creating a unified Anglo-American zone was not even submitted for the consideration of the control council." This statement does not correspond to the facts. At the meeting of the Allied Control Council in Berlin on July 20, 1946, Gen. [Joseph T.] McNarney made the following statement on behalf of his Government:

"The United States Government is of the view that no zone in Germany is self-sustaining. The treatment of two or more zones as an economic unit would improve conditions in the zones concerned.

"Therefore, the United States Government has authorized its representative on the Allied Control Council to join with the representatives of any other occupying power or powers in measures for the treatment of our respective zones as an economic unit, pending quadripartite agreement which would permit the application of the Potsdam decision to treat all of Germany as an economic unit so as to attain a balanced economy throughout Germany.

"While the United States would prefer quadripartite agreement to implement the Potsdam decision for the establishment of central Germany administrative agencies for Germany as a whole, its representative is prepared to cooperate with the representatives of any or all of the other occupying powers in Germany in establishing administrative arrangements to secure economic unity.

Denied Partition Was Aim

"The United States does not intend by its present proposal to divide Germany but rather to expidite its treatment as an economic unit.

"Any arrangements which representatives of the United States may make with the representatives of any other occupying powers will be open on equal terms to the representatives of all other occupying powers at any time they are prepared to participate.

"The United States Government proposes this arrangement because of its belief that Germany can no longer be administered in four airtight compartments without free economic interchange unless economic paralysis is to result. The United States Government is unwilling to permit creeping economic paralysis to grow if it is possible to attain economic unity between its zone and any other zone in Germany as a prelude to economic unity for all Germany."

According to the official minutes of the Allied Control Council (conl/m (46 19), the meeting agreed in view of the unpreparedness of the other delegations to defer consideration of the United States Proposal. At the next meeting on July 30, 1946, according to the official minutes (conl/m (4620), the Control Council considered the United States Government's proposal. At this meeting Marshal [Sir Sholto] Douglas announced that after full consideration the British Government had authorized him to accept, in principle, General McNarney's offer. Comments on the United States proposal were made by the Soviet representative at this meeting and by the French representative at subsequent meetings.

Byrnes Offer Recalled

It should be recalled that the same offer of the United States Government to join its zone economically with that of any other occupying power had previously been made before the Council of Foreign Ministers by the Secretary of State, Mr. Byrnes, on July 11, 1946, at Paris, and was subsequently reiterated by him in an address at Stuttgart on Sept. 6, 1946. The responsibility for rejection of this offer and for failure to include its zone in this economic arrangement lies upon the Soviet Union itself.

The threat to the authority of the Allied Control Council does not arise from the actions of the United States, but rather from the consistent pursuit by the Soviet Government in the Eastern zone of Germany of a systematic unilateral policy of its own. The Soviet Government has failed to observe the principle of economic unity provided for in Section III, B, 14, of the Potsdam Agreement. It has likewise failed to insure, as provided in Section III, B, 15 (c), of the same agreement, "the equitable distribution of essential commodities between the several zones so as to ppoduce a balanced economy throughout Germany and reduce the need for imports."

It has carried out reparation removals of industrial capital equipment from the Eastern zone without regard to agreed limitations on such removals and without consideration of the legitimate peace-time requirements of the German economy. It has also continuously taken reparation in the form of resources and current production, contrary to the understanding at Potsdam. The Soviet Government under the guise of reparation has taken into its possession in gigantic trusts (the so-called Soviet A. G.'s) major industrial establishments in the Eastern zone accounting for 25 to 30 per cent of the total remaining industrial productive capacity.

Russian Oppression Charged

The Soviet Government has furthermore carried out in its zone a unilateral policy with respect to political activity. The Potsdam Agreement envisaged that local self-government would be re-established throughout Germany on democratic principles; that all political parties with rights of assembly and of public discussion should be allowed and encouraged; and that representative and elective principles should be introduced in the various levels of government.

In actual practice, however, the Socialist party was suppressed by the imposed amalgamation with the Communist party into the Socialist Unity party, which has become the new bulwark for a totalitarian regime in Eastern Germany, while the other authorized political parties have been subjected to pressure, discrimination and intimidation, and have not been enabled to function freely.

Basic human rights are being denied the population, while concentration camps are being used anew for individuals unwilling to accept this new totalitarianism. It is the unilateral policy of the Soviet Union which has cut off Eastern Germany from its natural itercourse, political and economic, with Western Germany.

The Soviet Government not only charges the other three Governments with the inadequate functioning of the Allied Control Council but also with the failure of the Council of Foreign Ministers to reach agreement on German questions during its 1947 sessions held in Moscow and London. The official records of these conferences do not confirm the Soviet Government's assertion that it made efforts to bring about four-power agreement by meeting half-way the proposals of the other powers.

The Soviet Government resorts to a curious logic when it seeks to demonstrate its assertion by enumerating proposals of the Soviet Union not found acceptable by the other three powers. By a sincere effort to arrive at reasonable compromises, the Governments of the United States, the United Kigdom and France were able to arrive at many agreed positions, only to find that the Soviet Government was not likewise ready to seek solutions acceptable to all four powers.

It is impossible not to draw the inference from the known proceedings of the Allied Control Council and the Council of Foreign Ministers that the Soviet Government has been pursuing in Germany objectives different from those of the other occupying powers who are seeking the pacification of Germany and the economic recovery of Europe as a whole, including Germany. This inference appears to be borne out by the extensive remarks in the Soviet Government's note of March 6 directed against American aid in the economic recovery of Europe as well as against the economic and political cooperation of the United Kingdom, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg confirmed in the treaty signed at Brussels March 17.

It is not these steps which have led to the political cleavage of Europe as claimed by the Soviet Government, but rather prior actions of the Soviet Government and a group of Eastern European states under Soviet influence which have disrupted the normal framework of the European community and interfered with the progress of recovery from the effects of the war.

In the light of the foregoing, the United States Government is not able to agree with the Soviet Government's interpretation of the London discussions on the German question. The London discussions sought the solution of the urgent political and economic problems which have arisen as a result of the continuous failure to reach and implement quadripartite agreement, due to the attitude of the Soviet Government.

As was stated in the communiqué issued on March 8 by the representatives of the powers participating in the informal London discussions: "The participating powers had in view the necessity of ensuring the economic reconstruction of Western Europe, including Germany, and of establishing a basis for the participation of a democratic Germany in the community of free peoples. While delay in reaching these objectives can no longer be accepted, ultimate four power agreement is in no way precluded."

Accept, excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

For the Secretary of State,
NORMAN ARMOUR,
Assistant Secretary of State.

Italy's Elections Will Be Held On Schedule, De Gasperi Says

NIGHT MAR 1948

Rome, March 26 (AP)—Alcide de Gasperi, Prime Minister, declared today that Italy's elections will be held on schedule despite "sporadic disorder."

His declaration was made in response to rumors, exploited by his Communist opposition, that minor strikes and clashes springing up here and there in Italy might force a postponement of the election of Parliament April 18.

Trieste Still The Big Issue

Government officials said they were refusing to get excited about the skirmishing such as made Milan's big public square a sort of boxing ring for four days when Communists and anti-Communists conducted rival demonstrations.

Trieste remained the big issue as Italy's press recovered from the four-day strike that prevented the reporting of political speeches early in this week.

Palmiro Togliatti, declared in the Communist newspaper L'Unita that the proposal of Britain, the United States and France to return the free state territory to Italy was an "American-style swindle." The three powers set up the free state, he asserted, with the idea of using it some time as bait to lure Italy into the anti-Communist camp.

If the Communist-led Popular Front is victorious, he said, it would settle the Trieste question with Marshal Tito's Yugoslavia in 48 hours.

There was no political speech making because of Good Friday. But unemployed demonstrated at Milan, demanding Easter presents of 5,000 lire (about $8) each. The provincial prefect promised food packages and money gifts of 1,000 lire ($1.50) would be distributed April 1 and that a two-month moratorium on payment of utility bills would be granted.

Police and carabinieri continued to ferret out hidden arms at many places.

Last night Luigi Longo, the No. 2 Communist, in a speech at Bologna, threatened to use force if the Communists win a majority in the elections and are denied a place in the Government.

"Will they acknowledge the results of the election?" he asked. "We doubt they will cede power to us. But if they do not cede to us the power the majority will give us we will chase them out as we chased out others in our war of liberation."

Most observers have speculated that the Communist-led bloc would win the largest vote of any single party, but short of a majority, and that the other parties would then unite in forming a government excluding the Communists as now.

Reds In Italy Threaten To Seize Control If Vote Favors Them

DAILY

Rome, March 26 (AP)—Italy's Communists served notice today that they intend to seize the Government by force if denied "the power the majority will give us" in the April 18 elections.

The threat opened a Leftist drive to capture the offensive from Government parties riding the crest of popular enthusiasm over the proposal to return Trieste to Italy. P. CLARKE

It coincided with the end of the Communist-inspired typographers' strike that shut down the nation's newspapers for four days.

No. 2 Red Poses Question

Luigi Longo, Italy's No. 2 Communist, demanded of Premier Alcide de Gasperi and other Government leaders:

"Will they acknowledge the results of the election?"

Longo, speaking before 50,000 at Bologna last night, declared:

"If they do not cede to us power the majority will give us, we will chase them out as we chased out others in our war of liberation."

The question as to whether the Communists will be allowed in the new government has been an election sore spot.

35 P.C. Red Vote Forecast

Most observers predict the Popular Front of Communists and their Leftist allies will get 35 to 40 per cent of the votes. This may be the largest received by any one party or bloc of parties.

Anti-Communist parties have indicated they would join up after the election to claim victory by majority and the right to form a new government.

De Gasperi kicked the Communists out of his Government last year. He has given no indication he or other Government leaders want them back.

Longo, referring to the Western powers' proposal on Trieste, said:

Refers To Slogan

"Trieste might be returned to Italy only if the Italian people prove to be free and independent of American influence."

"With the words 'Trieste Ital-

30.24- 16541

iana,'" he said, "there are those who seek to carry us into a new world war against the people of Eastern Europe.

"If the Demo-Christians carry us into that war, the Italian people will not remain inactive but will defend their right to peace," Longo added.

Scattered violence was reported in Milan's Cathedral Square as Communist orators repeated their warnings on Trieste.

Armed Communists and Nationalist students clashed in Naples last night.

Milan Jobless Demonstrate

Milan dispatches said unemployed demonstrated today, demanding Easter gifts of 5,000 lire ($8.70).

A committee was reported to have won a promise from the provincial government that food packages and money gifts worth 1,000 lire each would be distributed April 1.

A suspension of payment on utilities bills also was granted.

Offer On Trieste Called Election Trick By Tito

London, March 26 (AP)—Marshall Tito was quoted today as describing a Western powers' offer to return Trieste to Italy as a trick to win the April 18 elections.

The Yugoslav leader spoke to a group of Italians in Belgrade. His remarks were broadcast by the Belgrade radio and recorded in London by the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug.

"The offer of Trieste to Italy by Anglo-Americans and French is only an election trick," Tito was quoted as saying. "It tends to breed hatred between the Italian and Yugoslav peoples and to weaken the Italian peoples front in order to win the election."

Later in his talk Tito referred to the Trieste proposal as a "new, very strange election trick which is designed to prevent the democratic forces from defending their liberty and independence. The offer was made in clear violation of the (Italian) peace treaty.

Tito said there were "great possibilities for even greater understanding between Italians and Yugoslavs"—both of whom claim the Trieste free territory.

Tanjug quoted Tito as saying further that "all this talk about troops being massed on the military frontier of Trieste is untrue. The Italian and Yugoslav peoples are friends, not enemies. . . . Both our nations want peace."

Yugoslavs Raise Doubt On Trieste

Trieste, March 26 (AP)—The Yugoslavs have cast uncertainty on the holding of any further joint administrative meetings with their British-American colleagues in Trieste, it was learned today.

The action paralleled the lapse in activities of the Allied Control Council in Berlin, highest organ of government in Germany, from which Soviet administrators walked out last Saturday.

Held Regular

The Yugoslavs, like the Russians, took the step in a way that left doubt as to their intentions. It remained to be seen whether there is a complete break or a temporary suspension during the tension over the British-American-French proposal to return all Trieste Free State territory to Italy.

Yesterday Yugoslav and British-American officials from the two Trieste occupation zones held one of their regular meetings at Capodistria in the Yugoslav zone to discuss administrative problems.

The Yugoslav administrators explained that many of their officials were on vacation; that they were not prepared to set a date for the next meeting, and that they would telephone the Anglo-Americans when they were ready.

The action had the effect of cutting the last remaining link of personal contact between officials of the two zones except by telephone and letter.

In Alternate Zones

The meetings, when they first started, were held every week, alternately in the Yugoslav or "B" zone, and in the Anglo-American "A" zone. More recently the officials have been meeting only every two weeks.

At these meetings they worked out minor administrative matters such as travel permits and temporary licenses to permit trade between the two zones.

The meetings in no sense are a council similar to that in Germany since they are not empowered to make decisions of policy affecting the two zones. There is no uniformity or joint action in administering the two occupation areas.

Indefinite Reply

The British and Americans said they got the cold shoulder yesterday as soon as the meeting started. Nothing was accomplished. It was the first that had been held since the announcement at Turin last Saturday that the Western powers favored scrapping the free state and giving it back to Italy.

Then the Americans raised the question received of the next meeting and the indefinite reply.

So far there has been no suggestion that the British and Americans would not be ready to continue the meetings if the Yugoslavs request it.

Yugo-Slavs Quit Zone Parley

Trieste, March 26 (AP)—The Yugoslav administration of Zone B of the Trieste Free Territory apparently has ended all personal contacts with officials of the American-British zone, it was learned today.

Missions representing the two zones met yesterday at Capodistria, but the Yugoslavs declined to set a date for another meeting.

[A similar condition developed in Berlin a week ago when the Russians walked out of the Allied Control Council and refused to set a date for a future meeting.]

The Yugoslavs said they would telephone when they are ready for another meeting.

Follows Return Decision

The session yesterday was the first since the United States, France and Great Britain proposed last week to return the 400-square-mile free territory to Italy.

American and British officials said their reception by the Yugoslavs was "frigid." No work was accomplished.

These officials said the break of personal contacts left letters, messages and telephone calls the only means of communication between the administrations of the two zones.

The conferences have been held alternately in the American-British and Yugoslav zones of the free city. At first the meetings were held weekly. More recently, they have taken place every two weeks.

The meetings worked out minor matters such as travel permits and temporary export licenses to permit trade between the zones.

Guerrillas Fire On Kilkis

Salonika, Greece, March 26 (AP). A Greek 3d Army communiqué issued here tonight said that guerrillas fired 147 mortar shells into the town of Kilkis about 25 miles north of Salonika last night.

Most of the shells failed to explode, the communiqué said, and no civilian casualties were reported. However, simultaneously with the shelling, a large number of guerrillas entered the town and captured about twenty persons. The army later drove the guerrillas out, killing seven rebels. Seven women guerrillas surrendered.

Snubbed, Rector In Prague Says

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 26 (AP)—Charles University will mark its six-hundredth anniversary April 4, and Bohumil Bydzovsky, rector, feels the school is being snubbed by some of the best people.

Months ago invitations to the anniversary went to scholars all over the world. Then came the Government crisis here, and out went the old rector, Prof. Karel English. A communistically disposed action committee went to work on the faculty and student body. The old school has become a hot spot of agitation.

World reaction set in. Some of Professor Bydzovsky's mail saddens him. Many schools have declined the Prague invitation. Some have changed their minds about previous acceptances. Others remain silent.

Benes To Present Grant

However, President Eduard Benes will present the university with a new grant. This will replace the university's charter which disappeared during the German occupation.

President Benes also will make a non-political statement in presenting the grant. It will be the President's first public statement since he addressed a meeting of Czech Legionnaires last November.

No rejections have come from the United States, Prof. Bydzovsky said, but there is no telling whether delegations which provisionally accepted invitations will actually arrive. Acceptances were received, in most cases before the Government crisis, from Princeton, Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Kentucky, Oberlin, Northwestern, Iowa, Minnesota, Duke, Washington, Columbia, Texas, Tulane, Rochester and Chicago.

Some Refuse Degrees

Indications are there will be no representatives from Britain, Switzerland, Germany or Holland. The most distant delegate will come from the University of Sydney. Belgium will be represented, and the Sorbonne plans to send four delegates.

Professor Bydzovsky says some distinguished persons have refused honorary degrees.

"We regret their attitude, but the degrees are here and will be conferred if those to whom they are awarded will come," he said.

Czechs Will Protest British Visa Refusal

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 26 (AP)—A Foreign Office spokesman said tonight that Czechoslovakia would protest British refusal to give a visa to Mrs. Magda Reinerova, Czech cultural attache.

Mrs. Reinerova, the spokesman said, normally is stationed at the Czechoslovakia embassy in London and returned to Prague in the normal course of her duties. It was said in the British House of Commons yesterday that she will not be permitted to go back to London.

Mrs. Reinerova said here that she was mystified and could not imagine how she had offended the British.

Glad Monarch Is Gone

Bucharest, Romania, March 26 (AP)—Ana Pauker, Communist Foreign Minister of Romania, today said, "We are glad to have shaken the burden of monarchy from our shoulders. Never again will we be forced to put our heads through the yoke of monarchy."

Mme. Pauker spoke at a campaign meeting before the elections for the Romanian National Assembly Sunday. Her statements were considered to mirror official reaction to the United States visit of former King Mihai.

She said that Anglo-American circles made Mihai read the speech in which he renounced his abdication.

"Shake Off For Always"

Mme. Pauker said, "Shake off for always those who come to tell you their hope that the descendant of the Hohenzollerns will return; those who frighten you every other day with talk of war; those who tell you that happiness on earth will come through one-world government—namely, that of Truman and Marshall."

Cheorghie Gheorghiu-Dej said at another campaign meeting that those who habitually listened to the "voice of the American dollar" broadcast will know that ex-King Mihai is now studying Hollywood movie offers. Gheorghiu-Dej is Minister of Trade and Commerce and secretary general of the Communist Romanian Workers party.

Military Training in Soviet.

Moscow, March 26 (A. P.).—Red Star, the Soviet Army newspaper, said today the Soviet Education Ministry will abolish military training of women in higher educational institutions April 1. Some exceptions will be made, Red Star said. These will include students in dentistry, pharmacy and telegraphy, at institutions where defense training continues.

Moscow Starts Bread Delivery

MOSCOW, March 26 (AP)—Muscovites now can have their daily bread delivered right to the door. State peddlers have been canvassing Moscow's apartments and homes taking orders and delivering white, gray or black bread.

JEWS ASK TROOPS FOR JERUSALEM

Foreign Force Urged To Protect City's Holy Places

Jerusalem, March 26 (AP)—The Jewish Agency asked today that foreign troops be sent to Jerusalem to prevent the possible bombardment and destruction of the city's holy places.

The plea was made by an agency spokesman as Jerusalem received a day-long respite from the terrors of the Arab-Jewish civil war. Not a single shot sounded in the city on this Good Friday, but at least ten Jews and Arabs were killed in Palestine.

Christians moved in prayer along the route Christ followed from condemnation to Calvary. They stood with bowed heads in ancient streets commanded by smoke-blackened gun positions. At each station of the cross Arab guards stood at attention while prayers were said.

Warns The World

The agency spokesman suggested that 10,000 Danish and Norwegian troops be sent from northern Germany to garrison Jerusalem when the British mandate ends May 15. He explained that the Jews are not insisting that those particular troops be used and said it was up to the United Nations to determine what military units should be sent here.

"If something of this sort is done it will insure that Jerusalem at least will be taken out of the conflict area, no matter what measures may or may not be taken in respect to other Palestine areas," the spokesman said.

"It is our duty to warn the world what may happen in Jerusalem through no fault of the Jews if something is not done soon."

Plans For Jewish Militia

If carried out the United Nations partition decision would establish the Jersualem area as an international zone. Pointing out that the Jewish militia was not required to defend the city, the spokesman said:

"The actual position is that neither the United Nations nor the governments who four months ago were concerned about its (Jerusalem's) sacred character have lifted a finger to do anything. . . .

"To our knowledge the Arabs drew up elaborate plans to cut off and isolate Jerusalem and establish military control over it. For the time being we are witnessing the initial stages of this plan which is to come to full operation after the British withdrawal.

Arab Activity Continues

"We for our part have of necessity been elaborating a counter plan to defend the 100,000 Jews living here and keep our lifeline open to the coastal plain.

"Should under such conditions further disorders, mutual bombardment or street fighting result, there is no guarantee possible for the protection of any life and property or for the immunization of holy places here although the Jews would be most anxious to respect holy places."

The agency's proposal has been submitted to the United Nations Palestine commission.

While the Jews were issuing this warning, Arab activity threatening the encirclement of Jerusalem continued. British troops were sent into the Bab el Wad area, west of Jerusalem. Their mission was to halt Arab attacks on Jewish convoys between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv in which the British reported twelve Jews killed.

A Five-Hour Battle

Police and troops also headed for Shefat village, where an Arab road block was reported barring the highway between Jerusalem and Neve Jacoov, 6 miles to the north. The area has been under Arab attack for a week. Jews said the Arab suffered seven casualties from a mine field surrounding the Jewish stronghold.

Six Jews and four Arabs were officially reported killed today in scattered incidents in Palestine. Unofficial casualty figures put the toll much higher.

Haganah, the Jewish militia, said Arabs attacking a Jewish convoy on the Haifa-Jordan Valley road were dispersed after a five-hour battle. This account said ten Arabs were killed. Two British soldiers were injured when the engine and two cars of a train were derailed by a mine east of Tel Aviv.

Mine Explodes Under Convoy

An unidentified aircraft dropped bundles on Neve Jacoov. Apparently the Jews were supplying their beseiged forces there by air.

Two Jews were known to have been killed when a mine exploded under a convoy near Barbara, a village in the Gaza district in southern Palestine. A Jewish armored car was immobilized. Arabs said twelve Jews were killed. The Jews said six Arabs were killed. The main Gaza-Jaffa road was made impassable.

A Jerusalem telephone trunk line was damaged by a mine blast near Jaffa.

Arabs Watch Europeans

The unofficial death count since the United Nations voted for partition November 29 reached 2,080.

Less than 1,000 Christian Arabs and a handful of Europeans were in the Good Friday procession. The pilgrims of former years did not come to Jerusalem this time.

Europeans who entered the old city through Jaffa gate, the scene of several Arab-Jewish clashes, did so under the watchful eyes of Arab sentries.

Jews celebrated Purim, commemorating their ancient liberation from the Persians. They did not forget the strife of the present. In one synagogue a uniformed member of the Jewish militia was given the place of honor next to the reader.

Attempt To Halt Attacks

Jerusalem, March 26 (AP)—British troops, moving into the Bab el Wad area today in an attempt to halt Arab attacks on Jewish convoys, were reported to have found sixteen bodies of Jews killed in Wednesday's attack. Haganah, the Jewish militia, denied, this, as it denied previous reports that twelve Jews were killed. Later the Army issued a statement saying the report of sixteen bodies was incorrect, but giving no other figures. Arab sources, meanwhile, said "we have 80 Jewish bodies" from the fight.

Police and troops headed for Shefat village, where an Arab roadblock was reported barring the road between Jerusalem and Neve Jacoov, 6 miles to the north. The area has been under Arab attack for a week.

An explosion was heard in Neve Yacoov this morning.

Arabs attacked a Lydda airport convoy near Ramle and police returned the fire.

DAY

Worry At Home

A British authority questioned whether Denmark and Norway would be willing to send troops to the Middle East at a time of worry at home. Britain plans to give up the League of Nations mandate over Palestine May 15, and to move all British troops from Palestine by August 1. Evacuation operations are already under way.

The Jewish Agency proposal has been forwarded to the United Nations, an agency spokesman said.

The agency, official organization of Palestine Jews, suggested that some sort of protection was needed "to guarantee life and property here (in Jerusalem) and to safeguard holy places of all religions."

Out Of Conflict Area

"If something of this sort is done it will insure that Jerusalem, at least, will be taken out of the conflict area, no matter what measures may or may not be taken in respect to other Palestine areas," an agency spokesman said.

"It is our duty to warn the world what may happen in Jerusalem through no fault of the Jews if something is not done soon."

Evidently the agency intends that any troops sent should have authority to maintain order and protect food supplies and public services.

Jews Urge U.N. to Rush Troops

Agency Suggests Scandinavian Force of 10,000 Be Sent to Guard Jerusalem.

London, March 26 (A P)—The Jewish Agency for Palestine urged the United Nations today to rush troops to Jerusalem to prevent the Holy City from becoming a battleground, when the British relinquish control.

The agency sugested that some 10,000 Danish and Norwegian troops now co-operating with Allied occupation forces in northern Germany could be sent to the planned international City of Jerusalem. But a spokesman in Jerusalem added:

"We are not wedded to the idea of using these particular troops. It is not our responsibility, but for the United Nations to determine which troops should be sent here."

Denmark and Norway each have roughly the equivalent of an American regimental combat team in the British zone of Germany. It is understood each group is made up of about 3,000 to 4,000 men. The groups include infantry, artillery, armored forces, medical and supply units.

Jerusalem, March 26 (AP)—Arab guns guarded the Way of Sorrows today—the path Christ is believed to have walked to His crucifixion.

Gun snouts poked out of battle positions in the Old City as crowds stood in prayer at each station of Christ's journey to Calvary.

An Arab volunteer army guard of honor preceded the procession of less than 1,000, mostly Arab Christians, and Arab tommy-gunners stood at attention at each station while the prayers were recited.

Archbishop Officiated

Archbishop Arthur Hughes, internuncio of the Roman Catholic Church at Cairo, conducted the prayers, assisted by Msgr. Francis Laval, of France, and Msgr. Jose Monpero, of Spain.

Europeans who entered the city through Jaffa Gate, where battle between Arabs and Jews has been deadly, did so under the watchful eyes of Arab sentries. They wanted to make sure none was Jewish.

Guns Were Silent

The pilgrims of former years did not come to Jerusalem this Good Friday.

Old City guns, which have roared out almost constantly since the Jews and Arabs began fighting over the partitioning of Palestine last fall, were silent today. But tension remained in the air.

The annual procession started from the point where the Bible says Pontius Pilate delivered Christ to the mob and then washed his hands—a symbol he was quit of the case.

From this place robed priests led the crowd along the way of the Cross—where Christ took up the Cross, where He fell, where He met His mother—the long path to Calvary.

Sepulchre Ceremoney

Later in the day, if the guns stay quiet, ceremonies will be held in the Holy Sepulchre.

A brief ceremony took place in the Holy Sepulchre this morning when Msgr. Jallad entered the Basilica. He did so after a Moslem group on guard edged away from the door.

Jews celebrated Purim, commemorating their ancient liberation from the Persians.

But they did not forget today's strife.

In one synagogue a grim-faced member of Haganah, the Jewish militia, was given the place of honor next to the reader.

Palestine Is Cool To Truman's Plea

J.C. GOODWIN

Jerusalem, March 26 (AP)—"All this talk in America does not seem to be getting us anywhere."

That was the reaction of a Jerusalem man-in-the-street to President Truman's plea yesterday for an Arab-Jewish truce in Palestine.

Holy Land Arabs and Jews with official connections stuck to their old claims: For the Arabs, a unified independent Palestine, in which Arabs would be the majority. For the Jews, a partitioned Palestine giving them a state of their own.

Favors Vote For All

"We want a democratic Arab government with all Palestinians—that includes Jews—given an equal right to vote . . . ," said an Arab lawyer linked with the Palestine Arab Higher Committee, whose leaders were in Beirut, Lebanon. "We must fight until partition and Zionism are dead."

Arabs outnumber Jews about two to one in this country.

"We did not attack and we are not interested in continuing the civil war, but there can be no truce until we are assured of the realization of our rights which were recognized by the United Nations," said a spokesman for the Jewish Agency.

Peace Is Sought

By those rights he meant the recommendations of partition voted last November 29 by the United Nations General Assembly.

In Lake Success, N.Y., Faris el Khoury, of Syria, top Arab spokesman at the United Nations, said he believed the Arabs would be ready to avoid any step to disturb the peace if the Jews would drop partition.

There too, a spokesman for Dr.

MAR 1948 30.24- 16543

Abba Hillel Silver, chairman of the Jewish Agency's American section, pointed out Silver had told the Security Council partition is the least the Jews will accept.

Shortly before news of the President's statement reached Cairo, Dr. Yacoub el Khoury, press officer of the Palestine Arab Higher Committee, said there, "the only thing that will stop fighting will be creation of an Arab state in Palestine.

Assad Dagher, press officer of the Arab League, said in Cairo the league is sure to turn down a United Nations trusteeship over the Holy Land such as the United States has proposed. Jews already have rejected trusteeship.

Ready To Fight Outsiders

Cairo, March 26 (AP)—Dr. Yacoub Khoury, official spokesman of the Palestine Arab Higher Committee, said today that Arabs would "fight any foreign force that enters Palestine."

His statement was prompted by the Jewish Agency proposal for transfer of 10,000 Danish and Norwegian troops to protect holy places in Jerusalem.

Khoury also recalled that "leaders of the Arab countries have stated that their regular troops will enter Palestine if any foreign force lands there."

15,000 In Norwegian Army

"The means to stop battles in the Holy Land is the complete destruction of Zionism," he asserted. "The Arabs always were and will remain guardians of the holy places. . . . The Arabs' struggle is not based on race or religion, as that of Zionism. It is based on patriotism and nationalism."

[Top ranking Norwegian Government officials were not available in Oslo for comment on the Jewish Agency proposal. It was generally believed in the Norwegian capital, however, that the Jewish Agency's suggestion would not be accepted.

[Norwegian occupation forces in Germany amount to only about 4,000 men, it was said in Oslo. The entire Norwegian army numbers about 15,000 men. The Danish force in northern Germany is about the same size as the Norwegian.

Danish Frontier Watched

[Premier Hans Hedtoft of Denmark and other officials in Copenhagen declined to make any comment on the Jewish suggestion. It was considered unlikely in Copenhagen, however, that Danish authorities would consider moving crack Danish troops now in Germany farther away from the homeland at present.

[Lieut. Col. M. Dall, in the current issue of the official newspaper of the Danish brigade in Germany, declares the Danish force should be moved nearer the Danish frontier to guard against possible invasion. His view was in print before the Jewish suggestion was voiced but it suggested the probable Danish military reaction.]

U.S. Partition Shift Is Laid To 'Oil'

Moscow, March 26 (AP)—Red Fleet said today America's shift on partition of Palestine proves the United States is "on the road of violation of its international obligations."

"In spite of the fact the decision on Palestine partition was accepted with the participation of American representatives of the United Nations, this does not prevent them from destroying their own decisions when it's a matter of the narrow, selfish interests of American monopolies," the Soviet navy paper commented.

It claimed the United States change of heart was motivated by American oil interests.

UN MAY REJECT AMERICAN PLAN FOR PALESTINE

L. HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, March 26—(AP) Despite President Truman's appeal, doubts were expressed today that the United Nations would accept the new American proposal for settling the Palestine problem.

Both Jews and Arabs are opposed to the truce-and-trusteeship scheme The Soviet bloc and some smaller countries, including several Latin American republics, are reported ready to fight any move to sidetrack the partition plan.

One American hope rested in Delegate Warren R. Austin doing a lot of explaining and convincing before and during the next security council meeting Tuesday.

Case Is Studied

The American delegation here said it had received no instructions from Washington and closed up late today for the Easter week-end. However, it was understood that the State department was discussing the situation with several countries through embassy channels.

Commenting on the American proposal, as amplified yesterday by President Truman in his news conference, a person close to the top Jewish Agency officials said:

"This means nothing will be done and the Jews and Arabs will fight it out."

Delegate Aris El Khoury of Syria, chief Arab spokesman here, said:

"As long as Mr. Truman says it (the plan) will not replace partition, the Arabs are not ready to accept the plan or any part of it."

The American plan is now divided into four parts:

1. A truce: The Jews won't accept unless it is instituted specifically to enforce partition; the Arabs won't accept unless partition is dropped.

2. Special session of UN general assembly: Opponents want no such extraordinary meeting unless a plan is advanced which could stop the fighting. The Soviet and Arab blocs are against the session, which makes it doubtful that the necessary votes can be gotten. Approval of seven of the 11 security council members would be enough, but Russia could veto. In a direct roll-call of the 57 members on calling a special session, a majority is needed.

3. Interim UN trusteeship: Without enforcement provisions, this section of the plan has mustered little enthusiasm.

4. Cease-work orders to the UN Palestine Partition Commission; the commission holds it was created by the general assembly and can be instructed only by the assembly. The U. S. wants the council to issue the order.

Meanwhile, seven weeks from tomorrow, the British plan to give up their mandate rule over the embattled Holy Land. Unless the UN acts there will be no official government.

Truman Presses Palestine Proposals

Washington, March 26 (AP)—President Truman tackled the problem of peace in Palestine on a wide diplomatic front today.

Officials predicted that if American efforts to arrange an Arab-Jewish truce are not successful, the Holy Land will become an embattled "No-Man's Land" when the British give up their mandate there May 15.

Wholesale bloodshed—what Mr. Truman himself called open warfare—is foreseen unless decisive action is taken along two lines.

These were laid down by the President in a statement yesterday. He called for the creation of a United Nations' trusteeship to assume authority temporarily when the British leave, and for a truce, meanwhile, to put an end to the killing.

Wide Diplomacy Needed

Officials said that all the resources of diplomacy must be employed with the Jewish and Arab leaders directly, as well as with their representatives at the United Nations, to make the President's double-harness program effective.

Admittedly, these authorities said, prospects for success are not too bright. Initial reaction of both Jews and Arabs has been unfavorable in many respects to the negotiation of a truce.

In Washington, the Arab office issued a statement calling Mr. Truman's proposal "fantastic" and denouncing the President's comment that he has not abandoned support for the partition idea.

Jewish Views Conflict

Officials say that, while Jewish leaders firmly insist on partition, they have talked increasingly about the problem of economic union between the Jewish and Arab states proposed by the United Nations partition plan.

Arab leaders, on the other hand, are reported to be interested in a federated Palestine of Jewish and Arab states.

And American officials feel that if enough practical points of agreement can be found between the economic union idea and the federal Palestine plan, some basis for negotiations may be worked out.

Service To Palestine Limited To Airmail

Washington, March 26 (AP)—The Post Office Department late today suspended all postal service to Palestine except for airmail.

The department said it acted at the request of authorities in Palestine. Presumably, the request was due to the current confused situation in that country.

The department previously had stopped shipment of United States insured parcel-post packages to Palestine for the time being. It also had halted money orders addressed to residents of Palestine.

Mail for Palestine which has not cleared through the New York Post Office this afternoon will be returned to the senders unless it is airmail.

Department officials said they assumed that mail now on shipboard will be delivered.

There was no indication of how long the restrictions will continue.

Two Killed, Many Hurt In Hindu-Moslem Riot

Bombay, India, March 26 (AP)—Police bullets killed two persons during a Hindu-Moslem riot yesterday at Godhra, 250 miles north of Bombay, The Times of India reported today. It was the first such clash in western India since the funeral of Mohandas K. Gandhi.

Nine persons suffered stab wounds. Two policemen were reported in critical condition.

The clash occurred during a Hindu observance of a spring festival. A Government spokesman said the situation appeared to be improving today.

MILITARY EQUIPMENT ARRIVES IN TURKEY

ISTANBUL, March 26—(AP) The U. S. Victory ship Joe E. Mann, carrying 1,600 tons of military equipment for Turkey, arrived today.

The ship was the second to arrive with war supplies from the United States in as many days. A third is expected perhaps tomorrow. The Joe E. Mann was loaded with tanks, jeeps, trucks, transport equipment and radio and electrical supplies.

The ship docked shortly after 16 medium bombers swept across Istanbul en route to Ankara in the second delivery of American planes to Turkey. Twelve similar planes arrived last week.

Malay Navy Reserve To Be Reconstituted

Singapore, March 26 (AP)—An official announcement yesterday said the Malayan Royal Naval Reserve will be reconstituted as the first line reserve for the projected Malayan Navy.

[Due to a transmission error yesterday, the original dispatch quoted the announcement incorrectly as saying the reserve would be reconstituted as the regular navy, rather than as the first line reserve.]

The former Japanese minelayer Wakataka will be depot headquarters ship. A former British patrol launch and a British fishing vessel will be assigned.

COMMUNISTS MAKE STRONG YENAN BID

Chinese Government Concedes City Is Nearly Surrounded

Nanking, March 26 (AP)—Chinese Communists are making a strong bid for the face-regaining capture of their old headquarters city of Yenan, military observers said today.

Yenan, isolated cave city in Shensi province, was taken by Government troops March 19, 1947. It was a blow more damaging to Communist pride than to military prospects.

Hope To Embarrass Assembly

Latest pro-Government dispatches from that area today said Yenan was now practically surrounded by Communists, and that Lochwan, 65 miles south on the main access road, was encircled.

[The Communist radio, broadcasting from North Shensi, said recovery of Yenan was near and boasted that 100,000 Government troops had been "wiped out" in that area during the last year.]

This and other Communist offensives were seen in Nanking as timed to embarrass as much as possible the opening of the National Assembly, scheduled for March 29.

Special Guard For Railway

In Shantung province, the Government used planes to supply the besieged garrison at Wiehsien, key railway position at the neck of the peninsula.

Another pro-Government report said armored cars were being used to stem a Communist attack near Hungtsehu, 100 miles northwest of Nanking.

Official sources confirmed that special precautions were being taken to guard the busy Shanghai-Nanking railway over which many Assembly delegates will travel.

There was no new word of fighting in Manchuria and Inner Mongolia. (The Communists broadcast that their Inner Mongolian offensive was continuing strongly, and that Fengchen, 28 miles north of Tatung, had fallen.)

Says China "Is Left Alone"

Nanking, March 26 (AP)—China "is left alone to guard the ramparts of liberty in the Far East while the United States devotes primary attention to the situation in Europe," Wang Shih-chieh, Foreign Minister, was quoted as declaring tonight.

Wang spoke at a farewell reception for the People's Political Council, which will be superseded with the scheduled opening of the National Assembly Monday.

Persons who attended said Wang told them also that China faces "the most critical period in her entire history."

They said he advised relations with Russia "must be handled with utmost care."

Asked why China did not insist on taking over in Soviet-occupied Darien and Port Arthur, he replied, "it is a question of military strength," those present declared.

Body Of Princess Claimed

Peiping, March 26 (AP)—Oko Furukawa, who said he was a Japanese priest, today claimed the body of Princess Yoshiko Kawashima, executed yesterday as a pro-Japanese spy.

He said the body of the high-born Manchu woman would be cremated and the ashes sent to her Japanese foster father in Tokyo.

Hiroshima Clear Of Atom Rays

Tokyo, March 26 (AP)—Dangerous radioactivity—such as that which lingered on atomic-bombed ships in Bikini atoll—was lacking completely at Hiroshima, an army physician said today.

This, explained Lieut. Col. Carl F. Tessmer, was because the atom bombs burst in the sky at both Hiroshima and Nagasaki. So did the one used in the first test at Bikini. But the second bomb at Bikini was exploded under water—and the radioactivity remained in the salt water some time.

Tessmer's explanation was in amplification of an interview given yesterday by Dr. Philip Owen, executive director of the Atomic Bomb Casualty Commission. Tessmer is director of the commission, which is making a long-range field study of the effects of the Hiroshima blast.

No Residual Radioactivity

They agree there is no evidence of any new damage at Hiroshima since the split second of the blast. By this they mean there is no residual radioactivity to injure anyone not exposed to the original explosion.

"About the best way to explain the difference between Hiroshima and Bikini to the average layman is to say simply that the (second) Bikini blast was under water," Tessmer said. "I'm speaking in generalities."

He said shipping in Hiroshima harbor did not become radioactive, nor was drinking water affected.

Dissipated By Winds

The atomic bomb burst 1,800 feet above Hiroshima. Tessmer said the resulting fission products were dissipated quickly by winds.

In the Bikini underwater blast, however, the fission products were trapped in the water.

"For simplicity's sake," said Tessmer, "let's say a sort of scum formed on the ships. This contained the radioactive fission products. They became residual in those ships."

Bikini Ships Scuttled

He added that the Bikini target ships were being scuttled because the residual radioactivity would have remained too long.

The battleship Pennsylvania and a number of destroyers were among such ships scuttled.

Red Threat To Japs Possible, Draper Says

Tokyo, March 26 (AP)—Under Secretary of the Army William Draper said today there is a "possibility" that Japan might be drawn into the economic orbit of a Communist-controlled Asia.

He declined to say, however, whether the Communist threat was among the reasons for the proposed stimulation of American aid for Japan's economic recovery.

Draper told a news conference that the $180,000,000 economic program for Japan, now before Congress, was "developed basically on the same principles as the European Recovery Program, but not on the same scale."

500 Million Yearly Maximum

If the proposed separate recovery program passes Congress, he added, the maximum the Japanese could expect in any one year would be $580,000,000. In addition, $210,000,000 in proposed cotton credits and private loans are under discussion in Washington.

The chief of the special economic mission to Japan said that between $300,000,000 and $400,000,000 in military appropriations for the next fiscal year would be earmarked for Japan for the "prevention of the disease of unrest." Thereafter these appropriations would be "on a descending scale."

He said the mission is studying foreign-trade outlets and the integration of Japanese recovery with the rest of Asia.

New Industrial Chief Arrives In Tokyo

Tokyo, March 26 (AP)—William S. Vaughan, of Washington, arrived today to become chief of allied headquarters' industrial division. He replaces Joseph Z. Redac, of Alexandria, Va., resigned.

Vaughan had been industrial adviser to the Italian Government since 1946. He formerly was associated with the Permutit Company, of New York.

SOUTH KOREANS ASKED BY REDS TO AID IN REGIME

SEOUL, Korea, March 26—(AP) The Soviet-sponsored North Korean regime today invited rightists and other dissidents in the American zone to come north and help create a government for all Korea on April 14.

Kimm Kyu Sik, one of the group included in the broad bid, immediately said he would like to go.

He disclosed that he and Kim Koo, more extreme rightist, had written a letter in February proposing such a conference to North Koreans and to the Soviet commandant, Lt. Gen. G. P. Korotkov.

Change of Front

(The sudden wooing of rightists and other non-communist elements is a remarkable change of front by the Soviets. Korea has remained divided and occupied ever since the end of the war because the Russians refused to consult any except extreme leftist or communist Koreans.

(The maneuver evidently was shrewdly calculated to make the most of recent events.)

The invitation was addressed specifically to Kim Koo, chairman of the rightist Korean Independence Party, and to other rightist and middle-of-the-road groups who oppose the American plan for a South Korean election May 9.

It included leaders of the communist-dominated South Korean Labor Party and South Korean People's Front.

It was broadcast at least three times in the name of the socalled North Korean people's committee. (This is the Soviet puppet organization which had announced it was establishing a government—complete with hammer and sickle flag—intended to rule all Korea. As in other parts of the world, Russians themselves took no ostensible role.)

Kimm Koo and Kimm Kyu Sik, along with other assorted politicians of many complexions, have opposed the American election plan on grounds it might result in permanent division of Korea. Kimm Kyu Sik resigned as chairman of the American-sponsored South Korean legislature because of it.

Would Accept Bid

Kimm Koo was not available for comment on the broadcast from Pyongyang, Soviet headquarters. Kim Kyu Sik, however, said that if officially invited to Pyongyang he would go "to see what they are up to."

He added, "I don't know yet whether their plan is good, bad or indifferent."

(There was no word on the attitude of American occupation authorities toward such a trip or on the propriety of his letter to the Soviet commander.)

The Pyongyang radio previously announced that only the formal adoption of a constitution remains for creation of the Soviet-sponsored "democratic people's republic of Korea."

Final action was first set for mid-March, but was recently postponed until Mid-April.

When American-Soviet joint efforts to establish a unified Korean government broke down, the United States handed the case to the United Nations.

U.N. Commission Barred

The Russians refused to let a United Nations commission enter their occupation zone north of the thirty-eighth parallel of latitude. Instead, the Pyongyang radio announced the unilateral plans for a government to rule all Korea.

Then Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge, American zone commandant, called an election for May 9 to decide on a Korean form of government. It was so worded as to cover all Korea, but obviously could be effective only in the American zone.

The United Nations commission has voted to observe this election, despite protests by the Canadian and Australian members, who contended the commission was not so empowered. They also expressed belief that Rightists, despite strong anti-Communist sentiments, would boycott the American election and that it would not be representative even in the southern zone.

Korea Rightists Get Parley Bid From Russ

Seoul, Korea, March 26 (AP)—The Russian-controlled regime of North Korea today invited Rightists and middle-roaders in the American occupation zone to help establish a Soviet-sponsored government for all Korea April 14.

The invitation, repeatedly broadcast from Pyongyang, Soviet occupation headquarters, was extended to South Korean political leaders of whatever stripe who oppose American plans for a South Korean election May 9. Communists and Leftists were included.

The broadcasts were in the name of the so-called People's Committee of North Korea (the Soviet puppet setup).

Shift In Tactics

[The bid to Rightists looked like a major shift of tactics by the Russians. The two-year stalemate and final collapse of American-Russian efforts to unify Korea stemmed from Russian insistence on consulting only Communist and Leftist Koreans.

[The United States handed the problem to the United Nations, but the Russians boycotted a United Nations commission and refused even to let it enter North Korea for preliminary discussions.

[The United Nations commission as a last resort broadcast two months ago invitations to any North Koreans to come to Seoul or send their views on how to form a unified government. The appeal was ignored.

U.S. Sets Election

[The American commandant, Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge, then called an election for May 9. The call was worded to cover all Korea, but obviously can apply only to the American occupation zone. The United Nations commission decided to observe the election.

[Fearing such a step would irrevocably split Korea, many South Korean leaders have opposed it.

[Now, working through their North Korean puppets, the Russians are appealing to these dissidents. They are taking a leaf right out of the United Nations commission's book—a radio invitation to people they cannot reach directly.]

Three times today, the Pyongyang radio broadcast its invitation to South Korea. The invitation was attributed to the People's Committee of North Korea, which recently announced preparations to set up a Soviet-sponsored North Korean Government—complete with a red star and hammer flag, and an army.

Kim Koo Invited

The invitation was extended specifically to Kim Koo, chairman of the Korean Independence party, and to other groups.

The only step remaining in the creation of a Soviet-sponsored "Democratic Peoples Republic of Korea" is the adoption of a constitution. That has been under discussion in North Korea several weeks. Final consideration was postponed recently from mid-March to mid-April.

30.24- 16545

No Comment

Kim Koo was unavailable for comment on the broadcast.

Kimm Kiu-sic, Liberal party leader, said he did not hear the broadcast but would attend the meeting if invited officially "to see what they are up to."

He and Kim Koo wrote a joint letter to North Korean political leaders and the Soviet occupation commander in February proposing a conference to consider establishing a unified government.

Korea May Ask U. S. to Stay

WASHINGTON, March 27 (AP).—Although Korea is supposed to have an independent government after May 9, Koreans here may ask the United States to leave its troops in southern Korea. The United Nations has issued an order for Korea to elect a national assembly on May 9. The U. N. said this assembly should set up a government and arrange for occupying troops—Americans in the south and Russians in the north—to get out.

But the Russians have refused to permit elections in their area and may refuse to pull out troops.

The United States government has not said whether the Americans will leave if the Russians do not. But Koreans here have said that they want the Americans to stay as long as the Russians do.

AWARDS DIPLOMAS TO SLAIN CLASS

Manila, March 26 (A. P.).—Seventeen members of the 1942 class of the Philippine Military Academy were awarded diplomas in Baguio this week—but only tearful relatives were there to receive them.

The entire class is dead—killed in action on Bataan or in guerrilla fighting, or perished in Japanese prison camps.

To Run on Pro-U. S. Policy

MANILA, March 27 (AP).—President Manuel Roxas will lean heavily on his pro-American policies in the 1949 Presidential campaign. His rincipal opponent, war-time puppet President Dr. Jose P. Laurel, will tell Filipinos that they are bound hand and foot to the United States by economic and military ties despite political independence.

CHINA AID PLAN IS RECOMMENDED BY SENATE GROUP

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP) A $463,000,000 Chinese aid program was formally recommended to the Senate today by the Foreign Relations Committee in a report which said that China's independence is "clearly one of the essential elements of peace in the Far East."

While the committee acknowledged that the United States "cannot underwrite the destiny of China", it proposed extending the Chinese a chance to undertake "a vigorous program of self-help."

The $463,000,000 authorization would cover a full year's aid. The senate is slated to consider it next Wednesday.

House Also Studies Aid

The House also is considering assistance for China. A $570,000,000 fifteen-months program is wrapped up in the $6,205,000,000 "one-package" world aid bill there.

The bill recommended by the senate committee includes a $100,000,000 item for use by Chiang Kai-shek's nationalist government as it sees fit. Some of the money presumably would be used to purchase arms and ammunition. The committee said the United States will continue to furnish military advisers to Chiang's government.

The senate committee in explaining its decisions, said "unfavorable factors presently outweigh the favorable" in China.

It said the "favorable factors" include:

1. Reasonable self-sufficiency in food and raw materials.
2. A large and valuable labor pool
3. Sentiment favoring a democratic system of government.
4. A "great record" in constructive civilization.

Against those points it placed these "unfavorable" factors:

1. China's economy and prospects have been marred by eight years of war with Japan and the current civil war.
2. "Ineptitude in military leadership and corruption among army commanders" has contributed to lowered morale of troops.
3. Failure by China to develop a favorable balance of trade.
4. "Lack of popular confidence in the Chinese government."

China's Problems Cited

The committee referred also to inflation in China, shortage of food-stuffs and high expenditures caused by the military costs of the civil war, then added:

"China has so drained her official foreign exchange holdings that she will soon be unable to procure essential imports needed for the continuation of her basic civilian economy.

"Valuable resources, such as coal and the foodstuffs of the rural areas, are under communist control. The announced purpose of the Chinese communists is to engineer economic collapse in China."

Senator Bridges (R-NH) announced yesterday that he will seek to broaden the provisions for military assistance. Instead of the $100,000,000 fund to be used as the Chinese government saw fit, Bridges proposed amending the bill to authorize $150,000,000 in direct military aid.

U. S. CIGARETTES GOING TO ITALY

Washington, March 26 (A. P.).—The State Department said today it is tentatively planning to send 1,860,000 packs of American cigarettes to Italy as "an incentive" for increased production.

In announcing this, Press Officer Michael McDermott emphatically denied a published report that fifty tons of cigarettes will be flown to Italy in an effort to influence the Italian elections, April 18. He said the cigarettes could not arrive before the end of April at the earliest. They will go by boat, providing the State Department decides cigarettes are needed as a spur to increased output by Italian industry.

About 360,000 packs have been ordered for shipment to Sardinia, McDermott said. The remaining 1,500,000 packs would be shipped to the Italian mainland. He emphasized that the department has not yet decided which phases of Italian production need incentive goods. Congress authorized the administration to spend part of the $522,000,000 in relief funds for incentive goods if it felt such steps necessary.

McDermott said the department is considering spending no more than $100,000 for cigarettes to Italy. Italy's share of the relief funds amounts to around $150,000,000.

Arnold Suggests Stop-Reds Plan

Sonoma, Cal., March 26 (AP)—Gen. H. H. (Hap) Arnold today called for a union of democracies strongly backed by air, sea and land power to stop communism's world advance.

"Some nations respect only force and power. Russia is just such a nation," Arnold wrote in his weekly column in the Sonoma Index-Tribune. The wartime chief of the Air Forces retired to a ranch here.

"Get a union of democratic nations with the common purpose of stopping the advance of communism—and if that union were backed by the mightiest air force in the world; by armies and navies that matched the Russian armies and navies, but with superior equipment, then were such a federation to say to Russia: 'There is the line over which you shall not step,' she would then understand what we meant, for we would be talking her language."

"Pinch Begins To Hurt"

Arnold began his column with: "Personally I do not believe war is just around the corner, nor do I believe Russia wants war; nor do I believe Russia is ready for war.

"I do believe that Russia will go just as far as she can—short of war."

The general said democracies are always the most optimistic of all forms of government—"nothing bothers them until it hurts. We are much in that situation right now."

Arnold said Russia "undoubtedly has carefully prepared plans for her aggressive tactics, plans for taking over continental Europe, and perhaps the world.

Aid Plan "Won't Stop Reds"

"The Russian forward movement may well be compared to the drive of a steamroller. The only way to stop such merciless subjugations is to remove the impetus that keeps the machinery turning."

Of the Marshall plan, he wrote: "Undoubtedly, the plan will do wonders, but it will not stop the Red forward movement."

He said the United Nations was impotent and that speeches will not cause Norway and Sweeden to stiffen against the large Red army and Red air force.

Suggests Course

He concluded:

"If it were known that the United States long-range bombers had full access to the airports in Iceland, Greenland and the Azores, the Scandinavian countries or northeast Africa, that we were stocking atomic bombs at points quite accessible to those airports, the Russians in Moscow would do a lot of thinking. It is even quite possible they would change their ideas of overrunning Europe."

Papanek Refuses Files To Prague Successor

New York, March 26 (AP)—Dr. Jan Papanek, ousted anti-Communist Czechoslovakia delegate to the United Nations, said tonight he refuses to turn over official files to his Prague-named successor.

Dr. Papanek said the lease expires on his Upper Broadway offices April 1 and that he is taking smaller quarters in the same building. He said he is retaining all records.

A spokesman said Dr. Vladimir Houdek, the new delegate, would establish the "official delegation headquarters" across the street in the Czechoslovak Consulate on Wednesday. The spokesman added that in the view of the Prague Communist Government the "Papanek office" does not exist because Papanek was fired.

Papanek said he did not know who would pay his rent after April 1. If necessary he said he would dip into his personal funds.

U.N. Takes Holiday

Lake Success, March 26 (AP)—United Nations delegates and officials took an Easter breather today. No important meetings are scheduled until Monday.

Marshall Off Tomorrow For Bogota Conference

Washington, March 26 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, plans to leave Sunday night for Bogota, Colombia, to attend the Inter-American Conference. He will head the United States delegation there.

The State Department said today Marshall will leave by plane about 9 P.M. He is scheduled to stop in Florida to pick up W. Averell Harriman, Secretary of Commerce.

Norman Armour, Assistant Secretary of State, and others will leave for Bogota tomorrow night in two planes. The delegation will number about 50.

GEN. MEYERS' PLEA FOR BAIL DENIED

WASHINGTON, March 26—(AP) The court of appeals today rejected the application of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers for release on bail pending appeal of his conviction on charges of persuading an associate to lie to a Senate committee.

Meyers was sent to district jail last week after District Court Justice Alexander Holtzoff sentenced him to serve 20 months to five years.

The court of appeals' rejection of the bail application was by divided vote of two to one.

DRAFT LAW AT PRESENT IS DOUBTED

'If' Legislation Held More Likely By Many House Members

Washington, March 26 (AP)—Draft-age men needn't put their affairs in order and get ready for the long march past the physical examiners just yet.

Most senators here over the Easter holiday declared themselves in favor of a draft for single non-veterans between 19 and 26.

But many House members, probably a majority, showed no willingness to order anybody inducted in the near future despite the high command's new call for at least 200,000 young men.

Private speculation on the House side of the Capitol was that an "if" draft was more likely to be adopted. That is, some 3,000,000 men might be registered but not put into uniform unless an emergency developed.

Would Eliminate Draft Voting

Corridor talk was that this would show Russia, named by several defense chiefs yesterday as a potential enemy, that the United States is ready to get tough if the occasion calls for it.

At the same time, it would spare congressmen from voting anybody into the armed forces while an election is in the offing.

Sentiment in both houses appeared stronger for a draft, or at least the "if" draft, than for universal military training, said by the defense heads to be needed if we are to have a trained reserve.

Reaction was swift and generally favorable to the newly proposed expansion of our Air Force. Many legislators said the armed forces weren't asking enough.

$4,000,000,000 Asked Originally

House Speaker Martin (R., Mass.) said Congress "will appropriate more than the President originally requested for the Air Force in order to build up the strongest and most efficient air force in the world."

Mr. Truman asked about $4,000,000,000 for military aviation in his January budget message. The $3,000,000,000 armed forces expansion proposed by defense chiefs yesterday added another $775,000,000 for air.

This is based on a 55-group Air Force, although postwar blueprints for air defense called for 70 groups—and Gen. Carl Spaatz, Air Force chief, testified yesterday that all 70 are needed. Presidential and congressional air policy boards have said the same.

Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) served notice today that he intends to find out why we don't have 70 groups. "It certainly isn't because the international situation is easier," Lodge told a reporter.

Wants Increase To 1,915,000

Besides the draft, universal military training and an expanded Air Force, James V. Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, called yesterday for increasing the strength of the armed forces to 1,915,000, including the force needed to run U.M.T.

"I'm going to support the whole program," Senator Hatch (D., N.M.) told a reporter. "I think the draft probably has a better chance for approval than U.M.T. but I'm certain Congress is in a frame of mind to do whatever is required."

"I'm going to give all this a lot of study before I make up my mind," said Senator Ball (R., Minn.).

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) commented: "Only one man knows if we are going to be successful in stopping war and he is Joe Stalin. I think Congress will pass the necessary measures. There is no retreat."

Says Both Are Needed

The chairman of the Armed Service Committee, Senator Gurney (R., S.D.), said both the draft and U.M.T. are needed. "Without U.M.T. to provide a trained reserve, we might have selective service saddled on us as long as Russia maintains critical world conditions," he said.

Gurney added, however, that he will not join the demand for a larger Air Force "until we have recommendations from our military and naval experts that this is required."

Lodge's Air Force views were supported by a fellow World War II veteran, Senator Knowland (R., California).

Wants To Study Conditions

"We can't afford to have a second-class Air Force in the present world," he said. "I think we'll get selective service without much trouble and I'm hopeful we will get the long-term U.M.T. but I'm not quite as confident of that."

Senator Brewster (R., Maine), who was chairman of the congressional air study group, said he wants to analyze conditions before deciding on the argument between 55 and 70 groups.

Brewster said the congressional board proposed two air-power levels. He said the 55-group plan is to defend this country and its possessions and "make initial retaliatory attacks."

The 70-group program is set up for sustained attacks, he said.

Senator Green (D., R.I.) said the entire program "is the best move for peace that can be made."

Green said there probably will be "some hemming and hawing around and some objections but I believe this will pass the Congress."

Thinks Draft Has Good Chance

"There will be additional billions for defense with emphasis on the Air Force," Senator Young (R., N.D.) said. "Selective service has a good chance for passage but I don't think U.M.T. will win approval."

The dean of the Senate, Senator McKellar (D., Tenn.), said:

"As far as I'm concerned, I think we should make such preparations now as are necessary."

Other comment included:

Senator Reed (R., Kan.)—"I think we will probably take both the draft and U.M.T. But I want more definite information on what kind of a war we face before I pass on the added billions. The armed forces do not deal with funds as carefully as they might."

Gen. Bradley Plans Trip To Hawaii, Japan, Alaska

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 26—Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Army Chief of Staff, plans to visit Hawaii, Japan and Alaska late this summer "if this critical international situation ever lets up."

"I would have gone out there earlier," he said today, "but I haven't been able to get away because of the pressures."

General Bradley said he would go to Tokyo by way of Honolulu and return through Alaska. The trip will be his first inspection of America's Pacific bases since he succeeded Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as Chief of Staff.

U.S. Most Exposed To Attack Via Alaska, Congress Is Told

Washington, March 26 (AP)—Alaska, this country's guardian outpost against attack via the North Pole, is manned by only 7,000 soldiers and perhaps fewer than 100 fighter planes. The plan is to add 8,000 soldiers.

This was a part of the military picture sketched for Congress by the nation's high command in its request for more men and more money to be ready "if war comes."

Vulnerable Approach Cited

Gen. Omar Bradley, army chief of staff, indicated that the United States was especially open to attack via Alaska. That area, he said, was within "easy reach" of an enemy's airborne thrusts, and from there "the enemy could reach America by round-trip bombings."

Secretary of Defense Forrestal said that "as a strictly military matter" America must halt Russian expansion and Secretary of the Navy Sullivan reported that "submarines not belonging to any nation west of the 'Iron Curtain' have been sighted off our shores."

Where Sighted Is Revealed

Later, another navy official said three subs had been reported seen in the Pacific. One was 200 miles off San Francisco, one off the Aleutians and a third in an island group 800 miles west of Hawaii. An American airplane — whether military or commercial wasn't clear—made the report from the Aleutians. Merchant ships reported the other two instances. In the case nearest San Francisco the identification of the object sighted was not positive.

Sullivan told the committee he was "not prepared to evaluate the significance" of the submarine sightings. But he recalled that "an early step of the Germans in 1917 and 1941 was to deploy submarines off our coasts."

Mum On Disclosure

Other navy men said there is nothing to stop submarines of any country from plying the high seas. They added that the United States would have no formal grounds for objections unless a foreign submarine penetrated within the three-mile limit.

Sullivan declined comment when told that the locations of the reported sightings had been disclosed. He said earlier:

"I know everybody would like to know that but we are not going to say. It would be very important for the 'other fellow' to know which of his subs have been sighted and which have not been."

Russ Strong In Submarines

The Secretary said the Soviet Union controls four large German shipbuilding yards which mass-produced U-boats during the war.

The Russians, Sullivan added, now have more than 250 operating submarines "and are undoubtedly capable of producing on short notice a large number of the latest design, vastly superior to any operated by the German navy during World War II.

By contrast, Germany had less than 50 operating submarines at the start of the last war, Sullivan said, adding that even with that number the Nazis "very nearly won the battle of the Atlantic."

The United States, Sullivan said, has "not entirely perfected countermeasures" against latest-type U-Boats. He predicted the solution "will be most difficult."

Cautioned On Secrecy

There was drama and suspense when the doors to the Senate Armed Services Committee were barred to the public so members could hear from General Bradley about:

"Specific data as to the strength and deployment of the armed forces of other countries" —presumably Russia and her satellites and the non-Communist nations looking to this country for protection.

Forrestal earlier had gravely cautioned the senators that they must "assume the responsibility for any disclosure here which, however informative, might adversely affect the trend in western Europe or prejudice the safety of our fighting men or the safety of those who procured the data for us."

Some Military Views Clash

The testimony produced some conflicting views among the military chiefs themselves.

For instance, Secretary of Air Symington told the committee that B-29's, equipped with a refueling service, could take off from such points as Alaska or Labrador, "bomb any part of Russia, and return to American bases, such as the Philippines, Okinawa, Alaska or Labrador."

On the other hand, Secretary of the Army Royall said:

"No part of the central Eurasian land mass could be effectively reached by strategic bombing from bases on or near the North American continent or from bases in the Philippines. . . . Even from Japan or Alaska, bombing could touch only fragmentary parts of central Eurasia."

[There has been widespread speculation that Russia is moving a big part of her heavy industry east of the Urals, in central Eurasia.]

"Support In Depth" Lacking

Gen. Carl Spaatz, chief of staff for the Air Force, said that with the present air strength his force could carry on "limited" strategic-bombing operations. But these operations, he added, would have to be reduced after the first month "because our support in depth" is inadequate.

This appeared to be another way of saying that the 5,500 airplanes and 364,500 men would be depleted quickly in a major war.

[In the last war, the Air Force lost about 2,000 aircraft of all types in the single month of August, 1944. Of these, 1,558 were destroyed in combat, the remainder crashed accidentally.]

Royall and Bradley both said that a ground army of adequate size must be ready to move forward to seize and defend advance bases. And the United States—in event of war—must expect the same strategy from the enemy.

Bradley Asks Stronger Force

Bradley said the "mobile striking force," which now numbers 54,000, should be boosted to 192,000.

In another field, the Army moved to retain some officers who under previous orders might have been forced to leave service. It suspended an order which said that "Army of the United States" officers (nonregular army) who wished to remain on duty after April 1 must have Reserve or National Guard commissions.

It also suspended a second order which would have forced out officers whose age was too high for their rank.

Bradley Presents Table

Bradley presented this table to show the deployment of the 542,000 men now in the Army and how they would be deployed under expansion to a 782,000-man Army:

	Present	Recommended
Far East	127,000	136,000
Pacific	9,000	9,000
Alaska	7,000	15,000
Europe	96,000	93,000
Trieste	5,000	5,000
Caribbean	14,000	14,000
United States	284,000	510,000

Expansion of total Air Force personnel from 364,500 to a recommended 400,000 would not make more air groups available. But it would permit them to reach full strength and to provide other needs such as increased air-raid warning networks.

ARMY CHIEFS TO CONFER

Bradley and Top Commanders Will Hold First Meeting

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Army Chief of Staff, will hold a three-day meeting next week with his top ranking commanders stationed in the United States. The meeting, which the Army said had no immediate relation to current world problems, will be the first General Bradley has had with his field commanders as a unit since he took over the post formerly held by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Those expected for the meeting are: Gen. Jacob L. Devers, commanding general, Army ground forces; Gen. Courtney H. Hodges, First Army; Lieut. Gen. Leonard T. Gerow, Second Army; Lieut. Gen. Alvan C. Gillem, Third Army; Gen. Thomas T. Handy, Fourth Army; Lieut. Gen. Walton H. Walker, Fifth Army; Gen. Mark W. Clark, Sixth Army and Maj. Gen. Hobart R. Gay, commanding the military district of Washington.

U.S. Jets Set Mass Aerial Drill Record

Selfridge Field, Mich., March 26 (AP)—The Air Forces said today that the largest mass formation of jet planes in the nation's history—69 aircraft—took off and landed safely in a practice maneuver.

It climaxed four days of intensive practice flights during which the 56th Fighter Group logged 830 hours in the air during eight missions.

Lieut. Col. David C. Schilling, commander of the group, led today's takeoffs, with the others following him at the rate of 48 planes every seven minutes.

On Thursday, the same group sent 56 jets to Buffalo, Cleveland and back to Selfridge in 1 hour and 20 minutes. They cruise at from 410 to 425 miles an hour, officers said.

Schilling was a wartime fighter ace in the European theater.

WALLACE SAYS TRUMAN TRIES TO HUSH FOES

Also Accuses President Of 'Introducing Reign Of Terror In U.S.'

New York, March 26 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace said tonight President Truman and his advisers are "trying to silence all opposition to their program of regimentation and preparation for war."

The former Vice President and third-party presidential candidate said in a broadcast that, "the men who speak of reigns of terror in Europe are past introducing a reign of terror here at home.'

"President Truman set the pattern when he branded the millions who oppose his policies as 'Communists,'" Wallace said, "Such an appeal to prejudice blots out reason and unleashes dangerous forces of hate that threaten the freedom and livelihood of all Americans."

Views Of Police Head

Without giving names or further details, Wallace said:

"The police commissioner of one of the largest American cities writes a letter in which he says that Henry Wallace is un-American, and that un-Americans should be shot. The man charged with upholding the law and protecting the citizens of Detroit advocates violence."

[At Detroit, Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy said he had written the letter to an official of the Wallace for President Committee, after the official accused him of making anti-Semitic statements.

Refers To Teddy Roosevelt

[Toy declared in the letter, ". . . Teddy Roosevelt would turn over in his grave were he to know that such un-American activities and such un-American leader as that of Wallace are being supported by the Progressive party of Michigan.

[". . . I have no doubt that you object to statements that were made by me, especially when I said that I felt all those engaged in un-American activities ought to be either shot, thrown out of the country, or put in jail."

[Commenting further tonight, Toy said, "if the shoe fits Henry Wallace, let him wear it."]

Professor Gets Ultimatum

Wallace, in his radio address, continued:

"A professor at a small college joins our fight for peace. He takes the chairmanship of a committee of the new party. Two days later he is ordered to get out of politics or give up his job.

"Another professor announces his support of my candidacy. It is followed by a notice from the school that his services will not be required after the end of the present school term.

Minister Loses Pulpit

"A minister loses his pulpit because he believes the policies we advocate are consistent with the best Christian teaching and every fundamental American democratic principle.

"Meeting halls are denied to groups supporting the new party.

"Our immigration officers harass and intimidate liberal foreigners passing through our country and pack off an internationally respected French scientist to Ellis Island.

"We can't extend freedom by violating it. We can't promote love by preaching hate. We can't maintain peace by talking war."

Stassen Rebuffed On Debate Offer

La Follette Refuses to Send Request to MacArthur

MADISON, Wis., March 26 (AP).—Harold E. Stassen's offer to debate American foreign policy with General of the Army Douglas MacArthur by means of a radio hookup was rejected today.

Philip F. LaFollette, former Wisconsin Governor and a MacArthur-pledged candidate for delegate to the Republican National Convention, turned down the proposal. Mr. Stassen had asked Mr. LaFollette to arrange the debate.

Mr. LaFollette made public a telegram to the former Minnesota Governor which said, "Your request is such an obvious and desperate attempt to bolster your own campaign by trying to share in the spotlight of MacArthur's fame and achievements that it does not warrant forwarding to MacArthur."

SEES TAX VETO STANDING UP

O'Mahoney 'Not So Sure' Congress Will Override

Washington, March 26 (AP)—Senator O'Mahoney (D., Wyo.) said today he is "not so sure" Congress would override a presidential veto of the $4,800,000,000 tax reduction bill.

After a White House call, O'Mahoney said he regarded a veto as certain, although he had not discussed the matter with President Truman.

"I'm not venturing to be a prophet, but I'm not so sure that the Senate won't sustain a veto," O'Mahoney said.

"The Republicans have been slowly—although reluctantly—following the President's leadership.

Says GOP Is Following Truman

"Reluctantly the Republicans are seeing the virtue of what the President is trying to do."

Mr. Truman has been opposed to a cut in income taxes unless the lost revenue is made up through revival of the excess-profits taxes on corporations.

Congress sent the Republican-backed $4,800,000,000 tax reduction bill to Mr. Truman on Wednesday. Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said today it is "going the usual rounds" to get recommendations from department chiefs.

Served With Truman In War

O'Mahoney went to the White House with Gilbert Housley, of Casper, Wyo., who served with the President in World War I as a member of the 129th Field Artillery.

Housley said he and Mr. Truman were both members of Battery F before Mr. Truman took command of Battery D.

O'Mahoney said he thought the Republicans were "reluctant" to follow Mr. Truman's leadership on civil-rights proposals, but he did not elaborate on this.

Says President Is Doing His Best

He also said Mr. Truman is "trying to do the best for the whole country," and that with the situation as grave as it is today, "the people soon will begin to realize this fact."

Another Senator, Theodore Green, Rhode Island Democrat, was a White House caller.

"I had a conference with the President on the European situation," Green said. He would not discuss it further.

EXPORTS TO EAST EUROPE TOTALED

Shipments To Soviet, Finland, Russ Bloc $431,483,000 In '47

Washington, March 26 (AP)—The United States shipped $431,483,000 worth of goods to eastern Europe—Russia, Finland, and ten countries in the Soviet bloc—last year, the Commerce Department reported today.

That was nearly one tenth as much as the $4,840,100,000 that went to the sixteen western Europe Marshall-plan countries. United States exports to all foreign countries totaled $14,474,900,000.

Last year's shipments to eastern Europe, although about half the $820,294,000 the countries got from the United States in 1946, represented twice as much actual buying.

This is because out of the $820,294,000 shipped in 1946, a total of $718,228,000 represented aid and relief. The eastern Europe nations bought from us that year a total of $102,066,000.

In 1947, only $162,201,000 represented aid and relief. A total of $269,282,000 was purchased that year.

In prewar 1938, eastern Europe received from the United States $149,070,000 in exports. It was pointed out, however, that prices are higher now.

The State Department said that since V-E day the United States has sold $56,951,497 worth of nonmilitary war surplus materials, such as clothing, tractors and jeeps, to the Soviet bloc.

6 Air Engines Sold To Soviet

Included, however, were six engines built for C-47 transport planes which were sold to Russia last October for $25,578.

The war surplus sales were made both through UNRRA and direct to Soviet-bloc governments and individuals. Russia's share, including surplus reaching it through UNRRA, was put at $965,656. The State Department said the last of these surplus sales was completed last year.

The Commerce Department report on general trade with eastern Europe in 1947 showed United States exports to and United States imports from the various countries as:

	U.S. Exports To	U.S. Imports From
Russia	$142,504,000	$77,102,000
Albania	4,556,000	8,000
Bulgaria	1,471,000	4,651,000
Czechoslovakia	49,166,000	23,221,000
Estonia	8,000
Finland	59,282,000	39,606,000
Hungary	12,859,000	1,501,000
Latvia
Lithuania	16,000
Poland & Danzig	108,052,000	1,335,000
Romania	15,079,000	435,000
Yugoslavia	31,490,000	5,462,000

Conference With Truman

Washington, March 26 (AP)—Joseph Keenan, chief counsel for the War Crimes Commission in Tokyo, conferred today with President Truman.

Keenan said a message he brought Mr. Truman from Gen. Douglas MacArthur was mostly about occupation matters.

He said that, as a Democrat, he discussed politics briefly with the President.

"Did you discuss MacArthur politics?" he was asked.

Keenan said he didn't. He does not know when MacArthur will return to the United States.

"He was quite tied up the last time I talked to him and felt he wouldn't be coming back for some considerable time," Keenan said. He added that the General is in "superb" health.

He said he will return to Tokyo in about a month to be present when judgment is passed on 25 defendants whose trial was recently completed.

Hull Given High Honor By China

Washington, March 26 (AP)—The Chinese Government today honored Cordell Hull, former Secretary of State.

Upon orders of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, Hull was decorated with the Order of Auspicious Star, Grand Cordon, special class. This is one of the highest decorations the Chinese Government grants to civilians.

The informal ceremony took place at the naval hospital, near Washington. Mr. Hull has been living there since he retired. He was Secretary of State when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor.

The decoration was presented by Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese Ambassador. The citation said it was granted in recognition of Hull's distinguished services.

Drive On Supreme Court Hinted

New York, March 26 (AP)—A New York World-Telegram story by Frederick Woltman said today the Communist national headquarters here had sent out "secret orders to open a nation-wide pressure drive on the United States Supreme Court."

Woltman wrote that the orders went out on St. Patrick's Day. Communist officials denied any such move.

"The drive, according to a blueprint for action set forth on the letterhead of the party's national office," the story said, "is aimed at influencing the nation's highest court to rule favorably for those Communist leaders and sympathizers whose contempt of Congress convictions are under appeal."

Won Pulitzer Prize

Woltman last year won a Pulitzer prize "for a distinguished example of a reporter's work" in connection with a series of articles on "the infiltration of communism in the United States."

Woltman's story added:

"The orders, a copy of which are in the possession of this newspaper, lay down the new strategy in these words: 'The main thing is to create a mass movement of the people and not reliance upon merely legal forms.'"

2 Ex-GI's Demand Taylor's Recall

Boise, Idaho, March 26 (AP)—Two Boise war veterans are circulating petitions demanding the recall of Senator Glen H. Taylor (D., Idaho).

"Disgust for the man's action" prompted the petition, according to its originators, E. L. Fuller and Donald Smith.

They said they had several petitions circulating with more than 65 signatures, most of them from ex-service men.

The Idaho Senator is the announced vice-presidential candidate on the third-party ticket of Henry A. Wallace.

The legality of a possible recall was being investigated by the two Boise men. They said they had conferred with the Idaho Secretary of State, J. D. Price, and had an appointment with a lawyer to see if a recall is possible.

Fuller said "I don't know about the legality but if we can't recall him (Taylor) we can let the guy know what we think about him."

The Idaho recall law, enacted in 1933, is superceded by the Federal Constitution, which makes the House and Senate judges of their own members, several Boise attorneys said.

HANNS EISLER, WIFE LEAVE FOR LONDON

NEW YORK, March 26—(AP) Hanns Eisler, former Hollywood composer, left by plane for London today with his wife, declaring that "this is my second exile—the first exile was by the government of Adolf Hitler."

Eisler left under a deportation agreement allowing him to go to any country except Mexico and Canada.

He had appeared before the House UnAmerican Activities Committee and was accused of being an alien communist. He denied having been a party member.

Eisler, the brother of Gerhart Eisler, alleged No. 1 U. S. communist also threatened with deportation, said he was an anti-Fascist and not a member of the communist party "but I respect and have sympathy for them."

The Eislers planned to go from London to Prague and Vienna. They are citizens of Austria. They were accompanied to the airport by Gerhart Eisler.

BUCHAREST, ROMANIA, MARCH 26--INTERIOR MINISTER TELHARI GEORGESCU CHARGED LAST NIGHT THAT AGENTS OF FOREIGN IMPERIALISM ARE TRYING TO INTERFERE IN SUNDAY'S ROMANIAN NATIONAL ELECTIONS.

HE DID NOT SAY WHAT FOREIGN NATIONS HE MEANT. BUT HE SAID CERTAIN ROMANIAN ELEMENTS AND FOREIGN AGENTS ARE TRYING TO COMMIT "DIVERSIONARY ACTS," AND TRYING TO ATTACK DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS AND INDIVIDUALS. HE SAID THESE ELEMENTS ARE USING CRIMINAL METHODS.

GEORGESCU, WHO MADE HIS STATEMENT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE, ADDED THAT THE PRESENCE OF FORMER KING MIHAI IN THE UNITED STATES WILL HAVE NO EFFECT ON THE ELECTIONS.

MAR 1948

ROMANIANS WILL ELECT 414 DEPUTIES TO THE GRAND NATIONAL ASSEMBLY. THESE DEPUTIES WILL CONSIDER FOR APPROVAL THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

AUTHOR V.GOLANT, DESCRIBING THE "EXTRAORDINARY INTEREST OF AMERICANS IN ALASKA," SAID AMONG OTHER THINGS, AMERICAN SUBMARINES "LAST SUMMER HELD TRAINING MANEUVERS IN THE BERING AND CHUKOTSK (!) SEAS."

FINNISH (500)

BY ERWIN SHANKE

HELSINKI, FINLAND, MARCH 26-(AP)-AVERAGE FINNS LIKE TO BELIEVE RUSSIA WILL ACT DIFFERENTLY TOWARD FINLAND THAN TOWARD HER OTHER SATELLITES.

REALISTIC THOUGH THEY ARE TOWARD THEIR GREAT EASTERN NEIGHBOR, THEY FEEL "IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE." THE MERE SUGGESTION OF FINLAND AS ANOTHER CZECHOSLOVAKIA IS A CHALLENGE.

FINNS REGARD AS A GOOD SIGN RUSSIA'S APPARENT PATIENCE IN WAITING FOUR WEEKS FOR THE FINNS TO SEND A DELEGATION TO MOSCOW TO NEGOTIATE ON THE SOVIET UNION'S PROPOSED FRIENDSHIP-MILITARY PACT. AND ALTHOUGH FINLAND IS IN AN EASTER MOOD TODAY, THE THOUGHTS OF MANY FINNS ARE IN MOSCOW WITH THE NEGOTIATORS.

ONE PROMINENT LIBERAL SAID MANY FINNS HAVE THE IMPRESSION RUSSIA "WANTS TO KEEP FINLAND AMONG HER SATELLITES AS A MODEL FOR THE WEST."

HE AND OTHERS RECALL THE YEARS BETWEEN THE ARMISTICE IN 1944 AND THE SEPTEMBER 1947 PEACE TREATY--WHEN THE ALLIED CONTROL COMMISSION, WITH THE RUSSIANS PLAYING THE DOMINANT ROLE, SAT IN HELSINKI.

"IN THAT PERIOD," THEY SAID, "THE CONTROL COMMISSION ALWAYS ACTED CORRECTLY. THE SOVIET UNION MADE NO EFFORT TO INTERFERE IN FINLAND'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS OR HER POLITICS."

THAT IS ESSENTIALLY CORRECT.

THE FINNS STILL POSSESS THE FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS OF A DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC.

THE FINNISH PRESS HAS BEEN FREE FROM CENSORSHIP SINCE THE PEACE BECAME EFFECTIVE. THE NEWSPAPERS EXERCISE GREAT CAUTION, HOWEVER, WHEN DEALING WITH QUESTIONS OF FINNISH-SOVIET RELATIONS. OCCASIONALLY THEY ARE GUIDED IN THIS BY OFFICIAL DIRECTIVES.

A23 MAR 1948

FINNISH SOURCES RECALL TWO INSTANCES IN WHICH RUSSIA INTERFERED IN FINNISH AFFAIRS:

1. IN 1946 A FINNISH TRIBUNAL WAS ABOUT TO SENTENCE EIGHT FORMER GOVERNMENT LEADERS CHARGED WITH RESPONSIBILITY FOR FINLAND'S ENTRY INTO THE WAR, RUSSIA SAID THE PROPOSED SENTENCES WERE TOO LIGHT. RESULT: THEY WERE MADE STIFFER.

2. FINLAND FAVORED SENDING REPRESENTATIVES TO THE PARIS MARSHALL PLAN CONFERENCE. RUSSIA EXPRESSED DISAPPROVAL. FINLAND DROPPED THE IDEA.

DESPITE OPTIMISM OVER THE FACT THAT RUSSIA HAS MADE NO OPEN MOVE TO INTERFERE IN FINNISH GOVERNMENT, FINLAND'S GENERAL ATTITUDE TOWARD THE SOVIET UNION IS ONE OF WATCHFULNESS.

"TRADITIONALLY WE HAVE BEEN WATCHFUL," SAID ONE FINNISH POLITICIAN "AND THERE IS NO BELYING THE FACT THAT THE MASS OF FINNS THROUGH THE DECADES HAVE LACKED CONFIDENCE IN RUSSIA. THAT'S WHY 80 TO 90 PER CENT OF OUR PEOPLE TODAY SAY 'NO' TO THE PROPOSED MILITARY ALLIANCE.

"THE FINNS INDIVIDUALLY ARE DEMOCRATIC," HE SAID. "FOR THAT REASON, IF THE COMMUNISTS SHOULD TRY SOMETHING SIMILAR TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA--AND MOST OF US DON'T BELIEVE THEY ARE STRONG ENOUGH OF THEMSELVES TO DO SO--IT WOULDN'T BE EASY."

THE FINNS ARE KEEPING UP A GOOD FRONT. MOST OF THEM HAVE OVERCOME THE FIRST SHOCK OF STALIN'S REQUEST FOR A PACT. ON THE SURFACE THEY APPEAR UNWORRIED.

SOME ADMIT, HOWEVER, TO A SENSE OF FEAR AND PESSIMISM FOR THE FUTURE.

ONE HIGH FINNISH OFFICER ADMITTED HE DIDN'T LIKE TO SEE THE SLOW RETURN TO THE SOVIET LEGATION OF OFFICERS WHO WERE HERE BEFORE.

"ALL THE TOUGHEST ONES SEEM TO BE COMING BACK," HE SAID. "IT MAY BE A BAD SIGN."

AT THE AMERICAN CONSULATE THE QUOTA OF 540 FINNS WHO ARE ALLOWED TO EMIGRATE ANNUALLY TO THE UNITED STATES IS OVERFILLED. THOSE ON THE LIST HAVE A LONG WAIT AHEAD OF THEM.

THE STATE MAPPING DIVISION IS ANTICIPATING A TOURIST INFLUX THIS SUMMER.

LONDON, MARCH 26-(AP)-ARTHUR WEBB, WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE DAILY HERALD, SAID TONIGHT THAT IT WAS "OFFICIALLY ADMITTED" THAT THE UNITED STATES WILL ASK BRITAIN TO KEEP TROOPS IN PALESTINE AT LEAST UNTIL AUG. 15.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 26-(AP)-MICHAEL J.MCDERMOTT, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER, SAID TODAY HE KNOWS NO BASIS FOR ANY REPORT THAT THE UNITED STATES INTENDS TO ASK BRITAIN TO KEEP HER TROOPS IN PALESTINE BEYOND MAY 15.

MCDERMOTT WAS ASKED ABOUT A DISPATCH TO THE LONDON DAILY HERALD IN WHICH ITS WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT SAID IT WAS "OFFICIALLY ADMITTED" THAT THE U.S. WILL ASK BRITAIN TO KEEP HER TROOPS IN PALESTINE UNTIL AUG. 15.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID YESTERDAY THAT THE BRITISH WERE PULLING OUT MAY 15, BUT THAT HE DID NOT KNOW WHY AND HAD NO CONTROL OVER THE MATTER.

OTHER OFFICIALS SAID THAT THE MAIN INTEREST AT THE MOMENT IS TO GET BRITAIN TO GO ALONG WITH THE IDEA OF A U.N. TRUSTEESHIP IN PALESTINE BY MAY 15.

UGLY GUNSNOUTS BRISTLED ALONG THE WAY OF SORROWS THIS GOOD FRIDAY AND AN APPEAL WENT OUT TO THE WORLD TO PROTECT JERUSALEM FROM BECOMING A TRAGIC BATTLEGROUND.

THE JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE, OFFICIAL SPOKESMEN FOR THE HOLY LAND'S JEWRY, URGED THE UNITED NATIONS TO RUSH TROOPS TO JERUSALEM BEFORE THE BRITISH GIVE UP THEIR MANDATE MAY 15. THE AGENCY SUGGESTED DANISH AND NORWEGIAN TROOPS STATIONED IN NORTHERN GERMANY MIGHT BE USED.

OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON PREDICT THAT IF AMERICAN EFFORTS TO ARRANGE A JEWISH-ARAB TRUCE FAIL, THE HOLY LAND WILL BE IN FOR WHOLESALE BLOODSHED WHEN THE BRITISH LEAVE.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS CALLED FOR A U.N. TRUSTEESHIP TO ASSUME TEMPORARY AUTHORITY AND A TRUCE TO END THE ARAB-JEWISH WARFARE.

EVEN AS CHRISTIANS, WITH ARAB GUNS GUARDING THE WAY, TRUDGED THE PATH CHRIST IS BELIEVED TO HAVE WALKED TO THE CROSS, BRITISH TROOPS MOVED OUT OF JERUSALEM IN AN ATTEMPT TO HALT ARAB ATTACKS ON JEWISH CONVOYS ALONG THE JERUSALEM-TEL AVIV ROAD.

THERE WAS NO SLACKENING OF TENSION ELSEWHERE IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS.

THE WESTERN POWERS HAVE SUGGESTED THE RETURN OF THE FREE TERRITORY TO ITALY. MISSIONS REPRESENTING BOTH ZONES MET YESTERDAY, BUT THE YUGOSLAVS DECLINED TO SET A DATE FOR A NEW MEETING.

THIS WAS SIMILAR TO THE EAST-WEST SPLIT IN GERMANY, WHERE THE RUSSIANS WALKED OUT OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL. TODAY THE SOVIET MILITARY ADMINISTRATION ANNOUNCED IT IS READY TO SUPPORT FOUR-POWER CONTROL MACHINERY FOR GERMANY AGAIN INSOFAR AS THE COUNCIL "IS STILL ABLE TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE EARLIEST ACCOMPLISHMENT" OF THE POTSDAM DECLARATION'S AIMS.

IN ROMANIA, INTERIOR MINISTER TELHARI GEORGESCU CHARGED THAT AGENTS OF FOREIGN IMPERIALISM ARE TRYING TO INTERFERE IN SUNDAY'S ROMANIAN NATIONAL ELECTIONS. HE DID NOT SAY WHAT NATIONS HE MEANT.

POLITICAL LEADERS OF AMERICAN-ADMINISTERED SOUTH KOREA WERE INVITED TO HELP SET UP A SOVIET-SPONSORED GOVERNMENT. THE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED RADIO AT PYONGYANG, HEADQUARTERS OF THE RUSSIAN OCCUPATION INVITED LEADERS OF ALL PARTIES TO A CONFERENCE APRIL 14. THE UNITED NATIONS HAS APPROVED PLANS FOR AN ELECTION MAY 9 IN SOUTHERN KOREA.

IN TOKYO, UNDERSECRETARY OF ARMY WILLIAM DRAPER SAID THERE IS A POSSIBILITY JAPAN MAY BE DRAWN INTO THE ECONOMIC ORBIT OF A COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED ASIA. HE WOULD NOT SAY WHETHER SUCH A THREAT WAS ONE REASON FOR PROPOSED STIMULATION OF AMERICAN AID TO JAPAN'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY.

NANKING, MARCH 26-(AP)-IT APPEARS THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE STARTED OFFENSIVES ON SEVERAL CIVIL WAR FRONTS TO OVERSHADOW THE OPENING OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY MONDAY.

THERE WERE INDICATIONS TODAY THE REDS WOULD MAKE A STRONG ATTEMPT TO RECOVER THEIR FORMER CAPITAL, YENAN, IN CENTRAL CHINA. PRO-GOVERNMENT SOURCES SAID THE COMMUNIST SIEGE OF LOCHUAN, BETWEEN YENAN AND THE SOUTH SHENSI BORDER, HAD TIGHTENED.

THE NATIONAL GARRISON AT YENAN IS VIRTUALLY ISOLATED.

IN SHANTUNG PROVINCE, CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S AIR TRANSPORTS WERE DROPPING SUPPLIES TO THE HARD PRESSED TROOPS AT WEIHSIEN. LATEST REPORTS

PLACED THE COMMUNISTS ONLY FIVE MILES FROM THE CITY. WEIHSIEN FORMERLY WAS HEADQUARTERS FOR THE AMERICAN-EQUIPPED NEW EIGHTH ARMY, NOW STATIONED AT THE SEAPORT OF CHEFOO.

DISPATCHES TO THE INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER HSIN MIN PAO REPORTED GOVERNMENT ARMORED UNITS WERE BEING USED IN THE HUNGTSEHU AREA IN AN EFFORT TO STOP THE ADVANCES OF RED GENERALS LIU PO-CHENG AND CHEN YI, 100 MILES NORTHWEST OF NANKING.

SPECIAL PRECAUTIONS WERE TAKEN TO PREVENT COMMUNIST SABOTAGE OF RAIL LINES LEADING TO NANKING. THIS UNDERLINED GOVERNMENT FEARS THAT THE REDS MIGHT TRY TO PREVENT ASSEMBLY DELEGATES FROM REACHING THE CAPITAL FOR THE SESSION.

THE ASSEMBLY IS TO ELECT CHINA'S FIRST CONSTITUTIONAL PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT. THE ELECTION OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS REGARDED AS A FORMALITY. THERE ARE SEVERAL CANDIDATES FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

BIRMINGHAM,ALA.,MARCH 26-(AP)-REP.KARL E.MUNDT (R-SD) SAYS THE UNITED STATES MUST ACT TO REFORM THE UNITED NATIONS WITHOUT RUSSIA.

THE SOUTH DAKOTA CONGRESSMAN TOLD DELEGATES TO THE ALABAMA EDUCATION ASSOCIATION CONVENTION LAST NIGHT THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN SHOULD CALL REPRESENTATIVES OF THE "FREE NATIONS" TOGETHER TO REORGANIZE THE UN.

"THAT GROUP SHOULD REVAMP AND REVITALIZE THE UN CHARTER," HE CONTINUED, "ELIMINATING THE VETO, AND PLACING MASS WEAPONS UNDER UN CONTROL.

"THEN WHEN THAT NEW, REVITALIZED UN IS SET UP, WE CAN TELL RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES THAT THEY ARE WELCOME TO JOIN IF THEY WANT TO."

MUNDT SAID THERE ARE THREE ALTERNATIVES. THE FIRST IS TO WAGE WAR ON RUSSIA NOW, USING THE ATOM BOMB. "THAT COURSE IS HOPELESS AND I REJECT IT," HE ADDED.

THE SECOND, HE CONTINUED, IS TO WITHDRAW FROM EUROPE AND ASIA AND LEAVE THEM TO RUSSIA. SUCH A TYPE OF ISOLATIONISM WOULD REDUCE US TO A MILITARY STATE, TRYING TO KEEP STRONG ENOUGH TO STAND OFF A BILLION AND A HALF PEOPLE, HE SAID.

THE THIRD ALTERNATIVE, THE REPRESENTATIVE SAID, IS TO WAGE PEACE AS VIGOROUSLY AS THE NATION WAGED WAR.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 26-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS SIGNED A BILL WHICH PROVIDES FOR TRAINING PAY FOR ALL CIVILIAN COMPONENTS OF THE ARMED FORCES.

THE BILL WILL GIVE ARMY RESERVES AND AIR FORCE RESERVES TRAINING PAY ON INACTIVE DUTY ON THE SAME BASIS AS THAT AUTHORIZED FOR MANY YEARS FOR MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD, THE NAVAL RESERVE AND THE MARINE CORPS RESERVE.

IT WILL GIVE INACTIVE-DUTY PAY TO PARTICIPANTS AT THE RATE OF ONE-THIRTIETH OF ONE MONTH'S BASE AND LONGEVITY PAY FOR EACH TRAINING PERIOD OF TWO HOURS OR MORE.

MAR 1948

THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE INDICATION FROM THE ARMY WHEN IT WILL BE PUT INTO EFFECT.

Jewish Planes Bomb Arabs, Pre-Easter Battle Blazes Near Shrines in Holy Land

Air Attacks Seek to Save Auto Convoy

JERUSALEM, March 27 (AP).—Four Jewish planes bombed a concentration of Arabs today in a pre-Easter pitched battle which enveloped a Jewish motor convoy near Christ's birthplace. The Arab press said 35 Jews were killed; an earlier Jewish report said 25 Jews and 30 Arabs were injured.

The convoy was raked with gunfire from Arab roadblocks near the Pools of Solomon, about a mile south of Bethlehem.

After the Jews had been driven off by the Arab attack, the Jewish planes attacked the Arabs concentrated around the vehicles, a government press release said.

FIRST AERIAL BOMBS

The battle marked the first time that aircraft bombs have been officially reported used in the bloody Jewish-Arab strife. There have been previous reports of Jewish reconnaissance flights.

A Jewish informant said half the convoy fought its way through to Jerusalem. However, an Arab commando leader who conducted the attack said the convoy had been wiped out.

Gunfire swept Jerusalem only a few hours before the church bells were to ring for Easter Sunday. Jewish sources said five Jews and 11 Arabs were killed in this fighting. Bullets whined near the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, said to be the site of the tomb of Christ's resurrection.

CLAIMS HEAVY DAMAGE

The Arab commando leader said 38 trucks of the convoy were disabled by mines or destroyed by fire and three remaining trucks were captured. He said five armored cars were knocked out.

The Arab said that four men of his party had been injured in the bombing.

Haganah, the Jewish militia, said it had sent reinforcements to 60 members of the convoy who had taken refuge in a house near the Pools of Solomon and that they were firmly entrenched. The Arab commando said that the party of Jews had been surrounded and that fighting continues. The Arab party numbered 350, he said.

The planes used by the Jews in the convoy battle were not described in detail. The Jews are believed to possess only small commercial aircraft. However, military observers said such planes may be fitted for carrying bombs up to 25 pounds under each wing.

BRITISH CAR DISABLED

One British military armored car sent to the scene was disabled. The Arabs hammered five Jewish armored cars believed to contain reinforcements dispatched to help the convoy. Two trucks of the convoy were aflame.

Police said the Arabs manned 17 roadblocks between Bethlehem and Kfar Etzion. A RAF pilot sighted the Jewish aircraft circling over the battleground.

5-MILE BATTLE LINE

A government spokesman said the convoy traveled southward from Jerusalem to Kfar Etzion before dawn without reporting to British security forces. It was making the return journey when the Arab attack began.

Jerusalem and its suburbs were swept tonight by a five-mile line of gunfire in the bitter Arab-Jewish conflict. The line extended from Beit Jala, north of Bethlehem, to the commercial center in midtown Jerusalem.

Units of the British Warwickshire Regiment moved up along the walls of the Old City through the Valley of Gehenne. The Tommies carried large mortars.

For three hours automatic weapons and snipers' rifles barked. Grenades and mortar shells burst in desolate Montefiore. Muffled explosions sounded from the downtown Mamillah road area.

For a few moments the firing halted. Then it resumed again increasing in intensity in the direction of Montefiore. New Arab concentrations were reported east of Jerusalem on the Tel Aviv road.

Despite the civil war, Jerusalem's churchmen will conduct all-day services in Christendom's holiest place on earth tomorrow to keep alive the Easter tradition. But few worshippers will respond to the Easter church bells.

PARADE OF GUNS

The worshipers will pass through battered gun-swept streets. There will be no parade of Easter hats here—only the parade of armed men and vehicles moving out to keep Palestine's highways open.

Little impressed by truce proposals and the world's effort to settle the Palestine problem, six small but efficient fighting forces—three Jewish and three Arab—have divided the Holy Land into two armed camps from Dan to Beersheba. In the mountainous eastern area Fawzi Bey Al Kaukji's 10,000-man Yarmouk army holds a tight grip on Arab lands from north of Jenin to south of Hebron. One spearhead extends west beyond Tulkarm.

STRIKES FAR EAST

Ranging from Jerusalem, and endlessly stabbing at Jewish communications, Abdul Khader Husseini's Judean irregulars have struck as far east as Hartuv. He may have 5000 Arabs under arms.

Sheik Hassan Salameh, a veteran commando raider, leads the third Arab force—the irregular Mediterranean army — in bloody forays around Tel Aviv in the heart of Jewish Palestine.

The Jews claim to have 70,000 to 80,000 in Haganah, their militia, approximately 1000 in Irgun Zvai Leumi and a few hundred in the Stern Gang. The main Jewish offensive force is the 10,000 to 15,000-man striking force of Haganah.

But observers generally assess the fighting strength of the two peoples as roughly equal. Some give the Arabs a slight edge. The Arabs are pouring men, money and arms into Palestine. They also hope that an Egyptian volunteer army, if needed, will spear upward through Sinai toward a possible encirclement of Tel Aviv.

On Palestine's narrow crescent of coastland the Jews look to Europe and the United States for financial aid and arms and to displaced-persons camps and Cyprus for reinforcements.

Jewish Planes Bomb Arabs In Battle

Jerusalem, March 27 (AP)—Jewish aircraft bombed concentrations of Arabs today in a battle near Solomon's Pools, south of Bethlehem, it was reported officially.

A Royal Air Force spotter plane flown to the scene reported four Jewish aircraft were attacking Arabs who surrounded a 30-vehicle convoy. A British military armored car was disabled by Arab fire. Five Jewish armored cars were under heavy fire.

Police reported seventeen Arab road blocks manned between Bethlehem and Kfar Etzion, from which the convoy left to return to Jerusalem.

Two Vehicles Ablaze

Two of the convoy vehicles were burning and the rest were under heavy fire. The Jewish armored vehicles under fire were believed to contain reinforcements dispatched to help the convoy.

A Government spokesman said the convoy traveled from Jerusalem to Kfar Etzion before dawn "without reporting to security forces" and was returning when the attack began.

An official statement said the fate of occupants of the disabled British armored car was unknown.

Gunfire Sweeps Jerusalem

A five-mile line of gunfire—from Beit Jala, north of Bethlehem, to the commercial center in midtown Jerusalem—swept this city and its suburbs. Muffled explosions sounded from the downtown Mamillah road area. Grenades and mortars coughed in the Montefiore sector. Units of the Royal Warwickshires, carrying large mortars, moved up along the old city walls, through the Valley of Gehenna.

An undeclared Good Friday truce ended last night with the sound of mortar and machine gun fire in Jerusalem.

Unoccupied Jewish houses were blown up by Arabs in the Sheikh and Jarrah quarters and sporadic sniping resumed throughout the city. No casualties have been reported so far.

Six Jews and four Arabs were reported killed yesterday in scattered violence throughout the Holy Land.

JEWISH STATE IS ARAB PHOBIA

Daniel De Luce Calls Fear Kind That Breeds War

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Cairo, March 27 (AP)—The fear of a Jewish nation grips Arabs of the Middle East. It is the kind of fear that breeds war.

Seven Arab powers with a combined population of nearly 35,000,000 consider their No. 1 enemy to be a potential state of less than 750,000 Jews.

The Arab phobia against Zionism—the movement for Jewish nationhood—is at the highest pitch in the history of this troubled region. It is a violent emotion you encounter among kings in their palaces and barefooted fellahs (peasants) in their mud huts.

Old Feuds Hamper Unity

The Arabs claim only one way is open to make peace in Palestine—complete abandonment of the attempt to restore a Jewish state after a lapse of 2,000 years.

In the past month I have visited all of the Arab countries now actively intervening in the Holy Land with volunteers, arms and money. They are Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, Trans-Jordan and Saudi Arabia. Old feuds, rivalries and jealousies hamper their unity.

Yemen, seventh member of the Arab League, is having internal strife as the result of the death of the old king and is unable to do much about Palestine. Against the political ambition of Zionism, however, all the Arab states are able to offer a solid front despite their ancient rivalries.

Arabs Want No Competition

To analyze the Arab attitude today is perhaps a problem for psychiatrists as well as statesmen. But it is obviously rooted in anxiety that a Jewish state, no matter how tiny at the start, might finally dominate the economy and politics of the Middle East.

The Arabs intend at any cost, even blood, to keep the Middle East for their own. They want no competition. They dread what a powerful influx of Jewish wealth and brains might create at the strategic crossroads of the continents.

At the same time the Arabs profess to draw a line between being anti-Zionist and anti-Jewish. They point to communities of more than 200,000 Jews in Arab states which have been virtually unmolested in the recent turbulent months.

Arab Reaction Of Suspicion

For Palestine Jewry, the calmest Arabs say, extraordinary minority rights might be guaranteed but the Holy Land must go undivided as a sovereign democracy with the Arab majority of 65 per cent intact. The very word partition is classed as a profane epithet.

Arab extremists threaten to restrict Palestinian citizenship to some 50,000 Jews who were in the country before 1914 and their offspring. In Arab terminology Jewish immigrants are invaders.

Arab reaction to American policy since November has run the gamut from hurt surprise to bitter resentment. At present, United States diplomats admit, it is one of deep suspicion.

American pressure was blamed for the United Nations Assembly's vote in favor of partition. The Middle East called the recent American shift to trusteeship an Arab victory, but second guessers quickly charged it was a maneuver to save partition for a later date when the so-called cold war with Russia was less heated.

Arabs Have Limited Means

This is the official Arab line: Britain nurtured the Zionist experiment after World War I as part of a scheme to divide and rule the Middle East but it would have collapsed before World War II if America hadn't bankrolled it.

With limited means except manpower the Arab states are preparing to wage war if necessary in the Holy Land. It is said they will fight the proposal for United Nations trusteeship as defiantly as partition.

Officers on leave or retired from the armies of Iraq, Syria and Egypt are commanding an estimated 15,000 Arab volunteers on Palestine soil. Syrian and Egyptian regular troops are close to the frontier. The British-trained Trans-Jordan Arab legion of 10,000 is hinted as likely to play a big role in the Palestine showdown.

Trans-Jordan Criticized

Britain's announced determination to surrender her Palestine mandate May 15 and get all her troops out by August 1 has Arab approval. It is one of the few British actions to be generally liked in the Middle East.

But Britain's hopes of a new system of economic-military understandings with the Arab powers still is far from fulfillment. Cairo is at odds with London over British influence in the Sudan and British garrisons in the Suez Canal Zone.

Iraq tore up a new alliance treaty last January. Trans-Jordan is criticized by other members of the Arab League for signing a twenty-year defense pact with Britain this month.

United States On Hot Spot

Britain once sponsored formation of the Arab League. Now the league mobilizes Arab resistance against what it describes as British imperialism.

But in general the British are off the hot spot of Arab opinion—the United States is on it.

Throughout the Middle East American diplomats and business men are engaged in hectic efforts to regain American prestige. Privately, they say the salvage of American interests may depend on whether Washington flatly and finally disavows support of a Jewish state.

Pipeline Hangs In Balance

Arabs attribute the recent hedging of the United States on partition to these major reasons:

1. Realization that the Arab powers are ready to resort to arms against a Jewish state.

2. Strategy against Russia that requires a friendly, politically stable Middle East where Soviet expansion is checked and United States air fleets can expect to find bases if needed.

3. The Arab threat to wipe out American concessions to the world's largest-known oil reserves — indicated to exceed 100,000,000,000 barrels.

An American pipeline, "Tapline," designed to carry 300,000 barrels of oil daily to the Mediterranean coast from Saudi Arabia by 1950, still hangs in the balance. So does the Superfortress base at the Saudi Arabian hamlet of Dhahran.

Arabs Have Dilemmas

But the Americans have no monopoly on dilemmas. The Arabs have some, too. The Foreign Minister of one of the best disciplined Arab states told me the other day:

"It is hard for leaders to follow a realistic course when people are intoxicated with nationalism. Realism and nationalism don't always mix."

He said his country could use an American loan to fine advantage "if we could be sure it isn't tainted with Zionism." He admitted worrying over the spread of communism among discontented youth. He said the Middle East ought to guard against the mistake of kicking out British influence to such an extent it created a vacuum for Russia to come in and fill.

But he warned he himself would run any risk to destroy a Jewish state at the outset.

British Deny U.S. Has Asked Delay In Palestine Exodus

London, March 27 (AP)—The Foreign Office denied today negotiations are underway with the United States to delay departure of British troops from Palestine.

"I am able to confirm that there has been no approach, formal or informal, by the United States with a view to retarding our departure," a spokesman said.

Michael McDermott, State Department press officer, said in Washington last night he knows of no basis for reports the United States intends to ask Britain to stay on in the Holy Land.

Stands Pat On Schedule

The Foreign Office spokesman said his own statement of Britain's position applies both to its intention to surrender the Palestine mandate May 15 and to its plan to withdraw all its troops by August 1.

The Daily Herald and Daily Express both carried articles last night saying the United States will ask Britain to postpone withdrawal.

The Foreign Office spokesman said, "there are, as always, exchanges going on between the State Department and the British Embassy" in Washington on Palestine and other matters. The exchanges are concerned with American efforts to get Britain's reaction to the United States proposal for creation of a temporary United Nations trusteeship over Palestine.

He declined to disclose what the State Department has been told about Britain' reaction to the proposal—one which the United States advanced after withdrawing support for the partition plan.

should be sent by the agency to the Security Council instead of being acted on by the commission.

Nakhleh indorsed a statement by an Arab Higher Committee spokesman in Cairo yesterday that the Arabs would not accept any foreign troops in Palestine.

Nakhleh said there would be no danger from the Arab side to the holy places. He declared that the only danger would be from the Jews and charged that the Jews already have carried out attacks in Jerusalem.

7 Religious Leaders Appeal for Immediate 'Truce of God'

PHILADELPHIA, March 27 (AP)—Seven world religious leaders disclosed today an appeal to Jews and Arabs for an immediate "truce of God" in the Holy Land.

Dr. Rufus M. Jones, honorary chairman of the American Friends Service Committee, sent the message March 12 to Rabbi Isaac Hertzog, Chief Rabbi of Palestine, and Amin Bey Abdulhabi, head of the Supreme Moslem Council, Jerusalem.

No reply has been received from either, the service committee said.

Co-signers of the appeal with Dr. Jones were the Most Rev. Geoffrey Francis Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury; Bishop Eivind Bergraav, Primate of the Church of Norway; the Right Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America; Archbishop Athenagoras of the Greek Orthodox Church, representing the Eastern Orthodox Church; Dr. John R. Mott, leader in international Y.M.C.A. work and author of religious books, and Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, pastor emeritus of Riverside Church in New York.

Jerusalem Holy Place Protection Promised

Lake Success, N.Y., March 27 (AP). An Arab spokesman said tonight the Arabs of Jerusalem would protect Christian, Moslem and Jewish holy places in Jerusalem.

Isa Nakhleh, representative here of the Arab Higher Committee of Palestine, made this statement in commenting to newsmen on a suggestion by the Jewish Agency for Palestine that 10,000 Danish and Norwegian troops protect holy places in Jerusalem after the British leave.

The United Nations Palestine Partition Commission was said by a United Nations source to have decided the agency's proposal

London, March 27 (AP)—Millions of Britons, beset with shortages from the last war and jitters over the next, flocked to the seaside and country resorts for the Easter week end, to get away from it all, if even for a little while.

Railroads put on 1,500 extra trains for the holiday, which began yesterday, and the exodus from London was the biggest since before the war.

Good Weather Forecast

The newspapers urged Londoners to leave their worries behind them for the week end.

"Everyone," said the Daily Mirror, "should make this Easter not only a holiday for the body but especially a holiday for the mind."

Added the Evening News: "Through many a cloud-wracked, haunted spring, this generation has kept Easter. Now, in 1948, when the political and economic auguries are gloomy enough, we come to its brief escape and release once more."

The weather was on the people's side. The forecast: More warm and sunny days in what the British have come to call "the little summer."

300,000 Nazis To Escape Trial

BERLIN, March 27 (AP).—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. Military Governor, today approved measures to permit about 300,000 small-fry Nazis to escape formal trial.

The action will reduce by two-thirds the 450,000 cases still pending and speed the whole denazification process in the American zone to completion by the end of spring.

In addition to reducing the number of trials by granting German public prosecutors full discretionary powers, the changes also permit lesser offenders to resume positions in private industries and business—except key posts—pending their trials. Previously, untried Nazis had been restricted to manual labor.

TRIESTE HELD WEST WAR KEY

Italian Communist Assails 3-Power Proposal

Rome, March 27 (AP)—Italy's Communist boss, Palmiro Togliatti, told a crowd of 100,000 today the three Western powers "want to use Trieste to start another war."

As the Moscow-trained leader spoke in Rome's Piazza del Popolo, a plane droned overhead, dumping anti-Communist leaflets. The handbills urged the crowd to go to St. Peter's tomorrow to "wish the Pope a happy Easter."

Sections of the crowd seemed disappointed in the speech, which had been heralded widely in advance by posters as the Communist answer to the British-American-French proposal of a week ago to return the Free State Territory of Trieste to Italy. Many drifted away during Togliatti's 75-minute address.

Speech Expected

Togliatti had been expected to make heavy, direct attacks on the Italian Government, as well as on the United States. But he devoted his talk mainly to Trieste.

The Communists apparently are preparing a propaganda campaign to convince voters before the crucial April 18 elections that the Communist party—not the Western powers—originated the idea of giving Trieste back to Italy.

Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia aided this line with a statement at Belgrade yesterday that there are no Italo-Yugoslav issues which cannot be settled peacefully, especially if Communists are in power in both countries.

Togliatti said the three-power proposal "prevented the possibility that Yugoslavia and Italy could even initiate talks for Trieste."

Rails At France

"The reason is evident," the 55-year-old leader declared. "They (the Western powers) want to maintain the spark of war there. It also is evident they want to maintain the status quo and the present tense situation. They want to use Trieste to start another war."

Togliatti railed at France for not returning to Italy Briga and Tenda, small Alpine border areas ceded to the French in the peace treaty.

He accused Britain of preventing return of Italy's African colonies.

"They want to revise the treaty to return Trieste," he shouted. "Why not revise all clauses in the treaty?"

Supported By Church

Youths wearing red kerchiefs stalked about the square as he spoke.

Elsewhere in Rome, youthful members of the Christian Democratic party plastered up posters urging celebration of a "happy Easter, tomorrow and always." The Christian Democrats, biggest party in the present coalition Government which excludes Communists, is supported by the Catholic Church.

There were no disorders. Police, standing by at the Communist rally, had little to do.

There were scattered instances of political violence elsewhere in Italy, however.

Communists Stoned

A dispatch from Lecce, in southern Italy said Communists who showed up for a rally there in uniforms of the "Garibaldi Brigade" were stoned out of town by crowds who shouted, "We want no more war, out with provocateurs."

The Garibaldi Brigades stem from the wartime partisan outfits and are described by officials as the Communist underground army. The wearing of party uniforms has been banned by the Government.

A Rightist national bloc rally at Massa Lombarda was reported broken up Thursday night and four speakers put to flight.

slogan and urged voters to assemble in the huge Piazza del Popolo for Togliatti's speech. The 55-year-old leader was expected to lay down the Communist line on the Trieste proposal.

In the last few days the Communists have been telling Italian voters that a Communist victory would mean a quick agreement with Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia on the Trieste issue. Tito himself apparently was aiding this line. At Belgrade yesterday he told Italian visitors there are no Italian-Yugoslav issues which cannot be solved peaceful

The "Garibaldi Brigades," stemming from the wartime Partisan groups which fought the Nazis, are described by Rightists and by some Government officials as the Communists' underground army for revolt. A recent decree banned all uniformed quasi-military organizations formed for political purposes.

Italy Mourns 1918 Liberator Of Trieste

Rome, March 27 (AP)—Italy paid final tribute today to the man largely responsible for retaking Trieste from Austria in the closing days of World War I.

Premier Alcide de Gasperi and other Government notables attended funeral services for Grand Admiral Paolo Thaon di Revel, the "Duke of the Sea," who died Wednesday at the age of 88. Entombment was in the Church of St. Mary of the Angels.

Italian Communists Adopt Trieste Cry

Rome, March 27 (AP)—Italy's Communists took up the cry "For Trieste and Country" today.

It looked like the beginning of a campaign to convince the voters it was the Communists' idea originally to give the free territory back to the Italians.

The Communists used the slogan to advertise a rally tonight at which their top leader, Palmiro Togliatti, is to speak on the Trieste question. The Communists have accused Britain, France and the United States of attempting to influence the April 18 Italian elections by proposing the return of Trieste.

2000 New Troops Reported Sent To Trieste by Tito

TRIESTE, March 27 (AP). — Refugees from the Yugoslav zone of the free territory of Trieste reported tonight the Yugoslavs had moved 2000 or more fresh troops into their zone.

One report from a business man said 1500 troops were moved into Verteneglio, a town near the frontier between the Yugoslav and British-American zones. Buildings and homes were requisitioned for billets, the man said.

There was no immediate comment from British-American military officials.

NO NEW BRITISH TROOPS

The reports that 2000 or more troops moved into the zone came from pro-Italian and anti-Communist refugees from the Yugoslav zone. None was from competent military observers who might be able to report unit identifications. It was not clear therefore whether the 1500 at Verteneglio were in addition to the 2000 reported by other sources. Neither was it clear whether the troops were replacements.

Maj. Gen. Terence S. Airey, British senior civil affairs officer, denied earlier today published reports that additional British troops had arrived in the free territory.

British military police were moved up to border positions earlier in the week, but Airey emphasized these were from troops already in the zone.

SLAVS LIMITED TO 5000

Under the terms of the Italian peace treaty the Americans and British have 10,000 troops—5000 each—in their zone and the Yugoslavs are limited to 5000 in their zone.

General Airey said four days ago that no unusual Yugoslav troop movements had been noted around the British-American zone, which is bounded on the north and east by Yugoslav territory as well as the Yugoslav free zone territory.

The U. S. light cruiser Manchester arrived in Trieste today shortly after departure of the Dayton. Shore leave was given men aboard, including Marines in numbers small enough to comply with the 500 limit on American occupation troops.

STALEMATE EXPECTED

The reports of troop movements came as Trieste, jittery from a week of waiting for action on the Western Powers' proposal of last Saturday for its return to Italy, appeared resigned to a stalemate on its future.

Most Italian and British-American sources viewed a statement yesterday by Marshall Tito as paving the way for a Russian refusal to meet immediately the British-American-French proposal for return of the free territory to Italy.

Tito indicated to a delegation of Italian workers' in Belgrade that a Communist Yugoslavia and Communist Italy would quickly settle the issue of Trieste.

VOTE RESULTS AWAITED

The Yugoslav Premier said all issues between Italy and his country would be solved in the future by "their democratic forces, especially when the Italian people will have their future in their own hands."

In Tito's eyes this would be after a Communist victory in the April 18 Italian elections. Most political leaders in Trieste said they believed the Eastern satellite led by Russia was stalling until after the Italian elections.

(The British Foreign office said Russia has acknowledged receipt of the proposals for return of Trieste to Italy. A Foreign Office spokesman refused to speculate on what would follow).

Trieste, March 27 (A. P.).—The American light cruiser Manchester arrived here today shortly after the sailing of the Dayton which had been here for ten days.

VIENNA GUARDS AGAINST COUP

Anti-Communists Expected To Sign Accord On Action

Vienna, March 27 (AP)—A Government spokesman said today a political pact, binding Austria's two largest parties to unified action in case of an attempted Communist coup, is expected to be signed soon.

Negotiations are reported to be all but complete between the right-wing Peoples party and the Socialists, but final action has been postponed until after Easter when Adolf Schaerf, Vice Chancellor, returns from a Socialist conference in London.

"Leap From Window"

The pact is reported to outline a course of action should the chancellor, vice chancellor or president of Parliament be unable to fulfill their duties for any reason such as "sudden illness, arrest or a leap from a window."

They are also understood to be in agreement on an increase and improvement of arms for the police force, organization of an army, and on exclusion of members of political parties from both forces.

Increase of the police would require approval of the four occupation powers, and formation of an army awaits conclusion of a peace treaty now blocked by Big Four deadlocks.

Limit Set At 55,000

The four powers have agreed on a clause for the treaty limiting the army to 55,000 men.

The two parties are reported agreed that they will not bring about a new general election before November, 1949. Their pact may be reinforced later by agreement on economic measures, such as price and wage regulations.

There are five Communists in the lower house of Parliament as the result of the November 25, 1945, election. There are 84 members of the Peoples party and 76 Socialists. The Government is a coalition of the two parties.

A Government spokesman said the agreement would deal with actions to be taken if the chancellor, vice chancellor or president of Parliament is unable to fulfill his duties. It was pointed out that this applied to "sudden illness, arrest, or a leap from a window." The pact also will call for better armament for the Austrian police organization.

The police recommendation would need four-power approval. So would the agreement's recommendation for an Austrian Army whose members would be barred from membership in any party. The size and armament of the Austrian police are determined by the Allied Control Council while organization of an Austrian Army must await the signing of a treaty of independence.

Army Of 55,000

The Big Four have agreed that Austria shall be allowed to maintain an army of approximately 55,000 officers and men. There has been no agreement, however, on where Austria is to secure arms for this army.

Representatives of the two parties also agreed that no new national elections shall be called before those scheduled for November, 1949.

It is believed here the two parties may later agree on a number of economic measures, including price and wage regulations.

Top Austrian Parties Drafting Pact To Balk Communists

Vienna, March 27 (AP)—A political pact, binding Austria's two largest parties to unified action in case of a crisis, is expected to be signed soon. The pact will be designed to block any move for power by the minority Communist party.

Preliminary negotiations have taken place between the Right-wing People's party and the Socialists. Final action was postponed until after the Easter holidays because of the absence of Vice Chancellor Adolf Scharf, who attended the Socialist Congress in London.

News Censorship Pact Is Suggested By U.S.

Geneva, Switzerland, March 27 (AP)—The United States today proposed an international treaty to abolish censorship and protect the rights of foreign correspondents.

The sixteen-article draft convention was submitted to the United Nations Conference on Freedom of Information by the American delegation.

It proposed that all acceding nations grant equal facilities to each other's news and correspondents and refrain from any censorship other than "regulations relating directly to the maintenance of national military security."

Equal Access To News

Contracting states would agree to "facilitate the entry into and exit from their territories of foreign correspondents" from other states accepting the convention without special restrictions on movement or residence, and guaranteeing equal access to all news sources.

The draft, however, specifically excluded from the benefits of the convention correspondents "admitted conditionally" to a contracting state in order to cover proceedings of the United Nations.

Ban On Censorship

The convention proposed that all copy of foreign correspondents be transmitted "without censorship, editing or delay," subject to regulations protecting military security, which should be applied, when necessary, without discrimination, and only after the correspondent concerned has been given a full explanation.

Foreign correspondents also would have equal access to transmission facilities, and contracting states would permit publication of all news originating in other states accepting the convention with the exception of "obscene material."

States May Reply

To counteract reports "likely to injure relations with other states" the treaty provided for any contracting state to "submit its version of the true facts" to the other states, which would facilitate dissemination of its views.

The convention is expected to be discussed next week by Conference Committee No. 2, dealing with collection and transmission of information.

The treaty, as proposed by the United States, would be open for accession by any state.

Today's committee sessions of the conference were marked by vigorous attacks on the American press from Russian-bloc delegates.

Romania's M. Moraru declared that while his country possesses a "really free press," news distribution in the United States was "monopolized by three chains, the greatest of which, the Associated Press, controls all the information permitted to reach a large section of the American public."

Russian, Polish and Hungarian delegates all claimed that news censorship is exercised in the United States by "financial trusts" and that distribution of information is concentrated in the hands of "a few powerful financial groups."

One Romanian delegate claimed Romania's tolerance toward foreign correspondents was proved by the fact that New York Times correspondent William Lawrence and United Press correspondent Ann Stringer were permitted to remain in Romania "even after they had shown their hostility to our people."

Cite Romania's Tolerance

Hungary's Edmond Ferenczi indignantly waved today's edition of a Swiss newspaper and quoted a report of a statement made in Washington by Senator Styles Bridges (R., N.H.) that the United States plans to support underground anti-Communist movements in eastern Europe.

[Senator Bridges, outlining to the United States Senate Thursday a proposed seventeen-point program for combating communism, recommended that support be given to anti-Communist underground groups in Europe.]

Correspondents Suspect

"I do not say that such a plan indicates that an American newspaper man in eastern Europe is not bona fide," Ferenczi exclaimed, "but, at least, it makes him suspect."

Soviet Delegate Nicolai Poliakov sarcastically dismissed a French proposal to grant equal facilities to all foreign correspondents, irrespective of race, sex, nationality or religion.

"I must congratulate the citizens of French possessions in Africa and Asia," Poliakov declared, "that from now on they will be granted equal rights with citizens of metropolitan France."

U.S. Press Defended

Harry Martin, president of the American Newspaper Guild, and Sevellon Brown, publisher of the Providence (R.I.) Journal, struck back at the Eastern attacks on the American press.

Asserting that the United States press, radio and film industries are completely free, Martin rejected criticisms made "by the representative of a country which engages in completely autocratic and thoroughly accepted censorship" against the freedom of the press in another country "where there is no censorship of any kind."

U. S. Draft for U. N. Press Code

GENEVA, March 27 (UP)—Following is the text of the United States draft convention on the gathering and international transmission of news:

THE CONTRACTING STATES,

Desiring to implement the right of their peoples to be adequately informed,

Desiring to improve understanding between their peoples through the free flow of information and opinion, have resolved to conclude a convention for this purpose, and

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE 1

For the purposes of present convention, the following expressions are to be understood in the sense hereinafter defined:

(A.) Information Agency—Press, radio or film organization, whether public or private, created or organized under applicable laws and regulations within territories of the contracting state, regularly engaged in the collection and dissemination of news (including opinion) to the public, including press associations, news features services, newspapers, periodicals, radio and television broadcasting organizations and newsreel companies.

(B.) Foreign Correspondent—An individual employed by an information agency or a national of a contracting state who in either case is regularly engaged in the collection and reporting of the news (including opinion) to the general public and who is holder of a valid passport or other similar document issued to him by his own Government identifying him as a correspondent.

(C.) Copy—All news material, whether of information or opinion, and whether visual or auditory for public dissemination.

ARTICLE 2

The contracting states shall facilitate entry into and exit from their territories of foreign correspondents and their professional equipment in a manner consistent with their respective laws and procedures and shall impose no special or unusual restriction on such ingress or egress nor upon the transit through or residence in their territories of such correspondents.

ARTICLE 3

Foreign correspondents from each contracting state admitted under Article 2 into territories of any other contracting state shall be permitted to travel freely on their business as correspondents within such territories.

ARTICLE 4

The contracting states shall not deny foreign correspondents access to all places and news sources under the same conditions as most favored correspondents or correspondents of the most favored nation.

ARTICLE 5

All copy of foreign correspondents and foreign information agencies shall be permitted egress from the territories of each contracting state without censorship, editing or delay, provided that:

Each of the contracting states may make and enforce regulations relating directly to maintenance of national military security. Such regulations must be communicated to foreign correspondents and apply equally to the copy of all foreign correspondents and information agencies In event copy of any foreign correspondent is censored, edited or delayed in accordance with such regulations, the correspondent shall be notified immediately and given an explanation of the reasons therefore.

ARTICLE 6

Foreign correspondents of each contracting state in territories of the other contracting states shall have access to all facilities generally used for internal transmission at rates applicable to all other users of such facilities for similar purposes.

ARTICLE 7

Each contracting state agrees to permit all copy of foreign correspondents and information agencies of other contracting states to enter its territory and reach information agencies operating therein on the same conditions as are accorded to information agencies of the most favored nation.

ARTICLE 8

In cases where a contracting state alleges reports likely to injure its relations with other states or peoples, originating in copy of foreign correspondents operating within its territories, are false or distorted, it may submit its version of the true facts to other contracting states within whose territories such reports have been afforded public dissemination.

In such event, irrespective of its own views regarding the true facts, each such other contracting state shall make available to the information agencies which disseminate news to its people a public statement prepared by the contracting state making such allegation and shall facilitate its dissemination through customary channels in accordance with its usual procedure for releasing information concerning international affairs. Each of the contracting states may in its discretion discharge the obligation assumed pursuant to this article on the basis of reciprocity, basing its treatment of the version of true facts as submitted by another contracting state in like treatment accorded in practice by the other contracting state.

ARTICLE 9

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as depriving any contracting state of its right to make and enforce regulations prohibiting obscene material.

ARTICLE 10

The present convention shall not apply to foreign correspondents who, while not otherwise admissible under Article 2 into territory of a contracting state, are nevertheless admitted conditionally in accordance with agreement between that contracting state and the United Nations or specialized agency thereof to cover its proceedings, or pursuant to special arrangement made by the contracting state in order to facilitate entry of such correspondents.

ARTICLE 11

Nothing herein contained shall be interpreted as requiring any contracting state to exempt foreign correspondents or foreign information agencies from public laws and regulations promulgated for the protection of national security.

ARTICLE 12

The present convention shall be ratified on behalf of the states signatory hereto in conformity with their respective constitutions and procedures. Instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Secretary General of the United Nations, who shall notify all signatory and acceding states of each such deposit.

ARTICLE 13

The present convention shall remain open for accession of all states which are not signatories. Instruments of accession shall be deposited with the Secretary General of the United Nations, who shall notify all signatory and acceding states of each such deposit.

ARTICLE 14

The present convention shall come into force as soon as two states have deposited their respective instruments of ratification or accession. The convention thereafter shall come into force with respect to each other state on the date of deposit of its instrument of ratification or accession.

ARTICLE 15

Article relating to non-metropolitan territories to be inserted.

ARTICLE 16

The present convention shall remain in force indefinitely, but may be renounced by any contracting state by means of one year's notice in writing given to the Secretary General of the United Nations, who shall transmit a copy of the notice to each of the other contracting states. After expiration of this period of one year, the convention shall cease in its effect as regards the state which renounces it, but shall remain in force for the remaining contracting states.

ROMANIANS TO VOTE TODAY

Election Expected To Consolidate Left's Control

Bucharest, Romania, March 27 (AP)—Romanians will name a new Grand National Assembly tomorrow in an election which is expected to consolidate further the control by the extreme left over the country.

The election follows the December 30 abdication of King Mihai and the proclamation of a "people's democratic republic" by the present Communist-dominated government. Nation-wide elections were held last in November, 1946.

The voters will name an assembly of 414 deputies who will consider a constitution making Romania a Socialist-Communist state.

A victory for the Government's Popular Democratic Front is a foregone conclusion. Chief interest will be in the percentage of participation by the nation's voters.

Age Requirement Cut

Under the new constitution already in draft stage the age requirement for voting is reduced from 20 to 18. Talhari Georgescu, Interior Minister, said that by lowering the age 8,461,061 voters had been registered. This was 4,407,374 more than the number registered in the 1946 elections.

The Communist-dominated front has presented its slate of nominees. The opposition National Liberals and Independent Socialists have announced they will not participate.

The election comes eight months after the suppression of the National Peasant party, principal opposition group. Juliu Maniu, head of the party, was convicted of high treason November 11, 1947, and sentenced to life imprisonment. He had charged fraud in the 1946 elections.

Many elements found in the Soviet, Bulgarian and Yugoslav constitutions appear in the new Romanian constitution. There is no prospect of a fight over its provisions, for under the present alliance of parties in the Government there is no opposition.

For the 414 seats at stake the front has presented 1,100 candidates of the Romanian Workers (Communist) party, the Plowman's Front, the National Popular party, and the Magyar Union. The dissident Liberals and other minor oppositionists have under ten candidates.

The Grand National Assembly will sit as an extraordinary assembly only until the constitution is approved. Then it will proclaim itself an ordinary assembly.

Mihai Assailed

Final campaign speeches by Government officials have lashed out at the Americans, Mihai and alleged forces of reaction in Romania.

Greeks Report Guerrilla Losses

Athens, March 27 (AP)—The Greek General Staff said tonight 49 guerrilias have been killed and two captured in fighting on Mount Panuhaion in eastern Macedonia.

The General Staff also said an attack by a strong force of rebels was driven back 17 miles northwest of Sparta. Press reports said the guerrilla force numbered 700 men and that 100 casualties were inflicted by national guard troops.

All lieutenant generals of the Greek Army, with the exception of Chief of Staff Demtrios Yadjis, were placed on the retired list today. The decision was taken at a special meeting of the National Defense Council, which was attended by high American officials in Greece.

Constantin Tsaldaris, Foreign Minister, today addressed a strong protest to Trygve Le, Secretary General of the Unted Nations, against abduction of Greek children by guerrillas. The protest said "totalitarian communism has contrived and is now carrying out a diabolical conspiracy to kidnap tens of thousands of Greek children."

FINNS CHARGE DICTATOR PLOT BY COMMUNISTS

Conservative Press Says Iron Curtain Rides Moscow Talks

Helsinki, Finland, March 27 (AP). The conservative press charged Communists today with planning a dictatorship in Finland while an iron curtain hid the course of Moscow negotiations for a Finnish-Soviet friendship and military pact.

The report that the negotiations had reached a serious phase coincided with articles in the Soviet press which strongly accused Norway of following a "dangerous" trend of military collaboration with the United States.

[Russian organs attacked Finnish non-Communists before Prime Minister Stalin asked Finland for a treaty of co-operation, now being discussed. Norway has a common frontier with Russia under the Finnish peace treaty, and there has been speculation that Russia might demand a mutual-aid pact from Oslo.]

Causes Nervousness

Finland's strongest independent afternoon newspaper, Helsingin Sanomat, declared: "The fact that a small minority of our people (the Finnish Communists) openly threatens to use our foreign political position to force its own will on the great majority of the people according to the well-known pattern has caused nervousness."

The paper referred to a speech this week by Herta Kuusinen, wife of Finland's Communist Minister of the Interior, in which she said "Finland must follow the same road as Czechoslovakia."

Sanomat then asked, "Have not our people suffered enough already without having to go the road of brotherly hate for the second time within a few decades?"

The Conservative Reaction

The conservative paper, Kauppalehti, took the same line concerning the Kuusinen speech.

"One could not express more openly and precisely the aim of the Finnish Communists," Kauppalehti commented. "That aim is to have a one-party dictatorship and crush all reactionary elements."

"Are the Communists really preparing some sort of measures directed at using 'reformed' police forces in a coup because that is the only way they could attempt to make Finland a Communist country?

"The great majority of our people definitely are against all this, and the July elections will certainly confirm this fact if the elections are free. Under these circumstances the Kuusinen speech must be interpreted only as an empty boast or as a threat to use violence."

Next Move Up To Finns

This was the strongest language directed at the Communists since February 27, when it was learned Marshal Stalin had proposed a pact.

The Communist-dominated bloc in Parliament controls 51 of the 200 seats but showed a decline in strength in last December's municipal elections.

Cabinet Ministers met last night, and it was felt certain the Government had been informed by now of what Russia actually is demanding in the negotiations for a pact.

Finnish political quarters theorized that the next move in the negotiations was up to the Finns.

Dispatches from Moscow said Izvestia, the Government newspaper, in an article by Peter Grinin, struck out strongly at "Norwegian diehards" and "ruling circles" for their present policy.

Grinin said this policy was "pregnant with danger to the Norwegian people." He declared the collaboration of ruling Norwegian circles with Britain and the United States had gone so far as to envisage the use by the American armed forces of Jan Mayen and Svalbard Islands, agreement for standardization of armaments along American lines, the leasing of Norwegian territory for American and British bases, the establishment at Sula, near Stavenger, of an airport for American trans-Atlantic flights, and purchase of British jet planes.

The commentator said British military experts have been visiting northern Norwegian ports. Grinin said all this was in "obvious preparation for a western union" in Europe.

Svalbard Island is another name for Spitsbergen, the Arctic island outpost where Russia has a coal-mining concession. Jan Mayen Island is about 700 miles southwest of Spitsbergen. Stavanger is on the southwest Norwegian coast.

At the same time a Tass report said "an extraordinary interest by American military circles" in Swedish map making had been noted.

Finnish Cabinet Meets

Helsinski, March 27 (AP)—The Finnish Cabinet met last night, but nothing is known about the meeting or the reason for it.

It was assumed, however, that the Finnish Government by now has been informed by the Finnish delegation in Moscow of details of the Russian treaty proposal and that its points will be discussed.

The atmosphere in well-informed political circles is serious. It generally is presumed that the question of the proposed pact now has entered a decisive stage.

Finns and Russians Hold 3d Meeting

MOSCOW, March 27 (AP).—Finnish sources said Premier Mauno Pekkala and his delegation today met for the third time with Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov and his aides in their negotiations for a friendship and defense pact.

There was no information given out here concerning the course of the talks.

Russ Attack Norse 'Sellout To U.S.'

Moscow, March 27 (AP)—The Government newspaper Izvestia said today that Norwegian Government Rightists are "selling out Norway to the United States."

"The Marshall plan holds nothing good for Norway except that it endangers her independence and is fraught with her complete subjugation to foreign imperialists," Izvestia said.

[Russian organs attacked Finnish non-Communists before Prime Minister Stalin asked Finland for a treaty of co-operation, now being discussed. Norway has a common frontier with Soviet Russia under the Finnish peace treaty, and there has been speculation that Russia might demand a mutual-aid pact from Oslo.]

Meanwhile, Finnish-Soviet talks were scheduled to continue today.

Both Parties Silent

Both the Finnish legation and the Finnish delegation are maintaining a policy of silence on the substance of the negotiations.

Izvestia said Norwegian military collaboration with the United States had progressed to the extent that it envisaged use by the United States War Department of Norway's Jan Mayen and Svalbard islands.

[Jan Mayen Island is about 700 miles southwest of Norway's Spitsbergen, where the Russians have coal-mining concessions.]

Sees Arms And Bases At Stake

"According to latest information in Oslo," Izvestia said, "the War departments of Norway, the United States and Britain, in obvious preparation for a Western union, have agreed on far-reaching measures such as the standardization of Norwegian armaments according to the American pattern and the leasing of Norwegian territory for American and British bases."

The Russian navy paper Red Fleet charged the United States is trying to militarize Alaska "by setling the area with demobilized soldiers and sailors who can not find work in America."

Red Deals Reported In Pakistan Cotton

Moscow, March 27 (AP)—The Soviet News Agency Tass, in a dispatch carried by three Moscow newspapers, said today Soviet foreign trade organizations have bought several lots of cotton from Pakistan, Moslem dominion on the Indian subcontinent.

The dispatch was carried by Izvestia, Soviet Government newspaper; Pravda, Communist party paper, and Trud, trade-union organ.

The story from New Delhi, India, said the first freighters with Pakistan cotton as cargo already were on their way to Russia.

It said, "Business circles in Pakistan are noticeably interesting themselves in Soviet goods and an extension of trade with the Soviet Government."

Asylum in Turkey Sought by Prihoda

Istanbul, March 27 (A. P.).—The newspaper Cunhuriyet today said Vassa Prihoda, noted Czech concert violinist, had asked for political asylum in Turkey. Prihoda was not available for comment. The newspaper said he requested permission to stay here rather than return to his native country.

U.S. Plane Carrier In Persian Gulf

Dhahran, Saudi Arabia, March 25 [AP—Delayed]—The first American aircraft carrier ever seen in the Persian Gulf—the U.S.S. Valley Forge—lay at anchor off the American oil refinery at Ras Tenura today.

Crown Prince Saud, representing King Ibn Saud, journeyed from Riyad for a royal visit to the 25,000-ton flat top, which is making a courtesy call to the oil-rich east coast of this country.

The Crown Prince was accompanied by Amir Mansur, Defense Minister and fifth son of the monarch. Governor Amir Saud bin Jiluwi, of Al Hasa province, also was present.

The carrier is scheduled to leave tomorrow for home by way of the Suez Canal.

Reds Press Siege Of Weihsien

Nanking, March 27 (AP)—Bitter hand-to-hand fighting was reported raging today on the outskirts of Communist-besieged Weihsien on the Shantung Peninsula.

Dispatches to the independent newspaper Hsin Min Pao said Red pressure was increasing steadily. It appeared the Government was unable to move reinforcements into the area.

However, pro-Government reports to Peiping said another sector in the Chinese civil war was showing improvement. More than 5,000 Communists were reported routed near Miyun, on the Peiping-Jehol railway 40 miles northeast of Peiping.

Fengchen Recaptured

Peiping dispatches also reported recapture of Fengchen, on the Peiping-Suiyan railway and four coal mines and a power plant near Tatung—in the general area of Fengchen.

Workers were operating the mines in the daytime but taking refuge inside Tatung at night as a precaution against Red raiding parties, the dispatch added.

In Southern Chahar province, 100 miles west of Peiping, Government planes were strafing Communist forces at Yuhsien.

Reds Hold Liaoyang

Meanwhile, the first reports of Manchurian developments in the past several days credited the Nationalists with retaking a strongpoint near Liaoyang, 35 miles south of Mukden.

Despite previous Government claims of recapturing Liaoyang itself, the latest dispatches indicated that the rail city remained in Communist hands. It was not clear whether the Reds retook Liaoyang, or didn't withdraw in the first place.

[In South China, travelers arriving in Hong Kong reported the Communists were distributing leaflets in and around Canton urging the Chinese to rebel against the Government. The leaflets bore the signature of Liao Cheng-shih, South China Communist leader.]

U. S. Unable to Uncover Shanghai Counterfeiters

SHANGHAI, March 27 (AP).—A thriving business in counterfeit American money is being done at Shanghai. An American banker said the city ranks second to Germany as the world's largest market in bogus currency. A black market deals in it.

Those unable to get rid of counterfeits otherwise can trade them for legal currency. They take only a 50-per-cent loss. Secret Service agents have investigated the counterfeit market in China for two years. But they're still stumped as to the source of the money.

[At San Francisco, a Secret Service source said Friday that thousands of dollars in near-perfect counterfeit bills—$20s, $50s and $100s—had turned up there recently. Counterfeiting rings in the Orient were blamed.]

India Names Envoy To China

New Delhi, March 27 (AP)—The Indian Government announced tonight the appointment of Sardar K. M. Panikkar as Ambassador to China. Panikkar, 53, is former editor of the Hindustan Times. Until recently he was Premier of Bikanar state.

Accept Red Bid, U.S. Suggests To Koreans

Seoul, March 27 (AP)—American occupation officials said today South Korean political leaders can—if they wish—attend a Soviet-sponsored meeting in North Korea April 14.

One high authority, who requested anonymity, observed:

"It might be a good thing for the Rightist leaders, who object to the United Nations-approved election in South Korea scheduled May 9, to go north and find out for themselves how the Soviets operate on their home grounds."

Permanent Split Feared

Rightists and other dissidents in the United States zone were invited yesterday to Pyongyang, Soviet occupation headquarters city, to help the Russian-backed North Korean regime establish a government for all Korea.

Kim Koo, Rightist political leader, and other non-Communists oppose the election in South Korea on grounds it might permanently divide this Asiatic nation. The United Nations wanted the election to be nation wide, but Russia refused to co-operate.

A speical United Nations commission, here to observe the election, was even denied admittance to the Soviet zone for a courtesy call.

The United Nations decided to go ahead and observe an election in the south to establish a basis for a self-government which North Koreans could join eventually.

Caution Is Counseled

Another United States source counseled caution in acting on the Pyongyang invitation, however. He said it might be a trial balloon to see how much strength could be drawn from the south or represent an effort to sabotage United Nations plans.

Presumably, the South Koreans will be asked to approve a draft constitution for a so-called people's republic.

Russian About-Face

The specific invitation to Kim Koo represents an about-face by the Russians. He previously was denounced bitterly by them and Korean Communists during the futile sessions of the Soviet-American Joint Commission on Korea.

Both Kim Koo and Kimm Kyu Sik, former chairman of the American-sponsored South Korean Legislature, expressed a willingness to attend the April meeting if invited officially. The invitations were made in broadcasts by the Pyongyang radio.

Dr. Syngman Rhee, anti-Communist Korean Independence leader, was omitted from the broad invitation. But he commented:

"I'm not interested. It would be a joint commission all over again."

Dr. Rhee is in favor of the United Nations-approved election in South Korea.

'Voice Of America' Jamming Worse

Manila, March 27 (AP)—Despite official United States protests, the trans-Pacific Russian-language shr jamming of "Voice of America" trans-Pacific Russian-language broadcasts was louder than ever today.

Interference built up a to crescendo of squeals, howls, dots and dashes just after 11 A.M. Greenwich mean time (6 A.M. Western Standard Time) when the State Department's newscast for Siberia went on the air.

Before and after that time, when news in other Asiatic languages and English is broadcast, interference was negligible and programs were clear.

A wide variety and number of American transmitters are employed in the "Voice of America" programs for Siberia. All are located in California, with the exception of one relay in Honolulu.

Because of this location, experts here believe those who are doing the jamming must be using a formidable battery of transmitters. That would take considerable planning and a large amount of equipment.

The State Department in Washington announced last week it had asked its Ambassador in Moscow to request the Russians to take remedial measures to stop the jamming.

BOGOTA TALKS OPEN TUESDAY

Use Of Pact To Bar Communism Likely Hemisphere Topic

Bogota, Colombia, March 27 (AP). Ways of employing the new Western Hemisphere defense pact, to prevent Communist encroachment probably will be brought before the ninth Pan-American Conference which opens here Tuesday.

The question of colonialism and proposals to improve the economy of Latin-American nations also may be among the major topics.

The 21 nations making up the Pan-American Union hope to mold their system of co-ordination and co-operation into a new structure which fits the needs of modern politics. The meeting here will be the first full-dress gathering of the Western Hemisphere republics since the Lima conference in 1938.

Reorganization Under U.N.

Delegates will face the task of reorganizing the structure of hemispheric relations in accordance with the United Nations Charter.

A projected treaty, to be presented to the conference as a basis for discussion, refers to the creation of a permanent defense council. Argentina has announced its opposition to a council under the control of the Pan-American Union's governing board. She desires instead to make the council responsible directly to the governments of the Americas.

Chile has announced that she will ask the Western Hemipshere nations to take a strong stand against the expansion of communism.

Stable Economies

The United States and some other American republics believe sound and stable economies are the best defense against communism. This is one reason why so much interest has been shown in the possibility of adopting an efficient economic co-operation program here.

The Marshall plan for European recovery is worrying some Latin-American republics which fear that it means further postponement of their industrial development. They look on the United States as their only source of machinery and capital goods.

Many Latin Americans feel the United States is giving too much attention to problems in other parts of the world and ignoring the present critical economic situation in many republics of this hemisphere. One diplomat, who declined to be quoted by name, put it this way:

"The United States is fighting communism in western Europe with goods, in Asia with bullets and in Latin America with words."

Long-Term Loans

United States officials insist they are trying to develop some constructive program to meet Latin-America's needs. This program includes long-term loans by the Export-Import Bank to private enterprise.

These officials also contend that if more freedom is granted by Latin-American nations to private enterprise there would be a larger flow of American capital to the other republics for new industries.

The United States may propose that the conference establish an inter-American development corporation with capital of $100,000,000 to help prepare economic programs for Latin-American countries and provide technical and scientific assistance.

50-Man U.S. Delegation

Washington, March 27 (AP)—The United States is sending a 50-man delegate to the Inter-American Conference at Bogota, Colombia. It is topped by three Cabinet members.

This is the first time three members of the President's official family have been named to an inter-American conference.

It indicates, officials said today, the importance the United States attaches to the conference at this critical juncture in history.

Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, who heads the delegation, is scheduled to leave around 9 P.M. tomorrow night in an army plane.

William McChesney Martin, Jr., head of the Export-Import Bank, will accompany the Secretary.

W. Averell Harriman, Commerce Secretary, who is visiting his family in Florida, will pick up Marshall's plane in Panama for the remainder of the trip.

John W. Snyder, Treasury Secretary, also a delegate, is not leaving with the initial group but may go later on.

GOP Considering Adding 3 Billions To Defense Fund

Taft Calls Parley of Senate Policy Committee to Air Military Needs; Ohioan Favors Billion for Air Force

WASHINGTON, March 27 (AP).—Senate Republican leaders talked today of boosting national defense funds between two and three billion dollars and earmarking a billion for the Air Force.

Chairman Robert A. Taft (R., Ohio) said that the Senate Republican Policy Committee would review the entire military situation at a meeting next week.

He said this would involve discussion of President Truman's call for revival of the draft and for Universal Military Training. The GOP members will do some talking about costs, he said.

Republican finance leaders in both House and Senate contend that the Government can afford to pay for foreign aid and an adequate defense while cutting taxes and reducing the national debt.

Taft, a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, is on record for a billion-dollar boost in Air Force funds for the year starting July 1.

OTHERS BACK PLAN

The Ohioan has a lot of Republican company on this point.

Two members of the Appropriations Committee—Chairman Styles Bridges (R., N. H.) and William F. Knowland (R., Calif.)—are out for a 70-group Air Force. They are in a key place to make their weight felt.

The preparedness plan submitted by Secretary of Defense James Forrestal last week called for only a 55-group Air Force.

DISPUTES SECRETARY

Taft said he didn't think this was enough. He wonders, he said, whether the Forrestal plan puts too much emphasis on Army and Navy at the expense of air.

The Ohio Senator said he hadn't made up his mind how big an increase in military funds he would support.

But he has talked about killing UMT and thereby getting the billion he wants to put into the Air Force. He spoke previously of trimming Army and Navy funds some but apparently has discarded that idea in the face of the demands for more men in both the old line branches.

The President's original budget provided more than a billion to start UMT and for related civilian and military activities.

Forrestal upped that last week by $438,000,000.

MAY SEEK FOUR BILLIONS

The President may ask upwards of four billions for the new layer of the defense program. Taft and some other Senate Republican leaders obviously think that is too much.

If they can shift a billion over to the Air Force and save about half a billion more by scuttling UMT, they still must find other savings if the President goes as high as expected.

The scuttling of UMT won't be accomplished without a fight, in any event.

Chairman Chan Gurney (R., S. D.) of the Armed Services Committee is reported to favor it over the temporary draft proposal. His committee expects to report out both military measures for a Senate showdown.

Report on China Is Withdrawn

WASHINGTON, March 27 (AP).—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today withdew the critical report which accompained its recommendation that China be given $463,000,000 in new American aid.

The action was taken abruptly by Chairman Arthur H. Vandenberg (R. Mich), who said in a statement that the document created an impression "which was not intended."

The report issued yesterday urged that aid be provided Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government to help it win the civil war against the Communists. But at the same time, it said of the Chinese situation that the "unfavorable factors presently outweigh the favora[illegible]

INEFFICIENCY CHARGED

Vandenberg said that the report contained "a few sentences which do not reflect the viewpoint of the committee or its chairman."

He did not identify these in his statement but apparently had reference to a section which in effect charged the Nationalist government with "inefficiency, corruption and bureaucratic maladies."

Vandenberg took note of the Chinese governmental structure in his statement.

"I think it is obvious that certain reforms in the Chinese government and the basic Chinese economy are necessary for the sake of all concerned," he declared.

'A COMMON CONTEST'

"The committee frankly discussed these facts. But I think it is equally obvious that the Nationalist government represents our common contest against Communist aggression and deserves firm support within our resources."

The report said it was the avowed purpose of the Chinese Communists "to engineer an economic collapse" in their mother country.

The current civil war, the report added, "includes the usual Communist tactics of disruption, destruction and sabotage."

DEBATE DUE TUESDAY

The China aid bill, due to come up for Senate debate Tuesday, would authorize $363,000,000 in economic aid along the general terms outlined in the $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program.

In addition, the bill authorizes $100,000,000 which may be used at the option of the Chinese government, presumably for military supplies.

The House is now debating a foreign relief measure which would extend $570,000,000 aid to China, of which $420,000,000 would be for economic recovery and $150,000,000 for military supplies.

Vandenberg said the withdrawal of the committee's report would not delay the debate.

RECALLS REPORT ON CHINA REGIME

Washington, March 27 (A. P.).—Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.), its chairman, withdrew today a Senate Foreign Relations Committee report which was critical of the Chinese Nationalist Government. The report was issued yesterday in connection with the committee's approval of $463,000,000 aid for China.

Vandenberg said in a statement that it had "created an impression which was not intended." He accepted full responsibility for the report and its withdrawal and declared that he regretted the incident.

The report said at one point that China's economy and prospects have been marred by an eight-year war with Japan and the current civil war. It declared that "inefficiencies, corruption and bureaucratic maladies become even more devastating in a period of dislocation and inflation."

"Ineptitude in military leadership and corruption among Army commanders has contributed largely to the lowered morale of the Chinese troops," it said. "An important psychological factor is the lack of popular confidence in the Chinese Government."

Vandenberg told reporters when he issued his statement today that he is not casting any reflections on the Foreign Relations Committee staff which prepared the report. He said this of the staff:

"It has done a superlatively fine job throughout the pressures of the last six months. I am entirely confident that the few offending sentences in this report are simply a mistake in judgment, and I know the entire staff cordially and heartily supports aid for China."

3-to-1 House Vote For Foreign Aid Bill Is Expected

WASHINGTON, March 27 (AP).—House leaders expect to ram the $6,205,000,000 foreign aid bill to passage next week by at least a three-to-one vote.

They are so confident that Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr., said the leadership was not even polling members on which way they would ballot.

The bill is intended to use American cash and military "know how" to help Europe and China stem Communism.

It is aimed at what Martin, in a speech tonight in Toledo, called the "'despots of the Kremlin," the "men mad with lust for power who are determined to overrun the world."

"We must stop them," he said. "We intend to stop them."

Martin disclosed the absence of a poll on the foreign aid bill before leaving for Toledo.

Chairman Charles A. Eaton (R., N. J.), of the Foreign Affairs Committee said:

"My own view is that there won't be more than 80, and I doubt if there will be that many against the bill. There has been a very great change in the attitude toward this bill."

The top committee Democrat, Representative Sol Bloom (D., N. Y.), agreed there "won't be 80 votes against the bill."

The House has 432 members and three vacancies. But ordinarily fewer than 400 show up for roll-call votes.

An amendment bombardment against the bill will start on the House floor Monday. Representative John M. Vorys (R., Ohio), managing the measure, says he thinks it will be over by Tuesday.

So the vote on passage could come late Tuesday or sometime Wednesday.

There may be some changes—to tighten up on exports to Russia and to put in $220,000,000 of economic help for Japan, Korea and the Ryukyu Islands, for instance. But Vorys and Bloom predict the bill is going through pretty much "as is."

DELAY BY CONFEREES

After that the Senate and House will have to settle some differences. That will take several days.

But Congressional leaders say they are sure the bill will be at the White House for the President to sign early in April.

The Administration wants the bill to be a law before April 18. That is the date for an election in Italy in which Communists are trying to make a strong showing.

SENATE SPEEDS BILLS

The Senate is handling foreign aid in several bills, the House in one.

The Senate already has passed a $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program and a $275,000,000 military aid bill for Greece and Turkey. It expects to act next week on a $463,000,000 Chinese aid bill which would permit use of $100,000,000 in any way the Chinese Government sees fit. That includes military uses.

The single package House bill includes the $5,300,000,000 European program, the $275,000,000 Greek-Turkish military aid plan, $420,000,000 for economic and $150,000,000 for military help for China, and $60,000,000 for the United Nations fund for children.

Additional Curbs On Exports To Reds Sought

Washington, March 27 (AP)—An Administration clamp-down on exports of war goods to Russia failed today to stifle demands in Congress for extra padlocks.

Representative Mundt (R., S.D.) said he intends to go right ahead with an amendment to the $6,205,000,000 House foreign-aid bill which would give the director of the European Recovery Program veto power over "war-potential" exports.

And Chairman Hazley (R., Okla.) said his House Expenditures subcommittee is going to dig deeper into the disposal of World War II surplus supplies to the Soviets.

Cargo To Be Checked

Committee investigators, he said, are going to New York to check goods being loaded onto Russia-bound ships. He said they also will look into reports that speculators are selling export licenses.

And Chairman Shafer (R., Mich.) of a House Armed Services subcommittee said Commerce Department officials will be quizzed next week on shipments to the U.S.S.R.

For months congressional committees have been digging up information about oil and ships—and, in the last few days, airplane engines—Russia has been getting from this country.

Truman Tightens Controls

President Truman stepped into the export dispute yesterday. He issued a proclamation tightening controls, particularly on exports of plane engines and radar equipment. Following that move—

1. Secretary of Commerce Harriman said Russia and her satellites are getting no exports except those the Army and Navy approve.

2. The War Assets Administration said it is delaying for at least 30 days taking Finland's high bid of $1,666,900 for 46 unused steam locomotives. Finland and Russia are talking over a military treaty, but WAA didn't mention that or any other reason for its action.

Export Licenses Reviewed

Harriman said the new policy on shipments to Russia has been in effect since March 1. He said the idea is to keep Russia and the satellites from getting United States goods that might build up their "war potential."

All export licenses for any such goods, he said, now are reviewed by a special advisory board. Represented on it are: the Army, Navy, Air Force, Atomic Energy Commission, National Security Resources Board and the departments of State, Commerce, Agriculture and Interior.

Mundt said that this is a "gratifying, constructive move." But he added it is "an open admission that their program of export controls to date has been inadequate and inept."

Action On Amendments Due

Mundt is a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which takes the $6,205,000,000 foreign-aid bill to the House floor for amendments Monday. The measure is designed to supply global economic and military aid to backstop efforts of Europe and China to ward off communism.

The bill, slated for passage Tuesday or Wednesday, has one tough issue left unsettled: How far Congress should go in seeing to it that the United States and western Europe cut down on exports to Russia and her satellites.

Mundt already has put into the bill a section intended to persuade free Europe against building up Russian strength. It says in effect:

Nations getting help from us should not use American materials to make and sell to the Soviets and satellites goods which this country refuses to sell to them.

Eaton Opposes Full Ban

Chairman Eaton (R., N.J.) of the Foreign Affairs Committee said he is against letting Russia have any more war materials. But he said he also is against an outright ban on all exports to Russia.

"Barring exports is extreme," he said, "because we are not prepared to set up economic warfare with Russia or any country with which we can have legitimate trade."

Yet Mundt said he looks for a strong effort to block all exports to the Soviets. And Representative Colmer (D., Miss.), another Foreign Affairs committeeman, says he is going to put it squarely up to the House to say yes or no to such "economic sanctions."

Harriman Opposed Also

Secretary Harriman said yesterday he is against a complete export ban. He gave much the same reasons as former President Herbert Hoover: Trade with eastern Europe is necessary to the recovery of western Europe and will save the United States money.

In addition, the Secretary repeated what President Truman said: "We want to keep the door open" to friendly relations with Russia, and trade is one way of doing it.

PIPES MAY END IN RUSS HANDS

House Group Told Of Possible Reshipment Of Cargoes

New York, March 27 (AP)—A spokesman for a congressional subcommittee said today that 43 carloads of oil well piping is awaiting shipment to South American and Asiatic ports where it is believed at least part of it will be reshipped to the Soviet Union.

The spokesman, E. R. Ferguson, Jr., assistant counsel to the subcommittee of the House Committee on Public Works, said his report was "conjecture," but added it was based on the opinions of "people who have a good inside knowledge" of the shipments.

Oil well piping is virtually unobtainable in this country, Ferguson said, and the shortage is delaying the development of new oil fields in the United States.

Calls Ferguson "Competent"

Ferguson was backed up by Representative W. Kingsland, Macy (R., N.Y.), chairman of the subcommittee, who said Ferguson is a "competent, careful man."

Ferguson said the piping reported to be in excess of 3,000,000 feet, now is at the Erie railroad terminal at Weehawken, N.J. He said it has been bought by New York brokers.

"There is no indication that brokers here are in any way connected with Russian agents or that they are aware that the pipe is destined for shipment to Russia," Ferguson said.

"The committee believes that Russia is using this subterfuge as a means of getting as much material out of the United States as possible," he said.

Sent For Reshipment

"Customs officials told our investigator, however, that a lot of cargo is being sent on ships other than those of Russian registery to South America, Italy and Yugoslavia for reshipment to the U.S.S.R.," Ferguson said.

"The customs officials felt that American consuls in these foreign ports should file reports on such shipments."

Ferguson said the piping awaiting shipment is intended for ports in Venezuela, Chile, Panama, Argentina, Manila, Lebanon, the Netherlands East Indies and the Union of South Africa.

REICH TERROR LAID TO SOVIET

U. S. Says Reds Smash Foes in Concentration Camps.

Washington, March 27 (A. P.).—The United States has charged Russia with smashing political opponents in eastern Germany by throwing them into concentration camps without trial.

In a sharp note to the Soviets last night, the State Department said Russian-backed political parties in the former enemy country are the new bulwark for a totalitarian regime and added:

"Concentration camps are being used anew for individuals unwilling to accept [illegible] totalitarianism."

A diplomatic official, meanwhile, identified two of the camps as Buchenwald — where millions pershed at Nazi hands during the war—and Oranienburg.

The American note was in answer to a Russian protest that the western Powers are splitting Germany—and Europe—in defiance of the Potsdam agreement.

Flat Rejection.

Flatly rejecting that charge—as Britain did on Thursday—the United States referred to moves it has taken with the Britsh and French to achieve the pacification of Germany and the economic recovery of Europe, and declared:

"It is not these steps which have led to the political cleavage of Europe as claimed by the Soviet Government, but rather prior actions of the Soviet Government and a group of eastern European States under Soviet influence."

The American answer, signed by Assistant Secretary of State Norman Armour, was delivered on Thursday to Russian Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin and released yesterday by the State Department.

It was prompted by a Russian protest last March 6 that United States-British-French discussions of Germany's future violated the Potsdam agreement, which provides for four-Power rule of Germany.

Nothing in the Potsdam document, retorted the American note, prevents two or three Powers from discussing Germany if four Powers cannot do so. And it reminded the Russians that they had been invited to join in the talks but had declined.

4 Big U.S. Subs Soon To Be Given To Turks

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Four powerful, long-range submarines are getting ready for their last voyage under the American flag.

Destined for Turkey as part of American military aid, they are now at New London, Conn. No date has been set for their departure, the Navy said today, but it has been generally understood they will leave some time next month.

Rated Among Navy's Best

American sailors, with a skeleton Turkish crew looking on, will take the ships to Turkey. No port has been named as the actual delivery point to the Turkish Government.

The subs—the Boarfish, Blue Back, Brill and Chub—were built in 1944, and are rated among the Navy's best. They have a top surface speed of 20 knots and a submerged speed of about 10 knots.

Eleven auxiliary vessels, also being given to Turkey, are waiting in the northern area for Turkish crews. Some 350 Turkish officers and men are now being trained in this country to take over the ships.

Drive To Revise U.N. Charter Seen

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Representative Mundt (R., S.D.) predicted today that a strong drive to revise the United Nations Charter will begin in Congress as soon as the European Recovery Program is enacted.

Mundt is one of more than a dozen sponsors of a resolution to alter the Charter to increase its effectiveness in dealing with aggression.

"We want to force a conference on Charter revision as quickly as possible," he said. "We need to speed the diplomatic approach to the problem of checking communism just as we are speeding the economic and military approach.

"While free countries still have a preponderance of power over Communist-dominated nations, we need to provide them with a potent counterweapon to stop Communist aggression."

Mundt said those nations in the most immediate danger of being engulfed need to know they are being supported in the fight to save their freedoms. He added:

"There must be an end to this nibbling process by which one nation after another falls to communism. There must be an end to the fears in free countries that grow out of the feeling they are standing alone."

PRESIDENT APPROVES ARMY RESERVIST PAY

WASHINGTON, March 27 (AP)—President Truman has signed a bill which provides for training pay for all civilian components of the armed forces.

The bill will give Army and Air Force Reserves training pay on inactive duty on the same basis as that authorized for many years for members of the National Guard, the Naval Reserve and the Marine Corps Reserve.

It will give inactive-duty pay to participants at the rate of one-thirtieth of one month's base and longevity pay for each training period of two hours or more.

There was no immediate indication from the Army when it would be put into effect.

The bill was the first of two measurers designed to bolster the country's reserve forces. A second, awaiting Senate action, establishes a retirement program for reservists who engaged in continued training and active duty with the regular forces over a period of years.

Brig. Gen. E. A. Evans, executive director of the Reserve Officers Association, who witnessed the signing of the first measure, said that "an alert, highly trained, revitalized reserve force of 1,000,000 men will spring into being" through the two measures.

CONGRESS HONORS ARMY AIR PIONEER

General Mitchell Is Awarded Posthumous Medal

Washington, March 27 (AP)—A special congressional medal was awarded posthumously today to Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, famous army flyer of World War I, for his "outstanding service as a pioneer in the field of American military aviation."

Gen. Carl Spaatz, Air Force chief of staff, presented the medal to the General's son, William Mitchell, Jr., telling him: "Your father was an inspiration for all the Air Force has done."

Widow Attends Ceremony

At the ceremony, attended by high-ranking members of the military establishment, was the General's widow, Mrs. Thomas B. Byrd, of Boyce, Va. The medal was approved by Congress in 1946.

Mitchell, early advocate of strong airpower, became a central figure in arguments over the value of bombers against naval ships. He was court-martialed in 1926 for remarks which, however, did not involve the bomber-versus-battleship argument. The court-martial was based on Mitchell's alleged criticism of the Navy for laxity in operation of some of its naval aviation.

Died In 1936

Mitchell left the Army after the court-martial rather than accept a sentence imposing suspension from service for several months. He died in 1936.

On Capitol Hill, Senator Wiley (R., Wis.) said he will press for action on his bill to confer upon Mitchell a major general's commission. It has passed the Senate three times but died in the House.

FHA APPROVES CHEAPER HOMES

Says Those Under $4000 Are 'Sound and Livable.'

Washington, March 27 (A. P.).—Homes are built, financed and sold for less than $4,000 in three areas, the Federal Housing Administration said today. It called them "sound and livable."

Hundreds have been constructed in Arizona, Michigan and Tennessee with class 3 loans up to $3,000 insured under Title 1 of the national housing act, the FHA said in a statement.

More than 650 have been built in Arizona, where several lending institutions handle the loans. A considerable number have been built in the Detroit area where an institution is making loans up to $3,000 on homes built to sell for just under $4,000.

28 in Jackson, Tenn.

In Jackson, Tenn., the FHA said, a local lumber yard is sponsoring a project through which twenty-eight homes have been built under the class 3 program, and twenty-more are under construction. All of them are for owner occupancy, and most owners are veterans since their group has preference.

The average down payment is $500 and the selling prices range from $3,000 to $3,600, exclusive of the lots. These are widely separated, owned by the purchasers and cost an average of about $500.

Most of the loans are made by a Jackson bank. The houses are of five basic designs, each including two or three bedrooms, living room, bathroom and kitchen. The builder believes he can erect and market 200 houses this year, the FHA added.

The Arizona operations selling prices, exclusive of land, have sold as low as $3,000, and all are under $4,000. The houses include standard masonry and frame, prefabricated frame and frame stucco units and factory-made units. Since August, 1947, when the class 3 program was renewed, more than 250 homes have been built for owners, and 400 for sale or rent.

Text of the Decisions of the Joint Staff on Assignments for Defense

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, March 27—Following is the text of the staff paper made public today by Secretary of Defense Forrestal embodying the decisions on assignment of missions to the three armed services reached at his conference with the Joint Chiefs of Staff at Key West, March 11-14:

Functions of the Armed Forces and the Joint Chiefs of Staff

INTRODUCTION

Congress, in the National Security Act of 1947, has described the basic policy embodied in the Act in the following terms:

"In enacting this legislation, it is the intent of Congress to provide a comprehensive program for the future security of the United States; to provide for the establishment of integrated policies and procedures for the departments, agencies and functions of the Government relating to the national security; to provide three military departments for the operation and administration of the Army, the Navy (including naval aviation and the United States Marine Corps) and the Air Force, with their assigned combat and service components; to provide for their authoritative coordination and unified direction under civilian control but not to merge them; to provide for the effective strategic direction of the armed forces and for their operation under unified control and for their integration into an efficient team of land, naval and air forces."

In accordance with the policy declared by Congress and in accordance with the provisions of the National Security Act of 1947, and to provide guidance for the departments and the joint agencies of the National Military Establishment, the Secretary of Defense hereby promulgates the following statement of the functions of the Armed Forces and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

PRINCIPLES

1. There shall be the maximum practicable integration of the policies and procedures of the departments and agencies of the National Military Establishment. This does not imply a merging of Armed Forces, but does demand a consonance and correlation of policies and procedures throughout the National Military Establishment, in order to produce an effective, economical, harmonious and businesslike organization which will insure the military security of the United States.

2. The functions stated herein shall be carried out in such a manner as to achieve the following:

a. Effective strategic direction of the Armed Forces.

b. Operation of Armed Forces under unified command, wherever such unified command is in the best interest of National security.

c. Integration of the Armed Forces into an efficient team of land, naval, and air forces.

d. Prevention of unnecessary duplication or overlapping among the Services, by utilization of the personnel, intelligence, facilities, equipment, supplies and services of any or all Services in all cases where military effectiveness and economy of resources will thereby be increased.

e. Coordination of Armed Forces operations to promote efficiency and economy and to prevent gaps in responsibility.

3. It is essential that there be full utilization and exploitation of the weapons, techniques and intrinsic capabilities of each of the Services in any military situation where this will contribute effectively to the attainment of overall military objectives. In effecting this, collateral as well as primary functions will be assigned. It is recognized that assignment of collateral functions may establish further justification for stated force requirements, but such assignment shall not be used as the basis for establishing additional force requirements.

4. Doctrines, procedures and plans covering joint operations and joint exercises shall be jointly prepared. Primary responsibility for development of certain doctrines and procedures is hereinafter assigned.

5. Technological developments, variations in the availability of manpower and natural resources, changing economic conditions and changes in the world politico-military situation may dictate the desirability of changes in the present assignment of specific functions and responsibilities to the individual Services. This determination and the initiation of implementing action are the responsibility of the Secretary of Defense.

Common Functions of the Armed Forces

A. General

As prescribed by higher authority and under the general direction of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Armed Forces shall conduct operations wherever and whenever necessary for the following purposes:

1. To support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign or domestic.

2. To maintain, by timely and effective military action, the security of the United States, its possessions and areas vital to its interest.

3. To uphold and advance the national policies and interests of the United States.

4. To safeguard the internal security of the United States.

B. Specific

1. In accordance with guidance from the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to prepare forces and to establish reserves of equipment and supplies for the effective prosecution of war and to plan for the expansion of peacetime components to meet the needs of war.

2. To maintain in readiness mobile reserve forces, properly organized, trained and equipped for employment in emergency.

3. To provide adequate, timely and reliable intelligence for use within the National Military Establishment.

4. To organize, train and equip forces for joint operations.

5. To conduct research, to develop tactics, technique and organization and to develop and procure weapons, equipment and supplies essential to the fulfillment of the functions hereinafter assigned, each Service coordinating with the others in all matters of joint concern.

6. To develop, garrison, supply, equip and maintain bases and other installations, to include lines of communication and to provide administrative and logistical support of all forces and bases.

7. To provide, as directed by proper authority, such forces, military missions and detachments for service in foreign countries as may be required to support the national interests of the United States.

8. As directed by proper authority, to assist in training and equipping the military forces of foreign nations.

9. Each Service to assist the others in the accomplishment of their functions, including the provision of personnel, intelligence, training, facilities, equipment, supplies and services as may be determined by proper authority.

10. Each Service to support operations of the others.

11. Each Service to coordinate operations (including administrative, logistical, training and combat) with those of the other Services as necessary in the best interests of the United States.

12. Each Service to determine and provide the means of communications by which command within the Service is to be exercised.

13. To refer all matters of strategic significance to the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

FUNCTIONS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF

A. General

The Joint Chiefs of Staff consisting of the Chief of Staff, U. S. Army; the Chief of Naval Operations; the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force; and the Chief of Staff to the Commander-in-Chief, if there be one, are the pricipal military advisers to the President and to the Secretary of Defense.

B. Specific

Subject to the authority and direction of the President and the Secretary of Defense, it shall be the duty of the Joint Chiefs of Staff:

1. To prepare strategic plans and to provide for the strategic direction of the Armed Forces, to include the general direction of all combat operations.

2. To prepare joint logistic plans and to assign to the military Services logistic responsibilities in accordance with such plans.

3. To prepare integrated joint plans for military mobilization and to review major material requirements and personnel qualifications and requirements of the Armed Forces in the light of strategic and logistic plans.

4. To promulgate to the individual departments of the National Military Establishment general policies and doctrines in order to provide guidance in the preparation of their respective detailed plans.

5. As directed by proper authority, to participate in the preparation of combined plans for military action in conjunction with the armed forces of other nations.

6. To establish unified commands in strategic areas when such unified commands are in the interest of national security and to authorize commanders thereof to establish such subordinate unified commands as may be necessary.

7. To designate, as necessary, one of their members as their executive agent for:

a. A unified command;

b. Certain operations and specified commands;

c. The development of special tactics, technique and equipment, except as otherwise provided herein; and

d. The conduct of joint training, except as otherwise provided herein.

8. To determine what means are required for the exercise of unified command and to assign to individual members of the responsibility of providing such means.

9. To approve policies and doctrines for:

a. Joint operations, including joint amphibious and airborne operations, and for joint training.

b. Coordinating the education of members of the Armed Forces.

10. To recommend to the Secretary of Defense the assignment of primary responsibility for any function of the Armed Forces requiring such determination.

11. To prepare and submit to the Secretary of Defense, for his information and consideration in furnishing guidance to the Departments for preparation of their annual budgetary estimates and in coordinating these budgets, a statement of military requirements which is based upon agreed strategic considerations, joint outline war plans and current national security commitments. This statement of requirements shall include: tasks, priority of tasks, force requirements, and general strategic guidance concerning development of military installations and bases, equipping and maintaining the military forces, and research and development and industrial mobilization programs.

12. To provide United States representation on the Military Staff Committee of the United Nations, in accordance with the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations and representation on other properly authorized military staffs, boards, councils and missions.

FUNCTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY

The United States Army includes land combat and service forces and such aviation and water transport as may be organic therein. It is organized, trained, and equipped primarily for prompt and sustained combat operations on land. Of the three major Services, the Army has primary interest in all operations on land, except in those operations otherwise assigned herein.

A. Primary Functions

1. To organize, train and equip Army forces for the conduct of prompt and sustained combat operations on land. Specifically:

a. To defeat enemy land forces.

b. To seize, occupy and defend land areas.

2. To organize, train and equip Army antiaircraft artillery units.

3. To organize and equip, in coordination with the other Services, and to provide Army forces for joint amphibious and airborne operations and to provide for the training of such forces in accordance with policies and doctrines of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

4. To develop, in coordination with the other Services, tactics, technique and equipment of interest to the Army for amphibious operations and not provided for in Section [illegible] paragraph A 4 and paragraph 11 c.

5. To provide an organization capable of furnishing adequate, timely and reliable intelligence for the Army.

6. To provide Army forces as required for the defense of the United States against air attack, in accordance with joint doctrines and procedures approved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

7. To provide forces, as directed by proper authority, for occupation of territories abroad, to include initial establishment of military government pending transfer of this responsibility to other authority.

8. To develop, in coordination with the Navy, the Air Force, and the Marine Corps, the doctrines, procedures and equipment employed by Army and Marine forces in airborne operations. The Army shall have primary interest in the development of those airborne doctrines, procedures and equipment which are of common interest to the Army and the Marine Corps.

9. To formulate doctrines and procedures for the organization, equipping, training and employment of forces operating on land, at division level and above, including division, corps, army, and general reserve troops, except that the formation of doctrines and procedures for the organization, equipping, training and employment of Marine Corps units for amphibious operations shall be a function of the Department of the Navy, coordinating as required by paragraph A 11 c, Section V.

10. To provide support, as directed by higher authority, for the following activities:

a. The administration and operation of the Panama Canal.

b. River and harbor projects in the United States, its territories and possessions.

c. Certain other civil activities prescribed by law.

B. Collateral Functions

The forces developed and trained to perform the primary functions set forth above shall be employed to support and supplement the other Services in carrying out their primary functions, where and whenever such participation will result in increased effectiveness and will contribute to the accomplishment of the over-all military objectives. The Joint Chiefs of Staff member of the Service having primary responsibility for a function shall be the agent of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to present to that body the requirements for and plans for the employment of all forces to carry out the function. He shall also be responsible for presenting to the Joint Chiefs of Staff for final decision any disagreement within the field of his primary responsibility which has not been resolved. This shall not be construed to prevent any member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from presenting unilaterally any issue of disagreement with another Service. Certain specific collateral functions of the Army are listed below:

1. To interdict enemy sea and air power and communications through operations on or from land.

2. To provide forces and equipment for and to conduct controlled mine field operations.

FUNCTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY AND MARINE CORPS

Within the Department of the Navy, assigned forces include the entire operating forces of the United States Navy, including naval aviation and the United States Marine Corps. These forces are organized, trained and equipped primarily for prompt and sustained combat operations at sea and for air and land operations incident thereto. Of the three major Services, the Navy has primary interest in all operations at sea, except in those operations otherwise assigned herein.

A. PRIMARY FUNCTIONS

1. To organize, train and equip Navy and Marine Forces for the conduct of prompt and sustained combat operations at sea, including operations of sea-based aircraft and their land-based naval air components. Specifically:

a. To seek out and destroy enemy naval forces and to suppress enemy sea commerce.

b. To gain and maintain general sea supremacy.

c. To control vital sea areas and to protect vital sea lines of communication.

d. To establish and maintain local superiority (including air) in an area of naval operations.

e. To seize and defend advanced naval bases and to conduct such land operations as may be essential to the prosecution of a naval campaign.

2. To conduct air operations as necessary for the accomplishment of objectives in a naval campaign.

3. To organize and equip, in coordination with the other Services, and to provide Naval forces, including Naval close air support forces, for the conduct of joint amphibious operations and to be responsible for the amphibious training of all forces as assigned for joint amphibious operations in accordance with the policies and doctrines of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

4. To develop, in coordination with the other Services, the doctrines, procedures, and equipment of naval forces for amphibious operations, and the doctrines and procedures for joint amphibious operations.

5. To furnish adequate, timely, and reliable intelligence for the Navy and Marine Corps.

6. To be responsible for naval reconnaissance, anti-submarine warfare, the protection of shipping, and for mine laying, including the air aspects thereof.

7. To provide air transport essential for naval operations.

8. To provide sea-based air defense and the sea-based means for coordinating control for defense against air attack, coordinating with the other Services in matters of joint concern.

9. To provide naval (including naval air) forces as required for the defense of the United States against air attack, in accordance with joint doctrines and procedures approved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

10. To furnish aerial photography as necessary for naval and Marine Corps operations.

11. To maintain the United States Marine Corps, which shall include land combat and service forces and such aviation as may be organic therein. Its specific functions are:

a. To provide Fleet Marine Forces of combined arms, together with supporting air components, for service with the Fleet in the seizure or defense of advanced naval bases and for the conduct of such land operations as may be essential to the prosecution of a naval campaign. These functions do not contemplate the creation of a second land army.

b. To provide detachments and organizations for service on armed vessels of the Navy, and security detachments for the protection of naval property at naval stations and bases.

c. To develop, in coordination with the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, the tactics, technique and equipment employed by landing forces in amphibious operations. The Marine Corps shall have primary interest in the development of those landing force tactics, technique and equipment which are of common interest to the Army and the Marine Corps.

d. To train and equip, as required, Marine Forces for airborne operations, in coordination with the Army, the Navy and the Air Force in accordance with policies and doctrines of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

e. To develop, in coordination with the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, doctrines, procedures and equipment of interest to the Marine Corps for airborne operations and not provided for in Section IV, paragraph A 8.

12. To provide forces, as directed by proper authority, for the establishment of military government, pending transfer of this responsibility to other authority.

B. Collateral Functions.

The forces developed and trained to perform the primary functions set forth above shall be employed to support and supplement the other Services in carrying out their primary functions, where and whenever such participation will result in increased effectiveness and will contribute to the accomplishment of the over-all military objectives.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff member of the Service having primary responsibility for a function shall be the agent of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to present to that body the requirements for and plans for the employment of all forces to carry out the function. He shall also be responsible for presenting to the Joint Chiefs of Staff for final decision any disagreement within the field of his primary responsibility which has not been resolved. This shall not be construed to prevent any member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from presenting unilaterally any issue of disagreement with another Service. Certain specific collateral functions of the Navy and Marine Corps are listed below:

1. To interdict enemy land and air power and communications through operation at sea.

2. To conduct close air support for land operations.

3. To furnish aerial photography for cartographic purposes.

4. To be prepared to participate in the over-all air effort as directed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

FUNCTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

The United States Air Force includes air combat and service forces. It is organized, trained and equipped primarily for prompt and sustained combat operations in the air. Of the three major Services, the Air Force has primary interest in all operations in the air, except in those operations otherwise assigned herein.

A. Primary Functions

1. To organize, train and equip Air Force forces for the conduct of prompt and sustained combat operations in the air. Specifically:

a. To be responsible for defense of the United States against air attack in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

b. To gain and maintain general air supremacy.

c. To defeat enemy air forces.

d. To control vital air areas.

e. To establish local air superiority except as otherwise assigned herein.

2. To formulate joint doctrines and procedures, in coordination with the other Services, for the defense of the United States against air attack and to provide the Air Force units, facilities and equipment required therefor.

3. To be responsible for strategic air warfare.

4. To organize and equip Air Force forces for joint amphibious and airborne operations, in coordination with the other Services, and to provide for their training in accordance with policies and doctrines of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

5. To furnish close combat and logistical air support to the Army, to include air lift, support and resupply of airborne operations, aerial photography, tactical reconnaissance and interdiction of enemy land power and communications.

6. To provide air transport for the Armed Forces except as otherwise assigned.

30.24- 16565

7. To provide Air Force forces for land-based air defense, coordinating with the other Services in matters of joint concern.

8. To develop, in coordination with the other Services, doctrines, procedures and equipment for air defense from land areas, including the continental United States.

9. To provide an organization capable of furnishing adequate, timely and reliable intelligence for the Air Force.

10. To furnish aerial photography for cartographic purposes.

11. To develop, in coordination with the other Services, tactics, techniques and equipment of interest to the Air Force for amphibious operations and not provided for in Section V, Paragraph A. 4 and Paragraph A. 11. c.

12. To develop, in coordination with the other Services, doctrines, procedures and equipment employed by Air Force forces in airborne operations.

B. Collateral Functions

The forces developed and trained to perform the primary functions set forth above shall be employed to support and supplement the other Services in carrying out their primary functions where and whenever such participation will result in increased effectiveness and will contribute to the accomplishemnt of the over-all military objectives. The Joint Chiefs of Staff member of the Service having primary responsibility for a function shall be the agent of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to present to that body the requirements for and plans for the employment of all forces to carry out the function.

He shall also be responsible for presenting to the Joint Chiefs of Staff for final decision any disagreement within the field of his primary responsibility which has not been resolved. This shall not be construed to prevent any member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from presenting unilaterally any issue of disagresment with another Service. Certain specific collateral functions of the Air Force are listed below:

1. To interdict enemy sea power through air operations.

2. To conduct antisubmarine warfare and to protect shipping.

3. To conduct aerial minelaying operations.

Glossary of Terms and Definitions

The usual and accepted definitions and interpretations of the English language, as contained in Webster's New International Dictionary (Unabridged), are applicable to this document, except that for purposes of clarity and to ensure a common understanding of its intent, certain words and phrases are defined specifically as follows:

AIR DEFENSE—All measures designed to nullify or reduce the effectiveness of the attack of hostile aircraft or guided missiles after they are airborne.

AIR SUPERIORITY—That degree of capability (preponderance in morale and material) of one air force over another which permits the conduct of air operations by the former at a given time and place without prohibitive interference by the opposing air force.

AIR SUPREMACY—That degree of air superiority wherein the opposing air force is incapable of effective interference.

AMPHIBIOUS OPERATION—An attack launched from the sea by naval and landing forces embarked in ships or craft involving a landing on a hostile shore. An amphibious operation includes final preparation of the objective area for the landing and operations of naval, air and ground elements in over-water movements, assault and mutual support. An amphibious operation may precede a large-scale land operation, in which case it becomes the amphibious phase of a joint amphibious operation. After the troops are landed and firmly established ashore, the operation becomes a land operation.

ANTISUBMARINE OPERATIONS—Operations contributing to the conduct of antisubmarine warfare.

ANTISUBMARINE WARFARE—Operations conducted against submarines, their supporting forces and operating bases.

BASE—A locality from which operations are projected or supported. May be preceded by a descriptive word such as "air" or "submarine," which indicates primary purpose.

CLOSE AIR SUPPORT—The attack by aircraft of hostile ground or naval targets which are so close to friendly forces as to require detailed integration of each air mission with the fire and movement of those forces.

FUNCTIONS—Responsibilities, missions and tasks.

IN COORDINATION WITH—In consultation with. This expression means that agencies "coordinated with" shall participate actively; their concurrence shall be sought; and that if concurrence is not obtained, the disputed matter shall be referred to the next higher authority in which all participants have a voice.

JOINT—As used in this paper, and generally among the Armed Forces, connotes activities, operations, organizations, etc., in which elements of more than one Service of the National Military Establishment participate.

MILITARY—A term used in its broadest sense meaning of or pertaining to war or the affairs of war, whether Army, Navy or Air Force.

NAVAL CAMPAIGN—An operation or a connected series of operations conducted essentially by naval forces including all surface, sub-surface, air, amphibious and Marines for the purpose of gaining, extending or maintaining control of the sea.

OPERATION—A military action or the carrying out of a military mission, strategic, tactical, service, training or administrative; the process of carrying on combat on land, on sea or in the air, including movement, supply, attack, defense and maneuvers needed to gain the objectives of any battle or campaign.

STRATEGIC AIR OPERATIONS—Air operations contributing to the conduct of strategic air warfare.

STRATEGIC AIR WARFARE—Air combat and supporting operations designed to effect, through the systematic application of force to a selected series of vital targets, the progressive destruction and disintegration of the enemy's war-making capacity to a point where he no longer retains the ability or the will to wage war. Vital targets may include key manufacturing systems, sources of raw material, critical material, stock piles, power systems, transportation systems, communications facilities, concentrations of uncommitted elements of enemy armed forces, key agricultural areas and other such target systems.

Deadlock On At[illegible]c Control Reported Nearing Showdown

by Carpenter

Lake Success, N.Y., March 27 (AP). Responsible United Nations delegates said tonight the Russian-Western power deadlock on world atomic control is moving toward a showdown.

These sources expressed belief this may come at the 1948 United Nations General Assembly in Paris beginning in September.

The delegates, who would not permit identification, have watched every turn of the involved atomic talks between Russia and the West, principally the United States, Britain and France.

Osborn Willing For Inquiry

They said that the groundwork for the showdown apparently is being laid now at important meetings of the working committee of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission. The Soviet Ukraine, which replaced Poland last January, has lined up with Russia in the first policy declaration.

The working committee will meet at 10.30 A.M. Monday for further [illegible]. Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, is expected to sum up the Soviet views after everyone has spoken.

Reliable sources have said that Frederick H. Osborn, United States deputy on the Atomic Commission, is willing for the Assembly to inquire into the situation.

Atomic energy was shoved aside at the 1947 Assembly.

Now those delegates who have struggled through long hours of committee meetings are represented as feeling that it is time to lay the whole disagreement before the Assembly and see whether the pressure of the full Assembly can do anything toward breaking the stalemate.

On June 14, 1946, Bernard M. Baruch, United States delegate to the United Nations commission, presented this country's plan for atomic control. He said the United States would dispose of its bombs when it was satisfied that the world had established a safe, effective and operating system of control.

Program For Week

On June 19, 1946, Gromyko laid down the Soviet plan, which called for an immediate convention outlawing atomic bombs and providing that no more would be manufactured. Gromyko said controls could be worked out after the prohibition was in effect.

The commission majority of ten members stood together on the United States plan, while Russia gained only the support of Poland.

The United Nations program next week shapes up this way:

Monday—Atomic working committee.

Tuesday—The Security Council on Palestine.

Wednesday—The Security Council on Czechoslovakia.

Czechs Ignoring U.S. Move For Coup Probe

Lake Success, March 27 (AP)—The Czechoslovak Communist Government will ignore a United States demand for an explanation of its rise to complete power, a spokesman said today.

He said the new regime takes the position that the coup last month was an internal affair and the United Nations has no business investigating.

The spokesman for Delegate Vladimir Houdek added that the American demand that Prague and Moscow lay their cards on the Security Council table does not alter the situation. Houdek has refused to take part in the debate.

Next Step Up To West

Neither were there any indications here that Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko would be prodded into doing any explaining. Instead, Gromyko is expected to keep countercharging that the United States is interfering in Italy and Greece.

These developments put the next move up to the Western powers. Council debate resumes Wednesday.

So far, Britain has said the spread of communism must be stopped even at the risk of war. The United States has demanded Czech and Russian explanations. France has expressed the belief that President Eduard Benes is a prisoner of the Czech Communists.

Decision Seen Difficult

A Prague announcement last night said President Benes will make a public nonpolitical statement April 7 in presenting a grant to Charles University, which will be celebrating its six hundredth year. Benes has not spoken in public since a Czech Legionnaire meeting last November.

United Nations observers admitted that the Council would have difficulty making a decision after hearing only one side of the Czechoslovak case.

The United States may move for a United Nations investigating commission to be sent into Czechoslovakia to get facts and evidence. This would raise the question whether the Communist regime would allow the commission inside Czechoslovakia.

Offered To Quit U.N., Says Mrs. R.

New York, March 27 (AP)—The Herald Tribune quotes Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt as saying she offered to resign her United Nations jobs but that President Truman and Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, "didn't want me to."

Mrs. Roosevelt, who sailed on the Queen Elizabeth today for London to unveil a statue of the late President, is chairman of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights and a delegate to the General Assembly.

The paper quotes her as saying before sailing she told the President and Secretary Marshall in separate letters "that if at any time they wished me to resign I would do so."

The letters were written, the Herald Tribune said she added, because she might want to criticize the Administration in her syndicated column and since she is a United Nations official it might embarrass the President.

"They both told me that I was free to differ with them when I felt like it," she said.

She added, according to the Herald-Tribune that "I certainly have no intention now of resigning from the United Nations because of any difference in the Palestine policy or for any other reason."

29 U.S. Vessels Turned Over To Italians

Wilmington, N.C., March 27 (AP). The Italian Government took over 29 American merchant ships today. President Truman on March 16 ordered them transferred.

Formal ceremonies were held on board the Fort Kootenay, which was renamed the Italian steamship Mangioia. Present were representatives of the Italian Embassy, the State Department and the Maritime Commission.

Sailing Set April 1

President Truman acted under congressional authority to return or replace all Italian ships seized by the United States during the war.

DAY

Italians are busy repairing the ships. The first is expected to be ready to sail by April 1.

Fourteen of them were seized from the Italians. The remainder are Liberty ships.

V.F.W. LEADER ASKS VA FUND INQUIRY

Philadelphia, March 27 (A. P.).—A congressional inquiry into what became of $6,000,000 of a $20,000,000 Veterans Administration allocation was asked by the Philadelphia district commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Commander Joel L. Schlesinger said yesterday $13,000,000 was spent on what he termed obsolete medical supplies bought from the armed services, and another $1,000,000 went for a branch in Hawaii. He added that "no one can account for the remaining $6,000,000."

"I'm going to Washington on Tuesday and demand an investigation by Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers (R.-Mass.), chairman of the Veterans Committee," Schlesinger said.

The district V. F. W. Commander's remarks came on the heels of recent reports that the VA was reducing its staff of training specialists in this area by 40 per cent.

7 to Teach at Frankfurt

Selected From Chicago U. Faculty in Exchange Project

CHICAGO, March 27 (AP).—The University of Chicago announced today that seven of its faculty members have been appointed to teach at the University of Frankfurt, Germany. They will leave on Wednesday.

The appointments, for the 1948 spring quarter, are part of the University of Chicago's two-year project to help re-establish cooperation between higher education in Germany and the United States. Under the plan there will be an exchange of professors. The project is being financed by a $120,000 grant from the Rockefeller Foundation and an equal amount from the University of Chicago.

The Chicago educators selected are Roger B. Oake, who was named executive secretary of the University of Chicago branch in Germany; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thurstones, both professors of psychology; Paul A. Weiss, zoology; Wilhelm Pauck, historical theology; Everett C. Hughes, sociology, and Elder J. Olson, English.

TAB ON COMMUNISTS DISCLOSED BY CLARK

MIAMI, Florida, March 27 (AP)—Attorney General Tom Clark said today that few Communists were in the Government, "but even one is too many."

Here to address a law enforcement institute Monday, he said:

"There were about 100,000 Communists about six months ago, but I think there are less now."

He said communism was still to be considered a "serious threat" in this nation, but that the situation was "pretty well in hand" with the Federal Bureau of Investigation well aware of Communist moves. He said efforts would be continued to deport alien Communists.

He said the Government has about 2,000,000 employes and of 1,000,000 taking the loyalty test only 1,700 were ordered investigated. Of the latter group, he said only ninety were referred to the Loyalty Board.

MARTIN CALLS FOR LETTERS TO EUROPEANS

House Speaker Labels Soviet Leaders 'Madmen' And 'Despots'

Toledo, Ohio, March 27 (AP)—The masters of the Kremlin have "wantonly, cynically, sadistically, and with calculation and deliberation, violated every principle of civilized international justice," Joseph W. Martin, Jr., Speaker of the House of Representatives, declared tonight.

In a speech at the University of Toledo the Republican Congressman asserted:

"They (the Russians) have embarked upon the same kind of a desperate attempt at world domination and despotism the mad Hitler and his brutal minions tried."

Meeting Launches Campaign

Martin appeared at a meeting launching a "letters-for-democracy" month, designed to combat communism. In the campaign, originated by Mayor Michael Di Salle, Toledo residents are urged to write to relatives and friends in Europe about the benefits of democracy in this country.

The United States is the only great nation left which can spearhead a world movement to stop this onward march of despotism, Martin said.

Declaring we intend to stop these Russian "madmen from subjugating and enslaving Europe and Asia," Speaker Martin said.

"We must stop them! We sent men out to die for liberty and to keep the torch of hope and freedom burning in the world. We do not intend to see their sacrifices made futile and empty by men mad with lust for power who are determined to overrun the world."

There is a great force—it could be the deciding force—in America which can do more than any other force, short of a war of obliteration, to stop the march of the Kremlin across Europe and the Orient, the speaker said.

Asks For Letter Campaign

"That great force whose might no man can calculate lies in the American citizens who themselves have come from those other countries or whose parents or grandparents have come from those other lands.

"If all the people in the United States of foreign birth or extraction will start movements in each group to write letters to their relatives and friends in the homelands telling them how much better freedom and Americanism are than despotism, under the cloak of communism, or fascism, we can win this cold war without it becoming a blood war," Speaker Martin emphasized.

Sub Spotted Off 'Frisco

San Francisco, March 27 (AP)—An object which Capt. Jack Myers said was a submarine was sighted by the crew of an inbound Pan American Clipper 60 miles southwest of San Francisco this morning. It was lying on the surface, he said, but submerged as the plane passed overhead.

DAY

Captain Myers said he could see no identifying marks on the craft.

A navy spokesman said the submarine may have been the U.S.S. Carp which was believed to be operating in that general area this morning.

[In Washington Thursday, Secretary of the Navy Sullivan told the Senate Armed Services Committee that submarines "not belonging to any nation west of the 'iron curtain' have been sighted off our shores" recently. A high navy official, who declined to be identified, said submarines had been reported three times recently in the Pacific, once within 200 miles of San Francisco.]

SENATORS CHAVEZ (D-NM), MAGNUSON (D-WASH) AND CAPPER (R-KAN) RECOMMENDED THIS PLAN TO SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL IN A LETTER THEY MADE PUBLIC TODAY.

THE LETTER WAS DATED MARCH 19--THE DAY THIS COUNTRY'S DECISION TO REVERSE ITS POSITION AND OPPOSE IMMEDIATE PARTITION OF PALESTINE WAS MADE KNOWN TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL. THE LETTER MAKES NO MENTION OF THAT POLICY CHANGE.

CAPPER AND MAGNUSON TOLD A REPORTER THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S CALL TWO DAYS AGO FOR AN IMMEDIATE JEWISH-ARAB TRUCE DID NOT ALTER THEIR VIEWS AS TO WHAT SHOULD BE DONE ABOUT THE HOLY LAND PROBLEM.

CHAVEZ SAID HE HAD NO COMMENT ON MR.TRUMAN'S PROPOSAL.

THE SENATORS TOLD MARSHALL, WHO HAD NOT REPLIED WHEN THEIR LETTER WAS RELEASED, THAT THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY AGAINST "THE MENACE OF RUSSIAN AGGRESSION" SHOULD BE APPLIED AS WELL "TO THE URGENT STATE OF UPHEAVAL IN PALESTINE." THEY ADDED:

"IT IS CLEAR THAT A SITUATION OTHERWISE WILL DEVELOP IN PALESTINE IN WHICH IT WILL BECOME INEVITABLE FOR US TO SEND ARMED FORCES TO THAT AREA, SINCE IT IS MOST POSSIBLE THAT THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT MAY SEND, OR AT LEAST OFFER TO SEND, FORCES TO QUELL THE BLOODSHED IN PALESTINE, WHICH AFTER MAY 15 WILL BE LEGALLY UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS JURISDICTION."

MOSCOW, MARCH 27-(AP)-THE LITERARY GAZETTE NOTED TODAY THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF MAXIM GORKY'S BEING THROWN OUT OF A NEW YORK HOTEL.

WHILE HE WAS BEING EJECTED, THE GAZETTE SAID, THE RUSSIAN WRITER'S WATCH WAS STOLEN.

IN AN ARTICLE ENTITLED "THE MOST PERVERTED CIVILIZATION IN THE WORLD" THE PAPER SAID GORKY'S TREATMENT IN THE UNITED STATES AROUSED PROGRESSIVES ALL OVER THE WORLD AND INSPIRED A FLOOD OF TELEGRAMS IN HIS SUPPORT.

--DASH--

GORKY DIED IN 1936 AT 68.

A BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH IN "TWENTIETH CENTURY AUTHORS" GIVES THIS VERSION OF THE HOTEL INCIDENT:

GORKY WENT TO THE UNITED STATES TO RAISE FUNDS FOR A REVOLUTION AGAINST THE CZAR.

THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON ANNOUNCED THAT AN ACTRESS WITH HIM WAS NOT HIS WIFE. A SHORT TIME AFTERWARD GORKY AND HIS PARTY WERE PUT OUT OF THEIR HOTEL.

ADDIS ABABA, MARCH 27-(AP)-JOHN ROBINSON, OF CHICAGO, NEGRO COLONEL IN THE ETHIOPIAN AIR FORCE, TODAY PLEADED INNOCENT TO A CHARGE OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY AGAINST HIS FORMER AIR FORCE COMMANDER, SWEDISH COUNT GUSTAF VON ROSEN.

ROBINSON MADE THE PLEA AT THE OPENING SESSION OF A SECOND TRIAL ON THE CHARGE. HE WAS SENTENCED TO THREE MONTHS IMPRISONMENT AT HIS FIRST TRIAL LAST SEPTEMBER UNDER THE ITALIAN PRISON CODE. HE WON A RETRIAL ON AN APPEAL TO THE ETHIOPIAN SUPREME COURT ON THE GROUNDS THE ETHIOPIAN CODE SHOULD HAVE BEEN USED.

THE RETRIAL IS BEING HELD UNDER THE ETHIOPIAN PENAL CODE. SWEDISH JUDGE GUNNAR LINANDER IS PRESIDENT AT THE TRIAL. TWO ETHIOPIAN ASSOCIATE JUDGES ARE ALSO ON THE BENCH.

ROBINSON ADMITTED STRIKING VON ROSEN BUT SAID IT WAS UNDER PROVOCATION AND IN SELF DEFENSE. UNDER QUESTIONING, ROBINSOM SAID HIS TWO WITNESSES AT THE PREVIOUS TRIAL WERE UNABLE TO APPEAR, BECAUSE ONE IS DEAD AND THE OTHER IS IN AMERICA.

ROBINSON ASKED PERMISSION TO BRING NEW WITNESSES AND THE COURT ISSUED SUMMONS FOR THEIR APPEARANCE. THE TRIAL WAS THEN ADJOURNED UNTIL APRIL 5.

RANGOON, BURMA, MARCH 27-(AP)-THAKIN THAN TUN, WHITE FLAG COMMUNIST PARTY LEADER, PUBLICLY CALLED TODAY FOR SUPPORT OF THE COMMUNIST DRIVE AGAINST THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT.

THAN TUN SPOKE AT A COMMUNIST-SPONSORED RALLY OF THE ALL-BURMA WORKERS UNION. HE PROMISED COMMUNISTS WOULD FORM A GOVERNMENT ENTIRELY REPRESENTING THE PEOPLE. HE ACCUSED THE GOVERNMENT PARTY--THE ANTI-FASCIST PEOPLE'S FREEDOM LEAGUE--OF HELPING TO STABILIZE IMPERIALISM AND CAPITALISM IN BURMA. HE SAID IT IS SUPPRESSING THE BURMESE MASSES.

AFTER THE RALLY COMMUNIST DEMONSTRATORS PARADED THE STREETS WAVING HAMMER-AND-SICKLE BANNERS AND SHOUTING ANTI-GOVERNMENT SLOGANS.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD CHINESE POLITICS

BY HAROLD K.MILKS

NANKING, SUNDAY, MARCH 28-(AP)-CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S APPEAL TO SOME INDEPENDENTS TO GIVE UP THEIR SEATS IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WAS DEFIED TODAY BY 10 CANDIDATES, WHO BEGAN A HUNGER STRIKE IN PROTEST.

THE 10 INVADED THE AUDITORIUM OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, TO WHICH THEY INSIST THEY WERE DULY ELECTED, AND ANNOUNCED THEY WOULD FAST THERE UNTIL THEIR ELECTION WAS RECOGNIZED.

THE GENERALISSIMO APPEALED TO A GROUP OF THE INDEPENDENTS LAST NIGHT TO SURRENDER THEIR SEATS TO MINORITY PARTY CANDIDATES "FOR MY SAKE AND THE SAKE OF OUR COUNTRY."

THE MINORITY PARTIES HAD BEEN PROMISED SEATS IN THE ASSEMBLY, WHICH MEETS MONDAY TO ELECT A PRESIDENT AND A VICE-PRESIDENT OF CHINA. THE INDEPENDENTS WERE ELECTED OVER THE MINORITY CANDIDATES IN LAST YEAR'S VOTE.

ONE OF THE INDEPENDENTS, CHAO SUI-CHU FROM TIENTSIN, MAINTAINED HE WOULD CARRY A COFFIN WITH HIM TO MONDAY'S OPENING CEREMONIES AND KILL HIMSELF BEFORE THE EYES OF CHIANG IF HE WAS DENIED A SEAT.

THE RAGING POLITICAL CONTROVERSY IS NOT EXPECTED TO DELAY THE OPENING OF THE ASSEMBLY.

IT GREW FROM WRITE-IN ELECTION LAST NOVEMBER OF SEVERAL HUNDRED MAVERICKS TO SEATS WHICH THE GOVERNMENT HAD PROMISED TO MINORITY PARTIES.

THE MINORITY YOUNG CHINA AND DEMOCRATIC SOCIALIST PARTIES SAY THEY WILL NOT JOIN A GOVERNMENT COALITION UNLESS THE PROMISE IS KEPT. THE SOCALLED "IRREGULARS," ALTHOUGH MEMBERS OF THE DOMINANT KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT PARTY) SAY THEY ARE NO OBLIGATED BY THE KUOMINTANG'S BACKROOM DEAL.

THEY SNUBBED CHIANG'S INVITATION TO VISIT HIM YESTERDAY, BUT TONIGHT 15 REPRESENTATIVES CONFERRED WITH HIM FOR TWO AND ONE-HALF HOURS.

THEY SAID THE GENERALISSIMO WAS "GENTLE BUT MOST INSISTENT."

"IT IS WRONG TO ASK YOU TO GIVE UP THE SEATS TO WHICH YOU WERE ELECTED," HE WAS QUOTED, "BUT IT IS NECESSARY TO SAFEGUARD THE COALITION; IT IS PARTICULARLY IMPORTANT AT THIS TIME BECAUSE OF INTERNATIONAL REACTION."

A SPOKESMAN REPLIED THAT "IT IS MORE IMPORTANT TO PROTECT REAL CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRACY THAN TO MAINTAIN THE APPEARANCE OF A COALITION."

NANKING,MARCH 27-(AP)-CHINESE GOVERNMENT SUCCESSES IN INNER MONGOLIA AND MANCHURIA WERE REPORTED TODAY IN PRO-GOVERNMENT DISPATCHES, BUT THE COMMUNISTS INCREASED PRESSURE IN SHANTUNG PROVINCE.

THE NATIONALIST REPORTS SAID COUNTERATTACKS HAD DRIVEN THE COMMUNISTS FROM FENGCHEN, 28 MILES NORTH OF TATUNG AND RECOVERED FOUR COAL MINES AND A POWER PLANT IN THAT INNER MONGOLIAN VICINITY.

GOVERNMENT PLANES ALSO WERE CREDITED WITH CAUSING HEAVY CASUALTIES AMONG COMMUNISTS AT YUHSIEN, 100 MILES WEST OF PEIPING.

MANCHURIAN DISPATCHES SAID THE GOVERNMENT TOOK A COMMUNIST STRONG-POINT NEAR LIAOYANG, 35 MILES SOUTH OF MUKDEN. THEY SAID LIAOYANG ITSELF WAS IN COMMUNIST HANDS, HOWEVER, DESPITE RECENT GOVERNMENT CLAIMS OF ITS RECAPTURE.

THE INDEPENDENT PAPER HSIN MIN PAO SAID COMMUNISTS HAD REACHED THE OUTSKIRTS OF THE SHANTUNG PROVINCE CITY OF WEIHSIEN, WHERE BITTER HAND-TO-HAND FIGHTING WAS IN PROGRESS. GOVERNMENT REPORTS SAID COMMUNISTS ALSO WERE ATTACKING A RAILROAD BRIDGE AT TAWENKOU, 50 MILES SOUTH OF TSINAN, SHANTUNG CAPITAL.

STILL ANOTHER ACTION WAS REPORTED FROM SHENCHIU, 220 MILES NORTHEAST OF NANKING. PRO-GOVERNMENT ADVICES SAID TWO DIVISIONS OF COMMUNIST RAIDERS WERE BEING ENCIRCLED. (THE FREQUENT REPORTS OF ENCIRCLEMENTS IN THE CHINESE WAR RARELY ARE CONFIRMED.

PEIPING,SUNDAY,MARCH 28-(AP)-GOVERNMENT HEADQUARTERS SAID TODAY ITS WARPLANES HAD KILLED OR WOUNDED MORE THAN 10,000 CHINESE COMMUNIST TROOPS IN DEVASTATING ATTACKS ON THE FRONT WEST OF PEIPING.

(CIVIL WAR ESTIMATES OF CASUALTIES INFLICTED USUALLY ARE EXAGGERATED. THIS IS PARTICULARLY TRUE OF ESTIMATES INVOLVING BOMBING AND STRAFING.)

THE HEADQUARTERS OF GEN.FU TSO-YI, GOVERNMENT COMMANDER IN NORTH CHINA, SAID THE HEAVY AIR ATTACKS WERE LOOSED FRIDAY BETWEEN YANGYUAN AND HUAIAN. YANGYUAN IS 115 AIRLINE MILES WEST OF PEPING. HUAIAN IS 30 MILES NORTHEAST OF YANGYUAN.

GENERAL FU ISSUED AN ORDER CONGRATULATING THE AIR FORCE. THE FIGHTING IS ONE THE FRONT WHERE TATUNG, GOVERNMENT STRONGHOLD ABOUT 50 MILES WEST OF YANGYUAN, IS ENCIRCLED BY COMMUNIST TROOPS.

MEMBERS SAID PRIVATELY THE PLAN CAME DIRECT FROM GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK. IT WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE WHEN THE COUNCIL GIVES ITS FINAL APPROVAL.

THE PLAN HAS THESE PROVISIONS, THE COUNCIL ANNOUNCED: SALE OF 50 PERCENT OF STOCK IN THE CHINA MERCHANT'S STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY; SALE OF 70 PERCENT OF THE CHINA TEXTILE CORPORATION'S ASSETS; SALE OF $50,000,000 IN ASSETS OF THE NATIONAL RESOURCES COMMISSION, AND SALE OF CERTAIN JAPANESE REPARATIONS. ALL SALES WOULD BE TO PRIVATE INDIVIDUALS.

NANKING, MARCH 27 (AP)-A [redacted] CONTROVERSY OVER THE SEATING OF DELEGATES THREATENED TODAY TO DISRUPT THE OPENING OF CHINA'S FIRST CONSTITUTIONAL ASSEMBLY MONDAY.

GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK ATTEMPTED PERSONALLY TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE. SEVERAL HUNDRED "IRREGULAR CANDIDATES" ARE VOCIFEROUSLY REFUSING TO SURRENDER THEIR SEATS TO MINORITY PARTY CANDIDATES.

THE "IRREGULARS," MEMBERS OF THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT PARTY), ASSERT THEY WERE ELECTED -- MANY BY WRITE-IN BALLOTS -- BUT THAT THE SEATS WERE NONETHELESS AWARDED MINORITY CANDIDATES TO ASSURE A "COALITION GOVERNMENT."

THE DISPUTES INVOLVE ABOUT 400 KUOMINTANG MEMBERS, AND ABOUT 700 INDEPENDENTS. ALSO ADDING TO THE CLAMOR IS A THREAT BY MINORITY PARTIES -- YOUNG CHINA AND DEMOCRATIC SOCIALISTS -- TO WITHDRAW FROM THE ASSEMBLY UNLESS GRANTED MORE ASSEMBLY SEATS.

THE NEW ASSEMBLY TOTALS 3,045 SEATS. OFFICIAL REGISTRATION TOTALED ONLY 851 AND ADDITIONAL 1,300 WERE REPORTED EN ROUTE TO NANKING THE ASSEMBLY IS TO ELECT CHINA'S FIRST CONSTITUTIONAL PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT. THE ELECTION OF CHIANG TO CONTINUE AS PRESIDENT SEEMS ONLY A FORMALITY.

PEIPING, SUNDAY, MARCH 28-(AP)-NINETEEN IRON CASES OF CHALICES, VESTMENTS AND OTHER VALUABLES OF CATHOLIC MISSIONARIES AT BESIEGED TATUNG HAVE BEEN LOST SOMEWHERE BETWEEN THERE AND PEIPING.

THE CASES WERE SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN PUT ABOARD THE LAST TRAIN WHICH LEFT THAT IMPERILED NORTH CHINA CITY BEFORE THE COMMUNISTS CUT THE RAILWAY. THEY WERE CONSIGNED TO PEIPING FOR SAFETY.

ABOUT 20 CATHOLIC MISSIONARIES ARE KNOWN TO BE AT TATUNG. THERE ARE FIVE OR SIX GERMANS, ONE DUTCHMAN, FOUR CHINESE AND THE REST ARE BELGIANS OF THE SCHEUT MISSION. FOUR BBRITISH ANGLICAN MISSIONARIES ALSO ARE BELIEVED CUT OFF IN TATUNG.

ADVICES REACHING HERE SAID THE CHINESE MILITARY ADVISED THE SCHEUT MISSION AT TATUNG ABOUT 10 DAYS AGO THAT IT INTENDED TO BLOW UP THE CATHOLIC SEMINARY OUTSIDE THE CITY AS A DEFENSE MEASURE. THE REDS HAD USED THE BUILDINGS AS A FORTRESS IN LAST YEAR'S SIEGE.

THE MISSION PROTESTED. THE GOVERNMENT FINALLY AGREED TO BLOW UP ONLY ONE BLOCK OF BUILDINGS DAMAGED IN THE PREVIOUS FIGHTING. THE SEMINARY IS A MILE OUTSIDE TATUNG'S NORTH GATE.

SEOUL, KOREA, MARCH 27-(AP)-HIGH AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID TODAY KOREAN RIGHTISTS ARE WELCOME TO GO TO RUSSIAN-OCCUPIED NORTH KOREA TO CONFER ON A SOVIET-SPONSORED GOVERNMENT PLAN.

BROADCASTS FROM PYONGYANG, SOVIET OCCUPATION HEADQUARTERS, YESTERDAY INVITED KIM KOO AND OTHERS TO A MEETING OF THE NORTH KOREAN PEOPLE'S COMMITTEE APRIL 14.

ONE AMERICAN AUTHORITY REMARKED THAT IT MIGHT BE A GOOD THING TO LET THEM "GO NORTH AND FIND OUT FOR THEMSELVES HOW THE SOVIETS OPERATE ON THE HOME GROUNDS."

ANOTHER AMERICAN, WHO ALSO INSISTED ON ANONYMITY, COUNSELED CAUTION.

more

HE SAID THE NORTH KOREAN MANEUVER MIGHT BE INTENDED TO DISRUPT PLANS FOR AN ELECTION IN AMERICAN-OCCUPIED SOUTH KOREA MAY 9 OR MIGHT BE A TEST TO SEE HOW MUCH PRO-SOVIET STRENGTH COULD BE EXPECTED IN THE SOUTH.

"WHATEVER IT IS," HE SAID, "IT IS ADDING TO THE CONFUSION OF AN ALREADY CONFUSED SITUATION."

THE SITUATION STEMS FROM THE 2-YEAR INABILITY OF THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA TO AGREE ON A UNIFIED KOREAN GOVERNMENT.

THE RUSSIANS INSISTED ON CONSULTING ONLY COMMUNIST AND LEFTIST KOREANS. THE UNITED STATES REFERRED THE CASE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, BUT THE RUSSIANS REFUSED TO LET A U.N.COMMISSION ENTER THEIR OCCUPATION ZONE EVEN FOR A COURTESY CALL.

INSTEAD, THE SOVIET-DOMINATED NORTH KOREAN PEOPLE'S COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED IT WAS PUTTING THE FINAL TOUCHES ON A GOVERNMENT DESIGNED TO RULE ALL KOREA.

THE AMERICAN COMMANDANT, LT.GEN.JOHN R.HODGE, COUNTERED BY ORDERING AN ELECTION MAY 9 FOR A KOREAN GOVERNMENT. ALTHOUGH THIS ELECTION CAN APPLY ONLY IN THE AMERICAN OCCUPATION ZONE, THE U.N.COMMISSION HAS VOTED TO OBSERVE IT.

A NUMBER OF SOUTH KOREANLEADERS, ALTHOUGH ANTI-COMMUNIST, HAVE OPPOSED THE ELECTION FOR FEAR IT WOULD FURTHER SOLIDIFY THE DIVISION OF KOREA. ALL OF THESE WERE INVITED BY THE PYONGYANG BROADCASTS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE APRIL 14 CONFERENCE. PRESUMABLY THEY WOULD BE ASKED TO APPROVE THE DRAFT OF A CONSTITUTION FOR THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED "PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC."

THE BID TO RIGHTISTS IN GENERAL AND TO KIM KOO IN PARTICULAR REPRESENTS A MARKED SHIFT IN THE SOVIET ATTITUDE. HE WAS DENOUNCED BITTERLY BY THE RUSSIAN AND KOREAN COMMUNISTS THROUGHOUT THE FUTILE SESSIONS OF THE SOVIET-AMERICAN COMMISSION BECAUSE HE OPPOSED THE PROJECTED 5-YEAR-ALLIED TRUSTEESHIP OVER KOREA.

BOTH KIM KOO AND THE MODERATE RIGHTIST KIMM KYU SIK EXPRESSED WILLINGNESS TO ACCEPT THE PYONGYANG INVITATION, DESPITE THE ACKNOWLEDGED RISK OF BEING HELD IN HOUSE ARREST AND MISQUITED WHILE THERE.

BY ELTON C.FAY

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MARCH 27-(AP)-THE TOP MILITARY COMMANDERS AGREED TODAY ON A FORMULA TO SETTLE THE HISTORIC ARGUMENT BETWEEN THE AIR FORCE AND NAVY OVER WHO SHOULD BOMB WHAT TARGETS IN A WAR.

THE ALLOCATION OF BOMBING JOBS WAS PART OF A DETAILED ASSIGNMENT OF VARIOUS FUNCTIONS OF THOSE TWO SERVICES, PLUS THE ARMY AND THE MARINES. PUT INTO WRITING AS A RESULT OF THE RECENT CONFERENCES OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF AT KEY WEST, FLA., THE AGREEMENTS WERE FORWARDED BY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL TODAY TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

DURING THE WAR, BICKERING AMONG THE THEN MEMBERS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF INCLUDED A QUARREL OVER WHETHER NAVY PLANES SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO ENGAGE IN BOMBING OF WAR PLANTS AND OTHER STRATEGIC TARGETS IN CITIES INSTEAD OF STICKING TO STRIKES ONLY AT PURELY NAVAL TARGETS SUCH AS SHIPS AND DOCKS. THE ARGUMENT OUTLIVED THE WAR AND CONTINUED UNTIL THE JOINT CHIEFS AGREEMENTS ANNOUNCED TODAY. THAT PART OF IT RELATING TO BOMBING OPERATIONS PROVIDES THIS:

STRATEGIC BOMBING WILL BE THE PRIMARY FUNCTION OF THE AIR FORCE, BUT THE NAVAL AIR FORCE MAY ENGAGE IN IT IF, DURING A CAMPAIGN, IT FINDS IT HAS SURPLUS PLANES. HOWEVER THE PRIMARY FUNCTION OF NAVAL AVIATION IS TO SUPPORT A NAVAL CAMPAIGN. A NAVAL CAMPAIGN IS DEFINED BY THE AGREEMENT AS ONE INTENDED TO GAIN OR MAINTAIN "CONTROL OF THE SEA." THIS APPEARED TO DRAW A SEMBLANCE OF DEMARKATION FOR THE TWO SERVICES AT THE SHORELINE.

THE DOCUMENT ALSO LISTED SEVERAL OTHER POINTS OVER WHICH THE JOINT CHIEFS GROUP HAD QUARRELED SINCE IT WAS FORMED IN EARLY 1942.

IT ASSIGNED PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANTI-SUBMARINE WARFARE TO THE NAVY. THE AIR FORCE AT ONE PHASE OF WORLD WAR II SOUGHT TO GAIN COMMAND OF THE BUSINESS OF HUNTING DOWN AND DESTROYING ENEMY SUBMARINES.

A CONFLICT BETWEEN THE ARMY AND THE MARINES, ALMOST AS OLD AS THE TWO SERVICES, CAME IN FOR SETTLEMENT. THE PAPER SAID THE PRIMARY JOB OF THE MARINE CORPS IS TO DEVELOP TECHNIQUES AND EQUIPMENT FOR AMPHIBIOUS OPERATIONS AND THEN ADDED:

B65WX

"THE MARINE CORPS WILL NOT BUILD UP A SECOND LAND ARMY."

THE DECISION TO LIMIT THE SIZE TO WHICH THE MARINE CORPS MAY BE EXPANDED IN A WAR REFLECTS A CONTROVERSY WHICH STARTED IN WORLD WAR I WHEN MARINE UNITS FOUGHT IN LAND CAMPAIGNS IN FRANCE AND CONTINUED IN THIS WAR IN SOME PHASES OF THE PACIFIC FIGHTING.

WHILE THE DOCUMENT DOES NOT SPECIFY THE SIZE OF THE CORPS, IT WAS LEARNED THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS DISCUSSED FOUR DIVISIONS AS A PROBABLE MAXIMUM, ALTHOUGH ALLOWING FOR VARIATIONS FROM THAT FIGURE IF CIRCUMSTANCES WARRANTED. IN WORLD WAR II THE MARINES HAD SIX DIVISIONS. (THE WARTIME STRENGTH OF A MARINE DIVISION WAS ABOUT 15,000 MEN.)

FORRESTAL PROPOSED TO THE PRESIDENT THAT THE DOCUMENT NOW REPLACE AN EXECUTIVE ORDER ISSUED BY THE PRESIDENT IN CONNECTION WITH ARMED FORCE UNIFICATION LAST YEAR.

THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ORGANIZATION IS MADE UP OF GEN.OMAR BRADLEY, ARMY; ADMIRAL LOUIS E.DENFELD, NAVY; GEN.CARL SPAATZ, AIR; ADMIRAL WILLIAM D.LEAHY, CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE PRESIDENT.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MARCH 27-(AP)-DID AMERICAN MILITARY LEADERS MAKE ANY MOVES IN EUROPE DURING OR AFTER WORLD WAR II TO AROUSE RUSSIAN SUSPICION OF OUR GOOD FAITH?

ONE OF THE UNITED STATES' TOP MILITARY OFFICERS ANSWERED THIS QUESTION TODAY WITH AN EMPHATIC "NO!"

"EVERY MOVE WE MADE FROM THE INVASION OF NORTH AFRICA TO QUICK DEMOBILIZATION SHOULD HAVE ASSURED THE RUSSIANS OF OUR PEACEFUL INTENTIONS," HE SAID. "WE REGARDED THE RUSSIANS AS FRIENDS, NOT ENEMIES."

DID THE AMERICAN HIGH COMMAND IN EUROPE--BEFORE OUR TROOPS MET THE RUSSIANS ON THE ELBE RIVER IN GERMANY IN APRIL, 1945--EVER DISCUSS

RUSSIA AS A POTENTIAL ENEMY?

THE ANSWER WAS "NO."

WAS THERE ANY JOCKEYING BY THE AMERICAN OR BRITISH ARMIES TO GRAB TERRITORY BEFORE IT WAS OCCUPIED BY THE RUSSIANS?"

AGAIN THE ANSWER WAS "NO."

HERE IS THE STORY, FROM THE MILITARY VIEWPOINT, OF MOVES AND ATTITUDES WHICH SHOULD HAVE WON RUSSIAN TRUST. THE NARRATOR ASKED THAT HIS NAME NOT BE USED.

AMERICAN MILITARY CHIEFS FAVORED A QUICK, POWERFUL INVASION ACROSS THE CHENNEL TO DESTROY HITLER'S ARMIES. THEY SAW THIS ROUTE AS THE QUICKEST WAY TO WAR'S END. THEY TURNED THUMBS DOWN ON THE BRITISH PROPOSAL FOR A BALKAN INVASION WHICH POSSIBLY MIGHT HAVE SEALED OFF MOST OF THE BALKAN STATES FROM COMMUNISM.

B63WX

"WE FOUGHT THE WAR WITHOUT POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS," HE ADDED.

THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH ARMIES WERE HALTED BEFORE BERLIN AND PRAGUE ON ORDERS FROM TOP LEVELS. THE TROOPS WAITED FOR THE RUSSIANS TO OCCUPY THESE CITIES AND LARGE AREAS WHICH THEY EASILY COULD HAVE LIBERATED THEMSELVES.

THE DECISION TO HALT THE AMERICAN ARMIES ALONG THE LINE OF THE ELBE AND MULDE RIVERS, AND OUTSIDE PRAGUE, WAS REACHED THREE MONTHS BEFORE THE END OF THE WAR IN EUROPE.

AT THAT TIME--FEBRUARY, 1945--THE AMERICANS HAD NOT CROSSED THE RHINE RIVER. THE ELBE-MULDE LINE WAS ABOUT HALF WAY BETWEEN THE RUSSIANS AND THEIR WESTERN ALLIES. IT WAS CHOSEN AS A LOGICAL MEETING PLACE.

HOWEVER, THE EASY CROSSING OF THE RHINE UPSET THE AMERICAN TIMETABLE. OUR TROOPS ARRIVED AT THE ELBE AND OUTSIDE PRAGUE. THEY HAD TO WAIT FOR THE RUSSIANS.

"WE COULD HAVE FOUGHT OUR WAY INTO BERLIN," HE SAID. "BUT BERLIN WAS IN THE RUSSIAN ZONE. EVEN HAD WE GONE INTO BERLIN, WE WOULD HAVE HAD TO WITHDRAW TO THE LINE PREVIOUSLY AGREED UPON."

AND AS A FINAL EXAMPLE OF AMERICAN FRIENDLINESS TOWARD THE RUSSIANS AT THE END OF THE WAR, HE CITED A VISIT BY MARSHALL IVAN KONEV TO THE HEADQUARTERS OF GENERAL OMAR BRADLEY, WHO THEN WAS COMMANDING THE AMERICAN 12TH ARMY GROUP.

"WHEN KONEV ARRIVED," HE SAID. "BRADLEY TOOK HIM INTO HIS WAR ROOM. THERE ON THE WALL WAS A HUGE MAP. IT SHOWED THE POSITION AND STRENGTH OF EVERY AMERICAN DIVISION UNDER BRADLEY'S COMMAND. BRADLEY WAVED TO THE MAP AND SAID: 'WELL, TAKE A GOOD LOOK. THERE'S WHERE MY TROOPS ARE.'

"I MIGHT ADD KONEV DID NOT SHOW BRADLEY A MAP OF HIS TROOP DISPOSITIONS."

MARSHALL PLAN (360)

BY JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON,MARCH 27-(AP)-THE FIRST SHIP CARRYING MARSHALL PLAN AID FOR EUROPE MAY DOCK IN A FOREIGN PORT TWO DAYS AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN SIGNS THE BILL INTO LAW.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS ARE LAYING THE GROUNDWORK FOR THIS SWIFT BEGINNING FOR THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM DESIGNED TO BRING COMMUNIST EXPANSION TO A HALT.

THESE OFFICIALS SAID TODAY IT IS POSSIBLE THE INITIAL CARGO OF COAL OR GRAIN WILL GO TO ITALY ABOUT 10 DAYS BEFORE THE CRITICAL ELECTION TEST APRIL 18.

FRANCE AND BRITAIN PROBABLY WILL GET THE BIGGEST SHARE OF THE FIRST SUPPLIES UNDER PRESENT PLANS. ITALY RANKS THIRD, FOLLOWED BY THE NETHERLANDS AND WESTERN GERMANY.

THESE TENTATIVE STATE DEPARTMENT PLANS ARE BASED ON AN ESTIMATE THAT CONGRESS WILL COMPLETE ACTION BY NEXT FRIDAY ON LEGISLATION PROVIDING A BILLION DOLLARS AS A STARTER.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS SCHEDULED TO SET THIS GIANT RECOVERY PROGRAM INTO MOTION IMMEDIATELY AFTER SIGNING THE BILL.

THE PRESIDENT WOULD DIRECT EITHER THE STATE DEPARTMENT OR THE EXPORT-IMPORT BANK TO GET SHIPMENTS MOVING PENDING HIS APPOINTMENT OF A FOREIGN AID ADMINISTRATOR.

ONCE THE PRESIDENT ACTS, THE ADMINISTRATION IS PREPARED TO PAY FOR SHIPLOADS OF ESSENTIAL GOODS ALREADY ON THE HIGH SEAS WHICH WERE ORDERED BY MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS ASKED THE 16 PARTICIPATING NATIONS TO PROVIDE A LIST OF THE ITEMS THEY BELIEVE THEY NEED DURING THE FIRST THREE MONTHS. THE INITIAL BILLION DOLLAR INSTALLMENT IS EXPECTED TO TAKE CARE OF THESE REQUIREMENTS.

THE FOREIGN AID ADMINISTRATOR, WHEN HE IS APPOINTED, WILL DETERMINE HOW MUCH OF THE TOTAL $5,300,000,000 (B) EACH COUNTRY IS TO RECEIVE FOR THE FULL YEAR.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT PREVIOUSLY ESTIMATED THAT BRITAIN NEEDS $5,348,000,000 DURING THE FOUR AND ONE-QUARTER YEARS OF THE PROGRAM--ALMOST TWICE AS MUCH AS OTHER PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES.

THE ADMINISTRATOR IS EXPECTED TO REVISE ALL FIGURES SOMEWHAT BUT NOT ENOUGH TO CHANGE THE GENERAL PICTURE MATERIALLY.

FRANCE STANDS SECOND TO BRITAIN IN NEED WITH $3,701,000,000, ITALY THIRD WITH $2,913,000,000, AND WESTERN GERMANY WITH $2,499,000,000. THE NETHERLANDS IS FIFTH WITH $2,436,000,000. THE OTHER COUNTRIES LISTED IN ORDER OF THEIR ESTIMATED NEEDS ARE--BELGIUM, LUXEMBOURG, AUSTRIA, DENMARK, IRELAND, GREECE, NORWAY, PORTUGAL, ICELAND AND TURKEY.

SWEDEN AND SWITZERLAND ARE SCHEDULED TO GET LITTLE OR NO FINANCIAL HELP.

EUROPEAN
BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, MARCH 27-(AP)-RESPONSIBLE OFFICIALS NOW BELIEVE THE UNITED STATES WILL HAVE TO FURNISH ARMS AS WELL AS ECONOMIC AID TO STRENGTHEN WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS AGAINST RUSSIA.

SOME AUTHORITIES SPECULATE THAT CONGRESS MAY BE ASKED TO REVIVE THE WARTIME LEND-LEASE PRINCIPLE OF ARMING NATIONS WHOSE DEFENSE IS IN THE INTEREST OF AMERICAN SECURITY.

THE WHOLE SUBJECT OF AMERICAN MILITARY RELATIONS WITH THE FREE NATIONS OF EUROPE IS NOW BEING STUDIED BY TOP ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS.

PRESUMABLY DECISIONS WILL BE MADE IN THE NEAR FUTURE AND EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS HAVE BEEN OR WILL BE CONSULTED ON THEIR OWN ESTIMATES OF THEIR REQUIREMENTS. WHITE HOUSE AND STATE DEPARTMENT LEADERS CONSTANTLY STRESS THE URGENCY OF ACTION TO "STOP RUSSIA" AND EVERY SOVIET GESTURE AT A WESTERN COUNTRY TENDS TO SPEED UP THE PROCESS.

ANOTHER OF THESE GESTURES CAME TODAY. IZVESTIA, RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER, LET GO WITH A BLAST AT NORWAY WHICH SOME DIPLOMATS THOUGHT MIGHT BE THE START OF THE LONG FEARED RUSSIAN CAMPAIGN AGAINST THAT COUNTRY.

IZVESTIA ACCUSED RIGHTISTS IN THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT OF "SELLING OUT NORWAY TO THE UNITED STATES." THE RUSSIANS SAID NORWEGIAN, AMERICAN AND BRITISH WAR DEPARTMENTS HAD AGREED ON FAR-REACHING MILITARY MEASURES SUCH AS STANDARDIZATION OF NORWEGIAN ARMS AND USE OF NORWEGIAN TERRITORY FOR AMERICAN AND BRITISH BASES.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS ARE EXTREMELY CAUTIOUS IN DISCUSSING SUBJECTS SUCH AS THOSE BROUGHT UP IN THE SOVIET CHARGES ABOUT NORWAY. BUT PRESIDENT TRUMAN EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER SCANDINAVIA IN HIS "STOP RUSSIA" SPEECH TO CONGRESS MARCH 17. SINCE THEN THERE HAVE BEEN TWO OTHER STATEMENTS BEARING IMPORTANTLY ON THE SITUATION.

DEFENSE SECRETARY FORRESTAL TOLD THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE THURSDAY THAT "AS A STRICTLY MILITARY MATTER WE CANNOT AFFORD TO SIT BY" WHILE THE REST OF THE EUROPEAN NATIONS FALL "ONE BY ONE."

A168WX

AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THE SAME DAY SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL SAID THAT AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD A WESTERN EUROPEAN ALLIANCE IS STILL UNDER STUDY. HE ALSO SAID THAT THE NEED OF EUROPEANS FOR INCREASING ARMAMENTS TO MEET THE RUSSIAN CHALLENGE MIGHT HAVE THE EFFECT OF RAISING THE COST OF AMERICAN ECONOMIC AID TO EUROPE--HE COULDN'T SAY WITHOUT LOOKING INTO THE MATTER.

PRIMARILY ON THE BASIS OF THESE PUBLIC STATEMENTS AND AUTHORITATIVE INTERPRETATIONS OF WHAT THEY MEAN IT IS POSSIBLE TO REPORT HOW AMERICAN POLICY IS SHAPING UP:

PRESIDENT TRUMAN DELIBERATELY WENT AS FAR AS HE COULD IN HIS "STOP RUSSIA" MESSAGE TO PLEDGE ASSISTANCE TO THE EUROPEAN NATIONS. BUT THE ADMINISTRATION CONSIDERS THE FIRST NEED OF THE UNITED STATES IS TO BUILD UP ITS ARMED FORCES SO IT CAN BACK UP TALK WITH ACTION. HENCE EMPHASIS WAS ON ESSENTIALLY DOMESTIC PROPOSALS SUCH AS THE DRAFT.

IN ADMINISTRATION AND STATE DEPARTMENT OPINION THE STRONGEST ASSURANCE TO WESTERN EUROPE IS A UNITED STATES ABLE AND READY TO ACT AGAINST RUSSIA, IF NECESSARY. BUT A MAJOR AIM OF AMERICAN POLICY IS TO STRENGTHEN THE EUROPEANS SO THEY ALSO WILL BE READY AND ABLE TO ACT.

THUS THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT HAS ENCOURAGED FORMATION OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION AND WANTS IT TO GO MUCH FURTHER THAN THE FIVE NATIONS IT ALREADY TENTATIVELY EMBRACES--BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, AND LUXEMBOURG.

ONE GREAT AIM OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN IN WHICH 16 EUROPEAN NATIONS ARE COOPERATING IS TO MAKE THE EUROPEANS SO STRONG THEY WOULD STAND VIRTUALLY AS THEIR OWN COUNTER-FORCE AGAINST RUSSIA. AMERICA AND A REVIVED EUROPE TOGETHER WOULD PRESENT A COMBINATION RUSSIA WOULD NOT DARE FIGHT, ACCORDING TO THIS REASONING.

BUT THE PLAN WAS LAID DOWN AND THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION WAS CONCEIVED UNDER A MUCH SLOWER TEMPO THAN THE SPEED OF TODAY'S EVENTS. THE FATE OF NORWAY MIGHT BE DECIDED, FOR INSTANCE, IN TERMS OF WEEKS RATHER THAN YEARS.

IT IS THIS STATE OF AFFAIRS WHICH HAS CAUSED OFFICIALS HERE TO PRESS WORK ON THE MILITARY PHASES OF EUROPEAN RECOVERY. THE RECOVERY PLAN WITH ITS EXPECTED $5,300,000,000 IS NOW TRIMMED TO A FAIRLY CLOSE MARGIN. TO MAKE IT WORK, THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES ARE SUPPOSED TO PRODUCE A LOT OF CIVILIAN GOODS ON THEIR OWN. IF THEY HAVE TO REDUCE THIS PRODUCTION IN ORDER TO TURN OUT ARMS, THE PLAN WILL BE THROWN OUT OF KILTER AND MIGHT REQUIRE ADDITIONAL FUNDS TO MAKE UP THE DIFFERENCE.

THIS LEADS TO THE ALTERNATIVE OF SENDING AMERICAN ARMS, AS AVAILABLE, TO FRIENDLY EUROPEAN COUNTRIES THAT WANT THEM. THIS OPERATION WOULD BE KEPT SEPARATE FROM THE ECONOMIC SIDE OF HELP TO EUROPE AND WOULD BE RUN, ACCORDING TO PRESENT THINKING, BY THE ARMED FORCES.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 27-(AP)-A GLOBAL EFFORT IN WEATHER RESEARCH WILL BE LAUNCHED APRIL 1 TO GET MAXIMUM COVERAGE OF WEATHER AIR OBSERVATIONS FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE WAR.

PROBES OF THE AIR 11 MILES OR MORE ABOVE THE EARTH'S SURFACE WILL BE MADE BY THE UNITED STATES AND WEATHER SERVICES OF 57 OTHER COUNTRIES IN A CONCERTED 10-DAY PROGRAM OF METEOROLOGICAL RESEARCH.

THE U.S. WEATHER BUREAU, AIR WEATHER SERVICE AND NAVY AEROLOGICAL SERVICES SAID THE WORLDWIDE DATA GATHERING WILL PROVIDE THE BASIS FOR A "COMPOSITE GLOBAL WEATHER PICTURE AND A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF THE EARTH'S WEATHER PHENOMENA."

THE APRIL 1-10 EFFORT WILL BE ONE OF TWO SUCH PERIODS OF SPECIAL OBSERVATIONS THIS YEAR SPONSORED BY THE INTERNATIONAL METEOROLOGICAL ORGANIZATIONS (CAPS I, M, O), IN LAUSANNE, SWITZERLAND. THE OTHER IS TENTATIVELY SET FOR OCTOBER.

DR.SVERRE PETTERSSEN, PRESIDENT OF THE IMO'S AEROLOGICAL COMMISSION, HAS ASKED THE PARTICIPANTS TO ARRANGE FOR "AS MANY AEROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS AS POSSIBLE BY THE AID OF RADIO-SONDES (BALLOON-CARRIED TRANSMITTERS), VERTICAL ASCENTS, BALLOON METEOROGRAPHS, WEATHER RECONNAISSANCE FLIGHTS AND COMMERCIAL AIRCRAFT AND PILOT BALLOONS."

PETTERSSEN SAID IT IS IMPORTANT TO GET MORE FREQUENT AND HIGHER ASCENTS IN NORTH AMERICA AND WESTERN EUROPE, WHERE THE NETWORK OF AEROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS H-

ER ASCENTS IN NORTH AMERICA AND WESTERN EUROPE, WHERE THE NETWORK OF AEROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS ALREADY IS RELATIVELY DENSE.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MARCH 27-(AP)-WANTED: A PLACE FOR SOME 3,616 UNWANTED ALIENS TO GO.

IF THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT WENT IN FOR CLASSIFIED ADS, AND IT FELT IT WOULD DO SOME GOOD, IT MIGHT BE RUNNING SUCH AN AD THIS WEEKEND.

A CHECK OF DEPARTMENT FILES SHOWS THERE ARE THAT MANY DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS WHICH ARE BOGGED DOWN BECAUSE THE UNITED STATES HAS BEEN UNABLE TO PERSUADE ANY OTHER COUNTRY TO TAKE THE PERSON INVOLVED. SOME OF THESE CASES DATE BACK 25 YEARS.

ALWAYS, THE EFFORT IS TO PERSUADE THE COUNTRY OF ORIGIN TO TAKE THE UNDESIRED ALIEN BACK. IF THIS FAILS, THE DEPARTMENT'S IMMIGRATION SERVICE SHOPS AROUND TO FIND SOME OTHER LAND THAT WILL CONSENT TO ADMITTING HIM. SOME 3,000 DEPORTATIONS A YEAR ARE CARRIED OUT.

IF THE DEPORTABLE ALIEN HIMSELF IS UNABLE TO FIND A DESTINATION, THEN THE IMMIGRATION SERVICE NEGOTIATES WITH FOREIGN CONSULS, SOMETIMES WITH THE EMBASSIES IN WASHINGTON. IF NECESSARY, THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ASKS THE HELP OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN TAKING THE MATTER UP WITH THE HOME GOVERNMENT OF THE MAN OR WOMAN UP FOR EXLUSION.

"WHEN THEY ALL SAY NO, THERE IS NOTHING FURTHER WE CAN DO," THE DEPARTMENT SAYS. "UNDER THE LAW, WE CANNOT EXPELL ANYONE FROM THE UNITED STATES UNTIL ANOTHER COUNTRY AGREES TO TAKE THEM."

THE QUESTION WAS RAISED WITH THE DEPARTMENT IN CONNECTION WITH YESTERDAY'S DELAYED DEPARTURE BY AIR OF MR. AND MRS.HANS EISLER.

EISLER, LONG ESTABLISHED IN HOLLYWOOD AS A MUSICIAN AND COMPOSER, WAS ORDERED DEPORTED AS AN ALIEN COMMUNIST EARLY THIS YEAR. EISLER ANNOUNCED THEN THAT HE WOULD LEAVE "VOLUNTARILY," WHICH THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SAID WAS SATISFACTORY TO IT.

EISLER'S ATTORNEYS NEGOTIATED PRIVATELY FOR HIS VISAS, AND HE OBTAINED PERMITS TO GO TO EITHER AUSTRIA OR CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

OF THE 3,616 PROPOSED DEPORTATIONS NOW STYMIED FOR LACK OF A DESTINATION POINT, 81 OF THE ALIENS INVOLVED ARE CLASSES BY THE DEPARTMENT AS COMMUNISTS. A GRAND TOTAL OF 2,376 INVOLVE PERSONS FROM "BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN." RUSSIANS ACCOUNT FOR 1,365 OF THESE, BUT MOST OF THIS NUMBER LEFT THE MOTHER COUNTRY AT THE TIME OF THE BOLSHEVIK REVOLUTION AND ACCORDING TO THE DEPARTMENT "ARE NOT AND NEVER HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED CITIZENS OF THE U.S.S.R.UNDER SOVIET LAW."

IN THE BULK OF THE THWARTED DEPORTATIONS, THE ALIEN HAS BEEN CLASSED AS "UNDESIRABLE" ON GROUNDS OF IMMORALITY, COMMISSION OF A CRIME, MENTAL INCOMPETENCY, OR INFRACTION OF THE PERMITS UNDER WHICH THEY FIRST GOT IN--MAINLY OVERSTAYING THE TIME ALLOWED THEM IN THE FIRST PLACE.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 27-(AP)-A STOP SIGN HAS BEEN HUNG UP IN THE HOUSE FOR LEGISLATION THAT WOULD MAKE THE UNITED STATES A MEMBER OF THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION.

DISCLOSING THIS TODAY, REPUBLICAN LEADERS WHO WOULD NOT ALLOW THEIR NAMES TO BE USED SAID THEY CONSIDERED THE BILL AN OPENING WEDGE IN A CAMPAIGN TO HAVE UNCLE SAM FOOT THE MEDICAL BILLS OF THE ENTIRE WORLD.

THE HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE TABLED THE LEGISLATION WITHOUT EXPLANATION SEVERAL WEEKS AGO. PREVIOUSLY THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE HAD ENDORSED THE PROPOSAL WHOLEHEARTEDLY, AND THE SENATE HAD APPROVED IT.

THE RULES VOTE THAT KILLED THE MEASURE WAS 5 TO 2. TO UNDO THAT ACTION, EIGHT OF THE COMMITTEE'S 12 MEMBERS HAVE TO SUPPORT THE BILL, SINCE IT TAKES A TWO-THIRDS VOTE TO RECONSIDER.

"IT IS DEAD AND IT IS GOING TO STAY DEAD," A GOP LEADER TOLD REPORTERS. "THE WORD TO THAT EFFECT HAS GONE OUT AND IT WILL STICK."

ASKED WHY THE HOUSE LEADERSHIP, WHICH NORMALLY CONTROLS THE COMMITTEE, IS AGAINST THE BILL, THE REPUBLICAN SAID:

"WE THOUGHT IT WAS NOT FEASIBLE AT THIS TIME. IT WOULD START US ON A WORLD HEALTH PROGRAM, WITH THE UNITED STATES FOOTING THE BILL AND RUNNING AROUND GIVING INJECTIONS ALL OVER THE WORLD. WE DON'T THINK THIS IS THE TIME TO BE EMBARKING ON NEW PROGRAMS THAT WILL COST US MORE MONEY. WE NEED THE MONEY FOR OTHER THINGS NOW."

HE SAID THE ROADBLOCK THROWN AGAINST THE BILL WAS NOT A RESULT OF RUSSIA'S AGREEMENT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE HEALTH PROGRAM.

"THAT HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH IT," HE SAID, "ALTHOUGH THERE ARE SOME MEMBERS WHO DON'T WANT TO GET MIXED UP WITH RUSSIA IN THAT KIND OF A DEAL."

THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION IS A UNITED NATIONS AGENCY. BEFORE IT BECOMES OPERATIVE ITS CONSTITUTION MUST BE RATIFIED BY 26 NATIONS. TWENTY-THREE, INCLUDING RUSSIA, ALREADY HAVE SIGNED UP.

THE ANNOUNCED PURPOSE OF THE ORGANIZATION IS TO HALT DISEASES SUCH AS CHOLERA AND MALARIA, TO PROMOTE MEDICAL RESEARCH AND TO ADVISE GOVERNMENTS ON SANITATION, NUTRITION AND OTHER HEALTH MEASURES.

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,MARCH 29-(AP)-FOR THE UNITED STATES TO WIN A WAR WITH RUSSIA WITHOUT EUROPEAN ALLIES AND BASES "APPROACHES THE IMPOSSIBLE," REP.ALBERT J.ENGEL (R-MICH) SAID TODAY.

THAT IS THE PRIMARY REASON HE GAVE FOR HIS SUPPORT OF THE $6,205,000,000 FOREIGN AID BILL. IT INCLUDES $5,300,000,000 FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

ENGEL, CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE MILITARY APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE, SAID IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR THE HOUSE:

"THE MILITARY AND ECONOMIC POWER OF NATIONS FRIENDLY TO US X X X MUST BE RESTORED TO A DEGREE SO THAT WHEN THAT POWER IS ADDED TO OUR OWN IT WILL BE SO GREAT THAT RUSSIA DARE NOT EXTEND HER AGGRESSION."

WITHOUT FRIENDLY EUROPEAN NATIONS TO HOLD THE LINE AGAINST ANY SOVIET ATTACK UNTIL U.S. FORCES COULD GET THERE IN STRENGTH, HE SAID, "OUR HANDICAP WOULD BE SO GREAT THAT THE CHANCES ARE X X X IT WOULD BE AN ENDLESS WAR WITH A RESULTING STALEMATE."

ENGEL SAID THE UNITED STATES HAS NO ALTERNATIVE BUT "TO MAKE REASONABLE MILITARY PREPARATIONS" BECAUSE DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA HAVE SUNK TO A NEW LOW.

HE ADDED THAT THE ONLY CHANCE FOR IMMEDIATE PEACE IS THROUGH RESTORATION OF THE PRE-WAR ECONOMIC AND MILITARY POWER OF NATIONS WHICH BELIEVE IN FREE GOVERNMENT.

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, MARCH 27-(AP)-REP. MACY (R-NY) SAID TODAY STARTLING BLACK MARKET OPERATIONS EXPLOITING THE NATION'S STEEL SHORTAGE HAVE BEEN UNCOVERED BY CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATORS.

PUBLIC HEARINGS INTO THE ALLEGED PRICE-BOOSTING DEALS WILL BEGIN NEXT TUESDAY BEFORE MACY'S HOUSE PUBLIC WORKS SUBCOMMITTEE.

MACY SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT WEEKS OF QUIET INVESTIGATION REVEALED MANY CASES OF "QUESTIONABLE TRADE PRACTICES HIGHLY PROFITABLE TO THOSE 'ON THE INSIDE' BUT EXTREMELY COSTLY TO THE PEOPLE WHO BUY STOVES, REFRIGERATORS, AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD ITEMS."

ALTHOUGH MACY'S STATEMENT REFERRED TO HIS HOUSE GROUP AS THE "BLACK MARKET INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE," THE TERM "BLACK MARKET" IS A MISNOMER. SALES AT HIGHER THAN MARKET PRICES ARE NO LONGER ILLEGAL SINCE THE END OF PRICE CONTROLS.

HOWEVER, MACY DECLARED:

"IT IS THE OPINION OF THIS COMMITTEE THAT PUBLIC INTEREST REQUIRES A FULL-SCALE INVESTIGATION OF SUCH TRANSACTIONS."

THE NEW YORK LAWMAKER SAID THE HEARINGS WILL CENTER ON "THREE TRANSACTIONS WHICH TYPIFY VARIOUS METHODS BY WHICH STEEL IS CHANNELED INTO THE BLACK MARKET." THE SAME MILL, HE SAID, IS INVOLVED IN ALL THREE CASES.

MACY'S STATEMENT SAID:

"THE MILL OWNER INVOLVED IN ALL OF THESE TRANSACTIONS FINANCED HIS PRESENT STEEL ACTIVITIES WITH MONEY BORROWED FROM HARD-PRESSED MANUFACTURERS IN NEED OF STEEL. THESE LOANS OF APPROXIMATELY $5,000,000 WERE MADE WITHOUT INTEREST OR SECURITY."

THE THREE ALLEGED TRANSACTIONS CITED BY MACY FOLLOW:

1. "A RADIO MANUFACTURER DISPOSES OF HIS INVENTORY ON A TIE-IN BASIS WITH SHEET STEEL FROM A MILL WHICH HE OWNS. IN ORDER TO OBTAIN 15,000 TONS OF THIS STEEL, OPERATORS NORMALLY ENGAGED IN FAR DIFFERENT PURSUITS AGREE TO PURCHASE 25,000 RADIOS OVER-VALUED BY THE MANUFACTURER BY MORE THAN $1,000,000.

"HOWEVER, THE OPERATORS ARE WILLING TO TAKE THIS INITIAL LOSS, SINCE THEY KNOW THIS VENTURE INTO THE BLACK MARKET WILL GIVE THEM A NET PROFIT OF APPROXIMATELY $1,250,000."

2. "IN ORDER TO INDUCE A PURCHASER TO BUY CERTAIN INVENTORY, AN AUTOMOBILE MANUFACTURER USES HIS STANDING WITH A MILL TO OBTAIN SHEET STEEL FOR THE PURCHASER.

"THE MILL PRICE FOR THIS STEEL IS APPROXIMATELY $107 A TON. HOWEVER, THE PURCHASER RESELLS THE STEEL, AND AFTER PASSING THROUGH THE HANDS OF FOUR OTHER BROKERS IT EVENTUALLY GETS TO A MANUFACTURER WHO HAS TO PAY $320 A TON FOR IT."

3. "A SCRAP DEALER OBTAINS STEEL SHEETS FROM A MILL IN RETURN FOR SCRAP. HE RESELLS THESE SHEETS IN THE BLACK MARKET AT PRICES RANGING AS HIGH AS THREE TIMES THE MILL PRICE."

THE THIRD PARTY CANDIDATE, SPEAKING OVER A NATIONWIDE RADIO (NBC) NETWORK, DECLARED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN "SET THE PATTERN" FOR THE TACTICS IN HIS ST.PATRICK'S DAY SPEECH IN NEW YORK.

IN THAT SPEECH, MR. TRUMAN DISAVOWED THE SUPPORT OF "HENRY WALLACE AND HIS COMMUNISTS."

"THE MEN WHO SPEAK OF REIGNS OF TERROR IN EUROPE ARE FAST INTRODUCING A REIGN OF TERROR HERE AT HOME," WALLACE SAID, ADDING THAT "PRESIDENT TRUMAN SET THE PATTERN WHEN HE BRANDED THE MILLIONS WHO OPPOSE HIS POLICIES AS 'COMMUNISTS.'"

"SUCH AN APPEAL TO PREJUDICE BLOTS OUT REASON," THE FORMER VICE PRESIDENT ASSERTED, "AND UNLEASHES DANGEROUS FORCES OF HATE THAT THREATEN THE FREEDOM AND LIVELIHOOD OF ALL AMERICANS."

WALLACE DECLARED THAT THE POLICE COMMISSIONER "OF ONE OF OUR LARGEST AMERICAN CITIES WRITES A LETTER IN WHICH HE SAYS THAT HENRY WALLACE IS UN-AMERICAN AND THAT UN-AMERICANS SHOULD BE SHOT."

WALLACE MENTIONED NO NAMES BUT IN DETROIT, POLICE COMMISSIONER HARRY S. TOY SAID HE HAD WRITTEN THE LETTER TO AN OFFICIAL OF THE WALLACE FOR PRESIDENT COMMITTEE. THE OFFICIAL, TOY CLAIMED, HAD ACCUSED HIM OF MAKING ANTI-SEMITIC STATEMENTS.

IN THE LETTER, TOY DECLARED THAT THE LATE PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT WOULD "TURN OVER IN HIS GRAVE WERE HE TO KNOW THAT SUCH UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES AND SUCH AN UN-AMERICAN LEADER AS THAT OF WALLACE ARE BEING SUPPORTED BY THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY OF MICHIGAN.

"X X X I HAVE NO DOUBT THAT YOU OBJECT TO STATEMENTS THAT WERE MADE BY ME, ESPECIALLY WHEN I SAID THAT I FELT THAT ALL THOSE ENGAGED IN UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES OUGHT TO BE EITHER SHOT, THROWN OUT OF THE COUNTRY, OR PUT IN JAIL," THE LETTER CONTINUED.

AFTER WALLACE'S BROADCAST LAST NIGHT, TOY SAID IN DETROIT THAT "IF THE SHOE FITS HENRY WALLACE, LET HIM WEAR IT."

WALLACE SAID THAT IN ANOTHER INSTANCE A PROFESSOR AT A SMALL COLLEGE HAD BEEN ORDERED "TO GET OUT OF POLITICS OR GIVE UP HIS JOB" AFTER HE ACCEPTED A THIRD PARTY COMMITTEE CHAIRMANSHIP.

HE CITED OTHER INSTANCES IN WHICH HE SAID A MINISTER HAD LOST HIS PULPIT BECAUSE HE SANCTIONED THE "POLICIES WE ADVOCATE," AND ANOTHER PROFESSOR WHO WAS DISMISSED FROM HIS POST BECAUSE HE SUPPORTED WALLACE'S PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDACY.

EISLER HAD APPEARED BEFORE THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE AND WAS ACCUSED OF BEING AN ALIEN COMMUNIST. HE SAID HE WAS ANTI-FASCIST AND NOT A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, "BUT I HAVE RESPECT AND SYMPATHY FOR THEM."

DECLARING THAT "THIS IS MY SECOND EXILE--THE FIRST EXILE WAS BY THE GOVERNMENT OF ADOLF HITLER," HE ADDED, "MR. TRUMAN'S GOVERNMENT WANTS ME TO GO. I MAKE A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE AUTHORITIES AND GOVERNMENT AND THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

EISLER WAS ACCOMPANIED BY HIS WIFE.

GERHART EISLER, ALLEGED NO.1 U.S. COMMUNIST ALSO BEING THREATENED WITH DEPORTATION, ACCOMPANIED HIS BROTHER AND SISTER-IN-LAW TO THE AIRPORT.

"I HATE REACTION AND FASCISM IN EVERY FORM," THE DEPARTING COMPOSER TOLD NEWSMEN, "AND I SEE IN THE ACTIVITIES OF THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE A VERY DANGEROUS SIGN OF SUCH DEVELOPMENT. I HOPE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL SOON PLACE THESE MEN WHERE THEY BELONG--ON THE GARBAGE HEAP OF HISTORY."

HE SAID "AMERICAN DEMOCRACY IS WONDERFUL IF IT WORKS," AND ADDED, "IN MY CASE IT DIDN'T WORK."

EISLER HAD MADE SEVERAL UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPTS TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY DURING THE PAST TWO MONTHS. MRS. EISLER'S DEPARTURE FROM THE U.S. WAS VOLUNTARY.

BOSTON MARCH 27-(AP)-ROBERT HENRY BEST, ERSTWHILE NEWSMAN ACCUSED OF BROADCASTING NAZI PROPAGANDA IN WARTIME, GOES ON TRIAL FOR TREASON MONDAY, INTENT ON CONDUCTING HIS OWN DEFENSE.

THE 51-YEAR OLD, PARTIALLY BALD RADIO COMMENTATOR, A NATIVE OF SUMTER, S.C., IS THE SECOND MAN TO BE TRIED IN BOSTON WITHIN A YEAR ON A CHARGE OF BETRAYING HIS COUNTRY.

DOUGLAS CHANDLER OF BALTIMORE WAS CONVICTED LAST JUNE OF TREASONABLE UTTERANCES OVER RADIO BERLIN AND NOW IS SERVING A LIFE SENTENCE.

BEST WILL SIT IN THE SAME FEDERAL COURTROOM AND BEFORE THE SAME JUDGE--FRANCIS J.W.FORD.

TRANSCRIPTIONS OF ALLEGED BROADCASTS--WHICH THE GOVERNMENT CONTENDS WERE FOUND IN BEST'S APARTMENT IN VIENNA WHERE HE LIVED FOR 20 YEARS --WILL BE REPLAYED IN THE COURTROOM. LOUDSPEAKERS TO CARRY THE RECORDINGS MORE CLEARLY TO THE JUDGE AND JURY ALREADY HAVE BEEN SET UP.

BEST AND CHANDLER WERE INDICTED IN DECEMBER, 1946. THE CHARGES WERE SIMILAR: THAT THEY "ADHERED TO THE NATION'S ENEMIES, GIVING THEM AID AND COMFORT IN WARTIME."

IN ALL LIKELIHOOD, HOWEVER, THIS TRIAL WILL DIFFER FROM CHANDLER'S.

AT BEST'S INSISTENCE, HE HAS BEEN GIVEN PERMISSION TO CONDUCT HIS OWN CASE, ALTHOUGH HE IS NOT A LAWYER. CHANDLER UTTERED NOT A WORD IN HIS TRIAL.

TWO ASSOCIATE ATTORNEYS, HENRY M.LEEN AND CHARLES W.BARTLETT, HAVE BEEN APPOINTED BY THE COURT TO AID BEST.

THE GOVERNMENT HAS CALLED 67 WITNESSES. MANY OF THEM ARE GERMANS AND AUSTRIANS FLOWN HERE FROM EUROPE WHO ARE FAMILIAR WITH BEST'S ACTIVITIES. SOME TESTIFIED AGAINST CHANDLER.

BEST HAS DELAYED THE TRIAL TIME AFTER TIME BY FILING MOTIONS. JUDGE FORD ONLY FRIDAY DENIED THE LAST OF ABOUT 75. IT SOUGHT TO HAVE THE GOVERNMENT DIRECTED TO RETURN PROPERTY TAKEN FROM BEST'S VIENNA QUARTERS.

BY COURT PERMISSION, THE DEFENDANT RECENTLY HAS BEEN ALLOWED TO LEAVE JAIL TWO DAYS A WEEK TO CONSULT LAW BOOKS IN THE FEDERAL LIBRARY. HE HAS TURNED OUT REAMS OF DATA ON A TYPEWRITER.

AUTHORITIES SAY SOME OF THE MOTIONS HE PREPARED WOULD DO CREDIT TO A MAN WITH A THOROUGH LEGAL TRAINING.

THREE NOTED PSYCHIATRISTS HAVE DECLARED BEST SANE AND ABLE TO COMPREHEND THE NATURE OF THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM. THE MAXIMUM PENALTY FOR TREASON IS DEATH. IT RANGES DOWNWARD TO A FIVE-YEAR SENTENCE AND A $10,000 FINE.

THE JURY WILL BE CHOSEN FROM A VENIRE OF 175 MEN FROM EASTERN MASSACHUSETTS. THE TRIAL IS BEING HELD IN THE MASSACHUSETTS FEDERAL DISTRICT BECAUSE OF A STATUTE WHICH REQUIRES A DEFENDANT BROUGHT FROM OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY TO BE TRIED IN THE JURISDICTION WHERE HE FIRST STEPS ON AMERICAN SOIL.

THE PLANE BRINGING BEST AND CHANDLER TO WASHINGTON, D.C., FROM EUROPE WAS FORCED TO LAND AT WESTOVER FIELD, CHICOPEE, MASS.

TOM DE WOLFE (CAPS D & W), SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE U.S.ATTORNEY GENERAL, WILL DIRECT THE GOVERNMENT'S CASE. HE WILL BE ASSISTED BY VICTOR C.WOERHIDE, DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE ATTORNEY, AND ASSISTANT U.S.ATTORNEY GERALD J.MCCARTHY.

DENVER, MARCH 27-(AP)-AN ALASKAN AIR BASE NOW IS EQUIPPED TO ACCOMMODATE THE ARMY AIR FORCES' GIANT B-36 BOMBER, THE DENVER POST SAID IN A STORY PUBLISHED TONIGHT.

THE BASE, ONCE KNOWN AS "MILE 26," HAS BEEN NAMED EIELSON FIELD, AND IS, ACCORDING TO THE POST, SO LOCATED AS TO SERVE FOR LAUNCHING AIR ATTACKS ON ANY SPOT IN THE NORTHERN HEMISPHERE.

ONLY THREE FIELDS IN CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES, ASIDE FROM EIELSON, HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED AS CAPABLE OF HANDLING FLIGHTS OF B-36'S ON A REGULAR BASIS. THESE ARE LOCATED AT FORT WORTH, TEX., ELGIN FIELD, FLA., AND WRIGHT FIELD, OHIO.

THE STORY SAID ANNOUNCEMENT OF EIELSON FIELD'S EXISTENCE WAS APPROVED ONLY TODAY BY PROPER OFFICIAL SOURCES. ITS EXACT LOCATION --- OTHERN THAN THAT IT IS ABOUT 26 MILES SOUTHEAST OF FAIRBANKS --- IS GUARDED INFORMATION, THE POST SAID.

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS ADDED TO THE STATEMENT EARLIER THIS WEEK BY AIR SECRETARY STUART SYMINGTON IN WASHINGTON THAT OUR B-29'S, BASED IN ALASKA AND LABRADOR, COULD MAKE BOMB RUNS OVER ANY PORTION OF THE SOVIET UNION.

THE AIR FORCES HAVE ANNOUNCED THAT THE B-36 COULD CARRY AN ATOMIC BOMB TO ANY INHABITED REGION IN THE WORLD AND RETURN HOME WITHOUT REFUELING.

THE PLANE IS DESIGNED FOR A NORMAL RANGE OF 10,000 MILES WITH 10,000 POUNDS, WITHOUT EXTRA FUEL TANKS. THE AIRFORCES HAVE 100 OF THE GIANT SIX-ENGINED BOMBERS ON ORDER.

MOSCOW ACCUSES SWEDES OF A PLOT TO BUILD U.S. BASES

Charges Commander of Army Plans Sites for Planes and Paratroop Forces

SEES AVIATION ALLIANCE

Russian Navy Paper Asserts Clique Aims to Mobilize Industry for Military

By The Associated Press.

MOSCOW, March 28—The newspapers of the Soviet Union's Army and Navy accused Sweden's military commander today of planning to build bases for United States planes and parachute troops on Swedish soil. The papers, Red Star and Red Fleet, said a war clique was striving to control the Swedish Government.

The accusations came a day after the Government newspaper Izvestia had accused the Norwegian Government of planning to lease military bases to the United States and Britain. Simultaneously, Finnish negotiators are in Moscow for discussions looking toward a treaty of cooperation. It is obvious that a Finnish-Soviet friendship pact would strengthen substantially the Soviet position in northern Scandinavia.

To some Moscow observers the attacks on Sweden and Norway indicate the importance the Russians are attaching to the treaty negotiations with Finland.

Commentator M. Semenov wrote the article in the Red Fleet. He said the Swedish Commander in Chief, Lieut. Gen. Helge Jung, is attempting to plan the "use of Swedish armed forces as an appendage of the American military machine and to subject the foreign policy of Sweden to the expansionist ambitions of the United States in northern Europe."

Four-Point Program Reported

General Jung's plan, the newspaper continued, is based on United States help and provides for:

The construction in the northern parts of Sweden of new fortifications and airdromes for the use of United States planes and parachute troops.

The inclusion of Swedish aviation in the military air force system of the United States.

The mobilization of industry on the basis of the importation of United States strategic military materials.

Increasing the contingent of trained officers and men armed with United States weapons.

In working out this asserted plan, the article continued, Swedish generals "well recognize that realization of their risky ventures is only possible under condition of complete subjection of the internal and foreign policy of the country to American imperialism."

Red Fleet indicated that the group it referred to as the war clique had not succeeded thus far in gaining control of the Swedish Government.

Actions of this group have caused concern in progressive circles, the newspaper said, necessitating several statements fy Foreign Minister B. Oesten Under that Sweden was not joining a Western military bloc.

"The Swedish people, strengthening resistance to the warmongers, well understand on what a slippery path arms bearers for the imperialism of the dollar are trying to force their country," Red Fleet concluded.

The Finnish Negotiations

It was officially stated that the Finnish Premier, Mauno Pekkala, had no meeting scheduled for today with V. M. Molotov, Soviet Foreign Minister. Pekkala is in Moscow in connection with the Finnish-Russian treaty talks.

Observers predicted that the pact negotiations would be nearing a conclusion by the middle of next week. They pointed out that the Soviet Foreign Minister and Mrs. Molotov have issued invitations for a reception Tuesday evening honoring Pekkala.

Similar receptions were held by Molotov at the time Russia's pacts with Romania, Hungary and Bulgaria were ready for signature or the negotiations had reached an advanced stage.

Georgian Republic Leader 'Freed From His Duties'

By The Associated Press.

MOSCOW, March 28—The chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the Georgian Socialist Soviet Republic has been "freed from his duties," Pravda reported today.

The Soviet Union and each of its republics has a Presidium.

[The Soviet Union and each of its republics has a Presidium, elected by both chambers of its Supreme Soviet, or legislative body. The Presidium is the highest state authority between sessions of the Supreme Soviet and is responsible to it. Premier Stalin's birthplace is in the Georgian Republic.]

Pravda said Deputy George Sturua has been succeeded as president of the Georgian Presidium by Deputy Gogua.

Reds Replace Art Censors

New Vice-Chairmen Named to Make Music Harmonize With Party

MOSCOW, March 28 (AP).—Two new vice-chairmen were announced for the Soviet Art Committee, which supervises all work in the field of music, the theater, and the graphic arts. They are N. N. Bespatlov and F. Kaloshia, replacing I. I. Anisimov and A. S. Totaev, respectively.

In January, committee chairmen Ivanovich Polikarp Lebedev was instructed by the Communist party to bring music and other arts more in line with party teachings.

Pravda Says Opposition To Truman Is Growing

Moscow, March 28 (AP)—Pravda, Communist party newspaper, said today that opposition to President Truman is growing throughout the United States, while his chances of receiving the nomination are diminishing.

A Tass dispatch from New York, citing American newspaper sources, said that the "fact Truman's unpopularity is on the increase is witnessed by the fact that even rightist trade union leaders are beginning to come out against him."

POPE APPEALS FOR DEFEAT OF CHURCH'S FOES

World At Crisis In Fight On Communism, He Tells Easter Throngs

Vatican City, March 28 (AP)—Pope Pius XII declared today that Italy and the world have reached the crossroads in the struggle against communism—"the great hour of Christian conscience has sounded."

He spoke to 400,000 Italians and people from all over the world. They crowded into St. Peter's Square and filled the roofs of buildings surrounding it to receive the Pope's Easter blessing. The assembly dwarfed all political rallies that have been held for the April 18 elections in which Italians will decide whether Communists shall control their Government.

The Pontiff, dressed all in white, spoke from the center balcony of St. Peter's high above the heads of the cheering mass. He said the moment is one of singular gravity and importance to the world.

Quotes "Terrible Verdict"

As is his custom, Pope Pius did not mention communism by name. But no one doubted whom he meant when he quoted from St. Matthew the "terrible verdict" of Christ: "He that is not with Me is against Me."

"You beloved sons and daughters, well comprehend what such a crossroads signifies and contains for Rome, for Italy, for the world," the Pope said.

"In your conscience, aroused to full understanding of its responsibility, there is no place for blind credulity toward those who at first are abundant with affirmations of respect for religion, but then, alas, reveal themselves the denyers of that which is most sacred.

No Place For Cowardice

"In your conscience, there is no place for cowardice, accommodation, for the irresolution of those who in this crucial hour believe they serve two masters.

"Your conscience knows that the realization of social justice and peace among the nations can never be achieved or preserved if the eyes are closed to the light of Christ and the ears opened instead to the erroneous words of agitators who make the negation of Christ the cornerstone of their work."

Rome, he said, is "in the midst of a turning of the times which requires of the head and members of Christianity the highest vigilance, untiring preparedness and unconditioned action."

"Watch and pray," he admonished the Romans. "Awake and pray. . . . The great hour of Christian conscience has sounded."

Leaflets Caricature Stalin

Planes roared overhead as he spoke. They swooped low to spill hundreds of thousands of leaflets, some with a caricature of Stalin, that spun and glittered in the bright sunlight. Thousands of outstretched hands received them.

Again and again the Pope had to pause as a plane roared overhead or the cheers of the multitude drowned the words of his strong voice.

The vari-colored leaflets dropped by the planes included prayers. Thousands had only the letter "V," which has been claimed by all political parties and is variously interpreted to mean vote, victory and vita (life).

The one that drew the greatest attention was a red star with the face of Italy's patriot, Giuseppe Garibaldi, which has been made the emblem of the Communist-dominated Popular Front.

"Turn this around and you will see the fraud," said a sentence in tiny print. Turned around, Garibaldi became a glowering, fierce-faced Stalin.

Another leaflet bore the slogan: "Can you imagine Rome without the Pope?"

Premier Alcide de Gasperi, leader of the Christian Democrats, the main anti-Communist opposition, arrived a few minutes before the Pope appeared.

Admirers shouted "Viva de Gasperi!"

Long before the Pontiff appeared, thousands filled all the streets leading to St. Peter's Square.

Italians Hear A War Cry

They included men and women of all colors—missionaries from Africa, Japan and China, and tourists from all European countries and America here for the Easter holiday.

But the vast majority were Italians who saw in the imposing display a war cry against Communism.

Thousands of members attended from the Italian Catholic Action—the 4,000,000-strong organization which has served as the church's shock troops in its fight against communism. Its youth members broke into song as they waited for the Pope. One of their banners read, "For Christ—We Are the Youth in Ranks." Another said, "We Are the Youth of the Pope." Everywhere were signs of "Viva Papa" (long live the Pope).

Throughout Rome, blue and red posters had been placed during the night calling upon the people to gather at St. Peter's to wish the Pontiff a happy Easter.

Thousands knelt on the stone of the square as the Pope concluded his speech and gave his blessing. The bronze bells of the Basilica began to boom. The Pontiff stood a few moments, responding again and again to the throng's cheers by stretching his arms out in blessing on those below.

Text of Easter Address by Pope Pius

VATICAN CITY, March 28 (AP).—The complete text of the address which Pope Pius XII delivered in St. Peter's Square today, as translated from the Italian:

Romans: Beloved sons and daughters!

The solemnity of the resurrection of the Lord has offered you many times the occasion to gather here in peaceful ranks within the majestic frame of this grandiose colonnade, whose arms are open to gather all who move toward the Church and toward Peter.

The Easter benediction, "Urbi et Orbi," that you have come to receive requires of each one of you a frank, happy and public profession of the faith inherited from your fathers, of unbreakable loyalty to the Holy Church, of indissoluble unity of thought and action with the custodian of the high keys, entrusted to him by the divine founder and Lord of the Church.

In this year of anxiety and dangers, in this moment, ambassador of world events perhaps definitive or irreparable, over this multitude of believing Rome there lies almost a shadow of singular gravity, a sacred sense of expectation, a powerful spirit that, like an intimate fire, burns all minds and all hearts.

Who is not blind, sees; who is not spiritually torpid, feels; Rome, the mother, the harbinger, the teacher of civilization and of the eternal values of life, this Rome which once its greatest historian called—almost by divine instinct—"caput orbis terrarum" (capital of the world), and whose destiny is a mystery that turns in the centuries; this Rome now finds herself before, or, better, in the midst of a turning of the times which requires of the head and members of Christianity the highest vigilance, untiring preparedness and unconditioned action.

Watch and pray: awake and pray: thus the Lord admonished his disciples on the vigil of His passion.

Watch and pray; awake and pray: is the cry that in the name of the arisen Redeemer we direct to you, to your and our co-citizens, to all the faithful of the world.

The great hour of Christian conscience has sounded.

Either this conscience awakes to a full and virile understanding of its mission of aid and salvation for a humanity endangered in its spiritual structure; and therefore there is health, there is the coming of the formal promise of the Redemptor: "Have faith, I have conquered the world."

Or else (may it not please God) this conscience only half awakes, does not give itself courageously to Christ; and hence the verdict, the terrible verdict of his, not less formal: He that is not with me is against me.

You, beloved sons and daughters, well comprehend what such a crossroads signifies and contains for Rome, for Italy, for the world.

In your conscience, aroused to full understanding of its responsibility, there is no place for blind credulity towards those who at first are abundant with affirmations of respect for religion, but then, alas, reveal themselves the deniers of that which is most sacred.

In your conscience there is no place for cowardice, for accommodation, for the irresolution of those who in this crucial hour believe they serve two masters.

Your conscience knows that the realization of social justice and peace among nations can never be achieved or preserved if the eyes are closed to the light of Christ and the ears opened instead to the erroneous words of agitators who make the negation of Christ the cornerstone of their work.

Romans:

The Church of Rome, which is for you in the strictest sense also your mother, has been recently publicly the target of most unjust attacks. As Christ was subjected to contradictors, as he was calumniated, covered with vituperation and mud; thus from adversaries blinded by passion, no outrage is spared the Church.

In vain, in this same city, center of Christianity, she has multiplied her benefactions; in vain, in circumstances of imminent peril, she has saved, gathered, given refuge to the persecuted of every category, even of those among her fiercest enemies; in vain, in time of tyrannical oppression, she has affirmed and sustained the dignity, the rights of the human being and the just liberty of the people; in vain, when the menace of hunger weighed over the Eternal City, she provided for its food; in vain, faithful interpreter of the commandments of Christ, she raised her voice against the damage of spreading immorality that leads people to decadence and ruin.

She is accused of being "reactionary" and of favoring doctrines which she has condemned; she is accused of pauperizing and putting in misery the people she has greatly aided and continues to aid, mostly by providential aid that the charity of the Catholic world, obedient to her repeated and warm supplications, supplies her.

She is reproached of betraying the doctrine of Christ, her divine spouse, which she does not tire to announce, to defend and to put into action.

She is accused, through amplifying and generalizing, of the faults of some one degenerate of her members, which she was first to deplore, to reprove and punish severely. But, also constrained as she is to reject and refute so many iniquitous accusations for the honor of the name of Christ, for the integrity of her doctrine, for the tutelage of so many simple and unwary souls, for whom those calumnious injustices could vacillate their faith, she loves even her detractors, who also are her sons, and invites all, as we now invite all, O people of Rome, O people of Italy, O people of the world, to unity, to concord, to love, to thoughts and designs of peace.

May the grace of the all powerful God, the protection of the most pure Virgin Mary, mother of the divine love, and health of the Roman people, rest upon you, while we with outpouring heart impart upon all, present and far away, our paternal apostolic benediction.

Russia Raises Legation In Hungary To Embassy

London, Monday, March 29 (AP)—The Moscow radio said today G. M. Pushkin had been appointed Soviet Ambassador to Hungary. The broadcast gave no further details.

Since Gregori M. Pushkin has been Russian Minister to Hungary, it was evident the Soviet Government has raised the status of its legation in Budapest to that of embassy.

French Sailors Held in Service

PARIS, March 28 (AP).—The Ministry of Armed Forces announced today that French sailors eligible for discharge this spring will be retained in service. No reason was given for the decree. The sailors affected are part of the class of 1947.

French Seek a Federal Europe

PARIS, March 28 (AP).—More than 20,000 French citizens have signed a petition calling for immediate establishment of a federal Europe, the newspaper "Combat" said today. The newspaper was reporting the first week's results in its campaign for petition signatures.

East-West Clashes On Press

Geneva, Switzerland, March 28 (AP)—Russian bloc delegations to the United Nations Conference on Freedom of Information are expected to continue their attack on the American press tomorrow.

United States delegates, while deploring the present stage of mutual recrimination between East and West evident in all the committees of the conference, generally felt today that the Russians and their allies must be permitted to "let off steam" before the conference can settle down to serious work.

Guild Head Answers

In Conference Committee 3, concerned with the free reception and publication of news, Harry Martin, president of the CIO American Newspaper Guild, yesterday delivered a stinging reply to the general offensive by east European delegates against the American press and the freedom of information in the United States.

Martin's speech was in answer to Jakov Lomakin, Soviet delegate.

"Their mud slinging gives us no alternative but to answer it," Martin said later. "We did not come here to put any one press on trial. We came to establish freedom of the press. But we must reply when we are attacked."

The recriminations began with the very first meeting of Committee 3, Martin said, when a Polish delegate declared that "of course, everyone knows that the American press is subjected to a rigid censorship by its capitalistic owners."

Charges and countercharges between East and West have been a feature of every session of all the committees of the conference since it opened last Tuesday. The conference has the task of "formulating its views concerning the rights, obligations and practices which should be included in the concept of the freedom of information."

Most delegates believe that the Russian bloc is almost certain to reply with equal vigor to Martin's declaration yesterday describing the Soviet Union as "the nation possessing the strictest censorship that human civilization ever witnessed, a nation where no single word ever appears in print without the advance scrutiny and official approval of the world's biggest monopoly—the Soviet Government."

Martin said he assumed Lomakin "was merely trying to amuse" the committee when he accused the United States of censorship and press monopoly.

"Not On Trial," He Says

The United States press "is not on trial . . . at this conference," Martin said, and, rather than defend it against the Soviet attacks, he wished to "disabuse Mr. Lomakin's mind of its ignorance concerning the true facts about that press."

Of 1,700 daily newspapers in the United States, Martin said, 83 per cent are locally owned in the city where they are published and no single chain organization controls more than twenty newspapers.

"Four out of every five newspapers in the United States are individual, independent units in which the editor is completely free to print whatever he wishes without outside interference of any sort," while the majority of the editors of America's 10,000 weekly newspapers are equally free to express their opinions, he added.

"Monolithic Structure"

Martin compared this American situation with the "acknowledged monolithic structure of the U.S.S.R. press, where the Communist party itself directly operates the whole range of party papers from the all-union Pravda to the village wall sheet."

The chairman of Committee 3, Dr. Paul Noriega, of Mexico, several times has tried unsuccessfully to cut short the present "general discussion" of the committee's work.

His list of delegates wishing to speak tomorrow includes several from both East and West but Noriega said today he hoped the committee would soon reach a drafting stage, and "would even achieve a certain measure of unanimity."

Few other delegates expected the conference to reach unanimous agreement in any sphere of its activity.

Coal Allocations Rise

Distrubtion for Europe 50% Higher Than a Year Ago

GENEVA, March 28 (AP).—European coal allocations for the second quarter of 1948 show an increase of more than 50 per cent over the program for the corresponding quarter of 1947.

The distribution of a European pool of 18,500,000 tons of coal and coke, including 9,000,000 tons imported from the United States and nearly 2,000,000 from Great Britain, was laid down here by the coal committee of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe.

Big 4 Cited In Charge

Berlin, March 28 (AP)—A Moscow broadcast said today that the Western powers "intend to destroy and bury the Foreign Ministers Council, just as they are destroying the Control Council" for Germany.

"Is it not a fact that now intensive preparations are underway for convocation of a separatist conference of the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and France?" The broadcaster asked, quoting from the Communist organ Pravada.

The last meeting of the four-power Foreign Ministers' Council was held in December in London. It was unable to agree on a future course for Germany. No new meeting has been projected. Authorities in Paris, Washington and London denied last Tuesday that a three-power meeting (excluding Russia) is planned for April.

Tentative Agreements

Representatives of the three foreign ministries, but not the secretaries themselves, met in London early this month. They announced tentative agreements on a number of problems concerning the western occupation zones of Germany.

Moscow's broadcast said the Western powers, despite denials by Gen. George Marshall, Secretary of State, "are wrecking the Control Council and burying it."

The Russians eight days ago walked out of a meeting of this Council, after the Western powers' representatives refused to be questioned about the London meeting which discussed the Western occupation zones. There seemed scant prospect today that this deadlock will be broken by Tuesday, when the next regular meeting of the Control Council is scheduled.

Final Break Doubted

There were, however, renewed indications in the Soviet official press that the Russians were not ready to make a full and final break with the West in Germany.

The official Taegliche Rundschau spoke of "future" operations of the Council, which the Russian-controlled press earlier had declared dead. The newspaper said:

"Whether the Control Council survives rests with the Western powers. However, if the three Western powers in the future, as in the past, only want to use the Council as a cloak for their unilateral and separatist actions then the Council becomes obviously superfluous."

30.24- 16583

From the American side came a charge by Maj. Gen. George P. Hays, United States Deputy Military governor, that the Russians were waging a "war of nerves" in their Control Council maneuver.

Hays said that if the Russians boycott Control Council in the future the Americans would be "prepared to deal with the situation." Hays' chief, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, said he was not ready to announce what course he would pursue when he is chairman of the Control Council next month.

Reparation Trains Curbed

Berlin, March 28 (AP)—German press reports said today the Russians have ordered that trains hauling reparations to the Soviet Union henceforth travel only at night to reduce attacks on them by Germans.

COMMUNISTS LEAD IN RUMANIAN POLL

93% of Early Returns Back Government Bloc Candidates for National Assembly

By The Associated Press.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, March 28—Early returns showed tonight that nearly 93 per cent of the Rumanians whose votes in today's national elections had been tabulated had given their approval to the Communist-led Government bloc.

The election was for members of a new National Assembly and is expected to consolidate further the extreme Left's control over the country.

Unofficial returns from nine of the nation's fifty-nine election districts showed that 984,221 of 1,078,725 registered voters had cast ballots. Of that number, 910,904 voted for candidates of the Government bloc headed by Premier Petru Groza.

The returns did not include those for the city of Bucharest, which are expected to be tabulated later tonight.

The 414 Deputies selected in the balloting will consider a constitution making Rumania a Socialist-Communist state. A victory for the Government's Popular Front is a foregone conclusion.

Fewer parties had candidates in the field today than in the last national election in November, 1946. Voters were limited to a choice of from one to four lists compared with a maximum of eight in the last election.

Yugoslavs Free Trifunovitch

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 28 (AP)—Milos Trifunovitch, former Premier of the Yugoslav Government-in-exile, has been paroled after having served eighteen months of an eight-year sentence for espionage. M. Trifunovitch was one of eight defendants charged with spying for Eric L. Pridonoff, former United States economic attaché at the Belgrade Embassy. (Mr. Pridonoff termed the charges "absolutely silly.") Three of the defendants received death sentences.

Gottwald Sees End to Wars

PRAGUE, March 28 (AP).—Communist Premier Klement Gottwald told a Communist party district meeting today that there will not be another war. He said the will for peace throughout the world was so strong that any government starting a conflict would be torn to bits by its own people.

Paasikivi Believed Drafting New Order For Pact Delegates

Helsinki, Finland, March 28 (AP)—Reliable sources said tonight President Juho K. Paasikivi was drafting new instructions to the Finnish delegation now negotiating in Moscow for a friendship and defense pact with Russia.

Activities here centering about Paasikivi indicated the Moscow conference was reaching a decisive stage. The Finnish group has been in Moscow a week for the treaty talks requested by Prime Minister Stalin.

With Closest Advisers

Paasikivi received his closest advisers during the day. Among these was Karl August Fagerholm, Speaker of Parliament, whose post ranks him next to the President.

Informed sources said Government circles were taking a grave view of the current Moscow proceedings, indicating the Soviets were pressing for an out-and-out military pact. No details of a Russian proposal have been disclosed here, however.

The Finnish delegation went to Moscow under strict instructions. It was believed they were told to limit as far as possible the military scope of any treaty agreed upon.

Refuse To Send Troops

It was not explained in what respect Paasikivi was altering these original instructions.

It is known, however, that Finland is unwilling to contract an obligation which might force her to send troops and materials abroad or to provide Russia with bases inside the country.

In addition to Fagerholm, Paasikivi conferred with Uuno Takki, Trade and Industry Minister; Gen. Aarne Sihvo, commander-in-chief of the Finnish armed forces; K. G. Idman, prominent Finnish diplomat who has been studying the political effects of Russia's treaties with Romania and Hungary; and Gen. Oskar Enckell, retired army officer who is regarded as an expert on Soviet affairs.

2 Turkish Papers Say Truman May Go Abroad

Istanbul, March 28 (AP)—Two Istanbul newspapers said today President Truman may leave for Europe next month and possibly visit Turkey and Greece. A spokesman at the American Embassy said it had no information about such a trip.

[The White House said there was nothing to the report.]

The newspapers Vatan and Son Posta said official circles had refused to deny or confirm the reports, which were circulated in Ankara.

'WILL NOT REPEAT MISTAKE'—CHIANG

His 'Worst Blunder', Tolerance Toward The Communists

Nanking, March 28 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek today blamed China's civil war on his tolerance of the Communists during the Japanese invasion, but said it was a mistake he would not make again.

The Chinese chieftain spoke at a farewell meeting of the People's Political Council, formed as a Government advisory body ten years ago.

"I have committed many blunders during those ten years," he said, "but the worst was my tolerance toward the Communists.

"I allowed them to take part in the People's Political Council and gave them other privileges which resulted in our present civil war.

"However, I am confident we will not repeat this mistake."

Worse In 1938, Chiang Says

Chiang admitted his concern over the present state of affairs, but asserted, "In my opinion, both the international and national situations—clouded though they may be—were more unfavorable in 1938 than today."

This was challenged by Chang Po-ling, chairman of the meeting, who warned Chiang:

"The general morale of our people is lower today than ten years ago. Be as it may that the situation is better, we must admit that the people are most unhappy."

Chiang reminded the council that when it was formed "we lacked even a national capital," and said, "I sincerely believe the national safety is more secure today than at the beginning of the war with Japan."

Chiang Indorsed For Presidency

From the floor, however, Suiyuan province members appealed to him to get them 100,000 rifles "to arm our people against the Reds."

In conclusion, the council unanimously indorsed Chiang for the presidency of China.

While Chiang was addressing the political council a few yards away, the sitdowners stoically refused plates of rice cakes and sandwiches with which Government officials sought to lure them outside. They did accept pots of tea, which they drank at their seats.

Three groups of pickets surrounded the homes of Wu Te-chen, Chen Li-fu and Chang Li-shang, high functionaries of the Kuomintang (Government party).

They blamed these three for the election muddle of last November. At that time the Kuomintang promised several hundred seats to the minority Young China and Democratic Socialist parties as the price of joining a coalition.

However, 400 to 700 independent candidates claimed write-in victories, leaving the minorities with only part of the seats promised them.

The independents refused to yield, despite Chiang's personal plea, and the minorities threatened to boycott the Assembly.

Finally, late tonight, the minorities agreed to seat their assembly men who did win, accepting Chiang's personal promise of "future co-operation" to make up for their failure to get the full number.

Reds In Inner Mongolia Are Reported Set Back

Peiping, March 28 (AP)—Pro-Government dispatches today said a general counteroffensive had set back the Chinese Communists in Inner Mongolia.

The Communist offensive began eigh days ago and scored numerous early successes in the area 100 miles west to 200 miles northwest of Peiping. The apparent aim was to carve a corridor linking Communist forces in northwest China with those in Manchuria.

Today's reports said Gen. Fu Tso-yi's hard-driving Government troops began local counterattacks Friday and quickly developed them into a general counteroffensive.

Tienchen, Yangkao Regained

They said Tienchen and Yangkao on the Peiping-Suiyuan railway had been recovered, along with Yangyuan, a highway center 100 miles west of Peiping.

Government recapture of Fengchen, 28 miles north of Tatung, relieved tension at the latter point, while all danger to Kalgan was declared to have been removed.

The accounts did not say how the reversal was accomplished. General Fu was in personal charge of operations from Kalgan.

In Manchuria, Nationalist planes were continuing raids on Szepingkai and other Communist-held bases, but ground activities were limited.

[The independent Nanking paper Hsin Min Pao said the Communists made several raids near the airfield of Changchun, isolated Manchurian capital. The same paper said 2,000 Communists were attacking the railway station of Chuhsien in Central China only 40 miles north of Nanking.]

21 MEN KILLED BY BOOBY TRAP

Filipinos Die In Corregidor Tunnel Explosion

Manila, Monday, March 29 (AP)—Twenty-one men were blown to bits by a Japanese booby trap in a Corregidor tunnel Saturday, the Philippine Army Command announced today.

Brig. Gen. Calixto Duque, deputy chief of staff, said the dead included fifteen Philippine Army soldiers and six civilian laborers. They had not been authorized to enter the tunnel, he said. It was sealed when Americans retook the rocky islet three years ago.

Three Blasts Reported

Investigators said there were three strong blasts, touched off by the explosion of one or more booby traps placed by Japanese during the war.

"A strong smell of burned powder still pervades the area," Lieut. Col. Benjamin Molina, chief investigator, reported. "There is plenty of unburned powder from Japanese ammunition strewn around. It is extremely dangerous to reconnoiter further. . . . Another sympathetic explosion may be produced from powder still scattered in the tunnel. . . ."

In Navy Tunnel

The blasts occurred in Corregidor's so-called Navy Tunnel, used during the 1942 siege by United States naval personnel stranded on the island. The Navy Tunnel is adjacent to famed Malinta Tunnel. One of the explosions came from the entrance to the formerly sealed Navy Tunnel; the other two from an air vent of that passageway.

In addition to the 21 bodies, rescuers found one Filipino soldier slightly injured and suffering from shock.

SECOND UNIT YIELDS ARMS UNDER TRUCE

200 Given British Escort On Surrender After Bombing Fails

Jerusalem, March 28 (AP)—Massed Arab attacks wiped out a 42-man Jewish motor convoy and forced another to yield its arms in bitter Holy Land warfare this Easter Day.

The official Easter casualty toll showed at least 68 persons killed. In addition to the 42 in the convoy ambush, fifteen Jews were reported killed in other battles, together with seven Arabs and four foreign Christians.

Unofficial reports, however, placed the death figure much higher. Haganah, the Jewish army, claimed there were 300 Arab casualties during the day. Arab sources listed many Jewish casualties which could not be confirmed.

Ambushed By 250 Arabs

An official British statement said 42 Jews were killed when a force of 250 Arabs ambushed a five-vehicle Jewish convoy near Nahariya, midway on the northern Palestine coast between Acre and the Lebanese frontier.

British troops who reached the scene at El Kabri after encountering road blocks found the bodies of the 42 Jews. All the convoy's vehicles were burned.

The British said the Arabs were entrenched in the El Kabri hills between Nahariya, a coastal resort, and the Jewish settlement of Yehiam. They used 2-inch mortars and light machine guns, and withdrew only after British Royal Artillery fired twelve rounds of 25-pounder shells into their position.

Arab Dead Listed As Six

Arab losses in this encounter were given as six killed and four wounded.

The other convoy battle was south of Bethlehem. Almost 200 Jews, including members of Haganah, surrendered their arms and equipment to the Arabs in return for safe escort under British protection to Jerusalem. The Jews had been under siege last night and today near the village of Nabi Daniel.

The arms were yielded shortly before dusk under terms of a truce arranged by the British after talks with the Jews and mayors of nearby Arab villages.

Say 1,500 Attacked

The Jews were in a motor convoy that was attacked yesterday while returning to Jerusalem from Kfar Etzion, a village about halfway between Hebron and Jerusalem. Light planes of Haganah were used to drop bombs on the Arabs in the area both yesterday and today, but could not break up the Arab attack.

Jewish sources said the Arab attackers numbered 1,500.

An official British statement said at least twelve Jews were killed. A group of 30 Jewish wounded and some women were given British escort to Jerusalem. Jewish sources had given their casualties earlier as 17 killed.

Haganah claimed 100 Arabs were killed and 200 wounded in the all-night and daylong battle, but there was no confirmation from British or Arab sources. Some Arab sources said 80 Jews were killed.

Most of the Jewish casualties occurred when a Haganah relief party tried to reach the besieged convoy during the night.

Intrenched In Mud Huts

The Jews had intrenched themselves in mud huts in the Arab village of Nabi Daniel (the Prophet Daniel), which is close to the region known as Solomon's Pools.

Arab Red Crescent and Red Cross ambulances were sent to the scene to remove the Arab wounded.

Jerusalem Fighting Renewed

Fighting flared again tonight in the Montefiore district in Jerusalem. One British soldier was killed and seven others injured in the city during the day, reportedly from Jewish firing, the British said.

The Jews from the Nabi Daniel fighting arrived in Jerusalem tonight in military trucks. They were tired and hungry. Most of them were steel-helmeted Haganah men and girls who slipped into the village to reinforce survivors of the ambushed convoy.

Three companies of British troops evacuated them.

FEW IN JERUSALEM AT EASTER SERVICE

Bullet Kills British Teacher Returning From Church

Jerusalem, March 28 (AP)—The spirit and pageantry of Easter passed almost unnoticed today in the Holy City where Christ's resurrection more than 1,900 years ago gave reason for the religious holiday.

Only a devout few braved the dangers of civil war to worship at Christendom's holiest shrine, the Tomb of the Prince of Peace.

Catholic Archbishop Arthur Hughes celebrated high mass in the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. He led the procession to the tomb after services at the Stone of Holy Unction, where tradition says the scourged and pierced body of the Saviour was prepared for burial.

Few Of Consular Corps

The services were attended by many in the somber garb of clerics, a few of the consular corps in full dress and a few score laymen who braved the sniper-ridden streets of the old city.

The British district commissioner, J. H. H. Pollock, arrived with an escort of Scots Guards. They stood shoulder to shoulder with Arab national guardsmen patrolling the streets and formed an honor guard at the church.

British Teacher Killed

Protestant churches were almost deserted. Miss Mildred Marston, a British teacher, was fatally wounded by a sniper's bullet while returning from services.

Arab and European Christian families had Easter eggs, but children were not permitted into gun-swept lots for an egg hunt.

A few Englishmen and Americans greeted each other with "Happy Easter" but there is little happiness in Palestine.

Even the early morning ringing of Easter bells was almost drowned out by the boom of mortars and chatter of automatic weapons.

British Seize Shipload Of Jews Off Palestine

JERUSALEM, March 28 (AP).—A Jewish source in Haifa said tonight that a ship carrying 800 uncertified immigrants to the Holy Land had been intercepted by British naval units off the Palestine coast.

The ship, the source said, was being escorted to Haifa, where its passengers would be transshipped to Cyprus.

Sharon Plain Being Cleared Of Arab Farmers For Battle

Tel Aviv, Palestine, March 28 (AP). The battle for the plain of Sharon and the twin cities of Jewish Tel Aviv and Arab Jaffa was taking shape today.

The last of 12,000 to 15,000 Arab farmers and villagers were moving out of the Jewish area around Tel Aviv and Natanya. This was seen as the forerunner to full scale civil war in the region.

It is the end of the citrus season. The harvest of the rich crop, essential to the commercial life of both Jewish and Arab communities, delayed until the last moment the split of the population which would precede full scale hostilities.

Nearly 1,000 A Day

The Arabs were pulling out at the rate of nearly 1,000 a day from the Hadera coastal area near Natanya, the mixed villages in the Petah Tiqva-Herzliya triangle north of Tel Aviv, and from the Rishon le Zion section south of Haifa.

They were selling their goods as though not expecting to return. The Jews said they had tried to convince the Arabs they could stay on in peace, but the Arabs have been threatened by their own military forces if they continued to live with the Jews.

A staff officer for the Arab army in the Nablus triangle said two weeks ago that protection or withdrawal of Arab borderline communities would be a first step before launching an Arab offensive.

Communication Lines Hit

As the last of more than 8,000,000 crates of citrus fruit was being shipped to Haifa and Tel Aviv both sides struck at lines of communication left intact heretofore.

The battle of communications will be one of the most important in the whole fight over the Jewish state. The Arabs are expected to make their major attempt to cut Jewish territory in two at the sea along the thin coastal strip between Tulkarm and Natanya.

Jaffa, an eastern Mediterranean port in Old Testament times, and Tel Aviv, built 40 years ago on a barren sand beach, were tightening up for the fight.

Jaffa's position is admittedly defensive. She has some 70,000 Arabs against Tel Aviv's 120,000 Jews. Jewish defenses are ringed loosely around Jaffa, from the no man's land between the cities through Holon village to Bat Yam. But half of this line is circled on the outer edges by Arab villages, and the Jewish position must face two ways.

Arab defenses in Jaffa are barbed-wire and sand-trenched gunposts arranged in depth. They were built under direction of Syrian and Iraq officers who lead foreign-trained commando units of 1,000 or more.

They are known to have some Yugoslav Moslem troops, and at least a few light, two-man Iraqi tanks and a number of light field guns.

As far as is known here, Haganah defenders of Tel Aviv have neither tanks nor field guns. They do possess mortars, tank and pillbox-piercing weapons, and a number of locally made armed cars.

7 Killed in Indian Rioting

BOMBAY, India, March 28 (AP)—An official communiqué said last night seven persons had been killed Friday in Hindu-Moslem rioting in Godhra, 250 miles north of Bombay. The disturbances were reported to have started four days ago. A correspondent for the newspaper National Standard said the riots were spreading to neighboring hamlets.

RUSSIA SAYS IRAN LIES ON U.S. HELP

Charges American Advisers Exert Leadership In Army

Tehran, Iran, March 28 (AP)—Russia has accused the Iranian Government of lying about the activities of United States military advisers in Iran. The charge was contained in a Soviet note dated March 24 and received last night by the Iranian Government.

The note said an Iranian-American agreement of October, 1947, showed that "the role of American military advisers is one of leadership in the Iranian Army."

Iran's explanation that the Americans do not have authority to direct Iranian military affairs is without foundation, the note said.

"The claim of the Iranian Government that 'Americans have not monopolized the right to occupy key military posts in Iran' is also contrary to fact," the note continued.

Second Note From Russia

Iran has said the Americans are here merely to give training and advice. The same explanation was made by a spokesman for the United States State Department February 2. He listed the total strength of two United States military missions in Iran as 26 officers.

The note was Russia's second in connection with American activities here. It said the efforts of the Iranian Government to classify Russia's protest as an interference in Iran's internal affairs "is contrary to good-neighborly relations" as provided for in the Russian-Iranian Treaty of 1921.

In denying the allegations contained in the original Russian note of last January 31, Iran accused the Soviet Union of giving refuge to rebels from Azerbaijan Province. That province borders on the Soviet Union. A separatist movement flourished there for a time during the Russian occupation.

Separatists Repressed

The new Soviet note denied that Iranian political refugees in the Soviet Union had been granted permission to form military units to attack Iran.

Russian troops were stationed in Iran during the war to maintain supply lines. They occupied Azerbaijan Province for some time after wartime treaty rights expired. Finally when the Soviet military units withdrew, the Iranian Government put down the Azerbaijan separatist movement.

The Soviet note caused anxiety in Iranian circles. However, foreign observers described it as "pure propaganda and a war of nerves."

Valley Forge Planes Give Show Over Persian Gulf

CAIRO, March 28 (AP).—The American aircraft carrier Valley Forge today continued its 'round-the-world cruise after a display of mimic aerial fighting over the Persian Gulf.

The 27,000-ton flattop left the American oil refinery port at Ras Tenura, Saudi Arabia, Friday after a three-day courtesy call. Crown Prince Saud boarded the carrier Thursday as the guest of Rear Admiral Harold M. Martin, commander of Carrier Division No. 5.

A hundred pilots had worked out special maneuvers, including the spelling of the name "Saud" with planes in the air. However, a dust storm restricted visibility, and only two fighters were catapulted from the ship.

At Admiral Martin's invitation, Crown Prince Saud gave the signals for the fighters to dive low in a mock strafing attack and for firing rockets. The royal guest showed keen interest in the voice control by which flyers aloft are directed from the ship.

British Ships to Visit Manila

MANILA, Monday, March 29 (AP)—Theree units of the British Asiatic fleet are due in Manila Tuesday for a goodwill call. They are the cruiser London, the destroyer Consort and the sloop Alert. Soccer teams of the ships will meet local players during the visit.

members in addition to Marshall—Secretaries Harriman of Commerce and Snyder of Treasury. Snyder, however, will not actually go to Bogota unless Marshall sends for him.

Three Crises Looming

Marshall is going to Bogota to stay the full time if possible, aides said today.

At least three critical developments are in prospect for the month ahead. Depending on how they go, any one of them might jeopardize American interests or require American policy decisions sufficiently grave to require Marshall's presence back in Washington.

These three developments are:

1. The April 18 general election in Italy.

2. The forthcoming showdown between Helsinki and Moscow over the proposed Soviet-Finnish defense treaty.

3. Possible Russian demands on Norway.

In addition, American policies for giving greater military support to western Europe, paralleling the plan for European economic recovery, may be coming to a head within the next few weeks. So may any new Soviet moves designed to meet this nation's new stop-Russia policy.

One of the basic factors which renders Marshall's prolonged absence from the Capital uncertain is the way in which the United States is operating the stop-Russia program. According to reports from a secret Senate committee session last week, Marshall is said to have told the Senators that the Administration has not laid down a line beyond which the Soviets may not push their power without a violent American reaction.

But some diplomats fear that it may tempt the Russians to miscalculate American resistance and try to grab some place in the possibly mistaken belief that Washington does not consider it important enough to make a fuss about.

Arctic Islands Key Spot

One such place might be the far northern Norwegian islands of the Spitsbergen group. They are important in any strategy of Arctic warfare. A year ago Russia asked the right to build military bases there and Norway refused. With Norway once again a potential focus of Soviet pressure there is renewed speculation here about the security of the islands. There has been no definitive statement of American policy toward them.

Except in one particular the problems of the Bogota conference will be far removed from those of Europe. The single connection lies in the Marshall plan for European recovery and the money which, under that plan, the United States may spend in Latin American countries.

The chief concern of the other American governments at Bogota apparently will be to enlist United States assistance in building up their industries and developing their natural resources.

At least a part of the United States answer to this will be the fact that the European recovery plan calls for spending about $1,500,000,000 in the Western Hemisphere on foodstuffs and other raw materials required for European recovery.

Marshall Leaves For Bogota; Crises May Speed His Return

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, left for South America tonight with the chances at least even that he will have to return here ahead of schedule because of some new crisis in the conflict between Russia and the Western powers.

Marshall is flying to Bogota, Colombia, to head the United States delegation to the inter-American conference opening Tuesday. The conference is expected to last about six weeks.

Emphasizing the importance which the United States attaches to the meeting, President Truman assigned to it two other Cabinet

Situation "Played By Ear"

This means that each real or threatened expansion of Communist control or direct Soviet influence westward in Europe or southward in the Middle East poses an immediate problem for high policy decision here. As one official, speaking privately, put it, "for the time being, we have to play this thing pretty much by ear."

This practice is described as having both an advantage and a disadvantage. It allows some flexibility in application of the principle laid down by President Truman that the United States will back up any free nation threatened by totalitarianism.

Knutson Demands Marshall Ouster

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Representative Knutson (R., Minn.) said today that Gen. George C. Marshall must be ousted as Secretary of State "if we would avert war."

The Minnesotan, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, has long been critical of Administration foreign policy. He declared Marshall has been a "complete failure" as Secretary of State and described him as "pompous, self-opinionated in the extreme, vacillating and unpredictable."

The statement was made in an editorial Knutson wrote for his weekly newspaper, the Wadena (Minn.) Pioneer Journal. He said:

"These are critical times all over the world, and yet we have no fixed foreign policy. We are drifting from pillar to post and if we would avert war Marshall must be replaced without delay. It is tragic that the foreign affairs of our Government are in the hands of two incompetents—Truman and Marshall."

MILITARY AID LIKELY TO STAY IN HOUSE BILL

Removal Try Predicted But Plan Is Expected To Pass Much As Is

Washington, March 28 (AP)—An attempt to remove military aid for China, Turkey and Greece from the $6,205,000,000 House foreign-aid bill was predicted today by Representative Mansfield (D., Mont.).

But all signs pointed toward failure for that and for most other amendments to the big bill to build up non-Communist countries around the world.

Mansfield is a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee, which will push the bill into the voting stage on the House floor tomorrow. The bill offers American money and military advice to friendly European nations and China.

Passage Likely By Wednesday

Passage with votes to spare is expected Tuesday or Wednesday.

For military help, the bill carries $275,000,000 for Greece and Turkey and $150,000,000 for China. Democrats fought in the Foreign Affairs Committee against putting in the military money. The Administration didn't ask for it originally, and the Democrats said it hadn't received enough study.

Mansfield said the battle would be shifted to the House floor. He said he would not offer the amendment to knock out military provisions, "but somebody will, you can bank on that."

The prospects of its getting anywhere were something else. Republicans have the votes to beat it.

Committee Meets Today

Representative Bloom (D., N.Y.), senior Democrat on the Foreign Affairs Committee, said today: "We're pretty much resigned to taking the bill as it is. What can we do about it?"

On most prospective amendments, the Foreign Affairs Committee will try for a unified front. It meets tomorrow to look over changes various House members are pumping.

The biggest issue, as the voting gets under way on amendments, is what to do about halting American exports of anything of military value to Russia and her satellites.

Export Ban Talked About

House members have been talking more about that than anything else during debate on the aid bill. Administration action to stop all exports except those which have the armed forces' approval hasn't stopped the clamor for Congress to crack the whip, too.

Representative Mundt (R., S.D.) says he intends to drive ahead with an amendment to give the foreign-aid administrator the right to forbid all exports of war supplies.

He said a lot of members have informed him they like the plan.

Representative Colmer (D., Miss.), like Mundt a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee, has an amendment ready to forbid any exports to Russia, of military or civilian goods.

ARMS COSTS CALLED SPUR TO INFLATION

Economic Council Finds 'Sobering Situation' In Proposed Spending

Washington, March 28 (AP)—The President's Council of Economic Advisers finds a "sobering" threat of revived inflation in the proposed new spending of Federal funds for preparedness.

President Truman is expected to send to Congress this week a new budget estimate asking nearly $4,000,000,000 more for fiscal 1949. This would be added to the $39,700,000,000 already scheduled for spending in new appropriations and carry-over funds during the year starting July 1.

The question confronting the Administration policy-makers is:

Will additional spending unbalance the price scales which—in some lines—seemed to be leveling off or even dipping in favor of the consumer?

Quarterly Memorandum

The council, headed by Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, will take its quarterly "memorandum" on the state of the economy to President Truman next week.

Unusual interest is shown in the study. The council has promised a "rather searching" appraisal of the stock and commodity-market breaks and a further analysis of the inflationary effect of the steel price rise.

The proposed boost of possibly $4,000,000,000 in spending may get priority on the report over both those items because of its potential effect on the nation's business.

"Very Sobering Situation"

"You can't put that on top of a $6,205,000,000 foreign recovery program without a very strong inflationary push," Nourse said.

"It is a very sobering situation."

Defense developments heightened the chance that the council—and perhaps the White House later—will renew its plea for authority to control prices and wages and to ration scarce goods.

Dr. Nourse declined comment on that topic. He did say that labor-management troubles—particularly a long coal-mines shutdown—could add to the problem of production deficits, shortages, and price stresses.

Routine Procedure Indicated

Reports circulated that Mr. Truman, who last week was considering sending a special budget message to Capitol Hill, would transmit his new defense estimates in more routine fashion. Several top Administration officials are known to feel that talk of a war crisis has been oversensationalized.

Besides the proposals for the Army, Navy and Air Force, the forthcoming request may include funds for merchantship building and other indirect defense measures, one high Administration official said.

Proposals For Arms Aid

There also was reported "in the discussion picture" proposals to help arm friendly governments, through legislation akin to lend-lease. Such a request, if it comes, will not be presented until later, it was said. Two billion dollars has been mentioned as the possible total here.

Against the inflation pressure which such spending might generate, Government experts said, are business trends which hint at a slowdown—and in some cases a reversal—of the long postwar price upswing.

Official reports show that early Easter buying missed expectation in several areas. Signs or weakening in clothing and shoe prices were noted. Except for meat and butter, most food prices have not rises markedly since the February drop.

DRAFT ACTION BACKED BY GOP HOUSE LEADER

Allen Would Restore Wartime Machinery—Opposes U.M.T.

Washington, March 28 (AP)—A Republican House leader came out today for restoring the wartime draft machinery while flatly opposing universal military training.

He is Representative Leo Allen (R., Ill.), chairman of the House Rules Committee, one of the most important cogs in congressional machinery. He said he favors setting up local draft boards and registering men 18 to 26—but without an immediate call to service. He said it would fit us to draft on short notice, "if necessary."

Allen's statement coincided with reports that the House leadership, generally is swinging around to a registration-but-no-draft-now bill.

For Temporary Draft

In the Senate, Republican leaders were reported leaning toward a temporary draft to be put in operation by President Truman if volunteering fails to provide the manpower.

While some kind of standby draft legislation appeared to have strong backing, Mr. Truman's request for a universal military training law drew opposition which seemed to be spreading in the Senate.

One Administration official, who asked not to be quoted by name, said he thinks there is "no chance" for U.M.T. passage this session.

Allen's Rules Committee has refused to clear the training bill for a House vote. He contended today it is not necessary and wouldn't help in an emergency.

Other Developments

Outside of Congress, the U.M.T. issue brought these developments:

1. The national defense committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce said U.M.T. should be included in a United States security program, along with industrial mobilization planning, vigorous research, expanded air power and stronger military forces. It called in its report for more stockpiling of strategic materials.

2. Speedy action on U.M.T. in Congress was urged by Mrs. Roscoe C. O'Byrne, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She said that the "Communist crisis" makes it necessary and that opposition to the plan is "fast melting away."

3. The national Wallace for President Committee said in a statement that supporters of Henry Wallace will launch on Tuesday an "enlist for peace" drive. It will oppose U.M.T., the draft and "war hysteria."

Veterans Would Be Exempt

Under Allen's registration-only proposal, veterans of the last war and men with dependents would register, but would be exempt from any eventual draft.

"What we should do, besides setting up the machinery for a draft," Allen said, "is to fortify Alaska and our Pacific possessions at once and appropriate all the money necessary for development of the atomic bomb, radar and everything else needed in modern scientific warfare. We should have the best air force in the world."

A survey of the GOP high command in the House shows little sentiment for U.M.T. at any time and considerable opposition to an outright draft at the present time.

Hearings Resume Today

The Senate Armed Services Committee resumes hearings on U.M.T. and the draft tomorrow with Bernard M. Baruch, adviser to presidents, scheduled as a witness.

The opposition side will have its inning Tuesday when Wallace, third-party candidate for President, will appear.

Leaders tentatively have planned to bring the military issues before the Senate by mid-April.

Eric Johnston Defends Film Actors In Politics

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Motion-picture actors can be as active politically as they wish, so far as Eric Johnston is concerned.

Johnston is president of the Motion Picture Association of America. He took note of a resolution by the Pacific Coast Conference of Independent Theater Owners "protesting the appearance of motion-picture stars in political propaganda films, including newsreels."

Johnston wrote R. H. Poole, executive secretary of the association, that he disagreed with the resolution. He added:

"In a sense, it is perfectly true, as you suggest, that motion-picture stars belong to the public, but in a broader sense, this relationship in no way sterilizes their rights and duties as American citizens. Motion-picture stars are not a class apart. They must be as free as all other loyal Americans to express their views in any manner they see fit."

Navy Pilots To Get 50 Jet Fighters

Washington, March 28 (AP)—The Navy is getting 50 Lockheed P-80 Shooting Stars to familiarize pilots with jet-fighter flight, navigation and gunnery methods.

The planes will not be equipped for use on carriers. Naval aviators will finish their qualification for shipboard operations in Navy jet fighters, which have folding wings and landing hooks.

The Air Force and the Navy jointly announced purchase of the P-80's because the Air Force will do the actual buying. It will defer delivery to it of some P-80's especially equipped for winter flying so that the Navy can get early delivery of the new trainers.

Germs Declared Soviet Weapon

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D., Col.) today credited the Russians with perfecting a new weapon "far more effective than the atomic-bomb—bacteriological warfare."

"Authorities I regard as reliable tell me the Russians have perfected this terrible warfare weapon of spreading plagues and germs," he said. "It will be far easier to use than the atomic bomb."

Johnson said his sources, whom he did not identify, report that "fifth columnists could spread disease and terror in large urban or industrial centers with slight chance for detection."

"They can bring in suitcases filled with these death carriers and free them effectively under cover of darkness or crowds," he said.

TAX BILL VETO DUE THIS WEEK

Congress Expects To Override It At Once

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Congress expects President Truman to veto the $4,800,000,000 income tax-cutting bill this week. It also expects to make the measure law over his veto.

A few lawmakers still contended a presidential message hammering at plans for new and big spending—around $4,000,000,000—for military preparedness could swing enough votes to sustain a tax slash dissent.

But most of the big majorities which passed the bill overwhelmingly in the House and Senate appeared to be standing pat against arguments of that kind.

It takes a two-thirds majority in both chambers to override a veto. The Senate had 18 votes over that margin on passage of the bill. The House had 51.

Expect To Lose Few Votes

"We don't expect to lose more than two or three votes on a veto test in the Senate," said Senator Millikin (R., Col.), chairman of the tax-writing Senate Finance Committee.

In the House, Speaker Martin (R., Mass.) and Chairman Knutson (R., Minn.), of the Ways and Means committee said nothing has happened to cause them to revise their previous predictions a veto would be killed.

Mr. Truman has until April 5—a week from tomorrow—to act on the bill. But he is not expected to wait until the last minute.

The bill would reduce the taxes of all of the 52,000,000 taxpayers. For 7,400,000 of them the cut would be 100 per cent. They would come off the rolls.

Personal Exemptions Boosted

That's mainly because the measure increases personal exemptions $100—from the present $500 to $600.

It also would cut tax rates from 12.6 per cent for persons with the smallest incomes to five per cent for those with the largest.

Another provision allows husbands and wives in all states to split their incomes for tax purposes, making the levy less on incomes generally over $5,000. This community property system already is in effect in a dozen states.

Several Congress members said this income-splitting provision by itself is plenty of insurance that a veto would be overcome.

Put On Basis Of Equality

Senator George (Ga.), senior Democrat on the Senate Finance Committee, said:

"The 36 states which do not have community property are at a great disadvantage. This bill will put them on a basis of equality. We ought to strengthen the tax system in that way, even if we have to raise tax rates again later."

Senator Elbert Thomas (D., Utah) also spoke out for the community-property provision.

"The thing to do," he said, "is to get tax reform established in the law. We can raise rates easily on short notice if world conditions take a turn that warrants it."

To Vote Against Veto

Both George and Thomas said they intend to vote against a veto.

Senator O'Mahoney (D., Wyo.) said he believes there is "a good chance" to sustain a veto.

"I think Congress will realize the absolute and complete inconsistency of cutting Federal receipts at the very time we need to spend huge sums to make America militarily secure," O'Mahoney said.

TRUMAN JOINS WORSHIPPERS

President Attends Easter Services In Washington

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Tens of thousands turned out early this chill Easter morning for worship—President Truman taking part—and to view the famous cherry blossoms at the height of their glory.

Mr. Truman attended the First Baptist Church, where the Rev. E. H. Pruden used as his text the scripture: "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

In an aisle seat always held for him, the President solemnly listened as the pastor alluded to world conditions and said:

"Frequently we feel we are standing alone in our support of what we consider spiritual ideals. But in common with the disciples after the Resurrection, we always will find that the spiritual forces are present to give us strength."

Park police estimated that at least 20,000 cars were inching their way in mid-morning along the drive that skirts the blossom-rimmed Tidal Basin.

'Axis Sally' Case Ready For Trial

Washington, March 28 (AP)—Justice Department officials said tonight the Government finally is ready to prosecute "Axis Sally" on treason charges.

The American girl, Mildred Gillars, has been in Army custody in Germany for more than a year. She is accused of making pro-Nazi broadcasts from Germany during the war.

Officials said they expect her to be brought to this country soon and a treason indictment to be sought. While they gave no details, the prosecution plans presumably mean long-sought witnesses have been located. Conviction requires two eyewitnesses to treasonable acts.

Miss Gillars was arrested soon after American troops entered Germany, released briefly, and then rearrested. Officials said she formerly lived in Portland, Maine.

Russian Ship Loads Fuel In Delaware River

Paulsboro, N.J., March 28 (AP)—The Russian freighter Chutkotka arrived in the Delaware River off Paulsboro last night and loaded fuel oil.

It was the vessel's first stop since Jersey City, where members of the Catholic War Veterans picketed the ship carrying signs saying "Stop Aid to Russia."

The picketing delayed loading because longshoremen refused to cross picket lines.

The Chutkotka did not dock here and remained in anchorage. Thus she will not go through the formality of customs clearance on departing for Houston, Texas, where she will take aboard oil drums. The ship's eventual destination is Vladivostok.

Letters To Italy Asked By Cardinal Dougherty

Philadelphia, March 28 (AP)—Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, Archbishop of Philadelphia, today asked Catholics to write to relatives and friends in Italy urging them to vote against the Communist party in the April 18 Italian election.

In a pastoral letter to churches in the Philadelphia Catholic archdiocese, the Cardinal said the outcome of the forthcoming Italian election could easily be the "salvation or the ruin" of that country.

Navy Calls Off Search For Pacific Submarine

San Francisco, March 28 (AP)—The Navy has called off its search for the unidentified submarine reported 60 miles off San Francisco at dawn yesterday, a naval spokesman said today.

He said there was no official comment as to its possible identity. Sighted by crewmen of a commercial plane winging in from Honolulu, the submarine submerged as they approached, they reported.

Naval authorities indicated no American submarines were in the area at that time.

Passport Refusal Inquiry Is Sought

New York, March 28 (AP)—A. B. Magil, writer for the Daily Worker, Communist paper, today asked the United Nations Conference on Freedom of Information at Geneva to investigate the State Department's refusal to issue him a passport to cover news events abroad.

On March 11, Magil was refused a passport to Palestine. Twelve days later the State Department turned down his request for a passport to cover the Geneva conference.

Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, said Magil's applications were denied "because it is not in the best interests of the United States at the present time" to grant them.

"It's not a refusal to grant a Daily Worker correspondent a passport but a refusal to grant Mr. Magil a passport," McDermott said.

Calls Stand "Subterfuge"

Magil termed as "subterfuge" the Department's refusal to issue a passport because of personal facts about him.

He said "the facts concerning me are no mystery. I am an American-born journalist who has been engaged in newspaper and magazine work for 23 years.

"I am a member of the Communist party of the United States, a fact which I have never concealed and am proud to affirm."

Magil's petition charges that the State Department's action infringes on freedom of the press and violates the United Nations charter.

"This action," Magil's statement continued, "creates a precedent which can be used against any correspondent of any newspaper that is critical of any aspect of American foreign policy."

LONDON,MARCH 28-(AP)-THE TRADITIONAL SPRING OPTIMISM OF EASTER SUNDAY VIED WITH FEAR AND INSECURITY IN MUCH OF THE WORLD TODAY.

EASTER PARADERS IN SOME OF THE GREAT CAPITALS MADE A BRAVE SHOW.

BUT IN THE BACKGROUND MANY SEEMED TO HEAR, OR THOUGHT THEY HEARD, THE SOUND OF GUNS.

IN PALESTINE, THE SOUNDS WERE REAL BUT SOME OF THE FAITHFUL HELD RELIGIOUS SERVICES AT THE HOLY SEPULCHER IN THE OLDCITY OF JERUSALEM. MORTAR FIRE BROKE OUT AS THEY FINISHED THEIR PRAYERS.

IN ONCE WARLIKE GERMANY, NOW JITTERY WITH FEARS OF WHAT THE TUGGING AND HAULING BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS MAY BRING, THE PRAYERS OF CHURCH CONGREGATIONS WERE FOR PEACE.

MRS.LOUISE SCHROEDER, DEPUTY LORD MAYOR, EXPRESSED BERLIN'S HOPE "FOR A BRIGHTER FUTURE" BUT ADDED IN AN EASTER PROCLAMATION:

"FOR THE PRESENT WE CAN DO NOTHING BETTER THAN CONSTANTLY REMIND THE STATESMEN OF THE WORLD THAT IN MAKING THEIR DECISIONS THEY MUST CONSIDER THE FATE OF MILLIONS FOR WHICH THEY HOLD RESPONSIBILITY."

THERE WERE A FEW EASTER EGGS IN BERLIN--ON THE BLACK MARKET. THEY COST FOURTEEN TO SEVENTEEN MARKS APIECE ($1.40 TO $1.70 AT THE MILITARH EXCHANGE RATE).

IN PARIS THERE WERE MEDIUM SIZED CHOCOLATE EASTER EGGS. THE PRICES RANGED UP TO 3,500 FRANCS (MORE THAN $12).

EASTER MORNING BROUGHT A DISTURBING ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE FRENCH MINISTRY OF ARMED FORCES. WITHOUT EXPLANATION, IT ORDERED NAVY MEN WHO HAVE COMPLETED THEIR TERMS TO STAY IN SERVICES.

STILL THERE WAS A MASS TURNOUT FOR THE EASTER STROLL ON THE BROAD SIDEWALKS OF THE CHAMPS ELYSEES. TREES WERE GREEN WITH THE EARLY SPRING AND THE HATS OF THE PARISIENNES WERE GAY WITH FLOWERS AND FEATHERS.

IN PRAGUE, PRIME MINISTER KLEMENT GOTTWALD ASSURED CZECH COMMUNISTS THAT FEARS OF WAR ARE FOOLISH. THE WILL TO PEACE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD SO STRONG, HE SAID, THAT ANY GOVERNMENT WHICH TOUCHES OFF A CONFLICT WOULD BE TORN TO BITS BY ITS OWN PEOPLE.

IN BRITAIN EVERYBODY WAS TALKING ABOUT THE WEATHER.

IT WAS "LITTLE SUMMER" IN USUALLY BLUSTERY MARCH. BY THE THOUSANDS EASTER HOLIDAYMAKERS HAD THEIR FIRST SWIM OF THE YEAR AT SEASIDE RESORTS.

WITH THE WEATHER TO TALK ABOUT, BRITONS COULD FORGET MOMENTARILY THE INTERNATIONAL CRISES, WARNINGS OF MORE "AUSTERITY" IN THEIR WAY OF LIVING AND THREATS OF NATINAL BANKRUPTCY.

HUNGRY VIENNA SOUGHT FOR ITS OLD TIME GAIETY. BY THE THOUSANDS THE VIENNESE WENT TO HIGH MASS IN THE CITY'S MANY CATHOLIC CHURCHES, THEN FLOCKED TO THE VIENNA WOODS, OR TO SOCCER GAMES AND TROTTING RACES.

BELGIUM'S CHURCHES ALSO WERE CROWDED. ALMOST EVERY BELGIAN YOUNGSTER HAD AN EASTER EGG. THERE WAS AN ABUNDANCE OF FOOD FOR ALL AND WINE FOR THE GROWNUPS. IN THE AFTERNOON CITIES AND TOWNS EMPTIED THEIR CROWDS BY TRAIN, AUTOMOBILE, BICYCLE AND AFOOT ONTO COASTAL RESORTS.

IN HOLLAND VISITORS THRONGED TO THE TULIP FIELDS BETWEEN HAARLEM AND LEYDEN. SCATTERED PATCHES OF DAFFODILS WERE ABLOOM.

BERLIN, MARCH 28-(AP)-THE STANDSTILL OF ALLIED FOUR-POWER GOVERNMENT IN GERMANY WENT INTO ITS SECOND WEEK TODAY WITH THE AMERICANS AND RUSSIANS EXCHANGING CHARGES OVER WHO WAS TO BLAME.

THERE WAS SCANT PROSPECT THAT THE DEADLOCK--PRECIPITATED BY THE RUSSIANS WHEN THEY ANGRILY WALKED OUT ON THE MARCH 20 MEETING OF THE ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL--WOULD BE BROKEN BY TUESDAY, DATE OF THE NEXT REGULAR MEETING OF THE COUNCIL.

ONLY BY EXTRAORDINARY PROCESSES COULD THE RUSSIANS, AS CHAIRMEN FOR THIS MONTH, NOW SUMMON THE THREE WESTERN POWERS FOR A MEETING BECAUSE THE FOUR-POWER STANDING SECRETARIAT IS IN EASTER RECESS UNTIL TUESDAY NOON.

THERE WERE, HOWEVER, RENEWED INDICATIONS IN THE SOVIET OFFICIAL PRESS THAT THE RUSSIANS WERE NOT READY TO MAKE A FULL AND FINAL BREAK WITH THE WEST IN GERMANY.

A LONG EDITORIAL IN THE OFFICIAL TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU REITERATED RUSSIAN CHARGES THAT THE CONTROL COUNCIL HAD BEEN SABOTAGED BY THE WESTERN POWERS WITH "UNILATERAL AND UNDEMOCRATIC" ACTIONS IN WESTERN GERMANY.

HOWEVER, THE RUNDSCHAU SPOKE OF "FUTURE" OPERATIONS OF THE COUNCIL, WHICH THE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED PRESS EARLIER HAD DECLARED DEAD. THE NEWSPAPER SAID:

AN RENEWED IN

"WHETHER THE CONTROL COUNCIL SURVIVES RESTS WITH THE WESTERN POWERS. HOWEVER, IF THE THREE WESTERN POWERS IN THE FUTURE, AS IN THE PAST, ONLY WANT TO USE THE COUNCIL AS A CLOAK FOR THEIR UNILATERAL AND SEPARATIST ACTIONS THEN THE COUNCIL BECOMES OBVIOUSLY SUPERFLUOUS."

A MOSCOW DISPATCH SAID THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER PRAVDA DECLARED TODAY THE WESTERN POWERS ARE "WRECKING THE CONTROL COUNCIL AND BURYING IT."

FROM THE AMERICAN SIDE CAME A CHARGE BY MAJ.GEN.GEORGE P.HAYS, U.S.DEPUTY MILITARY GOVERNOR, THAT THE RUSSIANS WERE WAGING A "WAR OF NERVES" IN THEIR CONTROL COUNCIL MANEUVER.

"THERE IS NO CRISIS IN THE CONTROL COUNCIL," HAYS SAID. "IT'S ONLY A WAR OF NERVES. THE FUTURE RELATIONS BETWEEN THE FOUR POWERS IN THE CONTROL COUNCIL WILL DOUBTLESS BE MIRRORED BY RUSSIA'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THE REST OF THE WORLD.

"THE REAL QUESTION IS WHETHER RUSSIA WILL COOPERATE IN THE ECONOMIC UNIFICATION OF GERMANY. WE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO SOLVE THIS PROBLEM BECAUSE THE RUSSIANS INSIST UPON TYING IT UP WITH THEIR HUGE DEMANDS FOR REPARATIONS OUT OF CURRENT GERMAN PRODUCTION."

HAYS SAID THAT IF THE RUSSIANS BOYCOTT THE CONTROL COUNCIL IN THE FUTUR THE AMERICANS WOULD BE "PREPARED TO DEAL WITH THE SITUATION." HAYS' CHIEF, GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY, SAID, HOWEVER, HE WAS NOT READY TO ANNOUNCE WHAT COURSE HE WOULD PURSUE WHEN HE IS CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL NEXT MONTH.

TRIFUNOVIC, WHO IS 76, WAS RELEASED ON THE SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY OF A COUP D'ETAT IN WHICH HE PARTICIPATED. THAT COUP OUSTED PRO-NAZI ELEMENTS FROM THE YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT AND PLACED HIS COUNTRY ON THE SIDE OF THE ALLIES. Belgrade 6dg xx sentence.

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, MARCH 28-(AP)-HANNS EISLER, FORMER HOLLYWOOD COMPOSER, ARRIVED IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA TODAY. HE SAID HE WAS GLAD TO BE ABLE "TO BREATHE THE AIR OF A FRIENDLY AND ENLIGHTENED COUNTRY."

(EISLER AND HIS WIFE LEFT NEW YORK FRIDAY BY TRANS-ATLANTIC PLANE FOR LONDON, EN ROUTE TO HIS NATIVE AUSTRIA. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAD CHARGED HIM WITH OBTAINING ENTRANCE TO THE COUNTRY IN 1940 THROUGH MISREPRESENTATION. THE GOVERNMENT ACCUSED HIM OF HAVING BEEN A COMMUNIST IN GERMANY.

(THIS WAS DENIED BY EISLER, WHO SAID HE HAD APPLIED FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE PARTY BUT HAD BEEN TURNED DOWN. U.S. AUTHORITIES HALTED DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS AFTER EISLER HAD AGREED TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY VOLUNTARILY.)

ASKED BY CZECH JOURNALISTS WHETHER HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, EISLER SAID:

"I DO NOT HAVE THAT HONOR."

HE SAID HIS DEPARTURE FROM THE U.S. WAS "PRACTICAL DEPORTATION."

NEITHER ITALY NOR FRANCE WOULD GIVE HIM TRANSIT VISAS TO AUSTRIA, AND BRITAIN ALLOWED HIM ONLY TO TOUCH BRITISH SOIL. HE WAS WELCOMED BY COMMUNIST-DOMINATED CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

EISLER DESCRIBED CULTURE IN THE U.S. AS BEING IN A STATE OF DEPRESSION. HE SAID HIS VIEWS WILL BE SET FORTH IN THREE ARTICLES IN RUDE PRAVO, PRAGUE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER.

HE PLANS TO REMAIN HERE SEVERAL DAYS BEFORE GOING TO VIENNA, WHERE HE EXPECTS TO ACCEPT AN APPOINTMENT TO THE MUSIC ACADEMY.

THIRD LEAD PALESTINE (180)
JERUSALEM, MARCH 28-(AP)-THE BRITISH ARMY ARRANGED A TRUCE TODAY AT SOLOMON'S POOLS AND ANNOUNCED IT WAS PLANNING TO EVACUATE JEWS FROM THE SCENE OF A BATTLE WITH ARABS WHICH HAS COST MANY LIVES.
THE TRUCE CONDITIONS WERE NOT ANNOUNCED IMMEDIATELY. JEWISH SOURCES, HOWEVER, SAID THE ARABS DEMANDED ORIGINALLY THAT THE JEWS SURRENDER THEIR ARMS IN EXCHANGE FOR FREEDOM. THE JEWS REFUSED THIS. THE BRITISH THEN SUGGESTED THAT THE JEWS GIVE UP THEIR ARMS TO THE BRITISH ARMY, AND THESE TERMS WERE BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED. JEWISH SOURCES SAID THE ARMS WILL BE RETURNED LATER.
THE ARMY SAID IT WAS KNOWN THAT 12 JEWS WERE KILLED IN THE BATTLE. IT SAID 95 JEWS WERE INVOLVED IN THE ATTACK ON A CONVOY WHICH STARTED THE FIGHTING.
EARLIER REPORTS HAD SAID 17 JEWS WERE DEAD. HAGANAH DEFENDERS, WHO HAD SMALL SCALE SUPPORT FROM PLANES IN THE ENCOUNTER, CLAIMED 300 ARAB CASUALTIES, WITH AS MANY AS 100 ARAB DEAD. THESE FIGURES WERE NOT OFFICIALLY CONFIRMED.
THE FIGHTING STARTED YESTERDAY AND WENT ON THROUGH LAST NIGHT AND MOST OF TODAY. JEWISH PLANES BOMBED THE ARABS A SECOND TIME DURING THE EASTER MORNING FIGHTING.

THE BATTLE WAS NEAR SOLOMON'S POOLS SOUTH OF BETHLEHEM. OVERNIGHT, ARABS HAD BESIEGED THE SURVIVORS OF A 41-VEHICLE JEWISH CONVOY THAT HAD GOT CAUGHT AMONG ARAB ROADBLOCKS THERE. THE JEWS WERE HOLED UP IN THE MUDHUTS OF NABI DANIYAL, ABANDONED ARAB VILLAGE.

LATE IN THE MORNING, AN OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT SAID FIRING HAD CEASED IN THE BATTLE THERE AND BRITISH TROOPS AND POLICE WERE STANDING BY.

SHORTLY BEFORE, A SOURCE IN THE JEWISH MILITIA HAGANAH SAID THE ATTACKING BAND WAS WITHDRAWING.

BUT JUST BEFORE NOON, FIGHTING WAS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN RESUMED ON THE SOLOMON'S POOLS BATTLEGROUND.

THIS SOURCE SAID ARAB CASUALTIES WERE "VERY HEAVY." HE SAID THAT AMONG JEWS FROM THE CONVOY, 11 WERE KNOWN DEAD AND 25 WOUNDED. IN ADDITION, 10 HAGANAH MEMBERS SEEKING TO REINFORCE THOSE FIGHTERS WERE KILLED, HAGANAH REPORTED.

AN OFFICIAL PRESS RELEASE SAID ROYAL ARTILLERY FIRING 25-POUND GUNS BROKE UP AN ARAB ATTACK ON ANOTHER JEWISH CONVOY TODAY AT EL KABRI, EAST OF NAHARIYA IN NORTHERN PALESTINE. THE NUMBER OF CASUALTIES WAS NOT KNOWN.

THE RELEASE SAID THE ARABS ATTACKED FIVE TRUCKS AND AN ARMORED CAR WITH TWO-INCH MORTARS AND MACHINEGUNS. TROOPS MOVING TO THE SCENE COULD NOT GET THROUGH A ROADBLOCK, IT SAID. EL KABRI IS ONLY ABOUT SEVEN MILES SOUTH OF THE LEBANESE BORDER.

HAGANAH SAID THAT IN THE SOLOMON'S POOLS FIGHT, DESPITE LOSS OF THE 10-MAN UNIT, IT SUCCEEDED IN GETTING REINFORCEMENTS TO THE BELEAGUERED JEWS DURING THE NIGHT.

DESPITE LOSS OF THE 10-MAN UNIT, THE JEWISH ARMY SAID, IT SUCCEEDED IN GETTING REINFORCEMENTS TO THE BESIEGED XU DURING THE FOUR PLANES BOMBED THE ARABS YESTERDAY IN THE FIRST SUCH INSTANCE IN THE CURRENT ARAB-JEWISH WARFARE, WHICH BEGAN LAST NOV.29 WITH THE UNITED NATIONS VOTE TO PARTITION PALESTINE.

THREE WERE BACK IN ACTION TODAY. ARABS SAID THE FOURTH HAD BEEN DISABLED BY SMALL-ARMS FIRE.

THE OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT SAID BRITISH TROOPS AND POLICE REACHED THE SCENE AT 8:15 A.M. AFTER NEGOTIATING ARAB ROADBLOCKS AT 300-YARD INTERVALS FROM BETHLEHEM. EYEWITNESSES SAID THE TROOPS DID NO FIGHTING.

THE JEWISH CONVOY WAS AMBUSHED ON THE WAY BACK TO JERUSALEM YESTERDAY FROM KEFAR ETZION WITHOUT THE CUSTOMARY BRITISH ESCORT. ARABS SAID ALL ITS 41 VEHICLES WERE DESTROYED OR CAPTURED.

THE BATTLE TOOK PLACE ALMOST WITHIN SITE OF THE TRADITIONAL BIRTHPLACE OF JESUS CHRIST, BETHLEHEM. BETHLEHEM'S ABOUT FIVE MILES SOUTH OF JERUSALEMM ON THE WAY TO KEFAR ETZION, SOME SIX MILES FARTHER. SOLOMON'S POOLS ARE TWO AND A HALF MILES SOUTHWEST OF BETHLEHEM. THE FIGHTING WAS A MILE EAST OF THERE.

A JEWISH SOURCE ESTIMATED 60 PERSONS FROM THE CONVOY STILL SURVIVED EARLY TODAY. ARABS CLAIMED ONLY 15 WERE LEFT ALIVE.

BY JOSEPH C.GOODWIN

JERUSALEM, MARCH 28-(AP)-JEWISH BOMBING PLANES RETURNED TO THE ATTACK THIS EASTER MORNING. THE CONVOY BATTLE OF SOLOMON'S POOLS, SOUTH OF BETHLEHEM, RAGED INTO A SECOND DAY.

THREE OF THE FOUR PLANES WHICH BOMBED ARAB CONCENTRATIONS YESTERDAY WERE IN ACTION. ARABS CLAIMED THE FOURTH WAS STRUCK BY SMALL-ARMS FIRE AND PASSED FROM VIEW PLUMING SMOKE.

THE AIRCRAFT WERE TRYING TO FREE A JEWISH CONVOY CAUGHT AMONG ARAB ROADBLOCKS. THE JEWISH MILITIA HAGANAH REPORTED 10 MEN OF A JEWISH GROUND REINFORCING UNIT WERE KILLED EARLY THIS MORNING.

BRITISH TROOPS MOVED UP TO THE ROADBLOCKS BARRING BETHLEHEM ROAD. SOUNDS OF THE BATTLE DROWNED OUT EASTER BELLS IN THE CHURCH OF THE NATIVITY, SUPPOSED BIRTHPLACE OF CHRIST.

THE CONVOY WAS ON THE WAY BACK TO JERUSALEM FROM KEFAR ETZION WHEN IT GOT CAUGHT YESTERDAY.

A JEWISH SOURCE ESTIMATED 60 PERSONS FROM THE CONVOY STILL HELD OUT TODAY IN A TINY ABANDONED ARAB VILLAGE WHERE THEY TOOK COVER YESTERDAY. HE SAID HAGANAH REINFORCEMENTS REACHED THEM DURING THE NIGHT.

ARABS SAID ALL BUT 15 OF THOSE IN THE CONVOY WERE KILLED AND ALL THE VEHICLES WERE DESTROYED OR CAPTURED.

SNIPING AND MORTAR FIRE CONTINUED IN JERUSALEM. ONE MORTAR SHELL EXPLODED NEAR THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY ON MOUNT SCOPUS. A JEWISH SOURCE SAID A WALL WAS DAMAGED AND WINDOWS BROKEN IN UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS.

ECHOES OF EXPLOSIONS REACHED THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY SEPULCHER, WHERE AN EASTER SERVICE WAS IN PROGRESS ON THE TRADITIONAL SITE OF CHRIST'S RESURRECTION.

ARCHBISHOP ARTHUR HUGHES, ROMAN CATHOLIC APOSTOLIC DELEGATE TO THE MIDDLE EAST, CONDUCTED THE SERVICE. THE JERUSALEM DISTRICT COMMISSIONER, A SCOTCH MILITARY GUARD AND MEMBERS OF THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE ATTENDED.

THE NARROW, WINDING STREETS LEADING TO THE CHURCH WERE PATROLLED BY ARAB NATIONAL GUARDSMEN, ARMED AND IN BATTLE DRESS.

AT THE CLOSE OF THE HOLY SEPULCHER EASTER SERVICE, MORTAR FIRE BROKE OUT WITHIN JERUSALEM'S OLD WALLED CITY. A RED CROSS AMBULANCE PASSED IN THROUGH JAFFA GATE.

A BRITISH NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICER WAS REPORTED KILLED AND TWO OFFICERS WOUNDED IN THE OLD CITY.

BY UNOFFICIAL COUNT, 2,123 PERSONS HAVE BEEN SLAIN IN THE HOLY LAND SINCE THE PARTITION RECOMMENDATION LAST NOV. 29.

BOGOTA, COLOMBIA, MARCH 28-(AP)-THE CHIEF DELEGATES OF ARGENTINA AND BRAZIL ARRIVED IN BOGOTA BY PLANE TODAY FOR THE OPENING TUESDAY OF THE NINTH PAN AMERICAN CONFERENCE.

FOREIGN MINISTER JUAN A.BRAMUGLIA IS REPRESENTING ARGENTINA AND FORMER FOREIGN MINISTER JOAO NEVES FONTOURA IS BRAZIL'S TOP DELEGATE. BOTH REPRESENTATIVES ARE EXPECTED TO HAVE IMPORTANT ROLES IN THE 21-NATION INTER-AMERICAN MEETING.

U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL IS EXPECTED TO ARRIVE TOMORROW FROM WASHINGTON.

JUVENAL HERNANDEZ, HEAD OF THE CHILEAN DELEGATION, REITERATED TODAY CHILE'S HOPE THAT THE CONFERENCE WILL ENACT MEASURES TO COUNTERACT COMMUNISM IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT ROMULO BETANCOURT, CHIEF VENEZUELAN DELEGATE, SAID TODAY IN CARACAS HIS NATION WOULD INSIST AT THE CONFERENCE THAT ALL COLONIES OF FOREIGN POWERS IN THE AMERICAS BE GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO FREE THEMSELVES BY MEANS OF PLEBISCITES.

HE SAID HE WOULD DEMAND AN END OF COLONIALISM IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

THE ARGENTINE FOREIGN MINISTER SAID HE WOULD BRING HIS COUNTRY'S ANTARCTIC SOVEREIGNTY DISPUTE WITH BRITAIN BEFORE THE CONFERENCE WHEN THE GENERAL QUESTION OF FOREIGN COLONIES IS DISCUSSED. ARGENTINA AND BRITAIN BOTH CLAIM RIGHTS TO CERTAIN ISLANDS IN AND NEAR THE ANTARCTIC.

ARGENTINA HAS SIGNED AN AGREEMENT WITH CHILE, WHICH ALSO DISPUTES SOVEREIGNTY TO CERTAIN ISLANDS NEAR THE ANTARCTIC WITH BRITAIN, TO COOPERATE FULLY IN DEFENSE OF THEIR CLAIMS. GUATEMALA, WHICH IS ENGAGING IN A TERRITORIAL DISPUTE WITH BRITAIN OVER BRITISH HONDURAS, WAS EXPECTED TO LINE UP WITH ARGENTINA AND CHILE.

BRAZIL IS ONE OF THE COUNTRIES WHICH HAS INDICATED ITS BELIEF THAT TERRITORIAL DISPUTES SHOULD BE SETTLED BETWEEN THE NATIONS INVOLVED, RATHER THAN THROUGH THE INTER-AMERICAN CONFERENCE.

CHILE, PARAGUAY AND CUBA HAVE EXPRESSED AN INTEREST IN HAVING THE CONFERENCE TAKE A STAND AGAINST COMMUNISM. THERE WAS NO INDICATION, HOWEVER, THAT THE SUBJECT WOULD BE CONSIDERED.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 28-(AP)-SENATOR PEPPER (D-FLA), WHO HAS SAID KIND THINGS OF RUSSIA IN YEARS PAST, TURNED ON HER TODAY WITH A BLUNT CHARGE OF AGGRESSION UPON HER NEIGHBORS. HE SAID IT OFFENDS OUR SENSE OF FREEDOM.

THEN, WARNING THAT WE ARE "ON THE VERY BRINK" OF WAR, THE SENATOR APPEALED TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO MAKE "A LAST DRAMATIC EFFORT" FOR PEACE IN A PERSONAL MEETING WITH GENERALISSIMO STALIN.

PEPPER SAID HE WANTS MR.TRUMAN TO PROPOSE TO STALIN "AN AMERICAN PLAN FOR PEACE" WHICH WOULD (1) CALL A HALT TO PHYSICAL AND IDEOLOGICAL AGGRESSION BY ALL NATIONS, AND (2) PROMISE OUR ECONOMIC HELP TO THOSE WHO CONFORM.

"THIS IS NOT A PROPOSED MEETING FOR APPEASEMENT," PEPPER DECLARED, AS HE OUTLINED HIS IDEAS IN A RADIO INTERVIEW (STATION WEAM). "I DON'T BELIEVE IN APPEASEMENT."

BEFORE WE AIDED RUSSIA, PEPPER SAID, WE WOULD WANT TO BE SURE "THAT THEY ARE NOT GOING TO TAKE THE HELP WE GIVE THEM AND USE IT AGAINST US.

BUT, HE SAID, "I HAVE THE FEELING THAT PROBABLY AT THE END OF WORLD WAR II WE MADE A MISTAKE IN GIVING AN IMPRESSION TO THE SOVIET UNION AND SOME OF THE NATIONS AROUND ABOUT HER THAT BECAUSE WE DID NOT LIKE THEIR POLITICAL SYSTEM WE WERE NOT GOING TO HELP THEM TO RECOVER FROM THE DAMAGE OF WAR."

PEPPER SAID HE HAS A FEELING THAT EASTERN EUROPE RESENTS OUR AID TO THE COUNTRIES ON THE WEST BECAUSE OF THE HEAVIER LOSSES SUFFERED BY THE EASTERN NATIONS IN DEFEATING THE NAZIS. HE SAID HE FAVORS THE AID WE ARE GIVING.

"WE FEEL THAT WESTERN EUROPE HAS COOPERATED WITH US TO TRY TO KEEP WORLD PEACE, AND THAT THE SOVIET UNION AND EASTERN EUROPE HAS BLOCKED THOSE EFFORTS," HE NOTED.

"NOW IF WE CAN BRING THEM INTO THE ORBIT OF THE NATIONS THAT ARE WORKING FOR PEACE, WOULDN'T IT BE BETTER TO LET THEM HAVE A FEW BILLION DOLLARS IN MONEY TO RECOVER THEIR ECONOMY, TO BUY GOODS FROM US, TO HELP X X X PEACE, THAN TO SPEND IT IN WAR, OR EVEN IN PREPARATION FOR WAR?"

PEPPER TOOK A GRAVE VIEW OF THE DANGER OF WAR.

"THE SITUATION HAS DETERIORATED VERY GREATLY," HE SAID.

"THE SOVIET UNION HAS BEEN GUILTY OF AGGRESSION WHICH OFFENDS AND AFFRONTS OUR SENSE OF INDEPENDENCE AND DIGNITY AND FREEDOM FOR THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD."

IF A REASONABLE AND FAIR PEACE PLAN IS REJECTED BY MARSHAL STALIN, PEPPER SAID, "THEN I WILL FEEL THAT WE HAVE DONE WHAT WE SHOULD DO, AT LEAST MADE A LAST DRAMATIC EFFORT TO PREVENT THE HORROR OF ANOTHER UNSPEAKABLE WAR," HE ADDED.

PEPPER VISITED MOSCOW DURING THE WAR IN 1945 AND TALKED WITH STALIN.

HE HAS MADE NUMEROUS SPEECHES DEFENDING SOVIET POLICIES. HE SAID IN 1946 THAT RUSSIA DID NOT WANT WAR. HE SAID ITS AMBITIONS WERE FOR SECURITY AND A WISH TO GET BACK TERRITORY WRENCHED AWAY AFTER WORLD WAR I.

IN A SENATE SPEECH TWO YEARS AGO, PEPPER SAID THAT BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES WERE "GANGING UP ON RUSSIA." HE UPHELD RUSSIA'S RIGHT TO MAKE BILATERAL AGREEMENTS WITH ADJOINING COUNTRIES, SUCH AS POLAND, BULGARIA AND ROMANIA.

UNITED NATIONS BUDGET (350)
BY MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 28-(AP)-THE NEW AMERICAN POLICY ON PALESTINE FACED GROWING OPPOSITION TODAY AS IT HEADED TOWARD ITS FIRST UNITED NATIONS TEST.

THAT TEST MAY COME TUESDAY AFTERNOON WHEN THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESUMES DEBATE ON THE HOLY LAND CRISIS. IT MAY COME LATER IN THE WEEK. THE TIMING WILL DEPEND LARGELY ON WHEN U.S.DELEGATE WARREN R.AUSTIN SUBMITS HIS PROMISED RESOLUTION FORMALIZING THE AMERICAN PROPOSAL FOR A SPECIAL PALESTINE SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

ANOTHER DECIDING FACTOR WILL BE WHETHER AUSTIN SEEKS IMMEDIATE SECURITY COUNCIL APPROVAL OF THE U.S.PLAN FOR PALESTINE TRUSTEESHIP.

THE AMERICAN DELEGATE WAS REPORTED READY LAST WEEK TO PUT THE TRUSTEESHIP IDEA ASIDE FOR THE MOMENT AND CONCENTRATE ON GETTING THE SPECIAL ASSEMBLY SESSION. A RESOLUTION WAS PREPARED, PROPOSING THE SPECIAL SESSION, BUT THIS WAS HELD UP AT THE LAST MINUTE WITHOUT EXPLANATION.

THE TRUSTEESHIP PLAN SO FAR HAS FOUND LITTLE SUPPORT. THE JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE HAS REJECTED IT. THE ARABS HAVE GIVEN IT A COOL RECEPTION, BUT INDICATED THEY MIGHT ACCEPT IT UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

CANADA AND FRANCE, THE ONLY TWO MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL TO EXPRESS THEIR VIEWS IN PUBLIC, DECLARED LAST WEEK THEY WERE NOT READY TO COMMIT THEMSELVES UNLESS IT IS SHOWN THE PLAN WOULD WORK.

RUSSIA, STILL STANDING BEHIND THE PARTITION PLAN, WAS EXPECTED TO DELIVER A BLAST AT THE U.S.POLICY. IF RUSSIA INVOKES THE BIG POWER VETO THE U.S.WILL HAVE TO ASK FOR A POLL OF THE 57 MEMBERS OF THE U.N. TO GET A SPECIAL ASSEMBLY SESSION. TWENTY-NINE AFFIRMATIVE VOTES ARE REQUIRED.

THERE WAS LITTLE HOPE HERE THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S APPEAL FOR A JEWISH-ARAB TRUCE WOULD PRODUCE ANY RESULTS, SINCE BOTH GROUPS ALREADY HAD BEEN ASKED BY THE BIG POWERS FOR SUCH A TRUCE ONLY TWO WEEKS AGO.

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED THIS WEEK:

THE SECURITY COUNCIL WILL RESUME DEBATE WEDNESDAY ON THE COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THE U.S.MAY DEMAND THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL RECONSIDER ITALY'S BID FOR U.N.MEMBERSHIP. ITALY'S APPLICATION HAS BEEN VETOED TWICE BY RUSSIA.

ON MARCH 11, MAGIL WAS REFUSED A PASSPORT TO PALESTINE. TWELVE DAYS LATER THE STATE DEPARTMENT TURNED DOWN HIS REQUEST FOR A PASSPORT TO COVER THE GENEVA CONFERENCE.

MICHAEL J.MCDERMOTT, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER, SAID MAGIL'S APPLICATIONS WERE DENIED "BECAUSE IT IS NOT IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES AT THE PRESENT TIME" TO GRANT THEM.

"IT'S NOT A REFUSAL TO GRANT A DAILY WORKER CORRESPONDENT A PASSPORT BUT A REFUSAL TO GRANT MR. MAGIL A PASSPORT," MCDERMOTT SAID.

"I AM A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES, A FACT WHICH I HAVE NEVER CONCEALED AND AM PROUD TO AFFIRM."

MAGIL'S PETITION CHARGES THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S ACTION INFRINGES ON FREEDOM OF THE PRESS AND VIOLATES THE UN CHARTER.

UNDATED EASTER BUDGET
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

EASTER BROUGHT ITS MESSAGE OF FAITH AND CHEER TO CHRISTIANS THE WORLD AROUND YESTERDAY, BUT IN MANY PLACES THE WORDS OF HOPE SOUNDED AGAINST A BACKGROUND OF FEAR AND CONFLICT.

IN JERUSALEM, ECHOES OF EXPLOSIONS AND GUNFIRE REACHED THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY SEPULCHER, HALLOWED AS THE SITE OF CHRIST'S RESURRECTION. CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOP ARTHUR HUGHES CONDUCTED SERVICES THERE WHILE ARABS AND JEWS IN OTHER PARTS OF THE CITY BATTLED WITH RIFLES AND MORTARS. ONLY THE MOST DEVOUT BRAVED THE DANGERS OF THE CIVIL WAR TO WORSHIP AT THE TOMB. A BRITISH WOMAN TEACHER, RETURNING FROM CHURCH, WAS SHOT TO DEATH.

POPE PIUS XII GAVE HIS EASTER BLESSING TO 400,000 PERSONS GATHERED IN ST.PETER'S SQUARE. THE PONTIFF DECLARED THE CROSSROADS HAS BEEN REACHED IN THE STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNISM AND "THE GREAT HOUR OF CHRISTIAN CONSCIENCE HAS SOUNDED."

PRESIDENT TRUMAN ATTENDED SERVICES IN THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF WASHINGTON. THE PRESIDENT LISTENED SOLEMNLY AS THE PASTOR ALLUDED TO WORLD CONDITIONS AND SAID "WE FEEL WE ARE STANDING ALONE IN OUR SUPPORT OF WHAT WE CONSIDER SPIRITUAL IDEALS."

NEW YORK'S CLEAR WEATHER BROUGHT OUT AN ESTIMATED 1,000,000 PARTICIPANTS IN THE EASTER PARADE ALONG FIFTH AND MADISON AVENUES.

EASTER PARADERS ALSO MADE A BRAVE SHOW IN SOME OF THE GREAT EUROPEAN CAPITALS. BUT IN THE BACKGROUND MANY HEARD, OR IMAGINED THEY COULD HEAR, THE SOUND OF GUNS.

BRITAIN ENJOYED A "LITTLE SUMMER" IN A NORMALLY BLUSTERY MARCH. THOUSANDS WENT SWIMMING AT SEASIDE RESORTS.

THE FRENCH MINISTRY OF ARMED FORCES, IN AN EASTER MORNING ANNOUNCEMENT, ORDERED NAVY MEN COMPLETING THEIR TERMS TO STAY IN UNIFORM. NEVERTHELESS, TRADITIONALLY GAY PARIS TURNED OUT IN THRONGS FOR THE EASTER STROLL ALONG THE CHAMPS ELYSEE, WHERE TREES WERE GREEN WITH EARLY SPRING.

THE FEW EASTER EGGS AVAILABLE IN WAR-RAVAGED BERLIN COST 14 TO 17 MARKS EACH ($1.40 TO $1.70 AT THE MILITARY EXCHANGE RATE). MRS.LOUISE SCHROEDER, DEPUTY LORD MAYOR, EXPRESSED THE HOPE "FOR A BRIGHTER FUTURE."

VIENNA, ON SHORT RATIONS, SOUGHT A RESPITE FROM THE CARES OF OCCUPATION. AFTER ATTENDING HIGH MASS IN MANY CATHOLIC CHURCHES, THE CITIZENS FLOCKED TO THE VIENNA WOODS, TO SOCCER GAMES AND TROTTING RACES.

BELGIUM'S CHURCHES WERE CROWDED, AND ALMOST EVERY BELGIAN CHILD HAD AN EASTER EGG. THERE WAS ALSO PLENTY OF FOOD FOR ALL AND WINE FOR GROWNUPS.

LONDON, MARCH 23-(AP)-HAROLD WILSON, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, DISCLOSED TODAY A PLAN TO LET FOREIGN TOURISTS SPEND THEIR MONEY FOR CLOTHES IN BRITAIN WITHOUT WORRYING ABOUT RATION TICKETS.

AMERICAN AND OTHER VISITORSIN PARLIAMENT WAS TOLD, ALSO WILL GET EXTRA GASOLINE IF THEY BRING AN AUTOMOBILE OR BUY A NEW ONE HERE TO TAKE HOME WITH THEM.

BOTH SCHEMES BECOME EFFECTIVE MAY 1 AND WILL OPERATE FOR AN UNDEFINED "EXPERIMENTAL PERIOD" AS A TEST TO SEE WHETHER THEY WILL DRAW MORE TOURISTS AND WHETHER THE TOURISTS WILL HELP BRITAIN'S EXPORT DRIVE BY EXCHANGING AND USING MORE FOREIGN CURRENCY HERE.

WILSON SAID "TOURIST VOUCHER BOOKS" ALLOWING VISITORS TO MAKE SIX RATION-FREE PURCHASES OF SUCH ARTICLES AS SUITS, DRESS FABRICS OR SHOES IF THE TOURIST WILL PRESENT HIS FOREIGN PASSPORT AND CONVERT ENOUGH OF HIS OWN COUNTRY'S CURRENCY TO EQUAL £25 ($100).

"I AM SATISFIED," WILSON SAID, "THAT OVERSEAS VISITORS WILL IN THIS WAY BE ABLE TO BUY REASONABLE QUANTITIES OF THE GOODS THEY WANT AND THAT IT WILL ENABLE RETAIL TRADERS TO MAKE A CONTRIBUTION TO THE EXPORT DRIVE."

THE VISITORS STILL WILL HAVE TO PAY A PURCHASE TAX, WHICH RANGES FROM 25 PER CENT ON MOST CLOTHING ARTICLES UP TO 125 PER CENT ON HIGHEST GRADE FUR COATS.

IF THE SIX ITEMS AREN'T ENOUGH, THE TOURIST MAY USE THE PERSONAL EXPORT SCHEME UNDER WHICH A TAILOR WILL SELL A GARMENT FREE OF BOTH RATION TICKETS AND PURCHASE TAX IF IT IS TO BE SE T STRAIGHT OUT OF THE COUNTRY WITHOUT PASSING THROUGH THE BUYER'S HANDS.

A DOZEN CLOTHING COUPONS--NOT QUITE HALF ENOUGH FOR A MAN'S SUIT BUT ENOUGH FOR SOME DRESSES OR A PAIR OF SHOES--WILL BE ISSUED TO ALL OVERSEAS OLYMPIC COMPETITORS, OFFICIALS AND THEIR FAMILIES.

A TOURIST WITH AN AUTOMOBILE MAY HAVE ENOUGH GASOLINE FOR 1,000 MILES OF DRIVING DURING THE FIRST MONTH OF HIS VISIT AND 300 MILES A MONTH FOR THE NEXT TWO MONTHS.

GENOA, ITALY, MARCH 23-(AP)-U.S. AMBASSADOR JAMES D. DUNN SAID TODAY THE REFITTING OF TWO ITALIAN LINERS RECENTLY RETURNED BY THE UNITED STATES FORESHADOWED THE INDUSTRIAL REVIVAL ITALY COULD EXPECT "WHEN THE NATIONS OF EUROPE GET UNDERWAY WITH THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN."

IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY AT THE GENOA SHIPYARDS WHERE THE CONTE GRANDE AND CONTE BIANCAMANO WILL BE REFITTED FOR THE TRANSATLANTIC TRADE, THE AMBASSADOR TERMED THE PROJECT:

"THE PHYSICAL SYMBOL OF THE SINCERE AND PRACTICAL FRIENDSHIP THAT HAS LONG BEEN TRADITIONAL BETWEEN THE AMERICAN AND ITALIAN PEOPLES."

MOSCOW, MARCH 23-(AP)-THE NEWSPAPER PRAVDA TOLD ITS READERS TODAY THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS LAST WEEK CAUSED A SHARP RISE IN THE PRICE OF "ARMAMENTS INDUSTRIES STOCKS."

MEANWHILE, THE PAPER SAID, PRICES OF GRAIN AND COTTON CONTINUED TO DECLINE.

LONDON, MARCH 24-(AP)-AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID TODAY THAT HE BELIEVED BRITAIN HAS BORROWED ANOTHER $60,000,000 (M) FROM THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND TO HELP STRETCH HER DWPODLING SUPPLIES OF GOLD AND DOLLAR RESERVES.

OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION COULD NOT BE OBTAINED.

PREVIOUSLY BRITAIN HAS BORROWED $240,000,000 (M) FROM THE FUND--$60,000,000 IN SEPTEMBER, $120,000,000 IN OCTOBER AND $60,000,000 IN NOVEMBER.

SHE IS ENTITLED TO DRAW A TOTAL OF $325,000,000 BY THE MIDDLE OF NEXT SEPTEMBER, A YEAR FROM THE TIME OF THE FIRST DRAWING.

THIS AMOUNT EQUALS 25 PER CENT OF BRITAIN'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE FUND. UNDER THE FUNDI RULES ANY MEMBER NATION MAY BORROW IN ANOTHER MEMBER'S CURRENCY UP TO 25 PER CENT IN A YEAR, OF THE BORROWING NATION'S CONTRIBUTION.

LONDON, MARCH 24-(AP)-BRITAIN WILL SAVE ROUGHLY FIVE MILLION OF HER SCARCE DOLLARS BY USING LESS FOOD FROM DOLLAR-COUNTRIES FOR HER ARMED FORCES OVERSEAS.

ANNOUNCING THIS ECONOMY TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TODAY, DEFENSE MINISTER A.V.ALEXANDER SAID THE FORCES' DAILY 3,400 CALORY RATION WOULD BE KEPT UP BY MORE FOOD PURCHASES FROM "SOFT CURRENCY" COUNTRIES.

THE SWITCH, HE SAID, WAS IN LINE WITH SIMILAR ACTION TAKEN BY THE GOVERNMENT RECENTLY FOR CIVILIAN RATIONS IN BRITAIN. GRADUAL CUTS ARE BEING MADE IN FOOD BOUGHT FROM DOLLAR-COUNTRIES FOR DOMESTIC USE.

ALL BRITISH ARMY, NAVY AND AIR STATIONS ABROAD WILL BE AFFECTED BY THE CHANGE EXCEPT IN PALESTINE, ALEXANDER SAID. THERE, "IN VIEW OF THE EXCEPTIONAL CONDITIONS," THE PRESENT RATIONS WILL BE MAINTAINED.

LONDON, MARCH 24-(AP)-THE CORN TRADE NEWS SAID TODAY BRITAIN IS PAYING FOR RUSSIAN CORN TEN POUNDS FOURTEEN SHILLINGS (APPROXIMATELY $43) PER TON MORE THAN FOR THE ARGENTINE GRAIN.

AN ANALYSIS OF BOARD OF TRADE RETURNS FOR FEBRUARY SHOWED, THE PUBLICATION SAID, THAT BRITAIN IMPORTED 33,133 TONS OF ARGENTINE CORN AT TWENTY-ONE POUNDS, TWO SHILLINGS ($85) A TON AND 7,913 TONS OF RUSSIA CORN AT THIRTY-ONE POUNDS SIXTEEN SHILLINGS ($125.)

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT ALWAYS HAS DECLINED TO REVEAL PRICES AGREED ON BULK PURCHASES OF FOODSTUFFS AND OTHER COMMODITIES, BUT TRADE COMMENTS BOTH HERE AND IN THE UNITED STATES CRITICIZED ARGENTINA'S PRICES AS MUCH ABOVE THE WORLD LEVEL.

WHEN THE ANGLO-RUSSIAN TRADE AGREEMENT WAS ANNOUNCED RECENTLY PRESIDENT HAROLD WILSON OF THE BOARD OF TRADE TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THAT PRICES BEING PAID TO THE SOVIET UNION ARE CONSIDERED "MOST SATISFACTORY."

THE CORN TRADE NEWS, WHICH OFTEN PROTESTED AGAINST ARGENTINA'S GRAIN PRICES, SAID TODAY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, IS SELLING CORN TO DOMESTIC CONSUMERS AT TEN POUNDS A TON, "WITH THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN COST AND SALE PRICES MADE UP BY FOOD SUBSIDIES."

THE ONLY OTHER COUNTRY LISTED AS A SUPPLIER OF CORN TO BRITAIN IN FEBRUARY WAS BRAZIL, WHICH SOLD 1,613 TONS AT TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS ELEVEN SHILLINGS ($97) A TON.

UNDER THE ANDES AGREEMENT, ARGENTINA PROMISED TO SELL 200,000 TONS OF CORN TO BRITAIN BUT THE PRICE WAS NOT INDICATED.

CAIRO, MARCH 24-(AP)-EGYPTIAN CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES APPROVED A BILL AUTHORIZING THE GOVERNMENT TO RAISE EGYPT'S SHARE IN WORLD MONETARY FUND FROM $45,000,000 TO $60,000,000 AND HER SHARE IN INTERNATIONAL BANK FROM $40,000,000 TO $53,300,000.

CHAMBER'S FINANCIAL COMMITTEE SUGGESTED MONETARY FUND AND INTERNATIONAL BANK CHOOSE EGYPT AS DEPOSIT PLACE FOR EGYPT'S AND MIDEAST COUNTRIES GOLD AND DOLLARS SHARES IN BOTH ORGANIZATIONS.

Pope Sees Test With Reds at Hand

Declares Vital Hour Has Struck for World in War Against Communism.

MAR 1948

Vatican City, March 29 (A. P.).—Pope Pius XII sees Italy and the world today at the crossroads in the contest over Communism.

"The great hour of Christian conscience has sounded," he proclaimed in importing "to the city and the world" his Easter blessing from a balcony of St. Peter's yesterday.

Some 400,000 persons heard him from the sunlit square below, a little more than three weeks before the April 18 election test in Italy between Communism and its foes. His listeners, mostly Italian, far outnumbered any political gathering to date.

He did not mention Communism by name, but his hearers plainly understood his references to "agitators who make the negation of Christ the cornerstone of their work." His gestures were emphatic, his voice vibrant and forceful, and twenty loudspeakers magnified his words as he declared: "Rome now finds herself . . . in the midst of a turning of the times which reuires d and members of the highest vigilance, ...ing preparedness and unconditioned action."

'Deniers of the Sacred.'

He reminded his audience of the "terrible verdict" of Jesus Christ: "He who is not with Me is against Me." He continued: "You, beloved sons and daughters, well comprehend what such a cross-roads signifies and contains for Rome, for Italy, for the world. In your conscience, aroused to full understanding of its responsibility, there is no place for blind credulity toward those who at first are abundant with affirmations of respect for religion, but then, alas, reveal themselves the deniers of that which is most sacred.

"In your conscience there is no place for cowardice, for accommodation, for the irresolution of those who in this crucial hour believe they can serve two masters. Your conscience knows that the realization of social justice and peace among nations can never be achieved or preserved if the eyes are closed to the Light of Christ and the ears opened instead to the erroneous words of agitators who make the negation of Christ the cornerstone of their work."

De Gasperi Is Cheered.

Premier Alcide de Gasperi, head of the anti-Communist Christian Democrats, was cheered when he arrived to hear the Pope speak.

The surge of Romans toward the Vatican left the suburbs virtually deserted. In the big, stone oval facing St. Peter's, standing in well-ordered lines, were the youth of Catholic Action, the church's 4,000,000-strong crusade force. Their banners proclaimed, "Who Is Italian Loves the Pope," "Who Wants Peace Is With the Pope." They shouted rhythmically, like college cheering squads, "Viva il Papa." Through the afternoon, they roamed the streets arm in arm, cheering de Gasperi and the Pope.

Three light planes flew low over the crowd dropping thousands of handbills. Most of these bore the one letter "V"—understood variously to mean Vita (life), Victory and Vote. Others carried a likeness of Giuseppe Garibaldi, which turned upside down, became a glaring Stalin.

The Communist-dominated Popular Front has taken Garibaldi's picture for its emblem.

Also present were visitors from all over the globe—large numbers of Negro priests from Africa slant-eyed priests from the Orient red-robed priests from Germany. there were diplomats with their ladies in gay Easter dress and tourists from northern Europe and America, including many Wacs from the American zone of Germany.

2 KILLED, 2 HURT IN MILAN AREA

Incidents Expected To Set Off New Political Violence

Rome, March 29 (AP)—Two Communists were killed and a Communist and a Rightist were reported injured today in pre-election disorders in the Milan area.

There were predictions that the incidents would touch off political trouble in Milan. The Communist-led Chamber of Labor already has scheduled a demonstration by the unemployed for tomorrow in the heart of the strongly Leftist city.

Milan police headquarters said the Communist casualties occurred during shooting at the village of Samoglia, 25 miles southwest of Milan. Newspaper accounts said the shooting began when a group of Communists en route from one village to another got into an argument along the way.

Beating Reported Near Milan

The Rightist, a speaker for the national bloc, was said to have been beaten in the industrial town of Legnano, 12 miles north of Milan. Press reports said three persons were arrested there but two of them were released immediately.

Heretofore the campaigning for the April 18 parliamentary election has been generally orderly. Premier Alcide de Gasperi defied threats by Italy's Communists to use force if they are denied positions in the Government after the election.

Speaking in Frosinone, the Christian Democratic Premier said:

"If it is a question of force, the force is in the hands of the Government."

Leftists Seek Offensive

He added that the Government itself had no intention of initiating strong-arm measures. There are no Communists in de Gasperi's Cabinet.

The Communist threat was made last week. It opened a leftist campaign drive to capture the offensive from Government parties riding the crest of popular enthusiasm over the Western powers' proposal to return Trieste to Italy.

From Frosinone, de Gasperi hastened to another political rally in the war-battered town of Cassino.

In the northern port city of Genoa, Paolo Cappa, Minister of Merchant Marine, praised the United States for helping in the restoration of Italy's merchant fleet.

Declaring Italians will not be able to live if they are excluded from the Marshall plan, he said: "Almost everything will be impossible without the goods and aid we receive from the United States."

Giuselle de Vittorio, Communist leader of the Italian Federation of Labor, said in a signed article in a Milan newspaper that a Communist election victory would lead to "more, not less, American aid to Italy." Such a victory, he continued, would change American aid from "tutelage and protection" into a search for Italy's friendship.

Italian newspapers printed detailed accounts of the Easter address of Pope Pius XII delivered to a throng of 400,000 in St. Peter's Square. Although the Pontiff did not mention the Communists by name, his listeners plainly understood him to mean that Italy and the world have reached the cross-roads in the struggle against communism.

The leftist newspaper La Republica accused the Pope of having broken the Italian electoral truce which had forbidden speeches at Easter.

DE GASPERI CALLS REDS HYPOCRITES

Frosinone, Italy, March 29 (A. P.).—Premier Alcide de Gasperi said today that the Communists are hypocrites because they have suppressed their Red flags and hammer and sickle emblems during the political campaign. Their substitution of the Italian flag is "extraordinary hypocrisy," the Premier told a meeting here.

De Gasperi took note of Communist threats to use force if they are not taken into the Government after the April 18 elections. He observed:

"If it's a question of force, the force is in the hands of the Government."

He added, however, that the Government does not intend to use strong-arm methods.

GI Wounded In Trieste; Troop Additions Denied

Trieste, Free Territory, March 29 (AP)—United States Army headquarters announced tonight that a United States soldier was wounded last night while on guard duty in Trieste. The announcement said he was wounded "apparently by his own gun." Judson O'Quinn

The Army withheld the man's name, but private sources identified him as Sergt. Cleason Cox, of Miami, Okla. He is in a hospital, where his condition was described as good.

The army announcement said the man was making an investigation when the accident occurred. The Army is inquiring into the incident.

Meanwhile, several sources with official connections expressed doubt tonight that Yugoslavia had, as widely reported, moved more troops into its occupation sector of Trieste.

The troop movements were reported two days ago by pro-Italian refugees who moved into the British-American zone from the Yugoslav zone. Italian newspapers have declared these are fresh troops.

Two Soldiers Noted

British and American officers have refused comment on the report that Yugoslavia has reinforced the 5,000 troops it is permitted to keep in its zone. However, it is known that Yugoslav troops have carried out some maneuvers in the frontier area between the zones.

It is possible the Yugoslavs moved some troops within the free territory up closer to the line, as reported by the pro-Italian sources. But sources in high places said they doubted more troops had been sent in from Yugoslavia proper.

In a trip along the 12-mile frontier between the zones, no more than two Yugoslav soldiers were seen on duty anywhere.

Foreign correspondents in Trieste are forbidden to visit the Yugoslav zone.

Russia Denies Its Subs Off U.S.; Calls Story 'Absurd, Slanderous'

LONDON, March 29—(AP) The official Soviet news agency Tass denied tonight that unidentified submarines sighted off the coast of the United States were Russian.

Tass described reports that the submarines were Russian as an "absurd and grossly slanderous invention, calculated to deceive American public opinion."

Tass noted that Navy Secretary John L. Sullivan told a Senate committee last Wednesday that submarines had been sighted which did not belong "to any nation west of the 'iron curtain'."

The news agency said Sullivan "gave it to be understood that these submarines were Russian ones."

It added that Sullivan's statement was taken up by "several American newspapers which are disseminating sensational rumors to the effect that Russian submarines were sighted near the U. S. coasts."

(Sullivan did not name any nation in his testimony before the Senate Armed Services committee. Russia, however, is the only nation behind the iron curtain known to have a submarine fleet).

Communist Themes Irk Poet; He Quits Czech Party Ranks

London, March 29 (AP)—A young Czech Communist poet rebelled against the party tonight for giving poets "a list of themes for our poems."

Van Blatny, 29, said he is quitting the party, resigning from the Czech Syndicate of Authors and refusing to go home.

"No self-respecting artist," he said, "can live and work freely in Czechoslovakia since it became a police state run by the Bolsheviks."

Conscience Forbids "Lies"

Blatny came here as part of a syndicate delegation invited by the Government-financed British Council. The British Council sponsors the exchange of culture and information with foreign nations.

"If I were to follow the instructions given to me by the Czech organizers of the trip," Blatny said, "I should have to assure the British public that everything in Czechoslovakia is perfectly in order and that the situation is the expression of the will of the people.

"But my conscience forbids me to spread such lies."

He Spreads A Warning

Blatny said the list of acceptable poetry topics was included in orders sent to members of the delegation by the Central Committee of the Czech Communist party.

"To my fellow writers in the West who still sympathize with communism in any shape," Blatny said, "I should like to give a warning:

"As soon as you concede absolute political power to the Communists you become their absolute slaves."

London Denies Threat To Tar F.D.R. Statue

London, March 29 (AP)—The London Star said today Scotland Yard has received telephoned threats that the statue of Franklin D. Roosevelt in Grosvenor Square will be tarred and feathered. Scotland Yard denied the story.

"The statue was delivered about a week early," a Yard spokesman said, "and the Office of Works is providing no caretaker, asked us to place a constable on the site.

"We can trace no threats having been received."

The memorial to the late President will be unveiled by Mrs. Roosevelt April 12.

British To Offer Free-Press Treaty

MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

Geneva, March 29 (AP)—Hector McNeil, British Minister of State, today proposed an international treaty to safeguard the freedom of the press. Such a treaty, McNeil said, "could mark a decisive step forward in guaranteeing the fundamental right of human beings to seek freedom of expression."

The British draft convention largely followed one proposed to the United Nations Conference on Freedom of Information here last week by the United States, but it was more detailed and more far-reaching.

McNeil said the British draft would be distributed to conference delegates within the next day or so.

Security Is Exempted

Advance copies of the draft, still subject to last-minute changes, assured freedom of movement to newsmen within territories of contracting states without discrimination on grounds of race, nationality or religion.

Under the proposed British draft, signatory states would undertake to permit the distribution of information and opinion by press, radio, films and art without Government interference.

Excluded from guaranteed freedom of information were matters which deal with national security, and expressions which tend to overthrow a government. In time of war the draft would permit signatory nations to take special measures restricting press freedom.

Disputes would be referred to the International Court of Justice at The Hague.

Membership Unlimited

The convention would be open to any state participating in the conference and any other state declared eligible by the United Nations.

McNeil's 4,000-word declaration was the first major statement of policy made by the British delegation at the conference. Defending the British press against Russian-bloc attacks, he declared British publishers and writers were not privileged but enjoyed the same rights as any other citizen.

The best remedy against false information is "not to manufacture more manacles and more chains," McNeil said.

News Curbs In Russia

MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

Geneva, March 29 (AP)—Harry Martin, president of the American Newspaper Guild, cited a law of the Soviet Union today as proof of his charges that the Russian press is Government-controlled.

Yacob Lomakin, representative of the Soviet Union, in turn charged the American press with attempting to spread abroad "pornographic literature and pin-up girls" which he said led to a wave of juvenile delinquency in the United States itself.

The exchange took place at the United Nations conference on freedom of information.

Reads Soviet Statute

Martin read to the Committee on Reception and Publication of News the entire statute on control of the press in the Soviet Union and upon conclusion declared:

"I submit that the representatives of any government practicing a control so rigid, so complete and so monopolistic as this are scarcely in a position to criticize the free press of any other peoples."

Lomakin spoke after Martin, but made no reference to the latter's quotation of Soviet law.

Martin read the 1,000-word statute of Gavlit, which he described as the "main administration for affairs of literature and publishing houses of the Russian Soviet Federal Socialist Republic."

Full Control Cited

The statute placed full control over all newspapers, periodicals, photographs, radio broadcasts, lectures, exhibitions and films in the hands of the "people's commissariat of education."

It authorized banning from publication of any works containing "agitation and propaganda against the Soviet authority and the dictatorship of the proletariat," Martin said.

Martin also charged representatives of the Eastern nations with making irresponsible and erroneous attacks upon the United States press.

He said these delegates in making their attacks had "lifted out of context from various books, pamphlets, newspapers, etc., a weird collection of opinion, half truths, false judgments and such, the very publication of which is proof in itself that there is the fullest freedom of uncensored expression in the United States."

Russ Okay Health Charter

Geneva, March 29 (AP)—Russia has ratified the constitution of world health organization, it was announced today. It was the twenty-fourth nation to do so. Two more ratifications are required before the new organization may be established as a permanent specialized agency of the United Nations.

Wait Made Worth While

Berlin, March 29 (AP)—Passengers in a Leipzig street car waiting for a trian to pass a crossing were given the chance of a German lifetime. A carload of shoes, virtually impossible to buy in Germany, was derailed. Before the police arrived, the car had been emptied.

Swedes Deny Soviet Charge

Defense Minister Dismisses Story of U. S. Strongholds on Peninsula.

Stockholm, March 29 (A. P.).—Defense Minister Allan Vougt said today that there is no foundation for the Russian charges that the Swedish commander-in-chief, Gen. Helge Jung, is planning United States bases in Sweden.

Jung himself is on vacation and said he had not read the charges and would not comment on them prior to his return to his office.

What Moscow Says.

Moscow, March 29 (A. P.).—The army and navy official newspapers, the Red Star and the Red Fleet, have accused the Swedish Commander-in-Chief, Gen. Helge Jung, of planning American bases in Sweden.

This allegation, published yesterday, was similar to the charge made on Saturday against Norway. Both attacks came during the negotiations with Finland for a treaty of friendship and mutual assistance. Finland lies between Russia and the two Scandinavian countries.

The Red Fleet said that Jung was planning to use the Swedish armed forces "as an appendage to the American military machine and to subject the foreign policy of Sweden to the expansionist ambitions of the United States in Northern Europe." His plans are based on American help, it said, and new fortifications and airports are planned in northern Sweden for the use of American planes and parachute troops.

Both newspapers declared that a military clique is trying, but so far without success, to gain control of Sweden.

Spain's Example Cited By Franco

Madrid, March 29 (AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco today said the world had failed to appreciate Spain's victory over Communism.

Speaking to 4,500 youths belonging to the Falange (Government) party, Franco declared:

"In the eclipse the world is suffering some European countries still have not perceived the dangers that we announced to the world ten years ago and the truth of our revolution."

Franco said Spain wished that the countries now dominated by Communists had taken Spain's fight against communism as an object lesson.

Describing Spain as a fortress of unity, he told the youths they give security and peace to the nation "while other peoples, more powerful and larger, do nothing because they have an enemy within." He added:

"If we work for our union what does it matter that from abroad they would try to incite our disunion. To be a Spaniard is one of the few worthwhile things in the world."

Spain Is Fortress Of Unity, Franco Says

Madrid, March 29 (AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco said today Spain is a fortress of unity.

He advised 4,500 youths belonging to the Falange (Government) party to adopt the slogan "We Don't Care" if attempts are made abroad to incite disunion in Spain.

Falange youths ranging from 14 to 16 years old gathered at Franco's residence to honor him on the anniversary of his civil-war victory.

Franco said the world has failed to appreciate the position of Spain as opposed to Russia.

"In the eclipse the world is suffering," Franco said, "some European countries still have not perceived the dangers that we announced to the world ten years ago and the truth of our revolution."

RUMANIAN REGIME GETS 92% OF VOTE

Communist-Led Bloc Expected to Get 405 of 414 Seats in Constitution Assembly

BUCHAREST, Rumania, March 29 (AP)—Candidates of the Communist-led Government were credited officially today with 92 per cent of the votes in the election for a new National Assembly. These were provisional returns.

Rumanians elected a new 414-member Assembly yesterday. It will pass on a Constitution designed to transform the country formally into a Socialist-Communist state. The Government bloc was assured of more than 400 seats.

The victory for the Government candidates was a foregone conclusion. Under Premier Petru Groza the Government had suppressed the main opposition party, the National Peasants. The National Liberals and Independent Socialists, other opposition groups, had refused to participate in the election.

It was announced that returns from all districts had given the Government's Popular Democratic Front 7,116,267 of 7,732,652 votes cast. The total registration was announced as 8,416,061. The turnout, on the basis of that figure, exceeded 90 per cent.

Other returns: Dissident Liberals, 216,397; Peasant Democrats, 50,871; Independents, 152,512.

Officials said 196,605 votes had been canceled.

30.24- 16599

On the basis of the provisional returns, it appeared as if the Government bloc would get 405 seats and the Dissident Liberals five and the four other seats would be split among the other opposition groups.

Members of the Government bloc are the Workers' party (a merger of Communists and Socialists), the Plowman's Front, the National Popular party and the Magyar Union.

The returns were compiled on the basis of official results for each district and are subject to confirmation by the Central Electoral Committee.

The election followed the abdication of King Michael on Dec. 30 and the proclamation of a "People's Democratic Republic" by the Groza regime. No fight was anticipated over approval of the new Constitution, which is patterned after that of the Soviet Union and of Russian satellite nations. The Assembly will sit as an extraordinary parliament only until the Constitution is approved. It will then proclaim itself an ordinary Assembly.

Hanns Eisler Tells Prague Of U.S. Fears

Mar., March 29 (AP)—Hanns Eisler, composer who left Hollywood after a tangle with the House Committee on Un-American Activities, surveyed the sunny, peaceful streets of Prague today and said to Czech friends: "How different!"

Then he gave to listeners, many of them the new Communists who have taken control of the Czechoslovak Government, his impression of Hollywood:

"It is a city in a terrible state of hysteria.

"Not A Communist"

"Old friends regard each other with suspicion. You don't know whether you can trust your neighbors. People whisper. There are prying eyes. If you have had a brush with the authorities, no matter how slight, your pals shun you. There is conspiracy in the air and nervous thousands are quite sure the war will start next week or next month."

Eisler said he is not a member of the Communist party and does not intend to become one. He attributed his difficulties in America to his brother Gerhardt, who is a German Communist.

Ge

"Practically Deportation"

"I love him; I tried to help him," Hanns Eisler said.

He added that his leaving America with his Hungarian-born actress wife was, "for all practical purposes, a deportation."

United States authorities halted deportation proceedings after Eisler agreed to leave voluntarily. He was accused of entering the United States in 1940 through misrepresentation.

He plans to go to Austria to live.

Shostakovich Resigns Under Fire

Quits Moscow Conservatory but Continues to Write Music—Khachaturian Loses Position.

Moscow, March 29 (A. P.).—The composer Dmitri Shostakovich apparently has resigned as professor at the Moscow Conservatory but is still writing music.

Shostakovich was one of seven composers censured by the Communist party's Central Committee in February for writing music that "follows the formalist trend—a trend against the people." He is regarded as the high priest among the "formalist" composers.

Aram Khachaturian, another of the composers criticized, has been removed from the chairmanship of the organizing committee of the Union of Soviet Composers. Khachaturian was censured by the party as having failed to prevent the "formalist" school from acquiring a practical monopoly in music here. He was succeeded as committee chairman by Tikon Khrennikov, a composer of light music.

There is good evidence for the belief that Vissarion Shebalin, another of the composers under fire, is still head of the Moscow Conservatory, the leading Soviet musical institution. His name and title as conservatory head have been seen recently on posters advertising concerts. His signature also was noted on a tribute paid recently to the deceased Soviet pianist Igumnov.

Shostakovich, Khachaturian, Serge Prokofieff, Irakly (Vano) Muradeli, and other composers criticized in the party decree have been told to continue their work but to work harder and change the basic trends of their compositions. It was indicated that by doing so, they would write music which would meet party demands.

The party blast said that "formalist" compositions were "exerting a baleful influence on the training and upbringing of young composers in our conservatories and, above all, in the Moscow Conservatory."

The magazine Culture and Life disclosed recently that the party decree was preceded by a meeting of 70 composers with Andrei Zhdanov and other leaders of the party Central Committee in mid-January.

At this meeting, Zhdanov severely criticized the "small oligarchy of Soviet composers who, together with their arms bearers, the sycophantic critics," had gained control of Soviet music. He said these composers blocked younger composers not belonging to their school and acted as a brake on progress.

FINNS REST IN MOSCOW

Treaty Delegates to Be Guests at Molotov Reception Today

MOSCOW, March 29 (AP)—Premier Mauno Pekkala of Finland and Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov had no meeting scheduled today for discussion of a proposed friendship and military treaty, a member of the Finnish delegation said.

Beyond this bare statement, there was no official news on the activities of the Finnish delegation.

[In Helsinki President Juho K. Paasikivi and his top advisers were reported to have met, apparently to consider a detailed Soviet proposal for the pact.]

Mr. Molotov will give a reception for the Finnish delegation tomorrow night. On Wednesday night, the Finnish Minister in Moscow will give a reception for Mr. Pekkala to which Mr. Molotov and other Russian officials have been invited.

Pravda Sees Military Emphasis

MOSCOW, March 29 (AP)—Pravda said today that the Pan-American conference in Bogota would see "the most far-reaching attempt yet made by the United States to strengthen its economic, political and military control over the countries of Latin America."

The paper, in a two-column article, said the conference would concentrate mainly on military questions, including discussions of a military organization of the Western Hemisphere.

Pravda Hits Negligent Fathers

MOSCOW, March 29 (AP)—Pravda demanded today that something be done about Russian fathers who abandon their children without support. The paper, organ of the Communist party, said mothers in such cases sometimes had great difficulty in getting action, occasionally encountering "bureaucracy" which cause them great expense in pursuit of their delinquent spouses.

Greek Rebels Beaten In Battle In Epirus

Athens, March 29 (AP)—Guerrilla forces suffered defeat in a ten-hour battle with Greek troops near Kastaniani in Epirus, close to the Albanian border, Greek press reports said today.

The dispatches said 25 dead guerrillas were found on the battlefield, while more than 100 dead and wounded were taken into Albania.

Vice Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, commander of United States naval forces in the Mediterranean, is expected to arrive tomorrow at Piraeus, Athens's port, aboard the cruiser Rochester, the United States naval attaché announced. The cruiser Dayton will escort the Rochester. Other American warships are expected later in the week.

CHIANG DENIES REBELS' CLAIM

Insurgents Told To Yield Seats In Party Row

Nanking, March 29 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek told a dissident group of his party today they must surrender their seats in the Chinese National Assembly because "I have made my decisions and as national leader they cannot be changed."

The insurgents reported that only three of their number accepted Chiang's offer of "high positions" equal to assemblyman, and that 51 voted to appeal to Chinese and American public opinion to support their election claims.

Ten others who went on a sit-down-hunger strike in the Assembly auditorium were removed by police and confined to a hotel.

Election Started Row

The Assembly, meanwhile, opened without a quorum, and was marking time in the hope that additional members would arrive. The only task at this, its first session, is to elect China's first constitutional president and vice president.

The violent controversy over seating began last November, when assemblymen were chosen in China's first national election.

The Kuomintang (the Government party) promised several hundred of the 3,045 seats to members of the minority Young China and Democratic Socialist parties as the price of joining a Government coalition.

However, up to 700 Kuomintang members ran as write-in candidates, in districts where the Kuomintang had promised the minorities there would be no opposition. These Kuomintang insurgents now are claiming election.

Asked "Gently" To Withdraw

Government spokesmen have conceded that possibly 400 of them were actually elected, but only about 100 are making a fight of it.

Chiang Kai-shek previously had asked them "gently" to withdraw for the good of the Government, but they refused. He met with 54 of them again today in a sharp-spoken session.

Despite the unresolved row, Chiang is a virtually unanimous choice for the presidency, which he already holds.

Leading vice presidential candidates are the incumbent Sun Fo, Generals Li Tsung-jen and Cheng Chien, and the elderly Yu Yu-jen, at present head of the Control Yuan.

[The Chinese news service, an agency of the Chinese Government in the United States, has distributed favorable comment on Sun's candidacy, a possible tip to election results.]

Nanking Reports Troops Chasing Mongolia Reds

PEIPING, March 29 (AP).—Chinese government troops today were reported pursuing and attempting to engage Communists who launched an abortive offensive in Inner Mongolia nine days ago.

The official Central News Agency said the Nationalists had recaptured Yuhsien, 100 miles west of Peiping. Tatung, 229 miles northwest of Peiping by rail, reported skirmishes outside its walls, but said the main Communist siege forces were withdrawing.

Dispatches from Manchuria said there was a continuing two-day fight at the Changchun Airfield and another clash near Liaoyang, thirty-five miles south of Mukden. The Nationalists said 1,000 Communists were killed in the latter. Government forces also were credited with widening their new overland corridor from China to Mukden.

In Northwest China, the Communists were said to have renewed their attacks on Linfen, railway town in southern Shansi Province, 150 miles south of Taiyuan.

Student Rally Barred

PEIPING, March 29 (AP).—Police today barred approaches to Peiping National University in a move against a feared student demonstration. Delegates from various universities had planned to meet there to protest dissolution of student unions on the ground they were being used by Communists to create disorder. Authorities said the meeting might result in an anti-government march through Peiping.

Missionaries Call For Help

Peiping, Tuesday, March 30 (AP)—Twenty-five missionaries in communist besieged Tatung sent urgent appeals for help today. A plane was chartered here to evacuate them.

Private reports said the situation around Tatung, 150 miles west of here, was quiet but a big battle was likely in a few days. Earlier dispatches had indicated communists were withdrawing from that sector.

There are four Anglican missionaries in Tatung (all British) and 21 Catholics (ten Belgians, three Dutch, two Germans and six Chinese).

Japanese Strike Ban Is Invoked By M'Arthur

Tokyo, March 29 (AP)—General MacArthur invoked a general ban today to halt rapidly spreading walkouts by Japanese Government workers.

He specifically instructed Japanese officials to prevent a threatened strike by an estimated 400,000 communications employés. They spearheaded a quit-work movement by nearly 1,000,000 Government workers.

Maj. Gen. W. F. Marquat, chief of MacArthur's economic and scientific section, declared in a memorandum that the threatened nationwide communications strike, set for Wednesday, would have a "drastically unfavorable impact upon the economic recovery and public welfare" of the nation.

Subject To 1947 Ban

The strike, said Marquat, is subject to provisions of MacArthur's January 31, 1947 ban which prevented a similar planned general strike.

Marquat's memorandum did not mention employés other than communications. All Government workers have been demanding increased cost-of-living bonuses. Officials predicted that if the communications walkout folded the others would stay on the job.

Some workers were due to lay off today. Indicating possible internal friction, and 3,000 of 5,000 communications workers in Ibaragi prefecture obeyed strike orders prior to today's ban.

Streetcar and bus operators in Tokyo have been on stike three days.

One Incident Reported

The communications dispute brought one anti-occupation incident. Toshio Yamaguchi, an official of the communications workers' union, was arrested by American authorities for refusing to restore Tokyo-Osaka telephone circuits.

Workers had broken the circuit used by BCON, the British occupation forces newspaper.

The Government has been unable to handle the labor trouble. The dispute has brought charges that Communist-influenced union leaders were seeking to overthrow the Japanese Government.

Japanese labor and Government officials will meet with MacArthur's aides tonight in an attempt to settle the communications dispute.

Some communications workers are on "regional" strikes—24-hour walkouts affecting only certain areas. Some 150,000 are idle in the Tokyo, Sendai and Niigata districts and on Hokkaido Island. The union has not indicated how long the proposed nation-wide strike—against which the Marquat memorandum is directed—would last.

Union Rejects Proposals

A special wage arbitration committee, studying the union's demand for higher pay, recommended a job-classification system with rates of pay based on workers' skill and training. It suggested that they be paid by the hour instead of by the month.

The union refused to accept these proposals. The Government approved the committee's report.

The Government cracked down on the tax collectors' union as members went on an eight-day vacation strike. Four union leaders lost their public jobs; sixteen others were given a one per cent wage cut for six months.

The Government ruled that its clerical workers had no right to strike.

Japanese Defendant in Hospital

TOKYO, Tuesday, March 30 (AP)—A major Japanese war crimes defendant, former Gen. Yoshiro Umezu, underwent a cancer operation today. The United States Army's 49th General Hospital reported his condition good. He has been absent from the prisoners' dock in the international court for nearly a month. The trial of the twenty-five defendants continued meanwhile, with the defense arguing today in behalf of former Finance Minister Okinori Kaya.

Russians, North Koreans Dig Trenches Near U.S. Zone Line

Roy Roberts

United States Outpost 18, On 38th Parallel, Korea, March 29 (AP). Russian soldiers and North Koreans are digging trenches and gun emplacements almost solidly on their side of this line which divides the Soviet and American occupation zones.

The earthworks are so close to the line that one could almost toss rocks into them from the American side.

At least two North Korean villages have been moved from near the line to points much farther north.

No guns are visible in the works, but at least one contains a bipod mount large enough for an 81-millimeter mortar.

Election Call Seen As Clue

American authorities say they do not know why the Russians are pushing the diggings, which were first observed early in March.

[A clue may be that on March 1 the Americans called an election for May 9 to decide on a Government in South Korea.

[At the same time, a Russian-sponsored government is being formed in North Korea with the avowed aim of ruling the entire country.

[Korea, freed by the Japanese surrender, has been divided ever since by inability of the United States and Russia to agree even on how to go about giving it a unified government.]

American officers believe the earthworks my be intended by the Russians to justify their statements to North Koreans that Americans and South Koreans are planning an attack.

World War I Type Of Work

There is no comparable activity in the American zone, where the only defense work has been the sandbagging of some Korean police stations near the border The sandbagging followed threats of attack from North Korea which never seriously materialized.

The work the Russians are pushing is of World War I type.

Most digging is done by Koreans supervised by Soviet enlisted men, but the Russians frequently help. Americans who have watched for sometime say the Koreans slow down noticeably whenver the Russians stroll off.

Some work has been done at night, with branches for daytime camouflage. Recently it has been done openly by day, in plain view of American outposts. The Koreans march to work, two or three abreast, carrying flags and singing.

Turret Tops Cover Holes

Today, at this outpost north of Yangmun Ni, Americans watched through field glasses as 30 to 40 Koreans started a trench on a hill 2,000 yards from the line. Fifty yards long, it commands a large concrete bridge.

The Koreans dug steadily, eyed by a couple of Soviet soldiers. By midafternoon the trench was waist deep. At the rate they were going, they probably will have dug themselves out of sight by tomorrow.

Some trenches already dug appear to be 6 feet deep, linked by shallower communications trenches. Holes 10 feet in diameter are covered with turret tops that have a slit open to the south.

Soviet Soldiers Fortify North Korea Line

Roy Roberts, Associated Press correspondent in Seoul, Korea, who on Friday reported Soviet-sponsored North Koreans repeatedly broadcast invitations to South Koreans to take part in setting up a Russian-controlled Korean Government, today visited the boundary between the United States and Soviet occupation zones. This is what he found.

By Roy Roberts

Thirty-eighth Parallel Outpost, Korea, March 29 (AP)—Soviet soldiers and North Korean villagers are digging trenches, foxholes and gun emplacements along the thirty-eighth parallel dividing the Soviet and American occupation zones of Korea.

Americans don't know why. They assume the Soviets ordered the World War I type of defensive line to justify Russian statements to North Koreans—reported by travelers from the north—that Americans and South Koreans plan to attack North Korea.

The digging was first observed by American patrols early this month. They presumed the first few undertakings were irrigation ditches. The activity stepped up sharply about March 9; the nature of the work became clear. One and two man foxholes appeared.

Gun Emplacements

The ditches became trenches 6 feet deep. Sometimes they were connected by communications trenches 2½ feet deep. Holes 10 feet in diameter were dug and given turret tops with openings for guns pointed south. No weapons were observed, but at least one emplacement contains a bipod mount as large as that for an American 81-millimeter mortar.

United States intelligence reports indicate the work is concentrated in five valleys containing the main travel routes between North and South Korea.

The trenches command a road in each valley and railroad lines in three. More than 32 trenches 30 to 50 feet long were counted along the invisible geographical line Saturday. Three or four new ones are observed daily.

The work was first noted on the Onjin Peninsula on the western extremity. It spread eastward, valley by valley. The Onjin Peninsula is entrenched almost solidly its entire width. The trenches there are so close to the parallel that one can toss rocks into them from the American zone.

Threats From North

There is no comparable activity in the American zone. The only defense work in South Korea is the sandbagging of Korean police stations in a few villages, several thousand yards south of 38. This was done after threats of attack came from North Koreans, but were never carried out in large scale.

The northern work was done mainly by Koreans supervised by Soviet enlisted men. Frequently the Soviets get in and dig, too. Sometimes the Koreans march to work two or three abreast from their little villages, singing and carrying flags.

Some work done by night was camouflaged with branches by day.

Recently diggers began toiling openly, in plain view of American outposts.

American Observers

From this outpost, north of Yangmun Ni and less than 100 yards from the parallel, Americans today watched through field glasses. They saw between 30 and 40 Koreans in traditional white garb start a trench about 50 yards long. It was on the face of a hill about 2,000 yards away overlooking a large concrete bridge.

They stood shoulder to shoulder at the start of the job. As the trench deepened, fewer could work and they apparently labored by turns. One or two Soviet soldiers bossed the job. By midafternoon the trench was waist deep. If it is decided to make it deeper, one of the Koreans probably will dig himself out of sight tomorrow.

American outpost personnel who keep tab on the doings constantly through field glasses said the Koreans slow down noticeably when the Soviets leave the scene momentarily.

A larger hill west of one with new digging contains three trenches, one above the other, overlooking the road below and squarely facing the American outpost. These apparently are completed.

Two entire small villages on the Onjin Peninsula recently were moved bodily from locations almost on the border to positions considerably north. Travelers reported the villagers complained of too much interference from other Koreans in their farming and normal daily life.

It's a simple matter to move a Korean village. Just knock out mud walls, load the wooden corner uprights on an oxcart and haul it

Trench-Digging Seen As Propaganda Action

Washington, March 29 (AP)—American diplomatic officials said today propaganda was the Russians' most likely purpose in digging foxholes and trenches along the northern boundary of the American occupation zone in Korea.

The Soviet-controlled radio has been telling the Koreans that American forces and South Korean Righists were building up a military threat to the Soviet zone.

The Russian and Soviet-backed forces in the northern zone actually are substantially stronger by American officials' estimates. Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, told a congressional committee this month that United States occupation forces under Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge has been reduced to fewer than 20,000 men. The Russian occupation forces are estimated at between 40,000 to 55,000. Supporting them is a pro-Communist Korean force estimated as high as 150,000.

30.24- 16601

In the American zone, a constabulary of some 25,000 Koreans has been trained and an additional 25,000 are due to be trained this summer to keep order when American troops ultimately are pulled out.

Old Land Mine Kills Boy, 8, In Manila

Manila, March 29 (AP)—An old United States land mine exploded today, killing the 8-year-old son of an American Air Force sergeant. Three girl playmates were injured, one critically.

The blast, on the Clark Field airbase, was caused by a land mine planted by retreating American forces in December, 1941, to slow the Japanese.

Twenty-two Filipinos were killed Saturday on Corregidor when they entered a sealed tunnel and touched off a Japanese booby trap. They were members of a Phillippines Army bomb-disposal unit.

Thirteenth Air Force headquarters withheld names of the young victims of the Clark Field tragedy. The mine, a buried fragmentation bomb, had been overlooked by both Japanese and American disposal squads.

FILIPINOS IN MUTINY

Three Constabulary Officers Killed in Barracks Revolt

MANILA, Tuesday, March 30 (AP)—Philippine constabulary men mutinied and killed three officers with machine guns, in barracks twenty-three miles south of Manila, The Manila Times said today.

A sergeant who attempted to halt the mutineers was seriously injured, the paper reported. Constabulary reinforcements later surrounded the barracks and persuaded the mutineers to surrender.

Constabulary officers described the incident as one of the most serious since the organization was first established in 1906.

The newspaper's report said that enlisted men of a company at Naic, Cavite Province, were angered at their officers over "a slapping incident." While the officers were away on patrol, their killing wa splotted.

The victims were Capt. Osmundo Comigo, commanding officer of the 26th Constabulary Company, and two of his lieutenants.

British Admiral in Manila

MANILA, Tuesday, March 30 (AP)—Admiral Sir Denis Boyd, commander in chief of the British Pacific Fleet, arrived this morning aboard the flagship HMS London for a courtesy visit. Tomorro whe will confer the Order of the British Empire upon Maj. Gen. Eugene L. Eubank, commander of the United States 13th Air Force, for meritorious service as commander of an American air unit in Britain.

Bombs Hit Near School In Jaffa; No One Hurt

Jerusalem, March 29 (AP)—Police said three bombs, apparently dropped from a plane, landed today near a Greek Orthodox school in Jaffa. Near-by buildings were reported damaged slightly but no one was hurt.

About 100 persons were killed and 200 injured throughout Palestine during the week end. The deaths raised to 2,206 the unofficial toll in fighting since the United Nations voted four months ago for partition.

A Jewish Agency spokesman indicated to a news conference that there is "some move in religious circles to suggest a truce for Jerusalem."

Archbishop Reports Appeal

The spokesman welcomed a reported appeal by Dr. Cyrill Garbett, Archbishop of York, to the United Nations to "take at once steps necessary to save Jerusalem from destruction" in Arab-Jewish combat.

"We would also welcome any move on the part of the Arabs for preserving the peace of Jerusalem and we would not care from which sources these moves came as long as we can absolutely reply on them," the Jewish Agency spokesman said.

The charred bodies of seven unidentified Jews were recovered from the wreckage of a burned-out armored car near Mughar village, in the coastal plain. Police stated earlier that a party of Jews attacked the village with automatic weapons and grenades. The villagers returned the fire. The armored car was blown up.

737 Immigrants Caught

An official announcement said 737 Jews without immigration certificates were intercepted aboard the schooner Yehiam by the British last night off Haifa. They left this morning for internment camps on Cyprus.

Official reports showed at least 68 persons slain yesterday, but unofficial sources reported a much higher toll. The Jewish militia Haganah tallied 300 Arab casualties. Arabs spoke of heavy Jewish los

One Jewish motor convoy was wiped out and another convoy was forced to surrender its arms in two widely separated attacks.

42 In Convoy Slain

A British official statement said 42 Jews were slain and their convoy of five vehicles burned in an ambush by 250 Arabs near the Lebanese border. It reported six Arabs killed.

The attack took place at El Kabri, inland from coastal Nahariya. Nahariya is halfway between Acre and the border. British Royal Artillery fired twelve rounds of 25-pounder shells before driving the Arabs from their hill entrenchments, the statement said.

The second convoy battle, south of Bethlehem, ended yesterday. Nearly 200 Jews gave up their arms and equipment to the Arabs in return for safe conduct to Jerusalem with British escort. British officers arranged the truce.

Sporadic Fighting Takes 16 Lives In Palestine

Jerusalem, March 29 (AP)—Sporadic Jewish-Arab fighting claimed sixteen more lives in Palestine today but the pace slackened after the heavy week-end battles in which 100 were killed and more than 200 wounded.

The bodies of seven Jews, one a girl, were removed from the wreckage of a burned armored car near an Arab village on the coastal plain. The car apparently was blown up after an attack on the village by Haganah, the Jewish army.

Police discovered the bodies of four more Jews at El Kabri village near Nahariya on the northern Palestine coast, bringing the death toll in the Arab attack that wiped out a Jewish convoy there to 46.

Shells Near School

Three explosives which fell near a Greek Orthodox school in Jaffa today were mortar shells and not bombs dropped from a plane, police said. The original police report said the explosives were believed to have been bombs dropped by a plane. Buildings near the school suffered some damage.

The new deaths today brought to 2,208 the unofficial death toll since the decision of the United Nations November 29 to partition Palestine.

A British statement said twenty armed Jews seized two ten-ton army trucks carrying twenty tons of flour near Petah Tiqva on the Tel Aviv-Haifa road. Weapons and uniforms of British soldiers in the trucks were also taken.

Guns were silent in Jerusalem during the day.

The last few women and children remaining in the battered Jewish district of Montefiore in Jerusalem were moved out. Most of the families left in January, turning over the quarters to Haganah troops.

Tel Aviv snipers killed two Arabs in Jaffa streets, and a Jew and Arab were killed in the Lydda district. A Jew and an Arab were slain in the Tel Aviv-Jaffa borderland area.

Welcomes Archbishop's Plea

A Jewish Agency spokesman said at a press conference that he welcomed the reported appeal to the United Nations by Dr. Cyrill Garbett, Archbishop of York, to save Jerusalem from destruction.

"We would also welcome any move on the part of the Arabs for preserving the peace of Jerusalem, and we would not care from which sources these moves came as long as we can absolutely rely on them," the spokesman said.

In Haifa 737 Jews were deported to detention camps on Cyprus. They were aboard the refugee vessel Yehiam which was intercepted by the British Navy last night.

Chilean Paper Predicts Falkland Settlement

Santiago, Chile, March 29 (AP)—The newspaper La Hora said today the British-Argentine dispute over ownership of the Falkland Islands would be settled by a food-for-territory trade.

The dispatch was from La Hora's correspondent in Mendoza, Argentina. He did not say where he obtained his information.

[Government sources in Buenos Aires said they knew nothing of such a plan. They added that no Argentine official of Cabinet rank had been in Mendoza lately.]

public today, was addressed to the Russian Embassy. It said that vast Soviet propaganda which pictures Iran as "being changed to a military base against Russia is absolutely without foundation."

Despite repeated explanations, the note said, persons related to the Soviet Government have continued to circulate unfriendly views regarding the position of United States military advisors here and Iran's policy in connection with northern Iranian oil deposits.

The note denied that Americans are trying to get hold of the northern oil. Employment of foreign advisers, it said, continues Iran's traditional policy of safeguarding her own interests. The note added:

"As repeatedly mentioned to the Soviet Government's authorities both in Moscow and in Tehran, the Iranian Government again strongly assures that there is no enmity in Iran toward our great neighbor and ally, the Soviet Union, and it has always been our wish to maintain good neighborly relations with her.

"But as it is practiced by all countries, including the Soviet Union, good neighborly relations should be observed by both parties."

The Iranian Government's aim, the note said, "is to follow sincerely and openl ythe United Nations charter" and to maintain good relations with all governments.

Iranian political circles said they regarded the note as a blunt, courageous statement by a small nation to a great power. The note was sent to the Soviet Embassy Thursday. It was dispatched two days before Iranian officials received Russian accusations that the Iranian government was lying about the activities o fthe United States military advisors here.

Delhi Police Raid Red Headquarters

New Delhi, March 29 (A. P.).—Police raided the Delhi headquarters of the Communist party and offices of the Communist dominated All-India Trade Union today. A police spokesman said no one was arrested. He declined to give details.

Japanese Spindles for India.

New Delhi, March 29 (A. P.).—Negotiati have been completed betwe Japan and India for the exch of 100,000 Japanese spindles for 30,000 tons of Indian coking coal, it was officially announced today.

Egypt to Raise Share in World Bank

Cairo, March 29 (A. P.).—The Egyptian Senate approved today a bill raising Egypt's share in the world monetary fund from $45,000,000 to $60,000,000 and her share in the International Bank from $40,000,000 to $53,300,000. The bill was approved by the Chamber of Deputies March 24.

One Dead In Strike At Burma Oil Firm

Rangoon, March 29 (AP)—One man was killed yesterday when police forcibly removed strike pickets outside gasoline storage depots.

A policeman was stabbed and several pickets were injured. Authorities detained about 300 demonstrators, mostly Indians.

Ten Communists Held On Espionage Charges

Rio de Janeiro, March 29 (AP)—A high police source said today federal police have arrested ten foreign Communists on charges of espionage and Communist sabotage.

Those arrested were listed as five Russians, one Argentine, two Poles, one Estonian and one Lithuanian. They were reported to have been working with the Slavic Union Agency, which ostensibly helps Slav immigrants in Brazil.

BOGOTA PARLEY TO OPEN TODAY

Antagonistic Red Posters Fail to Dim Warm Welcome for Marshall.

BOGOTA, Colombia, March 29—(AP) Communist posters depicting George C. Marshall as a Nazi greeted the U. S. secretary of state today when he arrived to take part in the Inter-American Conference.

The 21-nation conference faces the issues of communism and European colonialism in the western hemisphere after its official opening tomorrow afternoon.

Despite the posters, Marshall and Secretary of Commerce W. Averell Harriman received a warm welcome upon their arrival at Techo airport. The large United States delegation is nearly complete.

One set of communist posters read "Heil Marshall" and was decorated with Nazi swastikas.

The delegates presented their credentials to President Mariano Ospina Perez of Colombia, who will deliver the welcoming address tomorrow.

A crowd of 5,000 gave Marshall an ovation at the airport. Other thousands cheered him on his way to the city. He said:

"I have never been here before. It is quite a treat. I am glad to be here. I am much impressed and flattered by the reception given me."

"Heil Marshall," Poster Says

One set of Communist posters read "Heil Marshall," and was decorated with Nazi swastikas.

Hundreds of soldiers and special police flanked Carrera Septima—Bogota's main street—as the delegates arrived at and left the presidential palace. Officials said they feared a possible Communist demonstration.

There was no disorder, however, despite the cheering thousands.

Three Basic Projects

After the official opening, the delegates will go to work on three basic projects calling for:

1. Reorganization of the inter-American system into a strong regional bloc within the framework of the United Nations.

2. Establishment of a program of economic aid for Latin America.

3. Enactment of a pact providing for the peaceful solution of differences between the American republics.

Marshall Plan Stirs Alarm

Although differences are expected to arise over details, the American republics seem unanimous in the view that a stronger regional system is imperative in view of present world conditions.

Latin American nations have expressed particular interest in the economic phases of the conference. They fear the Marshall plan for European recovery may cause the United States to postpone financial and technological assistance to them.

Chile, Paraguay and Cuba have expressed an interest in having the conference take a stand against communist encroachment in the Western Hemisphere. There is no guarantee, however, that the delegates are going to agree on the subject. Some believe it is preferable to have each nation settle the communist question according to its own methods.

Divergent opinions also have been expressed on the colonies of foreign powers in the Americas. Provisional President Romulo Betancourt, chief Venezuelan delegate, said his nation would demand that all such colonies be given the opportunity to free themselves by means of plebiscites.

Guatemala has renewed her 100-year-old claim to British Honduras. Argentina and Chile are disputing with Britain over claims to a portion of the Antarctic. Argentina challenges Britain in the Falkland Islands.

Brazil To Continue Policy

Joao Neves de Fontoura, chief delegate from Brazil, said his country would not provoke debate on communism since it was not on the conference agenda. But he added:

"If the matter is bought up by some other delegation, Brazil will take a position consistent with its internal policy on Communism, which culminated in a break of diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia."

He said his country would offer amendments to the inter-American charter to set up a special tribunal to safeguard human rights, prohibit any nation from using political or economic pressure and provide compulsory arbitration in disputes between the American nations.

Loan Bank To Be Proposed

A source close to Mexican Foreign Secretary Torres Bodet said today Mexico will propose to the conference that a special bank be set up to make loans to American nations as one of several proposals to help Latin-American nations improve their economic conditions.

The proposed bank would be set up with funds provided by the American nations themselves, although the bulk of the capital would be expected to come from the United States.

One United States official said it was unlikely that the conference would approve the bank. This official said United States policy was to let the Export-Import Bank and International Bank take care of Latin-American needs.

Latin American Unions Invite Foreign Capital

MEXICO CITY, March 29 (AP).—The Latin-American Confederation of Labor (C. T. A. L.) which leans strongly to the Left, wants foreign capitalists to invest in Latin America with qualifications.

The third general congress, with representatives of seventeen Latin countries, voted last night that foreign holdings should not exceed 50 per cent in any company. The resolution also asked equal pay and treatment for nationals and foreigners among company employees, and suggested that pay rolls include a minimum of 80 per cent nationals.

Vicente Lombardo Toledano, who founded the C. T. A. L. ten years ago, was re-elected its president for another three-year term. The congress also named a hemispheric committee of fourteen members to aid in administrative work. The committee will meet in 1949, the place and date being left open.

The foreign investment resolution said: "While not opposed to investment of foreign capital, the congress representing seventeen nations is opposed to such investments in public services or industries vital to national defense. . . . Investments should be controlled so that they do not damage established national industries or tend to exhaust natural resources.

The congress during its closing session also called for expropriation of agricultural land held by the Church, large landowners and foreign corporations. Included in a seven-point program for the new year are recognition of the right to form trade unions and the right to strike, higher wages, price control, social legislation, guaranteed rights of assembly, land reform, creation of independent national industries and "the right of all people to live in peace as a first condition of liberty and progress."

'Greeks Had A Wallace' In Alcibiades: Truman

President Refers To 'Demagogue,' Hints Critic 'Ought To Go To Land He Loves'

Washington, March 29 (AP)—President Truman suggested by implication tonight that Henry Wallace "ought to go to the country he loves so well."

Speaking before a banquet of Greek Americans the President asserted that the "Greeks had a Henry Wallace" in Alcibiades, whom he called "the greatest demagogue of all times."

The President spoke after Dean Alfange, of New York, the toastmaster, had said that Wallace, the third-party candidate, and his followers ought to go to the Rocky Mountains "in the role of the Greek guerrillas."

Might Be "Recognized"

Alfange added that Stalin might recognize Wallace in that instance "as the leader of the free government of the United States."

Mr. Truman began by saying.

"The Dean has stolen my thunder. I was going to tell you that the Greeks had a Henry Wallace."

The President then referred to Alcibiades, and added:

"If the imitators of that ancient Greek conqueror want to see its (the United States) liberties subverted, I suggest that they go not to the Rocky Mountains—that's fine country out there—he ought to go to the country he loves so well and help them against his own country, if that's the way he feels."

Address To Order Of Ahepa

The President addressed a gathering of approximately 1,000 Greek-Americans, members of the Order of Ahepa, who were celebrating the one hundred and twenty-seventh anniversary of Greek independence.

He recalled his message to Congress March 12, 1947, when he asked for aid for Greece and Turkey, and said that if the United States faltered in its leadership "we may endanger the peace of the world." He referred next to his address of March 17 of this year asking for a temporary revival of the draft, universal training and quick House passage of a European recovery program, then commented:

"This country has never asked for anything but peace and prosperity in the world for all peoples and for all countries.

"Have Never Shut Door"

"We have never shut the door against any country. We are willing to talk peace and international intercourse with any country in the world. But we will not stand idly by and see the liberties of the world debauched."

Mr. Truman said this country never wants war, "but there are certain things which are worse than war."

"One of them is slavery," he continued. "That's what we were faced with in 1940 and 1941. We are faced with almost exactly the same situation today."

President's Aide Denies 'Big 3' Talk Slated

Washington, March 29 (AP)—The White House said today that no "Big Three" meeting is in prospect and President Truman has no plans to leave the United States.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross made this assertion to a news conference. He had been asked about a report out of London that Mr. Truman, Soviet Generalissimo Stalin and British Prime Minister Attlee might meet in Berlin.

Ross said that beyond denying that a "Big Three" meeting is planned, he could not add to what Mr. Truman himself has said on numerous occasions.

Report Called Fantastic

Mr. Truman has said repeatedly that he would be glad to see Stalin and Attlee in the United States, but that he has no intention of leaving the country for any such conference.

A reporter told Ross there also is a report out of Turkey that President Truman might visit that country shortly.

Ross said the denial of that report "goes double or triple." He said it is fantastic.

Pepper Urges Parley

From time to time, various people have suggested that discords in Russian-American relations might be eased by a personal meeting of Mr. Truman and Premier Stalin.

One of the latest to voice it is Senator Pepper (D., Fla.) who proposed that Mr. Truman confront Stalin personally with a plan for peace "in a last dramatic effort to prevent the horror of another unspeakable war."

Haste On Draft Law Is Urged By Baruch

Washington, March 29 (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch today asked Congress for "action now" approving universal military training and a temporary draft. He said "the time for study is over."

The white-haired adviser to Presidents also urged a hold-in-reserve law permitting revival of wage and price controls if needed.

He told the Senate Armed Services Committee the proposed program to make America strong militarily would have a "tremendous impact" on the nation's economy and said it would "upset prices and living conditions."

But the United States, Baruch declared, must make itself strong to bring about "the stability in the world which lasting peace requires"; if it fails to muster all its resources for peace, there will be "no alternative but to mobilize for war in the future.

Inquires About Spending Limit

Senator Morse (R., Ore.) asked Baruch how much this country could spend on military preparedness "and still have a stable economy." Morse estimated the program probably will cost $5,000,000,000.

"I think we have about reached the limit," Baruch replied.

He said Congress ought to set up a "watch dog" committee to keep an eye on spending and its effect on price and living costs.

Baruch also urged that Congress pass a law now setting up the machinery for industrial mobilization, for use of factories and plants in time of emergency.

"If you wait, everybody hurries, the crisis is upon us and you get a piecemeal job," Baruch said.

"I would like to see enactment of legislation like we had at the end of the last war. I don't want to improve it. When you try to improve it you always pare it down."

Byrd Asks About Policy

Senator Byrd (D., Va.) remarked that "up to this date the American people don't know what the foreign policy of this Government is."

"I think that is right," Baruch agreed.

In reply to Byrd, Baruch said he did not care to elaborate.

Senator Saltonstall (R., Mass.) asked whether Congress wouldn't be making it "crystal clear" to Russia "where we stand" if military training and the draft were put into effect.

Baruch said that would not be enough; also needed are laws covering economic preparedness.

Hearings Ending This Week

Before Baruch spoke, Chairman Gurney (R., S.D.) declared that his Armed Services Committee must conclude hearings on the military phases of President Truman's stop-Russia program by the end of the week.

"We simply can't take any more time," Gurney said. "By this week end we will have the complete story and all shades of opinion."

Gurney's committee is considering:

1. Temporary revival of the wartime draft.
2. A permament program of universal military training.
3. Immediate expansion of the peacetime strength of the armed forces at a cost of $3,448,000,

Preparedness Plea

Baruch told the committee:

"So terrible are the destructive potentialities on modern instrumentalities of war, it is no longer good enough to punish an aggressor after he has begun a war. Preventing war requires buttressing our national security before the crisis is upon us. Never again do we dare permit our own lack of preparedness to encourage any potential aggressor into attacking this country or into overrunning other peaceful nations."

He said that "In whatever we undertake, we must be guided by the necessity of not wrecking ourselves, for that would defeat all we attempt."

He added:

"The greatest single necessity in the world today is for America to make up its mind where it stands, so that the other free peoples on earth know where to rally. Unless we come to a decision among ourselves, we invite a scattering of our friends and another war.

"Knowing where we stand, I believe, would make possible renewed endeavors to find some basis of settlement with the Soviet Union. It is my hope that an understanding with the Soviets may yet be attained. . . . We should continue striving for success in the peacemaking, even while guarding against possible failure. Only by standing guard do we gain time to continue seeking peace."

No Need For Fright

Baruch said that, although "the time for decision has come, there is no reason for panic or even fright. . . . The resources, economic, military and spiritual, which the free peoples of the world hold, are vastly superior to those which the totalitarians can command."

"We have but to mobilize enough of these resources and to apply them intelligently, vigorously and promptly to achieve the stability in the world which lasting peace requires," he added.

"For so-called moral or 'pacifist' reasons, some would deny the use of power, as being evil in itself," Baruch continued. "That is to invite war, even as it encouraged Hitler's war. Others will protest that the measures I have proposed depart from 'free enterprise' and are methods of the police state. . . .

Lists Choices

"The issue is one of law against force. Shall we use our power in support of rule by law, with all peoples free to choose how they are to govern themselves? Or shall force without law be permitted to dictate its slavish terms?

"Never was the democratic world in greater need of constructive leadership than today. That leadership can come only from this country, for we alone have the strength to give vigor and life to moral principles. Without power, those principles will be left to find their sad expression in protests by suicide."

Coined "Cold War" Phrase

It was Baruch who applied the term "cold war" last June to the growing tension between Russia and the Western powers. He then called for immediate enactment of a "work-or-fight" law to go into effect at once upon the outbreak of any new war. Such a law, he said, should permit the Government to draft men and women for farms and factories, as well as military service.

No one in the Government was talking publicly at that time of any impending crisis over the advance of communism, and Baruch himself said he saw no war with Russia "as an immediate threat."

In all some 60 witnesses, most of them U.M.T. foes, have asked to be heard by Gurney's committee this week.

Among them is Henry A. Wallace. He will testify tomorrow afternoon.

ARMY REVAMPS RULES ON PRESS

Correspondents Are Free to Criticize Its Personnel.

Washington, March 29 (A. P.).—Secretary of the Army Royall laid down a policy today that press and radio correspondents in Army-controlled areas are free to criticize the Army or individuals. He said, too, that no correspondent is to lose his standing in an Army-controlled area without the case coming to Washington for review.

Royall made public new regulations on accrediting overseas correspondents. They advise all overseas theater commanders that "unfavorable criticism of Army policies or of an individual or group of individuals will not be considered as a basis for disaccreditation."

The new regulations resulted from recent misunderstandings over the status and privileges of correspondents in overseas areas. Complaints have come especially from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's area in the Pacific.

The new circular, No. 78, March 23, states the "Army reserves the right to determine qualifications" of a writer or photographer or broadcaster seeking accreditation in military zones. The Army also reserves the right to disaccredit a correspondent, but Royall directed that all such cases be referred to him for final consideration.

In general, Royall said in a release that accompanied the circular, "disaccreditation will be based on personal misconduct of moral or criminal nature; violation of established journalistic codes and standards; violations of security regulations; membership in, close relationship with or adherence to subversive organizations or engagement in unauthorized activities."

Foes of 6 Billion Aid Bill Are Beaten in House Test

Measure Is Headed Toward Scheduled Passage Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, March 29—(AP) The $6,205,000,000 foreign aid bill hurdled its first house obstacle today and headed toward scheduled passage Wednesday.

Opponents were beaten in an attempt to throw out the whole bill and pass a substitute providing for a private system of relief for communist-resisting foreign nations.

Offered by Rep. Ralph Gwinn (R-NY) and defeated by a standing vote of 103 to 60, the substitute was the first amendment offered as the house launched three final days of debate.

It would have set up a world relief corporation operated by private organizations, with a $500,000,000 cash contribution from the United States as a starter. For military aid to foreign nations, it would have authorized an appropriation of $1,000,000,000.

Rankin Attacks Program

The vote came after Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) asserted that "if every man in this house voted his honest convictions," the entire foreign aid program would be killed.

Rankin said the nation could spend its money more wisely on air force expansion and atom bomb production than by "pouring it into the rat holes of Europe."

Earlier, Rep. Cox (D-Ga) said persons who are or were "Soviet sympathizers" might have a hand in administering the recovery program. Cox urged revisions to limit ERP personnel to "those who believe in and support our American system of society and government."

The vote on the Gwinn amendment made it clear that the foreign affairs committee, author of the omnibus aid measure, was in complete control in the house and would drive through, probably Wednesday, a bill substantially identical to the one the committee wrote more than a week ago.

The committee agreed at a morning session to back an amendment to tighten controls over exports to Russia. The amendment, to be offered probably tomorrow, would give the proposed foreign aid administrator power to block exports to Russia or Soviet satellites if he believes they are not in the interest of this country.

The committee reiterated its support of a provision allowing 200 American merchant ships to be chartered to countries receiving U. S. aid. The ships would haul the aid supplies.

Floor Fight Looms

But an amendment to knock out the ship charter provision is expected to start a floor fight.

The committee rejected a proposal to add to the bill $220,000,000 for economic help to Japan, Korea and the Ryukyu islands. Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) explained to reporters that the senate and the State department "aren't ready for it yet."

The committee already is on record for $5,300,000,000 for aid to Europe and $570,000,000 for China; $275,000,000 for Greece and Turkey, and $60,000,000 for the international children's aid fund.

Anticipating eventual enactment of the aid measure, the senate passed and sent to President Truman a house bill making available at once $55,000,000 in stop-gap aid to Europe. This money will be deducted eventually from funds to be appropriated for the aid program.

A separate bill carrying the actual cash is being readied by the house appropriations committee.

Tomorrow the senate, which has passed an aid bill limited to Europe, will tackle a separate measure for economic and military help for China. It already has passed a separate bill for aid to Greece and Turkey.

Congressional leaders hope to have all the aid bills before a senate-house conference by the end of this week. Out of that conference will emerge a compromise slated to be on President Truman's desk well in advance of the April 18 elections in which Italians will decide whether they want a communist form of government.

House Unit Approves Extra Export Curb

Washington, March 29 (AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee gave its backing today to a foreign-aid bill amendment to put extra controls on exports of strategic supplies to Russia.

Representative Mundt (R., S.D.) said the committee voted "overwhelmingly" to support his amendment t othe $6,205,000,000 bill giving the foreign administrator the right to veto any exports to Russia and her satellites when he considers it "in the national interest."

The committee acted shortly before the bill rolled into the showdown voting stage on the House floor.

Additional Protection

Although the Administration itself has clamped down on shipments of "war potentials" to Russia and other countries behind the iron curtain, Mundt and other congressmen have insisted that Congress provide additional protection.

His amendment still must be accepted by the House itself. Mundt said the vote on it may not take place until tomorrow.

The bill would use economic aid plus American military science in an effort to stem communism in Europe and Asia.

Passage is scheduled for Wednesday at the latest. It may come by tomorrow night. House leaders say the margin will be at least 3 to 1, with no more than 80 to 100 opposition votes.

"Reasonable Preparations"

Representative Albert J. Engel (R., Mich.) sized up worsening Soviet-American relations and said he had reached the conclusion that:

The United States must "make reasonable military preparations."

The prewar military power of friendly nations must be restored within five, ten or twenty years, he added, so that, "added to our own, it will spell defeat to any nation which dares to threaten the free government of an other nation."

Engel is chairman of an Appropriations subcommittee through which all funds for the armed services are funneled.

Military Funds

The only military aid in the bill is $275,000,000 for Greece and Turkey and $150,000,000 for China.

For sixteen western European nations, there is a $5,300,000,000 economy recovery program. And there is $420,000,000 in economic help for China.

But supporters of the bill insist that Europe can't gain military strength until it gains economic strength, that once the sixteen nations are sound and able to support themselves they can build up military power against the threat of communism to the East.

In a speech prepared for House delivery today, Engel said he had come to the decision that "our only chance for . . . immediate peace" is through restoration of the prewar economic and military power of countries that believe in free government.

He said economic power that can't be defended by military power is not lasting.

The only possibility of war within ten years is with Russia, he said, and:

"For America to win a war with Russia without European allies, European bases and European support approaches the impossible."

Other Help Urged

Also before the House Foreign Affairs Committee for the same purpose was an amendment by Representative Vorys (R., Ohio) to put in $220,000,000 for economic help to Japan, Korea and the Ryukyu Islands.

The measure then will have to go back to the Senate, which has already passed the European recovery section but which is considering Greek-Turkish and Chinese aid in separate bills.

However, prospects that the Senate too will authorize direct military as well as economic aid to help Nationalist China "stop" communism shot upward today.

Much of the thrust was provided by Senator Taft (R., Ohio). He announced that he would support a plan by Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) to earmark for military purposes $150,000,000 of the $463,000,000 now destined for China under a Senate foreign committee bill.

8 ERP PLANNERS HAVE RED TINGE, REP. COX CHARGES

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Rep. Cox (D-Ga) today named eight men who helped draft the Marshall Plan and who are or were, Cox said, sympathizers with communism or other leftwing movements.

The Georgian was urging in the house that only those "who believe in and support our American system of society and government" be allowed any part in running the proposed $6,205,000,000 foreign aid program.

Lasser Under Fire

Cox was joined by Rep. McDowell (R-Pa) in an attack on one of the eight, David Lasser, special labor consultant to Secretary of Commerce Harriman.

Lasser, Cox said, is listed 13 times in the files of the House Committee on UnAmerican Activities and once was barred by congress from the federal payroll.

McDowell, a member of the UnAmerican Activities Committee, told the house that Lasser formerly headed the Workers Alliance, which McDowell called a communist-front organization.

However, Rep. Eberharter (D-Pa) said Lasser has been "completely exonerated" of communist links.

And Rep. McCormack (D-Mass) told the house he made a careful investigation of Lasser in 1940 and 1941 and found him "fighting against communist control of an organization in the WPA."

Cox also named Herbert W. Parisius, commerce department official said by Rep. O'Konski (R-Wis) last week to have overruled subordinates and approved shipments of strategic materials to Russia.

Others He Accuses

Cox did not give the government status of the other Marshall Plan aides he listed. He gave this account of each:

Lewis S. Lorwin, Russian-born long-timed friend of Henry A. Wallace. Known as Louis Levitski "when he was kicked out of the University of Montana in 1919." Formerly active in the Institute of Pacific Relations which, Cox said, "published pro-Soviet propaganda."

Thomas Blaisdell, member of the Washington Committee for Democratic Action, an organization cited by former attorney general Francis Biddle as subversive.

Felix S. Cohen, a leader in the socialist league for industrial democracy and former instructor at the new school for social research.

Arthur E. Goldsmith admitted to the UnAmerican Activities Committee that he had been a member of the American League Against War and fascism, described as a communist front.

Kenneth Meiklejohn, head of the Washington Socialist Party for years.

Ralph Hetzel, cited three times by the UnAmerican Activities Committee for affiliation with communist fronts. Co-author of a pamphlet opposing the national defense program just before World War II.

Reinforcing Man On Job

Representative Ross Rizley (R., Okla.), committee chairman, sent two more investigators to the New York area to check the report. They will reinforce another committee investigator who has been on the scene since last week looking into reports that boxes and crates are lying "all over the New York water front" awaiting shipment to Russia.

Rizley said he has received "new leads on a tremendous lot of stuff" since his committee received testimony last week that United States warplane engines have been shipped to Russia and Poland within the last year.

Shipping Is Legal

Rizley emphasized that the shippers were not acting illegally and "had the authority to do it," but, he said:

"It looks like a lot of stuff got out of the country that the Department of Commerce didn't even know about."

One of the tasks assigned to the House investigators, he said, was to track down reports that holders of export licenses have sold them for fees and that the transferred licenses have been used to export mislabeled materials.

Tip That U.S. Tanks And Guns Were Sent Russ Is Probed

Washington, March 29 (AP)—Congressional investigators hurried to New York today to run down an anonymous tip that United States tanks and anti-aircraft guns have been shipped to Russia.

George Quinn, counsel for a House investigating committee, said the committee had received an unsigned letter from New York telling of the purported shipment.

The letter said the anti-aircraft weapons were boxed and labeled as machinery.

"I don't put too much stock in it," Quinn said, "but we are not overlooking any angles on the leakage of potential war materials from this country to Russia and her satellites."

PRESS, RADIO OFFER TO HELP FORRESTAL

Film Leaders Also Join in Move to Advise on Defense Secrets and Avoid Censorship

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Leading press, radio and motion picture representatives offered today to advise James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, on which kinds of military secrets they believed should remain secret.

They proposed that a Security Advisory Council be set up for this purpose, with members named by various publishing, broadcasting and movie organizations.

But they told Mr. Forrestal that they did not believe "any type of censorship in peacetime is workable or desirable in the public interest."

Mr. Forrestal, meeting with the group, said the declaration against censorship was in line with his own views. He said he would ask the various organizations to appoint representatives to meet with him frequently.

The defense head had asked the newspaper and other representatives at an earlier meeting last March 3 to advise him on preventing "information which might endanger the United States from being given to any potential enemy."

Need Stressed by Committee

A subcommittee headed by B. M. McKelway, editor of The Washington Star, prepared a resolution which was adopted unanimously today.

This resolution acknowledged a need for secrecy in scientific research and development of new weapons. It added:

"Protection of necessary military secrecy in such fields in a country rightfully jealous of its free and uncontrolled media of communications presents a problem in national security.

"We recognize the existence of such a problem.

"Its wise solution is the responsibility of the national military establishment. But it is shared to a degree by all media of public information. As representatives of such media, we have willingly assumed our proper part of that responsibility."

The resolution said the proposed Security Advisory Council should be "without the implication of censorship machinery in any form."

Top-Level Policy the Aim

What is needed, the subcommittee said in an accompanying report, was a clear-cut, top-level policy, applying to all branches of the defense system, on "the type of information in certain fields which should not be revealed."

"Such agreement on policy is obtainable only within the military establishment," the report said, "but the opinion and advice of representatives of communications media may prove helpful."

The advisory council would consist of a representative selected by the National Association of Magazine Publishers, the National Association of Broadcasters, one representative of three press associations, one representative of the radio networks, the American Society of Newspaper Editors, the American Book Publishers Council, Inc., the Motion Picture Association, the American Newspaper Publishers Association and the National Council of Business Paper Editors.

C. E. WILSON BACKS DRAFT, UMT PLANS

Seconds Baruch's Plea for Mobilization of Both Men, Industry.

WASHINGTON, March 29—(AP) Bernard M. Baruch said today this country should decide just what it is going to do in world affairs and back up its stand with the draft, universal military training and "a total plan for industrial and economic mobilization."

The financier's views were seconded by Charles E. Wilson, president of General Electric, who said the nation must mobilize both men and industries to meet "the crisis of this hour."

Wilson Urges Strong Army

Baruch and Wilson testified separately before the Senate Armed Services committee. Wilson, former vice-chairman of the War Production Board, endorsed both the draft and UMT. But the youth-training program can wait, he said, until:

1—We have "an army, navy and air force fully staffed with thoroughly trained personnel." Nothing else, Wilson said, "could be adequate at this stage of world events."

2—We back up our expanded armed forces by mobilization of industry, stockpiling of critical materials, and scientific research.

The white-haired Baruch, adviser to several presidents, called for "standby" laws—to be used if needed—to mobilize America's factories and to bring back wage and price controls.

We must mobilize for peace now, he said, or we will be forced to mobilize for war later.

30.24- 16605

Wilson said the "dramatic and drastic" turn of world events has "all but demolished our hopes for an early return to the normalcy of peace."

He said the national security resources board should be given virtual wartime powers to control the American economy if defense spending rises to $20,000,000,000 a year.

The present military budget for 1949 is $11,000,000,000. President Truman is preparing to ask congress for another $4,000,000,000 or so.

MAR 1949

Dig at Foreign Policy

In a dig, which he later underlined, at present American foreign policy, Baruch said:

"The greatest single necessity in the world today is for America to make up its mind where it stands, so that the other free peoples on earth will know where to rally.

x x x

"Knowing where we stand, I believe, would make possible renewed endeavors to find some basis of settlement with the Soviet Union."

The White House, at the same time, denied that a "big three" meeting of President Truman, Premier Stalin and Britain's Prime Minister Attlee is in prospect.

This was a throwdown of a London report that the three leaders might meet soon in Berlin.

It also appeared to dash cold water on yesterday's suggestion by Senator Pepper (D-Fla) that Mr. Truman to meet Stalin "in a last dramatic effort to prevent the horror of another unspeakable war."

White House Press Secretary Charles G. Ross, also commenting on a rumor that the president might visit Turkey, said Mr. Truman has no plans to leave the United States.

The president has said repeatedly that he would be glad to meet Stalin—in this country.

Baruch's call for mobilization for industry, as well as adoption of the draft and UMT, was echoed by Senator Brewster (R-Me), who asked the administration to submit a plan for mustering men and resources at once.

Britain's Gold Shipment Is $20,274,216 for Week

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP).—The Department of Commerce reported today that Britain shipped $20,274,216 worth of gold to this country in the week ended March 10.

Other major foreign shipments were $15,607,805 from Belgium and Luxembourg, and $24,576,509 from the Union of South Africa. Total gold imports for the week were $60,967,914.

The department said foreign-owned gold held in Federal Reserve banks totaled $3,725,941,635 on March 10.

U. S. Urged to Take Back Alaska Steamship Lines

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP).—Return of war-time operation of steamship lines to Alaska was recommended today by a member of the Maritime Commission.

Grenville Mellon told a House committee on Alaska transportation problems that this step should be taken because of military requirements. He said the service can be operated with the present lines acting as general agents for the government.

"We must recognize the importance of Alaska from a national viewpoint," Mr. Mellon said. "The government should accelerate fortification of this essential military outpost. . . . If an enemy foreign power threw us out of Alaska, it would be in a fine position to attack our industrial centers."

He said the Commission will submit to the committe within a week a plan for operation of the lines.

Generals Arriving For Bradley Talks

Washington, March 29 (AP)—Commanding generals of the six armies in the United States were arriving in Washington tonight for a four-day conference with Gen. Omar Bradley, army chief of staff.

This will be Bradley's first meeting with ranking commanders since he succeeded Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as chief of staff. Present, too, will be Gen. Jacob L. Devers, chief of the Army Field Forces, and Maj. Gen. Hobart R. Gay of the military district of Washington.

The commanding generals of the six armies are Gen. Courtney H. Hodges of the 1st Army; Lieut. Gen. Leonard T. Gerow, 2d Army; Lieut. Gen. Alvin C. Gillem of the 3d Army; Gen. Thomas T. Handy of the 4th Army; Lieut. Gen. Walton H. Walker of the 5th Army; and Gen. Mark W. Clark of the 6th Army.

The meetings will begin tomorrow morning in the Pentagon and will be closed. All varieties of military problems will be discussed.

CONSUL GETS PROTECTION

House Group Moves To Guard Bankhead At Post In Canada

Washington, March 29 (AP)—The House Committee on Un-American Activities moved today to protect John Bankhead, United States consul, from further attempts on his life at his post in Canada.

Bankhead was fired on twice last night as he drove to his home in Windsor, he reported. He said that he had earlier been sent poisoned liquor and poinsoned candy.

Cites Testimony He Gave

Representative (R., Pa.), in asking the Justice Department for special protection for Bankhead, said Bankhead had recently given an un-American Activities subcommittee secret and valuable testimony. The group has been investigating illegal entry to Communists and undesirable aliens from Canada.

"It seems more than just a coincidence that they (the attempts) occurred since he started testifying," McDowell said.

Cousin Of Actress

Bankhead has become known for hihs tight border restriction policy. He has attributed this to an effort to keep Communists from entering the United States by way of Detroit.

The consul is a nephew of the late Senator John Bankhead and of the late House Speaker William B. Bankhead. He is a cousin of Tallulah Bankhead, the actress.

U.S. WHEAT BUYING IN WEEK

7,315,683 Bushels Are Reported Taken for Shortage Areas

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The Department of Agriculture reported today that it bought 7,315,683 bushels of wheat last week for shortage areas abroad.

Flour purchases totaled 40,390,000 pounds—the equivalent of 82,671 bushels of wheat.

Purchases of grain products by the department since last July 1 have totaled 222,537,846 bushels of wheat; 51,646,051 bushels wheat equivalent of flour; 5,703,805 bushels of barley; 5,275,561 bushels of oats; 4,712,661 bushels of grain sorghums, and 912,460 bushels of rye.

McCloy to Visit South America

Washington, March 29 (A. P.).—John J. McCloy, president, and other World Bank officials will leave on April 1 for a tour of South America.

Their first stop will be April 2 at Bogota, Colombia.

McCloy's party has tentative plans to go later to Ecuador, Peru, Chile, Uruguay, Brazil and Venezuela.

The bank said McCloy's trip will be to acquaint himself with economic and development problems of the South American countries. He visited several European capitals last fall.

Slavs Charge U.S. Planes Cross Line

Washington, March 29 (AP)—Yugoslavia has complained to the United States that American planes crossed the Yugoslav border without authorization three times this year.

A State Department official said today that such a note came last week, written in mild terms.

The note said a four-engined American plane crossed the Italian-Yugoslav border January 30 and flew inland as far as Canale, 1½ miles from the frontier.

On March 2, Yugoslavia said, a two-engined plane twice crossed the border without permission, flying 1 kilometer within Yugoslavia, and over Miren, which is directly on the Italian border.

Press Officer Roger Tubby said an investigation was ordered but no reply had been made yet. He noted that the area involved has a winding boundary which cannot be determined from the air.

Baldwin Proposes Abolishing Veto Power in United Nations

MAR 1949

WASHINGTON, March 29—(AP) Senator Baldwin (R-Conn.) tonight proposed abolishing the veto power in the United Nations "where aggression is concerned."

Baldwin said in a speech broadcast over WTIC, Hartford, Conn.:

"If the United Nations is to function, as we have all hoped it would function, in maintaining the peace, it must be capable of acting to prevent aggression.

"The first and most important step that could be taken would be to abolish the veto power where aggression is concerned."

Baldwin said a group of senators is preparing a resolution recommending "certain specific steps" to "reestablish the prestige and influence" of UN. He did not give details.

A member of the Armed Services committee, Baldwin declared himself in favor of both universal military training and a temporary draft.

"It is a historical American belief," he said, "that each citizen share in the operation and the defense of his government.

"There is little difference between the principle of universal military training and militia training in the early days of our own state."

MRS. ROOSEVELT NOT QUITTING U.N.

Washington, March 29 (A. P.).—The White House said today that Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt has not resigned her United Nations post.

Charles G. Ross, presidential press secretary, was told there are published reports that Mrs. Roosevelt has sent in a letter of resignation. He replied that no letter of resignation has been received. Mrs. Roosevelt is chairman of the U. N. Commission on Human Rights and a delegate to the General Assembly.

The New York Herald Tribune quoted Mrs. Roosevelt last week end as saying she had offered to resign the U. N. post, but President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall "didn't want me to." She sailed Saturday on the Queen Elizabeth for London. She is to unveil a statue there of the late President.

TREASON CASE JURY-PICKING BEGINS TODAY

64 Of Panel Beg Off As Trial Of Robert Best Opens In Boston

Boston, March 29 (AP)—The treason trial of Robert H. Best, former American newsman accused of broadcasting for the Nazis during the last war, opened today. He tried unsuccessfully to get the panel of 175 prospective jurors tossed out.

Federal Court Judge Francis J. W. Ford denied Best's motion challenging the panel. The court then excused 64 prospective jurors after they paraded before the judge and pleaded to be released.

Selection of a jury of Massachusetts men who will try him on charges of "traitorously and treasonably" adhering to an enemy of the United States will get under way tomorrow.

Allowed To Direct Own Defense

Most of the afternoon was devoted to a conference with counsel in the judge's chambers.

Best, 51, and a native of Sumter, S.C., sat within the bar enclosure today with three associate attorneys. He was given permission to direct his own defense. He will be assisted by attorneys Charles Bartlett and Henry Leen, of Boston, and Maximillian St. George, of Chicago.

The court gave Best access to the Federal library and permitted him to leave the jail two days a week to consult law books.

Alleged Overt Acts Listed

The Government charges Best's work for the German radio included the preparation of commentaries, speeches, talks and announcements, and the recordings thereof for subsequent broadcast from Germany to the United States and elsewhere.

The alleged overt acts, the Government charges, were committed with "treasonable intent" and to give aid and comfort to the German Reich.

The maximum penalty for treason is death. It may be life imprisonment or as little as a $10,000 fine and a five-year prison term.

The trial is being held here because the plane bringing Best and Douglas Chandler from Europe to Washington was forced down in Wectover Field because of mechanical trouble.

Chandler, also commentator, was convicted of treason last June and is serving a life term.

DeValera Asks Nations To Guarantee Justice

Boston, March 29 (AP)—Mayor James M. Curley says that he will go to the Democratic National Convention and "introduce a resolution for the Democratic party platform calling for the end of partition in Ireland."

Curley made his statement as he presented a gold "key to the city" to former Prime Minister Eamon De Valera of Eire at a public reception to the Irish political leader at Boston Garden last night.

After hearing himself described by Gov. Robert F. Bradford as the "George Washington of Ireland," De Valera said that "if we want peace we must build up a system of nations whereby justice will be recognized."

"There is no doubt in my mind," he said, "that we are going to have another world war unless the nations of the world join in guaranteeing justice.

"We in Ireland are looking for such an organization."

FARLEY DOUBTS WAR

But Believes U. S. Should Be Strong Enough to Win

PHILADELPHIA, March 29 (AP)—James A. Farley, former Democratic National Chairman, said today: "I don't think there is going to be another war."

Speaking at the Inquirer's Book and Author Luncheon, Mr. Farley said, however, that America should be prepared to cope with any sudden crisis in world affairs.

"I think we ought to be prepared to knock them back on their heels if it becomes necessary," he declared.

Air Maneuvers Slated In Alaska

Manchester, N.H., March 29 (AP). The Army's 82d Fighter Group based here will leave for Alaska this week for what the Commander calls a "routine field training exercise."

Col. W. B. Offutt said: "I don't know what everyone is getting excited about. We go some place for a field exercise every year; this year it happens to be Alaska."

About 72 planes with 1,350 officers and men make up the 82d Fighter Group based at Grenier Field. In the group are the 95th, 96th and 97th fighter squadrons.

Colonel Offutt said "these field exercises are routine to give the men training in operating in a strange area in dealing with all types of problems."

He did not reveal the site of the temporary base in Alaska.

Barney Ross Joins Legion To Battle For Jewish State

New York, March 29 (AP)—Barney Ross, former world's champion boxer, announced today he had joined the George Washington Legion, an organization of Americans planning to go to Palestine to fight for a Hebrew republic there.

Ross, who held the lightweight, junior welterweight and welterweight titles during his fighting career, served as a Marine in the Pacific and won a Silver Star and presidential citation for his fighting record on Guadalcanal. He is 39.

His announcement was made at a news conference in the offices of the American League for a Free Palestine. He said he was ready "to leave immediately" if asked.

Major Samuel Weiser, who held that rank on the staff of Field Marshal Montgomery during the war, said the legion had recruited more than 1,000 members in the last "seven to ten days."

Weiser said the recruiting would be accompanied by a campaign to raise $8,000,000 to $10,000,000 to equip the men. He said he hoped to obtain enough volunteers to form a division of 15,000 to 20,000 men.

Taylor Bound For Rome On Mission For Truman

New York, March 29 (AP)—Myron C. Taylor, personal envoy of President Truman to the Vatican, left by plane today en route to Rome on what he termed a presidential mission.

Pressed for details, Taylor told reporters they would have to "ask the President."

Asked if he would be in Italy before the April 18 elections, Taylor said he planned to proceed there "promptly." He said he did not know how long he would be out of the country.

UN GROUP TO ACT IN PALESTINE CASE

Favors Creation of Provisional Jewish Government as 'Quickly as Possible.'

HAUCH

LAKE SUCCESS, March 29—(AP) The United Nations Palestine Commission decided tonight to proceed as rapidly as possible to create a provisional Jewish government in Palestine.

The decision was announced in a letter to Moshe Shertok, head of the political department of the Jewish Agency. A high UN official said the agreement was unanimous.

The five-member commission informed Shertok that it was obligated by the general assembly's resolution of last Nov. 29 to take all possible steps to implement the partition of Palestine. It said it intended to do so unless it received orders to the contrary from the security council.

Must Await Mandate End

The commission cautioned the Jewish Agency, however, that because of Britain's refusal to turn over authority in Palestine before May 15 the provisional government could exercise no authority before that date. In effect, the government would exist only on paper until Britain ended the mandate.

The Jewish Agency has asked the commission to approve a provisional council of government selected by the agency. The United Nations advised Shertok that a decision would be reached on this matter after consultations with all groups wishing to be heard.

A United Nations official said an overwhelming majority of the organizations consulted in Jewish areas of Palestine had agreed to representation through the agency. However, consultations are continuing.

Independence Proposal

The United Nations partition plan provides that provisional councils of government for the projected Jewish and Arab nations would be started April 1, 1948.

The two new countries would become independent next October 1, 1948. Some time between the two dates the provisional councils of government would be replaced by elected governments.

The Arabs, bitter foes of partition, have made no move to prepare a provisional government for the projected Arab nation.

To Present Call For Truce

The decision came a few hours after a spokesman for the United States delegation disclosed that Warren R. Austin, chief delegate, would go before the Security Council tomorrow to appeal for a truce in Palestine.

Austin said ten days ago he also would ask the Security Council to call a halt to the commission's efforts to partition the Holy Land. There was no indication, however, when such a proposal would be laid before the Council.

An American spokesman said tonight Austin would offer a formal cease-fire resolution. He also was expected to ask the Council to order a special session of the United Nations Assembly to consider the Holy Land problem.

No Word On Trusteeship

The American delegation still had no instructions to press immediately for United Nations acceptance of an interim trusteeship over Palestine. Some informants interpreted the absence of orders from Washington on this point as meaning that the United States planned to lay that part of its Palestine program before the Assembly later.

There was little if any optimism in the United Nations corridors that President Truman's truce proposal would succeed.

Three such moves already have failed.

In voting to partition Palestine, the Assembly last Nov. 29 attached a section appealing to all governments and all peoples to refrain from taking any action to hamper or delay the decision. Three weeks ago the Security Council adopted a resolution appealing to all governments and peoples to prevent or reduce Palestine disorders. Neither of these moves had any noticeable results.

Only last week Austin, speaking after big power private consultations, told the Security Council that efforts to put through a truce failed because of refusal of the Arabs and Jews to accept.

The Arabs hold there can be no truce unless partition is dropped; the Jews say there can be no truce unless partition is put through.

Details of the presidential truce proposal were not available here tonight. The current American position on partition is that it should be shelved in favor of an interim trusteeship. The United States adds that steps should be taken without prejudice to a final political decision, which might be partition.

ATOMIC CONFEREES WOULD JUNK REDS' CONTROL PROGRAM

Harrelson

LAKE SUCCESS, March 29. —(AP) A majority of the United Nations atomic conferees lined up today behind a move to toss out Russia's atomic control proposals.

The move was started by Britain, France, China and Canada in the 11-nation working committee of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission. They were quickly joined by the United States, Argentina, Colombia and Belgium.

Britain and the United States demanded an immediate vote, but they dropped their request when Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko asked for more time.

To Decide Issue Monday

The committee will decide the issue Monday. With eight of the 11 delegates already on record as favoring the four-power proposal, its approval appeared assured. Seven votes are needed for approval.

Thus it seemed that after 21 months of debate on the rival U. S. and Russian atomic control plans, the U.N. atomic delegates were ready to narrow the field down to the American proposals originally submitted June 14, 1946, by Bernard M. Baruch.

The U. S. plan calls for a tight system of international control to be put into effect by stages. Atomic bomb production would be prohibited only after adequate safeguards had been set up to make sure no country violated the control regulations.

Russia wants an immediate treaty outlawing all atomic bomb production and requiring that present stockpiles be destroyed. The Soviet plan also calls for a limited system of inspection to be put into effect after the outlawing of atomic bombs.

Appose Red Proposals

The four-power declaration, read by Richard Miles of Britain, declared the Soviet proposals were inadequate, unrealistic and misleading. The declaration also said the Soviet plan might help an aggressor nation.

"No useful purpose can be served by further discussion of these proposals in the working committee," the four powers said in a resolution.

Gromyko retorted that the authors of the resolution were approaching the problem like "accountants and clerks." He called the report "the work of bookkeepers trying to square their views with the United States."

The Soviet delegate tounced on the four-power move only briefly. Gromyko devoted most of his 38-minute speech to another bitter attack on the United States. He blamed the U. S. for failure of the United Nations to make progress on atomic control.

Gromyko was presiding over the meeting as this month's chairman of the Atomic Commission.

Holy Land Truce Thought U.S. Aim

Lake Success, March 29 (AP)—The United States has decided not to press for immediate action on trusteeship for Palestine, an American delegation spokesman said today.

The spokesman said Chief United States Delegate Warren R. Austin had been instructed by Washington to concentrate on efforts for a Jewish-Arab truce and to call a special Palestine session of the United Nations Assembly.

MAR 30 1948

Await Two Resolutions

Austin was reported ready to submit two resolutions to the Security Council tomorrow to formalize these two proposals.

The American spokesman said no decision had been taken as to when the trusteeship idea would be brought up. Some quarters believed the United States might wait and lay it before the Assembly instead of asking the Security Council to make recommendations.

The new truce proposal is designed to carry out President Truman's declaration of last Thursday. In view of earlier big-power failures to get such a truce, however, there was little hope here that any concrete results could be expected.

Clash Foreseen

Introduction of the American proposals was expected to be the signal for a bitter Soviet blast against the United States.

The two big powers have clashed on almost every other issue before the United Nations, but both had supported the Palestine partition plan until the United States reversed itself ten days ago.

So far, Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko has remained silent on the new United States plan for a special session of the General Assembly to consider replacing partition with United Nations trusteeship.

Expect Russian Blast

Security Council delegates, however, expect the Soviet delegate to deliver a bitter blast at the United States either tomorrow or later this week. Gromyko has given broad hints that Russia still backs partition.

The signal for the Soviet attack may be the introduction of an American resolution to formalize the United States plan for a special assembly. The resolution is expected to be submitted tomorrow.

U.N. Atomic Unit Urged To Drop Russian Plan

Lake Success, N.Y., March 29 (AP)—Britain, China, France and Canada demanded today that atomic delegates break off talks on Russia's scheme to prohibit atomic bombs.

The four nations declared that a mere convention banning bombs would, without world controls, help an aggressor nation gain overwhelming military supremacy and would mislead public opinion into a feeling of false security. They denounced the whole of Russia's atomic proposals as inadequate and unrealistic.

The four countries put a resolution before the working committee of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission calling for rejection of the Russian proposals as they stand now. They asked the committee to declare that there is no purose in discussing them further.

U.S., 3 Others Approve

Frederick Osborn, United States delegate, immediately gave his support to the four-power proposal. Belgium, Colombia and Argentina also backed the resolution. This gave it more than the seven votes necessary for approval.

Delegates from the four countries said the resolution does not constitute a final and formal break with Russia on the whole atomic-control problem. They said they are ready to discuss new Soviet proposals, but they do not want to go over the same ground again and again.

Authoritative sources said the four nations were laying the groundwork for a full debate on atomic energy in the 1948 United Nations General Assembly meeting in Paris this fall.

These sources added that the four nations feel it is time for the Assembly to attempt to end the deadlock by its moral persuasion.

Talks A "Waste Of Time"

Richard Miles, of Britain, who recently told the Soviet Ukrainian delegate that it was a "waste of time" to try to talk to the British people over the heads of the British delegation here, was chosen to present the statement of the four countries and the resolution.

Miles declared that Andrei A. Gromyko's demand on June 19, 1946, for an immediate treaty outlawing atomic bombs would, without adequate controls, give "an aggressor nation the opportunity to acquire an overwhelming military supremacy."

"The world is aware of the tragic history of past conventions 'outlawing' various weapons or forms of warfare," Miles said.

"None of these conventions, culminating in the Kellogg-Briand Pact of 1928 outlawing war itself, contained any provisions for their enforcement, and consequently remain pious expressions of hope and no more," he added.

Pacts Betray Hopes

"Indeed," he continued, "such prohibitory agreements, instead of strengthening peace, actually gave rise to a false security and so betrayed the hopes that they expressed."

Miles told the committee that the Soviet plan for control by an international commission responsible to the Security Council contains no realistic provision for detecting or preventing clandestine activities.

"The rearmament of Germany between the two world wars is an obvious example of the responsibility of a nation engaging in clandestine activity when there is no genuine international scrutiny of its operations backed by corrective measures," Miles declared.

"Completely Unrealistic"

"The Soviet Government," he added, "has not only proposed a scheme that is fundamentally inadequate for the control of atomic energy, but at the same time has made the overriding stipulation that they will not agree to establish even such a feeble scheme of control until all atomic weapons have been prohibited and destroyed.

"It is completely unrealistic to expect any nation to renounce atomic weapons without any assurance that all nations will be prevented from producing them."

Some delegates have declared that they want to go ahead on an atomic control plan favored by the majority.

THE JEWS HAD BEEN UNDER SIEGE 30 HOURS IN THE ABANDONED ARAB VILLAGE OF NABI DANIEL (PROPHET DANIEL), BELOW BETHLEHEM AND EAST OF SOLOMON'S POOLS. THEY TOOK COVER THERE WHEN THEIR 40-VEHICLE CONVOY GOT CAUGHT IN ARAB ROADBLOCKS. ARABS SAID THEY DESTROYED OR CAPTURED ALL THE VEHICLES.

A BRITISH OFFICIAL REPORT SHOWED AT LEAST 12 JEWS KILLED IN THE BATTLE. JEWISH SOURCES SAID THERE WERE 17 DEAD AND SOME ARAB SOURCES SAID 80. HAGANAH REPORTED 100 ARABS SLAIN AND 200 WOUNDED. NEITHER BRITISH NOR ARAB SOURCES CONFIRMED THIS.

HAGANAH REPORTED TODAY IT HAD DESTROYED WHAT IT CALLED HEADQUARTERS OF IRAQI ARAB SOLDIERS AT SANDALA VILLAGE ON THE WESTERN SLOPE OF MOUNT GILBOA NEAR EL 'AFFULE IN SAMARIA.

THE HAGANAH HIGH COMMAND SAID IN TEL AVIV LAST NIGHT AT LEAST 30 ARABS WERE KILLED AND 10 WOUNDED WHEN JEWS BLEW UP 10 HOUSES IN THE VILLAGE. AN OFFICIAL REPORT RELEASED HERE SHOWED ONLY ONE ARAB KILLED AND TWO WOUNDED.

ONLY A FEW HAD THE COURAGE TO MAKE THEIR WAY TO EASTER SERVICES YESTERDAY.

A HAIFA JEWISH SOURCE SAID LAST NIGHT BRITISH NAVAL UNITS CAUGHT A SHIP OFF THE PALESTINE COAST INBOUND WITH 800 UNAUTHORIZED JEWISH IMMIGRANTS.

ARAB FARMERS AND VILLAGERS ARE MOVING OUT OF THE JEWISH REGION AROUND TEL AVIV AND NATANYA ON THE PLAIN OF SHARON. THE BULK OF 12,000 TO 15,000 OF THEM ALREADY WERE OUT.

THIS MOVE WAS REGARDED AS THE FORERUNNER OF FULL-SCALE CIVIL WAR IN THE TEL AVIV-JAFFA AREA. AN OFFICER OF THE ARAB VOLUNTEER ARMY AROUND NABLUS SAID TWO WEEKS AGO PROTECTION OR WITHDRAWAL OF ARAB BORDERLINE COMMUNITIES WOULD PRECEDE THE OFFENSIVE.

BOMBAY, MARCH 29-(AP)-HOME MINISTER MORARJI DESAI TOLD THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE TODAY 16 PERSONS HAD BEEN KILLED IN RIOTING BETWEEN HINDUS AND MOSLEMS AT GODHRA.

HE ESTIMATED BETWEEN 600 AND 1,000 HOUSES WERE DESTROYED IN THE TOWN, 250 MILES NORTH OF BOMBAY. DESAI, WHO RETURNED TODAY FROM THE SCENE, SAID RIOTING HAD ENDED. THE OUTBREAKS WERE SAID TO HAVE STARTED FIVE DAYS AGO.

PAN AMERICAN (400)

BOGOTA, COLOMBIA, MARCH 29-(AP)-THE TOP-RANKING DIPLOMATS OF 21 NATIONS ASSEMBLED HERE TODAY FOR TOMORROW'S OPENING OF THE NINTH PAN AMERICAN CONFERENCE. TERRITORIAL DISPUTES THREATENED TO LOOM HIGH ON THE PROGRAM

SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL IS SLATED TO ARRIVE ABOUT NOON HIS PLANE LEFT WASHINGTON AT 9:02 P.M. (EST) LAST NIGHT.

CHILE, PARAGUAY AND CUBA HAVE EXPRESSED AN INTEREST IN HAVING THE CONFERENCE TAKE A STAND AGAINST COMMUNIST ENCROACHMENT IN THE AMERICAS BUT THERE WAS NO DEFINITE INDICATION WHETHER THE TOPIC WOULD BE TAKEN UP.

MANY OF THE NATIONS ARE EXPECTED TO LEVEL THEIR GUNS AGAINST EUROPEAN COLONIZATION IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT ROMULO BETANCOURT, CHIEF VENEZUELAN DELEGATE, SAID HE WOULD DEMAND AN END OF SUCH COLONIALISM.

BETANCOURT SAID HIS NATION WOULD DEMAND THAT ALL COLONIES OF FOREIGN POWERS IN THE AMERICAS BE GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO FREE THEMSELVES BY MEANS OF PLEBISCITES.

FOREIGN MINISTER JUAN A.BRAMUGLIA, WHO REPRESENTS ARGENTINA, SAID HE WOULD RECOMMEND AN INTERNATIONAL PARLEY TO SETTLE ANTARCTIC SOVEREIGNTY DISPUTES OF ARGENTINA AND OTHER AMERICAN NATIONS.

BRAMUGLIA ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE QUESTION OF SOVEREIGNTY OVER THE FALKLAND ISLANDS WOULD NOT BE INTRODUCED AT SUCH A PARLEY SINCE ARGENTINA CONSIDERED THEM RIGHTFULLY HERS.

ARGENTINA AND BRITAIN BOTH CLAIM RIGHTS TO CERTAIN ISLANDS IN THE FALKLANDS AND OTHER PARTS OF THE ANTARCTIC.

CHILE, WHICH ALSO CONTESTS SOVEREIGNTY OVER CERTAIN ISLANDS NEAR THE ANTARCTIC WITH BRITAIN, HAS SIGNED AN AGREEMENT WITH ARGENTINA JOINTLY TO DEFEND THEIR CLAIMS.

GUATEMALA, ENGAGED IN A CLAIMS DISPUTE OVER BRITISH HONDURAS (BELIZE) WITH BRITAIN, ALSO IS EXPECTED TO BRING UP HER GRIEVANCES AT THE CONFERENCE.

SECRETARY MARSHALL HAS MAINTAINED A HANDS OFF POLICY REGARDING THE ANTARCTIC ISSUE. THE U.S. BELIEVES DISPUTES INVOLVING COLONIES SHOULD BE SOLVED BY NEGOTIATIONS OUTSIDE THE CONFERENCE AND WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER. BRAZIL HAS INDICATED A SIMILAR POSITION.

JUVENAL HERNANDEZ, HEAD OF THE CHILEAN DELEGATION, HAS STRESSED HIS COUNTRY'S HOPE THE CONFERENCE WILL ENACT MEASURES TO COUNTERACT COMMUNISM IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

THE UNITED STATES HAS TAKEN THE STAND THAT A SOUND, STABLE ECONOMY IS THE FIRST DEFENSE AGAINST COMMUNISM.

A NUMBER OF OTHER AMERICAN REPUBLICS CONCUR. THAT IS WHY MUCH STRESS HAS BEEN PLACED ON ADOPTING AN EFFICIENT ECONOMIC COOPERATION PROGRAM HERE.

THIS MEETING WILL BE THE FIRST FULL DRESS GATHERING OF THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE REPUBLICS SINCE THE LIMA CONFERENCE IN 1938.

DELEGATES HAVE THE PROBLEM OF REORGANIZING THE STRUCTURE OF HEMISPHERIC RELATIONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE U.N. CHARTER.

LA HORA SAID THE PLAN WOULD BE ANNOUNCED SHORTLY. UNDER ITS PROVISIONS, THE PAPER SAID, ARGENTINA WOULD EXPORT FOOD TO BRITAIN IN RETURN FOR FULL TITLE AND INSTALLATIONS BUILT IN THE ISLANDS DURING MORE THAN 100 YEARS OF BRITISH OCCUPATION.

THE FALKLANDS LIE OFF ARGENTINA'S SOUTHEAST COAST.

(DT) WINDSOR, ONT., MARCH 29-(AP)-ONTARIO PROVINCIAL POLICE SOUGHT CLUES TODAY TO THE STEALTHY ASSAILANT WHO FIRED TWO GUNSHOTS LAST NIGHT AT JOHN BANKHEAD, AMERICAN CONSUL HERE.

BANKHEAD SAID THE SHOTS, APPARENTLY FIRED FROM BEHIND A TREE, STRUCK THE REAR DOOR OF HIS CAR AS HE DROVE UP TO HIS RIVERSIDE DRIVE HOME. HE WAS ALONE IN THE CAR.

POLICE FOUND FOOTPRINT BETWEEN A POST AND TREE AT THE DRIVEWAY ENTRANCE.

IT WAS THE THIRD ATTEMPT ON HIS LIFE IN RECENT WEEKS, BANKHEAD SAID. HE REPORTED THAT POISONED LIQUOR AND CANDY HAD BEEN SENT TO HIS HOME. ON ANOTHER OCCASION HIS CAR HAD BEEN TAMPERED WITH, HE SAID.

THE AMERICAN CONSUL HAS COME TO ATTENTION FOR HIS TIGHT BORDER RESTRICTION POLICY. HE HAS ATTRIBUTED THIS TO AN EFFORT TO KEEP COMMUNISTS FROM ENTERING THE UNITED STATES BY WAY OF DETROIT.

LAST NIGHT'S APPARENT ATTEMPT ON BANKHEAD'S LIFE WAS MADE DESPITE THE PRESENCE ON THE PREMISES OF AN OFFICER OF THE ROYAL CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE.

SGT. WILLIAM FRASER, HEAD OF THE WINDSOR MOUNTIES DETACHMENT, LIVES IN AN APARTMENT ABOVE THE BANKHEAD GARAGE. HE DASHED OUTSIDE AT THE SHOTS, GOT A SHOUTED WARNING FROM BANKHEAD TO RETURN, AND CAME BACK WITH HIS GUN. THE ASSAILANT MEANTIME FLED.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 29-(AP)-SENATOR PEPPER (D-FLA) WANTS PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO CONFRONT GENERALISSIMO STALIN PERSONALLY WITH A PLAN FOR PEACE "IN A LAST DRAMATIC EFFORT TO PREVENT THE HORROR OF ANOTHER UNSPEAKABLE WAR."

PEPPER, WHO OFTEN HAS DEFENDED SOVIET POLICIES, CHARGED IN A RADIO INTERVIEW (STATION WEAM) YESTERDAY THAT RUSSIA "HAS BEEN GUILTY OF AGGRESSION" UPON HER NEIGHBORS. THIS, HE SAID, "OFFENDS AND AFFRONTS OUR SENSE OF INDEPENDENCE AND DIGNITY AND FREEDOM FOR THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD."

PEPPER DECLARED HE WANTED NO APPEASEMENT OF RUSSIA. HE URGED MR. TRUMAN TO DRAFT A PEACE PLAN IN CONSULTATION WITH LEADERS OF ALL PARTIES IN CONGRESS, MILITARY LEADERS AND AMERICAN PUBLIC OPINION. HE SAID IT SHOULD REQUIRE THAT ALL NATIONS "CEASE PHYSICAL AND IDEOLOGICAL AGGRESSION UPON THEIR NEIGHBORS," AND THAT THOSE WHO CONFORM BE ASSURED OF ECONOMIC AID.

"OF COURSE," PEPPER SAID, "OUR PEOPLE WOULD WANT TO BE SURE THAT X X X THEY (THE SOVIETS) ARE NOT GOING TO TAKE THE HELP WE GIVE THEM AND USE IT AGAINST US."

PEPPER SAID THE EASTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS SUFFERED HEAVIER LOSSES OF LIFE IN DEFEATING THE NAZIS AND MAY FEEL THEY "ARE ENTITLED TO MORE CONSIDERATION THAN THEY HAVE HAD."

"NOW THEN, IF WE CAN BRING THEM INTO THE ORBIT OF NATIONS THAT ARE WORKING FOR PEACE," HE SUGGESTED, "WOULDN'T IT BE BETTER TO LET THEM HAVE A FEW BILLION DOLLARS IN MONEY TO RECOVER THEIR ECONOMY, TO BUY GOODS FROM US, TO HELP BUILD X X X PEACE, THAN TO SPEND THAT IN WAR?"

PEPPER SAID HE FAVORS THE AID GIVEN WESTERN EUROPE, BUT HE PROPOSED WE MAKE IT PLAIN TO RUSSIA THAT WE ARE ANXIOUS TO HELP HER RECOVER FROM WAR'S DEVASTATION AND PROSPER.

"OF COURSE, OUR PEOPLE WANT TO BE SURE THAT THEIR POLICIES ARE TO BE POLICIES OF PEACE AND NOT OF WAR," HE CAUTIONED. "X X X THAT THEY ARE GOING TO DISCONTINUE THEIR X X X AGGRESSION UPON THEIR NEIGHBORS."

WHILE WE WORK FOR PEACE, WE SHOULD BE STRONG, PEPPER SAID. HE FAVORS A TEMPORARY DRAFT, "A GREAT NAVY, X X X A TREMENDOUS AIR FORCE."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 29-(AP)-THE TEXT OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REMARKS TONIGHT TO THE GREEK-AMERICAN ORDER OF AHEPA (ABOUT 700):

I THANK YOU VERY MUCH. DEAN, MR.PRESIDENT, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: IT CERTAINLY IS A PLEASURE TO BE HERE. I AM SORRY THAT I COULD NOT BE HERE FOR THE WHOLE EVENING, BUT THE PRESIDENT HAS TO BE IN SEVERAL PLACES AT ONCE, AND IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO MAKE ALL OF THEM AT THE SAME TIME.

~~THE DEAN HAS STOLEN MY THUNDER. I WAS GOING TO TELL YOU THAT THE~~ GREEKS HAD A HENRY WALLACE. I WAS GOING TO TELL YOU THAT THE GREEKS HAD A STATESMAN, AN ORATOR, A DEMAGOGUE.

THE GREEKS HAD A WORD FOR DEMAGOGUE, AND THEY THOUGHT OF POLITICS. IN FACT THAT IS WHERE WE GOT THE WORD. THEY HAD ONE VERY ABLE AND DISTINGUISHED GREEK, YOU REMEMBER, ARISTIDES. HE WAS A GREAT ADMINISTRATOR AND A GOOD EXECUTIVE AND HE WAS CALLED THE JUDGE. BUT THEY OSTRACIZED AND BANISHED HIM. AND ONE DAY HE WAS STANDING IN THE VOTING PLACE, AND A GREEK CITIZEN CAME UP TO HIM, AND HE WANTED TO KNOW HOW TO VOTE THIS MAN ARISTIDES. AND ARISTIDES SAID, "WHY ARE YOU VOTING AGAINST HIM?" AND HE SAID, "JUST BECAUSE I AM TIRED OF HEARING HIM CALLED THE JUDGE, I THINK WE OUGHT TO PULL HIM OUT."

30.24- 16613

THEN THEY HAD THE GREATEST DEMAGOGUE OF ALL TIMES, ALCIBIADES. THERE NEVER WAS ONE LIKE HIM. HE HAD THE VOICE OF A SIREN. HE HAD THE LOOKS OF A GOD. HE HAD THE VOICE THAT TOOK THE GREEKS AROUND ANY WAY HE WANTED THEM TO GO.

B100WX

NOW WE ARE FACING THAT SAME DANGER TO THIS COUNTRY, AND IF WE ARE NOT CAREFUL SOME DEMAGOGUE IS GOING TO COME ALONG AND GET US. WE WON'T DO THAT--WE CERTAINLY WON'T DO THAT--IF ALL OF YOU ARE INFORMED AND KEEP YOURSELVES INFORMED ON JUST EXACTLY WHERE WE ARE GOING AND WHY.

WE DIDN'T WANT TO GET INTO THE WAR. THIS COUNTRY NEVER WANTS WAR. BUT THERE ARE CERTAIN THINGS WHICH ARE WORSE THAN WAR. ONE OF THEM IS SLAVERY. THAT'S WHAT WE WERE FACED WITH IN 1940 AND 1941. WE ARE FACED WITH ALMOST EXACTLY THE SAME SITUATION TODAY.

ON MARCH 12, 1947, I SAID TO CONGRESS--AND I AM GLAD TO GIVE YOU THIS AS A REMINDER, THRACANTENCOQ9 I SAID-

ON MARCH 12, 1947, I SAID TO CONGRESS--AND I AM GLAD TO GIVE YOU THIS AS A REMINDER, THREE SENTENCES. I SAID--WHEN WE WERE ASKING FOR AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY: "THIS IS A SERIOUS COURSE UPON WHICH WE EMBARK. WE MUST KEEP HOPE ALIVE. IF WE FALTER IN OUR LEADERSHIP, WE MAY ENDANGER THE PEACE OF THE WORLD, AND WE SHALL SURELY ENDANGER THE WELFARE OF OUR OWN NATION."

WELL, THE CONGRESS AND THE COUNTRY WERE OF THAT SAME OPINION, AND TODAY GREECE HAS NOT BEEN OVERRUN, AND NEITHER HAS TURKEY.

ON MARCH 17, 1948, I SAID--AND I AM GOING TO QUOTE THREE SENTENCES-TO THE CONGRESS: "THE ISSUE IS AS OLD AS HISTORY (AS OLD AS THE VERY SITUATION TO WHICH THE DEAN REFERS). IT IS TYRANNY AGAINST FREEDOM. THE THREAT TO OUR LIBERTY MUST BE FACED. THE GREAT IDEALS OF LIBERTY AND JUSTICE ARE POWERFUL FORCES IN EVERY COUNTRY. THE FAITH IN GOD THAT SUSTAINS US ALSO SUSTAINS OTHER PEOPLES. TOGETHER WE CAN ERECT AN ENDURING PEACE."

MAR 1948

B101WX

MY FRIENDS, THAT IS ALL THIS COUNTRY WANTS. THAT IS ALL THIS COUNTRY HAS EVER WANTED. THIS COUNTRY HAS NEVER ASKED FOR ANYTHING BUT PEACE AND PROSPERITY IN THE WORLD FOR ALL PEOPLES AND FOR ALL COUNTRIES. WE HAVE NEVER SHUT THE DOOR AGAINST ANY COUNTRY. WE ARE WILLING TO TALK PEACE AND INTERNATIONAL INTERCOURSE WITH ANY COUNTRY IN THE WORLD, BUT WE WILL NOT STAND IDLY BY AND SEE THE LIBERTIES OF THE WORLD DEBAUCHED.

IF IMITATORS OF THAT ANCIENT GREEK CONQUEROR WANT TO SEE ITS LIBERTIES SUBVERTED, I SUGGEST THAT THEY GO NOT TO THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS--THAT'S FINE COUNTRY OUT THERE--HE OUGHT TO GO TO THE COUNTRY HE LOVES SO WELL. AND HELP THEM AGAINST HIS OWN COUNTRY IF THAT'S THE WAY HE FEELS.

IT IS A PLEASURE MY FRIENDS TO BE HERE. I APPRECIATE THIS PRIVILEGE. I HAVE BEEN TO SEVERAL OF THESE BANQUETS, WHEN I DIDN'T ATTRACT SO MUCH ATTENTION AND HAD A MUCH BETTER TIME. I APPRECIATE THE PATRIOTISM OF THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES WHO HAVE COME FROM GREECE. THEY BROUGHT US THE HERITAGE OF LIBERTY. THE GREEKS HAVE ALWAYS BEEN FOR LIBERTY, FROM HERCULES TO THE PRESENT DAY. WE ARE PROUD TO HAVE YOU AMONG THE CITIZENS OF THIS GREAT UNITED STATES. WE STAND FOR LIBERTY AND FOR JUSTICE. WE STAND FOR THE RIGHTS OF THE INDIVIDUAL. THAT IS WHAT WE WANT THE UNITED NATIONS TO STAND FOR, AND THAT IS WHAT WE ARE GOING TO CONTINUE TO FIGHT FOR UNTIL THE UNITED NATIONS DOES STAND FOR THAT VERY THING.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 29-(AP)-AUSTRALIA HOPES TO ATTRACT 70,000 IMMIGRANTS THIS YEAR, INCLUDING JUST AS MANY FORMER AMERICAN GI'S AS POSSIBLE.

EMBASSY OFFICIALS SAID TODAY, HOWEVER, THAT LACK OF SHIPPING DIM THE PROSPECTS FOR A LARGE INFLUX OF FORMER SERVICE MEN FROM THE UNITED STATES.

x21.26

THUS FAR FEWER THAN 3,000 FORMER U.S. SERVICE MEN ARE KNOWN TO HAVE SETTLED IN THE SOUTHERN CONTINENT SINCE V-J DAY. OFFICIALS SAID THE RECORDS WERE INCOMPLETE, BUT THUS OUTLINED THE SITUATION:

IN AN EFFORT TO ATTRACT EX-GI'S, THE AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT PAYS 40 PERCENT OF THEIR EXPENSES AS IMMIGRANTS. THEY HAVE BEEN SENT RECENTLY AT THE RATE OF ABOUT 150 EVERY TWO MONTHS, AND BETWEEN 700 AND 800 ARE CURRENTLY ON THE WAITING LIST.

TOTAL IMMIGRATION FROM THE UNITED STATES TO AUSTRALIA IN 1947 WAS 828 MEN AND 309 WOMEN. OF THIS TOTAL ONLY ABOUT 300 WERE AMERICAN GI'S. THEY JOIN SOME 2,000 WHO TOOK THEIR ARMY DISCHARGES IN AUSTRALIA INSTEAD OF RETURNING TO THE UNITED STATES AND UNDETERMINED NUMBERS OF OTHER AMERICANS WHO ALSO HAVE SETTLED IN AUSTRALIA SINCE V-J DAY.

THE TARGET OF 70,000 IMMIGRANTS FOR 1948 INCLUDES AS MANY AMERICANS AS POSSIBLE, BUT NO FINAL ESTIMATES HAVE BEEN MADE ON HOW MANY MAY GO. AUSTRALIA'S MINISTER FOR IMMIGRATION HAS STATED HIS COUNTRY WISHED IT HAD "A MILLION AMERICANS" AS NEW CITIZENS.

"WHILE I HAVE NO CONCRETE EVIDENCE THAT THESE ATTEMPTS ON THE LIFE OF MR.BANKHEAD ARE THE RESULT OF HIS VALUABLE TESTIMONY TO THE COMMITTEE," MCDOWELL SAID, "IT SEEMS MORE THAN JUST A COINCIDENCE THAT THEY OCCURRED SINCE HE STARTED TESTIFYING."

MILES SAID THE "STRICT INTERNATIONAL CONTROL" WHICH PRIME MINISTER STALIN OF RUSSIA CALLED FOR IN OCTOBER, 1946, COULD NOT BE OBTAINED BY PUTTING INTO FORCE ANY PLAN BASED ON THE SOVIET PROPOSALS.

HE SAID THE INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION WOULD NOT HAVE POWER TO ENFORCE ITS DECISIONS; IT COULD ONLY PREPARE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

HE DECLARED THAT ACTION TO STOP A VIOLATION OF THE ATOMIC CODE MUST BE IMMEDIATE AND MUST NOT WAIT ON A TIME-CONSUMING DECISION BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

HE SAID THE SOVIET DELEGATE MINIMIZED THE QUESTION OF SECRET ACTIVITIES IN GENERAL. HE QUOTED GROMYKO AS SAYING THAT "'GOVERNMENTS RESPONSIBLE UNDER THE CONVENTION FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF MEASURES ON THEIR TERRITORIES TAKE THE OBLIGATION TO IMPLEMENT THE CONVENTION, AND FROM THIS IT FOLLOWS THAT SECRET ACTIVITIES WOULD BE EXCLUDED.'"

"IT SEEMS SUPERFLUOUS TO COMMENT ON THIS QNREALISTIC ASSERTION," MILES ADDED.

HE DECLARED THAT THE STAND OF RUSSIA IN RESERVING TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL ANY AND ALL ACTION PERTAININT TO VIOLATIONS IS ANOTHER REASON WHY THE SOVIET PROPOSALS CANNOT BE ACCEPTED AS THE BASIS OF A SYSTEM OF CONTROL.

MILES POINTED OUT THAT UNDER THE SOVIET PROPOSALS THE SLIGHTEST MISDEMEANOR WHICH MIGHT INVOLVE A BREACH OF THE COMMISSION'S CONTROL REGULATIONS WOULD HAVE TO BE REFERRED TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL "WITH, ET BEST, INEVITABLE DELAYS."

GROMYKO HAS SAID THAT AFTER THE PACT PROHIBITING ATOMIC BOMBS IS IN EFFECT AND EXISTING BOMBS HAVE BEEN DESTROYED, THEN THE NATIONS COULD STUDY CONTROL MEASURES.

B17 (C-E-G)

ON THIS POINT, MILES SAID:

"THE SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE WAS X X X ASKED WHETHER THERE COULD BE ANY ASSURANCE THAT, IF IN AN ATTEMPT TO MEET THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HALF-WAY, IT WERE AGREED TO HAVE TWO SEPARATE CONVENTIONS, THE AGREEMENT ON CONTROL WOULD EVER COME INTO EFFECT. THE SURPRISINGLY CANDID REPLY WAS THAT: 'IF THERE IS FOUND NO BASIS FOR AGREEMENT THERE, NATURALLY, THE (CONTROL) CONVENTION CANNOT BE CONCLUDED.'"

A CONVENTION ON PROHIBITION STANDING ALONE, MILES SAID, COULD GIVE NO ASSURANCE THAT:

1. NATIONS WHICH ARE KNOWN TO POSSESS ATOMIC WEAPONS WOULD DESTROY ALL OR ANY OF THEM:

2. NATIONS NOT KNOWN TO HAVE ATOMIC WEAPONS BUT WHO MIGHT HAVE THEM WOULD CARRY OUT THEIR OBLIGATIONS;

3. NATIONS WOULD BE PREVENTED FROM MANUFACTURING ATOMIC WEAPONS IN THE FUTURE.

"IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO SEE," HE SAID, "HOW SUCH A CONVENTION COULD AFFORD ANY ASSURANCE OF SECURITY EVEN TO ITS PROPONENTS."

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) The Senate voted $463,000,000 for China aid today and the House, in a series of rapid-fire actions, worked closer to a vote on a massive "package" carrying $6,205,000,000 to assist foreign nations.

Leaders hope to reach a House decision on the latter measure tomorrow. Meantime the chamber voted:

1. To enable officials in charge of the aid program to clamp down on American exports of war supplies to Russia and her satellites, and,

2. To give Franco Spain a slice of the $6,205,000,000.

Agreement Seen

And Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.) indicated there will be little difficulty in reconciling differences between House and Senate relief bills. He told reporters he would not oppose the House plan of wrapping all foreign relief bills into a single "package" although some of the House provisions might have to be compromised.

Vandenberg, apparently encouraged by today's swift developments, predicted final passage this weekend of the foreign relief program, designed to spur the recovery of nations abroad and bolster them against Communism.

The Senate passed the China aid bill on a voice vote after Vandenberg declared conditions in China were "touch and go."

Senator Kem (R.-Mo.) launched a bitter floor attack on the China bill and other foreign aid programs, saying the United States was following a lone wolf "piece meal" policy that will lead to war.

"Soon," he said, "American soldiers will be called upon to follow the American dollar."

Senator Pepper (D-Fla) said the China aid program "is good as far as it goes" but that it is just "a bare beginning."

Passage of the China aid rounds out the senate's action on its big three relief bills. It already has passed a $5,300,000,000 European relief plan and $275,000,000-military aid for Greece and Turkey.

Next Move Up To House

The next move is up to the house which is debating the "single package" $6,205,000,000 foreign aid bill which includes all major items in one measure.

Differences between the senate and house versions will be ironed out by a house-senate conference committee after the house finishes action in its bill later this week.

The house was moving swiftly.

By voice vote it amended its "package" foreign aid bill to give teeth to controls over exports of war supplies.

An amendment by Rep. Mundt (R-SD) would grant the foreign aid administrator power to veto any shipment of articles of military value to the Soviets and her neighbors.

The house also approved a plan aimed at preventing Russia from getting, through western European countries participating in the Marshall Plan program, any war supplies made from American materials.

Many congress members have said it is foolish to combat communism with one hand and feed Russia with the other.

The house voted 149 to 52 to invite Spain to share with 16 other western European nations in the multi-billion dollar Marshall Plan fund if she agrees to terms laid down in the plan.

The house apparently was so heavily in favor of the Spanish amendment that it didn't require any speeches of persuasion from its backers, once the foreign affairs committee agreed to take it.

In a report recommending the aid bill to the house, the committee said "the possible desirability of readmitting Spain to the family of western European nations seems to be growing among the countries of western Europe and is certainly manifesting itself in opinion in the United States."

Rep. O'Konski (R-Wis) offered the Spanish amendment, calling Spain the "greatest bulwark against communism in Europe."

Some of the opponents labelled the Franco regime as "fascist" and said to aid it would be a great mistake.

In another amendment, the house voted overwhelmingly to require that at least half of all goods shipped abroad under the aid program be carried in U. S. vessels. This was sponsored by Rep. Bradley (R-Calif).

By a standing vote of 165 to 32 it defeated a provision to allow the chartering of 200 American ships to European nations getting American aid. American shipping interests and unions have bitterly fought the chartering provision which the house today cut out. (The senate killed a similar provision).

An amendment by Rep. Isaacson (Al-NY) to forbid use of ERP funds to buy oil or finance oil development in the Middle East was defeated.

By a 68 to 62 vote the house refused to cut from its bill a section saying that when surplus farm products are bought for foreign aid, they must be bought in proportion to the amount by which they exceed domestic supplies. Tobacco interests were involved.

The house accepted amendments to include canned food and fisheries products among the food items sent abroad.

It agreed that 50 per cent of the corn used in the program should be in the form of corn flour or starch processed in the U. S.

Senator Vandenberg said that not to accept the house's plan of wrapping up aid in one package would result in a needless loss of time. But he also warned that the senate was not prepared to accept all of the measure's provisions.

Vandenberg said congress should act swiftly to prove to a "disrupt world" how democracy can function when speed is imperative.

House, 149-52, Invites Spain Into E.R.P.

Washington, March 30 (AP)—The House voted, 149 to 52, today to invite Franco Spain into the $6,205,000,000 foreign-aid program.

The Foreign Affairs Committee had agreed to include Spain. But Representative Vorys (R., Ohio), in charge of the aid bill, said the State Department is against it.

And whether the Senate will go along is another question.

In any event, Spain could get in on the program only if she agreed like other participating countries to join in a European Recovery Program of co-operation and self help.

Door Open To Russia

Spain now is specifically named as eligible to qualify under the bill before the House. Eastern European nations are not.

The door is open for Russia and her satellite nations to come in under the same terms as Spain, by agreeing to terms of the program.

Representative Hand (R., N.J.) immediately offered an amendment to limit the European program to the sixteen nations which have signed up already to work together toward an economic comeback.

Quickly Defeated

Hand's amendment was quickly defeated. It would have stricken out the section mentioning Spain. It would also have canceled out in the same section a provision allowing Russia and her satellite nations to come in if they agree to play ball.

By turning down Hand's amendment, the House left the door open for any nation, whether named or not, to come in under the act by agreeing to terms of the recovery program.

Specific inclusion of Spain would have financial implications. The way the program is set up, the European program would be distributed among sixteen nations.

Possible Outcome

Addition of Spain would require some research into Spanish needs and requirements. And that, in turn, could result either in increasing the total size of the European program or spreading the money among seventeen instead of sixteen countries.

The Hand amendment was quickly discarded by the House by voice vote. In defense of it, Hand said the E.R.P. is supposed to combat communism so the door should be slammed against countries which have embraced it.

Vorys protested that Hand's proposal would make a permanent, exclusive club of sixteen Western European nations. He said it would exclude western Germany and aid for Trieste. He said it would undermine America's move to return Trieste to Italy.

Representative Javits (R., N.Y.) opposed inclusion of Spain. He told the House it was "making a very grave mistake."

Doesn't Recognize Franco

He said the United States does not recognize the Franco Government. He added that the other sixteen European nations have not invited Spain to join. The United States doing so, he said, would "open the friends of democracy in Europe" to attack by Communists.

Representative Isaacson (A.L., N.Y.) said the House action on Spain "will shock the conscience of the entire world. . . . We in this House have embraced to our bosoms the Fascist Government of Franco Spain."

The House accepted by voice vote an amendment by Representative Herter (R., Mass.) on E.R.P. administration. It would allow hiring of 100 instead of 60 persons without regard to Civil Service laws; and 25 instead of ten persons who can be paid up to $15,000 a year each.

Anti-Discrimination Beaten

Representative Powell (D., N.Y.) was beaten in an effort to get an anti-discrimination clause into the act. It would have required the administrator to guarantee that any aid goods would be supplied an dhandled by firms which do not discriminate against emtployés because of race, religion or color.

Representative Marcantonio (A.L., N.Y.): "I call on the Foreign Affairs Committee to accept this amendment. You accepted an amendment to take care of Fascist Spain. How about this amendment to take care of 14,000,000 Negroes?"

Powell's amendment was beaten, 91 to 38, by a standing vote.

"Might Be Bad Politics"

Vorys said the State Department is against this step.

"Probably it is bad politics in western Europe," he said.

"But the way Spain would be written in would be rather innocuous, so we will go along."

London Surprised At Aid For Spain

London, March 30 (AP)—High British sources expressed surprise today at the vote in the United States House of Representatives to invite Franco Spain into the American foreign-aid program.

The British Foreign Office refused official comment.

One authoritative source termed the American move "very awkward."

Whitehall (Government) sources took the position that it was up to the original sixteen Marshall-plan nations to invite whatever other countries were to participate.

These informants recalled that Portugal proposed Spain's inclusion only recently at Paris and said the proposal never reached a formal test. Diplomats here said the other countries had decided informally to ignore the proposal, at least so long as Generalissimo Franco remains in control of Spain.

At the first Marshall plan conference in Paris last July the participating nations excluded Spain so long as she has her present government. That, in general terms, has been Britain's official position since then.

A French Foreign Ministry spokesman said the Paris Foreign Office has no official information on the vote in the House of Representatives, and declined to comment.

Britons Doubt Spain Will Share In U.S. Aid

London, March 30 (AP)—High British sources said tonight they "could not believe" Spain ever would share in the United States program for European recovery as long as Generalissimo Franco remains in power.

One informant commented that the United States House of Representatives vote today to allow Spain to be included in the program was "unfortunate but not decisive."

"I cannot believe (Secretary of State) Marshall and the Senate will let it go through," he added.

The Foreign Office said there would be no official comment at this stage of the development.

HELP FOR CHINA SOUGHT IN PLEA BY VANDENBERG

Senator Asks 463 Millions as a Modified Report Is Made Public.

SAYS IT IS 'TOUCH AND GO'

Sees Nationalist Government As Friend of U. S. Under Threat of Aggressor.

Washington, March 30 (A. P.).—Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.) urged quick senatorial approval today of $463,000,000 aid for China. He said that the situation in that country was "touch and go."

Early passage of the measure, he told the Senate, would make possible a final conference committee report on all foreign aid by this week end. The House is pressing for quick approval of an omnibus foreign aid bill, including aid for China and Europe.

Vandenberg described China as "a major victim of that conspiracy of aggression which undermines the peace of the earth." Quick action by Congress on the aid plans, he said, would demonstrate to a disrupted world how democracy can function when time is essential.

Foreign Relief Measure.

The conference committee to which Vandenberg referred will be set up following senatorial passage of the China aid bill and House passage of its overall foreign relief measure.

The Senate's China aid bill calls for $463,000,000 for twelve months. Of this, $363,000,000 would be for economic aid, and the other $100,000,000 for any use China sees fit. The House bill provides $570,000,000 for fifteen months. Of this, $150,000,000 would be for military aid and $420,000,000 for economic rebuilding.

Report on China.

Before Vandenberg spoke, the Foreign Relations Committee turned in a new report on the China aid measure. The original report was withdrawn on Saturday by Vandenberg, who said that it created an impression which was not intended.

The new document leaves out critical phrases of the first. It says that the Chinese Nationalist Government "represents our common interest" against Communism.

Vandenberg told the Senate that China was one of the "heaviest sufferers from the bludgeon blows of world war II." He said that China was one of "our most faithful allies." He noted that she had turned down offers of an "expedient peace."

Tribute to Chiang.

He paid high tribute to Chiang Kai-shek, head of the Nationalist Government, as a great and courageous leader. The Chinese Communist propaganda is bitterly anti-American, and follows the Moscow line, Vandenberg continued. To give aid to China, he added, is "unavoidably in the self-interest of this nation."

Senator Morse (R.-Ore.) said that there was "rising doubt" in this country whether the Nationalist Government really was democratic.

"How much freedom of choice is there in China today, under the Nationalist Government?" he asked. "We ought to make it clear that we aren't goingto support Fascist government or Communist government either."

Vandenberg's Retort.

Vandenber* replied thaat Pudgment on democracy has to be relative. The concept of democracy is a new one, he said, and at least the present Government has set u pthe country's first constitution.

"Relatively speaking, here is proof that there is a dedication to freedom of choice to the common people of China. There will be no freedom of choice left to 400,000,000 people of China if it falls behind the Iron Curtain of Communism," he said.

Reds Protest Detention Of Liner Rossia in N.Y.

LONDON, (Wednesday), March 31—(AP) The Soviet government has protested to the United States over the detention of the transatlantic liner Rossia in New York, the Moscow radio said today.

The broadcast said that "on March 18 United States authorities put an embargo on the departure of "the 16,595-ton ship which formerly served Germany's Hamburg American line under the name of Patria.

"According to available information," the broadcast said, "American authorities attempted to justify their unlawful action on grounds of a court claim by two passengers who had allegedly received injuries on the ship 'Rossia' when it was buffetted by heavy seas."

Damage Suits Filed

(Last week two damage suits totaling $75,000 were filed in Brooklyn federal court against the Rossia in behalf of two passengers who claimed they were injured aboard it and that it was "unseaworthy" and "undermanned."

(John Lorina of Quincy, Mass., asked $50,000 for injuries he allegedly received last October while the Rossia was docked at Marseille, France. Mrs. Race Suhl of Brooklyn claimed $25,000 for injuries suffered Jan. 6 in an east-west passage. She named the Rossia and Amtorg, the Russian purchasing agency, as co-defendants.

(Court spokesmen said the Rossia would not be allowed to leave New York until $75,000 is posted to cover both suits.

(The Moore-McCormack Lines, owners of the pier at which the Rossia usually moors in New York, said the ship now is at the Todd Shipyards in Brooklyn for repairs. The line said the Rossia was scheduled to sail April 15 from Manhattan.

(Meanwhile, veterans groups in New York drafted plans to ask organized labor to stop loading the Rossia and other Soviet ships with machinery, industrial equipment and other goods now stockpiled in Jersey City, N. J.)

The Moscow radio broadcast said the Soviet Embassy in Washington, acting on its government's instructions, had "drawn the attention of the U. S. state department to the inadmissability of detaining a vessel belonging to a foreign state x x x."

Vessel Not Held Up By State Department

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) The State department has received a formal Soviet protest against detention of the Russian ship Rossia in New York but officials said tonight the vessel was not held up by department order.

They said the department is "looking into" the Russian complaint, but they presumed the detention was under maritime law.

These officials said they were informed the French liner Ile De France recently was detained for a time because of damage suits in much the same manner as the Rossia.

The coast guard in New York has been asked for a report on the detention of the Rossia. Officials said that it is customary procedure to detain ships against which libels, or damage claims, have been filed, until agents post bond or some other protective arrangement is made.

The protest was the latest of a series from Russia and Soviet bloc nations to the United States.

RUSSIA SENDS SHIP PROTEST

Note Cites Detention In Suits Brought By Passengers

Washington, March 30 (AP)—The State Department has received a formal Soviet protest against detention of the Russian ship Rossia in New York, but officials said tonight the vessel was not held up by department order.

They said the department is "looking into" the Russian complaint, but they presumed the detention was under maritime law.

These officials said they were informed the French liner Ile de France recently was detained for a time because of damage suits in much the same manner as the Rossia.

Customary Procedure

The Coast Guard in New York has been asked for a report on the detention of the Rossia. Officials said that it is customary procedure to detain ships against which libels, or damage claims, have been filed until agents post bond or some other protective arrangement is made.

The protest was the latest of a series from Russia and Soviet bloc nations to the United States.

The State Department disclosed yesterday Yugoslavia had complained that American planes had crossed the Yugoslav border from Italy three times since January 1 and flown inland as far as 1½ miles. Russia earlier protested twice against flights of American planes over Soviet ships in Far Eastern waters and against visits of American warships to Italian ports.

Suits Filed In Brooklyn

Last week two damage suits totaling $75,000 were filed in Brooklyn Federal Court against the Rossia in behalf of two passengers who claimed they were injured aboard it and that it was "unseaworthy" and "undermanned."

John Lorina, of Quincy, Mass., asked $80,000 for injuries he allegedly received last October while the Rossia was docked at Marseille, France. Mrs. Grace Suhl, of Brooklyn, claimed $25,000 for injuries suffered January 6 in an east-west passage. She named the Rossia and Amtorg, the Russian purchasing agency, as codefendants.

Court spokesmen said the Rossia would not be allowed to leave New York until $75,000 is posted to cover both suits.

Veterans' Group Objects

The Moore-McCormack Lines, owners of the pier at which the Rossia usually moors in New York, said the ship now is at the Todd shipyards in Brooklyn for repairs. The line said the Rossia was scheduled to sail April 15 from Manhattan.

Max H. Sorensen, national commander of the Catholic War Veterans of America, called tonight for an end to ships of "potential war material" to Russia.

He issued a statement through the organization's office here in connection with picketing of the Russian ship Volga in Jersey City, N.J., today by members of the Hudson county chapter. The statement:

"Continued shipments of materials which add to the Soviet war potential is in direct contradiction to the world crisis attitude of the Truman Administration.

"If the President is giving the American public a full account of the precarious international situation it is either an unjustifiable oversight or dereliction of duty that permits American goods to be shipped to a nation that is a potential enemy.

"The Catholic War Veterans protest any further shipments of potential war materials to Russia and request an immediate and full investigation of the Soviet purchasing agency Amtorg and all governmental agencies which control foreign purchases and shipments."

Picketed Ship Idle

Jersey City, N.J., March 30 (AP)—The Russian freighter Volga lay idle at her pier today as longshoremen respected a picket line of Catholic war veterans protesting shipment of "war-potential" goods to the Soviet Union.

The veterans, from the Hudson county chapter, set up the picket line of fifteen men at the entrance to the Claremont terminal of the Lehigh Valley Railroad early today.

Stevedores, members of the International Longshoremen's Union (AFL), respected the picket lines morning and afternoon. A union spokesman said no night shift was planned. Two gangs, totaling 62 men, had been scheduled to start loading the vessel today.

Thomas J. Carlin, county Catholic War Veterans commander, said pickets would not be withdrawn "until either the Red ships leave the port or the Government does something to put an immediate stop to these exports."

The veterans on the picket line carried signs reading: "Starve Communistic Aggression. Stop These Shipments," and "Why Are We Shipping to Russia?"

ment sources figured, would be 3 to 5 per cent but on dungarees and high quality laundry, the reduction will be 25 per cent.

New prices will go into effect Friday, it was announced today.

Tomorrow the National Economic Council will meet to see how the new decree matches its demand for a ten per cent overall price cut. The council includes spokesmen for labor employers, consumers and Government. The council will also take a look at food prices and reports of experts who say these have gone down recently.

Thursday the executive board of the General Federation of Labor—the big Communist-led union which everybody in France calls CGT—will meet for the same kind of investigation. The federation has threatened to start another drive for pay increases if the price cuts are held insufficient.

THREE SLAIN IN RIOTING ON PANTELLERIA

Airborne Italian Troops Rushed To Quell Tax Disorders On Isle

Rome, March 30 (AP)—Airborne troops were rushed today to Pantelleria, the wartime fortress isle off the African coast, to quell a riot of 2,000 taxpayers.

Other reinforcements sped by boat from Sicily to help restore order after three persons were killed and fourteen wounded in what Rome newspapers called a "revolt."

The mob, yelling protests against "high taxes," stormed into the tax office, destroyed records, smashed furniture and set fire to the wreckage. The casualties resulted when police opened fire, and order was not restored until after arrival of troops by air from Rome.

Communists Protest Slayings

The riot coincided with mass demonstrations in northern Italy as campaigning for the April 18 elections reached a feverish pitch.

Heavily armed mobile police concentrated in Somaglia, a town of 3,000 near Milan, as a precaution when thousands of Communists marched in stormy protest against the killing of two of their fellows in a political fight there yesterday.

About 150 trucks rumbled through the center of Milan this afternoon, picking up Communist workers and carrying them to Somaglia where other thousands already had gathered.

But up to 7 P.M. there had been no violent incidents connected with the demonstration.

Two-Minute Stoppage

Milan's Chamber of Labor ordered a two-minute work stoppage tomorrow in protest against the killings. Bands of Communists roamed Milan's streets tonight after a giant demonstration. They brandished wooden staves and demanded relief payments.

At Canosa di Puglia, near Bari in southern Italy, police also patroled the streets after a political riot in which seven persons were injured. Ansa news agency said fighting began when Communists attacked a parade of university students.

Mladen Ivekovic, Yugoslav Minister to Italy, denied at a news conference that Yugoslavia had promised the return of Trieste to Italy if Communists win the election.

Palmiro Togliatti, Communist leader, said in a speech Saturday that he and Marshal Tito could settle the Trieste question in 48 hours. Ivekovic said Togliatti had received "no statement from Yugoslavia," but he said Yugoslavia wants an accord with Italy.

Italy Seeks A Remedy For Rash Of Violence

Rome, March 30 (AP)—Italian party leaders, disturbed by two political killings in the Leftist North yesterday, arranged to meet tomorrow to seek remedies for a rash of violence which threatens their campaign truce.

Communist Umberto Terrachini, president of the Constituent Assembly, who arranged the truce in an effort to bar bloodshed in the campaign for the vital April 18 elections, called the meeting.

Stave-swinging unemployed, some 7,000 strong, marched through the streets of Milan today, demanding work and relief payments. Police stood by because of yesterday's widespread outbursts, but there were no incidents of violence.

Visits Two Unions

The crowd visited the Industrial Union and the Commercial Union to make the demands.

When a committee member, who talked with officials of the Industrial Union, told them that they would get 5,000 lire ($8.33) April 2 there were mingled cheers and boos.

"We want work, not charity," some of them cried. Others shouted:

"They have promised before!"

Waving the staves, the crowd moved off a half-mile to the Commercial Union. There demands were made for its backing of unemployment relief.

The mob created no incident when it visited the latter union. It began to dwindle rapidly after the second visit.

The situation was tense as a result of the slaying of two Communists yesterday at Samoglia, 25 miles west of Milan, the Leftist stronghold of the north. Campaigners were mauled, beaten, pelted with overripe fruit and thrown from platforms at other points in the north. Both Leftists and Rightists were targets of the violence.

There was street fighting in Bari, in the south, and one man was stabbed.

Three Killed On Island

The Italian news agency Ansa reported from Pantelleria that three persons were killed and some others wounded there by police fire when a crowd, protesting taxation measures, set fire to a Government building.

Pantelleria is a small island off the Sicilian coast.

Italy's Christian Democrat Premier, Alcide de Gasperi, has literally talked himself hoarse trying to convince the Italians that the Communists must be defeated.

He spoke at Frosinone yesterday, and later gave a shortened version of the same speech at Cassino. He will be 67 years old Saturday and the vigorous campaigning has worn on him. His aides are worried about his health.

7000 Jobless March in Milan

Red-led Demonstrators Demand Relief—2 Slayings Threaten Election Truce.

Milan, March 30 (A. P.).—Some 7,000 stave-swinging unemployed Italians marched through the heart of Milan today, demanding relief payments and work.

The demonstration in this Leftist stronghold was called by the Communist-dominated Chamber of Labor. The crowd visited the Industrial Union and the Commercial Union to make the demands.

When a committee member, who talked with officials of the Industrial Union, told them that they would get 5,000 lire ($8.33) April 2, there were mingled cheers and boos.

Waving broken planks, carried as staves, the crowd moved off a half-mile to the Commercial Union. There, demands were made for its backing of unemployment relief.

Strong forces of police were near by, but despite placards reading "We are ready to do anything," and "We have had enough," the mob created no incidents when it visited the latter union. It began to dwindle rapidly after the second visit.

There were reports that Communists were assembling for a demonstration later today in the village of Samoglia, twenty-five miles southwest of Milan. It was at Samoglia that two Communists were shot to death yesterday during an argument between marchers and spectators.

'NINOTCHKA' DRAWS RUSSIAN PROTEST

Rome, March 30 (A. P.).—The Foreign Office disclosed today that Russia has made formal protest against the showing in Rome theaters of the American motion picture, "Ninotchka," a pre-war film which giggles at Communism.

A spokesman said that Ambassador Mikhail Kostylev's note of protest was delivered Saturday. The picture is playing to good crowds in five theaters.

SPANISH ARMY INCREASE SEEN

Franco Move Reported As Precaution Against Communism

Madrid, March 30 (AP)—Generalissimo Franco's regime was reported today ready to increase the Spanish army by about 300,000 men as a precautionary step in view of the Communist threat in Europe, especially Italy.

There is no official information available on such plans. It was reported, however, that the 1948 and 1949 classes may be called to the colors several months ahead of time.

An authorized source said tonight Spain "views with satisfaction" the action of the United States House of Representatives in voting to include Spain in the European Recovery Program.

Feeling Of Skepticism

The Government, however, will make no official comment at this stage, it was learned.

The authorized source said Spain was happy that justice would be done to Spain who has always maintained an anti-Communist position and it was expected that in the near future friendship with the United States will be founded on this "new realistic base."

There was a feeling of skepticism among Spaniards, however, that Spain actually will receive any aid under the program.

The Cabinet at its last meeting on March 22 is known to have given much attention to the report of José Antonio San Gronez, Spanish Ambassador in Rome. An informed source said the report described the situation as "very grave" and that the Cabinet took the "necessary measures."

A communiqué after the meeting said the ministers received a report on "the advance of Communism in Europe."

The machinery for calling up the class of 1948 is already in motion under Spain's two-year compulsory military service law.

Under normal procedure 140,000 to 150,000 youths 21 years of age would be called for this service in October. Shortly after, the 1946 class would be released.

It is considered likely, however, that if the 1948 and 1949 classes are called immediately that the 1946 and 1947 classes would remain in service.

Silence On Taylor

At the same time official Spanish sources maintained a guarded silence on reports that Myron Taylor, the White House Ambassador to the Vatican, is coming to confer with Franco Thursday.

Taylor is reported due when half a million Spaniards are scheduled to be watching a "victory day" parade of 12,000 soldiers, sailors and police in Madrid on the anniversary observance of the end of the civil war in 1939.

It is reported Taylor also will confer with Alberto Martin Artajo, Foreign Minister, and Enrique Cardinal Pla y Deniel, Primate of Spain, during his visit.

Russian Bloc Defeated On Reporter Freedom

Geneva, Switzerland, March 30 (AP)—The United Nations conference on freedom of information today adopted over Soviet bloc opposition a Philippine reslution to encourage the freedom of movement of foreign correspondents.

The resolution urged governments to "encourage the freest possible movement of foreign correspondents in the performance of their functions. . . and to expedite the administrative measures necessary for the entry, residence, movement and travel of foreign correspondents . . . in a manner consistent with their respective laws and procedures."

The vote for the resolution was 20 to 5.

During the session the Czechoslovak delegate, Adolf Hoffmeister, declared comment abroad on the death of Czechoslovakia's Foreign Minister, Jan Masaryk, was a "tragic example of irresponsibility."

Reds Ask End Of Warmongering

Geneva, Switzerland, March 30 (AP)—Russia asked newspapers of the world today to avoid slander and warmongering.

The admonition came from A. E. Bogomolov, chief Russian delegate to the United Nations Conference on Freedom of Information. His 50-minute talk contained the familiar attacks on United States and British newspapers.

He drew a distinction between what he called "Soviet democracy" and the "formal democracy" of the West, where, he said, the peoples have "abstract rights without assurance that they enjoy those rights."

He accused several British newspaper owners of exerting "censorship through their capitalist monopolies." He said "American newspapers and the information agencies controlled by them serve only the propertied minority, preaching respect and servility toward capitalism."

Bogomolov said the press "cannot be free unless it is true." He asserted that in Russia freedom of information is "truly realized on behalf of the people."

He asked the conference to stress not only the responsibility of the press to avoid slander and warmongering but to "fight fascism and Fascist ideologies."

REDS THREATEN CURBS ON SUPPLY LINES TO BERLIN

HEINZERLING

BERLIN, March 30 — (AP) The Russians threatened today to restrict the supply lifelines of the British, French and Americans in Berlin.

The lines pass through the Soviet occupied zone and are the only ground communication routes of the western powers in Berlin.

Lt. Gen. G. S. Lukyanchenko, Soviet chief of staff, made the threat, the latest Soviet act in a series apparently designed to disrupt four-power rule of Germany.

Leaders Refuse to Comment

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the American military governor, refused to comment on the Russian general's statement. British and French officials also would not comment, but high American officials not quotable by name indicated that interference with Allied supply lines could lead to serious consequences.

Gen. Lukyanchenko's statement appeared in the form of an interview in the Soviet-licensed newspaper Voerwarts. It came as the regular day for the meeting of the Allied Control Council passed without any move from the Russians to call the four-power military governors into session. The Russians have been boycotting the council meetings since they walked out 10 days ago.

The threat brought the war of nerves being conducted by the Russians and German Communists to a higher pitch. Communist newspapers have been charging under screaming headlines that spies, criminals, hungry Germans and looters have been crossing the border into the Soviet occupation zone by the hundreds.

U. S. Army officials in Frankfurt said they had no comment on the latest Russian story—an account in the Communist newspaper Pravda in Moscow saying a German spy ring financed by American military intelligence and German industrialists was working in the Soviet zone.

The story quoted a Berlin correspondent of Pravda as saying the group was headed in Germany by a man named Gerhard Pinkert, a former colonel in the German army. The story said former German spies left throughout eastern Europe during the war were being reorganized.

Gen. Lukyanchenko said the Russians intended to regulate and control road and rail traffic between Berlin and the western zones. The reason given was the rising tempo of reconstruction and agricultural life in the Soviet zone and the consequent heavy demands on railroads and highways.

No Violation, Clay Says

Frankfurt, Germany, March 30 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay has ruled that there was no violation of law or regulations in the way the United States war-crimes prosecution obtained a Chicago Tribune article before it was printed.

The United States commander in Germany wrote Hal Foust, Tribune correspondent who wrote the article, that Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor obtained the article prematurely by accident. General Taylor is chief prosecutor of the war-crimes staff.

General Clay said that there was no censorship or law violation involved. Whether General Taylor should have used the article to issue a public denial under the circumstances, General Clay said, was "a question of personal ethics."

Charges Wire Tapping

"I do not propose to either criticize or condone General Taylor's action," Clay wrote.

The ruling was disclosed today by Foust, who had charged that the Army tapped wires to obtain his story. The disputed acticle quoted Judge Charles Wennerstrum, of Iowa, a war-crimes trial judge, as criticizing the conduct of the trials by the American prosecution. General Taylor's denial was issued before the Tribune article had been published.

General Clay held that there was no ground for either civil or criminal proceedings against General Taylor and the war-crimes staff.

Foust said he told Clay that he did not agree with him, and asked leave to appeal the complaint to the Secretary of the Army in Washington.

GERMAN DP'S CONFESS SLAYING OF TWO GI'S

MUNICH, Germany, March 30. —(AP) Two displaced persons have confessed they slew two American soldiers because of jealousy over the affections of a gypsy girl, the Army Criminal Investigation division announced today. Both the DP's were charged with murder.

D. A. Gallant, Munich chief of the CID, said a gypsy girl named Sonya is held as a material witness in the killing of Pvts. Robert D. Graves and Solomon D. Booker.

The bodies were found Feb. 9 in a forest north of Munich.

Gallant quoted the two displaced persons as saying they and Sonya had sought out the soldiers and offered them large amounts of liquor as a gesture of friendship. Then, he said, the two men shot each of the soldiers in the back of their heads.

German Catholics To Open Peace Drive

Hamburg, March 30 (A. P.).—The Catholic Church in Germany is embarking on a campaign for peace and against political radicalism of all kinds, the office of Cardinal Frings, Archbishop of Cologne, announced today.

The campaign will open formally on April 1 with a mass demonstration for peace at Kevelair, near the Dutch frontier.

2 Austrians Slain In Soviet Zone Fray

Russian Soldiers Blamed in Dance Hall Fight

VIENNA, Austria, March 30 (AP). —Telephone communication between Vienna and Josefsberg, in the Soviet occupation zone, was cut today after the Ministry of the Interior had reported a "Wild West" shooting fray in which Russian soldiers killed at least two Austrians and wounded fourteen.

The Austrian government ministry's communique on the shooting was withdrawn toninght without explanation.

Earlier, Austrian officials said three persons were killed and nineteen wounded at a dance hall, but the communique listed only a twenty-year-old girl and the orchestra leader as dead, and fourteen as injured.

Austrian officials said a fight broke out in the dance hall at Josefsberg, forty-five miles south of Vienna, between a Russian soldier and civilians. The soldier went for help, the officials said, and returned with two companions in an army truck, and the three fired forty-six shots into the crowd with their machine pistols.

The communique did not identify the soldier as Russian, describing him only as a "man in uniform" who returned to the dance hall with his face blackened.

The government later its communique was withdrawn said a reward for information leading to identity of the soldiers had been offered.

REDS KILL 2 AT DANCE

Vienna, March 30 (A. P.).—The Interior Ministry said today that three Russian soldiers shot up a crowd in a dance hall at Josefberg, killing an Austrian girl and a band leader and wounding fourteen others.

A communique said a "man in uniform," who had fought at the dance with Austrian civilians, returned with his face blackened and with two companions. They forced their way into the hall and fired forty-six shots from their pistols.

The town, in the Russian occupation zone forty-five miles south of Vienna, could not be reached by telephone. Five of the injured are women. Five of those wounded still are in a critical condition, reports from the local hospital said. The Austrian Government offered a "substantial" reward for information leading to identification of the soldiers.

The shooting occurred at Josefberg, 45 miles south of Vienna, in the Russian occupation zone.

A ministry spokesman said a fight started between Austrian civilians and a Russian soldier. The soldier went for help. He returned in a truck with two companions, and all fired into the crowd, the spokesman said.

Austrian and Russian officials were investigating.

Czechs Refuse To Take Part In Probe Of Coup

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 30 (AP)—Czechoslovakia served notice today she would refuse to discuss before the United Nations Security Council Chile's charges that Russia had a hand in Government changes here.

Any invitation to Czechoslovakia to answer the Chilean charges will be rejected, it was stated at a news conference at the Foreign Office.

A formal statement said such an appearance to answer "frivolous" charges would be "undignified." It added that Jan Papanek, who as Czechoslovakia's chief United Nations delegate presented the original charges of Soviet interference, had been "deprived of his office for treason against his own state and breach of his service oath."

GREEKS BATTLE NEAR ALBANIA

Hard Fighting Reported In Vicinity Of Philiates

Athens, March 30 (AP)—A Greek communiqué reported hard fighting today near Philiates, 6 miles from the Albanian border.

The communiqué gave no details, but informed sources said the attack by the Greek Army's 8th Division may be the beginning of the spring offensive to crush Markos Vafiades's guerrillas along the Albanian-Yugoslav borders. The American military mission long has been advising on the preparations for a spring offensive. Greek officers have cautioned, however, that it might not be of a spectacular nature.

Philiates is near the western coast of Greece in Epirus. It is northwest of Konitsa, the town the guerrillas tried to capture last December for the capital of a separate Greek Communist state.

15 Guerrillas Dead

The independent liberal newspaper Eleftheria said the army seized two heights north of Philiates and suffered fifteen casualties. Fifteen guerrillas were reported found dead on the mountain battleground.

Military officials in Salonika said the 3d Army Corps also intercepted a large guerrilla force in the Crucia mountains 40 miles north of Salonika and a fierce battle had begun. This would be in the neighborhood of the Yugoslav-Bulgarian frontier.

Col. Temple G. Holland, of Dallas, Texas, chief of the United States military group attached to the 3d Army Corps, went to the fighting area to observe the operations.

15,000 May Be Called Up

Dwight P. Griswold, the administrator of the American aid program for Greece, said 15,000 additional young conscripts may be called up soon to serve in the new national defense corps battalions. They would replace older men.

He said the American State Department had approved use of American funds to train the men for 60 days before they replace the older guardsmen. After the first group is trained another 30,000 may be called up as replacements, Griswold said.

Griswold said the move would not boost the regular army strength of 132,000 nor affect the permanent strength of 96 defense corps battalions of 50,000 men.

Philiates. Fifteen guerrillas were found dead on the battlefield, the paper said. It said the army's total casualties in the attack were fifteen.

Unidentified Planes

The general staff communiqué said three unidentified planes were heard last night over the Peloponnesus. Guerrilla raids were reported on isolated villages in western Thrace and Macedonia.

Guerrilla attacks on villages have raised the number of refugees being cared for to 517,000, Welfare Minister Theodore Dessyllas announced.

Griswold said the move would not increase the regular army strength of 132,000 nor would it affect the permanent strength of 50,000 men in the 96 defense corps battalions.

Vice Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, commander of the United States Mediterranean Fleet now in Greek waters, paid formal calls today on Premier Themistokles Sophoulis and Foreign Minister Constantin Tsaldaris.

Greek Army Battles Rebels; U.S. Officials To 'Observe'

Athens, March 30 (AP)—Greek Army troops were locked in battle today with a large force of guerrillas in the Crucia Mountains area about 42 miles north of Salonika, military officials announced.

A dispatch from Salonika said Col. Temple G. Holland, of Dallas, Texas, chief of the joint United States military advisory planning group with the Greek 3d Army Corps, and Gen. Theodore Grigoropoulos, 3d Army commander, had gone to the area to observe operations.

In Athens, Dwight P. Griswold, chief of the United States aid mission, said an additional 15,000 young conscripts probably will be called up soon for service in the new Greek National Defense Corps, replacing older family men.

Near Albanian Line

The general staff reported tough fighting between the army and guerrillas near Philiates in Epirus, 6 miles south of the Albanian border.

Informed sources said an attack by the 8th Division in this area may be the beginning of the army's spring offensive to crush guerrillas in the mountains along the Albanian and Yugoslav borders.

U.S., German-Paid Spies Are In Red Zone: Pravda

Moscow, March 30 (AP)—Pravda said today that a German spy ring financed by American military intelligence and German industrialists is working in the Soviet occupation zone of Germany.

The Communist party newspaper quoted a special correspondent from Berlin as saying the group was headed in Germany by one Gerhardt Pinkert. Pravda identified Pinkert as a former Wehrmacht colonel and former commander of a regiment in the Brandenburg Division.

Complete operations are directed from Munich by a Colonel General Helder, the paper said.

Pravda said Pinkert gave full details of the ring's operation, and said "it is a Fascist organization . . . (which) receives large sums of money" each month.

Said To Be Ex-Nazi Officers

Pravda said the entire organization is made up of former German officers and has as its task among others, "the establishment of contact with German agents left in a series of countries during the war and with this purpose intends to use such countries as Austria and Sweden, through which there is the possibility to conduct such intelligence work."

Pravda quoted Pinkert as saying he received assignments through Hans Erasmus, identified as a former chief of staff of the Brandenburg Division. Pinkert made several illegal trips into the Soviet zone at Erasmus's order, Pravda said. There, the story said, Pinkert recruited former fellow officers for spy work and collected information on Soviet Army units and industry.

Say Germans Enter Red Zone

Both Pravda and Izvestia, the Soviet Government newspaper, carried reports today from Tass, saying hundreds of thousands of Germans have migrated from western Germany into the Soviet zone.

The Soviet news agency dispatch called the migration an "influx of the hungry population from the western zones."

The Tass dispatch said that during the past three months bread cards issued in the Soviet zone increased by 214,000 and implied the rise was due almost entirely to hungry Germans from the western zones occupied by the Americans and British.

The article quoted the Interior Minister of Thuringia as saying that between December, 1947, and March, 1948, there had been 74,000 illegal entries into Thuringia.

MOLOTOV FETES FINNS

Helsinki Is Silent on Progress of Military Pact Negotiations

MOSCOW, March 30 (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov entertained the Finnish Premier Mauno Pekkala and his treaty delegation tonight.

The Finns maintained silence today on the progress of their negotiations with Russian officials on a friendship and military pact requester by Premier Stalin.

Besides the Finnish and Russian officials, diplomatic representatives of foreign Governments and distinguished Russian citizens attended the reception. United States Ambassador Walter B. Smith and British Ambassador Sir Maurice Petersen were among the guests.

Reds In Chahar Retreat Under Air Attack

MAR 1948

Peiping, March 30 (AP)—Chinese Communist troops streamed out of southern Chahar province, Inner Mongolia, today under air attack, Government reports said.

The main Communist force, the dispatches added, has already crossed the Sankan River in a march toward hill bases in Hopeh province west of the Peiping-Paoting railway. The withdrawal followed a Government counteroffensive.

The Catholic newspaper, Social Welfare, reported that many Communist soldiers conscripted in southern Chahar surrendered with their arms. It said the Communist campaign there had ended but that guerrilla bands remained active.

Junction Of Chiang Troops

Dispatches said Government troops from Tatung, 150 miles west of Peiping, and Fengchen, a northern Shansi rail town, had joined, further easing the situation around Tatung. Earlier, a plane was chartered to evacuate 25 missionaries from Tatung. Peiping sources predicted a big battle there within a few days.

National planes spotted several thousand Reds moving southward from the railway between Tatung and Kalgan, 116 miles northwest of Peiping.

Forty thousand Communist troops were reported concentrated on the Mongolian plateau north of Kalgan. Officials at Changpei, 20 miles north of Kalgan, were preparing to leave. Changpei schoolchildren have already been moved to Kalgan for safety.

Fighting Near Changchun

Manchurian dispatches described apparently small-scale fighting on the outskirts of Government-held Changchun.

[One Shanghai report from Mukden said 5,000 Communists were massed outside Changchun and artillery fire was heard within the city. Another said 2,000 Red cavalrymen were striking an airfield 10 miles northwest of the besieged capital city.]

In Peiping, military police announced the arrest of five Chinese army employés on charges of selling 180 rifles, presumably to Communist agents. MP's said the ringleader, a colonel, was in hiding.

CHINESE REDS' DRIVE FALTERS

Bands Reported Scattering To Mountain Basis

Peiping, March 30 (AP)—An ambitious Communist drive west of Peiping appeared to have fallen apart today and the Communist bands were scattering to their mountain bases.

Chinese press dispatches said relief forces had reached Tatung, hard-pressed Government fortress 230 rail miles west of Peiping. The city had been encircled for more than a week.

On an adjacent front about 80 miles east of Tatung, Communist forces were reported in flight under heavy aerial attack.

Moving Out Of Chahar

These forces were moving out of Southern Chahar province to their mountain hideouts in Hopeh province west of Peiping.

The aim of the Communist Tatung-South Chahar operation apparently was to cut the corridor of Government territory west of Peiping which thrusts deep into Inner Mongolia. By cutting this corridor the Communists could link their holdings in Inner Mongolia with those in Manchuria.

[Dispatches to Shanghai said the Communists moving out of Chahar possibly would attack the railroad from Peiping to Inner Mongolia. This railroad forms the backbone of the Government corridor.]

The Catholic newspaper Social Welfare said the Communist campaign in South Chahar collapsed because Communist soldiers who had been conscripted surrendered to the Government.

Assembly Lacks Quorum

Nanking, March 30 (AP)—The National Assembly, China's first experiment in democracy, held its inaugural session today, but it was a lame affair without even a quorum present.

One reason there wasn't a quorum was the row over seating about 400 independents who weren't supposed to be elected in the first place.

Efforts to settle the dispute went on while inside the delegates were called to order, then marked time.

The independents are members of the Kuomintang, Chiang Kai-shek's majority party, but ran as writein candidates.

They were elected from districts where the Kuomintang had agreed not to enter candidates so that the minority Young China and Democratic Socialist parties would be assured Assembly seats.

Approximately 160 independents were seated. Now they are threatening to walk out unless 200 of their independent colleagues are seated too. Most of the remainder of the 400 have withdrawn.

Meanwhile, the Assembly was shy 279 delegates of a quorum of the 3,045 members. Thus it [illegible] not get on with the business [illegible] which it is called—naming a p[illegible]dent and vice president of Ch[illegible]

Chiang Kai-shek, of course, will remain as president.

The Assembly scheduled a second session for tomorrow in the hope enough late arrivals were on hand to get a quorum without the independents.

China Again Denies Seats To Insurgents

Nanking, March 30 (AP)—The National Assembly said "no" again today to a group of insurgents trying to get seated.

Some 160 independents who did receive credentials asked recognition for an additional 200, including ten hunger strikers. Secretary General Hung Lan-yu rejected their written motion. "This will only stir up trouble," he said.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek told the dissidents yesterday that they must yield their seats because "I have made my decisions and as national leader they cannot be changed."

Were Write-In Candidates

The insurgents are Kuomintang (Government party) members, who were elected as write-in candidates in districts promised to minority candidates.

The Assembly still is 279 delegates short of a two-thirds quorum of the 3,045 total members. It marked time awaiting the arrival of additional assemblymen. Its main business is to elect China's first constitutional president and vice president.

Assembly Needs Interpreter

NANKING, March 30 (AP)—Chinese asked for interpreters today so they could learn what other Chinese were saying in the National Assembly. One Cantonese delegate tried to make himself understood by Northerners who spoke Mandarin. That brought the official interpreter. Not all the delegates understood the interpreter.

Canadian Bombers Arrive

NANKING, March 30 (AP).—Twin-engine Mosquito bombers which China purchased from Canada made their first appearance over the national capital today. At Shanghai a second consignment of Canadian Mosquitos was unloaded from the motorship Lakeside. China bought a total of 150. The Lakeside also carried more than 6,000 tons of arms, ammunition and railway supplies.

Jap Union Drops Strike Threat

Tokyo, March 30 (AP)—The Japanese Communications Workers Union called off its threatened general strike of 400,000 members today.

An estimated 200,000 already had walked out, however, in regional layoffs.

General MacArthur yesterday banned the general strike. Mitsuji Nagaoka, chief union secretary, said he did not believe the directive applied to regional walkouts.

Regional Strikes Continue

Union President Kazuyoshi Dobashi announced regional work stoppages would be continued in most of Japan's vital areas. A new union order calls for 48-hour layoffs beginning tomorrow in Hokkaido and in northern Honshu.

Tokyo is excepted—"It's too close to General MacArthur," a union spokesman said. The union is seeking higher pay.

The Shakai Shimbun, Social Democratic party newspaper, published a purported Japan Communist party directive for a "March offensive." It said the instructions, dated February 10, told labor-union Communists to stage wildcat strikes, indulge in sabotage and "use all other tactics" to promote the offensive.

Tokyo's municipal transportation workers returned to streetcars and busses, ending a three-day walkout. Four tax collectors were discharged for staying off their jobs.

But Government office workers, employés in the Government mint, printing office, tax collectors and others in public posts continued taking "leaves of absence" which in effect are short-term strikes.

Seoul, March 30 (AP)—The United Nations Commission today rejected an American proposal to delay the May 9 election to form a Korean Government in the United States zone.

It will approve a postponement later if necessary, the commission informed Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge, United States commander of South Korea. Hodge had requested rescheduling the election for May 24. He said the national election committee was having difficulty making arrangements.

Russians Refuse

The election will be limited to the American zone because the Russians refused to let the United Nations observers enter North Korea. A Soviet-sponsored government is being formed in North Korea with the announced aim of ruling the entire country.

Why the Russians were having Koreans dig trenches along the occupation boundary continued to puzzle Americans. Some said the Russians must be seeking to justify their propaganda that Americans and South Koreans were planning to attack.

Experienced United States Army officers said the trenches were tactically worthless. They have been studying the border activities through field glasses since work began March 9. Newsmen saw the digging yesterday.

Held Easy Targets

Officers said the entrenchments would be easy targets for machineguns and mortars fired from the protection of natural terrain on the United States side.

They suggested a better job could be done with half the effort and half the number of men by utilizing natural terrain.

Hodge made no mention of the boundary digging in his election postponement request. He said the election committee was having trouble getting election materials printed, due to a shortage of supplies, and in getting information to remote areas.

The commission termed the reasons insufficient.

U.N. Denies U.S. Plea To Delay Korea Vote

REDS' KOREAN TRENCHES USELESS, OFFICERS SAY

SEOUL, March 30 — (AP) U. S. Army officers with combat experience said today the trenches being dug just inside the Soviet occupation zone of North Korea would be useless in a battle.

(Washington sources have suggested the trenches are there for propaganda purposes. The propaganda line is that North Korea must be ready for an attack from the American zone in the south.)

These officers studied the activities through field glasses. They said the entrenchments would be easy targets for machineguns and mortars fired from the protection of commanding terrain to the south.

As a matter of fact, they said the Soviet side could be fortified without digging a foxhole. All they would have to do would be to take advantage of the hills the terrain provides.

Filipino Denies Charge

MANILA, Wednesday, March 31 (AP)—Melecio Arranz, Philippines delegate to the United Nations Korean Commission, today denied Russian charges that he had acted as a "puppet" of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. A Moscow broadcast monitored in Seoul, Korea, said "MacArthur passed through Arranz to the Korean commission an order to act bravely and speedily" in ordering a Korean general election to set up a government.

Mr. Arranz said his views were his own, and that he had made up his mind before he left home that an election should be held regardless of Russian opposition.

Grenade Kills 3 Filipinos

MANILA, March 30 (AP).—Governor Gregorio Santayana of Quezon Province reported today that three women were killed and thirty persons wounded by a grenade tossed into a crowd at a high-school celebration. The incident occurred at Baler, a coastal town eighty-nine miles east of Manila.

Filipino Troops Mutiny, Kill 3, Refuse to Yield

MANILA, March 30 (AP).—Forty-four Philippines Constabulary men, intrenched in their barracks, refused to surrender today after a mutiny in which three officers were slain.

Constabulary Chief Brigadier Mariano Castaneda, hurrying to the scene at Naic, Cavite, twenty-three miles southwest of Manila, gave the soldiers until midnight. He told his men to start shooting if the mutineers fail to come out then.

"The Manila Times" reported the enlisted men turned machine guns on the company commander and two lieutenants. The mutiny was the outgrowth of an unexplained slapping incident.

Mutiny leaders asked to be allowed to present their grievances. Brigadier Castaneda ordered them to surrender first.

MAR 1948

MUTINY HALTED

MANILA, (Wednesday), March 31—(AP) Philippine Constabulary headquarters announced the peaceful surrender today of a group of enlisted men who had mutinied and slain three officers.

The number surrendering was not reported here. Forty-four had been holding out in Constabulary quarters at Naic, 23 miles southwest of Manila.

(The mutiny reportedly began after an officer slapped an enlisted man.)

Vatican Seeks Solution.

Vatican City, March 30 (A. P.).—The Vatican is attempting to contribute to a solution of the conflict in Palestine, an informed person said today. The exact nature of the Holy See's activity was not described.

The informant said that, in addition to its concern over the human aspects of the strife between Arabs and Jews, the Vatican is alarmed lest some of the Holy Land's historical places should be irreparably damaged.

JEWS AND ARABS AGREE TO OBSERVE GENEVA WAR CODE

Pave Way for International Red Cross to Start Work in Palestine.

FOOD SUPPLIES LOW

Jews Order Bread Rationed as Supply Lines Are Cut.

JERUSALEM, March 30 (AP)—The Jews and Arabs have promised to observe the Geneva convention rules of war, an International Red Cross spokesman said today.

The pledge paves the way for the mercy organization to start work in the Holy Land, now torn by civil war.

In Jerusalem bread rationing was decreed for the city's 100,000 Jews for the first time since the outbreak of current hostilities. The move was made necessary apparently by the repeated Arab attacks on Jewish convoys and other interference in the moving of food and supplies to Jerusalem.

Food Supplies Low

Jews said their food supplies were "dangerously low." No similar shortage appeared in the Arab sections, which are supplied over Arab-controlled roads in eastern Palestine and neighboring Arab countries.

Jaques De Reynier, the Red Cross spokesman, said the Jews and Arabs had given oral promises to cooperate with the organization and observe the code of warfare as laid down in the Geneva convention.

This means both sides must afford protection to the wounded and sick regardless of whether they are Jew or Arab, provide security to those who do not take part in the war, especially women, children and the aged. Prisoners of war must be given humane treatment.

Reynier said he would seek $250,000 for administrative costs to cover a year's participation in Palestine war relief work. He will try to collect from Jews and Arabs as much as possible for ambulances, hospitals and other relief activity.

Eight Swiss officers of the Red Cross will be stationed in Palestine —three in Jerusalem, one each in Tel Aviv, Jaffa, Haifa, Nablus and Gaza, Reynier added. They will work with Jewish ad Arab organizations.

Written Adherence Due

He said written adherence to the Geneva terms is expected next week. This is required before the Red Cross starts its actual work.

Reynier said he was well received both by the Jewish Agency and the Arab leadership, including the Mufti of Jerusalem, Haj Amin el Husseini. The Jewish and Arab medical societies, Red Crescent and Magen David Adom, have been doing relief work for the wounded.

Rain, wind and intermittent sleet dampened the ardor of Jewish and Arab fighters during the day. The Arabs renewed sporadic attempts to cut off Jewish highway traffic, and two bridges were blown up in northern Palestine.

Today's death toll included four Jews and three Arabs. The unofficialw toll since the United Nations' decision November 29 to partition Palestine hit 2,220.

Strike At Four Points

The Arabs struck at four points last night in the battle over control of Palestine highways.

Jewish sources said 80 Arabs attacked Jewish traffic at Kfar Sava, 10 miles north of Tel Aviv. Two Jewish cars were disabled by mines during an Arab attack on a convoy at Ein Ghazel village near Haifa. The vital Haifa-Jordan Valley road near Kfar Yehezgel was also under attack.

Haganah guns beat off new attacks at beleaguered Neve Yaacov settlement north of Jerusalem astride the Jerusalem-Ramallah road.

British security forces searched Athlit camp and found considerable military arms and equipment, police said. The camp houses several hundred Jewish political prisoners.

Jerusalem, March 30 (AP)—An International Red Cross spokesman said today that the Jews and Arabs have promised to observe the Geneva convention's rules of war.

Jaques DeReynier, the spokesman, said a Red Cross committee had met both sides and received oral promises. Written agreements are expected next week. DeReynier said he was "well received both by the Jewish Agency and by Arab leadership, including the Mufti."

Bread Rationing Begins

The Jewish community in Jerusalem began rationing bread today for the first time.

Jews said food supplies in their areas are "dangerously low." Bread has been scarce for several days and bakeries have stopped offering cakes and pastries.

There appeared to be no similar shortage in Arab sections of this embattled city. The Arabs are supplied over open roads from Arab-held eastern Palestine and neighboring Arab countries.

Jerusalem Jews had expected a food convoy from Tel Aviv today, but said its arrival was uncertain.

Four Supply Line Attacks

A group of armed Jews held up two army trucks loaded with twenty tons of white flour yesterday in the Petah Tiqva area. They escaped with the trucks, cargo and the uniforms and arms of the military escort.

Arab fighters struck during the night at four points on Jewish supply lines to isolated settlements. Jews said there were casualties on both sides.

These principles of the Geneva convention include humane treatment of the sick and wounded, respect for the dead, security of noncombatants and rights of captives as prisoners of war.

Attacks Described

The Jewish press said 80 Arabs attacked Jewish traffic at Kefar Sava, 10 miles north of Tel Aviv. Haganah, Jewish militia, said this attack, against a supply convoy to Ramat Hakovesh settlement, was beaten off after hours of fighting during which one Haganah fighter was killed and seven wounded. The report said an undetermined number of Arabs was killed and wounded.

Mines disabled two Jewish cars and four trucks were abandoned during an Arab attack on a convoy to Ein Ghazal village, near Haifa. Haganah said three Jews were wounded in this encounter.

Jewish Bus Hits Mine

The vital Haifa-Jordan Valley road was under fire in the area of Kefar Yehezgel. A Jewish bus in the same area struck a mine and three passengers were hurt.

Haganah guns in beleaguered Neev Yaacov settlement on the Jerusalem-Ramallah road beat off new attacks aimed at cutting supply lines from the Holy City. The road was still under fire this morning.

Jewish snipers fired on an Arab transport on Bethlehem road, where a Jewish convoy was ambushed Good Friday. Haganah claimed Arab troops from Trans-Jordan had moved into positions overlooking the road.

IRAN CHIDES SOVIET IN REPLY TO NOTE

Tehran, March 30 (A. P.).—Iran has told Russia that she believes good will between two nations works both ways.

An Iranian note to the Soviet embassy, made public last night, described as absolutely without foundation Russian propaganda which pictures Iran as becoming a military base against the U. S. S. R.

The note said persons related to the Russian Government continue to spread unfriendly views about the status of United States military advisers here despite repeated explanations. The employment of foreign advisers, it contended, constitutes a continuation of Iran's policy of safeguarding her own interests.

The note said the same persons have circulated propaganda about Iran's policy in connection with northern Iranian oil deposits. It denied that Americans are trying to get hold of the northern oil.

"As repeatedly mentioned to the Soviet Government's authorities both in Moscow and in Tehran," the note continued, "the Iranian Government again strongly assures that there is no enmity in Iran toward our great neighbor and ally, the Soviet Union, and it has always been our wish to maintain good neighborly relations with her.

"But as it is practiced by all countries, including the Soviet Union, good neighborly relations should be observed by both parties."

COMMUNISTS ALARM BURMA

Call For Fight On Regime Of Premier Thakin Nu

Rangoon, Burma, March 30 (AP)—The Communist White Flag party urged today a fight to the finish against the regime of Premier Thakin Nu. The Burmese press expressed hope the horrors of civil war would be averted.

Political tension heightened as the Premier ordered police to arrest on sight Thakin Than Tun, fugitive leader of the White Flag party.

Cabinet Shakeup Forecast

The Premier also ordered disarmament of the People's Volunteer Organization, formed by the Anti-Fascist People's Freedom League, the Government party, last year when Burma was bargaining with the British for independence.

This move caused considerable unrest and the Cabinet was summoned into an emergency meeting to consider the situation, high political sources said. Some newspapers predicted there would be a Cabinet shakeup.

The crackdown against the Communists and volunteer group followed an appeal by the Freedom League to accept a four-point peace plan. The Communists refused to accept. Thakin Than Tun had publicly called for the support of all Burmese in a drive against Premier Thakin Nu' regime.

Urged Lifting Of Ban

Warrants were issued Sunday for the arrest of Thakin Than Tun on charges of attempting to incite rebellion. His supporters have paraded in the streets waving hammer-and-sickle banners and shouting anti-Government slogans.

Informants said the decision to disarm the People's Volunteer Organization was reached after the organization urged the lifting of a ban on the Red Flag party, another Communist group. The organization also asked that the Socialists be purged from the Government party.

The Communist strength was strongest in the hinterlands, especially in the Yinnana and Yamethin.

Burma Orders Arrest Of 4 Red Leaders

Rangoon, Burma, March 30 (AP)—Burma's police today were ordered to arrest Thakin Than Tun, White Flag party leader, and three other top Burmese Communists, officials announced.

Than Tun is wanted by the Burmese Government on charges of attempting to incite rebellion, the officials said.

Although Rangoon is quiet, security measures continued. Much political unrest was reported in the interior, especially in Yinnana and Yamethin, Communist strongholds.

PVO Told To Disarm

Official sources also disclosed that the Government has ordered the People's Volunteer Organization to disarm.

High government sources said the order was issued after the PVO urged lifting the Government ban against "Red-flag Communists," and asked that Socialists be purged from the Anti-Fascist People's Freedom League, which is the Government party.

The PVO, once the private army of the late Gen. U. Aung San, was armed last year by the league when it wanted a military arm to back up Burma's bargaining with Britain for independence.

Cabinet Shakeup Forecast

Aung San, anti-Communist and slated to be the country's first Premier, was assassinated last July 19.

During the past few days the PVO has been parading the streets and displaying arms prominently.

The Burmese press forecast a reshuffling of the Cabinet.

Pan-American Delegates Pray For Success Of Bogota Parley

Bogota, Colombia, March 30 (AP). Delegates to the ninth International Conference of American States prayed today for Divine guidance.

President Mariano Ospina Perez of Colombia was to open the conference late this afternoon with a welcoming address to the representatives of 21 nations.

Msgr. Ismael Perdomo, Archbishop of Bogota, celebrated a solemn high mass for the delegates in the century-old Bogota Cathedral, across the square from the scene of the meetings. Flags of all the republics decorated the square.

Marshall Is Acclaimed

As each delegation arrived at the cathedral for the services, the assembled crowd applauded. For United States Secretary of State Marshall the applause became an ovation.

Three basic projects face the delegates:

1. Molding of the inter-American system into a strong regional bloc within the framework of the United Nations.

2. Creation of a program of economic aid for Latin America.

3. Enactment of a pact providing for a peaceful solution of differences between the American republics.

Two More Issues

Not on the agenda, but certain to play an important role in the discussions, are the issues of communism and colonialism in the Western Hemisphere. Chile, Paraguay and Cuba have expressed hope the conference will take a stand against Communist infiltration in the Americas.

A heavy guard was thrown around the Presidential Palace as delegates arrived. Officials feared a possible Communist demonstration.

A source close to Mexican Foreign Secretary Torres Bodet said Mexico will propose that a special bank be established to make loans to American nations. It would be set up with funds provided by the American nations themselves, although the bulk of the capital would be expected to come from the United States.

COMMUNISM VOTED TOPIC IN BOGOTA TALKS

Marshall Raises Issue Of Soviet-Inspired Activities In New World

Bogota, Colombia, March 30 (AP). Gen. George C. Marshall, United States Secretary of State, tossed the hot issue of Soviet-inspired Communist activities in the Western Hemisphere into the conference of American republics today and the delegates voted by acclamation to consider it.

The action was taken just before the ninth International Conference of American States opened its formal sessions.

"Considerable Concern"

Marshall did not mention communism by name, but there was no doubt of his meaning when he posed this question at a preliminary session prior to the formal opening:

"I should like to raise the question at this time as to whether the agenda as it now stands may be considered to premit the discussion of the problem of foreign subversive activities directed against the institutions and peace and security of the American republics.

"I am told this is a subject of considerable concern to the countries represented here. I now merely raise the question as to whether or not the present agenda permit such discussion."

Vote Unanimous

The delegates voted unanimously that "foreign-inspired subversive activities" could be discussed.

Chile, Paraguay and several other republics have said in preconference statements they were seeking a strong declaration condemning communism, even going so far as to have the conference take joint action to curb it in the Western Hemisphere.

The American attitude has not been defined at the conference. A member of the United States delegation, asked to interpret Marshall's question, replied: "It speaks for itself."

6 Commissions Voted

The preparatory meeting voted to break down the conference into six separate commissions to handle these subjects:

1. The organic pact of the inter-American system as a regional branch of the United Nations.

2. Systems of specialized organizations for financing the Pan-American Union.

3. Peaceful settlement of controversies and collective defense.

4. Economic treaty for boosting living standards and industrializing the Americas.

5. Social matter (education, cultural activities, social legislation, etc.).

6. Political matters which include the defense and preservation of the democracy of the Americas.

The subject of Communist infiltration of the American nations would fall to this commission.

Gomez Elected President

Laureano Gomez, Foreign Minister of Colombia, was elected permanent president of the conference.

Additional projects added to the agenda included United States proposals for easing travel conditions for tourists; united action to combat ignorance, poverty, malnutrition and disease; and creation of an inter-American institute for exchange of technical information and research.

A Mexican project for creation of an inter-American bank was withheld temporarily when the Mexican delegate learned Peru had already offered a similar measure.

Romulo Betancourt, head of the Venezuelan delegation, said in an interview a "cordon" should be thrown around anti-democratic governments in the Americas. He did not name any specifically, but said some were located in Central America.

Prior to the formal opening of the conference the delegates prayed for divine guidance in the century-old Bogota Cathedral, across the square from the site of the meetings. Msgr. Ismael Perdomo, Archbishop of Bogota, celebrated a solemn mass for the delegates.

An assembled crowd applauded the delegates as they arrived, but for Secretary Marshall the applause turned into an ovation.

Pope Pius XII sent his blessing to the conference. A brief message read at the Mass urged the delegates to work for success of the conference and world peace.

RUSSIAN HITS U.S. ON CHIN

Says We Seek Uranium and H Trade Monopoly There

LONDON, March 30 (AP) — T Moscow radio said tonight that American "militarists" were prospecting for uranium, the basic element of the atomic bomb, in northwestern China.

A commentator, Mikhail Mihahilov, said that Americans also were making an aerial survey and detailed topographical maps of the country. He quoted the "Chinese press" for his reports.

Mr. Mihahilov also said that "American imperialism" was monopolizing the Chinese market. A powerful propaganda machine has been created in China and American control had been established over the educational system, he added.

The Moscow radio also quoted a Tass dispatch from New Delhi, India, saying that American "imperialism" had been making an aerial survey of Indonesia. The broadcast said the survey had "not only military aims but also that of careful investigation of raw material resources."

Shaw Says Idea Russia Wants War Is 'Nonsense'

LONDON, March 30 (AP).—"The London Evening News" quoted George Bernard Shaw today as saying the Soviet Union does not want war.

Columnist John Carpenter said that Mr. Shaw was asked whether he shared "the American view that the U. S. S. R. is bent on aggression," and that Mr. Shaw replied:

"This is ignorant nonsense. No European country can afford war, least of all Russia. If Stalin countenanced such a folly, he would be shot or put in a mental home.

"The atom bomb is out of the question, just as gas was in the last war. It is too destructive to both sides."

Subs Off U.S. Not Russ, Tass Says

London, March 30 (AP)—Tass, the official Soviet news agency, denied last night that submarines sighted off the United States were Russian.

The agency's dispatch said such reports were an "absurd and grossly slanderous invention, calculated to deceive American public opinion."

John L. Sullivan, United States Secretary of the Navy, told a Senate committee last week submarines had been sighted off the American coast which did not belong to any nation "west of the Iron Curtain."

Tass said Sullivan "gave it to be understood that these submarines were Russian ones."

WALLACE DENIES RUSSIAN THREAT

Tells Senators Administration Is Trying to Railroad U.S. Into War.

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) Henry A. Wallace accused the Truman administration today of trying to railroad this country into a war which it could not win.

The third party presidential candidate charged that "preparations and plans for compulsory military training and the draft do not "differ" from those of the leaders of Nazi Germany.

Under sometimes caustic questioning in a three-hour session with the Senate Armed Services Committee, Wallace said:

Denies Russian Threat

"I see no threat to us from Russian communism today."

He declared: "Russia has not taken over Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary, Czechoslovakia or Poland. The countries she has taken over are Latvia, Esthonia and Lithuania."

And he described the Truman doctrine as a "program of unlimited aggression."

Sharply, Wallace said:

"I charge that an artificial crisis was deliberately manufactured to stampede congress and the people into accepting universal military training and conscription."

He lashed out at both the draft and UMT. He said they were part of "a political program to control the American people."

Wallace spoke less than 24 hours after President Truman suggested sarcastically that he go to the Soviet Union and help the Russians "against his own country."

He urged that the U. S. take the lead in outlawing the atom bomb and go "back again down the road of good neighborliness, charted by (Franklin D.) Roosevelt."

Questioned by senators after his 45-minute statement, Wallace proposed as he has done before that "we should meet with Stalin and get an overall agreement" to stave off an armaments race.

"I believe I could be helpful in it," Wallace said, referring to such a conference.

"Barkis is willin'," quipped Senator Russell (D-Ga), quoting the man in "David Copperfield" who was ready to be married if the lady said the word.

Wallace suggested at another point that the men who served in World War II could be called back into service if needed.

Gurney In Caustic Comment

"I can understand how you, as a non-veteran, can make that statement," said Chairman Gurney (R-SD) unsmilingly.

Wallace said the "Truman-Forrestal doctrine," as he called it, would "whet the appetites" of military leaders until they demanded $40,000,000,000 to $50,000,000,000 a year for arms—"not to protect America but because they want more power."

And he predicted that the stepped-up defense program would raise prices "above the clouds," regiment the people, stifle criticism, freeze wages and "terrorize" the unions.

It was Wallace's second appearance before a congressional committee in recent weeks. In earlier testimony to the house foreign affairs committee, he denounced the European recovery program as a scheme to destroy liberties at home and abroad and as a blueprint for war.

Talk of a revived OPA was heard meanwhile, with some senators suggesting that defense costs would add to inflation dangers.

30.24- 16625

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters, however, that the cost of military preparedness should have no "very material effect" on prices. Taft said he was assuming that the extra costs would run between 2,000,000,000 and $4,000,000,000.

He said he sees no reason for setting up such things as standby wage and price controls. Both were recommended to the armed services committee by financier Bernard M. Baruch yesterday as part of a "total plan" for mobilizing industry and manpower.

O'Mahoney Differs

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) like Taft a member of the senate-house economic committee, took issue with the Ohio senator. He said military costs will be so great that "they are bound to have an effect" on prices.

Several religious leaders opposed UMT and the draft.

Charles F. Boss, Jr., executive secretary of the Methodist Commission on World Peace, told the senate committee that the 8,500,000 adult Methodists in this country are "solidly opposed" to both measures.

He proposed that the president meet in some neutral country with Premier Stalin "in order to break the deadlock" between the U. S. and Russia.

(Mr. Truman has said he will be glad to meet Stalin, but only in this country.)

The draft and UMT also were opposed by the Rev. Donald B. Cloward for the Northern Baptist Convention and Walter W. Van Kirk, appearing for the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Wallace said he thought the U.S. should have "a first class defense force, based on scientific research and the latest developments in military technology."

Truman Leading U.S. Into War, Wallace Says

Washington, March 30 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace said today the Truman Administration created a "false crisis" and is deliberately leading the American people toward war.

"I charge," said Wallace, "an artificial crisis was deliberately manufactured to stampede Congress and the people into accepting universal military training and conscription."

The third party presidential candidate denounced Administration policies in a 5,500-word statement prepared for the Senate Armed Services Committee. The committee is hearing testimony for and against U.M.T. and a temporary revival of the wartime draft to back the Administration's new halt-Russia policy.

Assailed By Truman

Wallace's testimony was distributed to reporters several hours before Mr. Truman struck out anew last night at his ousted Cabinet officer by suggesting that he go to Russia.

The President spoke extemporaneously at a dinner meeting of Greek-Americans. He declared that his country "never wants war."

"But," Mr. Truman asserted, "there are certain things which are worse than war. One of them is slavery."

Sees Forced Labor

Among accusations the former Vice President leveled in his statement at the Chief Executive and his policy makers were these:

1. The current international crisis was "concocted" not only to promote big business, but also to stave off an economic crisis at home.

2. Forced labor for workers will result from a remobilization program.

3. The Administration "is arming us for a war without limits or inhibitions—a war as dangerous for ourselves as it is for others."

4. The Administration's military policy intends to impose "military control of every kind."

5. America is threatening the security of the world.

Wallace said "our country is in danger." But he insisted the danger comes from our own policies "which will bring war—unnecessary war—upon our country."

Doubts Russ Threat

"The crisis lies in the war fever itself—not in real threats of invasion, but in the synthetic 'threats of invasion' pumped out to support the arms program. . . .

"The Administration is again using the 'crisis' technique. The objective of this fear campaign is to paralyze the wills and minds of the American people so that they will accept the plans to militarize America.

"But the security of the United States is not threatened—except from Washington."

Wallace denied that Russia is any threat, saying that country lost 10,000,000 lives in the last war.

Russ Weak, He Says

He added:

"It will take the Soviet Union many years to attain an industrial output equal to one half our current production. . . . The single fact is that the Soviet Union cannot attack the United States."

"When pressed to reveal what they mean by the threat to national security, the drum-beaters for militarization bring out another alleged danger—'political aggression.' This is described as 'Communist infiltration' in Europe and Asia.

"These phrases confuse the realities of a world in transition. . . . President Truman and the bipartisan supporters of his anti-Communist crusade are saying in effect that American security is threatened by the endeavors of backward countries everywhere to lift themselves from fedualism into the modern world of the Twentieth Century.

"On The March"

"Change anywhere in the world is labeled 'aggression' by the bipartisans."

Wallace went on: "The people of the world are on the march toward a more abundant life. Their struggles for progress are very much like those which marked the development of our own country. Their aspirations for a better life do not threaten the American people. . . .

"If we are to compete with communism, we had better get on the side of the people. We must practice the democracy we preach. If we do, we shall have allies which bribes and arms can't buy."

"Welcomed By Business"

Wallace said the President's move for U.M.T. and a draft revival carries the Truman doctrine "to a new stage—military action." He added:

"The economics of aggression dictate the following progression: Butter and guns are followed by guns and butter and finally by guns and dry bread.

"While the people tighten their belts, the huge corporations profit on war orders. Important sections of big business welcome remobilization—U.M.T. and the draft—as a needed shot in the arm. They were worried that the inflationary boom might peter out and be followed by a bust."

Wallace predicted that adoption of the military program will mean attacks on labor by employers, a labor draft, the outlawing of strikes and a freeze on wages.

Reversal Urged

He said:

"If the United States were to reverse the Truman doctrine with its program of unlimited aggression, then it could develop and carry out a military policy that would truly safeguard national security at a small fraction of present military expenditures."

Wallace contended this country's military establishment should be "a modern first-class defense force, based on scientific research and the latest developments in military technology."

"With such a scientific military establishment," he asserted, "the United States could not be threatened anywhere in the world, since it would be backed up by the almost limitless war potential of our incomparable industrial power and the millions of trained reserves who fought in World War II."

Holds Peace Possible

"Peace will come if the American people and their Government really work for peace," Wallace said. "If they have the will to peace, war can be prevented."

Earlier, an educator told the committee the United States should quit trying to outmatch Russia in massed men under arms.

Instead, Alonzo F. Myers, New York University professor, urged an increase in air power and more billions for scientific research and development of weapons. He also called for greater support for the United Nations.

Called Waste Of Money

Myers testified for the National Council Against Conscription. He termed U.M.T. a "complete waste of money and manpower."

The new opposition to broad use of manpower came as senators talked of the possibility of reviving wage-price controls and rationing. These and other curbs were discussed informally with the senators linking inflation dangers to plans for big military spending.

Although sharply opposing U.M.T., Myers said educators would accept a temporary revival of the draft if that is the only way to get enough manpower for defense.

Population Cited

"We cannot possibly out-match Russia in men under arms. I don't think we need to try that," Myers said. He noted the much larger population of Russia and her allies.

Senator Saltonstall (R., Mass.) asked if Myers favors retention of the draft for an indefinite period.

Myers said no such long-range program is required if the United States aids recovery of other nations and strengthens the United Nations instead of "trying to break it down."

Investigation Asked

The educator said both the Air Force and Navy now are getting all the men they need by voluntary enlistments. He suggested Congress investigate why the Army ground forces can't do the same.

The Rev. Huber F. Klemme, of Cleveland, also opposed compulsory peacetime military training and service. He is executive secretary of the commission on Christian social action of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Lawrence R. Mallery, Jr., appearing for the Greater Philadelphia Committee Against Peacetime Conscription, suggested the United States take world leadership for peace by asking all nations "to renounce their national sovereignty to the United Nations."

Stalin Talks Urged

A new call for personal talks between President Truman and Marshal Stalin to bring about world peace came from Charles F. Boss, Jr., a leader of the Methodist Church.

Boss, executive secretary of the Methodist Commission on World Peace, told the committee:

"We believe the President should be willing to meet in some neutral country (in cities), such as Stockholm or Geneva, with Stalin for the purposes of resolving some present Soviet-American problems in order to break the deadlock."

"Solidly Opposed"

Mr. Truman said he would be willing to talk with Stalin if the Russian leader would come to Washington.

Boss said the 8,500,000 adult members of the Methodist Church "are solidly opposed to the adoption of any form of peacetime universal military training or conscription."

Boss added that Mr. Truman should call upon Stalin "to arrange for the fullest interchange of religious, educational, scientific, artistic and business leaders."

"Contrary To Ideals"

Two other churchmen also vigorously opposed the U.M.T. peacetime program as contrary to American ideals and tradition, and likely to set off an armaments race that would end in war.

They are Walter W. Van Kirk, appearing for the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, and the Rev. Donald B. Cloward, of the Northern Baptist Convention.

The Rev. Mr. Cloward said the voluntary enlistment plan "has not yet been thoroughly tested."

Stimson's Forecast On Russia

Washington, March 30 (AP)—Henry L. Stimson believes America's best answer to communism is to prove that the democratic way of life is here to stay, growing richer and more stable as the years pass.

The former Secretary of State and of War says he doesn't expect Russia to start a war. He writes in the Ladies Home Journal that if the democratic philosophy wins out in the non-Communist nations the Russian leaders will have to either "change their minds, or lose their jobs."

To help along the success of democratic nations he counsels quick American aid to Europe and belief that the United States is now committed to a role of world leadership.

Some Uncertainty

This Stimson discussion of Russia-versus-Western democracies is the last excerpt from his book "On Active Duty," which has been appearing serially.

Stimson expresses some uncertainty over his own prescription. He says it may not be possible to change Russian minds, because "dictators do not change easily."

He adds: "Rather than be persuaded of their error, the Soviet leaders might in desperation resort to war, and against that possibility we have to guard by maintaining our present military advantages."

He says that in the final analysis he believes only a world government will keep a lasting peace: "Lasting peace . . . cannot be achieved until the world finds a way toward the necessary government of the whole."

From Tehran To Postdam

He traces in this article his own reactions to Russian foreign policy. He says that from Tehran (December, 1943) to Potsdam (July, 1945) American policy was governed by eagerness to get Russia into the Pacific war.

But midway of Potsdam the American delegation, led by President Truman, got the news that a test had proved the atom bomb a success. From then on the Americans thought Russia's entry into the Pacific war "pointless."

Mr. Truman dropped the subject. But Stalin kept pressing for bases outside the so-called Russian sphere and demanded recognition of Kremlin control of central Europe.

Police State In Action

Stimson writes he was "deeply disturbed" at Potsdam by his first "direct observation of the Russian police state in action." Later, in a memo to the President, he wrote: "The present state of Russia, if continued without change, would very possible in the end produce a war."

He sought some formula that would bring Russian agreement on the use of atomic energy for a better life rather than for death. He was impressed by the 1936 Russian Constitution, and wondered, in a memo to the President, whether American know-how on the atom bomb could be used to win changes in the Russians' "frightful police state" along the lines of the Russian 1936 Constitution.

But W. Averell Harriman, then Ambassador to Moscow, told him it was "hopeless," that the "Russians would consider any attempt to bargain for freedom in Russia as a plainly hostile move."

Urged Direct Talks

On September 11, 1945, Stimson urged Truman to seek direct talks with the Russians on control of the atom bomb. He says he felt direct talks with the Russians (after consultation with the British) was the best way for the United States to win agreement on world control of atomic energy.

He wrote: "Action of any international group of nations, including many small nations who have not demonstrated their potential power or responsibility in this war, would not, in my opinion, be taken seriously by the Soviets."

Actually, a few months later, the United Nations set up a twelve-nation commission to plan international control of atomic energy. It still has not arrived at any major decisions.

Mistake About Trust

Stimson says he thinks he was wrong on one basic principle in his 1945 reasoning about U.S.-U.S.S.R. relations.

Then he said that "the way to make a man trustworthy is to trust him." But in midsummer 1947 he raised the question: "What if the man whose trust you seek is a cynical 'realist' who does not choose to be your friend, who would rather make you his dupe?"

He says "those who travel in the company of American Communists are very clearly either knaves or fools."

He deplores the people who want to use force to stop communism, and counsels the "middle course" of generous American help to "threatened peoples to help themselves."

HOUSE UNIT VOTES EXTRA FUNDS FOR ATOMIC WEAPONS

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) The House Appropriations Committee voted today to give the Atomic Energy Commission an extra $150,000,000 in contract authority and told the commission to "move forward with all possible speed" in its research programs.

The $150,000,000 authorization was contained in a $332,407,782 catch-all appropriation bill granting funds to supplement appropriations previously made for various agencies of the government.

The committee trimmed the bill $66,311,478 below the total asked by President Truman, cutting funds which had been sought for the Postoffice Department, the Maritime Commission and for outfitting the air force with new blue uniforms.

Provides For Alaskan Road

The measure also contained $7,370,000 in cash and $4,000,000 in contract authority to construct a militarily important road between Seward and Anchorage, Alaska, and $3,000,000 for the U. S. information and educational exchange program, which operates the "Voice of America" overseas broadcasts. Mr. Truman had recommended $5,120,000 for the latter item.

The Atomic Energy Commission got exactly what it asked for. The new contract authority raises the total the commission has to spend in the current fiscal year to $659,091,863.

Carroll L. Wilson, the commission's general manager, told the committee that most of the new funds will be "directed toward insuring the continuity of production of fissionable materials, the fabrication of these into weapons, and the conduct of research and development."

He also told the committee, without elaboration, that the military interest in the commission's work "goes far beyond atomic bombs." And he said that atomic weapon production facilities, previously centered at Los Alamos, N. M., are being dispersed and duplicate source weapon parts and assemblies are being built.

Army Funds Voted

The army asked $150,000,000 and got $143,000,000 for government and relief expenses in Germany, Japan and Korea. The air force's request for $26,670,000 to buy new uniforms was cut to $10,000,000. The committee said that ought to be enough to get the program going.

The committee voted $3,000,000 to the Veterans Administration. The money will be used to keep on the payroll an estimated 3,000 employes who otherwise would be cut off.

The Postoffice Department, which had asked for $156,885,300, was voted $140,890,300, a reduction of $15,995,000.

The house is expected to take up the bill tomorrow or Thursday.

Langer Rebukes Truman For Wallace Remark

Washington, March 30 (AP)—Senator Langer (R., N.D.) rebuked President Truman in the Senate today for suggesting that Henry A. Wallace "ought to go to the country he loves so well."

The President made the suggestion in a speech last night.

Langer said Mr. Truman's remarks were "unworthy of any President of the United States." He added:

"Mr. Wallace has the right, just as Harry S. Truman, to stay here as long as he pleases.

"Mr. Wallace is just as patriotic, just as honest and just as considerate as Harry S. Truman."

BENTON RAISES PASSPORT ISSUE

Asks Reason for Refusal to Daily Worker Writer.

Washington, March 30 (A. P.).—The State Department said today that William Benton asked by telephone from Geneva why an American passport to Palestine was denied A. B. Magil as correspondent for the New York Communist newspaper the Daily Worker.

Benton is chairman of the United States delegation to the United Nations conference at Geneva on freedom of information. He submitted on Saturday a proposed international convention designed to assure correspondents free access to sources of information throughout the world.

Lincoln White, press officer, told reporters that Benton asked about Magil's case in the course of conferences on other matters. He said Benton did not protest denial of the passport.

White said in response to questions that he did not know whether Benton advised that the department's action was embarrassing to the United States delegation.

Officials Explain Action.

Officials said when Magil was refused a passport on March 11 that his application showed he was not a full time correspondent of the Daily Worker; that he proposed to gather material in Palestine for a book.

A department official said the action did not mean a passport would be denied to another representative of the newspaper.

Magil again was denied a passport on March 23 when he sought to go to Geneva for the Freedom of Information Conference. Michael J. McDermott, a department press officer, said he was refused "because it is not in the interests of the United States at the present time."

U.S. BAR HITS JEWS' DRIVE

Passports To Be Refused Men Going Abroad To Fight

Washington, March 30 (AP)—A campaign to recruit Americans to fight for a Jewish state in Palestine today ran up against a Government policy of not issuing passports to citizens going abroad to do battle.

While issuing this reminder, State Department officials made no move to halt the campaign, which claims to have lined up more than 1,000 men in a George Washington Legion, composed of American volunteers.

Officials also noted in a letter on Palestine policy to Senator Murray (D., Mont.) that "many" Americans lost their citizenship in 1939 and 1940 just before this nation entered the war by swearing allegiance to Canada, Britain and France and entering foreign countries' forces.

Follows Ross Announcement

The department's position on this phase of the Palestine issue was defined after Barney Ross, former world's champion boxer and Marine veteran, announced he had joined the George Washington Legion and is ready "to leave immediately" to fight in the Holy Land.

Major Samuel Weiser, commander of the Hebrew Legion, a similar group in England, said more than 1,000 members have been recruited in this country in the last ten days.

An announced purpose is to demonstrate to the United Nations that a body of volunteers is ready "for the preservation of peace and civilization" in Palestine. On this basis the State Department took the position that the Government has no formal evidence that volunteers are being actually recruited in this country. Officials declined comment whether the United States would authorize Americans to serve in Palestine under United Nations auspices.

To Be Offered To U.N.

In New York, an official of the American League for a Free Palestine, sponsoring the legion, said the volunteers would be offered to the United Nations to police the Holy Land. If this is declined, the men probably will not go to Palestine in view of the passport ban. Other means might be considered, he said, but the league will not act "outside the spirit of United States foreign policy," he said.

Representative Somers (D., N.Y.), cochairman of the League for a Free Palestine, said in a statement:

"All we can do for the time being under the present policy of our Government is to ask the veterans of the last war to register in the George Washington Legion to serve in Palestine.

"The American League for a Free Palestine will turn over the list of the volunteers to the United Nations so that it will have a nucleus of a body of volunteers for the preservation of peace in Palestine. . . . (They) will demonstrate the will of the American people and will move our Government toward early recognition of the Hebrew Republic of Palestine. . . ."

RENT CEILING BILL SIGNED BY TRUMAN

'Better Than No Controls at All,' He Says; Curbs Extended for Year.

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP) The nation got a new rent control law today, one day before the old act was due to expire.

In signing the legislation—reluctantly—President Truman said it wasn't the strengthened measure he had asked of congress, but is "better than no rent control at all."

"If I had not signed it," he said in a statement, "rent controls would have expired tomorrow at midnight. As was true of the rent control bill of June, 1947, I had no choice but to sign."

Extends Curbs for Year

The bill extends controls for one year, to March 31, 1949, and gives an emergency federal court the final say over the raising or removing of rent ceilings in any area. The recommendations of local rent boards would bear great weight, however, and the court would have to uphold them if it found they were based on "adequate and substantial evidence."

30.24- 16627

Mr. Truman promised that the administration "will do everything it can under this act to hold rents to reasonable levels." But he also said "we cannot hope to be wholly successful in holding the lines on rents by the powers granted by this law."

He added:

"Since the rent control law was weakened last June, rents have risen more than 6 per cent over a period of eight months. With continuing inflationary pressures and the extreme shortage of housing, the need for effective rent control continues to be as great as ever."

The new law sanctions rent increases of up to 15 per cent when tenant and landlord can agree on a lease running through 1949. Such increases would not be permitted, however, in cases where a tenant had agreed to a similar increase last year under the old law. The new law "freezes" the rents of such tenants, who signed leases running through this year, until March 31, 1949.

Other Provisions

The act also provides that:

All hotel accommodations go ceiling-free. So do non-housekeeping rooms in homes where there are not more than two paying guests.

Tenants may be evicted on 60-day notice if the landlord wants the dwelling for the personal use of a member of his family, or plans to demolish or alter it substantially, or decides to take the quarters off the rental market.

Controls are removed from dwellings covered by leases which were ended in the first three months of this year.

Sixty-day eviction notices are required generally. There are exceptions if the tenant does not pay his rent or becomes a nuisance. In such cases local laws govern eviction.

The act kills the former requirement that special federal permits be obtained for the building of amusement places and recreational facilities.

The latter requirement, which prevented construction of some race tracks, night clubs, bowling alleys and other entertainment spots, was designed to conserve building materials for home construction.

The president also signed a bill extending the rent control act for the District of Columbia.

Clay Declares Germans Want Free Enterprise

Calls Aid to Industry Best Way for U. S. to Profit by Their Anti-Communism

WASHINGTON, March 30 (AP).—General Lucius D. Clay, American military governor in Germany, predicts that Germany eventually will set up a free-enterprise system. It may never accept democracy as we know it, but neither will it embrace socialism, he said in testimony released today by the House Appropriations Committee.

Germans do not want Communism, General Clay testified and the United States can take best advantage of that attitude by promoting Germany's speedy economic recovery.

"In the lag of recovery, there will be every possible attempt made to develop strong political unrest and support for the Communist influence which is so strong in eastern Europe," he said.

"If Communism does penetrate into western Germany, and if it is successful in getting a stronghold across the Rhine, then it becomes almost impossible to stop its spread throughout Europe."

In a broad review of occupation policies and results, he added: "It has become more and more apparent that the ideological struggle for central Europe is a continuing process, and one that we may expect to last for a long time. The dividing line between the Eastern and Western ideology roughly runs along the Elbe River. We believe we have established a frontier for Western thinking and Western philosophy, and that we are holding that frontier."

The general said that the key to the economic recovery of Europe is the revival of Germany, and that the United States must continue to support industry in Germany or face "chaos" there as the alternative.

There is a severe shortage of skilled labor in Germany, General Clay said. He pointed out that approximately 350,000 German prisoners of war are still in France and about 250,000 in England. He said that the Soviet Union "claims now to have only about 500,000," but that he believes the Russians are holding closer to 1,500,000.

"The ones that are arriving from Russia are in woeful condition," he said. "They are emaciated and require hospitalization and special treatment for many, many weeks before they are of any real value whatsoever in production."

Communist propaganda is not making much headway in Japan, and "the Japanese are not basically inclined toward it," Brigadier General Alonzo P. Fox said in testimony also made public by the House Appropriations Committee. General Fox is deputy chief of staff of the Allied Supreme command in the Pacific.

The Japanese are willing to adopt a republican form of government but are not ready for it yet, he said. He admitted that Communism is present in Japan, "and the influence is felt," but the Communists are weak politically, he said, and Communist domination in some national labor unions has led local unions to break away from parent groups.

Navy To Test Ship Hulls By Blasts In Bay

Washington, March 30 (AP)—The Navy is going to test the hulls of three ships with underwater explosions.

Conventional nonatomic explosives will be used, the Navy said today. The tests will begin next month in Chesapeake Bay.

A series of explosions will be fired near the ships over five-day periods about a month apart during April, May and June.

One of the ships, the attack transport Niagara, was part of the "guinea pig" fleet in the Pacific atomic-bomb tests two years ago. The other hulls used will be the partially built aircraft carrier Reprisal and the light cruiser Newark. Work on each was ordered halted in the late stages of the war.

Would Bar Communists

Washington, March 30 (AP)—Communists would be barred from public or labor union office under a bill introduced today by Senator Wherry (R., Neb.).

LEAVING POST IN MOSCOW

Elbridge Durbrow Reassigned by U. S. State Department

WASHINGTON, March 30 (AP)—The State Department announced today that Elbridge Durbrow, ranking Foreign Service officer in the American Embassy at Moscow, was being reassigned to duty in Washington.

Mr. Durbrow completed yesterday the usual two-year term of service at the embassy and is expected home in early summer.

He probably will be assigned here to duty at the National War College. His successor at Moscow has not yet been chosen, officials said.

U.S. CHARGES NEWSMAN WAS PAID BY NAZIS

Best Received $750 Per Month, Treason Trial Prosecutor Says

Boston, March 30 (AP)—The Government charged today that Robert H. Best, on trial for treason, was paid 1,500 Reichmarks a month—about $750—for beaming psychological warfare over Radio Berlin to disrupt American morale.

Tom De Wolfe, special assistant to the Attorney General, in opening to a Federal court jury, described the former American newsman as a radio commentator, news editor and translator for the German Radio Broadcasting Company, while this country was at war with the Nazis.

The 51-year-old native of Sumter, S.C., listened attentively, frequently making notes, as De Wolfe accused him of voluntarily seeking employment with the Reich radio.

13 Acts Charged

De Wolfe told the jury the Government would seek to prove by two witnesses for each, that Best committed thirteen overt acts of treason.

"Each and every overt act," the prosecutor said, "was done with the intent to further the war effort of Adolf Hitler."

The six-page indictment read to the jury charges Best made recordings for the German radio that later were beamed at the United States. One count accused Best of taking part in roundtable conferences, broadcast over the air, with Douglas Chandler, of Baltimore, and William Joyce, "the British renegade known as Lord Haw Haw." Chandler is now serving a life term. He was convicted of treason here last June. Joyce was hanged.

"Imbued With Nazi Ideology"

Best, De Wolfe continued, was "imbued with Nazi philosophy and ideology. He used to call Hitler the 'Saviour of the Day' and 'civilization's crusader.'

"He referred to the late President Roosevelt in about every defamatory way in the English language and made objectionable references to Jews. . . . He castigated the late Frank Knox, former Secretary of the Navy, made vicious references to the character of Cordell Hull. Even General MacArthur did not escape his vilifying remarks."

De Wolfe told the jurors that Best, on occasionfi broadcast to American trops and told them they were on the wrong side.

Defendant Protests

One of the "most interesting" of the alleged overt acts, the prosecutor continued, charges that Best in 1943 at Koenigswusterhausen Germany, spoke into a microphone at the German short-wave radio station concerning the release of Mussolini from captivity.

De Wolfe said Best was anxious to get this assignment, that he intervewed a German lieutenant who aided in releasing Mussolini, and subsequently scored a "scoop" by broadcasting the details.

Best jumped to his feet when De Wolfe started to talk and shouted to Judge Francis J. W. Ford that the prosecutor was not entitled to present the Government's case because he was not a resident of this district. Best was overruled.

The Government is expected to introduce the first of its 67 witnesses tomorrow.

TAYLOR SEES FASCIST TREND

Says Foreign Policy Forces U.S. Into Hitler's Shoes

San Diego, Cal., March 30 (AP)—Senator Glen H. Taylor (D., Idaho) sai dtoday that America is being "forced into the shoes of the late Adolf Hitler to lead fascist reaction throughout the world."

"During the last few weeks it has become apparent that there no longer is any attempt to hide the imperialistic, reactionary nature of our foreign policy," he said in an interview prior to a talk before the San Diego unit of the Independent Progressive party tonight.

"There even are moves to get Spanish Franco interested in making some face-saving reforms. We are taking over the leadership of Fascist reaction in the world; we're getting into the shoes of Adolf Hitler.

Taylor, third party vice presidential candidate, painted an optimistic picture of third party activity in his talk tonight. He cited the recent Bronx election and the California signatures on the new party petitions.

"I join with Henry Wallace in opposing universal military training . . . in believing that co-operation with Russia can be achieved, in knowing that the abundant life for Americans everywhere can only come through peace," he said.

Prayers For Italy

Pueblo, Col., March 30 (AP)—A mass prayer meeting will be held in Pueblo county auditorium April 12 beseeching heavenly aid to keep Italy free from Communist rule.

The meeting was suggested by Bishop Joseph C. Willging, of Pueblo. He urged Pueblans to pray for Communist defeat in the April 18 elections in Italy.

PICKETS BAR LOAD FOR RUSSIAN SHIP

JERSEY CITY, N. J., March 30. —(AP) The Russian freighter Volga lay idle at her pier today as longshoremen respected a picket line of Catholic war veterans protesting shipment of "war-potential" goods to the Soviet Union.

The veterans, from the Hudson County Chapter. CWV, set up the picket line of 15 men at the entrance to the Claremont terminal of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, early today.

Stevedores, members of the International Longshoremen's Union (AFL) respected the picket lines morning and afternoon. A union spokesman said no night shift was planned. Two ILA gangs, totaling 62 men, had been scheduled to start loading the vessel today.

Thomas J. Carlin, county CWV commander, said pickets would not be withdrawn "until either the red ships leave the port or the government does something to put an immediate stop to these exports."

Albert J. Lipovsky, county CWV adjutant, said the CWV wants a congressional check of the Volga's manifest and a congressional investigation of "the Amtorg Trading Co., the Russian purchasing agent here."

The veterans on the picket line carried signs reading "starve communistic aggression. Stop these shipments," and "why are we shipping to Russia?"

The Hudson county CWV attracted nationwide attention to Soviet-bound shipments by picketing another Russian freighter here last week. The Volga arrived after the other USSR vessel, the Chukotka departed.

George Quinn, counsel for the committee, here today with the investigators, said he did not know exactly where the secret letters of protocol were, but he understood they were obtainable in the archives in Washington. He said he did not believe they were in the Roosevelt Library at Hyde Park.

DENIES HE'LL ASK ROOSEVELT FILES

Washington, March 30 (A. P.). —Chairman Rizley (R.-Okla.) of a House Surplus Property subcommittee said today that he had no plans for issuing subpœnas to get documents of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt concerning shipments to Russia. Rizley told reporters that his subcommittee was concerned only with surplus property which the armed services make available for disposal.

"If any Roosevelt documents concern disposal of surplus property, I will want to see them," he said. "However, I don't know yet of any such documents that would be within the jurisdiction of my committee."

Paul F. Morrison, the committee's chief investigator, had said in New York that Rizley had planned to subpœna secret letters of Roosevelt. He said that the letters, drafted by Roosevelt, gave Russia huge amounts of war material. He added that they were wanted to see what United States surplus property was involved.

Stilwell's Bitter Thoughts On War

By CHARLES A. GRUMICH

New York, March 30 (AP)—Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's own bitterly worded thoughts on the top wartime politicians were published today.

They showed his conviction in 1944 that the Chinese Communists offered the people a better deal than the Government did and that Communists and Kuomintang troops should be fighting side by side against the Japanese instead of separately.

The thoughts he wrote down in his posthumously published private diaries were directed mainly against Chiang Kai-shek, whom he usually called "the Peanut" and who eventually had the crusty old General fired out of China.

Stilwell did not spare the late President Roosevelt, his wartime commander in chief, who agreed to Stilwell's recall from China in 1944 at Chiang's bidding.

Roosevelt Called 'Old Softy'

Stilwell called President Roosevelt "old softy" in one diary notation and suggested the wartime president was too much under Winston Churchill's influence. "Bloody Joe" was his name for Joseph Stalin after the 1943 Tehran conference of the Big Three which reversed the decision reached just previously in Cairo by Churchill, Roosevelt and Chiang to send material for a big war effort in Asia. Stalin had got his Western conferees to agree that the No. 1 allied priority was the war against Germany, and Japan could wait.

The diaries are published in the April Ladies' Home Journal. This edited version runs about 40,000 words.

Esteemed Communists Highly

Stilwell wrote his opinion in 1944 that the Chinese Communists offered a better future to the people than did Chiang's Kuomintang. This was when Stilwell was trying to get Chiang to correlate the war efforts of Communist and Government armies.

Both were fighting the Japanese with varying degrees of enthusiasm and effect and building up to what now has become a full-blown civil war in China.

Whether Stilwell would think the same about Chinese Communists now is something that can't be answered. He died October 12, 1946, at 63.

The editor of the diaries, Theodore H. White, student of Chinese affairs and close friend of Stilwell throughout the war in the East, told this reviewer that the General, if alive today, probably would counsel the American Government to adopt a hands-off policy toward China now.

Despised Kuomintang

"General Stilwell's basic conviction was that no amount of aid or arms could save China unless the Chinese people themselves throw out corruption in their Government," White said.

And lest there be any misconception that the General was leaning toward communism as such, White said Stilwell expressed his preference for the Chinese Communist leadership during the war because he felt the Communist leaders were running their areas to the benefit of the inhabitants and because Stilwell would have preferred anything over the Kuomintang.

White said Stilwell had a keen awareness of Stalin's designs on Asia and was not deluded into any belief that Chinese communism was self-contained; the General felt instead that Russia was preparing to snap shut the link with China if powerful forces could not prevent that eventuality.

Role Attacked By Chennault

White portrays the General as an Abraham Lincoln type of liberal, a worrier over the little people, and a great American.

Stilwell had not much to say in his diary about Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault, who was an influence on Chiang and the powerful Soong sisters and their brother, T. V. Chennault, wartime commander of the 14th United States Air Force, recently has attacked Stilwell's wartime role in China for the effect he says it now is having to the detriment of the Kuomintang's struggles against Communists in battle.

Praised Communist Program

In one undated paper published with the diaries, Stilwell reiterated his faith in and respect for the Chinese soldier and Chinese people, and then added:

"I judge Kuomintang and Kungchantang (Communist party) by what I saw:

"(Kuomintang) corruption, neglect, chaos, economy, taxes, words and deeds. Hoarding, black market, trading with enemy.

"Communist program: Reduce taxes, rents, interest. Raise production, standard of living. Participate in Government. And practice what they preach.

"Chiang Kai-shek . . . can't see that the mass of Chinese people welcome the Reds as being the only visible hope of relief from crushing taxation, the abuses of the army and (the terror of) Tai Li's Gestapo. . . ."

A Three-Part Character

The magazine article contains dated entries, letters from Stilwell to his wife which were made available by Mrs. Stilwell, undated papers with a remarkable quality of essay-writing in some instances, and interpolated matter by the editor of the diaries, Mr. White, former war correspondent.

The picture of Stilwell presented in this publication shows the General as a three-part character:

1. A man all but consumed with hatred and wrath for the ways of Chiang and by contempt for politicians and "the Limeys"—British.
2. A somewhat homesick and whimsical family man who wrote kindly, morale-building letters home to his wife.
3. An essayist of parts, chiefly in the role of a man talking angrily to himself against the world's injustices.

Low Opinion Of British

Stilwell had a low opinion of many military people, most of them British. In the way of a foot soldier, he thought American airforces commanders consistently overrated their importance—except when they were making food drops to his jungle fighters.

Almost always Stilwell referred to Chiang as "the Peanut," but once he called him "the Rattlesnake" and in another place the name was "———" (unprintable in the Ladies' Home Journal).

Stilwell called at the White House February 9, 1942, to see about his war assignment. He stayed twenty minutes and then wrote:

"F.D.R. very pleasant, and very unimpressive. As if I were a constituent to see him. Rambled on about his idea of the war: 'A 28,000-mile front is my conception,' etc. Just a lot of wind.

Hunted For Something To Say

"After I had enough, I broke in and asked him if he had a message for Chiang Kai-shek. He very obviously had not and talked for five minutes hunting around for something world-shaking to say. Finally he had it—'Tell him we are in this thing for keeps, and we intend to keep at it until China gets back all her lost territory.' Then he went on to say he thought it best for Mme. Chiang not to come here, as invited by some organization or other. It would be too much like a lecture tour of women's clubs. He's right on that. He was cordial and pleasant . . . and frothy."

Success Surprised Chiang

Stilwell's diary starts with Pearl Harbor Day, when he was in California, and carries through his departure from the CBI theater on October 27, 1944, after 32 months of bickering, mostly, and fighting, happily, in the jungle when he could.

The 1944 campaign for Myitkyina, a heart-breaker at some points, is reported in detail. It involved Merrill's Marauders and the Chinese troops Stilwell had wheedled out of Chiang and trained and armed to prove his point that a Chinese is a good soldier if given a chance.

He took grim delight in telling the British about the Chinese-American capture of Myitkyina, saying they had contended it never could be done with what was available. He reported Chiang also was surprised over the successes scored in North Burma.

Stilwell mellowed when he finally got the North Burma campaign rolling against the Japanese early in 1944. He left politics behind and got out into the jungle, where all his enemies were natural ones, including the Japanese.

Charged Intrigues In Burma

Stilwell contended the British never intended to fight a large-scale war in Burma because they were confident they could win back Burma at the peace table. He accused Chinese and British of involved intrigues to keep from fighting in Burma.

No one can say whether Stilwell's effort that opened the Ledo-Burma road actually kept the spark of war effort alive in China to the end. In any event, Chiang named the road for Stilwell when it was opened after Stilwell had been pushed out of China and gone on first to command the United States ground forces and then to Okinawa.

Once Angry Enough For 'Vinegar Joe'

New York, March 30 (AP)—General Stilwell got mad enough in China once to concede that maybe he deserved the nickname "Vinegar Joe."

This is disclosed in his wartime diaries and letters to his wife as published in the April Ladies' Home Journal. His American troops invariably called him Uncle Joe or the old man; his Chinese foot soldiers usually called him Lao Hsiensheng (old teacher), "Vinegar Joe" was a name used seldom if ever by those who knew him.

In a letter to Mrs. Stilwell dated October 17, 1944, just before he was removed from China at Chiang Kai-shek's request, Stilwell said:

"I am getting sour enough about this pusillanimous proceeding to warrant being called Vinegar Joe. . . . I am just scribbling to keep from biting the radiator."

RUSSIA ASSAILS U.S. REVERSAL ON PALESTINE SPLIT

Carpenter

LAKE SUCCESS, March 30. — (AP) Russia declared today the United States wants to kill the Palestine partition project to save American oil and military interests in the Middle East.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, the Soviet delegate, rejected a United States proposal for a special assembly of the 57 United Nations to consider the future of Palestine.

The Russian said there are no grounds for this session. Gromyko's stand forecast a Soviet veto which would force the U. S. to demand a poll of the whole membership on the question of calling a special session. Only a simple majority of the members—or 29 votes—would be needed to convene the assembly.

Reds Hit Trusteeship

Finally, Gromyko slapped down the U. S. proposal for a U.N. trusteeship for Palestine. He said the trusteeship idea was "an attempt to convert Palestine into a military-strategic base of the United States and England under the pretext of maintaining order in that country."

Gromyko did not mention the new U. S. plea for a truce between Jews and Arabs, which Warren R. Austin, chief U. S. delegate, formally put before the U.N. security council today.

Calling Palestine a pawn in a political gamble, Gromyko tore apart the last shreds of the rare U. S.-Soviet cooperative effort which had been responsible for putting the partition plan through the U.N. assembly last Nov. 29.

It was Russia's first declaration on Palestine in the council since Austin asked the U.N. to shelve the partition plan and consider a temporary U.N. trusteeship.

Gromyko said full responsibility for "the killing of the decision on the partition of Palestine rests on the United States which, according to general opinion, takes care not of the just settlement of the question of the future of Palestine and the relations between Arabs and Jews but of their own oil interests and military-strategic positions in the Middle East."

Assails U. S. Reversal

He told the council that the U. S. delegates to the 1947 U.N. assembly used all their influence to attain the adoption of the partition plan. He said "reversal" of the American position now has provoked "more than an amazement in all the countries of the world."

In presenting the U. S. resolutions calling for a truce and for the special session, Austin said it is absolutely essential that violence and bloodshed in Palestine must stop.

Austin said he was not mentioning trusteeship now so that the assembly call would not be delayed by debate over trusteeship details.

But Austin served notice the U. S. is standing by the trusteeship proposal. He said this trusteeship would be without prejudice to the final political settlement in Palestine.

"We believe," he said, "that a trusteeship is essential to establish order, without which a peaceful solution of this problem cannot be found or put into effect."

Austin and Gromyko were the only speakers. The council adjourned the Palestine debate until Thursday at 2:30 p. m. (EST). It will take up the Czechoslovak case again tomorrow afternoon.

Remarks by Austin and Gromyko on Palestine in U. N. Security Body

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 30—Following are a statement by Warren R. Austin, United States delegate, and excerpts from a statement by Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, on the Palestine situation before the United Nations Security Council today, as released by their respective delegations:

Mr. Austin

The time appears suitable to offer to the Security Council resolutions to carry out Part II of the paper representing the views of four of the permanent members, as follows:

"As a result of the consultations of the permanent members regarding the situation with respect to Palestine, they find and report that a continuation of the infiltration into Palestine, by land and by sea, of groups and persons with the purpose of taking part in violence would aggravate still further the situation, and recommend

"(A) That the Security Council should make it clear to the parties and governments concerned that the Security Council is determined not to permit the existence of a threat to international peace in Palestine, and

"(B) That the Security Council should take further action by all means available to it to bring about the immediate cessation of violence and the restoration of peace and order in Palestine."

Gives Reasons for a Truce

The statement made by the President of the United States on March 25 indicates the urgent necessity of exerting every effort in the Security Council to arrange a truce between the Jews and Arabs of Palestine.

Such a truce should be based on two fundamental considerations:

First, it is absolutely essential that violence and bloodshed in Palestine cease. This is demanded by humanitarian considerations. We must prevent anarchy. It is required to keep international peace. Cessation of hostilities is imperative.

Second, both the Jews and Arabs of Palestine must be prepared to accept truce arrangements which would not prejudice the claims of either group. The truce should include suspension of political as well as military activity.

My Government considers it essential that representatives of the Jewish Agency and of the Arab Higher Committee be called upon to state their views on the necessary arrangements for a truce. Such representatives should, of course, be fully authorized to enter into definitive truce arrangements with the Council.

Resolution for Truce

To provide for the immediate cessation of hostilities and the basis for a truce, Mr. President, I have submitted for the consideration of the Council the following resolution:

THE SECURITY COUNCIL,

In the exercise of its primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security,

Notes with grave concern the increasing violence and disorder in Palestine and believes that it is of the utmost urgency that an immediate truce be effected in Palestine;

Calls upon the Jewish Agency for Palestine and the Arab Higher Committee to make available representatives to meet at once with the Security Council for the purpose of arranging a truce between the Arab and Jewish communities of Palestine, and emphasizes the heavy responsibility which would fall upon any party failing to observe a truce,

Calls upon Arab and Jewish armed groups in Palestine to cease acts of violence immediately.

It is the view of my Government that the immediate cessation of hostilities and the establishment of a truce in Palestine are the most urgent objectives. We believe that the Council should also proceed as promptly as possible to the consideration of the additional conclusions and recommendations concerning Palestine. I alludded to these in my statement to the Council at its 271st meeting on Friday, March 19.

In this connection, we feel that the first step which should be taken by the Security Council is to request the Secretary General to convoke a special session of the General Assembly. Accordingly, I have been requested by my Government to submit for the consideration of the Council the following resolution:

THE SECURITY COUNCIL:

Having on Dec. 9, 1947, received the resolution of the General Assembly concerning Palestine dated Nov. 29, 1947, and

Having taken note of the United Nations Palestine Commission's first and second monthly progress reports and first special report on the problem of security, and

Having on March 5, 1948, called on the permanent members of the Council to consult, and

Having taken note of the reports made concerning those consultations,

Requests the Secretary General, in accordance with Article 20 of the United Nations Charter, to convoke a special session of the General Assembly to consider further the question of the future government of Palestine.

It will be noted that this resolution does not mention trusteeship. The United States adheres to the view I stated in the Security Council on March 19, and which was reaffirmed by the Secretary of State on March 20, and again by the President of the United States on March 25, that a temporary trusteeship should be established to maintain the peace. This trusteeship would be without prejudice to the character of the final political settlement in Palestine. We believe that a trusteeship is essential to establish order, without which a peaceful solution of this problem cannot be found or put into effect.

The exigencies of the time limits confronting the Security Council require prompt decision and issue of the call for a special session. This should not be delayed by debate over details of the temporary trusteeship. The United States is ready to offer and consider with other members of the Security Council proposals regarding such details while the necessary notice period is running.

Mr. Gromyko

The Government of the Soviet Union considers, as it did before, that the decision adopted by the General Assembly on the partition of Palestine into two independent—Jewish and Arab—states is a just solution.

At the General Assembly the delegation of the United States was actively defending the proposal on the partition of Palestine and sought its adoption by the required majority of states. The American delegates used all their influence in order to attain the adoption of this plan. It is clear that doing this the United States Government took a great responsibility for the decision adopted by the General Assembly on the partition of Palestine.

The United States representative in the Security Council asserts as if the decision to partition Palestine cannot be carried out in practice by peaceful means. He tries to prove to us, without giving any facts or arguments worthy of attention, that something more than peaceful measures is necessary for the implementation of the decision on partition.

Now it has become apparent that all those arguments were aimed at preparing the ground to bury the plan of the partition and to justify the new American proposal on Palestine.

Field of Dissension Seen

If the United States and some other states wreck the implementation of the partition and consider Palestine as a component element in their economic, military and strategic calculations, then any decision on the future of Palestine, including the establishment of trusteeship, will mean the transformation of Palestine into a field of dissension and struggle for the Jews and Arabs and will only increase the number of victims.

Full responsibility for the killing of the decision on the partition of Palestine rests on the United States which, according to general opinion, takes care not of the just settlement of the question of the future of Palestine and the relations between Arabs and Jews, but of their own oil interests and military-strategic positions in the Middle East.

All of you are aware that this is precisely what underlies the new political line of the United States on the Palestine issue, as this line is directed toward sacrificing the decision, already adopted by the United Nations, to economic and military-strategic interests of one power, for the sake of the interests, which, as I have already mentioned, have nothing in common with the interests of the United Nations as a whole.

It is beyond any doubt that the wrecking of the decision on partition would mean a serious blow upon the United Nations organization, and the responsibility for the blow rests fully on the United States.

Some American politicians, and all American diplomats without exception, often like to speak about their support of the United Nations organization. We have no doubts even before that the statements of such kind do not correspond to reality. This opinion at present becomes more and more widespread.

"Now the Americans themselves, including prominent persons, for example, many members of Congress, speak about it more and more extensively. This point of view is fully shared by the major part of the American press.

"If still another proof is necessary that the ruling circles of the United States always ignore the United Nations when the interests of this organization do not coincide with the narrowly understood interests of one power, then the best proof is the policy of the United States on the Palestine question.

Stresses Military Base Idea

It is necessary to point out that these proposals, not without reason, are considered as an attempt to convert Palestine into a military-strategic base of the United States and England under the pretext of maintaining order in that country.

Moreover, it is necessary to point out that the decision on the establishment of trusteeship for Palestine would not eliminate difficulties, to which the United States and some other states refer, refusing to support the General Assembly resolutions since the establishment of the trusteeship would be directed against both the Arab and Jewish population in Palestine. In case of adopting the decision on trusteeship, both the Jews and Arabs in Palestine would be placed in a position of peoples, deprived of an independent state.

The convening of a new special session on the Palestine issue would mean throwing the United Nations backwards, at least, for a year in regard to the Palestine question, while our task is not that of moving backwards, but making progress and of implementing the decision already adopted.

It follows, therefore, that the Security Council would act incorrectly if it accepted the proposal to give instructions to the Palestine Commission to suspend its work, aimed at the implementation of the decision on the partition. The commission cannot stop working, for it has no right to do so until the decision adopted by the General Assembly remains in force.

Hints are being made that Great Britain may change its decision and leave its troops in Palestine either at the request of the United States or, maybe, at the request of someone else, in order to ensure the fulfillment of the American plan for the establishment of trusteeship for Palestine and to start the execution of this plan with the same English or other foreign bayonets already known to the peoples of Palestine.

In view of the reversal of the United States position on the Palestine question, the public opinion realizes the fact that not always one can rely upon the statements made by the official representatives of those countries for which Palestine is one of the pawns in their political gamble.

A-Control Agency Talks Collapse

Lake Success, N.Y., March 30 (AP). Talks on formation of a world atomic control agency broke down today in a United Nations committee.

Without a formal record vote, the majorty of the control committee of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission decided there is no use talking further how to organize the world agency until the nations decide what the agency will do.

The committee adjourned without setting a date for another meeting.

Efforts Deadlocked

Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, of Canada, summed up the majority opinion by telling the committee that it had reached a dead end in its attempts to find agreement between Russia and the majority.

The United States was the first to propose suspension of the talks.

Frederick H. Osborn, United States atomic deputy, had told the committee there is no use of continuing the discussion.

Britain, France and Belgium indorsed the United States view.

May Put Issue Up To Council

One delegate said outside the committee room the majority had decided it is time to make a formal record of the inability to agree with the Soviet Union and put the whole issue before the Security Council so that the world may know why no atomic agreement is possible now.

Osborn said the majority had decided that the nations could not agree on the composition of the agency until they had decided what the agency should do.

Professor Dimitri V. Skobeltsyn, of Russia, sitting as chairman of the committee, charged that the United States is attempting to distort the Russian view.

London, March 30-(ap)-The Moscow radio said tonight American "militarists" are prospecting for Uranium--basic element of the atomic bomb--in northwest China.

Commentator Mikhail Mikhailov said the Americans also are making an aerial survey and detailed topographical maps of the country. He quoted the "Chinese press" for his reports of the American activity.

(A group of Americans, including Milton Reynolds, Chicago pen manufacturer, and several scientists, is now in China. They said they planned to seek a mountain higher than the 29,000-foot Mount Everest. To do this, they said they would map and measure the Anne Machin mountains of Tsinghai province in Northwest China.) from the air.)

Mikhailov, one of the best known commentators on the Moscow radio, also said that "American imperialism" is monopolizing the Chinese markets. He said a powerful propaganda machine had been created there and that American control had been established over the educational system.

The Moscow radio also quoted a Tass dispatch from New Delhi saying that American "imperialism" has been making an aerial survey of Indonesia. The broadcast said the survey has "not only military aims but also that of careful investigation of raw material resources."

OTHER SOURCES EXPLAINED THE ATTITUDE HERE WAS THAT THE MOVE WAS "UNFORTUNATE" BECAUSE: BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES WERE ON RECORD AS STRONGLY OPPOSED TO THE FRANCO REGIME AND "WE WOULD LOOK PRETTY SILLY OFFERING TO EAT OFF THE SAME PLATE", AND ANY MOVE THAT EVEN LOOKS LIKE PATCHING THINGS UP WITH FRANCO WILL BE SEIZED UPON BY THE MOSCOW RADIO FOR PROPAGANDA USE IN THE ITALIAN ELECTIONS.

PARIS, MARCH 30-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT DECREED TONIGHT PRICE REDUCTIONS OF FROM THREE TO 25 PER CENT. THE REDUCTIONS WERE AIMED AT CONSUMER GOODS AND FARM PRODUCTS IN AN ATTEMPT TO CUT FOOD PRICES.

THE GOVERNMENT ALSO DECIDED TO CREATE A THIRD CLASS OF FRANC FOR DEALS IN NON-ESSENTIAL RAW MATERIALS PREVIOUSLY PURCHASED ABROAD. THE NEW CLASS FRANC WILL HAVE A RATE OF SLIGHTLY MORE THAN 260 FRANCS TO THE DOLLAR. THE NEW RATE WAS SET ABOUT HALF WAY BETWEEN THE OFFICIAL FIXED RATE OF 214 FRANCS TO THE DOLLAR, WHICH IS USED IN BUYING ESSENTIAL RAW MATERIALS, AND THE FREE RATE OF ABOUT 300 FRANCS TO THE DOLLAR.

THE NATIONAL ECONOMIC COUNCIL SCHEDULED A MEETING FOR TOMORROW TO DECIDE WHETHER THE GOVERNMENT ACTIONS MET OR WOULD MEET ITS REQUEST FOR AN OVERALL PRICE REDUCTION OF 10 PERCENT. THE COUNCIL INCLUDES REPRESENTATIVES OF LABOR, INDUSTRY, CONSUMERS AND THE GOVERNMENT.

THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED GENERAL CONFEDERATION OF LABOR (CGT) CALLED A MEETING OF ITS EXECUTIVE BODY FOR THURSDAY TO DECIDE ITS ATTITUDE IN CASE PRICES HAD NOT DROPPED SUFFICIENTLY.

THE BEST GOVERNMENT ESTIMATES OF THE AVERAGE DECLINE RANGED BETWEEN THREE AND FIVE PER CENT.

FELIX GAILLARD, UNDER SECRETARY OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS, ANNOUNCED THE FOLLOWING PRICE REDUCTIONS TO GO INTO EFFECT APRIL 1.

COAL FOR DOMESTIC USE DURING THE SUMMER--10 PERCENT.
ELECTRICITY--SEVEN PER CENT.
KINDLING WOOD--10.
WORK SHOES--FIVE.
DRESS SHOES--THREE.
LAUNDRY--FIVE TO TEN PER CENT, ACCORDING TO THE QUALITY.
CLEANING AND DYEING--10 TO 25, ACCORDING TO QUALITY.
PORCELAIN WARE--FIVE TO 10.
KITCHENWARE--FIVE.
AGRICULTURAL MACHINERY--FIVE.
AGRICULTURAL TOOLS--FIVE.
FERTILIZER--FIVE TO 10.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 30-(AP)-RUSSIA'S ANDREI A.GROMYKO COMMENTED TODAY THAT GENERALISSIMO FRANCO OF SPAIN PROBABLY NEEDS AMERICAN HELP.

WITH A SMILE, GROMYKO GAVE THIS COMMENT TO NEWSMEN ON THE CONGRESSIONAL HOUSE ACTION FOR AMERICAN AID TO FRANCO:

"POOR SMALL BOY FRANCO! HE PROBABLY NEEDS AMERICAN HELP."

HE WOULD NOT COMMENT FURTHER.

EARLIER THE SOVIET UKRAINE'S CHIEF DELEGATE HERE HAD SAID THE ACTION CAME AS NO SURPRISE TO THE RUSSIANS.

"THIS IS THE DIRECT RESULT OF THE FOREIGN POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES AND ENGLAND," VASSILY A.TARASENKO, THE UKRAINIAN, TOLD REPORTERS.

"WE HAD EXPECTED THIS FACT."

OTHER DELEGATES HERE WERE RELUCTANT TO COMMENT UNTIL THEY HAD STUDIED THE DEVELOPMENT THOROUGHLY.

FRANCO'S REGIME IS THE ONLY ONE BANNED BY NAME FROM TAKING PART IN ANY U.N. AFFAIRS OR IN ANY SPECIALIZED AGENCY CONNECTED WITH THE U.N.

THE U.N. ASSEMBLY HAS RECOMMENDED TO ITS 57 MEMBER COUNTRIES THAT THEY WITHDRAW THEIR MINISTERS AND AMBASSADORS FROM MADRID. ALL COUNTRIES DID THAT EXCEPT ARGENTINA. ARGENTINA DISPATCHED AN AMBASSADOR TO FRANCO SHORTLY AFTER THE RECOMMENDATION WAS MADE IN THE FALL OF 1946.

LAKE SUCCESS,MARCH 30-(AP)-CONSTANTIN FOTITCH, FORMER YUGOSLAV AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES, TONIGHT CALLED FOR A UNITED NATIONS PROBE OF "COMMUNIST AGGRESSION AGAINST YUGOSLAVIA."

IN A LETTER TO DR.T.F.TSIANG OF CHINA, THIS MONTH'S PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, FOTITCH ASKED THAT THE PRESENT U.N. DEBATE ON CZECHOSLOVAKIA BE BROADENED TO INCLUDE YUGOSLAVIA AND OTHER COUNTRIES UNDER SOVIET DOMINATION.

"THE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION AGAINST YUGOSLAVIA, IF NOT AS SPECTACULAR AS THE AGGRESSION AGAINST CZECHOSLOVAKIA, WAS EVEN MORE RADICAL IN VIOLATION OF A SOLEMN INTERNATIONAL ENGAGEMENT," FOTITCH SAID.

PALESTINE (150)

PARIS, MARCH 30-(AP)-FRENCH OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THAT FRENCH ARMS SHIPMENTS TO SYRIA AND LEBANON ARE BEING CLOSELY SUPERVISED TO PREVENT THEIR USE AGAINST JEWS IN PALESTINE.

FOREIGN MINISTRY SOURCES SAID FRANCE IS SENDING THE TWO NATIONS A TOTAL OF ABOUT 25,000,000 FRANCS (ROUGHLY $80,000) WORTH OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT UNDER AN AGREEMENT SIGNED LAST NOVEMBER.

THIS STATEMENT WAS MADE IN COMMENTING ON REPORTS IN SOME PARIS NEWSPAPERS THAT THE GOVERNMENT BEGAN EIGHT DAYS AGO TO SEND LEBANON ARMS WORTH £80,000,000 STERLING ($320,000,000). THE GOVERNMENT SAID THESE REPORTS WERE GROSSLY EXAGGERATED.

OFFICIALS FROM THE FRENCH DEFENSE MINISTRY HAVE BEEN DETAILED TO WATCH THE SHIPMENTS TO ENSURE THAT THEY ARE ONLY FOR THE PURPOSE INTENDED-- THE REEQUIPMENT OF THE SYRIAN AND LEBANESE ARMIES.

THE ARMS WERE DESCRIBED AS OUTMODED BY MODERN STANDARDS.

FRANCE MADE THE AGREEMENT WITH THE TWO FKTIONS, IT WAS EXPLAINED, BECAUSE FRANCE WAS ALWAYS THE SOURCE OF THE ARMAMENTS USED THERE BEFORE THE WAR.

GENEVA,SWITZERLAND,MARCH 30-(AP)-HARRY MARTIN, PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER GUILD, OPENED A CAMPAIGN TODAY TO REMOVE THE INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF JOURNALISTS FROM COMMUNIST CONTROL.

IN A LETTER TO THE IJO PRESIDENT -- ARCHIBALD KENYON, OF BRITAIN -- MARTIN DEMANDED THE RESIGNATION OF THE ORGANIZATION'S CZECH SECRETARY GENERAL, GEORGE HRONEK, AND REMOVAL OF IJO HEADQUARTERS FROM PRAGUE.

MARTIN ASSERTED HRONEK HAD SUPPORTED AND PERSONALLY PARTICIPATED IN THE RECENT "UNDEMOCRATIC, SHOCKING PURGE" OF THE UNION OF CZECHOSLOVAK JOURNALISTS.

"SUCH DEGRADING ACTIONS BY THE SECRETARY GENERAL," MARTIN WROTE, "HAVE MADE HIM PERSONA NON GRATA TO THE WORKING NEWSPAPERMAN."

MARTIN FURTHER DECLARED THAT PRAGUE "IS NO LONGER A TOLERABLE SCENE FOR THE TRANSACTION OF IJO BUSINESS BECAUSE OF THE DICTATORIAL INTERFERENCE OF ITS GOVERNMENT WITH THE FREEDOM OF THE CZECHOSLOVAK

MARTIN, KENYON, HRONEK AND SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE IJO EXECUTIVE COUNCIL ARE NOW IN GENEVA ATTENDING THE UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON FREEDOM OF INFORMATION.

UNDER THE IJO CONSTITUTION, HRONEK COULD BE SUSPENDED BY MAJORITY VOTE OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL, WHICH MUST BE CONFIRMED BY THE CONGRESS. THE NEXT REGULAR MEETING OF THE CONGRESS IS SCHEDULED FOR BRUSSELS IN 1949.

ASKED TO COMMENT ON MARTIN'S LETTER, HRONEK SAID IN AN INTERVIEW: "I HAVE NEVER DONE ANYTHING CONTRARY TO THE PRINCIPLES OF THE IJO X X X AND I CERTAINLY DON'T INTEND TO RESIGN." HE SAID HE HAD BEEN A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY FOR SEVERAL YEARS.

HE ACCUSED MARTIN OF TRYING TO BREAK UP THE IJO AND SAID THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER GUILD HAD REFUSED TO PAY ITS FEES.

MARTIN HIMSELF AGREED THAT THE GUILD WAS NOT PAYING ITS FEES.

"WE ARE NOT GOING TO SEND ANY DOLLARS TO A LOT OF COMMUNIST-LINE NEWSPAPERMEN," HE SAID.

JERUSALEM, FIRST ADD PALESTINE X X X

DR. HUSSEIN EL KHALIDI, SECRETARY OF THE PALESTINE ARAB EXECUTIVE, DENIED AMERICAN PRESS REPORTS THAT HE HAD REJECTED A PROPOSAL BY THE ARCHBISHOP OF YORK, DR. CYRIL GARBETT, FOR A JERUSALEM TRUCE.

"THE ARABS HAVE BEEN CUSTODIANS OF JERUSALEM HOLY PLACES FOR 13 CENTURIES," KHALIDI TOLD NEWSMEN. HE ADDED THAT ARMED AGGRESSION WAS THREATENED BY JEWS ALONE. THEREFORE, HE SAID, HE CONSIDERED THE ARCHBISHOP'S PROPOSAL UNWARRANTED.

"THE WITHDRAWAL OF HAGANAH AND IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI (JEWISH UNDERGROUND FORCE) FROM THE OLD CITY WHERE ALL THE HOLY PLACES ARE LOCATED, WOULD SOLVE THE ENTIRE PROBLEM," HE SAID.

KHALIDI SAID ARAB PROPOSALS FOR SUCH A WITHDRAWAL HAD BEEN REJECTED BY THE JEWISH AGENCY.

THE PEALESTINE GOVERNMENT SAID THE JEWISH CONVOY AMBUSHED SATURDAY BY ARABS NEAR SOLOMON'S POOLS, SOUTH OF BETHLEHEM, DID NOT ADVISE AUTHORITIES OF ITS DEPARTURE.

THE GOVERNMENT WARNED THAT RESCUE OPERATIONS LIKE THAT CONDUCTED BY THE ARMY THEN WOULD NOT BE REPEATED IF INSTRUCTIONS WERE THUS VIOLATED.

LANGSON, INDOCHINA, MARCH 30-(AP)-A HIGH FRENCH MILITARY SOURCE SAID TODAY CHINA HAS NOT PROVIDED THE TROOPS PROMISED TWO MONTHS AGO TO STRENGTHEN THE CONTROL OF KWANGSI ON THE INDOCHINA BORDER.

THE IFORMANT SAID FRANCE AND CHINA AGREED TO JOINT OPERATIONS AND CROSS-BORDER COLLABORATION TO COMBAT CHINESE COMMUNISTS FROM KWANGSI AND THE ANTI-FRENCH GUERRILLAS OF HO CHI MINH WHO, THE FRENCH SAY, ARE LED BY COMMUNISTS.

"WE HAVE NOT GOT MANY TROOPS, BUT SO FAR THE CHINESE HAVE SENT NONE TO THE BORDER," THE FRENCH SOURCE SAID. HE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT FOUR CHINESE MILITARY MISSION OFFICERS ARRIVED TWO MONTHS AGO FOR LIAISON WORK.

PRIOR TO SIX MONTHS AGO, THE FRENCH INFORMANT SAID, COLLABORATION WAS NOT GREAT BETWEEN CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND THE VIET-NAM REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT IN INDOCHINA. HE SAID FRENCH INTELLIGENCE HAS MANY PROOFS THAT COLLABORATION NOW IS GROWING UNDER INSPIRATION FROM COMMUNIST LEADERS IN COCHIN-CHINA AND MOSCOW. .

(ADVANCE) BOGOTA, COLOMBIA, MARCH 30-(AP)-THE NINTH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN STATES OPENED TODAY WITH THE DELEGATES PREPARED TO DISCUSS "SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES DIRECTED AGAINST INSTITUTIONS AND THE PEACE AND SECURITY OF AMERICAN REPUBLICS."

THE MATTER WAS INCLUDED ON THE AGENDA AT THE SUGGESTION OF U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL JUST BEFORE THE CONFERENCE FORMALLY OPENED.

PRESIDENT MARIANO OSPINA PEREZ, OF COLOMBIA, WELCOMED THE DELEGATES.

OSPINA URGED THE DELEGATES TO WELD A REGIONAL INTER-AMERICAN ORGANIZATION WHICH COULD MAINTAIN PEACE AND PROTECT THE WORLD FROM THE DOMINATION OF ANTI-DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-CHRISTIAN FORCES.

HE DECLARED THAT THE DEMOCRACIES OF THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE ARE "PREPARED TO DEFEND A COMMON SPIRITUAL AND POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE AND REAFFIRM THE UNITY WHICH IS THEIR STRENGTH IN THE FACE OF EVERY THREAT AND EVERY DANGER."

"THE PRESENT CHAOTIC SITUATION OF THE WORLD IS CAUSING THE GREATEST CONCERN TO THOSE PEOPLES WHOSE IDEALS OF PROGRESS ARE IDENTIFIED WITH PEACEFUL COLLABORATION OF ALL NATIONS," OSPINA SAID.

"WE MUST PROCEED IN THE CONFERENCE," HE SAID, "TO COORDINATE AND IMPROVE EVERYTHING THAT HAS BEEN DONE TO DATE WITH RESPECT TO THE CREATION AND FUNCTIONING OF VARIOUS AGENCIES OF THE INTER-AMERICAN SYSTEM."

IN RESPONSE, JOAO NEVES FONTOURA, OF BRAZIL, ASSAILED COMMUNISM AS A MATERIALISTIC CONCEPT WHICH MAY "BE RESPONSIBLE FOR DRAGGING MANKIND INTO A NEW CATASTROPHE."

"THAT IS WHY WE ARE HERE," THE BRAZILIAN SAID.

THE DELEGATES AGREED AT A PRELIMINARY MEETING THAT THIS CONFERENCE CAN AND WILL DISCUSS "FOREIGN-INSPIRED SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES" IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

FONTOURA TOLD THE FORMAL OPENING SESSION THAT THE UNITED NATIONS HAS NOT ACHIEVED THE AIMS FOR WHICH IT WAS CREATED AND THAT THIS PLACES A GREATER RESPONSIBILITY UPON THE INTER-AMERICAN SYSTEM.

"ALMOST AS SERIOUS AS THE OUTBREAK OF A THIRD WORLD CONFLAGRATION IS THE CONTINUED PRESENCE IN THE INTERNATIONAL SPHERE OF THOSE GERMS OF PREJUDICE AND SUSPICION WHICH ARE RETARDING IF NOT ACTUALLY IMPEDING THE TASK OF WORLD REHABILITATION THAT MUST NO LONGER BE DEFERRED," FONTOURA SAID.

DELEGATES PRAYED FOR DIVINE GUIDANCE BEFORE THE OPENING MEETING.

U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL ASKED AT THE OUTSET OF THE PRELIMINARY SESSION WHETHER THE AGENDA WOULD PERMIT DISCUSSION OF FOREIGN SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES. MARSHALL SAID HE UNDERSTOOD THERE IS CONSIDERABLE INTEREST IN THE SUBJECT, ESPECIALLY WITH A VIEW TO DETERMINING WHETHER SUCH ACTIVITIES ENDANGER INSTITUTIONS OF THE AMERICAS.

CHILE, PARAGUAY AND SEVERAL OTHER NATIONS INDICATED IN ADVANCE THEY SEEK A STRONG DECLARATION AGAINST COMMUNISM, EVEN TO THE EXTENT OF TAKING ACTION TO CURB ITS SPREAD. THE U.S. POSITION WAS NOT MADE KNOWN IN ADVANCE.

THE CONFEREES VOTED UNANIMOUSLY TO INCLUDE SUCH SUBJECTS ON THE AGENDA.

MARSHALL PUT HIS QUESTION THIS WAY:

"I SHOULD LIKE TO RAISE THE QUESTION AT THIS TIME AS TO WHETHER THE AGENDA, AS IT NOW STANDS, MAY BE CONSIDERED TO PERMIT DISCUSSION OF THE PROBLEM OF FOREIGN SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES DIRECTED AGAINST INSTITU-TIONS AND THE PEACE AND SECURITY OF THE AMERICAN REPUBLICS.

"I AM TOLD THIS IS A SUBJECT OF CONSIDERABLE CONCERN TO THE COUNTRIES REPRESENTED HERE. I NOW MERELY RAISE THE QUESTION AS TO WHETHER OR NOT THE PRESENT AGENDA PERMITS SUCH A DISCUSSION."
BOTH THE ARGENTINE AND CHILEAN DELEGATES PROMPTLY REPLIED THAT THE QUESTION COULD BE DISCUSSED. NEITHER USED THE WORD "COMMUNISM."
THE CONFEREES THEN PUT THE MATTER TO A VOTE AND APPROVED IT UNANIMOUSLY. ARGENTINE FOREIGN MINISTER JUAN A. BRAMUGLIA SAID IN HIS DELEGATION'S OPINION ANY QUESTION AFFECTING DEMOCRATIC CONCEPTS WOULD COME WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE AGENDA.

LAUREANO GOMEZ, FOREIGN MINISTER OF COLOMBIA, WAS ELECTED PERMANENT PRESIDENT OF THE CONFERENCE. HE WAS NOMINATED BY MEXICO AND SECONDED BY THE UNITED STATES AND PERU.
THE UNITED STATES, ARGENTINA, BRAZIL, GUATEMALA, PANAMA AND HAITI WERE NAMED TO THE CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE.

Bogota add-on America

JOAO NEVES DE FONTAORA, CHIEF DELEGATE FROM BRAZIL TOLD NEWSMEN HIS COUNTRY WOULD NOT BRING UP THE COMMUNIST QUESTION. BUT, HE ADDED:
"IF THE MATTER IS BROUGHT UP BY SOME OTHER DELEGATION, BRAZIL WILL TAKE A POSITION CONSISTENT WITH ITS INTERNAL POLICY OF COMMUNISM, WHICH CULMINATED WITH A BREAK OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH SOVIET RUSSIA."
SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL WAS GREETED WITH COMMUNIST POSTERS DEPICTING HIM AS A NAZI WHEN HE ARRIVED HERE YESTERDAY. ONE SET READ "HEIL MARSHALL" AND WAS DECORATED WITH NAZI SWASTIKAS. IT WAS THE ONLY COMMUNIST MANIFESTATION.
A HEAVY GUARD WAS THROWN AROUND THE PRESIDENTIAL PALACE AS DELEGATES ARRIVED. OFFICIALS SAID THEY FEARED A POSSIBLE COMMUNIST DEMONSTRATION.

SOVEREIGNTY DISPUTES BETWEEN BRITAIN AND THREE LATIN COUNTRIES HAVE SPOTLIGHTED THE TERRITORIAL ISSUE.
ARGENTINA AND CHILE ARE INVOLVED IN A DISPUTE WITH BRITAIN OVER CLAIMS TO A PORTION OF THE ANTARCTIC. ARGENTINA CONTESTS BRITISH RIGHTS IN THE FALKLAND ISLANDS. GUATEMALA HAS RENEWED HER 100-YEAR-OLD CLAIM TO BRITISH HONDURAS.
PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT ROMULO BETANCOURT, CHIEF VENEZUELAN DELEGATE, SAID HIS NATION WOULD DEMAND THAT ALL COLONIES OF FOREIGN POWERS IN THE AMERICAS BE GIVEN A CHANCE TO FREE THEMSELVES THROUGH PLEBISCITES.
THE UNITED STATES AND BRAZIL BELIEVE CONTROVERSIES INVOLVING SUCH COLONIES SHOULD BE SOLVED BY NEGOTIATIONS OUTSIDE THE CONFERENCE AND WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER.
IN SANTIAGO, CHILE, THE NEWSPAPER LA HORA SAID THE BRITISH-ARGENTINE DISPUTE OVER SOVEREIGNTY IN THE FALKLANDS WOULD BE SETTLED BY A FOOD-FOR-TERRITORY TRADE.
THE DISPATCH, FROM MENDOZA, ARGENTINA, SAID UNDER THE PLAN ARGENTINA WOULD EXPORT FOOD TO BRITAIN IN RETURN FOR TITLE TO INSTALLATIONS BUILT IN THE ISLANDS DURING MORE THAN 100 YEARS OF BRITISH OCCUPATION.
GOVERNMENT SOURCES IN BUENOS AIRES SAID THEY KNEW NOTHING OF SUCH A PLAN.
THE MARSHALL EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN IS EXPECTED TO BE THE SUBJECT OF TOP LEVEL DISCUSSION AT THE CONFERENCE. MANY OF THE LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS SEE IN THE PLAN AN OPPORTUNITY TO IMPROVE THEIR OWN FOREIGN EXCHANGE SITUATION BY OBTAINING DOLLARS.
A SOURCE CLOSE TO MEXICAN FOREIGN SECRETARY TORRES BODET SAID MEXICO WILL PROPOSE THAT A SPECIAL BANK BE ESTABLISHED TO MAKE LOANS TO AMERICAN NATIONS.
THE PROPOSED BANK WOULD BE SET UP WITH FUNDS PROVIDED BY THE AMERICAN NATIONS THEMSELVES, ALTHOUGH THE BULK OF THE CAPITAL WOULD BE EXPECTED TO COME FROM THE UNITED STATES.
ONE U.S. OFFICIAL SAID IT WAS UNLIKELY THE CONFERENCE WOULD APPROVE THE BANK. THE CONFERENCE IS EXPECTED TO LAST SIX WEEKS.

THE NEW NOTE SAID GUATEMALA IS WILLING, LIKE BRITAIN, TO SUBMIT THE DISPUTE TO THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE BUT ADDED THAT GUATEMALA IS NOT INTERESTED IN ARBITRATION SO LONG AS BRITISH SHIPS REMAIN IN HER TERRITORIAL WATERS AND BRITISH ARMED FORCES REMAIN ON TERRITORY CLAIMED BY GUATEMALA.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 30-(AP)-SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL PROMISED TODAY TO MEET FREQUENTLY WITH A CIVILIAN NEWS ADVISORY COUNCIL TO WORK OUT WAYS TO SAFEGUARD MILITARY SECRETS WITHOUT CENSORSHIP.

THE NINE-MAN COUNCIL IS TO BE NAMED BY VARIOUS PUBLISHING, BROADCASTING AND MOTION PICTURE ORGANIZATIONS.

PLANS FOR ITS FORMATION WERE ADOPTED AT A MEETING YESTERDAY BETWEEN FORRESTAL AND LEADING PRESS, RADIO AND MOVIE REPRESENTATIVES. AT AN EARLIER CONFERENCE ON MARCH 3 THE SECRETARY HAD ASKED THE CIVILIAN GROUP TO ADVISE HIM ON HOW TO PREVENT "INFORMATION WHICH MIGHT ENDANGER THE UNITED STATES FROM BEING GIVEN TO ANY POTENTIAL ENEMY."

THE NEWS REPRESENTATIVES TOLD FORRESTAL, IN A RESOLUTION THAT THEY ACKNOWLEDGED THE NEED FOR SECRECY IN SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT OF NEW WEAPONS. BUT THEY SAID THEY DID NOT BELIEVE "ANY TYPE OF CENSORSHIP IN PEACETIME IS WORKABLE OR DESIRABLE IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST."

THE RESOLUTION ADDED:

"PROTECTION OF NECESSARY MILITARY SECRECY IN A COUNTRY RIGHTFULLY JEALOUS OF ITS FREE AND CONTROLLED MEDIA OF COMMUNICATIONS PRESENTS A PROBLEM IN NATIONAL SECURITY.

"ITS WISE SOLUTION IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT. BUT IT IS SHARED TO A DEGREE BY ALL MEDIA OF PUBLIC INFORMATION. AS REPRESENTATIVES OF SUCH MEDIA, WE HAVE WILLINGLY ASSUMED OUR PROPER PART IN THAT RESPONSIBILITY."

FORRESTAL SAID THE STAND AGAINST CENSORSHIP WAS IN LINE WITH HIS OWN VIEWS. AND HE SAID HE WOULD ASK THE NEWS ORGANIZATIONS REPRESENTED TO APPOINT DELEGATES TO THE SECURITY ADVISORY COUNCIL.

THE GROUP WOULD BE MADE UP OF A REPRESENTATIVE SELECTED BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MAGAZINE PUBLISHERS, THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BROADCASTERS, ONE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE THREE PRESS ASSOCIATIONS, ONE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE RADIO NETWORKS, THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF NEWSPAPER EDITORS, THE AMERICAN BOOK PUBLISHERS COUNCIL, INC., THE MOTION PICTURE ASSOCIATION, THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS ASSOCIATION AND THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF BUSINESS PAPER EDITORS.

THE SUGGESTED ADVISORY COUNCIL SHOULD BE "WITHOUT THE IMPLICATION OF CENSORSHIP MACHINERY IN ANY FORM," THE RESOLUTION SAID. THE GROUP REJECTED AN EARLIER PROPOSAL FOR THE CREATION OF AN "INFORMATION ADVISORY UNIT" WITHIN THE MILITARY SERVICES.

IT SAID IN AN ACCOMPANYING REPORT THAT WHAT IS NEEDED IS A "TOP LEVEL" POLICY FOR ALL MILITARY BRANCHES ON "THE TYPE OF INFORMATION IN CERTAIN FIELDS WHICH SHOULD NOT BE REVEALED."

"SUCH AGREEMENT ON POLICY IS OBTAINABLE ONLY WITHIN THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT," THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT SAID, "BUT THE OPINION AND ADVICE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF COMMUNICATIONS MEDIA MAY PROVE HELPFUL."

THORP, SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL'S CHIEF ECONOMIC AIDE, DID NOT SAY WHAT FURTHER AMERICAN HELP MIGHT BE REQUIRED. BUT IN WASHINGTON, ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN TALKING ABOUT THE POSSIBLE NEED FOR A REVIVED LEND-LEASE PROGRAM TO SUPPLY ARMS TO THESE 16 NATIONS.

THORP, IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR MILWAUKEE'S SECOND CONFERENCE ON THE UNITED NATIONS, TERMED THE RECOVERY PROGRAM "A GREAT COOPERATIVE EFFORT OF MORE THAN 400 MILLION PEOPLE." HE SAID THE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES ALREADY ARE TAKING POSITIVE STEPS TO MAKE IT WORK.

"I SHOULD NOT WANT TO PROMISE THAT THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN WILL PREVENT THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM," HE SAID. "BUT I CAN ASSURE YOU THAT THE FAILURE OF THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIES TO IMPROVE WILL LEAD TO SOME FORM OF TOTALITARIANISM.

THE CONSUL GENERAL IN JERUSALEM WEEKS AGO NOTIFIED AMERICANS IN PALESTINE THEY MUST GIVE UP THEIR PASSPORTS IF THEY TAKE PART IN FIGHTING.
THIS HAS THE EFFECT OF DENYING THEM THE RIGHT TO UNITED STATES OFFICIAL PROTECTION IN THE EVENT OF DIFFICULTY, IT DOES NOT, HOWEVER, VOID THEIR AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP.
THE REGULATION AGAINST FOREIGN FIGHTING DATES FROM THE PERIOD WHEN MANY AMERICANS JOINED THE ABRHAM LINCOLN BRIGADE FIGHTING FOR THE SPANIS REPUBLICANS AGAINST GENERALISSIMO FRANCO. ALL PASSPORTS NOW ARE STAMPED:

NIGHT LEAD UNITED NATIONS (500)
BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER
LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 30-(AP)-RUSSIA DECLARED TODAY THE UNITED STATES WANTS TO KILL THE PALESTINE PARTITION PROJECT TO SAVE AMERICAN OIL AND MILITARY INTERESTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST.
DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI A.GROMYKO, THE SOVIET DELEGATE, REJECTED A UNITED STATES PROPOSAL FOR A SPECIAL ASSEMBLY OF THE 57 UNITED NATIONS TO CONSIDER THE FUTURE OF PALESTINE.
THE RUSSIAN SAID THERE ARE NO GROUNDS FOR THIS SESSION. GROMYKO'S STAND FORECAST A SOVIET VETO WHICH WOULD FORCE THE U.S. TO DEMAND A POLL OF THE WHOLE MEMBERSHIP ON THE QUESTION OF CALLING A SPECIAL SESSION. ONLY A SIMPLE MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS--OR 29 VOTES--WOULD BE NEEDED TO CONVENE THE ASSEMBLY.
FINALLY, GROMYKO SLAPPED DOWN THE U.S.PROPOSAL FOR A U.N. TRUSTEESHIP FOR PALESTINE. HE SAID THE TRUSTEESHIP IDEA WAS "AN ATTEMPT TO CONVERT PALESTINE INTO A MILITARY-STRATEGIC BASE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ENGLAND UNDER THE PRETEXT OF MAINTAINING ORDER IN THAT COUNTRY."
GROMYKO DID NOT MENTION THE NEW U.S. PLEA FOR A TRUCE BETWEN JEWS AND ARABS, WHICH WARREN R.AUSTIN, CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE, FORMALLY PUT BEFORE THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL TODAY.
CALLING PALESTINE A PAWN IN A POLITICAL GAMBLE, GROMYKO TORE APART THE LAST SHREDS OF THE RARE U.S.-SOVIET COOPERATIVE EFFORT WHICH HAD BEEN RESPONSIBLE FOR PUTTING THE PARTITION PLAN THROUGH THE U.N. ASSEMBLY LAST NOV. 29.
IT WAS RUSSIA'S FIRST DECLARATION ON PALESTINE IN THE COUNCIL SINCE AUSTIN ASKED THE U.N. TO SHELVE THE PARTITION PLAN AND CONSIDER A TEMPORARY U.N. TRUSTEESHIP.
GROMYKO SAID FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR "THE KILLING OF THE DECISION ON THE PARTITION OF PALESTINE RESTS ON THE UNITED STATES WHICH, ACCORDING TO GENERAL OPINION, TAKES CARE NOT OF THE JUST SETTLEMENT OF THE QUESTION OF THE FUTURE OF PALESTINE AND THE RELATIONS BETWEEN ARABS AND JEWS BUT OF THEIR OWN OIL INTERESTS AND MILITARY-STRATEGIC POSITIONS IN THE MIDDLE EAST."
HE TOLD THE COUNCIL THAT THE U.S. DELEGATES TO THE 1947 U.N. ASSEMBLY USED ALL THEIR INFLUENCE TO ATTAIN THE ADOPTION OF THE PARTITION PLAN. HE SAID "REVERSAL" OF THE AMERICAN POSITION NOW HAS PROVOKED "MORE THAN AN AMAZEMENT IN ALL THE COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD."

A28
GROMYKO SAID A SPECIAL ASSEMBLY WOULD MEAN "THROWING THE UNITED NATIONS BACKWARDS, AT LEAST, FOR A YEAR IN REGARD TO THE PALESTINE QUESTION, WHILE OUR TASK IS NOT THAT OF MOVING BACKWARDS BUT TO MAKE PROGRESS AND TO IMPLEMENT THE DECISION ALREADY ADOPTED."
IN PRESENTING THE U.S. RESOLUTIONS CALLING FOR A TRUCE AND FOR THE SPECIAL SESSION, AUSTIN SAID IT IS ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL THAT VIOLENCE AND BLOODSHED IN PALESTINE MUST STOP.
AUSTIN SAID HE WAS NOT MENTIONING TRUSTEESHIP NOW SO THAT THE ASSEMBLY CALL WOULD NOT BE DELAYED BY DEBATE OVER TRUSTEESHIP DETAILS.
BUT AUSTIN SERVED NOTICE THE U.S. IS STANDING BY THE TRUSTEESHIP PROPOSAL. HE SAID THIS TRUSTEESHIP WOULD BE WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO THE FINAL POLITICAL SETTLEMENT IN PALESTINE.
"WE BELIEVE," HE SAID, "THAT A TRUSTEESHIP IS ESSENTIAL TO ESTABLISH ORDER, WITHOUT WHICH A PEACEFUL SOLUTION OF THIS PROBLEM CANNOT BE FOUND OR PUT INTO EFFECT."
AUSTIN AND GROMYKO WERE THE ONLY SPEAKERS. THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED THE PALESTINE DEBATE UNTIL THURSDAY AT 2:30PM (EST), IT WILL TAKE UP THE CZECHOSLOVAK CASE AGAIN TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

THE PROBLEM IS BUILDING UP TO A MAJOR ISSUE FOR THE U.N. ASSEMBLY SESSION IN PARIS NEXT AUTUMN.
THERE ARE TWO BIG COMMITTEES OF THE COMMISSION. ONE IS THE WORKING COMMITTEE AND THE OTHER THE CONTROL GROUP. MAJORITIES OF BOTH HAVE SERVED NOTICE IT IS USELESS TO CONTINUE DEBATE IN THE PRESENT ATMOSPHERE.
A FORMAL VOTE IN THE WORKING COMMITTEE ON DROPPING RUSSIA'S PROPOSALS IS THE ONLY TECHNICALITY BEFORE THE COMMISSION REPORTS TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL. THIS VOTE WAS DELAYED YESTERDAY UNTIL NEXT MONDAY AT RUSSIA'S REQUEST.
FREDERICK H. OSBORN, UNITED STATES, RECOMMENDED TODAY THAT THE CONTROL COMMITTEE STOP ITS WORK. THE CONTROL COMMITTEE HAS BEEN

OSBORN SAID THE COMMISSION MAJORITY AND THE SOVIET UNION CAN NOT AGREE AT THIS POINT EVEN ON HOW THE AGENCY SHOULD BE ORGANIZED. HE SAID THE MAJORITY FEEL THE NATIONS MUST DECIDE FIRST WHAT THE CONTROL AGENCY WILL DO BEFORE THEY DECIDE HOW IT WILL BE SET UP.

THIRD LEAD UNITED NATIONS

BY MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 30-(AP)-RUSSIA ACCUSED THE UNITED STATES TODAY OF SACRIFICING THE PALESTINE PARTITION PROJECT FOR OIL AND STRATEGIC INTERESTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

IN A SLASHING ATTACK ON AMERICAN PALESTINE POLICY, RUSSIA'S ANDREI A.GROMYKO SAID THERE WAS NO REASON FOR THE UNITED NATIONS TO ABANDON THE PARTITION PLAN.

HE OPPOSED THE NEW AMERICAN POLICY FOR A TEMPORARY U.N. TRUSTEESHIP IN THE HOLY LAND AND SAID THERE WAS NO NEED FOR A SPECIAL PALESTINE ASSEMBLY OF THE 57 UNITED NATIONS.

THIS WAS THE SHARPEST CLASH HERE THUS FAR BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES OVER PALESTINE. BOTH HAD TAKEN A LEADING PART IN PUSHING THE PARTITION PLAN THROUGH THE U.N. ASSEMBLY LAST NOV. 29.

THE UNITED STATES MUST BEAR THE FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANY DECISION TO KILL THE PARTITION SCHEME NOW, GROMYKO DECLARED.

GROMYKO TOLD THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL THE U. S. HAD ABANDONED PARTITION BEFORE THE COUNCIL HAD MADE ADEQUATE EFFORTS TO FIND OUT WHETHER IT COULD BE MADE TO WORK BY PEACEFUL MEANS.

THE SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER SAID RUSSIA WAS NOT CONVINCED THAT PARTITION WAS UNWORKABLE.

A200UN

GROMYKO SPOKE IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE UNITED STATES DEMANDED THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL ISSUE A PALESTINE CEASE-FIRE ORDER IMMEDIATELY. THE U. S. ALSO CALLED FOR A SPECIAL PALESTINE SESSION OF THE U. N. ASSEMBLY.

GROMYKO SAID HE DID NOT SEE ANY GROUNDS FOR A SPECIAL SESSION. HE ALSO EXPRESSED DOUBTS THAT THE AMERICAN PROPOSAL FOR A TMPORARY PALESTINE TRUSTEESHIP WOULD SOLVE THE HOLY LAND CRISIS.

THE AMERICAN TRUCE PROPOSAL WAS SUBMITTED BY CHIEF AMERICAN DELEGATE WARREN R.AUSTIN ON ORDERS FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

IN A FORMAL RESOLUTION, AUSTIN PROPOSED THAT THE COUNCIL CALL "UPON ARAB AND JEWISH ARMED GROUPS IN PALESTINE TO CEASE ACTS OF VIOLENCE IMMEDIATELY."

AT THE SAME TIME, HE PROPOSED THAT THE JEWISH AGENCY AND THE ARAB HIGHER COMMITTEE FOR PALESTINE MAKE AVAILABLE AT ONCE REPRESENTATIVES TO THE COUNCIL TO HELP ARRANGE A TRUCE IN THE HOLY LAND STRIFE.

IN ANOTHER RESOLUTION, AUSTIN MADE THE EXPECTED U.S. DEMAND FOR A SPECIAL PALESTINE SESSION OF THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY "TO CONSIDER FURTHER THE QUESTION OF THE FUTURE GOVERNMENT OF PALESTINE."

THE TWO PROPOSALS WERE PART OF THE FOUR-POINT PALESTINE POLICY AUSTIN LAID BEFORE THE COUNCIL 10 DAYS AGO WHEN HE ANNOUNCED THE U.S. WAS WITHDRAWING ITS SUPPORT OF THE U.N. ASSEMBLY'S PARTITION PROJECT.

THE OTHER POINTS PROVIDED THAT THE U.N. PALESTINE COMMISSION BE ORDERED TO SUSPEND ITS EFFORTS TO CARRY OUT PARTITION AND THAT THE COUNCIL RECOMMEND TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY THAT PALESTINE BE PLACED UNDER TEMPORARY U.N. TRUSTEESHIP.

AUSTIN MADE NO MENTION TODAY OF ANY MOVE TO HALT THE PALESTINE COMMISSION'S OPERATIONS. HE SAID THE UNITED STATES STILL STOOD BY ITS TRUSTEESHIP PROPOSAL BUT IS NOT READY TO OFFER A SPECIFIC RESOLUTION AT THIS TIME.

"THE EXIGENCIES OF THE TIME LIMITS CONFRONTING THE SECURITY COUNCIL," HE SAID, "REQUIRE PROMPT DECISION AND ISSUE OF THE CALL FOR A SPECIAL SESSION. THIS SHOULD NOT BE DELAYED BY DEBATE OVER DETAILS OF THE TEMPORARY TRUSTEESHIP.

"THE UNITED STATES IS READY TO OFFER AND CONSIDER WITH OTHER MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL PROPOSALS REGARDING SUCH DETAILS WHILE THE NECESSARY NOTICE PERIOD IS RUNNING."

HE WAS REFERRING TO THE 15-DAY LAPSE REQUIRED BETWEEN THE DATE THE ASSEMBLY IS CALLED AND THE DATE IT CONVENES.

AUSTIN WAS UNDER DIRECT INSTRUCTIONS FROM PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO PRESS FOR COUNCIL BACKING ON THE CEASE-FIRE PROPOSAL. THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THE TRUCE PROJECT LAST WEEK IN A NEWS CONFERENCE AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE TRUCE AND SPECIAL SESSION PROPOSALS REPRESENT ONLY A PORTION OF REVISED AMERICAN PLANS FOR THE HOLY LAND. OTHER PARTS CALL FOR AN INTERIM U.N. TRUSTEESHIP IN THE HOLY LAND IN LIEU OF PARTITION AND INSTRUCTIONS TO THE PALESTINE PARTITION COMMISSION TO CEASE WORK.

PRESENT INDICATIONS ARE THAT AUSTIN WILL WITHHOLD THE LATTER TWO SECTIONS UNTIL THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY CONVENES. THE AMERICAN DELEGATION HOPES THAT SESSION CAN BE OPENED BEFORE THE MIDDLE OF APRIL. THE BRITISH INSIST THEY ARE GIVING UP THEIR MANDATE RULE OVER PALESTINE MAY 15, MAKING THE TIME FACTOR IMPORTANT.

THERE IS LITTLE OPTIMISM HERE FOR THE NEW TRUCE PROPOSAL. THREE SUCH MOVES ALREADY HAVE FAILED.

THE ARABS HOLD THERE CAN BE NO LAYDOWN OF ARMS UNLESS PARTITION IS DROPPED; THE JEWS SAY THERE CAN BE NO TRUCE UNLESS PARTITION IS EFFECTED.

THE PARTITION COMMISSION DECIDED LAST NIGHT TO GO AHEAD WITH CREATION OF A PROVISIONAL JEWISH GOVERNMENT IN PALESTINE. THE FIVE-NATION COMMISSION HOLDS IT IS OBLIGATED TO TAKE ALL POSSIBLE STEPS TO CARRY OUT PARTITION UNDER THE ASSEMBLY'S RESOLUTION OF LAST NOV.29.

THE COMMISSION TOOK NO FORMAL COGNIZANCE OF AMERICAN ABANDONMENT OF PARTITION, MERELY NOTING THAT IT INTENDS TO GO AHEAD UNTIL CONTRARY ORDERS ARE RECEIVED FROM THE ASSEMBLY.

Guards Told to Resist Inspection; Russians Halt British Army Cars

MAR 1948

BERLIN, April 1 (Thursday) (AP).—The United States rejected early today a Soviet demand that Russian troops be allowed to inspect American military trains and freight entering and leaving Berlin.

U. S. military trains running between Berlin and Frankfurt were ordered by the American Military Government to continue their trips to Berlin through the Soviet zone. Train guards were instructed to bar Soviet troops entry to the trains.

The Soviet order, issued yesterday, instructed Red troops to conduct such inspections as trains traversed the Soviet zone. Inspection was to begin at midnight last night.

Soviet reaction to the American rejection of inspection privileges was not made known immediately.

British Order The Same

The British also ordered their train guards to refuse to allow Soviet inspection. The French said they were studying the order, but had made no reply.

American trains were not expected to pass into the Soviet zone en route to Berlin until 3 A.M. today. It was considered unlikely that any news of how they were handled would reach Berlin until 8 A.M. when they are due at the local station.

Trains on the Berlin-Frankfurt run always have been well armed and guarded by a substantial number of officers and enlisted men. Military government officials said the train which left Frankfurt for Berlin last night carried only its usual crew and no extra guards.

Temporary Delay

An order to hold up American trains was issued temporarily last night pending delivery of the United States note to the Russians. Once it was delivered, headquarters of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the American military commander, instructed the trains to proceed as usual.

American sources said a Berlin-bound train, halted temporarily at Helmstedt by the United States order, passed through a Russian control point there without incident at 11.23 P.M.

In Berlin, Allied forces and civilians waited tensely to see if the Russians would try to use force to back up their order. If they do, it is considered a certainty that clashes will result.

The sudden Soviet order precipitated the most critical four-power crisis in Germany since the end of the war. It was the first incident that threatened any direct clash between Soviet and Western occupying forces.

Proper Identification

The Russians demanded that American, British and French soldiers and civilians furnish proper identification to new Soviet control authorities on the one inter-zonal highway leading from Berlin and that the Russians be allowed to inspect their military trains.

In effect, the Soviet order would make it impossible, if enforced generally, for 25,000 Western Allied residents of Berlin to move out of the city into the Western zones by road or rail without Russian consent.

Berlin, by four-power agreement, occupies an island position inside the Soviet zone. Travelers on highway or rail routes out of the city cover 100 miles or more of Soviet-occupied territory before entering the Western zones.

No Reference To Planes

The Soviet order made no reference to air traffic to and from the capital.

The main problem before the Americans, British and French was whether they would give up the sovereignty of their military trains.

A brief, one-sentence announcement tonight by a United States military government representative said only:

"We have advised the Russians we are prepared for train commanders to give proper documentation, but that we cannot permit entry into our trains as a new procedure."

An official spokesman, explaining "documentation," said train commanders always have given the Russians copies of the travel orders of trains and passengers.

Trucks Turned Back

The first instance of the Soviet clamp-down came when several British military trucks bound for Berlin were turned back at the Soviet border checkpoint at Marienborn last night. The Russians claimed the trucks bore no official Soviet translation of travel permits, the British said.

The Soviet order also provided for tight controls of all outgoing freight from Berlin, either German or Allied military. The order said each shipment must be inspected and approved by the Soviet military.

The Soviet order also indicated control over incoming freight from the Western zones, but the language was so vague it mystified Western military authorities as to its intent.

Sovereignty Problem

The Soviet move posed for the United States, France and Britain the question of whether to surrender to Russia sovereignty of their military trains carrying personnel moving in and out of Berlin.

The Soviet demand provided that no American, British or French citizen could leave or enter Berlin by rail or train without providing proof of his or her identity to Soviet control authorities.

New Soviet control points were established on the Berlin-Hannover autobahn (highway) and the single rail line between Berlin and Helmstedt—the only ground communications of the Western powers with Berlin.

Increased Traffic

The Russians said increased traffic on the rail and road lines made the order necessary. Until now the nationals of the three Western powers could travel freely on military trains of each power between Berlin and the Western zones without Soviet inspection.

Under the new order Russian soldiers at check points along the highway and railroad line can decide what constitutes acceptable identification of travelers.

It provided for inspection of all luggage except personal belongings, but left to the Russian soldiers to decide what constituted personal belongings.

Newspaper Attacks

The order came as the climax of a series of Soviet-controlled newspaper attacks against the Western powers declaring they soon would have to leave Berlin.

Three days ago an official American source, who could not be named, said such a Soviet demand to halt trains would be "extremely serious" and a matter for action on a governmental level.

The Soviet order was delivered in separate letters to the three powers Tuesday night. Translation was made yesterday morning and it was noon before all three powers knew its contents.

Check Points Inside Zone

The newly established Soviet check points were all within the Soviet zone and out of reach of intercession by any one of the Western powers.

One new Soviet control point was set up at Nowawes near Potsdam on the autobahn. Up to now the only Soviet inspection of papers on the highway has been at Helmstedt, 50 yards from a similar British post at the entry to the Soviet zone. Only papers required at either old post were American, British or French Government orders with a copy in Russian.

3,035 U.S. Employes

Anyone being stopped at the new post would have great difficulty in making his plight known to British, French or American authorities in Berlin.

Train inspection was similarly located by the Soviet order at Marienborn, about five miles within the Soviet zone from Helmstedt.

Affected by the Soviet order are approximately 10,835 military government employés and their families divided as follows: United States, 3,035; French, 3,500; British, 4,300.

U.S. And Britain Balk At Soviet Curbs In Berlin

MAR 1948

Berlin, March 31 (AP)—British and American opposition arose today to a Russian plan for stringent new controls on traffic between the Soviet and western zones of Germany.

The Russians informed the British, French and American headquarters of their plan, and the Americans said promptly it would violate four-power agreements.

"The procedures outlined by the Soviet occupation authorities are not in accord with our agreements," said Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor. "We are preparing an answer."

British Reject Demand

British authorities rejected a Soviet demand for a Russian inspection of British military trains traveling through the Soviet zone, and ordered British train commanders not to permit Russian soldiers aboard.

Documents Required

The Russians, in notes sent the three Western allies last night, said all military and civilian personnel and families going through the Soviet zone by train or automobile would be required to present documents certifying their identity and the fact that they belong to agencies of the military government.

The Soviet order, labeled, "Supplementary Regulations," goes into force at midnight tonight, the Russian note said.

The Russians also announced that freight belonging to the Western powers would not be permitted to leave Berlin for the Western zones without a certificate of the Soviet authorities.

Will Inspect Trains

In effect, the Russians announced they intended to board military trains of the Western Allies and subject freight and passengers to inspection.

Maj. Gen. N. C. D. Brownjohn, deputy British military governor, replied in a note sent to the Soviet Military Administration:

"We do not recognize that the Soviet authorities have any unilateral right to decide what persons or goods may enter or leave the City of Berlin.

"The Soviet authorities have no right to interfere with trains carrying British personnel to and from Berlin."

Lieut. Gen. G. S. Lukyanchenko, Russian chief of staff, said yesterday that demands on traffic arteries through the Soviet occupation zone made necessary a reconsideration of their use.

Rails, Highway Limited

The General, in an interview with a Soviet-licensed newspaper, said the one-track rail line and the superhighway to Berlin through Russian-held territory from western Germany would have to be put under a new control. These are the only ground connections from the West into the capital.

The move was the latest in a series apparently aimed at disrupting four-power rule in Germany. The Russians previously had boycotted meetings of the four-power control council, and the Western powers responded with a counter-boycott, led by the United States.

The rail lines and highway are used by the three Western powers to supply their troops in Berlin and to move food and supplies from western Germany for the Germans in their zones of the capital.

30.24- 16643

Frankfurt, Germany, March 31 (A. P.).—Authoritative quarters said tonight that American military authorities had forbidden Berlin-bound American trains from entering the Soviet zone of Germany until new travel restrictions in the Russian zone are clarified.

Helmstedt, Germany, Thursday, April 1 (AP)—American railroad officers said early today Soviet authorities halted two British military trains at Marienborn when British guards refused to allow Soviet forces to inspect them.

Marienborn is the Soviet inspection point. It is about 5 miles inside the Soviet zone from the British zone.

One of the British trains was en route from Berlin and the other was going to Berlin. The latter train was approximately three hours overdue here at 5.20 A.M.

OUSTER HELD RUSSIAN AIM

Washington Sees Beginning Of Soviet Berlin Squeeze

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Russia's move to tighten control over traffic between Berlin and western Germany was regarded by diplomatic authorities here tonight as beginning a Soviet squeeze to try to force the Western powers out of the German capital.

Official comment on the potentially hazardous situation was lacking, however, except for the fact that informants said privately all American counter moves are under the direction of Gen. Lucius D. Clay in Berlin.

The army public information division said it had cabled Clay's headquarters:

"This office is answering press queries concerning your rail situation out of Berlin to the effect that your headquarters will take appropriate action and keep this office informed of developments."

No Sense Of Alarm

Clay, as American military commander and governor of the American zone of Germany, presumably has been in closest possible contact with his superiors here. Some authorities said it was obvious that he would not take any step without being sure it was in line with top Government policy.

Both the State Department and the National Military Establishment showed no sense of alarm over the situation. The hope of top officials seemed to be that admittedly sharp differences over supervision of Western power traffic through the Soviet zone could be worked out without serious incident, at least for the time being.

Berlin has long been recognized, however, as a possible testing ground of the relative determination behind Russian and American foreign policy, and there was no denying here that many elements of a grave new crisis in the conflict between East and West are present.

Among these probably is the fact that both American and Russian prestige will become deeply involved if the issue goes to a showdown and one side or the other has to consider giving way on some important point.

This could well be especially important to this country at a time when the United States Government is seeking to reassure western European countries that it will protect them against any threats of Russian expansion.

Zone Merger Key

Speculation that the Soviet might try to force the United States, Britain and France out of Berlin has occupied officials to some extent ever since America and Britain, in the face of Soviet opposition, began the merger of their zones in Germany more than a year ago.

American authorities believe the chances for a showdown on the Berlin occupation were increased last December when the London Big Four Foreign Ministers Conference failed to agree on German unity and ended in almost complete split between Russia and the Western powers.

More recently the Russians have angrily criticized arrangements made by the three Western nations in London four weeks ago to try to unify all of western Germany and fit it into the European Recovery Program. The Russians have taken the position that such action had the effect of destroying four-power control of Germany.

Soviet Forced Split

The Western nations have replied that it is the Russians themselves who have forced the split in Germany, and that any time they are willing to co-operate on an all-German basis the door is open.

The basic American position on Berlin is that the Western powers are there by right of agreement among the Allied governments and not by the charity of the Soviet. Although the city is deep in the Russian zone, the Russians are not considered to have any legal right to order the three Western nations out or to take steps to force them out.

EUROPE RAPS SPAIN AID PLAN

Opposition To House Proposal Swells In Press

MAR 1948

London, March 31 (AP)—Opposition to the inclusion of Franco Spain in the Marshall recovery plan swelled in the European press today.

Government officials generally remained silent, waiting to see if final approval to Spain's inclusion among countries eligible for aid would be given by the United States House of Representatives and Senate. A responsible British source, however, expressed doubt that either Britain or France, as sponsors of western European unity, would sanction "for a minute" Spain's inclusion.

Le Peuple, Belgian Socialist party newspaper in Brussels, said: "The American Congress is free to make gifts to whom it likes, but cannot force the sixteen European countries (in the Marshall plan) to collaborate with a government condemned by all the United Nations."

Hitler Would Get Share

The independent newspaper, Information, in Copenhagen, said: "If Hitler is still alive he will most certainly pop up one day to get his share of Marshall aid."

The Brussels Communist newspaper, Drapeau Rouge, commented that "dollars will now flow to Spain to arm Fascist troops."

The Norwegian liberal newspaper, Dagbladet, said in Oslo that the House action was a "shocking resolution." The Social Democratic Aftontidningen in Stockholm commented similarly.

Franc-Tireur, French Leftist newspaper in Paris, said "bellicose delirium in Washington" was responsible, and the pro-Communist paper, Liberation, added that "the American Congress sometimes plays international politics with the grace of an elephant in a china shop."

Some political circles in Amsterdam commented, however, that there was a need for including Spain in the recovery program.

In Italy the Communist newspaper L'Unita twitted Premier Alcide de Gasperi, asking if he had not made the assertion that the Marshall-plan was aimed at restoring democracy.

The moderate Italian Labor Socialist party announced it had sent messages to "all workers' organizations and democratic parties" in the United States expressing "deep concern at the eventual inclusion of Fascist Spain" in the Marshall plan.

Acting Premier Fernando Valera of the Spanish Republican Government in exile declared in Paris the House action was an example of "vacillation" and that his regime should be made the beneficiary of Marshall-plan aid instead of the Franco Government.

Prominent Moscow Display

Moscow dispatches said the Soviet press displayed prominently Washington reports of the House action. The dispatches pointed out that Soviet writers have been contending that the United States was seeking to transform Spain into an American military base and that there was an association between "Wall Street imperialism" and "Spanish fascism."

Spanish newspapers gave moderate and uniform display to the story, treating it as a correction of an "injustice" to Spain. Most of the papers took the view that Generalissimo Franco's fight against communism at last was being recognized.

Arriba, newspaper of the totalitarian Falange party, asked: "What would Europe be today without the civil war" in Spain, which Franco won?

Hailed In Lisbon

At Geneva, Switzerland, Argentina proposed that Spain be invited to the United Nations conference on freedom of information now in session there.

The Lisbon Government organ welcomed the House action.

Madrid dispatches said Franco might carry out a long-rumored Cabinet reorganization, replacing some Falangists for pro-Franco conservatives and monarchists and creating a premier to head the Government. There was speculation in Madrid that rehabilitation of Spain's highways and railroads and completion of large trans-Atlantic airports might have priority in an aid program because of their strategic value.

Including Spain In Aid Is Under Fire Abroad

London, March 31 (AP)—Europe's centrist and leftist press joined in protest today against the proposal to include Spain in the European Recovery Program.

Government officials generally remained silent. They waited to see whether the United States Senate would accept the House of Representatives amendment to the foreign aid program, adopted yesterday by 149 to 52, to invite Spain on terms set by the sixteen Marshall plan nations of Europe.

A responsible British source expressed belief neither Britain nor France, as sponsoring nations for western European unity, would approve Spain's inclusion while she remains under Generalissimo Franco's leadership.

Reds Fan Propaganda

The Communist press seized on the proposal to fan their propaganda against United States foreign policy.

"The American Congress sometimes plays international politics with the grace of an elephant in a china shop," said the pro-Communist Paris newspaper Liberation.

The Left-wing Paris newspaper Franc Tireru said the House vote indicated "bellicose delirium in Washington."

In Italy, where the Marshall plan looms large in the April 18 elections, the Italian Labor Socialist party said it had sent to "all workers' organizations and democratic parties in the United States" a telegram expressing deep concern over the possible inclusion of Spain in the aid program. It asked the organization to act to "eliminate this serious menace which threatens the cause of European democracy."

Called "Creature Of Hitler"

Rome's Communist newspaper, L'Unita, called Franco "the creature of Hitler and Mussolini." Did not Italy's Government leaders say "the Marshall plan is aimed at restoring democracy?" it asked.

In Brussels, the Belgian Socalist party's offical newspaper, Le Peuple, said "the American Congress is free to make gifts to whom it likes but cannot force the 16 European countries to collaborate with a Government condemned by all the United Nations."

In Oslo, Norway, the liberal newspaper Dagbladet commented on the House action in an editorial entitled "A Shocking Situation."

Soviet Eases Peace Terms For Austria

London, March 31 (AP)—Russia eased her terms for an Austrian peace settlement today.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister N. P. Koktimov said Russia would accept $150,000,000 in cash—with payments spread over six years—as a partial settlement for Austrian property formerly German owned. Russia claims the property under the Potsdam agreement.

Originally, Russia wanted $200,000,000 in cash in two years.

Asks Most Of Oil

British observers said Koktimov entered the meeting of the four-power Foreign Ministers' deputies "apparently with new instructions from Moscow."

The United States, British and French deputies expressed what the British observers called "qualified appreciation" of the offer but delayed acceptance or rejection pending further study.

Beside cash, Russia wants two thirds of Austria's oil production for the next 50 years and full control of the Danube Shipping Company. The Western powers have expressed willingness to go about half way toward meeting these demands.

Russia Eases Her Terms For Austria

London, March 31 (AP)—Russia snipped another $25,000,000 today from her price for an Austrian peace settlement.

The new figure, $150,000,000 in cash payable over six years, was announced by N. P. Koktimov, Russian deputy foreign minister, at a meeting of the deputy foreign ministers of Russia, France, Great Britain and the United States.

They have been meeting almost continuously since last November in an attempt to work out a peace treaty for Austria.

Russia demands cash as part payment for Austrian property formerly owned by Germans and which Russia claims under the terms of the Potsdam agreement.

At first, Russia asked $200,000,000 in cash payable in two years. Later she reduced this amount to $175,000,000. The three Western powers, whose delegates declined to comment on the new proposal pending further study, rejected both former figures as too high.

Other Russian claims on Austria besides cash include control of her Danube shipping and two thirds of her oil production for the next 50 years.

Britain Announces Surplus

MAR 1948

London, March 31 (AP)—The Treasury announced tonight the Government had a £636,000,000 ($2,544,000,000) surplus for the fiscal year ended today.

It was double the surplus estimated last November.

Total Government expenses for the 1947-48 fiscal year were £3,209,000,000 ($12,836,000,000). Revenues were £3,845,000,000 ($15,380,000,000).

The Government, heavily in debt, budgeted for a surplus for this financial year in a deliberate move to combat inflation. Britain ended the 1946-47 year with a deficit of £569,122,597 ($2,276,490,388).

$3,750,000,000 U.S. Loan

High among her debts is the $3,750,000,000 postwar loan from the United States. And her need for dollars persists. This is due to Britain's unbalanced foreign trade position, in which she is buying more abroad than she is selling abroad.

Despite the large surplus, few Britons expected tax relief in the budget Sir Stafford Cripps will present to Parliament April 6.

Financial writers speculated the Chancellor of the Exchequer would make only small cuts probably in tobacco and purchase taxes and for the benefit of lower-bracket income-tax payers. This would follow the anti-inflation line.

Debt Figure Lacking

Tobacco shares advanced on the London Stock Exchange in belief that tax relief may allow a reduction in the present 68-cent price of a pack of twenty cigarettes.

A Treasury spokesman said he is unable to give the exact amount of the British national debt. A year ago, it stood at £25,734,000,000 ($102,936,000,000).

Britain Takes Over All Electric Utilities

London, Thursday, April 1 (AP)—Britain took ownership last midnight of all the nation's electric utilities, sixth major enterprise to be nationalized under the Labor Government's Socialist program.

One of the first developments under state control will be higher rates for a large proportion of domestic consumers in urban areas.

Chairmen of three of the fourteen regional boards that will administer the industry said yesterday that domestic rates would have to be increased to meet rising costs, including higher prices for coal.

Other enterprises nationalized since the Labor Government came to power in mid-1945 include coal mines, civil aviation, inland transport, the Bank of England and Cable and Wireless, a globe-circling communications system.

Legislation for nationalization of the gas industry also has been passed but the Government has not yet taken control.

Properties taken over by the Government at midnight included 170 generating stations owned by municipalities or private companies, and between 500 and 600 distribution systems. They employ a total of 98,000 people.

Guaranteed Stock

Administering the industry will be the Government's British Electricity Authority which is authorized to raise as much as £700,000,000 pounds ($2,800,000,000) for development purposes.

Stockholders in private companies will be paid in Treasury guaranteed British electricity stock, whose value will be announced tonight.

For municipally owned plants the Government will pay only enough to meet their net outstanding debts.

Briton Freed Of Charge Of Mistreating Nazis

London, March 31 (AP)—A court-martial acquitted a 27-year-old British officer today of charges that he supervised the mistreatment of two German prisoners.

The defendant, Lieut. Richard Oliver Langham, was cleared on two counts of "disgraceful conduct of a cruel kind" charged by the prosecution.

He denied the charges throughout the trial which began in Hannover, Germany, three weeks ago. Later it was transferred to London to enable civilian witnesses to attend.

Communists Plan General Walkout Unless Missing Leader Is Found

Rome, March 31 (AP)—The Communists threatened tonight to order a nation-wide strike which would paralyze Italy for a ten-day period before the April 18 national elections.

Giuseppe di Vittorio, Communist president of Italy's 6,000,000-member General Labor Confederation (CGIL), announced in Palermo, Sicily, the organization's executive committee would call the strike if police fail to find a missing Sicilian labor leader by April 8.

Minority Not Voting

The committee's decision was made by majority vote of its Leftist members. Minority members representing the three Government parties did not participate in the vote.

If the strike is called April 8, di Vittorio said, it will be one hour long that day and will be increased by one hour each day until the labor leader's disappearance is solved. Thus, workers throughout the nation would be on strike for ten hours on April 17—the day before the election.

One exception was made, however. Public service workers will strike for only fifteen minutes the first day.

Charge Rightist Violence

The missing labor leader, Placido Rizzotto, disappeared about twenty days ago from his Chamber of Labor headquarters at Corleone, Sicily. Police since have found no trace of him. Leftists have charged he was killed or kidnapped by Rightists.

Di Vittorio said Italy's new Parliament, which will be elected April 18, will be asked to open an inquiry in Sicily "to learn the cause of the disappearance of labor leaders and an increase in political crimes."

CGIL posted 500,000 lire ($900) today as a reward for information leading to Rizzotto's return or to "the arrest of those responsible for his disappearance." The labor group said also it would care for "the orphans of labor leaders killed for political reasons in Sicily."

Italian Reds Object To Letters From U. S.

Rome, March 31 (A. P.).—Mauro Scoccimarro, Communist leader and former Finance Minister, complained today that letters from the United States urging Italians to vote down Communism represent foreign interference in Italian affairs. He made the complaint at a meeting of an inter-party committee seeking to maintain a pre-election truce.

5,000 U.S. Troops In Trieste To Parade

Trieste, March 31 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Bryant E. Moore announced today all 5,000 United States troops in Trieste will parade here April 6 in full field equipment to celebrate Army Day.

"This might be considered as a show of force," Moore said at a news conference. "Actually, the intent is to make the young soldier conscious of his position and of the traditions of the Army—to let him show himself off in all his gear."

Expected To Allay Fears

"It should make a fairly impressive parade and we think that it will have indirectly a salutary effect in allaying and minimizing any fears that might be evidencing themselves among the population," said General Moore. "Also it should contribute to maintenance of law and order."

The gist of the situation in Trieste, he said, is that "we have strikes and dissension here; Communists do attempt to balk our efforts; we are attacked and called names and have our best intentions purposely misinterpreted; but to my mind at the moment there is no question of external aggression."

Madrid, March 31 (AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco may reshuffle his Cabinet and install a Premier if Spain in included in the European Recovery Program, informed sources said today.

The United States House of Representatives voted, 149 to 52, yesterday to designate Spain as a participant under the Marshall plan in the $6,205,000,000 foreign-aid program. The House amendment still needs Senate approval.

"Had To Come"

Madrid newspapers greeted the news this morning with editorials proclaiming the House action the correction of an injustice and a recognition of the truth.

"It had to come," said Ya, the Catholic organ. "We knew it beforehand and were not the least surprised. In good logic, the confusion created by Russian diplomacy could not prevail."

A Cabinet reorganization program has long been rumored in Spain. One unconfirmed report said the reorganization may occur after the next Cabinet meeting, set for April 2.

Principal among the rumors is that Franco plans to create a Premier, who would head the Cabinet, leaving the Generalissimo as Chief of State.

Some observers feel that Cabinet changes would see conservatives or pro-Franco monarchists substituted for Falangists.

Falange Factions

Although all political parties were abolished by Franco decree and merged into the Government party (Falange Espanola), there are several factions within Falangist ranks. These include the Fascist Falangists, the Requetes (Carlists) and the Monarchists.

Most prominently mentioned for the position of Premier if it should be created are Esteban Bilbao Eguia, president of the Spanish Parliament, and Alberto Martin Artajo, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

First news of the congressional action reached Spain last night in regular nightly newscasts of the National radio. The report of the action was followed by a commentary from Pedro Gomez Aparicio, general manager of the Spanish news agency Efe.

Gomez Aparico told his listeners:

"Spain has shown by her acts and her position that she can offer more than she can receive. The accord of the North American House is correction of an injustice. As such, we receive it with tranquility, confident as we have been that it would occur sooner or later."

"Moderate" Display

Government press control offices took a similar tack. They ordered that the news be displayed "moderately" in the morning papers.

There was no comment from the Government.

Informants said the action might signal the return of a United States Ambassador to Madrid and closer military co-operation between the United States and Spain.

The presence of Col. Joseph A. Miller, United States air attache to Madrid, in Washington brought a rumor the United States might aid in completing transatlantic airports at Sevilla and Barcelona. According to unconfirmed reports, heavy machinery to speed construction of runways for multi-engined airplanes will come from the United States.

BIZONAL MARK VALUE RAISED

U.S. And Britain Set Internal Rate At 30 Cents

MAR 1948

Berlin, March 31 (AP) — United States and British authorities issued orders today placing the internal economy of the combined British-American occupation zones of western Germany on a Reichsmark valued at 30 cents.

The original military exchange rate was 10 cents.

The order, handed to German authorities of the merged zones, applies to virtually all German imports except food and all exports except coal.

It was described by one American official as an adjustment of internal prices to bring them closer into line with world prices "in anticipation of coming events."

These coming events were interpreted in informed quarters to include currency reform.

No Foreign Exchange Rate

Formal public announcement of the move has not yet been made.

However, J. F. Freeman, deputy American Military Government finance adviser, explained that the effect would be solely internal, since Germany does not yet have a foreign-exchange rate.

He said it would affect the amount of marks a German received for products exported and sold abroad and the amount of marks a German paid for products which were imported.

For instance, if a German exported electric trains which were sold for him abroad by military government's joint export-import agency for $1 each, the German would receive 3⅓ marks under the new scale.

Food Not Affected

Freeman said the new scale would not change the basis at which German exports are sold abroad or the price paid abroad for German imports. German products will be sold abroad for the best price the military government can get, he explained.

Food imports will not be affected for the present, Freeman said, because there are "too many delicate and intricate factors involved."

Coal exports also are excluded from the price change, he said, because coal exports virtually are a state monopoly and export prices are fixed by international agreement.

The American official said further price adjustments could be expected in the future in anticipation of bringing the German price structure into shape for setting a foreign-exchange rate for the mark.

American Slang Troubles Germans

Berlin, March 31 (AP) — Some Berlin Germans are worrying about what's happening to their language under the impact of four occupation armies—especially the widespread adoption of American slang.

A letter to the British-licensed newspaper Telegraf complained it was bad enough when the American expressions of "Okay," "Hello there," and "Oh, baby" found widespread usage.

"But," the writer continued, "must we use 'bye-bye' or 'adieu' instead of our own 'auf wiedersehen?'

"True enough, we can't even buy a gown or a perfume these days unless it has a French or English name. But must we gibber in foreign tongues and convert our whole language into a slang.

Ducloux, U.S. Conductor, Loses Czech Music Post

MAR 1948

Prague, March 31 (AP)—Walter Ducloux, young American conductor, said today that the new Communist direction of art has squeezed him out of musical affairs in Czechoslovakia.

A war veteran who rolled into Czechoslovakia in an American tank in 1945, Ducloux has been dismissed as director of the State Opera House at Bruenn.

The post is regarded the second best musical position in the country. It is surpassed in prestige only by that of director of music of the National Theater in Prague.

Contract Reservations

"Something had to come to a head, either resignation or dismissal," Ducloux said. "I got the blue slip—which means out—and I was given to understand that it would be preposterous to have an American, specially one so familiar to Czechoslovaks in an American uniform, in such a distinguished position."

Ducloux received the Bruenn appointment in February, with a contract full of political reservations.

"It was understood that I could participate in no artistic activity with a political aspect," he said. "I was free to refuse to have anything to do with such an affair as, for instance, a benefit for Markos Greece.

Player, Two Stage Hands

"This was agreeable to the authorities in charge before the recent Government crisis. But the action committee now in charge of the Bruenn State Opera House consists of the bull fiddle player and two stage hands. It doesn't want an American director."

Ducloux was a tank-driving lieutenant of the 8th Armored Division who arrived in Pilsen with medals of French General Le Clerc on his uniform. He returned to America, but came back to conduct many orchestras. Critics were enthusiastic.

Ducloux and his wife, Jeanne Rifino, of Dunellen, N.J., are leaving tonight for Paris, where he will become musical director of a ballet which will tour France, Spain and Portugal.

2 Czech Parliament Members To Be Tried

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 31 (AP)—Two more members of the Czechoslovak Parliament were singled out today by the immunity committee for prosecution.

The committee proposed that immunity be withdrawn from the Peoples Party Deputy Jan Bruckner, who made a speech last year which was regarded offensive, and National Socialist Ludwig Novotny, who was arrested while trying to get out of the country.

The committee also recommended to Parliament that former Deputy Premier Jan Ursiny, of the old Slovak Democratic party, who is being held, be charged with treason under the military as well as the civil code.

Youths Continue Outbursts in Sweden

Stockholm, March 31 (A. P.).—Crowds of boys and girls harassed Swedish police again last night, booing and whistling. The puzzling demonstrations began on Good Friday. About sixty persons have been arrested, but only three or four were detained for further questioning.

Police said there is no evidence of political motivation. The only explanation they could offer was "youthful love of adventure." They said that the girls are worse than the boys in instigating the trouble.

Finns Say Reds Infiltrate Police

Helsinki, March 31 (AP)—Rightists in Parliament and the Finnish press aimed a steady drumfire of criticism today at Finland's Communist Interior Minister, voicing the suspicion that he has infiltrated the police force with Communists.

The Interior Minister, Yrjo Leino, is in Moscow as a member of a seven-man Finnish delegation sent to negotiate a friendship and military pact with Russia. He must answer the charges before Parliament when he gets back — probably not for several weeks.

There has been no announcement either here or in Moscow as yet concerning the treaty.

Party Leaders Called

Reliable sources said President Juho K. Paasikivi had summoned the chairmen and vice chairmen of the six party blocs in Parliament to meet with him late today. He took a similar step when Stalin's letter suggesting the pact arrived five weeks ago.

Informed sources say the President has the broad outline of what the Russians want, and is drawing up new instructions for the delegation in Moscow, aimed at meeting Russia's requests and still keeping Finland outside big-power conflicts.

Meanwhile, Finns focused considerable attention on what the press calls the question of "the Communists and the police."

Czech Events Recalled

Parliamentary leaders of all parties to the Right have asked the Government what it is doing to halt alleged recruiting of Communist-minded persons for the secret police, the mobile corps and other vital police branches, and the assignment of police powers to private persons.

The deputies said they had in mind the recent events in Czechoslovakia.

Hertta Kuusinen, Leino's wife and a leader of the Communist party in Finland, said last week:

"Finland must follow the same road as Czechoslovakia."

Responsible sources contend that Leino, who has been Interior Minister for three years, has completed a thorough reorganization of his department, bringing in men he deems "reliable."

10 P.C. "Close" To Reds

The Conservative newspaper Kauppalehti commented that when the Communists took over Czechoslovakia the police played a prominent role. Finland, the paper said, had better watch out.

The paper estimated that ten per cent of Helsinki's police force stands "close" to the Communists, and that the leader of the mobile police force in Helsinki, which corresponds to state troopers in the United States, is an active Communist.

Kauppalehti also put the finger on 3,000 men in the auxiliary police, 500 of them in Helsinki.

Charges Are Denied

Aarne Wirta, national commander of the mobile police force, denied parliamentary charges that his organization was trying to recruit only men with Communist views.

Most papers in Finland contend that the questions raised in Parliament have caused a growing feeling of distrust.

"Clarification must drive away the mystery," said Nya Pressen, organ of the Swedish Peoples party. "As never before, we need prompt restoration of a general trust in our whole police force."

Instruction For Finns

Helsinki, Finland, March 31 (AP)—President Juho Paasikivi was reported tonight to have sent new instructions to the Finnish delegation in Moscow negotiating on a proposed military pact.

Informed sources said the written instructions went by courier plan this afternoon after Paasikivi had conferred at length with the Cabinet.

It was expected these instructions would be supplemented early tomorrow by further telegraphic advice after the President has received a written statement from each of the six parties in Parliament on their reaction to the present situation.

President Requests Views

The President has asked the parties to submit their views before midnight tonight, indicating the negotiations were at a crucial point. The nature of Moscow's proposals and Finland's stand remain secret.

Late tonight the Social Democrat, Agrarian, Conservative, Liberal and Swedish party parliamentary groups responded to the President's request for written views. The only exception was the Communist bloc, which favors an all-out military and friendship pact.

Informants said there were differences between the Government and Parliament. The Government is convinced, they said, that certain military features were needed in the proposed pact.

Limited Defense

During debate on whether to accept the Soviet request for treaty negotiations a majority of Parliament came out flatly against any military agreement.

The delegation in Moscow was instructed originally to negotiate only toward limited defense agreements which would obligate Finland to fight only if an attack was made on the Soviet Union across Finland.

Parliament must ratify any treaty initiated in Moscow.

Russia "Very Generous"

Moscow, March 31 (AP)—A highly placed Finnish source said tonight that Russia had been "very generous" in the Finnish-Soviet treaty negotiations.

Indications were that progress had been made in the negotiations and possibly a treaty of friendship and mutual assistance will be ready before long.

Cay Sundstrom, Finnish Minister, tonight entertained Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Foreign Minister, and other Russian officials at a reception.

SOVIET PROTESTS HOLDING OF LINER

MAR 1948

Moscow, March 31 (A. P.).—Tass announced today that the Russian Government has complained to the United States about detention of the Soviet liner Rossia by authorities in New York. The announcement said that the Government demanded immediate release of the vessel and assurance that no such acts would take place in the future.

It said American authorities sought to explain the holding of the 16,595-ton former German ship on the ground that two passengers brought suit because of injuries suffered in a heavy sea.

Soviet Reveals Death Of Gen. Galaktionov

Moscow, March 31 (A. P.).—The "untimely" death of Major-Gen. Mikhail Romanovich Galaktionov, Soviet military observer and journalist, was announced today in Trud, the Russian trade union newspaper.

Galaktionov, who wrote in New Times, Red Star and other Soviet newspapers, visited the United States two years ago with Ilya Ehrenburg and Konstantin Simonov. He was a member of the editorial board of Pravda and received the Order of the Patriotic Front, first class, in 1945 for press work during the war.

Russ Print News On Spain

Moscow, March 31 (AP)—Russian newspapers published today news that the House of Representatives in Washington voted yesterday to permit inclusion of Spain under the Marshall plan.

The Tass dispatch from Washington said the amendment was proposed by Representative O'Konski (R., Wis.), "who is well known for his support of Polish Fascists and Fascists of other nations."

Van Fleet Terms 2 Greek Drives A 'Warmup'

Athens, March 31 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, United States military chief in Greece, said today he is delighted with Greek offensive action against guerrillas near the Albanian and Yugoslav frontiers.

Van Fleet called the new attacks in Epirus on the southern Albanian border and in Macedonia north of Salonika a "warmup" for a gradually developing full offensive.

He said about 800 guerrillas had been surrounded by two brigades in a night march in the Mount Krussia area, 35 miles north of Salonika.

The General said he would accompany Lieut. Gen. Demetrios Yadzis, Greek commander-in-chief, to Salonika tomorrow and might go to the scene of the fighting.

"I anticipate a nice bag of bandits," he said.

A Greek general staff communiqué said only that "clashes continued" in the Philiates and Crucia mountain areas. Philiates is near the west coast of Greece northwest of Konitsa, and the Crucia Mountains are northwest of Salonika.

Artillery and rocket-firing Spitfire planes are being used to smash against an estimated 600 guerrillas in the Crucia Mountains, only 10 to 15 miles from the Yugoslav frontier, press reports said.

A correspondent for the newspaper Embros said Spitfires attacked the village of Pontokerassia, believed to be a guerrilla headquarters, 25 miles north of Kilkis. Pilots reported that the village seemed to be deserted.

No official report was made on estimated strength of guerrilla forces in the Epirus district fighting, but newspaper accounts said the Greek 8th Division had been in at least three actions close to the Albanian border.

Heavy attacks by the army were reported 28 miles north of Mount Murgana in the Poginiani area. Mount Murgana is about a 4,500 feet peak and is surrounded on three sides by Albanian territory. It is about 22 miles from Corfu Bay in northwestern Greece.

Refugees were reported streaming into Ioannina, 20 miles from the Albanian frontier.

China Sets Up New Defense Strategy

MAR 1948

Nanking, March 31 (AP)—China's military command announced today a policy of defending only areas of great importance and necessity to conserve strength and mobility.

Foreign observers, judging from the past, called the program a propaganda method of justifying the loss of cities from which Government forces are ousted by Chinese Communists.

The first application of the new strategy, said spokesman Lieut. Gen. Teng Wen-yi, will be the withdrawal of garrisons from Lungkow, Penglai and Weihaiwei. Capture of those three North Shantung seaport towns from the Reds only a few months ago was called a major victory by the Government.

To Transfer Garrisons

Teng said the garrisons, including the new 8th Army, would be transferred to areas of greater need—not designated.

In a formal statement, Teng said, "These coastal ports are devoid of any strategic importance in view of the Government's naval and air domination of the entire Gulf of Chihli and its occupation of Changshun and Liukung, two islets guarding the approaches to Lungkow and Weihaiwei, respectively."

Teng said the Government would retain Chefoo, most important of the north coast ports seized last fall. That campaign collapsed because the bulk of the National troops were transferred before the Reds were cleaned out.

Reds Report Control

The Communists now report complete control of the area, with the exception of the four ports, three of which the Government is abandoning.

Teng, under questioning at a press conference, said the new strategy would be applied to all civil-war areas.

He confirmed reports that the National garrison at Yenan, old Communist capital in Shensi province, has been isolated by the Reds and is being supplied only from the air. No direct assault by the Reds has been made against the city, he added.

Make Broad Claims

In his weekly military review, he declared Government forces are "winning on all fronts below the Great Wall."

He said National troops inflicted more than 30,000 casualties on the Communists in the week. Such casualty claims usually are greatly exaggerated.

In Peiping, Gen. Fu Tso-yi reported Government troops were sweeping the Reds from the flanks of the railway between Kalgan and Tatung.

China On Ports

MAR 1948

Nanking, China, March 31 (AP)—The high command announced today it is abandoning three North China ports in line with a new strategy of defending only areas of great importance.

The ports are Lungkow, Penglai and Weihaiwei, all on Shantung peninsula. The Government will try to hold Chefoo, the major port there.

A national defense spokesman said the new policy would give the armies "greater concentration and mobility against the rebels."

[United States Army officers long have advocated concentrating China's forces. They propose that the Government give up Manchuria temporarily and throw everything into a cleanup in North China.]

Supplied By Air

The spokesman, Lieut. Gen. Teng Wen-yi, said the policy would be applied to the entire civil war area.

Teng asserted the Government was "winning on all fronts below the Great Wall." He said the Communists suffered 30,000 casualties last week. Both sides usually exaggerate casualty figures.

The General conceded, however, that the Government garrison is cut off in Yenan, the old Communist capital. The garrison, awaiting the expected Communist attack, is being supplied by air.

[Government headquarters in Peiping said Nationalist troops, pressing home their victory west of Peiping, were sweeping the Communists from the flanks of the railway leading to Inner Mongolia.

[A new flareup of fighting in Central China was reported by Shanghai newspapers. They said the Communists had attacked Fowyang, about 180 miles northwest of Nanking.]

Hunger Strike And Rows Plague China Assembly

Nanking, March 31 (AP)—A hunger strike, a row over seating delegates and a lack of a quorum today still plagued the National Assembly called to select China's next president. The choice, Chiang Kai-shek, was a foregone conclusion.

There were scenes of disorder in the auditorium. Restless delegates criticized nearly everything that was proposed.

Several members tried repeatedly to bring to the Assembly floor the case of ten independents who are on a hunger strike because they have been denid their seats in the Assembly.

Delegates finally agreed to send a "consolation mission" to talk with the ten. The strikers have eased up on their fast slightly and now are taking some fruit.

Elected By Write-Ins

There was no reported progress in the dispute over the seating of these and about 300 other independents who were elected by write-ins from districts which Chiang's party had promised to minority parties.

One offical of Chang's party, the Kuomintang, said the minority Young China and Democratic Socialist parties actually managed to elect but 130 delegates. They were promised 430 seats.

The Assembly now is only 64 shy of its fixed quorum of 2,031. Until a quorum arrives, the Assembly cannot get on with its major business of selecting Chiang as President of China. It also will select a Vice President from among a number of candidates.

2 From South Korea Accept North's Bid For Talks April 14

Seoul, Korea, March 31 (AP)—Two South Korea political leaders in the American-occupied zone said today they would accept, with reservations, an invitation to meet North Korea leaders in the Russian-held zone. The purpose is to discuss a Soviet-approved plan for unifying the country.

Kim Koo, a Rightist leader, and Kimm Kiu Sic, a liberal, issued a joint statement suggesting that the fifteen South Korea leaders invited to go to Pyongyang April 14 should first get assurances of their safety while in Soviet-occupied territory.

Already Prepared Feared

They said also that, before accepting the invitation formally, they would like to know what the next move will be if the North-South conference fails in a first effort to establish a unified government.

Kim and Kimm said they felt they were being invited to an "already prepared feast," that the invitation showed the Northern Koreans already have approved a Soviet plan that involves early withdrawal of both United States and Soviet occupation troops, formation of a government, and establishing its capital at Seoul.

They said they intended to go to the conference since they had suggested last month, in a letter sent north via the Soviet liaison officer here, that a joint meeting be arranged.

U.N. Election Plan

But they have not said they approved the Soviet plan. It was developed in the face of plans of a United Nations commission to hold elections for a provisional government in South Korea on May 9. Kim and Kimm oppose the United Nations election as fostering permanent partition of their country.

The Soviet-boycotted Little Assembly decided to go ahead with the election plans in South Korea despite the refusal of the Russians to permit the commission to enter North Korea.

Two South Korea Leaders To Attend Parley With Reds

MAR 1948

Seoul, Korea, March 31 (AP)—Kim Koo and Kimm Kiu-sic, South Korean political leaders, said today they expect the cards to be stacked against them when they go to North Korea to discuss formation of a Russian-controlled government.

But, they are going.

Rightist Kim and Liberal Kimm told a joint press conference they felt obligated to attend the April 14 Pyongyang meeting since they had proposed joint discussions between North and South leaders. Pyongyang is the capital of Russian-occupied North Korea.

Both oppose the United Nations plan for an election May 9 in South Korea to establish self-government. They said there is danger of permanently dividing the nation under such procedure.

Three Points Due Discussion

They said the invitations to attend the Pyongyang conference listed three points for discussion:

1. The Korean political situation.

2. Plans for opposing the United Nations "election to establish a separate government for South Korea."

3. Plans for establishing a "Korean government on democratic principles."

American observers here predict the southern Korea leaders will be asked to approve a Soviet-backed constitution for a "democratic people's republic of Korea."

Was Denounced By Russ

Thirteen other South Korean leaders have been invited to the conference.

The invitation to Kim represents a complete reversal of Soviet attitude, apparently based on his opposition to the United Nations election in the south.

Last year both the Soviets and the North Koreans denounced him because he opposed trusteeship.

Both Kim and Kimm suggested that South Korea leaders request security guarantees before going into the northern zone.

3 GI's Die In Korea Barracks Fire

Pusan, Korea, March 31 (AP)—Three United States soldiers burned to death in a fire which destroyed their barracks today.

Another was missing and presumed dead and a fifth was hospitalized with a broken leg. No names were released.

Fifty members of a Signal Corps detachment were routed out just before dawn by the blaze, which burned uncontrolled for three hours. A two-story barracks and orderly room were destroyed.

Jap Council 'Slowdown'

Tokyo, March 31 (AP)—It took the Allied Council for Japan 26 seconds to do nothing today, compared with 23 seconds at its last meeting.

Chairman William Sebald called the meeting to order, said no business matters had been placed on the agenda, and adjourned the session.

The Council was set up originally to advise General MacArthur.

Japs' Debt Increases 2.4 Billion In Year

Tokyo, March 31 (AP)—Japan completed its fiscal year 123,000,000,000 yen ($2,460,000,000) deeper in the red than a year ago.

Occupation headquarters today reported that the national debt on March 1 was 386,000,000,000 yen ($7,720,000,000), compared with 263,000,000,000 yen ($5,260,000,000) a year ago.

The Budget Bureau is reported to have fixed the budget for this year at 260,000,000,000 yen ($5,200,000,000). The Finance Ministry estimated that revenue for the year will be 207,000,000,000 yen ($4,140,000,000).

Increased railway fares, suspended interest payments on national war bonds and other means are being discussed by the Budget Bureau and legislators as ways to balance the budget.

Jap Regional Strikes Banned By SCAP

Tokyo, March 31 (AP)—General MacArthur's headquarters told Japanese labor today to halt regional strikes now plaguing the country.

The Communist-influenced Communications Workers Union began short strikes by regions after MacArthur forbade a nation-wide walkout.

Maj. Gen. W. F. Marquat, chief of SCAP economics section, in a memorandum to the Japanese Government, ruled that the short layoffs were a subterfuge. Added up, he said, they amount to an industry-wide strike in violation of occupation orders.

Kills Self, Japanese Woman

TOKYO, March 31 (AP).—The 1st Cavalry Division announced today that Lieutenant Benjamin H. Pickler jr., thirty, of Buena Vista, Tenn., shot and killed himself and a Japanese woman in his quarters. His wife and four-year-old daughter had arrived from the United States Sunday. Captain Samuel Freedman, division public relations officer, said Lieutenant Pickler left this note: "I must kill this woman I love so much."

Filipino Mutineers Give Up

44 in Constabulary Surrender; 3 Officers Slain

MANILA, March 31 (AP).—Philippine Constabulary men who killed three officers in a mutiny surrendered peacefully today, headquarters announced. Forty-four men of a company at Naic, twenty-three miles southwest of Manila, had been defying the troops which encircled their barricade.

Newsmen from Manila earlier had been permitted to visit the mutineers, whose spokesman declared; "We wanted justice but it was not given us. We did not want to be continuously manhandled. We did not like to be treated like dogs."

15 U.S. Army Divers To Seek War Dead

Honolulu, March 31 (AP)—Fifteen United States Army divers will begin a search next month of Pacific Island lagoons and reefs for bodies of American war dead.

The Graves Registration Service said the team will cover 22,000 miles and visit the Phoenix Islands, Samoa, Fiji, New Zealand, Tasmania, Australia and Admiralties, Solomons, Carolines, Marshalls and Gilberts.

The divers are to seek bodies of airmen and of personnel from sunken landing craft. No effort will be made to recover bodies from large vessels.

Train From Cairo Wrecked By Mines—Stern Gang Blamed

Jerusalem, March 31 (AP)—An official announcement here today said 40 persons were killed and 60 injured by mine blasts which wrecked the Cairo-to-Haifa train near Binyamina. The announcement said most of the casualties were Arabs.

Haifa police, nearer the scene, said, however, that only 24 persons, all Arabs, were killed and that 64 were injured by triple explosions.

The explosions, which observers said probably were set off by Jews in retaliation for Arab attacks on convoys recently, derailed the locomotive, telescoped three of the four wrecked coaches and ripped up yards of track.

British Troops Escape

Several hundred British troops riding in the second half of the train line were unhurt.

A Jewish source said the Stern Gang set off the mine trap.

Police authorities at Haifa, reporting on the train blast, said three electrically detonated mines wrecked the train 15 miles south of Haifa in a predominately Jewish area at the southern foot of historic Mount Carmel.

The attack was near a British military camp and the wounded were taken in a military convoy to Haifa hospitals.

Railway Curtails Service

The railway company promptly announced a curtailment of service to three trains weekly in each direction. The Government imposed a road curfew on all Jewish vehicles between Binyamina and the Jewish settlement of Zichron Yaacov, five miles to the north.

At the same time the virtual Arab siege of Jerusalem, which has brought bread rationing to this city's 100,000 Jews, was renewed. Several hundred Arabs beleaguered a Jewish food convoy en route from coastal Tel Aviv to relieve Jerusalem.

Haganah, the Jewish militia, said at least one Jew was killed and several wounded in a battle that began at midday and was continuing up to 8.30 P.M.

Arabs Claim Many Killed

Arabs said many Jews were killed and wounded in this first attempt of a Jewish convoy to run the Arab blockade into Jerusalem since the Arab ambush at Bad el Wad last Friday.

Jewish informants said the convoy itself had escaped falling into Arab hands, and succeeded in turning back to rehovot, where it awaited the outcome of the battle between Haganah and the Arabs. Haganah units sent to flank the highway through the Judean hills east of Jerusalem in support of the convoy said they battled several hundred Syrian and Iraqi fighters.

Some Jewish spokesmen in Palestine expressed pessimism concerning the future "unless our convoys can get through."

Jews here have been reduced to a bread ration equivalent to about three slices of bread a day and to an average of one egg a week. Meat is unrationed but virtually nonexistent save for sausages and some dried meats.

Other Areas Feel Pinch

Other isolated Jewish settlements, particularly in the South, in the Hebron, Beersheba and Gaza districts, were reported feeling the pinch as the result of Arab attacks on convoys that were intended to provision them.

Some of these settlements were depending on their own fruits, vegetables and meats.

A high Government spokesman declared today the army would convoy Jewish food shipments to Jerusalem if the Jews would cooperate. The spokesman said the Jewish Agency had not asked for Government aid in escorting the convoys.

There was evidence of an unwritten truce in Haifa the last few days as a result of British initiative. The British said they were interested in keeping Haifa quiet until all troops and British civilians are evacuated after the mandate ends May 15.

The steamship Scythia left that port today with 1,900 Britons, including 1,500 soldiers and 200 police. The sailing brought to 10,000 the number of departing British since announcement of the United Nations partition plan last November.

Sporadic shooting throughout the Holy Land took the lives of at least four Arabs and three Jews today. Twelve Jews raided an army camp near Haifa, held up guards and escaped with a three-ton truck and a twelve-ton steam roller.

Jews said their food supplies were "dangerously low." Items already rationed by the Jews themselves are bread, at about three slices a day; one egg a week—two for children—butter and sugar. Meat so far is unrationed, but extremely scarce, save for sausages and dried-meat products.

The rationing apparently was necessitated by continued Arab attacks on Jewish convoys and other interference in the moving of food and supplies to the city's 100,000 Jews.

Jewish spokesmen voiced pessimism for the future unless the convoys can get through. At present, Arabs control all the roads leading to Jerusalem. Bakers said a further bread cut would be necessary unless convoys arrive.

A high Government spokesman said:

"The army is already patrolling the roads and we are ready at any time to convoy Jewish food trucks. What the Government would like to see is continuous traffic of food convoys on the roads, but that depends on Jewish co-operation with the army."

Southern Palestine Also Hit

Jewish sources said that in southern Palestine Jewish settlements also are feeling the pinch. Residents of Hebron, Beersheba and Gaza are living on their own produce of fruits, vegetables and meat. Attacks on convoys have cut them off from virtually all outside food supplies, informants said.

There were unconfirmed reports today that Arabs had intercepted a large Jewish convoy near Beersheba, en route to restock Jewish settlements in the southern desert.

Tel Aviv, where 250,000 Jews live, is apparently well stocked, save for a meat shortage.

The communal war that has raged since the United Nations decision to partition Palestine has cost the Arabs an estimated $500,000 in trade. Since there is no Jewish market for Arab produce, Arab stores are glutted with wares and prices are dropping.

Chile Calls On Americas To Stand Against Russia

Foreign Minister Tells Bogota Parley 'There Is No Place For a Third Position'

MAR 1948

Bogota, Colombia, March 31 (AP). Chile called on the American republics today to take a stand against Communist Russia.

Juvenal Hernandez, Chilean Foreign Minister, told the Inter-American Conference the world was divided into two fronts—one which seeks to impose a new political totalitarianism, and another which seeks to defend Western culture by democratic means.

Hernandez said Chile has taken its position with the nations which defend democracy and liberty and added "that should be the attitude of all the nations of America."

Chile recently severed diplomatic relations with Russia, as did Brazil. Hernandez's speech drew a burst of applause from the delegates and the gallery.

"This is the time for decision," he said, "and there is no place for a third position."

Three Formal Addresses

His address was one of three formal addresses before the plenary session of the ninth Pan-American Conference meeting here to take up among other things a program of economic co-operation among the American nations.

Earlier, Jaime Torres Bodet, Mexico's Foreign Minister, had pleaded for stronger Pan-American unity at this "crucial juncture" of world affairs.

Byron Price, assistant secretary general of the United Nations, said the United Nations was deeply interested in the Bogota meeting and ready to profit by the experiences of American co-operation. He expressed the hope the conference would "inspire not only new declarations of accord but tangible action as well."

Sees Antarctic Settlement

The Chilean, in his only reference to his nation's dispute with Britain over the Antarctic, expressed faith the question of sovereignty would be settled by juridical means. He said the veto should be eliminated from the United Nations Security Council. The "inter-American system" should be kept in reserve as a regional system under the United Nations, he said, to "combat any attempt to paralyze the international peace machinery."

Hernandez said American policy should provide for the development of backward Latin-American economies but there should be no attempt to form an economic bloc.

Opposes Regional Bloc

Torres Bodet also cautioned against forming a regional bloc "walled against all co-operation with other nations."

He said Mexico favored solidifying the inter-American system by writing a "clear unequivocal pact setting up the rights and duties of the member states." He said military and economic co-operation should be equally strong.

3 U.S. CARRIERS WILL DELIVER TURK PLANES

Navy Refuses To Disclose Number Or Type Of Aircraft

MAR 1948

Washington, March 31 (AP)—The Navy announced tonight that three escort carriers will be used to deliver planes to Turkey over the next few months.

The planes are being sent to Turkey as part of the Turkish military aid program.

The number and types of planes to be delivered could not be learned. The 12,000-ton carriers normally handle about 30 planes each. They can transport more than 100 each in ferry service.

Two of the carriers will leave from the East Coast and one from San Francisco. The destination was announced as Yesilkoy, an outer port of Istanbul.

Due On April 28

The Rendova, under Capt. Leonard J. Dow, will leave San Francisco tomorrow, the Navy said.

It is due to arrive at Turkey April 28, discharge the planes, and leave for the United States May 4.

The Siboney, commanded by Capt. G. K. Fraser, will leave Norfolk May 1, arriving at Turkey May 15. She will leave Turkey May 25 and is due back at Norfolk June 9.

The Palau, commanded by Capt. F. N. Taylor, will leave Norfolk June 15, arriving at Turkey July 1. She will leave ten days later and arrive at Norfolk July 25.

The official navy announcement said, "The delivery of these planes to Turkey is in connection with the Turkish aid program. The United States Air Force is providing the aircraft and personnel to maintain the aircraft en route."

Senator Lodge Wants 50,000 Aliens in Army

MAR 1948

Would Let Single Europeans Join Regular Units, Get Citizenship in 5 Years

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP).—A Senator who fought overseas urged Congress today to let 50,000 young single European men join the United States Army and become citizens later.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican, of Massachusetts, a tank corps officer in the last war, said this would cut down manpower needs in the proposed temporary draft, for one thing. He asked the Senate Armed Services Committee to back him up.

Senator Lodge would sprinkle the carefully chosen foreigners among regular Army units. They would get all soldier benefits and qualify for citizenship after five years service. He would limit their number to 15 per cent of the Army's total. Young men all over the world want to join, he said.

Senator Lodge asked that his foreign volunteers plan be made part of any armed forces legislation approved by the committee.

"Perhaps the Russian government would not like it," he said, but the Soviets are sure to vilify us no matter what we do."

Senator Richard B. Russell, Democrat of Georgia, asked if Senator Lodge would place the foreign recruits in separate units like the French Foreign Legion.

Senator Lodge said no, that the alien volunteers should be distributed among regular Army units for training as future citizens.

"This is not a foreign legion, and is not an attempt to get mercenaries," Senator Lodge said of his plan. He said he has received letters from young men from all over the world who desire to join the United States Army. He read several of these letters to the committee.

Senator Leverett Saltonstall, Republican of Massachusetts, asked if wives of such foreign volunteers would gain citizenship also.

Senator Lodge said recruits would be single men. But he said they would share in all soldier benefits after they serve five years and qualify as citizens.

Army Announces Rules For Overseas Newsmen

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP).—The Army said today it will consider individually requests by news correspondents to leave overseas theaters temporarily, without loss of accreditation, for vists to the United States.

However, new entry permits must be obtained from the State Department under passport regulations if such trips are made.

A recent Army announcement that newsmen may leave a theater to work in a neighboring zone and then return to their permanent station without loss of standing, raised the question of trips to the United States by American reporters.

Asked about this, the Army said: "Temporary absence from the overseas zones was authorized principally for the news coverage of adjacent areas. However, permission to return to the United States is not prohibited and each case will be considered on the individual merits. If such return is authorized, new entry permits must be secured and all State Department regulations concerning passport and exit must be complied with. At the present time, the overseas theaters are not issuing round trip orders for correspondents."

Doctor Swap Urged For Armed Services

Washington, March 31 (AP)—A swap plan to get doctors and dentists for the armed services was advanced today by Representative O'Toole (D., N.Y.).

Observing that the Army, Navy and Air Force might find it hard to get medical men in the event the Government undertakes a preparedness program, O'Toole suggested, as one way of meeting the lack, that:

In return for one year of free tuition (at Government expense) the medical and dental students, upon graduation, agree to serve one year in uniform. This service could be started "any time" within five years after graduation, thus permitting proper internship and other preparation.

After completing the year of service, O'Toole said, the doctor or dentist would revert to a reserve status.

U.S. Considers Mobilizing All Adults If War Comes

Washington, March 31 (AP)—The 13,600,000 men who would register under the proposed modified draft would represent only a tiny corporal's guard compared with the total mobilization that may be sought if a war comes.

The program is in only the early study stage. But manpower experts of the National Security Resources Board are directing their thinking at all-out registration of the nation's adult population in event of a future conflict.

Anything Less Held Costly

A spokesman for the board created last year under the army-navy unification law recalled today that Chairman Arthur M. Hill has said:

"In making out preparations for defense in the future, failure to work out policies governing in detail the use of our total manpower—and that includes women with the men—may well mean the sacrifice of time and lives."

Hill was referring to the use of manpower in a total war effort, of which conscription for military service would be only a phase.

The first steps toward having a total mobilization plan ready include setting up systems for recording the technical and labor skills of all men and women.

Includes Scientists, Technicians

As an example, scientific organizations are attempting to compile master rosters of scientists and technicians. Manpower experts concede there were too many instances in the last war of valuable technicians being drafted into routine military duties.

However, the board spokesman noted that any nation-wide registration of all manpower would be possible only by an act of Congress and presumably only in event of imminent or actual war.

The records of the more than 10,000,000 men drafted under selective service in the last war, plus the still larger total number of registrations, are generally regarded as inadequate.

Some officials have estimated that if World War II had continued another year the voluntary method of manning war plants would have become inadequate.

NEGROES LEVEL REVOLT THREAT AGAINST DRAFT

Morse Warns Them That They Face Treason Charges if They Disobey Law.

Washington, March 31 (A. P.).—A. Philip Randolph, Negro president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, A. F. of L., told the Senate Armed Services Committee today that millions of his race will refuse to register or serve under the draft or Universal Military Training system, unless racial segregation and discrimination are ended in the Army.

Immediately Senator Morse (R.-Ore.) warned him that he and his followers would face treason charges if they carried out their threat of disobedience. Randolph replied that he and other Negroes were "willing to pay that price."

Randolph and other spokesmen for a "Committee Against Jim Crow in Military Service and Training," told the committee that they would lead a civil disobedience drive unless Army policies and laws remove discrimination.

Morse, together with Republican Senators Baldwin (Conn.) and Gurney (S. D.) listened to the long protest against "Jim Crowism" from the Negro witnesses.

Then Morse, who is a supporter of the civil rights programs that have been blocked in Congress, asked Randolph if he was saying that he would tell Negroes, "Do not shoulder arms in protection of your country."

"That is correct," Randolph replied. "I would be doing my country a great service. If it does not develop the democratic processes at home, then it is not the type of country worth fighting for."

Morse then asked what would happen if this country is attacked or forced into war.

"The Government now has time to change its program on segregation and discrimination," Randolph replied slowly. He added that if the program is not changed, "I would recommend that Negroes take no part in the Army."

Morse then told Randolph this would force the Government to "apply the legal doctrine of treason to that conduct."

Randolph appeared to agree and said he realizes such a nation-wide protest by millions of Negroes probably would "cause terrorism against the Negroes."

"I think that's a price we have to pay to get our democratic rights," he added.

Randolph said Negro leaders would plan no overt acts. He said they would limit their protest to non-participation and non-co-operation.

New Yorker Backs Randolph.

Grant Reynolds, New York State Commissioner of Correction, said he would follow any program proposed by Randolph, "including civil disobedience." Reynolds, chairman of the Jim-crow committee, delivered a bitter and impassioned statement against segregation in the armed forces. He was an Army chaplain during the war.

[Reynolds, who was appointed in 1945 to the State Commission of Correction, defeated Representative Adam Clayton Powell Jr. in the 1946 primaries for the Republican nomination to Congress from the 22d Congressional District in New York city. He was in turn defeated in the regular election.]

Truman K. Gibson of Chicago, a member of President Truman's Advisory Committee on U. M. T., testified that a weak America is an open invitation to aggression by Russia. Gibson said the program must make use of all citizen's, without regard to race.

Senator Russell (D.-Ga.) complimented Gibson on his statement and added:

"It may be an odious comparison, but I would rather risk the destiny of this country in the hands of this witness than the hands of the candidate for President who appeared here as a witness yesterday."

Russell was referring to Henry A. Wallace.

Elwood S. McKenney, a member of the Massachusetts Fair Employment Practices Commission, said American Negroes "want no part of the totalitarian police state which the Soviet Union is cramming down the throat of Europe."

"They will back the Government of this country with their lives if need be and yet I feel sincerely there is a grave danger to our national security if the Government does not move to strengthened this allegiance," McKenney continued.

Europeans' Enlistment Urged.

Senator Lodge (R.-Mass.) urged on the committee immediate voluntary enlistment of 50,000 young Europeans in the United States Army. Authorization to recruit the "cream of young manhood of Europe" was asked by Lodge, an Army officer in the recent war.

The foreign volunteers would be carefully screened and be eligible for citizenship after five years, under Lodge's proposal. Such a plan, he said, would cut down the number of men required by the proposed temporary draft and also aid in starting U. M. T.

Lodge asked that his foreign volunteers plan be made part of any armed forces legislation approved by the committee.

"Perhaps the Russian Government would not like it," Lodge said, but the "Soviets are sure to villify us, no matter what we do."

Senator Russell (D.-Ga.) asked if Lodge would place the foreign recruits in separate units, like the French Foreign Legion.

Lodge said no, that the alien volunteers should be distributed among regular army units for training as future citizens.

"This is not a foreign legion, and is not an attempt to get mercenaries," Lodge said of his plan.

He added that the total number of such volunteers should never be more than 15 per cent of our total army.

Say U.S. Has Enough 'A' Bombs

Congressmen Give Views on Their Use — House Unit Approves Atom Body Funds.

MAR 1948

Washington, March 31 (A. P.).—The United States has "an adequate supply" of atom bombs and is steadily making more, members of Congress said today.

They reported that this information came from David E. Lilienthal, Atomic Energy Commission chairman, during secret testimony before the House Appropriations Committee on February 28.

On the strength of Lilienthal's statements, the committee recommended yesterday an additional $150,000,000 for the commission's work, the full amount asked.

Believe Supply Adequate.

While committee members were reluctant to discuss Lilienthal's testimony, they agreed privately with the statement of Representative Keefe (R.-Wis.) that "we have an adequate supply of bombs already manufactured." They said they were not given any exact numbers and declined to say where the bombs are stored and how big they are.

"The conclusion I drew from the testimony," Keefe said in an interview, "is that we are proceeding rapidly with development of the entire atomic energy program. I am satisfied that the atomic program is proceeding in the interest of the protection of America."

Meanwhile, the chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee said today he believes that if war comes again this country should use the bomb with the aim of shortening the conflict and saving lives. Senator Hickenlooper (R.-Iowa) put it this way to a reporter:

"I do not think the bomb should be used indiscriminately. But I have no qualms about our using it strategically where it will be an efficient means of ending the war."

Question of Retaliation.

As for whether the United States might refrain from using the bomb in fear of retaliation by an enemy who might possess it, Hickenlooper said: "Evidence suggests that we and our enemies in the recent world war held off from using poison gas, not in fear of retaliation but because it was not considered a decisive weapon. But the atomic bomb is a decisive weapon, although just how decisive may be arguable."

Actually, unless the system has been changed, no completed bombs are on hand. Rather, for safety and security reasons, the bomb parts are stored separately—to be finally assembled only in the event they are to be used. These parts are (a) the fissionable metallic components which when brought together produce the atomic explosion, (b) the trigger mechanism for bringing them together, and (c) the casing for the bombs. How long is takes to assemble the parts is a closely guarded secret.

STOP-GAP AID PROVIDED

Truman Signs Bill for $55,000,000 to Austria, France, Italy

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP)—President Truman today signed into law a bill appropriating $55,000,000 in stop-gap aid to Austria, France and Italy.

Congress passed the bill upon the urging of the State Department that this aid was necessary to meet urgent needs until funds became available under the European Recovery Program bill that is expected to reach the White House in a few days.

The measure also includes $500,000,000 to pay refunds on overpayments of Federal taxes and provides funds for welfare of Indians.

Consul Bankhead Asks Transfer From Windsor

Washington, March 31 (AP)—John Bankhead, American consul at Windsor, Ontario, who has survived three reported attempts on his life, has asked the State Department for transfer to another post.

Bankhead conferred with department officials today.

An unidentified assailant reportedly fired at him last Sunday. Previously, Bankhead said he had received poisoned candy and liquor.

Government officials said Bankhead would return temporarily to Windsor when consultations here were over.

These officials described his forthcoming transfer as "routine." Bankhead has been consul at Windsor since July 10, 1945.

MOB-DAMAGED OHIO HOME QUIT BY COMMUNIST

MAR 1948

100 Jeer As Movers Haul Books; Columbus Police Alert For Violence

Columbus, Ohio, March 31 (AP)—Frank L. Hashmall, self-styled leader of Franklin county Communists, moved out of his mob-damaged home here tonight.

Police watched while moving men, supervised by an unidentified couple, carried out furniture. More than 100 rain-drenched spectators jeered when movers carted out carloads of books and literature.

Hashmall Fails To Appear

Moving men said they were taking their load to a storage warehouse.

Hashmall, a 28-year-old ex-New York college student; his wife, Sylvia, and their 8-month-old daughter, Paula, did not appear.

They moved as police doubled their precautions against any further violence to—or by—Communists.

Thirty to 40 persons last night broke into Hashmall's home while the family was away, and wrecked the interior.

Warns On "Goon Squad"

Sheriff Ralph J. Paul declared it was quite likely Communists might retaliate with a "goon squad" gang "schooled in rough-and-tumble alley and mob-fighting tactics."

He indicated his 46 deputies and Columbus city police were ready for any test from this direction, then added:

"Don't make martyrs of them (Communists); don't commit some overt act which might lead to bloodshed or possible death; don't violate the law in opposing them."

Damage Suit Threatened

The storming of Hashmall's house, while he, his wife and child were absent, had these other sequels today:

1. Gus Hall, state Communist chairman, announced in Cleveland a civil damage suit would be filed against the Columbus Citizen and Franklin county for the "mob attack." He accused the Citizen of inspiring the action, which he said was "carried through by a German Nazi element, a military organization at Fort Hayes here, and followers of the Association of Catholic Trade Unionists."

2. Don Weaver, editor of the Scripps-Howard paper, commented that it had warned editorially against such demonstrations. The Association of Catholic Trade Unionists was described by diocesan sources as a national organization of Catholic union members, with, however, no chapter here.

No Arrests Made

No arrests had been made late today, nor had Hashmall or any other Communist official or leader appeared at police headquarters or the sheriff's office with a formal complaint about destruction at his house.

Hashmall came here only recently from Cleveland.

The incident at Hashmall's home followed recent disturbances outside a Columbus factory where he and others sought to pass out literature. Workers tore up handbills attacking the Marshall plan.

Hashmall claimed one of his followers was slugged.

ACCUSES RED LEADERS

Boston, March 31 (A. P.).—Secretary of the Navy John L. Sullivan today accused the Russian leadership of trying to stamp out freedom everywhere to keep their own people in line.

"Not for long can they satisfy their own people with Communism while life remains worth the living under any other system," Sullivan told a Boston Chamber of Commerce luncheon. Declaring that every move the United States is making is intended to preserve peace—not to prepare for war—he added: "America has no military or imperial objectives which threaten the Russian people. The Russians have nothing we want or ever will want. Their greatest exportable product today is chaos."

Belgian Regent To Visit Navy Academy April 8

Annapolis, March 31 (AP)—Prince Charles, regent of Belgium, will visit the Naval Academy April 8, the academy announced today.

Paul-Henri Spaak, Belgian Prime Minister, and other officials are expected to be in the Prince's party.

Rear Admiral James L. Holloway, Jr., academy superintendent, said the Prince will be received with full honors, including a 21-gun salute, four ruffles and flourishes and the playing of the Belgian national anthem.

Communism Past Peak, Curie Says

Philadelphia, March 31 (AP)—Eve Curie, of Paris, whose parents discovered radium, declared tonight Communist power in France was on the wane.

And American aid under the Marshall plan, she added, would push the Communists further into the background.

"The Communists reached the peak of their power more than a year ago," said the slim French author and publisher. "Since then, they have lost power in the Government, at the last election, and have suffered further setbacks by the withdrawal of many powerful unions from the Communist-dominated CGT."

Miss Curie was honor guest at a dinner launching the 1948 cancer crusade. The dinner coincided with the fiftieth anniversary of the discovery of radium by her parents, the late Pierre and Marie Curie.

A grant of $10,000 was presented to Miss Curie by the American Cancer Society for cancer research in France.

Norwegian Envoy Promises Fight

Madison, Wis., March 31 (AP)—Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstierne, Norwegian Ambassador, said today Norwegians will fight "any future aggressor" who tries to strip them of their freedom.

He told a Norway Week dinner at the University of Wisconsin that even as Norwegians fought Hitler, "once more we shall prefer to die on our feet rather than live on our knees."

"Peace can always be had," he said, "by individuals and nations by giving in on every point until one is stripped of everything—except peace, the peace of the grave."

He said Norway would not accept peace at any price in the last war and "stood up to fight the German aggressors."

"And what of today? . . . I can assure you that the Norwegian people will remain true to itself and to its past."

Gen. Eisenhower Now Grandfather

West Point, N.Y., March 31 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower became a grandfather today.

A 9-pound boy was born at the Station Hospital here to Captain and Mrs. John D. Eisenhower, son and daughter-in-law of General and Mrs. Eisenhower.

The boy was named Dwight David Eisenhower 2d.

The child's mother is the former Barbara Jean Thompson, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Percy W. Thompson, of Fort Monroe, Va. She and Captain Eisenhower were married last June 10.

Captain Eisenhower, a West Point graduate, is back on an assignment as instructor of English.

2,500 Reported Signed To Fight In Palestine

MAR 1948

New York, March 31 (AP)—Major Samuel Weiser, commander of the Hebrew Legion of England, reports approximately 2,500 men have been recruited here by the American League for a Free Palestine to fight for a Jewish state in the Holy Land.

30.24- 16651

Three hundred—most of them war veterans—volunteered last night at a rally in Madison Square Park to enlist in an international force in Palestine.

More than 2,500 persons attended the recruiting rally, sponsored by the league.

Weiser, who spoke at the rally, came to this country three weeks ago to spearhead the recruiting. He said 300 signed up yesterday at league headquarters.

Not To Assemble Now

The major said the names of volunteers, between the ages of 18 and 40, are entered on card files, but no assembling and processing of men is contemplated now. United Nations officials will be kept informed of the number and condition of the volunteers, he said.

Weiser told the rally: "We don't want American GI's to die in Palestine. We Hebrew citizens want the right to defend our own country. We want the right and the opportunity to defend ourselves with arms."

United States State Department officials have said that passports will not be issued to Americans seeking to fight in Palestine.

Barney Ross Speaks

Former Boxing Champion Barney Ross, 38-year-old wounded Marine Corps veteran of Guadalcanal, who had volunteered earlier, told the Madison Square Park rally that "all I have left is my heart and two good hands to talk for me."

Ross told newsmen that Washington's attitude toward passports "will not halt my resolve to go." He said, however, that he would not want to do anything to jeopardize his United States citizenship or that of anyone else.

He added that he believes "I have the same right to fight for a principle as I had to fight for my country."

MEYERS CHARGED WITH TAX EVASION

$240,000 Lien Put Against Former Officer's Property

New York, March 31 (AP)—The Government today put a $240,000 income-tax lien on the property of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers.

The wartime Air Forces supply officer is now serving a twenty-months to five-year jail term for persuading a business associate to give false testimony to a Senate committee.

The Federal Court of Appeals last week denied Meyers's application for bail while he appeals the conviction.

Makes Plea To Vinson

In Washington Meyers today asked Chief Justice Vinson to order his release on bail while the Court of Appeals considers his case.

Vinson is expected to act on Meyers's request in a day or two. Supreme Court justices rarely grant such requests.

Meyers also is under indictment for committing perjury himself and for falsifying income taxes, and may face trial later on these charges.

The Internal Revenue Department's tax lien alleged Meyers owes the Government more than $240,000 for taxes between 1941 and 1946. It was filed in the Long Island district, where Meyers has a home.

Covers Six Years

It listed approximately $33,000 owed for 1941; $50,000 for 1942; $37,000 for 1943; $49,000 for 1944; $50,000 for 1945, and $26,000 for 1946.

Meyers was convicted of persuading Bleriot Lamarre to give false testimony to Senate investigators about a plane-parts plant of which Lamarre was president.

The Government claimed Meyers was the real head of the firm and got more than $150,000 out of it.

New Czech Aide at U.N. Accredited by Benes

MAR 1948

Carpenter

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 31 (AP).—Credentials bearing the name of President Eduard Benes were submitted to the United Nations today by the new delegate of the Communist-dominated Prague regime.

Dr. Jan Papanek, the fired anti-Communist delegate who blasted the new Prague government in charges now before the Security Council, refused to recognize the letter.

Vladimir Houdek handed the letter to Secretary-General Trygve Lie. The letter said Papanek had been recalled. Houdek came here after Papanek broke with the new government when Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk died.

WANTS BENES LETTER

Papanek said he had received no word from Benes or any other source. He said he would not step down until he was recalled in a letter to him signed by Benes.

China's delegate, Dr. T. F. Tsiang, meanwhile, urged the security council to invite Benes and others concerned to come here and tell about the Communist coup last month. He expressed hope Russia would support such a move, but Russia has denounced the whole affair.

China, Canada, Chile and Syria demanded a full investigation of the Czechoslovak case, but the Soviet Ukraine attacked France, Britain and the United States for supporting the charges that Russia backed the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia.

The Council adjourned debate on Czechoslovakia until next Tuesday.

Before Dr. Tsiang spoke to the Security Council, Chile and Canada proposed that the delegates hear from Czechoslovakian leaders who have escaped from their Communist-dominated homeland.

Must Face Up To Problem

Dr. Tsiang made one of the strongest speeches he has yet presented to any United Nations organ. He said the Security Council—and the world—must face up to the Czechoslovakian problem now rather than wait two, three or five years.

He indorsed the United States demand for a full investigation of Chile's charges that Russia helped the Communists grab power in Prague.

Dr. Tsiang tied the Czechoslovakian problem directly to the Chinese fight against communism in Manchuria. He said that Czechoslovakia and the Manchurian provinces of China are cradles of conflict and that the world shivers whenever anything extraordinary happens in either locality.

An hour before the Security Council convened costumed "cowboys" and cab drivers from New York picketed the United Nations headquarters bearing signs calling Andrei A. Gromyko, Russian delegate, a liar.

Last week Gromyko accused the United States of interfering in internal affairs in France and Italy and said cowboys and doormen could tell about it. Warren R. Austin, United States, answered that it was a tribute to the United States system that cowboys, doormen and taxi drivers know about affairs of their country.

Benes was not named by Dr. Tsiang. He recommended that the Security Council ask the men most directly involved in recent events in Czechoslovakia come here and give first-hand information.

This would mean President Benes and the Communist Premier, Klement Gottwald.

However, the Prague regime has announced it will have nothing to do with the case before the Council, not even permitting its delegate to the United Nations to appear at the Council table.

Tsiang's move also could take in Valerian A. Zorin, Deputy Foreign Minister of the Soviet Union.

Chile charged that Zorin went from Moscow to Prague to give aid and promises of help to the Prague Communists.

Herman Santa Cruz, of Chile, spoke first for 55 minutes.

Called Bold And Impudent

He accused Russia of being a bold and impudent aggressor employing crude gangsterism. He said low and vile insults from Russia would not alter Chile's determination to press for an inquiry into the charges against Russia.

Santa Cruz said he had the names of six highly qualified Czechs who had escaped from their homes and were ready to appear before the Security Council or any organ set up to investigate the coup.

The next to speak was Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, of Canada, who said it is the duty of the Council to arrange to hear witnesses who have had to leave Czechoslovakia to escape persecution.

To Create Police Force

Lake Success, N.Y., March 31 (AP). The United Nations Palestine Partition Commission today decided to consider creation of an interim police force for Jerusalem.

The five-nation commission acted on a request from Pablo de Azcarate, head of a United Nations advance party in Palestine. He suggested that a specialist be sent to Jerusalem immediately to make plans for the force.

A United Nations press officer said the British already had suggested that at least 1,600 men would be needed. The British added that they planned to leave a force of 300 Jews and 300 Arabs in Jerusalem when they give up their Holy Land rule May 15.

U.N. Pares Two Stories From Projected Home

Lake Success, N.Y., March 31 (AP). The United Nations decided today to slice two stories off its projected 41-story skyscraper headquarters to meet rising construction costs.

The decision was taken by the headquarters advisory committee which met to divise plans to keep the cost of the new headquarters within the available $65,000,000.

The 41-story structure affected is the "Secretariat Building," tallest of the group planned for construction on the East River side of mid-Manhattan.

The elimination of the two top stories, along with other changes approved, would cut the estimated costs by about $3,000,000.

Chilean's Plea for U. N. Study of Czech Coup

MAR 1948

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 31—Following are excerpts from a declaration to the United Nations Security Council today by Dr. Hernan Santa Cruz, Chilean representative:

We would have refrained from intervening in this question of Czechoslovakia had we not believed that there were at stake the most fundamental principles of the standards of human and international life, that the conditions determining peace were threatened, and the fundamental basis on which the United Nations rests in jeopardy, and had we not been the immediate victims of action similar to and corresponding with that suffered by Czechoslovakia.

We knew that our action would appear intolerable to the brazen aggressor who is unable traditionally and as a result of the inherent incapacity of the regime under which he lives, to maintain even in this organization the bare appearances of a democratic attitude and discussion.

We realized that, in view of the evidence of the charges and in view of the alarm they produced everywhere, the Soviet Union would attempt to defend itself from behind a smokescreen of counter-charges and a profusion of fantastic accusations against other powers.

Calls Soviet Impudent

But we were unprepared for that uncontrolled explosion worthy of a coarse bully, which is nothing else than a sudden and eloquent revelation of the fact that not even the sophistry usually displayed by him could boltser the weakness of his position, and that he felt it necessary to rely on impudent invective.

The Soviet representatives, accustomed to seeing their own regime reducing all the surrounding small countries to vassalage, must regard the concept of the inter-American system as something legendary or fabulous. The existence of twenty independent republics with populations ranging from 1,000,000 to 45,000,000, living side by side with the wealthiest and most powerful country in the world in an international system of free determination, democratic discussion of common problems, and governed by a legal system which is a model for the world, is something incomprehensible to a Government which has made bad faith its principal rule of conduct in international life.

[In Chile,] as in France, a wave of revolutionary strikes broke out in the mining and industrial centers where the trade unions were controlled by the Communist party. This culminated in a revolutionary strike in all the coal mines, vital centers where, thanks to a relentless trade union dictatorship, the Communist party had overwhelming power. Although the Government succeeded in obtaining better economic conditions for the workers, th strike continued.

Then, to the amazement of the whole country, there came to light a large-scale plan of revolt and sabotage, directed and encouraged by the embassies of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and by agents of the group which later seized power in Czechoslovakia who had been secretly introduced into their country's diplomatic service.

The main objectives of this plan —which was only a part of the vast world-wide plan—were to paralyze the economic life of the nation, by holding up transport and hampering the export of copper and nitrates which provides 90 per cent of our foreign exchange.

The intention was thereby to force the return of the Communist party to the Government, this time in key positions, and prevent the export of basic products, such as copper, iron and nitrates, to the United States, in case of a possible war with the Soviet Union.

The resulting situation was so extremely serious that if the Government had not acted very swiftly we should have witnessed in that remote corner of Latin America a dramatic prelude to the tragedy in Czechoslovakia.

In economic matters, this Government—which the Soviet representative has called "a branch of Wall Street" and the servant of international financial monopolies—has been a fervent and stanch champion of industrialization, the untiring defender of the exploitation of vital products, such as oil, with domestic means; it has enthusiastically supported and at times even sponsored the adoption of measures of international cooperation for the economic development of Chile and all the other countries of Latin America.

I wish to inform the Council that I have in my possession the names of six persons, all of them eminent figures in Czech political life, or members of the Czech Parliament or administration, who succeeded in escaping from the totalitarian persecution and are ready to present evidence and documents before any organ of the United Nations which may be set up to investigate the accusations.

I should also inform you that letters continue to arrive giving details of what happened, from individuals living in Czechoslovakia, who could be brought forward as witnesses if the occasion arose.

For us, Mr. President, the statement of the Czech representative, Mr. Papanek, is so convincing, so final and decisive in its conformity with other proved and publicly known facts, and in its credibility, in the light of the attendant circumstances and the knowledge we possess of Mr. Papanek's moral and intellectual rectitude, that if we were members of this Council we should require nothing further to make us not only order an investigation but declare that measures must be taken.

In judicial proceedings against a lunatic murderer it is helpful to consult his record of similar crimes executed by the same means and in similar circumstances.

I am confident that there will have to be an early occasion for this when the United Nations decide to investigate the problem of the Soviet Union's imperialist totalitarian expansion in its full extent, a process of which the virtual annexation of Czechoslovakia is no more than one of many aspects. Meanwhile, I should like to point out to you that any study, even a superficial study, of the action undertaken by the Soviet Union in the other countries referred to, directly leads to the conclusion that what happened in Czechoslovakia is simply a link in the great chain with which the Soviet Union is aspiring to enslave the world.

Gentlemen, if this were a court of law which had to try and bring in a verdict on a political crime, which had to take a decision after reaching a conviction by means of legal proof as prescribed by law, the direct evidence given above and the strong, precise and consistent presumptions I have listed, would suffice to force the court to declare the Soviet Union guilty of the flagrant crime of violating the provisions of Article 2 of the Charter. But this Council is not a court of law. It is simply a political organ established by the United Nations Charter to protect international peace and security by guarding against any attempt to violate them and by taking measures to punish acts endangering that peace and security.

This conviction may be determined by any evidence, by any data sufficient to constitute moral proof, and there is no need that the evidence should be of a specific type; in the present case a majority of the members of this Council is convinced that the Soviet Union has intervened in the Czechoslovak putsch and has subjugated that noble country — indeed, they could not help reaching that conclusion in view of the evidence produced.

In accordance with Article 34 we have requested the Council to investigate the situation. We have adopted this procedure initially because the accuser has even heavier evidence to submit, as I have stated, and we feel that the Council is in a position to supplement t. This circumstance greatly facilitates the Council's work because the ordering of an investigation does not require the collection of legal evidence, nor need Council members have reached the perfect conviction that the facts charged did actually take place. All that is necessary is that the Council should be seized of certain events representing an attempt on international peace and security and that there is sufficient evidence to presume that the events did, in fact, take place.

I think, gentlemen, that I have given sufficient proof that the Security Council possess more than enough evidence to order an investigation of the events in Czechoslovakia. I do not need to remind the Council that moral obligation also recommends it to do so, responsible as it is for international peace and security on behalf of the fifty-seven states member of the organization. World public opinion eagerly awaits intervention by the Council, as a manifestation that this organization is substantially different from the late lamented League of Nations.

THE SOVIET MOVE WAS FORESHADOWED YESTERDAY IN A STATEMENT BY LT. GEN. G.S.LUKJANTSCHENKO, SOVIET CHIEF OF STAFF, THREATENING TO IMPOSE RESTRICTIONS ON GROUND COMMUNICATIONS OF THE WESTERN POWERS WITH BERLIN.

IN AN INTERVIEW WITH A SOVIET-LICENSED NEWSPAPER THE RUSSIAN GENERAL SAID DEMANDS ON TRAFFIC ARTERIES THROUGH THE SOVIET MADE IT NECESSARY TO RECONSIDER USE OF THEIR FACILITIES.

HE SAID THE ONE-TRACK RAIL LINE AND THE BERLIN-HANNOVER AUTOBAHN WOULD HAVE TO BE PUT UNDER A NEW CONTROL. THESE ARE USED BY THE BRITISH, FRENCH AND AMERICANS NOT ONLY TO SUPPLY THEIR BERLIN TROOPS

BUT ALSO TO BRING IN FOOD AND SUPPLIES FROM WESTERN GERMANY FOR THE BERLIN POPULATION.

A WEEKS-LONG PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN IN THE COMMUNIST PRESS OF GERMANY PRECEDED THE GENERAL'S PUBLISHED STATEMENT. THE STORIES ALLEGED THAT EXTENSIVE SHIPMENTS OF MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT WERE BEING TAKEN OUT OF BERLIN INTO THE WESTERN ZONES. THE SOVIET-SPONSORED PUBLICATIONS SAID BERLIN WAS BEING "PLUNDERED" BY THE WESTERN ALLIES.

THESE CHARGES WERE REPEATEDLY AND CATEGORICALLY DENIED BY AMERICAN AND BRITISH OFFICIALS.

THE COMMUNIST PUBLICATIONS ALSO CARRIED STORIES TO THE EFFECT THAT THOUSANDS OF PERSONS FROM THE WESTERN ZONES WERE CROSSING THE SOVIET ZONE BORDERS, AND CHARGED THAT MANY WERE SPIES SENT INTO RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED TERRITORY.

THE RUSSIANS WALKED OUT OF AN ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL MEETING IN BERLIN ON MARCH 20 AFTER CHARGING THE LONDON CONFERENCE ON GERMANY ATTENDED BY THE THREE WESTERN POWERS VIOLATED CONDITIONS OF THE POTSDAM PACT FOR FOUR-POWER RULE OF GERMANY. SINCE THEN THE FOUR-POWER GOVERNMENTAL MACHINERY HAS BEEN AT A STANDSTILL.

THE WESTERN POWERS SENT SUPPLIES INTO BERLIN OVER THE RAIL LINE AND AUTO HIGHWAY UNDER AN AGREEMENT REACHED IN JUNE, 1945.

THIS GAVE THE MILITARY FORCES OF THE WESTERN POWERS FREE ACCESS TO THOSE TRANSPORTATION ARTERIES AT ANY TIME.

THE WESTERN POWERS MOVED 32 TRAINS OVER THE TRACK EACH DAY, MOST OF THEM TO BERLIN. ONLY TWO MILITARY TRAINS MOVE OVER THE TRACK IN EACH DIRECTION DAILY. THE AMERICANS, BRITISH AND FRENCH DID THEIR OWN CLEARING OF TRAIN PASSENGERS, WHO TRAVELLED WITHOUT ANY SOVIET INSPECTION.

THE RUSSIANS HAVE PERMITTED AIR TRAFFIC INTO BERLIN, WITHOUT RESTRICTION, BUT ONLY ALONG CORRIDORS GVMDOVG THEIR FLIGHT.

THE FRENCH SAID THEY ARE STUDYING THE SOVIET ORDER BUT HAD NOT YET REPLIED.

THE ONLY GROUND CONNECTIONS BETWEEN BERLIN AND THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN ZONES OF GERMANY ARE A ONE-TRACK RAILWAY LINE TO HELMSTEDT AND THE BERLIN-HANNOVER HIGHWAY.

NATIONALS OF THE THREE WESTERN POWERS HAVE BEEN ABLE TO TRAVEL FREELY ON MILITARY TRAINS BETWEEN BERLIN AND THE WEST WITHOUT SOVIET INSPECTION. THE THREE WESTERN POWERS HANDLED THEIR OWN CLEARING OF PERSONNEL.

AN OFFICIAL BRITISH SPOKESMAN SAID THE ORDER IS VAGUE AND "SUSCEPTIBLE TO VARIOUS AND BROAD INTERPRETATIONS." IT LEFT TO SOVIET SOLDIERS THE DECISION ON WHAT CONSTITUTES ACCEPTABLE IDENTIFICATION. GREEK TROOPS FROM THE EIGHTH ARMY DIVISION ARE FIGHTING IN THE MOUNT MURGANA SECTOR NORTH OF PHILIATES, A TOWN ONLY SIX MILES FROM THE ALBANIAN FRONTIER.

VAN FLEET ESTIMATED THAT 1,000 GUERRILLAS WERE IN A POCKET THERE. HE SAID A NEW OFFENSIVE TO DRIVE THEM OUT BEGAN ON MONDAY TO ELIMINATE A POTENTIAL THREAT TO BOTH PHILIATES AND IOANNINA, WHICH LIES 27 MILES FROM THE ALBANIAN FRONTIER.

VAFIADES MAY TRY TO SEIZE IOANNINA, A TOWN OF 23,000, AS A CAPITAL FOR HIS SELF-PROCLAIMED GREEK COMMUNIST STATE, SOME GREEK LEADERS BELIEVE.

THE LIBERAL NEWSPAPER VIMA SAID THE TROOPS CROSSED GUERRILLA MINE FIELDS AND SEIZED MOUNT MURGANA, A 4,500 FOOT PEAK SURROUNDED ON THREE SIDES BY ALBANIAN TERRITORY. THIS REPORT WAS NOT CONFIRMED OFFICIALLY.

GEN. VAN FLEET SAID THE DRIVE NORTH OF SALONIKA STARTED YESTERDAY TO WIPE OUT A MOUNTAIN STRONGHOLD FROM WHICH GUERRILLAS MADE A NIGHT RAID AND SHELLED SALONIKA LAST MONTH. HE PLACED THE MAIN ACTION NEAR MELISSOURGEION, BETWEEN KILKIS AND LAKE KERKENITIS.

CUNNINGHAM SAID HE HAD SENT QUESTIONS TO MARSHALL IN WASHINGTON IN SEPTEMBER, 1947, BUT THAT OTHER DUTIES HAD KEPT MARSHALL FROM REPLYING UNTIL THIS MONTH. HE SAID MARSHALL'S AFFIDAVIT WOULD SUPPORT THE DEFENSE ARGUMENT THAT INCREASING ALLIED MILITARY PRESSURE HAD FORCED JAPAN INTO WAR.

IN ONE REPLY, MARSHALL DETAILED THE STRENGTH OF U. S. REINFORCEMENTS WHICH HAD BEEN OR WERE BEING SENT TO THE PHILIPPINES WHEN THE WAR BEGAN. HE SAID 20,000 SOLDIERS AND 500,000 TONS OF SUPPLIES WERE CONCENTRATED ON THE WEST COAST FOR SHIPMENT OR WERE ALREADY ON THE WAY.

THE STATEMENT ALSO TOUCHED UPON WARTIME COOPERATION BETWEEN GERMANY AND JAPAN. MARSHALL SAID HE HAD NEVER DISCOVERED ANY EVIDENCE JAPAN HAD NOTIFIED GERMANY OF HER INTENTION TO STRIKE PEARL HARBOR.

CANBERRA, AUSTRALIA, MARCH 31-(AP)-AUSTRALIA IS ON THE POINT OF REACHING A THREE-PARTY TRADE AGREEMENT UNDER WHICH JAPAN WOULD BE PERMITTED TO BUY UP TO 50,000 BALES OF AUSTRALIAN WOOL ANNUALLY, A MINISTERIAL SOURCE SAID TODAY. HE ADDED JAPAN WOULD PAY FOR THE WOOL CHIEFLY WITH RAYONS, SILK AND TEXTILES.

THE AGREEMENT WOULD BE AMONG AUSTRALIA, GEN. MACARTHUR'S COMMAND IN JAPAN AND THE UNITED KINGDOM GOVERNMENT, THE SOURCE SAID. IT WAS REPORTED THAT THE PRINCIPLE TO BE FOLLOWED WOULD INSURE THAT JAPAN'S TOTAL PURCHASES BALANCE WITH HER EXPORTS TO AUSTRALIA TO AVOID CURRENCY PROBLEMS.

JAPAN BOUGHT 7,000 BALES OF AUSTRALIAN WOOL LAST YEAR.

PAN AMERICAN

BY LESLIE HIGHLEY

BOGOTA, COLOMBIA, MARCH 31-(AP)-DIPLOMATS SAID TODAY THE 21-NATION PAN AMERICAN CONFERENCE IS ALMOST CERTAIN TO SPELL OUT A STRONG CONDEMNATION OF COMMUNIST INFILTRATION IN THE WESTERN WORLD.

THIS ATTITUDE OF THE DELEGATES BECAME CLEAR AT YESTERDAY'S OPENING SESSION WHEN SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MARSHALL RECEIVED UNANIMOUS ASSURANCE THAT THE QUESTION OF SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES COULD BE PUT ON THE CONFERENCE PROGRAM.

MARSHALL'S QUERY CAME AS A SURPRISE. OBSERVERS HAD NOT EXPECTED THE UNITED STATES TO BRING UP COMMUNISM AT THE PARLEY, CALLED TO DISCUSS INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS.

THE AMERICAN SECRETARY DID NOT MENTION COMMUNISM BY NAME WHEN HE POSED HIS QUESTION AT A PRELIMINARY SESSION PRIOR TO THE FORMAL OPENING OF THE NINTH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN STATES. THERE WAS NO MISTAKING HIS MEANING, HOWEVER.

IT COULD NOT BE LEARNED FROM AMERICAN SOURCES WHETHER MARSHALL'S MOVE MEANS THE UNITED STATES WILL PROVOKE DISCUSSION OF THE COMMUNIST ISSUE AT THE CONFERENCE.

ONE MEMBER OF THE U.S.DELEGATION, ASKED TO INTERPRET MARSHALL'S QUESTION, REPLIED: "IT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF."

OBSERVERS CITED REACTION TO THE U.S.MOVE AS EVIDENCE THAT THE ISSUE OF COMMUNISM IS HIGH IN THE MINDS OF THE DELEGATES.

THEY ALSO POINTED OUT THE FACT THAT PRESIDENT MARIANO OSPINA PEREZ OF COLOMBIA AND JOAO NEVES FONTOURA, CHIEF BRAZILIAN DELEGATE,--THE ONLY TWO SPEAKERS AT THE OPENING SESSION--BOTH DEALT STRONGLY WITH THE THREAT OF COMMUNISM TO THE WESTERN WORLD.

OSPINA PEREZ, WHO OPENED THE CONFERENCE, TOLD DELEGATES THE AMERICAS SHOULD BE PREPARED TO DEFEND THEIR SPIRITUAL AND POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE IN THE FACE OF EVERY DANGER.

FONTOURA SAID COMMUNISM "SEEMS RESPONSIBLE FOR DRAGGING MANKIND TO A NEW CATASTROPHE OF UNFORSEEABLE CONSEQUENCES."

CHILE, PARAGUAY AND CUBA EXPRESSED THE HOPE SEVERAL WEEKS AGO THAT THE CONFERENCE WOULD TAKE A STAND AGAINST COMMUNIST INFILTRATION IN THE AMERICAS.

THE LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS HAVE LONG VIEWED WITH APPREHENSION INROADS OF COMMUNISM IN CHILE, BRAZIL AND CUBA. GOVERNMENT LEADERS HAVE CONDEMNED WHAT THEY CALL RUSSIAN-INSPIRED SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE, CARRIED OUT BY LOCAL COMMUNIST ORGANIZATIONS UNDER ORDERS FROM MOSCOW.

A18

ANOTHER ISSUE EXPECTED TO RECEIVE CONSIDERABLE ATTENTION IS THE QUESTION OF UNITED STATES ECONOMIC AID TO THE LATIN AMERICAS AND HOW IT WILL BE SUPPLIED.

FONTOURA EMPHASIZED AT THE OPENING SESSION THAT LATIN AMERICA WANTS TO RAISE ITSELF FROM A SEMI-COLONIAL ECONOMIC SYSTEM. THE WORLD'S ECONOMIC SITUATION CAN BE HELPED, HE CONTENDED, IF THE LATIN REPUBLICS ARE RAISED ABOVE THEIR PRESENT STANDARDS.

MANY DELEGATES BELIEVE THIS WOULD BE A POTENT WEAPON AGAINST COMMUNISM AS WELL.

YESTERDAY'S PREPARATORY SESSION VOTED TO BREAK DOWN THE CONFERENCE INTO SIX SEPARATE COMMISSIONS TO HANDLE THE FOLLOWING SUBJECTS:

1. THE ORGANIC PACT OF THE INTERAMERICAN SYSTEM AS A REGIONAL BRANCH OF THE UNITED NATIONS.
2. SYSTEMS OF SPECIALIZED ORGANIZATIONS FOR FINANCING THE PAN AMERICAN UNION.
3. PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF CONTROVERSIES AND COLLECTIVE DEFENSE.
4. AN ECONOMIC TREATY FOR RAISING LIVING STANDARDS AND INDUSTRIALIZING THE AMERICAS.
5. SOCIAL MATTERS (EDUCATIONAL, CULTURAL ACTIVITIES, SOCIAL LEGISLATION ETC.)
6. POLITICAL MATTERS, WHICH INCLUDE THE DEFENSE AND PRESERVATION OF THE AMERICAS.

POPE PIUS XII SENT HIS BLESSINGS TO THE CONFERENCE AND CALLED ON THE DELEGATES TO WORK FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE CONFERENCE AND WORLD PEACE.

OTTAWA, MARCH 31-(AP)-CANADA WAS REPORTED ARRANGING TODAY TO GIVE GREAT BRITAIN A TEMPORARY EXTENSION OF CREDIT UNTIL THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM TAKES EFFECT.

UNDER AN AGREEMENT OF LAST DEC. 18, GREAT BRITAIN WAS AUTHORIZED TO DRAW $15,000,000 A MONTH THROUGH MARCH ON CREDITS FROM CANADA. THE MONEY WOULD FINANCE FOOD AND OTHER PURCHASES FROM THIS COUNTRY.

EXPERTS HAVE BEEN DISCUSSING FOR SEVERAL WEEKS WHAT IS TO BE DONE STARTING TOMORROW.

GOVERNMENT SOURCES TODAY SAID THAT AN AGREEMENT HAD VIRTUALLY BEEN REACHED. AN ANNOUNCEMENT OF TERMS IS EXPECTED SHORTLY.

ABOUT $242,000,000 (M) REMAINS OF THE ORIGINAL $1,250,000,000 (B) CANADIAN LOAN TO GREAT BRITAIN. THE RATE AT WHICH THIS WILL BE USED TO FINANCE THE UNFAVORABLE BRITISH TRADE BALANCE WITH CANADA HAS BEEN AT ISSUE. BOTH SIDES WERE UNDERSTAND TO FEEL THAT THE NEW ARRANGEMENT SHOULD BE FOR A FEW WEEKS ONLY BECAUSE OPERATION OF

THE MARSHALL PLAN MAY ALTER THE PICTURE MATERIALLY.

CANADIANS HAVE BEEN HOPING THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM WILL EASE BOTH THE EUROPEAN POSITION AND THE CANADIAN DOLLAR SHORTAGE. ONE SOURCE SAID AS AN ESTIMATE CANADA MAY BE EXPECTED TO LET THE BRITISH DRAW ABOUT $10,000,000 (M) ON CREDITS DURING APRIL.

THIRD NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN AID
BY ED CREAGH

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MARCH 31-(AP)-THE HOUSE PASSED THE $6,205,-000,000 (B) FOREIGN AID BILL TONIGHT. THE VOTE WAS 329 TO 74.

AIMED IN LARGER PART AT BLOCKING COMMUNIST EXPANSION, IT CALLS FOR THE LARGEST OVERSEAS RELIEF AND REHABILITATION PROGRAM EVER UNDERTAKEN BY ANY NATION.

IT INCLUDES $5,300,000,000 (B) AS THE FIRST-YEAR COST OF THE "MARSHALL PLAN" FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY.

AND IT INCLUDES $425,000,000 (M) IN OUTRIGHT MILITARY AID--$275,-000,000 (M) FOR GREECE AND TURKEY AND $150,000,000 (M) FOR CHINA. CHINA GETS ANOTHER $420,000,000 (M) IN ECONOMIC AID.

(THE NAVY ANNOUNCED SHORTLY BEFORE THE BILL PASSED THAT THREE ESCORT CARRIERS WILL BE USED TO DELIVER PLANES TO TURKEY UNDER THE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM DURING THE NEXT FEW MONTHS.

A43WX

(THE NUMBER OF PLANES WAS NOT DISCLOSED. BUT THE 12,000-TON CARRIERS CAN TRANSPORT MORE THAN 100 PLANES EACH IN FERRY SERVICE.)

BESIDES THE MILITARY AND ECONOMIC AID PROVISIONS, THE HOUSE "PACK-AGE" BILL INCLUDES $60,000,000 FOR THE UNITED NATIONS CHILDREN'S FUND.

A PROPOSAL BY REP.MARCANTONIO (ALP-NY) THAT THE ENTIRE RELIEF PROGRAM BE HANDLED THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS WAS VOTED DOWN BY AN OVERWHELMING 270 TO 6.

TODAY'S VOTE CAME JUST TWO WEEKS AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S APPEAL TO A JOINT SESSION OF CONGRESS FOR SPEEDY ADOPTION OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM (ERP) AS ONE OF THREE ROADBLOCKS TO COMMUNIST EXPAN-SION. THE OTHER STEPS HE ASKED WERE UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING AND THE DRAFT.

BEFORE VOTING ON THE MEASURE AS A WHOLE, THE HOUSE REAFFIRMED BY A 188 TO 104 STANDING VOTE ITS INVITATION FOR SPAIN TO JOIN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM ALONG WITH 16 OTHER NON-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES AND WESTERN GERMANY.

ERP--THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM--IS BY FAR THE LARGEST PART OF THE "OMNIBUS" BILL. IT IS BASED ON THE "MARSHALL PLAN," SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL'S OFFER OF AMERICAN HELP TO EUROPEAN COUNTRIES BANDING TOGETHER TO HELP THEMSELVES BACK TO ECONOMIC HEALTH.

IT CALLS FOR THE LARGEST FOREIGN RELIEF AND REHABILITATION PROGRAM EVER UNDERTAKEN BY ANY NATION. AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN MADE IT PLAIN IN HIS ST.PATRICK'S DAY ADDRESS TO CONGRESS THAT HE REGARDS THE PRO-GRAM AS AN ECONOMIC BARRIER TO THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM.

BEFORE APPROVING ERP AS A WHOLE, THE HOUSE REJECTED BY HEAVY MAJORITIES AMENDMENTS WHICH WOULD HAVE SLASHED THE PROGRAM BY $1,300,000,000 (B) AND LIMITED ITS LIFE TO ONE YEAR. AS IT STANDS NOW, A FOUR-YEAR PROGRAM IS "CONTEMPLATED" BUT NOT PLEDGED.

THE ENTIRE $6,205,000,000 (B) BILL IS EXPECTED TO GO TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN FOR SIGNATURE LATE THIS WEEK AFTER SENATE AND HOUSE AGREE ON COMPARATIVELY MINOR DIFFERENCES. THE SENATE HAS PASSED SEPARATE BILLS ADDING UP TO NEARLY THAT SUM FOR THE SAME FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS.

MR.TRUMAN'S SIGNATURE WILL START U.S.SUPPLIES ROLLING ABOUT TWO WEEKS BEFORE THE APRIL 18 ELECTIONS WHICH MAY DECIDE WHETHER ITALY GOES COMMUNIST OR STAYS IN THE WESTERN DEMOCRATIC CAMP.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ARE COUNTING ON THE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM TO SWAY MANY ITALIAN VOTERS AWAY FROM THE COMMUNISTS AND THEIR SUPPORT-ERS.

THERE ARE TWO PRINCIPAL DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE HOUSE BILL AND THE SEPARATE BILLS PASSED BY THE SENATE TO COVER ALL THESE PROGRAMS.

ONE IS SPAIN. THE HOUSE HAS VOTED TO INVITE THE FRANCO GOVERNMENT TO TAKE PART IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM. THE SENATE MAY OR MAY NOT GO ALONG.

THE OTHER MAIN DIFFERENCE INVOLVES CHINA. THE SENATE HAS VOTED $463,000,000 (M) TO HELP CHINA FOR A YEAR, $100,000,000 (M) OF IT FOR MILITARY PURPOSES AT CHINA'S OPTION. THE HOUSE BILL CALLS FOR $570,000,000 (M) IN 15 MONTHS, $150,000,000 (M) OF IT FOR EXPRESSLY MILITARY PURPOSES.

BY A STANDING VOTE OF 127 TO 117, THE HOUSE REJECTED AN AMENDMENT BY REP.LAWRENCE SMITH (R-WIS) WHICH DECLARED THIS COUNTRY UNDER "NO MORAL OR LEGAL OBLIGATION" TO CONTINUE AID TO EUROPE AFTER THE FIRST YEAR.

REP.VORYS (R-OHIO) LED THE ONSLAUGHT AGAINST SMITH'S AMENDMENT, SAYING:

"WE HAVE BEEN OBJECTING ALL THESE YEARS TO STOPGAP, PIECEMEAL FOREIGN POLICY. NOW WE HAVE A CHANCE AT A PERMANENT ONE. LET'S NOT GO BACK TO ORGANIZED PLANLESSNESS."

ANOTHER STANDING VOTE, 112 TO 61, REJECTED AN AMENDMENT BY REP. VURSELL (R-ILL) TO SLASH THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY COST.

VURSELL CALLED THE WHOLE AID PROGRAM A "FANTASTIC, WORLDWIDE WPA."

BUT REP.CHADWICK (R-PA) TOLD THE HOUSE: "I URGE YOU, IN THE NAME OF PEOPLE LIKE YOURSELVES AND THOSE IN WESTERN EUROPE, TO DO WHAT IS ADEQUATE. THE EYES OF THE WORLD ARE UPON US."

REP.O'HARA (R-MINN) DECLARED THAT FINANCING THE PROGRAM WOULD MEAN "DRAGGING THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY THROUGH THE DIRT."

REPLIED DEMOCRATIC LEADER RAYBURN OF TEXAS:

"I WOULD RATHER DRAG A FEW CIVILIANS IN THE UNITED STATES THROUGH THE DIRT THAN DRAG MILLIONS OF AMERICAN BOYS IN UNIFORM THROUGH BLOOD IN FAR CORNERS OF THE EARTH."

SPEAKER AFTER SPEAKER STRESSED THE "STOP-COMMUNISM" ASPECT OF THE AID PROGRAM. REP.MCCORMACK (D-MASS) CALLED THE ROLL OF COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE GONE COMMUNIST.

"I WOULDN'T BE SURPRISED IF THE SOVIETS ALREADY HAVE MADE DEMANDS ON NORWAY," HE SAID.

AND REP.COX (D-GA) SAID "ALL IS LOST" IF COUNTRIES STILL OUTSIDE THE "IRON CURTAIN" ARE NOT STRENGTHENED AGAINST COMMUNISM.

THE BILL AUTHORIZES A TOTAL OF $5,300,000,000 (B) FOR THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM (ERP), $570,000,000(M) IN ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID TO CHINA, $275,000,000 (M) FOR GREECE AND TURKEY, AND $60,000,000(M) FOR THE UNITED NATIONS CHILDREN'S FUND.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 31-(AP)-GENERAL MARK W.CLARK SAID TODAY THAT IF THE WEST COAST WERE ATTACKED "WE WOULD HAVE GREAT DIFFICULTY IN DEFENDING SUCH PLACES AS THE BOEING AIRCRAFT PLANT AND THE HANFORD ATOMIC ENERGY PLANT."

THE SIXTH ARMY COMMANDER ADDED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE:

"WE HAVE A SECURITY GUARD AT THOSE PLANTS, BUT NO TROOPS. IF WE NEEDED THEM, WE WOULD HAVE TO SEND THEM THERE FROM OUR COMBAT UNITS."

ASKED HOW HE FELT ABOUT THE COMING ELECTIONS IN ITALY, WHERE HE WAS IN COMMAND OF U.S.FORCES DURING THE WAR, HE REPLIED:

"TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND OF OUR BOYS LIE BURIED THERE, AND WE ARE WORRIED THAT THE FRUITS OF THEIR VICTORY MIGHT GO DOWN A RATHOLE."

CLARK TALKED WITH REPORTERS ALONG WITH OTHER ARMY COMMANDERS WHO HAVE BEEN SUMMONED TO WASHINGTON TO CONFER WITH THE CHIEF OF STAFF, GENERAL OMAR N.BRADLEY, ON PLANS FOR ARMY EXPANSION UNDER THE PROPOSED SELECTIVE SERVICE AND UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING MEASURES.

GENERAL JACOB L.DEVERS, CHIEF OF THE ARMY FIELD FORCES, SAID IN REPLY TO A QUESTION "WE ARE NOT CONVINCED THAT ALL THE COMMUNISTS ARE OUT OF THE ARMY, BUT WE ARE SCREENING THEM OUT AS FAST AS WE CAN."

REMINDED THAT COMMUNISTS WERE PERMITTED TO SERVE IN THE ARMY DURING THE WAR, HE WAS ASKED IF THEY WOULD BE EXCLUDED IN THE PROPOSED DRAFT. DEVERS REPLIED THAT IT WOULD BE UP TO CONGRESS TO DECIDE.

DEVERS SAID THE ARMY HAD NOT THOUGHT OF LOWERING MENTAL AND PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS FOR RECRUITS.

ASKED ABOUT PLANS FOR NEGRO TROOPS, DEVERS SAID THE INTENTION WAS TO CONTINUE TO "TAKE CARE OF THEM AS WE DO IN THE ARMY TODAY." HE EXPLAINED THAT NOW ONE NEGRO BATTALION IS PLACED IN A REGIMENT WITH TWO WHITE BATTALIONS.

WALLACE-DEFENSE

MAR 1948

BY DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON,MARCH 31-(AP)-HENRY A.WALLACE CAME TO TOWN AND FIRED BOTH BARRELS AT THE GOVERNMENT'S "STOP RUSSIA" POLICY.

BUT THERE IS NO SIGN TODAY THAT HE SWITCHED ANY VOTES IN CONGRESS ON THE ISSUES OF A DRAFT AND UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING TO STRENGTHEN THE ARMED FORCES.

IN FACT, CHAIRMAN GURNEY (R-SD) OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE REMARKED:

"IT IS EVIDENT CONGRESS WILL PASS SOME FORM OF SELECTIVE SERVICE AND MAY ADOPT A UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING PROGRAM."

BUT FOR TWO HOURS AND 58 MINUTES YESTERDAY WALLACE HELD THE WASHINGTON SPOTLIGHT AS THE STAR WITNESS AGAINST AMERICA'S MILITARY PLANS. HE SPENT ALMOST 45 MINUTES READING A BITTER ATTACK AGAINST PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S POLICIES WHICH HE SAID ARE LEADING THIS COUNTRY TOWARD WAR.

AND THEN FOR MORE THAN TWO HOURS HE FACED A BARRAGE OF QUESTIONS FROM MEMBERS OF GURNEY'S COMMITTEE.

MORE THAN 400 PEOPLE JAMMED INTO THE HEARING ROOM. OTHER HUNDREDS WERE UNABLE TO GET PAST THE GUARDS. THE AUDIENCE WAS QUIET AND INTENT--BUT GAVE NO SIGN EITHER OF SYMPATHY OR HOSTILITY.

AFTER FIRING HIS PREPARED BROADSIDE AT THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICIES AT HOME AND ABROAD, QUESTIONING BY SENATORS BROUGHT OUT THESE WALLACE VIEWPOINTS:

1. OUR LEADERS SHOULD MEET AS SOON AS POSSIBLE WITH PREMIER STALIN TO GET AN "OVERALL AGREEMENT" THAT WILL HALT AN ARMS RACE BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES.

2. RUSSIA HAS BEEN NO MORE GUILTY OF AGGRESSION THAN THE UNITED STATES.

3. THE UNITED STATES' MILITARY POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA CHANGED AFTER THE DEATH OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

4. RUSSIAN EXPANSION IN EUROPE IS OVER AND THE SOVIETS ARE NOT A MENACE TO THE UNITED STATES.

SEVERAL TIMES WALLACE REFERRED TO THE URGENT NEED OF A MEETING WITH STALIN TO IRON OUT DIFFERENCES BETWEEN EAST AND WEST.

"HOW IS IT," ASKED SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA), "THAT WE CAN SET OFF AN ARMS RACE IN TRYING TO RECAPTURE THE SECURITY THAT EXISTED AFTER WORLD WAR II?"

"IF WE EXPAND OUR ARMED FORCES," SAID WALLACE, "RUSSIA WILL GO ALL OUT TO ARM HERSELF."

HE SAID HE FAVORS "A COMPLETE REVERSAL OF THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE," PULLING OUT OF GREECE AND HALTING AID TO TURKEY. HE ALSO SAID ANY AID GIVEN TO CHINA WOULD BE WASTED.

INSTEAD, WALLACE SAID, "WE SHOULD MEET WITH STALIN AND GET AN OVERALL AGREEMENT. IT SHOULD BE DONE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE."

A28WX

RUSSELL ASKED WALLACE IF ANYONE OTHER THAN HIMSELF COULD REACH AGREEMENT WITH STALIN.

WALLACE REPLIED: "I BELIEVE I COULD BE VERY HELPFUL IN IT."

WALLACE SAID THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA SHOULD JOIN IN A WORLD FEDERATION WHICH WOULD HAVE A POLICE FORCE LARGER THAN THE ARMED FORCES OF ANY SINGLE NATION. HE SAID HE STILL HOLDS HOPES THIS CAN BE ACHIEVED.

AT ONE POINT, WALLACE SUGGESTED THE UNITED STATES SHOULD HAVE AN ARMED FORCE OF 1,000,000 MEN, BUT LATER HE WITHDREW THIS ESTIMATE SAYING "I DON'T KNOW HOW BIG THE FORCE SHOULD BE, BUT IT SHOULD BE MODERN AND WELL TRAINED."

MAR 1948

IN DISCUSSING RUSSIA'S POLICIES IN EUROPE, WALLACE SAID "I WOULD NOT SAY RUSSIA HAS PURSUED A POLICY OF AGGRESSION." HE INSISTED IT WAS ONLY NATURAL THAT RUSSIA SHOULD MAKE SURE THE NATIONS NEAR HER WESTERN BORDER HAVE FRIENDLY GOVERNMENTS.

"FRANKLY," HE SAID, "I THINK IT'S A QUESTION OF GEOGRAPHY."

AS ONE EXPLANATION OF RUSSIA'S DISTRUST OF THE UNITED STATES, WALLACE SAID IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION BY SENATOR HILL (D-ALA):

"SENATOR, IF YOU WOULD JUST REVERSE THE SITUATION AND PUT YOURSELF IN THE OTHER POSITION. THE COUNTRY DESTROYED FROM THE SEABOARD TO GARY,IND. TEN MILLION MEN KILLED. LIVESTOCK DRIVEN OFF. HOMES DESTROYED. ALL THAT HAPPENS. AND THEN A FOREIGN POWER CAME CLOSE TO THE BORDER WITH AIR BASES--MANY AIR BASES. DON'T YOU THINK YOU WOULD TRY TO USE WHATEVER METHODS YOU HAVE? THIS METHOD OF TIT FOR TAT WILL LEAD IRREVOCABLY TO WAR. RUSSIA CAN'T WIN, BUT NEITHER CAN WE."

WALLACE SAID HE WAS NOT TRYING TO "JUSTIFY ANYBODY" BUT MERELY TRYING TO EXPLAIN A VIEWPOINT.

EVEN IF THE UNITED STATES WITHDREW ALL TROOPS FROM EUROPE, WALLACE SAID HE HAS NO REASON TO BELIEVE RUSSIA WOULD OVERRUN OTHER COUNTRIES.

"I THINK RUSSIA HAS TOO MUCH SENSE TO MOVE RIGHT IN," HE SAID. "I THINK SHE WOULD BE VERY FOOLISH IF SHE DID."

AT ANOTHER POINT HE SAID: "RUSSIA KNOWS SHE CAN'T MOVE FARTHER

WEST THAN SHE IS." SUCH A MOVE, HE SAID, "WILL EXPOSE HER TO THE SAME KIND OF WEAKNESS TO WHICH WE ARE EXPOSING OURSELVES."

SENATOR BALDWIN (R-CONN) ASKED WHETHER RUSSIAN EXPANSION COULD NOT BE LIKENED TO THAT OF NAZI GERMANY.

"I DON'T THINK RUSSIA IS THE SAME AS HITLER," WALLACE REPLIED, "I JUST DON'T BELIEVE IT."

A29WX

EARLY IN THE QUESTION SESSION RUSSELL ASKED WALLACE WHAT HE THINKS WOULD HAPPEN TO HIM IF HE WERE IN RUSSIA AND, AS A FORMER MEMBER OF THE POLITBURO, HE SHARPLY CRITICIZED GOVERNMENT POLICIES.

"I HAVE EXACTLY THE SAME VIEWS ON THAT AS YOU DO," WALLACE SAID.

"YOU WOULD BE SHOT?"

"EITHER SHOT OR SENT TO SIBERIA."

"THEN THAT IS ONE ADVANTAGE WE HAVE OVER RUSSIA?" RUSSELL ASKED.

"WE HAVE IT FOR THE TIME BEING SIR," WALLACE RESPONDED. "I DON'T KNOW HOW LONG IT WILL LAST."

MAR 1948

BOSTON, MARCH 31-(AP)-A SPECIAL AGENT OF THE FBI TESTIFIED IN FEDERAL COURT TODAY THAT ROBERT H.BEST, FORMER AMERICAN NEWSMAN ON TRIAL FOR TREASON, SAID HE HAD NO OBJECTION TO TALKING ABOUT HIS LIFE IN GERMANY.

BEST, ONCE A RESIDENT OF SPARTANBURG, S.C., VOLUNTARILY DICTATED A 19-PAGE STATEMENT TO A STENOGRAPHER FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, THE WITNESS, JOHN ELDON DUNN OF SALT LAKE CITY, SAID.

JUDGE FRANCIS J.W.FORD ADMITTED THE DOCUMENT IN EVIDENCE OVER THE OBJECTION OF DEFENSE COUNSEL, BUT ITS CONTENTS WERE NOT DISCLOSED. IT WILL BE READ TO THE JURY TOMORROW.

BEST, WHO IS ACCUSED OF MAKING RADIO BROADCASTS FOR THE NAZIS DURING THE WAR, WAS BROUGHT FROM GERMANY TO WASHINGTON, D.C., DECEMBER 14, 1946. DUNN TESTIFIED HE TALKED WITH THE DEFENDANT ON THAT DAY AND ON THE TWO FOLLOWING DAYS. BEST, HE SAID, MADE A LONG STATEMENT WHICH THEN WAS TRANSCRIBED BY THE STENOGRAPHER.

THE FBI AGENT SAID BEST READ THE STATEMENT LATER AND SIGNED IT.

UNDER CROSS EXAMINATION BY CHARLES W.BARTLETT OF DEFENSE COUNSEL DUNN SAID HE HAD CERTAIN DOCUMENTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE WHEN HE INTERROGATED BEST.

SEVERAL, YELLOW-WITH-AGE TYPEWRITTEN DOCUMENTS WERE INTRODUCED AS EXHIBITS BY PROSECUTOR TOM DE WOLFE BUT THEIR CONTENTS WERE NOT DISCLOSED IMMEDIATELY.

DUNN TESTIFIED BEST HAD ASKED HIM WHERE THE DOCUMENTS CAME FROM AND WHEN INFORMED THE FBI AGENT DID NOT KNOW, ASSERTED THEY MUST HAVE BEEN TAKEN FROM THE DEFENDANT'S VIENNA APARTMENT.

THE JURY WAS EXCLUDED FROM THE COURTROOM ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS DURING THE DAY WHILE JUDGE FORD HEARD TESTIMONY CONCERNING BEST'S ALLEGED STATEMENT AND A SEARCH OF HIS VIENNA APARTMENT.

LATE THIS AFTERNOON THE COURT RULED THE STATEMENT MADE BY BEST TO DUNN WAS VOLUNTARY AND ADMISSIBLE IN EVIDENCE.

INITIAL GOVERNMENT WITNESSES TESTIFIED BEST HAD CLAIMED TO BE AN AMERICAN CITIZEN AND THAT HE SWORE ALLEGIANCE TO HIS COUNTRY AS LATE AS 1938 WHEN HE APPLIED FOR A RENEWAL OF A PASSPORT IN VIENNA.

A COPY OF A PASSPORT INTRODUCED BY THE GOVERNMENT QUOTED BEST AS SAYING HE HAD LIVED IN SPARTANBURG,S.C., UNTIL 1922 WHEN HE WENT TO VIENNA. IT SAID HIS FATHER WAS THE REV.A.H.BEST OF SPARTANBURG.

BOSTON,MARCH 31-(AP)-NAVY SECRETARY JOHN L.SULLIVAN TODAY ACCUSED THE RUSSIAN LEADERSHIP OF TRYING TO STAMP OUT FREEDOM EVERYWHERE TO KEEP THEIR OWN PEOPLE IN LINE.

"NOT FOR LONG CAN THEY SATISFY THEIR OWN PEOPLE WITH COMMUNISM WHILE LIFE REMAINS WORTH THE LIVING UNDER ANY OTHER SYSTEM," SULLIVAN TOLD A BOSTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON.

ASSERTING EVERY MOVE THE UNITED STATES WAS MAKING IS "DEVISED TO PRESERVE PEACE--NOT TO PREPARE FOR WAR--THE NAVY SECRETARY SAID:

"AMERICA HAS NO MILITARY OR IMPERIAL OBJECTIVES WHICH THREATENS THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE. THE RUSSIANS HAVE NOTHING WE WANT OR EVER WILL WANT. THEIR GREATEST EXPORTABLE PRODUCT TODAY IS CHAOS.

"THEIR ONLY REASON FOR SAYING THAT COMMUNISM AND DEMOCRACY CANNOT LIVE TOGETHER IS BECAUSE THEY KNOW THAT TYRANNY, HOWEVER BUTTRESSED BY CENSORSHIP IN THE CRUELEST POLICE STATE, CAN NOT SURVIVE SO LONG AS FREEDOM EXISTS ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD."

SINCE VJ DAY, SULLIVAN SAID IN A PREPARED SPEECH, "COMMUNISM HAS MADE ITS ULTIMATE OBJECTIVE ABUNDANTLY CLEAR--THE COMPLETE COMMUNIZATION OF THE WORLD. FOR COMMUNISM TO FLOURISH, THEY ARE CONVINCED THAT FREEDOM MUST PERISH."

THE NAVY SECRETARY SAID THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAD NEVER ATTEMPTED TO "DRIVE THE SOVIET SYSTEM FROM ITS BIRTHPLACE" OR TAKEN THE POSITION IT CANNOT LIVE IN A WORLD WHERE COMMUNISM EXISTS.

"HOWEVER," HE DECLARED, "THE RUSSIANS VIEW WITH ALARM EVERY MANIFESTATION OF FREEDOM, AND REPEATEDLY PROCLAIM THAT COMMUNISM AND WHAT WE CALL DEMOCRACY CANNOT EXIST TOGETHER."

CALLING FOR UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING IN THIS COUNTRY, SULLIVAN SAID:

"THE INCREASES SOUGHT BY THE SERVICES ARE IN LINE WITH OUR DETERMINATION TO SHOW THE WORLD--FRIEND AND FOE ALIKE--OUR EFFECTIVE STRENGTH BEFORE THERE IS TROUBLE, AND, HENCE, TO DETER ANY AGGRESSOR FROM ANY OVERT ACT ANYWHERE."

FOLO COLUMBUS

NEW YORK, MARCH 31-(AP)-TOP COMMUNIST PARTY OFFICIALS TODAY DEMANDED "IMMEDIATE ACTION TO INVESTIGATE AND PUNISH" A "MOB OF MORE THAN 1,000 WHO REPORTEDLY DESTROYED" THE HOME OF A COLUMBUS, OHIO, PARTY LEADER.

THE DEMAND WAS MADE IN TELEGRAMS TO OHIO GOVERNOR THOMAS J. HERBERT AND MAYOR JAMES RHODES OF COLUMBUS. IT WAS SENT BY WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, NATIONAL PARTY CHAIRMAN, AND EUGENE DENNIS, GENERAL SECRETARY.

"AS A PUBLIC OFFICIAL RESPONSIBLE FOR LIFE AND PROPERTY, IT IS YOUR DUTY TO TAKE ALL NECESSARY STEPS TO APPREHEND AND PROSECUTE THOSE WHO PARTICIPATED IN THIS FASCIST-LIKE OUTRAGE, AS WELL AS THOSE WHO INSTIGATED IT," THE MESSAGE SAID.

IT SAID THAT THE HOME OF FRANK HASHMALL, COLUMBUS COMMUNIST PARTY ORGANIZER, WAS WRECKED, AND THE LIVES OF HIS WIFE AND CHILD THREATENED BY THE MOB.

"PARTICULARLY URGE YOU TO INVESTIGATE THE PART PLAYED BY ANTI-NEGRO ELEMENTS SEEKING TO INCITE LYNCH VIOLENCE AGAINST HASHMALL BECAUSE OF HIS OUTSTANDING WORK IN PROMOTING NEGRO AND WHITE UNITY," THE TELEGRAM ADDED.

IT SAID NO AMERICAN CAN "HAVE CONFIDENCE THAT LAW AND ORDER WILL BE PRESERVED IN OHIO UNTIL YOU HAVE ACTED VIGOROUSLY TO GUARANTEE THAT THIS SHAMEFUL EXAMPLE OF FORCE AND VIOLENCE IS NOT REPEATED."

STILWELL (750)

BY CHARLES A.GRUMICH

(ADVANCE)...NEW YORK,MARCH 31-(AP)-GENERAL JOSEPH W.STILWELL'S STORY OF HIS WARTIME BATTLES WITH POLITICIANS FINALLY HAS COME TO LIGHT IN HIS OWN WORDS.

HIS MAIN TARGET WAS CHIANG KAI-SHEK, WHO GOT STILWELL FIRED FROM CHINA IN OCTOBER, 1944.

BUT IN HIS DIARIES AND SELECTED LETTERS TO HIS WIFE, AS PUBLISHED

IN THE APRIL LADIES' HOME JOURNAL, THE GENERAL RANGED OVER THE WHOLE FIELD OF ALLIED POLITICIANS: ROOSEVELT, STALIN, CHURCHILL, AND MANY MORE. HE CALLED ROOSEVELT "OLD SOFTY." STALIN WAS "BLOODY JOE."

STILWELL WAS MAINLY DISDAINFUL OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S POLITICAL PERSONALITY; HE BLAMED MR.ROOSEVELT FOR BEING AN "OLD SOFTY" WHEN THE PRESIDENT RELUCTANTLY AGREED WITH CHIANG THAT STILWELL SHOULD LEAVE CHINA.

THE DIARIES, NOW OPENED MORE THAN A YEAR AFTER STILWELL DIED IN CALIFORNIA AND AT A CRITICAL TIME OF DECISION OVER AMERICAN AID TO FIGHT COMMUNISM IN CHINA, SHOWED STILWELL IN 1944 WROTE FAVORABLY OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADERSHIP IN COMPARISON WITH THE KUOMINTANG REGIME OF CHIANG IN CHUNGKING.

AT THIS TIME STILWELL WROTE:

"CHIANG KAI-SHEK X X X CAN'T SEE THAT THE MASS OF CHINESE PEOPLE WELCOME THE REDS AS BEING THE ONLY VISIBLE HOPE OF RELIEF FROM CRUSHING TAXATION, THE ABUSES OF THE ARMY AND (THE TERROR OF) TAI LI'S GESTAPO."

STILWELL ACCUSED CHIANG AND HIS REGIME OF CORRUPTION, GRAFT, BUREAUCRACY AND OTHER THINGS THAT STALLED THE WAR EFFORT. HE PREFERRED THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT FOR ITS LAND REFORMS AND INDEPENDENT WAR EFFORT AGAINST THE JAPANESE AND NOT BECAUSE OF ANY LEANING TOWARD COMMUNISM AS SUCH. HIS AIM, DEFEATED BY CHIANG, WAS TO UNITE THE COMMUNIST AND KUOMINTANG ARMIES IN A COMMON WAR EFFORT, AND LET THE FUTURE TAKE CARE OF ITSELF. STILWELL REFERRED TO CHIANG ALMOST ALWAYS AS THE "THE PEANUT" BUT HAD OTHER NAMES FOR HIM TOO.

THE EDITOR OF THE DIARIES, EX-WAR CORRESPONDENT THEODORE H.WHITE, STUDENT OF CHINESE AFFAIRS AND FRIEND OF STILWELL, TOLD THIS REVIEWER HE BELIEVES STILWELL, IF ALIVE TODAY, WOULD COUNSEL THE U.S. GOVERNMENT NOW TO LET CHINA STEW IN ITS OWN JUICE OF CIVIL WAR.

"GENERAL STILWELL'S BASIC CONVICTION," WHITE SAYS, "WAS THAT NO AMOUNT OF AID OR ARMS COULD SAVE CHINA UNLESS THE CHINESE PEOPLE THEMSELVES THROW OUT CORRUPTION IN THEIR GOVERNMENT."

WHITE SAYS STILWELL HAD THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN TYPE OF LIBERALISM AND WAS KEENLY AWARE OF STALIN'S DESIGNS ON ASIA AND THE POSSIBILITY OF AN OPEN LINK-UP OF CHINESE AND RUSSIAN COMMUNISM.

MORE DETAILS OF WHAT STILWELL THOUGHT OF STALIN WILL BE PUBLISHED IN THE 300-PAGE BOOK FORM OF THE DIARIES, LETTERS AND BACKGROUND INTERPOLATED BY WHITE. THE BOOK IS COMING OUT IN MAY FROM WILLIAM SLOANE ASSOCIATES, THE PUBLISHERS. THE CONDENSED VERSION IN THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL RUNS 40,000 WORDS.

IT SHOWS STILWELL WAS AN ACCOMPLISHED ESSAYIST, A FORCEFUL, SYMPATHETIC LETTER WRITER, AND A LYRICIST WHO, IN THE GILBERT AND SULLIVAN MANNER, WROTE AN ODE TO SPRING IN CHUNGKING AND THE REEKS OF THE SWILL, AND THE BOW-LEGGED SZECHUAN WENCHES.

MAR 1948

IN NEITHER THE CONDENSED NOR THE FORTHCOMING BOOK VERSION OF THE EDITED DIARIES DOES STILWELL DWELL MUCH ON MAJ.GEN.CLAIRE L.CHENNAULT, THE FAMOUS FIGHTING TIGER LEADER WHO HAS BLASTED AT STILWELL'S WARTIME ROLE IN CHINA IN HIS RECENT EFFORTS FOR AMERICAN AID.

WHITE SAYS ALL THE MENTIONS OF CHENNAULT INDICATE STILWELL REGARDED HIM AS A MINOR IRRITANT: AN AIR GENERAL WHO INHERENTLY COULD NEVER SEE EYE-TO-EYE WITH A FOOT SOLDIER LIKE STILWELL ON STRATEGY OR TACTICS. CHENNAULT WIELDED AN INFLUENCE ON THE POWERFUL SOONG SISTERS AND THEIR BROTHER, T.V., AND THROUGH THEM ON CHIANG.

CHENNAULT CONTENDED AN AIR WAR COULD DEFEAT THE JAPANESE IN CHINA AND CHIANG AGREED; STILWELL CONTENDED ALL ALONG THAT THE FORWARD AMERICAN AIR BASES CENTERED ON KWEILIN WOULD HAVE TO BE DEFENDED BY CHINESE GROUND FORCES OR THE JAPANESE WOULD SWALLOW THEM UP. EVENTUALLY THESE GREAT INSTALLATIONS HAD TO BE BLOWN UP TO KEEP THEM OUT OF JAPANESE HANDS BUT NOT BEFORE CHENNAULT'S 14TH U.S. ARMY AIR FORCE HAD MADE MANY VITAL BLOWS ON JAPANESE SHIPPING AND OTHER ENEMY MATERIEL.

AT THE END, AFTER STILWELL HAD BEEN KICKED OUT OF CHINA AS THE RESULT OF ONE OF THE WAR'S GREATEST INTRIGUES, HE SWALLOWED HIS BITTERNESS AND WROTE:

"THE PERSONAL EXPERIENCE OF AN INDIVIDUAL FADES INTO INSIGNIFICANCE IN THE ENORMOUS SCOPE AND RAMIFICATIONS OF WAR, ESPECIALLY IF THERE IS A GRIEVANCE CONNECTED WITH IT. AND WHEN THE GENERAL RESULT IS SUCCESS WHO CARES ABOUT THE SQUAWKS OF THE DISGRUNTLED. IF A MAN CAN SAY HE DID NOT LET HIS COUNTRY DOWN AND IF HE CAN LIVE WITH HIMSELF THERE IS NOTHING MORE HE CAN REASONABLY ASK FOR."

HIS FRIENDS FEEL THIS INDICATES STILWELL BELIEVED THAT DESPITE ALL THE BATTLES IN THE POLITICAL ARENAS OUTSIDE THE NORMAL RANGE OF AN OLD FOOT SOLDIER HE HAD ACCOMPLISHED HIS MISSION: CHINA STAYED IN THE WAR TO THE END AGAINST THE JAPANESE.

STILWELL SEPARATE (175)

(ADVANCE) NEW YORK, MARCH 31-(AP)-GENERAL STILWELL, WHO HAD SOME PET NAMES PINNED ON HIM DURING THE WAR, WAS A NAME-CALLER HIMSELF.

IN HIS DAIRIES PUBLISHED IN THE APRIL LADIES' HOME JOURNAL WERE THESE HE APPLIED TO OTHERS:

CHIANG KAI-SHEK: BIG BOY, PEANUT, THE ALL WISE, THE RATTLESNAKE.

STALIN: BLOODY JOE.

MADAME CHIANG KAI-SHEK: MAY, SNOW WHITE, MADAME EMPRESS.

LORD WAVELL: MOST HIGH.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT: WORLD'S GREATEST STRATEGIST, OUR BIG BOY, OLD SOFTY.

ADMIRAL LORD LOUIS MOUNTBATTEN: DICKY, SUPREME.

STILWELL ACKNOWLEDGED THE NAME VINEGAR JOE FOR HIMSELF ONLY ONCE IN THE PUBLISHED DIARIES AND LETTERS TO HIS WIFE. JUST BEFORE HE WAS FIRED BY CHIANG HE WROTE MRS.STILWELL: "I AM GETTING SOUR ENOUGH ABOUT THIS PUSILLANIMOUS PROCEEDING TO WARRANT BEING CALLED VINEGAR JOE. X X I AM JUST SCRIBBLING TO KEEP FROM BITING THE RADIATOR."

MAR 1948

AMERICAN GIS CALLED STILWELL UNCLE JOE OR THE OLD MAN.

TO HIS CHINESE FOOT SOLDIERS HE WAS LAO HSIEN-SHENG (OLD TEACHER).

UNITED NATIONS

BY LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 31-(AP)-BARRING A RUSSIAN VETO, THE UNITED STATES PROPOSAL FOR A SPECIAL PALESTINE SESSION OF THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY TODAY APPEARED HEADED FOR ACCEPTANCE.

ONE SMALL POWER DELEGATE SAID HE IS CONVINCED THE ASSEMBLY IDEA WILL GET THE NECESSARY SEVEN AFFIRMATIVE VOTES IN THE 11-NATION SECURITY COUNCIL. WHETHER THE SOVIET UNION WILL VETO IT IS ANOTHER MATTER.

IF RUSSIA DOES, THE U.S.COULD, AND PROBABLY WILL, HAVE THE 57 MEMBER NATIONS POLLED TO HAVE A SPECIAL SESSION CALLED BY A SIMPLE MAJORITY OF 29. THE VETO DOES NOT APPLY IN THIS METHOD.

THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED ABRUPTLY YESTERDAY AFTER HEARING AMERICAN DELEGATE WARREN R.AUSTIN AND SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI A. GROMYKO. ITS NEXT MEETING ON PALESTINE IS SET FOR TOMORROW AFTERNOON. AT THAT TIME VOTES MAY BE TAKEN ON AMERICAN APPEALS FOR A TRUCE IN THE HOLY LAND AND THE SPECIAL ASSEMBLY.

GROMYKO LOOSED A BLISTERING ATTACK ON THE UNITED STATES, ACCUSING WASHINGTON OF SACRIFICING THE U.N. PARTITION PROJECT FOR OIL AND STRATEGIC MILITARY INTERESTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST. HE SAID IT HAD NOT BEEN PROVEN, AS HELD BY AUSTIN, THAT PARTITION COULD NOT BE PUT THROUGH BY PEACEFUL MEANS.

THE STINGING SOVIET SPEECH MARKED A FORMAL BREAK IN THE RARE PREVIOUS AMERICAN-RUSSIAN AGREEMENT ON PALESTINE. LAST NOV.29, THE TWO GREAT POWERS SUPPORTED THE PLAN TO PARTITION THE HOLY LAND INTO INDEPENDENT JEWISH AND ARAB NATIONS EFFECTIVE OCT.1, 1948.

RUSSIA IS STICKING TO THAT DECISION. THE UNITED STATES IS ASKING THE SPECIAL ASSEMBLY TO SHELVE PARTITION AND CONSIDER INSTEAD AN INTERIM U.N. TRUSTEESHIP. THE ULTIMATE SETTLEMENT OF PALESTINE'S POLITICAL FUTURE SHOULD BE LEFT OPEN, THE UNITED STATES SAYS, WITH PARTITION A POSSIBILITY.

THE MOSCOW RADIO, HEARD IN LONDON, CHARGED THAT THE AMERICAN ATTEMPT TO SUBSTITUTE TRUSTEESHIP FOR PARTITION "IS ANOTHER PROOF THAT FOR THE AMERICAN RULERS INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS ARE NOTHING BUT SCRAPS OF PAPER." THE BROADCAST SAID THAT TO SCRAP PARTITION WOULD BE TO MENACE THE PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

AUSTIN NOTED THAT HIS RESOLUTION CALLING FOR THE ASSEMBLY DID NOT MENTION TRUSTEESHIP. HE SAID THIS WAS TO AVOID TIME-WASTING DEBATE IN THE COUNCIL AT THIS TIME ON THE MERITS OF TRUSTEESHIP. THE BRITISH HAVE ANNOUNCED THEY ARE GIVING UP THEIR MANDATE RULE IN PALESTINE MAY 15. THE U.N. MUST BE READY WITH SOME SOLUTION BY THEN.

A14 MAR 1948

LITTLE OPPOSITION WAS ANTICIPATED IN THE COUNCIL TO AUSTIN'S CALL FOR A TRUCE, OFFERED ON DIRECT ORDERS FROM PRESIDENT TRUMAN. TWO PREVIOUS U.N. CALLS FOR PEACE, HOWEVER, HAVE PROVEN INEFFECTIVE.

GROMYKO SPOKE 21 MINUTES YESTERDAY. HE MADE NO SUGGESTIONS AS TO HOW PARTITION COULD BE CARRIED OUT. DEVOTING MOST OF THE TIME TO ATTACKING THE UNITED STATES, HE SAID:

"THE FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE KILLING OF THE DECISION ON THE PARTITION OF PALESTINE RESTS ON THE UNITED STATES, WHICH, ACCORDING TO GENERAL OPINION, TAKES CARE NOT OF THE JUST SETTLEMENT OF THE QUESTION OF THE FUTURE OF PALESTINE AND THE RELATIONS BETWEEN ARABS AND JEWS, BUT OF THEIR OWN OIL INTERESTS AND THE MILITARY-STRATEGIC POSITIONS IN THE MIDDLE EAST."

(ADVANCE) LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 31-(AP)-CHILE TODAY ACCUSED RUSSIA OF BEING A BOLD AND IMPUDENT AGGRESSOR EMPLOYING CRUDE GANGSTERISM.

DELEGATE HERNAN SANTA CRUZ USED THIS BITTER LANGUAGE IN RENEWING HIS COUNTRY'S DEMAND THAT THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL INVESTIGATE THE SOVIET UNION'S ROLE IN THE COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

SANTA CRUZ TOLD THE COUNCIL IT IS TIME TO REPLY TO THE "INSOLENT EXPRESSIONS" OF SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI A.GROMYKO. LAST WEEK GROMYKO CALLED THE CHILEAN INQUIRY DEMAND A DIRTY DOCUMENT AND TERMED THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT A VENAL CLIQUE.

THE CHILEAN DELEGATE SAID LOW AND VILE INSULTS WOULD NOT ALTER HIS GOVERNMENT'S DETERMINATION TO PRESS FOR THE INQUIRY. HE SUGGESTED THAT THE COUNCIL IMMEDIATELY NAME A SUB-COMMITTEE TO START A PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION.

SANTA CRUZ SAID RUSSIA IS USING THE UNITED NATIONS AS A LOUDSPEAKER TO BROADCAST PROPAGANDA AGAINST THE DEMOCRATIC WORLD.

HE TOLD THE 11-NATION COUNCIL CHILE HAD SUFFERED FROM AN ATTEMPT BY THE SOVIET UNION TO CARRY OUT "ITS COLOSSAL AND SINISTER PLAN OF UNIVERSAL DOMINATION AND DESTRUCTION OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION" THROUGH COMMUNIST PARTY FIFTH COLUMNS. HE ADDED THAT DESPITE THE COMMUNIST MANEUVERS CHILE HAD MANAGED TO DEFEND HERSELF WITHOUT RESORT TO UNDEMOCRATIC TACTICS.

CHILE BROKE OFF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA LAST OCTOBER.

SANTA CRUZ SAID HE HAD THE NAMES OF SIX HIGHLY QUALIFIED CZECHS WHO HAD ESCAPED FROM THEIR HOMELAND AND WERE READY TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE COUNCIL OR ANY OTHER U.N. ORGAN SET UP TO INVESTIGATE THE COMMUNIST GRAB OF POWER IN PRAGUE LAST MONTH. MAR 1948 (ADVANCE)-LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 31-(AP)-CHINA PROPOSED TODAY THAT KEY FIGURES IN THE CZECHOSLOVAK COMMUNIST COUP BE CALLED HERE TO GIVE THE UNITED NATIONS THE INSIDE STORY.

THE CHINESE VOICED A HOPE THAT RUSSIA WOULD JOIN IN SUCH AN INQUIRY.

CHINESE DELEGATE T.F.TSIANG DID NOT MENTION CZECHOSLOVAK PRESIDENT EDUARD BENES BY NAME, BUT IT WAS CLEAR THAT HE WOULD BE INCLUDED AMONG "THE MEN MOST DIRECTLY INVOLVED" WHOM CHINA WOULD SUMMON AS WITNESSES.

TSIANG TOLD THE SECURITY COUNCIL HE WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE COUP "THOROUGHLY STUDIED AND INVESTIGATED." HE ADDED:

"I WOULD FAVOR THE COUNCIL INVITING THE MEN MOST DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN RECENT EVENTS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA TO COME HERE AND GIVE US THEIR FIRST-HAND INFORMATION."

TSIANG'S HOPE FOR SOVIET COOPERATION WAS INTERPRETED AS AN APPEAL

TO RUSSIA NOT TO INVOKE THE VETO TO BLOCK A COUNCIL INQUIRY.
THE CHINESE DELEGATE, WHO RETIRES TODAY AS COUNCIL PRESIDENT AFTER CHINA'S MONTH IN THE CHAIR, SPOKE AFTER CHILEAN DELEGATE HERNAN SANTA CRUZ HAD SUGGESTED THAT THE COUNCIL SET UP A SUB-COMMITTEE TO CONDUCT A THOROUGH PROBE OF RUSSIA'S ROLE IN THE CZECHOSLOVAK COUP.
IN A SLASHING ATTACK, SANTA CRUZ ACCUSED RUSSIA OF BEING A BOLD AND IMPUDENT AGGRESSOR EMPLOYING CRUDE GANGSTERISM.

U.N.-PICKETS (260)
LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 31-(AP)-COSTUMED "COWBOYS" AND CAB DRIVERS FROM NEW YORK PICKETED UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS TODAY IN RESPONSE TO A WRANGLE STARTED LAST WEEK BY RUSSIA'S ANDREI A. GROMYKO.
AT LAST WEEK'S SECURITY COUNCIL SESSION HERE ON THE CZECHOSLOVAK COMMUNIST COUP, GROMYKO ACCUSED THE UNITED STATES OF INTERFERING IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF FRANCE AND ITALY. HE SAID THEN THAT "EVERY COWBOY X X X AND EVERY DOORMAN IN A NEW YORK HOTEL WILL TELL YOU ABOUT IT."
THE REFERENCE TO TAXI DRIVERS WAS MADE LATER IN THE MEETING BY U.S. DELEGATE WARREN R.AUSTIN. HE SAID GROMYKO'S REMARK WAS A GREAT COMPLIMENT TO U.S. DEMOCRACY AND THAT TAXI DRIVERS, DOORMEN AND COWBOYS COULD HAVE KNOWLEDGE OF THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF THEIR COUNTRY.
SOME OF THE TAXI DRIVER PICKETS CARRIED SIGNS WHICH READ: "YOU ARE A LIAR GROMYKO-- SAYS THIS CABBIE."
PAT MCCLARNEY, OF AMARILLO, TEX., A NEW YORK SECRETARY WEARING A COWGIRL OUTFIT, CARRIED A SIGN WHICH READ: "ASK ME, MR. GROMYKO." ASKED WHY SHE WAS PICKETING, MISS MCCLARNEY SAID: "BECAUSE THIS IS IMPORTANT."
PICKETS DRESSED IN COWBOY SUITS CARRIED SING S WHICH READ: "ASK US COWBOYS-- WE WILL TELL YOU."
ONE OF THEM, EDDIE HANSON OF BILLINGS, MONT., SAID HE ONCE WORKED FOR BUFFALO BILL.
THE MIXED GROUP OF 17 ARRIVED AN HOUR BEFORE THE SECURITY COUNCIL MET FOR ANOTHER DEBATE ON THE CHILEAN DEMAND FOR AN INVESTIGATION OF RUSSIA'S ROLE IN THE PRAGUE COUP.
THE PICKETS WERE LED BY JACK J.JACKMAN, (1285 WESTCHESTER AVE., THE BRONX) ACTING PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED TAXICAB COUNCIL OF GREATER NEW YORK. JACKMAN SAID THE GROUP ALSO REPRESENTED THE LEAGUE OF MUTUAL TAXI OWNERS WHICH CLAIMS A MEMBERSHIP OF 2,000 INCLUDING 350 WAR VETERANS.
ASKED WHY HE HAD ORGANIZED THE PICKET LINE, JACKMAN SAID: "WE ARE PROTESTING AGAINST GROMYKO BECAUSE HE IS TRYING TO MAKE PEOPLE BELIEVE WE APPROVE OF HIS VIEWS."

TOMORROW THE SECURITY COUNCIL WILL MEET AGAIN WITH PROSPECTS OF REACHING A VOTE ON AN AMERICAN PROPOSAL TO CALL A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE ASSEMBLY TO CONSIDER SUBSTITUTING AN INTERIM U.N. TRUSTEESHIP FOR PALESTINE.

(ADVANCE) SINGAPORE, MARCH 29-(AP)-SUGAR PLANTERS IN THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES STILL HAVE A "VERY GOOD CHANCE," TO RECAPTURE THEIR POSITION IN THE WORLD'S SUGAR MARKETS, SAYS THE ECONOMIC REVIEW OF INDONESIA.

THE MAGAZINE SAYS ITS OPINION IS BASED ON THE PRESENT WORLD SUGAR SHORTAGE AND THE ASSUMPTION THAT THIS SHORTAGE WILL PREVAIL FOR SOME YEARS TO COME.

BY 1950, IT ESTIMATES THAT INDONESIA'S THREE MAJOR SUGAR PRODUCING AREAS WILL HAVE BEEN RESTORED TO OVER 50 PER CENT OF THEIR COMBINED PRE-WAR CAPACITY.

THE ECONOMIC REVIEW POINTS OUT, THAT WHILE THIS FIGURE MAY NOT SOUND IMPRESSIVE, EVEN PARTIAL RESTORATION OF THE SUGAR INDUSTRY WILL BRING TO INDONESIA MUCH BADLY NEEDED FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

BEFORE THE WAR SUGAR RANKED SECOND ONLY TO RUBBER IN THE N.E.I. IN EXPORT VALUE. FROM JAVA ALONE IT CONTRIBUTED TO THE NATIONAL ECONOMY MORE THAN U.S. $27,000,000.

MAR 1948

BECAUSE SUGAR IS A VITAL PART OF INDONESIA'S ECONOMY, THE GOVERNMENT IS DOING WHAT IT CAN TO HELP GET PRODUCERS, BOTH LARGE AND SMALL, BACK IN OPERATION. THE ECONOMIC REVIEW, AN OFFICIAL DUTCH PUBLICATION, EMPHASIZES, HOWEVER, THAT THE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT

30.24- 16667

INTEND TO ACTIVELY PARTICIPATE IN THE SUGAR INDUSTRY AND "IT IS MAINLY THE YIELD OF THE FOREIGN EXCHANGE THAT INSPIRES IT WITH THE THOUGHT OF A GENERAL RECUPERATION."

SUGAR PRODUCERS SUFFERED GREAT LOSSES DURING THE WAR AND ACCORDING TO THE ECONOMIC REVIEW EVEN GREATER LOSSES DURING THE RECENT DUTCH INDONESIAN CONFLICT. "THE LOSS IN WORKING CAPITAL ALONE DURING THAT PERIOD AMOUNTED TO 75 MILLION GUILDERS (APPROXIMATELY $39,000,000).

THE PRICE OF REHABILITATION WILL BE HIGH. THE ECONOMIC REVIEW ESTIMATES THE COST OF COMPLETELY REBUILDING A MEDIUM SIZED SUGAR MILL AT ABOUT U.S. $5,000,000. AND, IT ADDS, SUCH INSTALLATIONS MUST, IN MOST CASES BE OBTAINED FROM FOREIGN SOURCES.

FOR THIS, FOREIGN EXCHANGE IS NECESSARY, THE MAGAZINE SAYS. THE GOVERNMENT HAS ALLOCATED FOREIGN EXCHANGE TO PRODUCERS ON THE BASIS OF THESE POINTS:

1. WHAT WILL BE THE FUTURE INCOME IN FOREIGN EXCHANGE IN RELATION TO THE PRESENT OUTLAY OF SUCH EXCHANGE BY THE GOVERNMENT? THE GREATER THIS YIELD, THE LARGER THE AMOUNT OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE GRANTED.

2. WHAT IS THE SHORTEST PERIOD WITHIN WHICH SUCH FOREIGN EXCHANGE CAN BE RECOVERED?

MAR 1948

3. WHAT ARE THE INTERESTS OF THE PRODUCER'S LOCALITY AND ITS POPULATION? (IS IT WISE TO CONTINUE SUGAR CULTIVATION IN THAT PARTICULAR AREA?)

ASIDE FROM GRANTING FOREIGN EXCHANGE THE GOVERNMENT HAS UNDERTAKEN TO PROTEST SUGAR GROWER FROM INTERNAL DISORDERS. IT WAS TOWARD THIS END, AND FOR THE PROTECTION OF OTHER SUCH INDUSTRIES, STATES THE ECONOMIC REVIEW, THAT LAST SUMMER'S DUTCH "POLICE ACTION" WAS INITIATED.

THE INVESTOR MUST BE SURE THAT HIS INVESTMENT IS NOT ENDANGERED BY ABNORMAL RISKS THAT MIGHT PREVAIL WITH REFERENCE TO THE LABOR SUPPLY, THE ACQUISITION OF THE SOIL, OR THE OBTAINING OF THE IRRIGATION FLOW, LEST THE REWARD ACCRUING TO HIM FOR THE TROUBLE HE HAS ENGAGED IN, PROVES TO BE MERELY AN ILLUSION, SAYS THE MAGAZINE.

WHILE THE NETHERLANDS SUGAR INDUSTRY SUFFERED GREATLY DURING AND AFTER THE WAR AND HAS A LONG WAY TO GO TOWARD REHABILITATION, THE DUTCH FEEL THAT COMPARATIVELY THEY ARE IN NO WORSE POSITION THAN THE PHILIPPINES AND FORMOSA, THE ONLY OTHER MAJOR PRODUCERS IN THE PACIFIC. THEY FEEL THAT THE NUTURE POSITION OF INDONESIA IN THE SUGAR MARKETS WILL PROBABLY BE DETERMINED BY TH OUTCOME OF THE REHABILIATIMN RACE WITH THOSE TWO COUNTRIES.
